SCOUTING THE COMMODORES

The Vanderbilt women's basketball team (18-9, 8-6 SEC) looks to cap its home schedule with a win over Auburn and go 12-2 at home on the year. The Commodores are led into the game by reigning ESPNW National Player of the Week, Tiffany Clarke. Clarke is averaging 16.4 points per game and coming off a 30-point performance in Vanderbilt's 61-51 upset of No. 10/13 Texas A&M on Sunday. The senior forward also earned SEC Player of the Week honors last week, adding a 26-point performance in a win at Florida last Thursday. Likely joining Clarke in the starting lineup will be the team's other two seniors, Elan Brown and Gabby Smith. Brown is averaging 6.5 points and 5.8 rebounds per game, while Smith is posting 1.8 points and 1.2 rebounds per outing. Junior Jasmine Lister will run the point. The guard is averaging 12.0 points and 5.6 assists per game. Lister has averaged 17.3 points per game over the last four contests (all played without junior guard Christina Foggie, who averages 15.7 points per game). Expected to round out the starting five is freshman forward Heather Bowe. The Eau Claire, Wis., native has started nine games during her rookie campaign, averaging 6.5 points and 4.4 rebounds per game. First off the bench will be freshman guards Jasmine Jenkins and Morgan Batey and freshman forwards Kendall Shaw and Rayte'a Long. Foggie and sophomore guard Kady Schrann remain day-to-day with knee and ankle injuries, respectively.

SCOUTING THE TIGERS

Auburn travels to West End with a 15-12 mark (4-10 SEC) under first-year Head Coach Terri Flournoy-Williams. The Tigers are led in scoring by Hasina Muhammad at 15.3 points per outing, while Tyrese Tanner contributes 12.7 points and Blanche Alverson adds 12.2 points per game. Alverson is also the team's leading rebounder at 6.0 boards per contest. Running the point is 5-1 guard Najat Ouardad, who's 6.1 assists per game lead the SEC. Completing the starting five most the season has been Peyton Davis, who averages 6.2 points and 5.4 rebounds per game. After losing eight-straight games, the Tigers have won two of their last three - a 70-53 win over rival Auburn, an 83-61 loss at Tennessee and a 67-59 win over Missouri.

THE SERIES - VANDERBILT VS. AUBURN

The Commodores and Tigers will be meeting for the 43rd time on Thursday night, with Vanderbilt holing a 26-16 edge in the series. The teams first met in 1978 in Starkeville and have met at least one a season since 1980-81. Auburn won 16 of the first 23 contests through the 1999-2000 season, but Vanderbilt has won every game since. The Commodores' 19-game winning streak against Auburn is the longest active streak against any opponent. The teams met twice last year, with Vanderbilt winning 66-58 at Memorial Gym and 66-61 at Auburn Arena.

END OF THE ROAD

Vanderbilt women's basketball will honor its three seniors both prior to and at the conclusion of their final home game at Memorial Gym on Thursday Night. Elan Brown, Tiffany Clarke and Gabby Smith will be honored approximately 20 minutes prior to the start of the game with Auburn. The group has won 84 games over the past four years, reaching the NCAA Tournament each of the past three seasons. Combined, they have played in over 350 games and scored 2,250 points. All three will graduate in May, keeping Head Coach Melanie Balcomb's graduation rate of four-year players at 100%.

WATCHING AT HOME

The game begins at 4:00 p.m. and can be seen on CSS and ESPN3. Matt Stewart and Joe Ciampi will have the call. On the radio, the game can be heard on WNRS 560 AM, with Joe Fisher filling in for Charlie Mattos.

ON DECK - GEORGIA

Vanderbilt conclude the 2012-13 regular season at No. 11/11 Georgia. Tipoff is set for 12:30 p.m. CT and the game can be seen on ESPNU.

LAST TIME OUT

The Vanderbilt women's basketball team sealed arguably their biggest win of the season so far at Memorial Gymnasium on Sunday, defeating No. 10/13 Texas A&M, 61-51. With the win, Vanderbilt rises to 18-9, 8-6 in SEC play, while the Aggies fell to 21-7 and 11-3 in league action. Vanderbilt had not defeated an AP Top-10 opponent since January 14, 2010, when the Dores routed sixth-ranked Georgia, 66-44. The Commodores rallied around Tiffany Clarke, who scored a career-high 30 points on the game with seven rebounds. The last time a Commodore scored 30 points in a game was over a year ago, when Christina Foggie dropped 34 against 17-ranked Georgia on January 26, 2012. Elan Brown scored 12 points for Vandy, 10 of which came in the first half. Jasmine Lister contributed 11, while Jasmine Jenkins and Heather Bowe each scored four. Morgan Batey led all players with 11 rebounds on the game. For Texas A&M, Kelsey Bone led with 17 points, while Kristi Bellock added a double-double performance with 12 points and 10 rebounds. Courtney Walker scored nine points, Adrienne Pratcher had seven and Courtney Williams and Karla Gilbert added four and two points. Vandy came out strong from the start, going up 7-2 at the 16:21 mark in the first half after a Lister three-pointer. Action went back and forth for much of the first half, but a rousing three-pointer by Brown put the Commodores up 16-13 with five minutes remaining. At that point, Vandy never looked back. Stout Vanderbilt defense forced the Aggies to miss 10 of their last 11 shots going into halftime, at which point Vanderbilt held at 25-20 lead. The second half featured a show from Clarke, who scored 22 of her 30 points after the break, including eight of Vanderbilt's first 10 in the period. Texas A&M was able to keep the score within reach for much of the second half. While Bone struggled offensively, adding only five points, Bellock scored all 12 of her points in the second period. The Aggies cut the lead to three, 47-44, at the 6:52 mark, but Vandy was able to end the threat quickly with a steal by Batey, followed by a three-pointer by Lister on the ensuing possession. Vanderbilt never looked back and won by a final margin of 61-51 Vanderbilt shot 41% on the game to Texas A&M's 31%, including 45% from three-point range and 67% from the line. With this win, head coach Melanie Balcomb ties Jim Foster for most wins in program history with 256.

BALCOMB BALL

Head Coach Melanie Balcomb has averaged 23 wins per season during her decade on West End. With that pace, she now stands tied with 2013 Women's Basketball Hall of Fame Inductee Jim Foster for the most wins in Vanderbilt women's basketball history at 256. Balcomb will look to become the program's all-time winningest coach on Thursday night against Auburn.

HOME COOKING

The Commodores have been tough to beat at Memorial Gym, posting an 11-2 record this season with losses coming to No. 9/9 Tennessee and No. 10/8 Kentucky. Vanderbilt has won 28 of the last 31 regular season home games at Memorial, as well as 29 of the last 33 contests counting the 2011 NCAA Tournament. The four losses since the start of the 2011-12 season have come to South Carolina, Duke (second round of the NCAA Tournament), Tennessee and Kentucky.

COMMODORES VS. TOP 25

Vanderbilt improved to 2-5 on the season against ranked teams last Sunday with a win over No. 10/13 Texas A&M. The Commodores aso have a win over then-No. 12/13 Oklahoma before losses to No. 18/19 South Carolina, No. 9/9 Tennessee, No. 16/16 Texas A&M, No. 10/8 Kentucky and No. 12/10 Tennessee. Vanderbilt has one ranked foe left on the schedule this year, as the Commodores play at No. 11/11 Georgia.

CLARKE IN THE SPOTLIGHT

After a pair of stellar performances to help Vanderbilt to a pair of wins last week at Florida and vs. No. 10/13 Texas A&M, senior forward Tiffany Clarke received her due. The Duluth, Ga., native opened the week by scoring 26 points, grabbing seven rebounds and blocking four shots to help Vanderbilt win at Florida, 68-57. She followed that up by scoring a career-high 30 points to lead the Commodores to an upset of No. 10/13 Texas A&M. Clarke added seven rebounds against the Aggies. Clarke was also big on the defensive end in both games. She held Florida's Jennifer George to 13 points, while limiting Texas A&M's Kelsey Bone, who entered the game leading the SEC in field goal percentage, to just 33.3% from the floor. Clarke became the first Vanderbilt player to earn the ESPNW Player of the Week award, while also picking-up VU's first SEC designation since January 30 of last year when Christina Foggie won Player of the Week and Kady Schrann won Freshman of the Week.

BIT BY THE BUG

Vanderbilt continues to cope with injuries that have been plaguing the team all season, with the most recent being a knee injury to Christina Foggie suffered against Kentucky. The team's leading scorer has missed the last four games, during which Vanderbilt has gone 3-1. In addition, sophomore guard Kady Schrann has missed four games and not played more than 12 minutes in a contest since January 24 due to an ankle injury. The Commodores lost reserve center Clair Watkins to a knee injury prior to the Tennessee game on January 24 and have played all season without Stephanie Holzer (knee) and Kristen Gaffney (knee). Entering the season, Vanderbilt returned 97.6% of it's scoring, but Foggie, Schrann and Holzer contributed nearly half that number (49.4%).

MIXING IT UP

Through 27 games this season, Head Coach Melanie Balcomb has used six different starting lineups, one more than she did all of last season. The most common lineup this season is Jasmine Lister, Christina Foggie, Kady Schrann, Elan Brown and Tiffany Clarke. The quintet is 11-4 as starters this season. At No. 16/16 Texas A&M, Balcomb changed her lineup for the first time in nine games, sliding Heather Bowe in for Kady Schrann. Injury to Christina Foggie in the Kentucky game necessitated another change, creating a starting five of Bowe, Lister, Brown, Gabby Smith and Clarke that has been used the last four contests and is 3-1.

1,000 X 3

With Jasmine Lister hitting 1,000 points at LSU, she became the third player this season to reach the 1,000-point plateau, joining Tiffany Clarke and Christina Foggie. It marks just the second time in the 36-year history of Vanderbilt women's basketball that more than two players joined the club in the same season. The only other time was 20 years ago in the 1992-93 Final Four season when Heidi Gillingham, Julie Powell, Misty Lamb and Shelley Jarrard all hit the mark.

LISTER HITS 1,000

In the first half of the game at LSU, Jasmine Lister became the 36th player in Vanderbilt history, and third this season, to hit 1,000 career points when she connected from three with 9:53 to play in the first half. She now has 1,115 career points and is 27th in program history. Lister is currently six points behind Christina Foggie for 26th all-time.

FOGGIE HITS 1,000

With nine points at No. 18/16 South Carolina, Christina Foggie became the 35th player in Vanderbilt history to reach 1,000 points. Foggie now stands at 1,121 points, 26th all-time. Next in Foggie's radar is Jence Rhoads at 1,132 points.

CLARKE HITS 1,000

With 22 points against Hartford on December 6, senior forward Tiffany Clarke became the 34 player in Vanderbilt history with 1,000 career points. The Duluth, Ga., native now has 1,310 points, 20th in program history. Next on her radar is Merideth Marsh at 1,332 points. Clarke is guaranteed at least three games left in the black and gold (two regular season plus the SEC Tournament) and at her current average would finish with 1,359 points, 18th all-time.

WHAT CAN BROWN DO FOR YOU?

Senior Elan Brown is one of the players whose true impact does not show up on the stat sheet. She is one of just three Vanderbilt players to have started all 27 games this season and averages 6.5 points and 5.8 rebounds per game, in addition to 1.9 assists and 1.3 steals per game. Perhaps the best measure of Brown's impact is her plus/minus rating, which measures Vanderbilt's scoring differential when she is on the floor. Brown's rating is +8.33, third on the team behind Kady Schrann (+8.64) and Tiffany Clarke (+8.63).

