For Openers...

> Mizzou Basketball looks for its third consecutive win on Wednesday as the Tigers host the Vanderbilt Commodores at Mizzou Arena ... Mizzou and Vandy are tied for fifth in the current SEC standings and both clubs are just one game out of fourth place and two games out of third ... The Commodores have won four of their last six games, including a 57-54 overtime win against Texas A&M, while the Tigers are looking for three consecutive league wins before hitting the road this weekend at Alabama.

> Mizzou had one of its most balanced efforts of the season in the win over Tennessee ... Jabari Brown led the Tigers with 24 points on 8-of-12 shooting and post players Johnathan Williams, III, Torren Jones and Keanau Post combined to hit 9-of-11 field goal attempts for 22 points, 13 rebounds and three blocks in 51 minutes of playing time ... The 22 points combined from those three newcomers was a season high and helped to balance Tennessee's forward tandem of Jarnell Stokes and Jerome Maymon who combined for 18 points and 15 rebounds.

> Also critical for the Tigers was senior guard Earnest Ross, who had 15 points, three assists and a season-high four steals in the win over the Volunteers ... Ross hit 7-of-9 free throws and continues to rank among the SEC's leaders in free throw makes (No. 4 with 60) and free throw percentage (No. 8 .833) through 12 league contests.

> As mentioned, Brown hit for 20 points yet again in the victory over Tennessee and continues to lead the Southeastern Conference in scoring during league play with 22.8 points per game ... Brown has topped 20 points nine times in his last 10 games and has topped double figures in 26 consecutive games dating back to last season ... That streak is the longest active run in the SEC, tied with Alabama's Trevor Releford.

> Speaking of Brown, has anyone in college basketball been better than the Oakland native over the last six weeks?... In addition to topping 20 points in nine of his last 10 games, including 22 in the first meeting with Vanderbilt, Brown is averaging 23.9 points on 54 percent shooting from the floor, 54 percent shooting from three-point range and 89.3 percent shooting at the free throw line ... Brown is averaging 1.3 points per field goal attempt, not including his impressive 67-of-75 (.893) shooting at the foul line ... Brown has been especially good in the second half of games over his last 10 averaging 14.1 points on 56 percent shooting from the floor and 53 percent shooting from beyond the arc.

> Brown (20.5 ppg) and Jordan Clarkson (18.7) are the fourth highest scoring tandem in college basketball this season, combining for 39.5 points per outing ... Brown and Clarkson are just behind the Auburn pair of Chris Denson (20.9) and KT Harrell (19.2) and narrowly trail VMI's QJ Peterson (20.7) and Rodney Glasgow (19.1) and Louisiana-Lafayette's Elfrid Payton (19.9) and Shawn Long (19.6).

> Brown will play his 51st career game at Missouri on Wednesday and is already closing in on 1,000 career points ... The junior guard has scored 854 