CLARKE SHOOTING FOR THE STARS

Senior forward Tiffany Clarke has connected for 172 field goals on 319 attempts this season, good for a .539 shooting percentage which is third in the Southeastern Conference. In addition, her mark of .539 at the last NCAA national update on February 27 is 23rd in the nation. Off that shooting, Clarke is averaging 16.4 points per outing this season, first on the team and fourth in the league. In her 30-point outing against No.

STARTING THEM EARLY

Head Coach Melanie Balcomb has always shown a willingness to play freshmen early if they earn the minutes. Freshman forwards Heather Bowe, Kendall Shaw and Rayte'a Long have seen action in most of Vanderbilt's games this season, with Bowe starting nine games. Bowe is posting 6.5 points and 4.5 rebounds per game. Shaw has contributed 3.3 points and 2.0 boards, while Long is adding 1.5 points and 1.5 rebounds per outing. The rookie trio became even more important with the loss of center Stephanie Holzer for the season, as they are trying to replace Holzer's 11.0 points and 7.5 rebounds per game. Bowe, Shaw and Long are holding their own, averaging 11.3 points and 8.0 rebounds per game, combined.

LET'S GO STREAKING

As tends to be the case during a winning streak, almost every Vanderbilt statistic improved during the team's nine-game streak earlier this year, which has followed a 3-3 start. A glance at some of the statistics Vanderbilt improved in:

	First 6 Games	9-game streak	Difference
Field Goal Pct.	39.4%	49.3%	9.9%
3-Point Pct.	31.9%	42.0%	10.2%
Defensive Scoring	64.5 ppg	51.0 ppg	13.5 ppg

SHUTTING THEM DOWN

In Vanderbilt's 67-36 win over Austin Peay, second half defense was the big difference maker. The Commodores held the Lady Govs to nine points in the period, including 3-28 from the field and 1-10 from three-point range. The nine points marked the lowest output in a half for a Vanderbilt opponent since November 22, 2005. On that date, the Commodores held Alabama A&M to eight first half points en route to an 80-29 win. In addition, Vanderbilt held the Lady Govs to just 13-56 from the field, good for 23.2%. That marks the lowest field goal percentage for an opponent since December 21, 2008, when UT Martin was held to 17.6% (9-51) from the field in an 86-29 Commodore victory.

FEW AND FAR BETWEEN

After the Commodores snapped a three-game losing streak against Austin Peay, it is important to note such streaks under Melanie Balcomb have been few and far between. On just four occasions in her 10-plus seasons in Nashville have the Commodores lost three or more consecutive outings. The most recent instance came last year, when they lost at Tennessee, at Arkansas and to South Carolina in overtime. That team went on to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Prior to that, Vanderbilt had not lost three-in-a-row since 2005-06. They also dropped three straight in 2004-05, with that team going on to the Sweet 16. The longest losing streak came in 2003-04, when the Commodores dropped four-straight games before advancing to the Sweet 16.

A NEW WAY TO GIVE THANKS

For the first time since 1998-99, Vanderbilt did not host a Thanksgiving Tournament at Memorial Gym. Instead, the Commodores will head to the San Juan Shootout in San Juan, Puerto Rico, to take on Virginia and Florida State. It marks the first time since 1989-90 there will not be an in-season tournament at Memorial Gym.

CLARKE'S GOT CLASS

Senior forward Tiffany Clarke was one of 30 players nationwide nominated for the Senior CLASS Award. An acronym for Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School, the Senior CLASS Award focuses on the total student-athelte and encourages students to use their platform in athletics to make a positive impact as leaders in their communities. Clarke was not among the list of 10 finalists that was announced on February 6. For more information, visit seniorCLASSaward.com.

HOLZER OUT FOR SEASON

While the Commodores did win their exhibition game against Alabama-Huntsville, 81-53, they did suffer a pretty big loss. Redshirt junior center Stephanie Holzer will miss the entire 2012-13 campaign after suffering

THE STANDARD MAINTAINED

Vanderbilt women's basketball, one of the top-20 winningest programs of all time, maintained that winning standard during the 2011-12 season. Under 10th-year Head Coach Melanie Balcomb, the Commodores won 20-plus games for the 26th time and received their 25th NCAA Tournament bid, going 23-10 and earning an at-large bid and a seven seed in the Fresno Region. During Balcomb's 10 seasons at the helm on West End, Vanderbilt has won 20 games and advanced to the NCAA Tournament each year. With their first round NCAA win over 10th-seeded Middle Tennessee, the Commodores have also won at least one NCAA Tournament game in nine of the 10 seasons under Balcomb.

THE TOURNAMENT STANDARD

The 2011-12 season saw Vanderbilt make the NCAA Tournament for the 25th time and 13th-in-a-row. The Commodores have posted a 38-25 (.603) mark in the tournament and won at least one game in each tournament during 12 of the last 13 appearances. Vanderbilt has made 14 appearances in the Sweet 16, including six in the last 12 seasons. The Commodores have one Final Four appearance (1993).

THAT WOULD MAKE A BAKER'S DOZEN

Vanderbilt is one of eight programs to have made the last 13 NCAA Tournaments. The Commodores are joined by Connecticut, Duke, Georgia, Notre Dame, Oklahoma, Stanford and Tennessee as the only programs to have earned bids each of the last 13 seasons.

FOGGIE WINS SEC SCORING TITLE

For the first time since 1991, Vanderbilt boasted the top scorer in the Southeastern Conference. Sophomore guard Christina Foggie led the league with 17.9 points per game at the conclusion of the regular season, as well as a conference-best 18.0 points per contest during SEC games. Foggie received WBCA All-Region honors and was a First Team All-SEC selection by the league's coaches and the Associated Press. She had 12 20-point performances on the season and led Vanderbilt in scoring during 16 contests on the season. The highlights included a career-high 34 points in a 68-48 upset of No. 17/15 Georgia and 22 points in a 93-79 win over No. 11/11 Tennessee. Foggie became just the second Vanderbilt player to win the SEC scoring title, joining Wendy Scholtens, who won three league scoring titles (1989, '90 and '91).

VANDERBILT IN THE NCAA TOURNAMENT

Vanderbilt made its 25th appearance in the NCAA Tournament and 13th-consecutive. All-time, Vanderbilt is 38-25 in NCAA play, following a first round win over Middle Tennessee and a second round loss to Duke. It marked the 11th time in 12 seasons the Commodores won at least one game in the Tournament. Vanderbilt has made 14 Sweet 16 appearances, including six over the last 11 seasons (last in 2009). The last Elite Eight trip came in 2002, while Vanderbilt's lone Final Four appearance was in 1993. In first and second round contests, Vanderbilt is 32-11, while it is 16-2 in opening round games since the NCAA expanded the field to 64 teams in 1994.

VANDERBILT ATHLETICS UNMATCHED PAST TWO YEARS

With Vanderbilt's invitation to the Franklin American Mortgage Music City Bowl, the school concluded its second straight calendar year in which its baseball and men's and women's basketball teams played in the NCAA Tournament and its football team was invited to a bowl. In 2011, there were eight schools that accomplished this feat, and in 2012 there were just six. Vanderbilt is the only school to do it two years in a row. During the 2011-12 academic year, Vanderbilt was also one of just six schools nationally to finish with NCAA Tournament appearances in baseball and men's and women's basketball and in a bowl game.

VANDERBILT BASKETBALL IS EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

The Vanderbilt women's and men's basketball teams made their respective NCAA Tournament fields each of the last three seasons, something only accomplished by 10 NCAA Division I institutions. 2012 was the 10th time both teams made the NCAA Tournament, with both teams previously making the tournament in 1989, 1991, 1993, 1997, 2004, 2007, 2008, 2010 and 2011. The other nine schools to have both programs reach the NCAA Tournament over the last three seasons are Duke, Georgetown, Gonzaga, Kentucky, Michigan State, Notre Dame, Ohio State, Texas and West Virginia. In addition, with Christina Foggie capturing the women's SEC scoring title and Vanderbilt's John Jenkins doing the same on the men's side, it marked just the fourth time in SEC history the same school won both titles and first since 2006.

TOPS FROM FIELD & THREE

As is usually the case under Melanie Balcomb, Vanderbilt was one of the top teams in the nation from the field and from three-point range last season. The Commodores finished sixth in the nation after shooting 46.4% from the field (national champion Baylor led the nation at 48.8%). They matched the sixth-place ranking from three, posting a 37.2% mark from beyond the arc (Richmond led the country at 38.8%). All 10 teams Balcomb has coached at Vanderbilt have finished in the top-20 of the NCAA in field goal percentage. As a program, only Vanderbilt and Connecticut have finished that high every season since 2000.

NEW KIDS ON THE BLOCK

Vanderbilt Head Coach Melanie Balcomb and her coaching staff have put together one of the best recruiting classes in program history, with the three-player class earning top-15 national rankings from multiple recruiting services. All Star Girls Report ranks the class at No. 12 in the country, while Collegiate Girls Basketball Report ranks the class 13th nationally and third in the Southeastern Conference. BlueStar Report has the new crop of Commodores as the No. 15 class in the country. In addition, all three have been named nominees for the McDonald's High School All-America Game. A quick look at the newest Commodores:

★ REBEKAH DAHLMAN (Braham, Minn./Braham Area)

- ESPN HoopGurlz Rank – 16th (Five Stars/96); Guard: 4th
- 2013 McDonald's All-American (West Team)
- Minnesota record holder for career points (3,895)
- Reigning Minnesota Gatorade Player of the Year
- Averaged 35.3 points, 11.6 rebounds, 6.0 steals and 5.1 assists as a junior
- Led Braham Area to state title in 2011 and runner-up finish in 2010

★ MARQU'ES WEBB (Hoover, Ala./Hoover)

- ESPN HoopGurlz Rank – 21st (Four Stars/95); Forward:6th
- 2013 McDonald's All-America Game Nominee
- Has won two Alabama State Championships
- Led Hoover in scoring and rebounding, earning Miss Basketball nomination
- Led Brewbaker Tech to first-ever state title as a sophomore, while leading the nation in rebounding (18.8 per game)

★ KYLEE SMITH (Alpharetta, Ga./Alpharetta)

- ESPN HoopGurlz Rank – 62nd (Four Stars/93); Guard: 14th
- 2013 McDonald's All-America Game Nominee
- Alpharetta's career scoring leader (1,592 points)
- Averaged better than 17.0 points per game during all three seasons
- Named Regional Player of the Year as a junior after leading Alpharetta to second-straight Sweet 16 appearance and a 24-4 record

Melanie Balcomb

Head Coach
11th Season

The numbers say it all – 10 seasons, 10 NCAA Tournaments, 10 seasons of at least 20 wins. Vanderbilt women's basketball has been a model of consistency under Head Coach Melanie Balcomb. That's not to mention three SEC Tournament Championships, four Sweet 16 trips and eight top-25 finishes over a decade in Nashville.

Since arriving in 2002, Balcomb has posted a 238-94 (.717) record at Vanderbilt, averaging 23.8 wins per season. Should she match that pace in season 11, Balcomb will become the winningest coach in program history (Jim Foster, 256-99 in 11 season). Balcomb was the fastest in program history to reach 200 wins, reaching that mark in five fewer games than Foster.

Balcomb is one of just eight coaches in the nation to have led a program to each of the last 10 NCAA Tournaments. In 2012, she becomes the second longest-tenured coach in the Southeastern Conference, trailing only Georgia's Andy Landers (33 seasons). Over her 10 seasons at Vanderbilt, Balcomb has coached eight WNBA draft picks, a WBCA National Defensive Player of the Year (Jennifer Risper), a WBCA National Scholar-Athlete of the Year (Christina Wirth) and an SEC scoring champion (Christina Foggie), while graduating 100% of her players.

With nearly 20 years of collegiate head coaching experience, Balcomb is a renowned offensive strategist. Her 10 seasons at Vanderbilt have only enhanced that reputation. Every Commodore squad has finished in the top-20 nationally in field goal percentage, averaging a finish of 7.8 nationally (including four teams that have finished top-four nationally). Balcomb's inaugural Commodore team in 2002-03 led the nation in field goal percentage, shooting 51.3%.

The Commodores have shot just as well from three-point range, averaging a top-15 finish in three-point percentage among Division I teams with top-40 finishes every season. Balcomb's 2006-07 squad led the nation in three-point shooting at 43.7%, while her most recent edition finished sixth nationally at 37.2%.

The Commodores have finished in the top-10 nationally in field-goal percentage seven times and in the top-10 in three-point field-goal percentage six times under Balcomb. Her teams have also finished in the top five in assists per game, free-throw percentage and scoring offense.

Balcomb's teams have been especially successful at home, where Vanderbilt has posted a 131-25 (.840) record at Memorial Gym. The Commodores have been almost as successful during the stretch-run, as over the last 10 years, Vanderbilt's record over the final nine regular season games is 62-23, good for a .730 winning percentage.

Balcomb's success as a head coach is not limited to Vanderbilt. Before arriving at Vanderbilt, Balcomb had successful coaching tenures at Ashland (Ohio) and Xavier. She picked-up her 400th career win in the opening round of the 2011 SEC Tournament and has a career mark of 401-198 (.669). The 2012-13 season-opener will be Balcomb's 600th game as a head coach.

The 2011-12 season saw one of Balcomb's youngest teams, as the squad of 11 featured just one senior, yet she still successfully steered the Commodores to a 23-10 mark and a 13th-straight NCAA Tournament. Leading the way was break-out star Christina Foggie, who became the first Balcomb player to lead the SEC in scoring (17.7 ppg).

Foggie was a First Team All-SEC selection and was joined by four other Commodores earning All-SEC honors – Jasmine Lister (second team), Tiffany Clarke (second team), Stephanie Holzer (honorable mention) and Kady Schrann (All-Freshman).

Vanderbilt defeated three ranked opponents on the season (No. 12 Oklahoma, No. 17 Georgia and No. 11 Tennessee), earning a seven seed in the NCAA Tournament. The Commodores hosted at Memorial Gym, defeating 10th-seeded Middle Tennessee in the first round before falling to second-seeded Duke.

Balcomb started at Vanderbilt in 2002 and wasted no time in implementing her own style of winning. Working to transition veteran players into a new system while building new team chemistry, Balcomb's first year saw the Commodores win six of their last seven regular season games, earn an NCAA Tournament berth, and lead the nation in field goal percentage (51.3) against the fourth toughest schedule in the country. She was named a finalist for the Naismith Coach of the Year award.

In 2003-04, Balcomb led the Commodores to their fourth Southeastern Conference Tournament title. She masterfully balanced strong upper-class leadership with exciting freshmen talent, winning 10 consecutive games and advancing to the program's 11th Sweet 16 appearance. One year later, her team made its second consecutive trip to the NCAA Sweet 16. The Commodores posted the most wins (10) in the program's history in Southeastern Conference play finishing with a 10-4 record.

The Commodores were ranked seventh in the final AP poll of the 2006-07 season, and earned a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament after winning another SEC Tournament title. That Vanderbilt squad was the nation's best three-point shooting team, and ranked among the top 10 in points scored. The team's 28-6 mark was the best record for a VU squad in 14 years.

The 2008 season was also one of Balcomb's most impressive coaching jobs. Despite graduating three All-SEC seniors, she led the Commodores to a 25-9 record and the school's 13th appearance in the NCAA sweet 16, all with two freshmen and no seniors in the starting lineup.

In 2009, Vanderbilt won its sixth SEC Tournament title, the third for Balcomb in the last six years. The team also advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 for the 14th time in school history -- Balcomb's fourth trip with the Commodores. Vanderbilt finished the year ranked No. 8 in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll after narrowly missing an upset of No. 1 seed Maryland in the Raleigh Regional Semifinal.

National accolades came flooding in for Vanderbilt, including senior Jennifer Risper being named the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) National Defensive Player of the Year. Risper and classmate Christina Wirth, who herself was named an All-American and the SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year, were both selected in the 2009 WNBA Draft.

In 2010 Balcomb was faced with one of her most challenging tasks. Faced with replacing National Defensive Player of the Year Jennifer Risper and All-American Christina Wirth, Balcomb guided an undersized team back to the NCAA Tournament, where they narrowly missed advancing to their third consecutive sweet 16.

Despite having to overcome numerous injuries throughout out the season and a size disadvantage in almost every game, Vanderbilt finished the season 23-11 overall. Individually, Balcomb helped junior point guard Jence Rhoads earn first team All-SEC honors, while senior shooting guard Merideth Marsh earned second team All-SEC accolades. Elan Brown and Tiffany Clarke were also named to the SEC All-Freshman Team.

The 2010-11 season featured many obstacles that Balcomb successfully maneuvered through to reach another NCAA Tournament and finish third in the SEC. Injuries took an unfortunate toll on the team throughout the year with at least one of Vanderbilt's five leading scorers unavailable for 14 out of the team's 32 games. Injuries coupled with matching Georgia for the fewest upperclassmen in the SEC challenged Balcomb to use different personnel groupings regularly.

Despite the challenges, Balcomb again reached 20 wins, finishing 20-12 and 10-6 in the SEC. Individually, Balcomb helped Jence Rhoads earn honorable mention All-America honors from the Associated Press in addition to first team All-SEC recognition. Rhoads was also a WBCA Region 3 All-American. Freshman center Stephanie Holzer was named honorable mention All-SEC, SEC Sixth Woman of the Year and to the SEC All-Freshmen team. Freshman point guard Jasmine Lister was also named to the SEC All-Freshman Team.

In 10 seasons at Vanderbilt, Balcomb has won 13 games in the NCAA Tournament, including a 9-1 mark in the opening round. She holds a winning percentage of 65.7 against SEC opponents. In all, Balcomb owns series advantages over 10 of the 11 other schools in the SEC before 2012.

NASHVILLE -- No. 16/17 Vanderbilt won its sixth-straight season-opener Saturday afternoon at Memorial Gym over the McNeese State Cowgirls, 82-71. Senior Tiffany Clarke led all scorers with 24 points on 9-of-12 shooting to lead Vanderbilt (1-0) past a feisty McNeese State (0-1) squad. The 24 points for Clarke were just three points shy of her career-high, while she also added a game-high eight rebounds. Christina Foggie was the only other Commodore in double-figures, as she finished with 18 points on 7-of-12 shooting from the field, including 3-of-7 from beyond the three-point line. Two Commodores finished with nine points, led by Jasmine Lister, who finished with a game-high 10 assists and was one point shy of a double-double, as she finished with nine points and also added five rebounds. Elan Brown added nine points and five rebounds. Vanderbilt shot 53 percent from the floor, while holding McNeese State to 41 percent. The Commodores outrebounded the Cowgirls, 37-28, while also picking up 20 assists compared to only 11 for McNeese State. McNeese State was dominated in the paint by Vanderbilt as the Commodores outscored the Cowgirls, 44-24, inside the paint. Vanderbilt's stingy defense also held McNeese State without a single fast break point. For the Cowgirls, Ashlyn and Caitlyn Baggett each scored 20 points in the game. Arianna James chipped in 12 points and four rebounds. At the half, Vanderbilt held a five-point lead, 41-36. The Commodores were lead by Clarke's 10 points. She was the lone Commodore in double-figures at the half. Foggie, Lister, Brown and Bowe each had six points, apiece. As a team, Vanderbilt shot 53.6 percent from the field, including a perfect 8-of-8 from the charity stripe. McNeese State shot 50 percent from the field, including 5-of-12 from behind the three-point line. The Commodores lead the rebounding battle at half, 16-11, while also forcing 12 Cowgirl turnovers. Caitlyn Baggett lead all scorers with 11 points in the first half for the Cowgirls on an efficient 3-of-4 shooting from the field and 4-of-4 from the free throw line.

NASHVILLE -- The entire preseason, Vanderbilt women's basketball Head Coach Melanie Balcomb has been of the belief her team needed to learn to rely on defense to win games, not just offense. On Monday night in Nashville, the No. 13/17 Commodores got some first hand experience as they overcame a poor shooting night to defeat Lipscomb, 62-45, and improve to 2-0. The Lady Bisons fell to 0-2. The game started out eerily similar to last year's contest with Lipscomb, with a large Vanderblit run. Last season, it was a 17-0 run over the first eight minutes, this season it was a 13-0 run over the first 10 minutes. Vanderbilt's largest lead was 20 with 5:58 remaining in the opening frame and it was a 14-point Commodore lead at the half. The second half saw Vanderbilt shoot just 8-20 from the field (30.8%) as the Lady Bisons hung around, before Vanderbilt was able to pull away in the closing minutes and win, 62-45. If any player was an exception to the shooting woes, it was Jasmine Lister. The junior guard shot 8-14, including 6-10 from three, to score a game high 24 points. She added five assists and four rebounds in the contest. Christina Foggie contributed 13 points, while Tiffany Clarke added eight and seven rebounds. Hannah Phillips led the Lady Bisons with 21 points. Lipscomb struggled to find offense beyond the guard, as no other player for the home team scored more than six points. Lipscomb closed within six points on three occasions in the second half, but could not draw any closer. The first came with 9:58 remaining before a Lister jumper pushed it back to 34-42. Phillps answered to cut the lead back to six with 8:05 left, before Heather Bowe connected on a pair of free throws to push the lead back to eight. Phillps made a pair from the line to make it 44-38, but Foggie responded with a 3-pointer to push the lead to nine. Lister added a pair of threes in the final 1:09 to help push the final margin to 62-45.

NASHVILLE -- The Vanderbilt women's basketball team secured a 69-54 victory over UAB on Thursday, November 15, to run its record to 3-0. Christina Foggie led the Commodores, scoring 19 points, with 17 of those coming in the second half. Tiffany Clarke added 14 points and seven rebounds, while Kady Schrann contributed 11 points. The Blazers, now 2-1, were led by 15 points from Amber Jones. Karisma Chapman added seven points, seven rebounds and four assists. Schrann helped carry the Commodores in the first half, when Clarke and junior guard Jasmine Lister went to the bench with two fouls. She scored a team-high seven points in the opening frame, helping Vanderbilt take a 23-18 lead into the break. In the second half, Vanderbilt finally saw the Foggie that earned First Team All-SEC honors last season. The Mount Laurel, N.J., native was 6-10 from the field in the second period, including 3-6 from three, to score 17 points. Another key for the Commodores to pull away was defense. Vanderbilt forced 17 Blazer turnovers in the second half and scored 10 points off those miscues. Head Coach Melanie Balcomb also got some impressive play from freshman forward Heather Bowe, who scored six points on a perfect 3-of-3 from the field while grabbing nine rebounds in 17 minutes of action. Bowe is one of the players being looked at to fill the void left by the season-ending injury to Stephanie Holzer.

DAYTON, Ohio -- The lead changed nine times, but it was Dayton that was able to hold on for a 71-66 victory over No. 13/16 Vanderbilt on Sunday, November 18, at UD Arena. The Commodores fell to 3-1, while the Flyers improved to 4-0. Vanderbilt got a game-high 23 points and nine rebounds from senior Tiffany Clarke in the effort. Christina Foggie contributed 15 points, five rebounds and five assists. Four players in double figures led the Flyers. Andrea Hoover was their leading scorer with 14 points, Jodie Cornelie and Amber Dean each contributed 12 points, while Cassie Sant added 10. While the teams traded baskets early, Dayton used an 8-0 run to open up an 18-11 lead. After the Commodores cut the lead to 18-17, the Flyers answered with a run of their own to take a 25-17 lead. The Commodores responded again, outscoring the Flyers 13-8 over the remainder of the period to trail 33-30 at the break. Clarke led all scorers at the half with 13 points. Vanderbilt struggled to contain Cornelie, who had eight in the first half. Clarke again led the charge out of the half, as she scored consecutive baskets to put Vanderbilt up 34-33. After the teams traded scores, Elan Brown connected for a three to put the Commodores up 41-37. After Hoover cut it to two and Sant tied the game, the Flyers went up for good on a Hoover three and eventually pushed the lead to 48-41. Vanderbilt would get as close as two points, in the closing minutes, but could never tie or take the lead. Foggie made it a one-possession game with 20 seconds left by connecting for a three, but two free throws from Kelley Austria put the game away for Dayton, providing the final margin of 71-66.

GUAYNABO, P.R. -- The Vanderbilt women's basketball team failed to overcome a slow start, dropping the first game of the San Juan Shootout to Virginia, 73-66. The Commodores dropped to 3-2 on the season while the Cavaliers improved to 3-0. Christina Foggie led the Commodores, scoring a game-high 26 points on a career-high eight threes. The junior guard added five assists. Classmate and fellow guard Jasmine Lister contributed 14 points and seven assists in the effort. Kady Schrann, coming off the bench for the first time this season, scored 10 points while dishing out three assists. The Cavaliers were led by Jazmin Pitts, who scored 20 points off the bench. Sarah Imovbioh added 15 poitns and six rebounds, while China Crosby scored 13, dished out seven assists and grabbed five rebounds. Virginia opened the game with a 12-2 run before the Commodores slowly fought back to pull within one, 23-22, with 7:33 left in the opening half. Virginia responded with a 10-0 run over the next four minutes to take a 33-22 lead. They maintained the 11-point advantage into the break, 37-26. The Commodores continued to fight in the second half, closing the gap to three points, 47-44, with 12:45 left in the game. Virginia responded again, pushing the lead right back to eight and Vanderbilt would get no closer than five over the rest of the contest. "We have to start games better," Vanderbilt Head Coach Melanie Balcomb said. "We can't only play hard when we're down." Balcomb was pleased with Foggie's effort, but wants the Preseason All-SEC selection to take charge earlier. "(Foggie) has to come out aggressive and ready to shoot the ball," Balcomb explained.

GUAYNABO, P.R. -- The Vanderbilt women's basketball team couldn't overcome the loss of Christina Foggie late in the first half and dropped a 73-59 decision to Florida State in the final game at the San Juan Shootout. The Commodores fell to 3-3 on the season, while the Seminoles improved to 5-0. Vanderbilt was led by 16 points from Jasmine Lister, while Elan Brown contributed 13 points and six rebounds. Freshman Kendall Shaw had her first career double-figure game, scoring 10 points. Florida State saw five players score double-figures. Leonor Rodriguez led the way with 16 points. Alexa Deluzio added 14 off the bench, followed by Chasity Clayton with 13 points and Chelsea Davis with 10 points. Guard Yashira Delgado contributed nine assists. The contest was back and forth early, with six lead changes over the first nine minutes. The Commodores led 17-16 with 11:26 to play in the opening period. Florida State answered with a 6-0 run to take a 23-17 lead. The FSU lead was 27-20 when Foggie went down under the basket with a foot injury and did not return. The Commodores fought, but the lead was 10 at the half, 36-26, and Vanderbilt would get no closer than five in the second half. Vanderbilt Head Coach Melanie Balcomb was thrilled with the effort her team showed, especially after Foggie's injury. "We fought, we competed harder each game," Balcomb said. "We've made some great adjustments since the Dayton game. We played a lot freer these last two games." Balcomb felt a major issue was post defense, where the Commodores had to play most the contest with a pair of freshman - Shaw and Heather Bowe - because Tiffany Clarke was in foul trouble. "They got easy points in the paint," Balcomb explained. "We're going to have to improve our post defense. That's something that plagued us last year and it's plaguing us this year." The biggest positive for the head coach was the play of Brown, one of the team's three seniors. "Elan was fabulous today," Balcomb said. "She made more plays, defensively (than anyone). She's our smartest defender and she plays defensively, but she also got shots on offense. She played two, three, four and five for us, everything but point, and she's the glue. She kept this team together tonight."

NASHVILLE -- The Vanderbilt women's basketball team snapped its three game losing skid behind 19 points from senior Tiffany Clarke, defeating Austin Peay on Wednesday, 67-36. Vanderbilt dominated the second half, as the Commodores (4-3 overall) outscored Austin Peay (1-5 overall), 38-9. The Commodores also owned the battle of the boards, outrebounding the Lady Govs, 56-24. Clarke led all scorers with 19 points on 7-of-11 shooting from the field, while also pulling down a game-high seven rebounds. Jasmine Lister (12) and Morgan Batey (11) were the only other Commodores to finish in double figures. The 11 points for Batey were a new career-high. Lister and Jasmine Jenkins tied for the team-lead with four assists apiece. As a team, Vanderbilt shot 39 percent from the field, while holding Austin Peay to just 23 percent overall and 21 percent from behind the three-point line. The Commodores also shot an efficient 85 percent (23-of-27) from the free throw line. Austin Peay's Tiasha Gray led the way with 12 points on 4-of-6 shooting from behind the three-point line. Gray was the lone Lady Gov to score in double-figures. Both teams went back-and-forth for much of the first half, as neither team could really find a rhythm. The two teams combined to commit 11 fouls within the first five minutes of the game, while also turning the ball over a combined 24 times in the half. The Commodores held a 29-27 lead at the half, behind 10 first half points from Clarke. She was the only player in double figures. Vanderbilt shot 42 percent from the field, but committed 15 turnovers, while Austin Peay shot 35 percent and committed nine turnovers. Gray scored nine of her 12 points in the first half for Austin Peay.

NASHVILLE -- Head Coach Melanie Balcomb wanted her team to focus on defense right from the tip on Saturday against Tennessee Tech. The Commodores did just that, utilizing a 15-0 run to open the game, before cruising to a 77-50 victory at Memorial Gym. The Commodores (5-3) were led by 17 points from Tiffany Clarke. The senior also grabbed seven rebounds. Classmate Elan Brown contributed 10 points and nine rebounds. Vanderbilt also got nine from Morgan Batey, eight from Jasmine Lister and seven each from Kady Schrann and Gabby Smith. Tennessee Tech was led by 18 points from Diamond Henderson. T'Keyah Williams contributed 10 points and five rebounds. The 15-0 Vanderbilt run to open the contest was the best for a Commodore team to start a game since a 17-0 run against Lipscomb in last season's Vanderbilt Thanksgiving Tournament. During the stretch, Tennessee Tech missed six field goals and turned the ball over twice. In addition to stout defense, Vanderbilt shot 50% from the field (27-54). It marked the first time since the season opener against McNeese State that the Commodores shot at least 50% from the floor. "I'm really proud of how we're executing," Balcomb said. "I think that's what's important. It's being able to slow down. As we start to trust our defense, you can play relaxed on offense." Vanderbilt led the entire contest and the biggest lead of 27 points was the final margin. Balcomb felt her team played two complete halves for the first time this season. "We just wanted to put two halves together to continue to build confidence," Balcomb said. "I think the most important part of that is the start of both halves." Brown, who has emerged as the team's steadying force, seconded that notion. "That was one of our goals, especially this past week," Brown explained.

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. -- Christina Foggie returned to action for the first time since November 24 and helped the Vanderbilt women's basketball team to a 77-67 victory at Western Kentucky. Foggie exploded for 16 second half points to help the Commodores (6-3) pull away. The junior finished with 18 for the game. Sophomore guard Kady Schrann contributed 14 points, while Jasmine Lister and Tiffany Clarke added 13 each. Senior Elan Brown pulled down a career-best 13 rebounds, while scoring nine points. Lister also dished out 11 assists, recording the first Vanderbilt double-double of the season. Western Kentucky (5-2) was led by 15 points apiece from Chastity Gooch and Alexis Govan. Govan pulled down seven rebounds, while Gooch grabbed six. As a team, Western Kentucky committed just nine turnovers in the game. The Lady Toppers led, 35-34, at the half. Gooch and Govan were leading the charge with 10 and eight points respectively. Schrann was leading the Commodore effort at the intermission with nine points. The game featured eight ties and 11 lead changes, mostly in the first period. Vanderbilt had an outstanding shooting performance, going 31-49 from the field for 63.3%. The hot shooting helped Vanderbilt overcome 22 turnovers in the contest. The Commodores opened the second half making their first 11 field goals, including four three-pointers, to help build a lead. The Hilltoppers fought back but could not close the gap to closer than six.

NASHVILLE -- Tiffany Clarke recorded her first double-double of the season to lead Vanderbilt past Hartford, 67-45 on Thursday night at Memorial Gym. Clarke scored 12 of her 22 points in the second half to help Vanderbilt (7-3) put away Hartford (6-2) for good. Clarke led all players with 22 points and 12 rebounds, which was her first double-double of the season and 13th of her career. Late in the first half, Clarke also became the 34th player to reach 1,000 career points for the Commodores. She is now tied for 31st (Rhonda Blades) all-time with 1,017 career points. The Duluth, Ga., native shot an efficient 7-of-10 from the field and 8-of-10 from the free throw line. She also tied a career-high with four blocked shots. Kady Schrann was the only other Commodore in double-figures as she finished with 10 points. Jasmine Lister added nine points and a game-high five assists. Elan Brown and Gabby Smith each scored eight points. Christina Foggie tied a career-high with four steals. As a team, the Commodores shot 48 percent from the field, while holding the Hawks to just 32 percent from the field and only 23 percent from behind the three-point line. Vandy outrebounded Hartford, 43-32 for the game. Vanderbilt led by as many as 24 points in the second half to run away from the Hawks. Hartford's Alex Hall scored 10 points to lead the Hawks, while Amber Bepko added eight points and a team-high six rebounds. Vanderbilt used a 13-0 run midway through the first half to take a 17-8 lead. The Commodores held Hartford scoreless for nearly six minutes during the run and would extend their lead to as many as 13 in the first half. Behind 10 points and eight rebounds from Clarke, the Commodores led 30-19 at the half. Clarke was the lone player in double-figures after one half of play. Brown had six points, while Lister chipped in five points and two assists. Both teams struggled shooting the ball in the first half, as Vanderbilt shot 40 percent (13-of-32) from the field, 16 percent (1-of-6) from behind the three-point line and only 37 percent (3-of-8) from the free throw line. Hartford shot 26 percent (6-of-23) from the field and 30 percent (3-of-10) from three-point range. Vanderbilt outrebounded the Hawks 24-16, while also forcing eight Hartford first half turnovers.

NORMAN, Okla. -- The Vanderbilt women's basketball team used a complete, team performance to take a 76-63 victory at No. 12/13 Oklahoma on Sunday, December 16. The Commodores improve to 8-3 and have won five-straight games. The Sooners fall to 8-2. Four Commodores were in double-figures, led by 17 from Christina Foggie. Jasmine Lister and Tiffany Clarke contributed 16 each, while Kady Schrann added 11 points. Clarke grabbed a team-best eight rebounds, while Lister grabbed six of her own and dished out nine assists. Oklahoma was led by 21 points from Aaryn Ellenberg. Nicole Griffin scored 11 points and grabbed five rebounds, while Morgan Hook scored 10 and had four rebounds. Joanna McFarland just missed a double-double with nine points and a game-high 11 rebounds. "I'm really proud of our effort defensively," said Vanderbilt Head Coach Melanie Balcomb. "I thought Elan Brown played really hard, diving on balls and getting loose balls and we started to follow that. It was a really good team effort." Brown scored just four points, but grabbed five rebounds and four steals. As a team, Vanderbilt forced 20 Oklahoma turnovers and scored 23 points off those miscues, while the Commodores picked up a season-best 12 steals. The opening minutes were filled with back-and-forth action. Oklahoma jumped out to an 8-4 lead before a pair of steals by Brown and Foggie helped the Commodores tie it back up at eight. With the game still tied at 13, Schrann went on an 8-0 run by herself to put Vanderbilt up, 21-13. Hook responded with a 3-pointer before the media timeout to make it 21-16. The run would end up being 18-15, with Vanderbilt opening a 31-18 lead with just over six minutes left in the half. The Commodore lead would be maintained into the break, with the score at the half being 37-27. In the first half alone, Vanderbilt matched its season best with 10 steals. The Sooners turned it over 15 times in the opening period, leading to 16 Commodore points. Oklahoma came out strong in the second half, cutting the Vanderbilt lead to 41-35 before the Commodores responded with an 11-2 run. The stretch was capped by a three from Lister that made it 52-37. The Sooners continued to respond. After Vanderbilt built an 18-point lead, Oklahoma quickly cut it to 12, 60-48, with just over seven minutes to play. Twice Sooner runs were halted by three-pointers from Gabby Smith. Oklahoma again closed it to nine, 65-56, with 3:50 to play as Ellenberg was starting to heat up. Then Clarke grabbed a big offensive rebound and got the put-back to make it 67-56. After Ellenberg hit another jumper, Foggie hit a pull-up jumper, followed by a 3-pointer to push the lead back to 14, 72-58.

NASHVILLE -- Heather Bowe recorded a career-high 14 points and 12 rebounds to power the Commodores past the College of Charleston Saturday afternoon at Memorial Gym, 69-44. Vanderbilt (9-3) overcame a sloppy first half to outscore the College of Charleston (4-5) 40-23 in the second half, while also dominating the glass, 29-19 and 52-38 for the game. The Cougars outrebounded Vanderbilt 23-19 in the first half. The 14 points and 12 rebounds for Bowe gave the freshman from Eau Claire, Wis., her first career double-double. Tiffany Clarke's 15 points and 10 rebounds mark the second double-double of the season and 14th of her career. Clarke was 6-of-12 from the field. The two double-doubles from Bowe and Clarke marked the first time since Feb. 16, 2012, that two Commodores recorded double-doubles in the same game. Christina Foggie was the third Commodore in double-figures, as she finished with 12 points, four assists and four rebounds. Overall, 11 different players donning the Black and Gold scored on the afternoon. As a team, Vanderbilt shot 43 percent (25-of-58) from the field and 81 percent (17-of-21) from the free throw line. Vandy's defense stifled the College of Charleston all afternoon, as the Cougars shot just 25 percent (17-of-67) from the field, 15 percent (3-of-20) from three-point range and 43 percent (7-of-16) from the charity stripe. Megan Fischer and Latisha Harris each scored 10 points for the Cougars. Harris also had a team-high eight rebounds. As the second half wore on, Vanderbilt started taking advantage inside, as the Commodores dominated the paint, 42-14 for the game. The Commodores used an 11-0 run late in the first half to head into the locker room with the momentum after a sluggish start, 29-21. During the run, Foggie and Clarke fueled the Commodores as they combined for all 11 points. Foggie led all scorers with 10 first half points on 4-of-11 shooting from the field. She also chipped in a team-high three assists and a steal. Clarke had six points and six rebounds. Both teams struggled from the field, as Vanderbilt shot 35 percent (12-of-34) and College of Charleston shot just 29 percent (8-of-28). The Commodores forced 12 Cougar turnovers, while also outscoring College of Charleston 18-6 in the paint. Fischer led the Cougars with eight points in the first half.

LOS ANGELES -- The Vanderbilt women's basketball team closed out non-conference play with a seven-game winning streak, defeating USC, 74-56, on Saturday, December 29, at the Galen Center. The Commodores improved to 10-3, while the Trojans fell to 3-8. As usual, Christina Foggie and Tiffany Clarke led the way. Foggie scored 28 points on 8-of-18 shooting and 7-of-11 from three. The seven three-pointers matched a career-high for the junior and were just one shy of the Vanderbilt record for threes in a game. Clarke recorded her third double-double in the last four games, scoring 24 points and grabbing 11 rebounds. The senior forward shot 10-21 from the field. Jasmine Lister joined the pair in double-figures. A native of nearby Corona, Calif., the junior guard scored 11 and dished out six assists, while grabbing three steals playing in front of several family members and friends. USC was led by 22 from Cassie Harberts. The forward scored 22 points and grabbed seven rebounds. Ariya Crook contributed 12 points for the Trojans, who have lost six-straight. After Vanderbilt worked to an eight-point lead midway through the first half, USC worked it to one before taking tying the game, 20-20, with 6:27 left in the period on a free throw by Harberts. Clarke responded with a basket to push the lead back to two. The teams traded baskets before the Trojans took their first lead, 25-22, on a three by Vaioletama with 5:24 to play. Harberts followed with a jumper to push the lead to 27-22. Schrann hit a pair of free throws to cut the lead to three before Foggie drilled a three to even the score up at 27. The junior had a jumper to put the Commodores up 31-30, but Crook connected from three with three seconds left to put the Trojans up 33-31 at the break. The teams were close from the field, with USC shooting 46.2% and Vanderbilt shooting 45.5%. The squads were an identical 3-5 from three in the first period. Points off turnovers were a big advantage for the Trojans, as USC had 12 points off six turnovers, while Vanderbilt had just four points off nine USC miscues. The second period was a different story, as it was all Vanderbilt. VU opened the second half with a 19-6 run, taking a 50-39 lead. The Commodores built the lead mostly by securing the basketball, as Vanderbilt did not commit a turnover in the second period until there was just 7:25 left in the game. In the second half, Vanderbilt outscored the Trojans 43-23, to pick-up its first win of the season when trailing at the half (at Western Kentucky). Foggie and Clarke combined for 29 of Vanderbilt's points, while Lister added seven in the period. In addition to sound offense, the Commodores played solid defense in the frame, as well. They held the Trojans to 33.3% (10-30) shooting, while forcing eight turnovers and scoring seven points off those miscues.

LOS ANGELES -- A balanced scoring attack led Vanderbilt to a 92-41 rout of the Mississippi State Bulldogs Thursday night at Memorial Gym in the SEC opener. Vanderbilt (11-3, 1-0) scorched Mississippi State (8-6, 0-1) for season-highs in points (92), assists (24), steals (12) and a season-low eight turnovers on a night when everything went right for the Commodores in their first conference game of the 2013 calendar year. Every player that suited up for the Commodores, saw game action. The 51-point margin of victory for Vandy was the largest since the Commodores defeated Quinnipiac, 111-53 (+58) on Nov. 26, 2010. Five different Commodores reached double-figures on the night, led by Christina Foggie's 17 points on 5-of-10 shooting from the field and 3-of-7 from downtown. Foggie also chipped in four rebounds, four steals and three assists. Jasmine Lister recorded her third career double-double and second of the season with 14 points and 10 assists. Tiffany Clarke scored 14 points and grabbed six rebounds. Kady Schrann added 13 points, three rebounds, two assists and two steals. Heather Bowe added 10 points off the bench on 3-of-4 shooting from the field and a perfect 4-of-4 from the charity stripe. For the game, VU shot 57 percent (31-of-54) from the field, 53 percent (7-of-13) from three-point range and 92 percent (23-of-25) from the free throw line. Vanderbilt's suffocating defense held Mississippi State to just 32 percent from the field and 7 percent (1-of-13) from three-point range, while also forcing 22 MSU turnovers. Vandy then converted those turnovers into 36 points. Martha Alwal led Mississippi State with 14 points and seven rebounds, while Carnecia Williams added 11 points. The Commodores started the game on a 23-9 run behind seven points from Foggie and five points and four assists from Lister. Foggie then hit back-to-back three-pointers at the 10-minute mark in the half, giving VU a 29-11 lead. Foggie led the Commodores with 13 first half points, en route to a 53-18 lead at halftime. Vandy shot a blistering 58 percent from the field and 55 percent from three-point range. Lister was also in double-figures with 10 points and a game-high seven assists. Clarke, Bowe and Batey all had six points apiece at the break. As a team, Vanderbilt had nine steals and 14 assists in the first half, while forcing 14 Mississippi State turnovers. Alwal led the Bulldogs with eight points in the first half. The Bulldogs shot just 33 percent from the floor.

OXFORD, Miss. -- The Vanderbilt women's basketball team ran its winning streak to nine games on Sunday, January 6, defeating Ole Miss, 76-57. The Commodores improved to 12-3, 2-0 in SEC play, while the Rebels fell to 7-8, 0-2 in conference action. Tiffany Clarke led the Vanderbilt effort with 25 points and 13 rebounds. It was her fourth double-double of the season. Jasmine Lister contributed 13 points and 10 assists for her third double-double of the year. It marks the second time this season Commodores posted double-doubles in the same game. Kady Schrann and Christina Foggie joined the duo in double figures, posting 15 and 13 points, respectively. Elan Brown scored four point while grabbing seven rebounds. Ole Miss was led by 15 points from Diara Moore. Tia Faleru contributed 10 points and seven rebounds for the Rebels. Vanderbilt held the home team to 35.4% shooting and forced 13 turnovers. "I like what we're bringing as a team; we're tougher mentally and physically," Vanderbilt head coach Melanie Balcomb said. "They're enjoying themselves, enjoying working hard and we're having good results." Clarke echoed that sentiment. "We definitely have more fun because we trust each other," the senior said. "The feeling of `We're one,' makes us have more fun. We know we have each other's back so we're able to play more free and it shows on the court." Similar to Thursday's contest against Mississippi State, the Commodores steadily built a first half lead. Vanderbilt used a 55.6% (15-27) shooting percentage to open up a 40-19 lead at the intermission. Lister was the big reason for the 21-point margin, as she connected for three field goals and hit a pair from the line for 11 points, while dishing out six assists. She had a hand in nine of Vanderbilt's 15 first-half field goals. The second half was the Tiffany Clarke show. After missing her first four field goals and having eight points at the break, the senior scored 17 of her 25 points in the second half. One of the top shooters in the SEC, she finished 11-20 from the field in the contest. The victory marked the fourth consecutive road win for Vanderbilt (preceded by wins at Southern Cal, Oklahoma and Western Kentucky). It's the first time that has happened since early in the 2009-10 campaign when the Commodores won at Southern Illinois, St. Joseph's (Pa.), Wright State and Quinnipiac to open the season.

COLUMBIA, S.C. -- The Vanderbilt women's basketball team saw its nine-game win streak snapped on the road at No. 18/16 South Carolina, 64-48. The Commodores fell to 12-4, 2-1 in SEC play, while the Gamecocks improved to 14-2, 2-1 in league action. The highlight of the night for the Black and Gold came with 10:10 to play when junior Christina Foggie became the 35th player in program history to reach 1,000 career points. Foggie finished the night with nine points and seven rebounds. Heather Bowe and Jasmine Lister each scored 11 to lead the Commodores. Lister added eight assists. Tiffany Clarke scored eight points and grabbed five rebounds, while Elan Brown contributed seven points. South Carolina was led by 13 points from Aleighsa Welch. The Gamecocks also got 12 points and five assists from leasia Walker. Ashley Bruner and Elem Ibiam each added nine. Sancheon White led the Gamecocks with eight rebounds. USC outscored Vanderbilt in the paint, 36-20. "Even when we did have a good look or good shot, you have to make it," Vanderbilt Head Coach Melanie Balcomb said. "And then when you don't make it, you have to offensive rebound. Our lack of offensive rebounding was exposed again tonight." Balcomb was also not pleased with her team's frustrating showing on the floor. "We went back to our frustrating showing," the coach explained. "It was something uncharacteristic, more like where we were in the beginning of the season. We had to bring them back together as a team and we made a few runs." She was also quick to credit South Carolina. "We haven't seen that defense all year," Balcomb said. "You want to put your team in situations (to prepare) and nobody plays defense like that." South Carolina's defense stifled the Commodores in the first half, holding Vanderbilt to 4-of-20 shooting and forcing 10 turnovers. Vanderbilt did not hit a field goal in the final 7:07 of the period and trailed, 36-20, at the break. Foul trouble was also a first-half issue, as Clarke and Bowe both had two fouls with seven minutes left in the half. That showed in the post, as the Gamecocks outscored Vanderbilt, 24-6, in the paint in the opening frame. Vanderbilt slowly chipped away at the lead in the second half, cutting it to 47-37 on a pair of Bowe free throws. They would cut it to 10 again, 55-45, with 2:23 to play before a Mitchell layup pushed the lead back to 12. That would be as close as the Commodores would get before falling. Commodore defense kept the second period closer, as they held South Carolina to 38.5% shooting in the period. Vanderbilt also forced 11 USC turnovers in the period.

NASHVILLE -- Four different Commodores recorded double-digit scoring efforts on Sunday afternoon versus the Arkansas Razorbacks en route to a 78-58 win at Memorial Gym. With the win, Vanderbilt is now 13-4 overall and 3-1 in conference action, while the Razorbacks drop to 13-4 on the season and 1-3 in SEC play. The win also makes Vandy 8-0 at Memorial Gym this season and 11-1 all-time versus Arkansas in the building. Jasmine Lister led the way with a game-high 19 points (7-of-13) and six assists. Christina Foggie finished with 18 points on 6-of-14 shooting from the field to go along with five rebounds, four assists and two steals. With Foggie's three made three-point field goals (175), she moved past Paige Redman (173) for seventh all-time in school history for made three-pointers. Tiffany Clarke scored 10 of her 15 points in the second half on 7-of-9 shooting from the floor. Elan Brown finished one rebound shy of a double-double with 10 points and nine rebounds. Brown also added four assists. As a team, Vanderbilt dished out 20 assists on the day, while Arkansas only managed 11. The 20 assists marks the fourth time this season in which Vandy has had 20 or more assists in a game and three of those of come in SEC contests. For the game, the Commodores scorched the Arkansas defense at the tune of 56 percent (28-of-50) from the field and 42 percent (8-of-19) beyond the arc. After turning the ball over 11 times in the first half, the Commodores only turned it over five times in the second half. Arkansas shot 37 percent from the field, but could not find the range from behind the three-point line, as the Razorbacks converted on 1-of-15 (6.7 percent) tries. Quistelle Williams finished with 16 points, six rebounds, three steals and two blocked shots for the Razorbacks, while Sarah Watkins added 10 points and five boards off the bench. Coming out of the locker room after the break, Vanderbilt picked up right where it left off, as the Commodores used a 9-0 run to take a 52-29 lead. That lead would extend to as many as 24 in the second half. Vanderbilt used a 12-0 run midway through the first half to take a 16-6 lead. Foggie and Lister combined to score 12 of the first 18 points of the game. The Commodores then used an 8-0 run to extend their lead right before the break. Foggie led all scorers with 12 points at the half to lead Vandy to a 43-29 lead. Foggie also contributed three assists, two steals and two rebounds. Lister was the only other player in double-digits with 10 points. For the half, Vandy shot an extremely efficient 60.9 percent (14-of-23) from the field. The Commodores also outrebounded the Razorbacks 19-17 in the first half. Arkansas shot just 33 percent (12-of-36) from the field and 14 percent (1-of-7) from three-point range, but did force 11 Vanderbilt turnovers. Williams led the Razorbacks with eight points in the first half on 4-of-10 shooting from the floor.

BATON ROUGE, La. -- The Vanderbilt women's basketball team dropped a hard-fought 54-51 decision at LSU on Sunday. The Commodores fell to 13-5, 3-2 in SEC play, while the Lady Tigers improved to 12-7, 3-3 in league action. Vanderbilt was led by a double-double from Tiffany Clarke. The senior forward scored 17 points and grabbed 13 rebounds. Junior guard Christina Foggie contributed 13 points and four assists, while Jasmine Lister had five points and six assists. Elan Brown just missed a double-double with eight points and nine rebounds. LSU was led by 26 points and seven rebounds from Theresa Plaisance. The forward had 21 points in the second half to help LSU rally from a 10-point Vanderbilt lead with 16:10 to play. Adrienne Webb added 10 points, while Danielle Ballard contributed nine points and nine rebounds and Bianca Lutley recorded nine points and six rebounds. "I don't think we were tough enough," Vanderbilt Head Coach Melanie Balcomb said. "They manhandled us in the second half. They got more physical, smacking the ball out of our hands and turning the ball over. If you don't defend and rebound the whole game, you're going to struggle." The Commodores struggled out of the gate, missing their first six field goals before Clarke finally connected 4:59 into the game. During that span, Vanderbilt also turned it over three times. The offensive struggles were contagious, as over the first eight minutes of the game, LSU was 3-for-12 and VU was 2-for-13 from the field. The teams combined for 10 turnovers in that stretch, as well. Vanderbilt then slowly turned things around, using a 15-2 run over 7:24 to take a 17-10 lead. Getting the ball in the post was huge during the stretch, as Clarke and Bowe had eight combined points on the run. The Commodores carried that run into halftime, holding a 24-16 lead. Clarke was leading the way at the break with nine points and nine rebounds. Ballard had almost matched Clarke for the Lady Tigers, scoring nine points and grabbing eight boards. Plaisance got the Lady Tigers back in it, scoring all but two points in a 13-3 run to tie the game at 34 with 11:45 to play. LSU continued the run to open up a 38-34 lead before Foggie drilled a three to make it a one-point game, 38-37, with just under 10 minutes to play. Another Foggie three with 9:24 to play put the Commodores back on top, 40-38, forcing an LSU timeout. Plaisance responded to tie it back up at 40 with nine minutes left. Neither team led by more than two points over the next seven minutes until Brown hit a jumper to put Vandy up 50-47 with 2:47 to play. The Commodores then forced a shot clock violation on the defensive end before missing. LSU got it back and a Kady Schrann foul put Webb at the line for a one-and-one. The guard hit both to make it 50-49 with 1:45 to play. Vanderbilt followed with a turnover before Plaisance connected from three to put the Lady Tigers up 52-50 with 1:07 remaining. With 50 seconds left, Clarke was fouled in the post and went to the line, missing the first and making the second, trimming the LSU lead to one, 52-51. A foul by Schrann with 36 seconds left but Webb back at the line for a one-and-one. She missed the first, with Brown pulling down the board. Schrann's entry to Clarke in the post was stolen by LSU and a Clarke foul put Lutley at the line in a bonus situation with 7.5 seconds left. She hit both to put LSU up 54-51. Foggie was able to get off a three-point attempt as time expired, but it was off the mark.

NASHVILLE (AP) -- Melanie Balcomb wanted her Vanderbilt Commodores to push the ball inside offensively and focus on defending Taber Spani and Meighan Simmons of Tennessee. They didn't follow the game plan well at all. The Commodores outscored No. 9 Tennessee 38-32 in the paint and even grabbed 21 offensive rebounds, but they couldn't keep up with the Lady Vols' top scorers Thursday night in losing 83-75. "Believe it or not, the game plan in the first half was the same as it was in the second half," Balcomb said. "We just didn't execute the game plan. Get the ball inside, get the ball to the rim. It all worked in the second half. The first half, we took too many outside shots, weren't aggressive and didn't attack enough." That left Vanderbilt trailing 41-29 at halftime. The Commodores scored the first 12 points of the second half to tie up Tennessee at 41. But that was as close as they would get as the Lady Vols responded by scoring 11 of the next 13 points before hitting 14 of their final 15 free throws in the final 3:49 to seal the win. "Just can't celebrate when we make a run," Vanderbilt junior guard Christina Foggie said. Foggie led Vandy with 22 points before fouling out in the final minute, Tiffany Clarke had 19 and Kady Schrann 14. Spani scored a career-high 24 points and Simmons added 23 as Tennessee (16-3, 7-0) won its ninth straight. The Lady Vols got a measure of payback for losing in Memorial Gym a year ago, their last SEC loss. "Well, I mean honestly you just want to come in and play your best against a great SEC team," Spani said. "Obviously, this is a great rivalry game. But we also have a lot of respect for Vanderbilt and what they're capable of doing and it's always a great environment."With No. 5 Kentucky losing to No. 18 South Carolina earlier in the night, Tennessee is the Southeastern Conference's last undefeated team in league play. Simmons said that's exactly where the Lady Vols expected to be. Coach Holly Warlick cautioned it's still very early this season. "But yeah, it's great to be undefeated and be on top of the SEC," Warlick said. "But ... we're not satisfied absolutely." The Lady Vols have won 11 straight SEC games dating back to the loss here last season. Bashaara Graves also had 16 points for Tennessee. Vanderbilt (13-6, 3-3) lost for the first time at home this season and has lost three of four overall. The Commodores played without 6-foot-4 sophomore Clair Watkins, who suffered a knee injury in practice Wednesday. They still pulled down 21 offensive rebounds despite being outrebounded 46-43. The Commodores managed to tie the score twice, the second time at 41 after scoring the first 12 points of the second half. The Lady Vols answered with an 11-2 spurt capped by a drive by Simmons with 12:45 to go, and Vanderbilt couldn't get closer than five the rest of the way. Tennessee hit 14 of 15 at the line in the final 3:49 to seal the victory. The Commodores came in as the SEC's second-best team beyond the arc, shooting 36.4 percent from 3-point range. They shot 21.7 percent (5-of-23) and missed three 3s in the final minutes with a chance to make it a one-score game.

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. -- The Vanderbilt women's basketball team snapped a two-game losing streak on Sunday, January 27, at Alabama, defeating the Crimson Tide, 67-58. The Commodores improved to 14-6, 4-3 in SEC play, while the Tide fell to 12-8, 2-5 in league play. Tiffany Clarke matched her career high with 27 points, while also grabbing 15 rebounds for her seventh double-double of the season and third in a row. Heather Bowe also contributed a double-double with 13 points and 13 rebounds. For Alabama, Diasha Simmons led the way with 15 points. Shafontaye Myers added 13, while Jasmine Robinson contributed nine and Meghan Perkins added six, and pulled down a team-best nine rebounds. "I really liked how our kids responded," Vanderbilt Head Coach Melanie Balcomb said. "(Alabama) is a team that comes at you for 40 minutes and you have to be tough. When Tiffany Clarke plays two halves, we're going to be a good team." Clarke knew Vanderbilt was in for a challenge facing the Tide. "We needed this," Clarke said. "They play really good defense and it was a hard-fought game."It took over two minutes for someone to get on the scoreboard. Alabama missed its first five field goals before Perkins hit a layup two minutes and 13 seconds in. The Commodores missed their first four shots before Foggie connected from three at the 17:23 mark of the first half. Things picked up for the Commodores, as they hit their next four field goals to take an 11-7 lead with 13:44 to play. Alabama then answered with a pair of back-to-back threes to take a 13-11 lead. Two free throws by Clarke tied it at 13 midway through the first half. Trailing 21-20 with 6:31 until the break, Vanderbilt used an 8-0 run from Tiffany Clarke to open up a 28-21 lead with just over four minutes remaining the period. The senior hit two free throws, got back-to-back layups and hit another pair from the line. The Tide responded and took advantage of five straight Vanderbilt turnovers to take a 29-28 lead. Foggie halted the run with a jumper for the eighth lead change of the half, putting the Commodores on top, 30-29. Clarke followed with a basket and a free throw to provide the 33-29 halftime margin. Alabama would not go away, and retook the lead with just over 13 minutes left, making it 42-40 on a jumper by Perkins. Clarke responded to tie it back up at 42, the 10th tie of the ballgame. Bowe started to give the Commodores a little breathing room, scoring five-straight points to give Vanderbilt a 54-48 lead. Alabama would get no closer than four. Clarke scored the next three to make it 58-50, giving Vanderbilt its largest lead of the game. Clarke and Bowe combined for the Commodores' only 11 points during a four-minute stretch that saw Vanderbilt put the game away. Alabama could get no closer than seven points down the stretch and Vanderbilt held on for a 67-58 victory. Vanderbilt was able to overcome 27 turnovers in the game, which the Tide converted for 33 points. It was the first time Vanderbilt had at least 25 turnovers since committing 25 at South Carolina on January 25, 2012. The Commodores were very solid from the field, shooting 43.6% Clarke led that charge, shooting 9-15, while Bowe added a 6-9 mark.

COLLEGE STATION, Texas -- The Vanderbilt women's basketball team dropped a 60-52 decision to No. 16/16 Texas A&M on Thursday in its first SEC trip to College Station. The Commodores fell to 14-7, 4-4 in SEC play, while the Aggies improved to 17-5, 7-1 in league action. Christina Foggie led the way for Vanderbilt, scoring 17 points. Tiffany Clarke added 14 points and nine rebounds, while Heather Bowe contributed 10 points. Jasmine Lister scored eight points while grabbing six rebounds and dishing out 10 assists. Texas A&M was led by 20 from Courtney Walker, who had just six at the half. Kelsey Bone and Kristi Bellock each had eight points and nine rebounds for the Aggies. Vanderbilt Head Coach Melanie Balcomb was pleased with her team's efforts, especially over the first 30 minutes. "I liked the way we started," Balcomb explained. "We had a great game plan and they executed it for about 30 minutes. When it got tight, we all started doing what was comfortable. They turned up their defense and took our individual strengths away." Balcomb was also pleased with her team's defensive effort, especially on Bone, who entered the game as the SEC's leading scorer. "We did a great job, defensively," Balcomb said. "I couldn't ask for much more. I felt really good about our focus. I think the problem was on offense." Vanderbilt got off to a strong start defensively, holding A&M off the scoreboard over the first 4:23 of the game. They also forced Bone, who led the SEC in field goal percentage entering the game, to miss her first three attempts from the floor. She didn't score until there was 3:02 left in the first half and had just two points and two rebounds at the break. The Commodores used a balanced attack in the first half to lead by as many as seven. The Aggies fought back, holding Vanderbilt to just four points in the final 4:58 of the half and closing it to 27-24 at the break. Bowe was leading the way for Vandy with eight points. Walker was the leading scorer for A&M with six. Vanderbilt shot 44.4% (12-27) in the first half, while going 3-of-6 from three. They held the Aggies to 12-34 (35.3%) and 0-for-6 from beyond the arc in the opening period. Texas A&M scored the first four points of the second half to take its first lead, 28-27, just 88 seconds into the frame. Clarke responded with a layup to put Vanderbilt back on top and that began a series of ties and lead changes. Midway through the second half, a pair of Clarke free throws put Vanderbilt up, 39-38, before A&M responded with a 10-0 run to take a 48-39 lead. A Foggie jumper halted the run with just under nine minutes to play. Vanderbilt rallied to close the gap to three on a couple of occasions. The first was at 48-45 on a free throw by Clarke with 5:55 to play and the second was on a layup by Foggie to make it 50-47 with 4:48 left. The Aggies responded with a 10-0 run to take their biggest lead of the game, 60-47, with just over 90 seconds to play. Vanderbilt went nearly three minutes without a point before a Lister three made it 60-50 with 1:17 to play. The Commodores forced a turnover and scored to cut it to eight, 60-52, before Walker missed the front end of a one-and-one. Foggie missed a three and then had to foul Bellock and put her at the line. She missed the first and Brown got the rebound. Lister couldn't convert at the other end and Bellock went back to the line. She missed again, with Shaw pulling down the rebound, but Vanderbilt couldn't score quick enough. After shooting 44.4% in the first half, Vanderbilt was just 30.0% in the second to shoot 36.8% for the game. Texas A&M was the opposite, improving from 35.3% to 71.4% in the second half for a total percentage of 49.1%. Turnovers also hurt the Commodores, as they committed 16 leading to 16 Aggie points. A&M committed 12 and Vanderbilt only scored six off those miscues.
Balcomb changed her starting lineup for the first time since December 22, replacing Schrann with Bowe. The Commodores have used five different lineups this season.

NASHVILLE -- The Vanderbilt women's basketball team took control early and never looked back on Sunday, defeating Ole Miss, 79-53. With the win the Commodores rise to 15-7, 5-4 in the SEC, while Ole Miss slips to 8-14, 1-8 in the league. Christina Foggie led Vanderbilt with 22 points, while Tiffany Clarke dropped 14 with eight rebounds. Heather Bowe and Jasmine Lister each added 11 points, and Bowe also grabbed 8 rebounds. For Ole Miss, Tia Faleru scored 15 points, while Courtney Marbra and Diara Moore each added 11 points. Vanderbilt never trailed in the game, dominating the offensive end in both the paint and on the perimeter. The Commodores finished the game with 40 points in the paint to the Rebels' 16. Vandy also capitalized on opportunities consistently throughout the game, with 40 points scored from 21 Ole Miss turnovers. After returning from the locker room at halftime with a 38-17 lead, the Commodores continued their offensive streak, going on a 16-8 run to start the second half. Two consecutive layups from Clarke, followed by two consecutive layups from Elan Brown led to the dagger being delivered by a Gabby Smith 3-pointer at the 14:16 mark, forcing Ole Miss to take a timeout. Free throws also played a large role for Vanderbilt. Overall, the team shot 18-20 from the line, with five Commodores hitting 100% on the game. Foggie again led the way, shooting 7-7. It marked just the third time this season Vanderbilt hit at least 90% from the stripe.

NASHVILLE (AP) -- A'dia Mathies spent some extra time practicing from beyond the arc in Kentucky's shootaround, trying to work out a kink in her form. The senior guard found what she needed. Mathies scored a season-high 28 points, including five 3-pointers, and 10th-ranked Kentucky beat Vanderbilt 75-53 Sunday for the Wildcats' second straight road victory. "She was hot from the 3-point line," Kentucky coach Matthew Mitchell said. "She was aggressive today. She made them pay for open looks at the 3-point stripe, and it's difficult to beat us when she's playing that well. I think that A'dia knew how important this game was and how difficult it is to play here. And I thought she played like the player of the year that she is." The Wildcats (21-3, 9-2) came in tied for third in the Southeastern Conference, and they are finishing the regular season with five of their final seven league games on the road. Mathies had gone a combined 2 of 9 from 3-point range in the previous two games, and she said she was just glad she took the extra shots in the shootaround. "It started feeling like it used to feel, and it showed today," Mathies said. The Wildcats followed up an overtime win at Arkansas by taking control late in the first half in this one. Kentucky has won five straight in this series while handing Vandy its worst loss this season. "It's always tough to beat Vanderbilt," Mitchell said. "They are well coached, and they have some good players, so this is an outstanding victory for our basketball team." Bria Goss had 15 for Kentucky, while Jennifer O'Neill and Samarie Walker each had 10. Vanderbilt (15-8, 5-5) has lost five of eight, and the Commodores are 1-6 against teams currently ranked in the Top 25. "They were a little bit more physical than us," Vanderbilt guard Jasmine Lister said. "We let them dictate what we what we wanted to do on offense and defense." Tiffany Clarke led the Commodores with 20 points. Christina Foggie had 12 before being knocked out of the game with an injured knee, and Jasmine Lister had 10. Foggie, the SEC's leading scorer last season and sixth this season averaging 15.9 points per game, hurt her knee with 4:43 left and Kentucky up 66-47. She was reaching for a loose ball when Azia Bishop of Kentucky dived for the ball and banged into Foggie. That left Foggie on the court for a couple minutes before she walked with assistance to the edge of the court. She was then carried to the locker room. The collision was just in front of the Kentucky bench, and Mitchell said Bishop was hustling for the ball after missing a layup when she dived for the ball. "She looked like she was in pain so we certainly hope she's all right," Mitchell said. "She's a great player and ... she's a really tough competitor." Vanderbilt coach Melanie Balcomb said Foggie would have an MRI as soon as it can be scheduled. This game was decided well before then. Vanderbilt had the advantage of a week off going into this game, while Kentucky played at Arkansas on Thursday night. The Wildcats had much more energy as they had a 39-27 edge on the boards and forced 23 turnovers. Kentucky used that for a 27-17 scoring edge off turnovers while turning 13 steals into 10 fast-break points. The Wildcats also hit 10 of 22 from 3-point range. Kentucky led 31-22 at halftime after finishing the half outscoring Vanderbilt 16-7. The Commodores hit seven of their first eight shots against Kentucky's pressure defense and just kept moving the ball inside for layup after layup. But the Wildcats had seven steals and forced Vanderbilt into 15 turnovers by halftime, and they wore down the Commodores. The game started tight with three ties and five lead changes, and Clarke's layup with 8:30 left gave Vanderbilt its last lead at 17-15. Then the Commodores went cold and hit only two more shots the rest of the half. Goss hit a 3 with 8:02 to go, giving Kentucky the lead for good, and Mathies only warmed up as she capped an 11-0 spurt with back-to-back buckets. She also added a pair of free throws and hit a 3 in the final seconds for the 31-22 halftime lead. Vanderbilt came in as the SEC's most accurate free throw shooters in league play, hitting 79.7 percent of its shots. Against Kentucky, the Commodores didn't get to the free throw line until 17:11 of the second half when DaNesha Stallworth picked up her third foul. "One of our goals was to get to the free throw line, and we weren't there at all at half," Balcomb said. "And that was one of the glaring things. Being strong enough to get open. They make it very difficult to even get off screens or get open. We were struggling to get open."

NASHVILLE - Playing in its first game without second-leading scorer, Christina Foggie, Vanderbilt used a solid defensive effort to shut down the Missouri Tigers, 62-46, Thursday night at Memorial Gym. Vanderbilt (16-8, 6-5) won the first ever meeting between the two women's basketball programs, while sending Missouri (15-10, 4-7) to its second-straight loss. Four Commodores recorded double-digit scoring efforts to pick up some of the scoring that was missing from Foggie. Jasmine Lister led Vanderbilt with 18 points on 8-of-13 shooting, while Elan Brown scored 11 of her 13 points in the first half. Brown also pulled down seven rebounds and tied for the team lead with four assists. Heather Bowe scored all 11 of her points in the second half to help the Commodores pull away late, as Missouri tried to claw back into the game. Vanderbilt received great play off the bench from freshmen Jasmine Jenkins and Morgan Batey. Jenkins scored a career-high 10 points, while tying a career-high with six boards. Batey didn't need to score much to make an impact on the game, as she grabbed a game and career-high 10 rebounds to go along with four assists and three steals. For the game, the Commodores shot 46.8 percent (22-of-47) from the field and 50 percent (5-of-10) from behind the three-point line. Vanderbilt also outrebounded Missouri, 38-29. Sydney Crafton led all scorers with 20 points on 9-of-16 shooting, while also recording a team-high seven rebounds for the Tigers. As a team, Missouri shot just 31 percent (18-of-58) from the floor and a miserable 14 percent (4-of-27) from beyond the arc. Vanderbilt used a 12-0 run late in the first half to create some distance just before halftime. Brown sparked the run with a trio of three-pointers, while the Commodores also received a boost from Batey and Jenkins off the bench. The Commodores led 29-20 at the half behind 11 first half points from Brown. Lister scored six points and had two assists. As a team, Vanderbilt shot 42 percent (11-of-26) from the field and 50 percent (3-of-6) from three-point range. The bench was able to provide some energy throughout the first half, as Vanderbilt outscored Missouri 10-3 in that category. Crafton led the Tigers with 11 points off 5-of-9 shooting, while also pulling down four rebounds. Missouri shot just 29 percent (8-of-27) from the field and only 15 percent (2-of-13) from behind the three-point line.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- The Vanderbilt women's basketball team, playing without starters Christina Foggie and Kady Schrann, dropped an 83-64 decision at No. 12/10 Tennessee on Sunday, February 17. The Commodores dropped to 16-9, 6-6 in SEC play, while the Lady Vols improved to 20-5, 11-1 in league action. Junior guard Jasmine Lister led a valiant Vanderbilt effort, scoring 24 points while dishing out four assists. Freshmen Heather Bowe and Morgan Batey each added 10 points, while Batey contributed a team-best six rebounds. Already missing Schrann and Foggie, Vanderbilt also played the second half without Tiffany Clarke, who became ill in the locker room at halftime. The Commodores played four freshmen, Bowe, Batey, Rayte'a Long and Jasmine Jenkins, along with Lister for most of the second half. Tennessee had five players in double-figures, led by 17 from Meighan Simmons. Ariel Massengale added 14, while Bashaara Graves contributed 13 and Taber Spani and Jasmine Jones each added a dozen. "(The freshmen) are playing hard and they're starting to figure it out," Vanderbilt Head Coach Melanie Balcomb said. "I think a lot of good things happened as the game went on. They got aggressive and we kept making runs back." After Lister opened the scoring with a three, Tennessee went on a 14-2 run over 3:41 to build a 14-5 lead. Massengale and Spani each had five in the stretch. The Commodores settled in and answered with a 7-0 run to cut it to 14-12 at the under-12 minute media timeout. After the game stayed close, UT used an 8-1 run over 1:51 to build a 33-24 lead with just under four minutes to go. Vanderbilt again responded, this time with Lister hitting back-to-back threes to cut it to 33-29. The Lady Vols ended the half on a 6-0 run to take a 39-29 lead into the break, their largest of the game. Lister led all scorers at the break with 11, while Clarke had contributed seven points and five rebounds. Tennessee was led by 10 from Jones in the period, while Spani had nine. Tennessee shot 53.8% in the opeing period, while Vanderbilt, after shooting better than 50% for much of the period, missed its last five field goals and shot 38.7% in the period. The Lady Vols opened the the half with a 14-4 run, leading 51-35 at the 17:16 mark. Simmons was key during the run, scoring eight of the Tennessee points. The Lady Vols then built a 20-point lead, 60-40, before Lister again drilled back-to-back threes to make it 60-46 with 11:36 to play. Vanderbilt continued the run, cutting it to 60-50 with 8:33 to play. The Commodore defense forced UT to miss nine consecutive field goals during the stretch. Tennessee responded and did not allow Vanderbilt to get closer than 10. The Lady Vols would close the game on a 10-4 run and win by a final margin of 83-64.

GAINESVILLE, Fla. -- The Vanderbilt women's basketball team, still playing without leading scorer Christina Foggie, went on the road and picked-up a win at Florida, 68-57, thanks to big efforts from Tiffany Clarke and Jasmine Lister. The Commodores improved to 17-9, 7-6 in SEC play, while the Gators fell to 15-12, 4-9 in league action. Clarke scored a game high 26 points while grabbing seven rebounds and blocking four shots. Lister scored 16 points, including 4-of-6 from three, while dishing out four assists. Heather Bowe contributed eight points, while fellow freshmen Jasmine Jenkins and Morgan Batey each added seven points. Florida was led by double-double efforts from Sydney Moss and Jennifer George. Moss scored 15 points and grabbed 10 boards, while also handing out four assists. George scored 13 points and pulled down 11 boards, while matching Moss' four helpers. "Tiffany and Jasmine (Lister) both showed up for the entire game," Vanderbilt Head Coach Melanie Balcomb said. "When they show up for 40 minutes, we're going to be hard to beat." Play was back-and-forth early, as neither team led by more than two points until a Clarke basket put Vanderbilt up, 12-8, at the 10:52 mark. The Commodores built a 14-8 lead, holding Florida without a basket for nearly seven minutes, before George got her first basket of the game just under the eight-minute mark. The lead continued to grow when Lister connected from three for her first points of the game to make it 19-12 with just over five minutes until the break. Bowe scored six of nine Commodore points during the stretch that saw Vandy go up, 21-13. Lister connected for another three in the final minute of the half, putting Vanderbilt up 26-15 at the break. Vanderbilt shot 44% from the field in the opening period, while holding the Gators to 26.9%. Florida's 15-point output marked the best defensive first half for Vanderbilt this season.The start of the second half was an entirely different story, as the Gators came out and used a 12-0 run to take a 27-26 lead over the first four minutes of the second period. George scored six of the 12 Florida points on the run. The run was halted when Jenkins hit a driving layup at the 15:40 mark, putting Vanderbilt back on top, 28-27. Carlie Needles answered back with a three to put the Gators back on top, 30-28.The game continued to be back and forth, with the next big shot coming in the form of a three from Lister to put Vanderbilt up, 33-32. The lead was pushed to four when Jenkins got three the old fashioned way with 11 minutes left. Lister followed with another three to make it 39-32. Florida answered with consecutive layups from Moss to cut it back to 39-36. After a Clarke jumper, Needles drilled another three to make it a two-point game, 41-39. At the eight-minute media timeout, Vanderbilt would lead 43-39. Clarke helped make the lead grow, scoring nine of 13 Vanderbilt points as the Commodores built a 52-43 lead and forced Florida to take timeout with 4:08 left in the game. It continued to be Clarke's game, as the senior forward scored 16 of the final 21 Vanderbilt points to provide a final margin of 68-57. "We calmed down and recovered really well after Florida made that big run," Balcomb said of the Commodores' second-half performance. "Jasmine (Lister) hit big shots to keep us in it. Then she got the ball to Tiffany, and we just played through it." Vanderbilt shot 53.3% from the field for the game, while holding Florida to 40.0%. Vanderbilt was also 72.7% from the foul line, including 14-for-18 in the second half with the game on the line.

NASHVILLE - The Vanderbilt women's basketball team sealed arguably their biggest win of the season so far at Memorial Gymnasium on Sunday, defeating No. 10/13 Texas A&M, 61-51. With the win, Vanderbilt rises to 18-9, 8-6 in SEC play, while the Aggies fell to 21-7 and 11-3 in league action. Vanderbilt had not defeated an AP Top-10 opponent since January 14, 2010, when the Dores routed sixth-ranked Georgia, 66-44. The Commodores rallied around Tiffany Clarke, who scored a career-high 30 points on the game with seven rebounds. The last time a Commodore scored 30 points in a game was over a year ago, when Christina Foggie dropped 34 against 17-ranked Georgia on January 26, 2012. Elan Brown scored 12 points for Vandy, 10 of which came in the first half. Jasmine Lister contributed 11, while Jasmine Jenkins and Heather Bowe each scored four. Morgan Batey led all players with 11 rebounds on the game. For Texas A&M, Kelsey Bone led with 17 points, while Kristi Bellock added a double-double performance with 12 points and 10 rebounds. Courtney Walker scored nine points, Adrienne Pratcher had seven and Courtney Williams and Karla Gilbert added four and two points. Vandy came out strong from the start, going up 7-2 at the 16:21 mark in the first half after a Lister three-pointer. Action went back and forth for much of the first half, but a rousing three-pointer by Brown put the Commodores up 16-13 with five minutes remaining. At that point, Vandy never looked back. Stout Vanderbilt defense forced the Aggies to miss 10 of their last 11 shots going into halftime, at which point Vanderbilt held at 25-20 lead. The second half featured a show from Clarke, who scored 22 of her 30 points after the break, including eight of Vanderbilt's first 10 in the period. Texas A&M was able to keep the score within reach for much of the second half. While Bone struggled offensively, adding only five points, Bellock scored all 12 of her points in the second period. The Aggies cut the lead to three, 47-44, at the 6:52 mark, but Vandy was able to end the threat quickly with a steal by Batey, followed by a three-pointer by Lister on the ensuing possession. Vanderbilt never looked back and won by a final margin of 61-51 Vanderbilt shot 41% on the game to Texas A&M's 31%, including 45% from three-point range and 67% from the line. With this win, head coach Melanie Balcomb ties Jim Foster for most wins in program history with 256.
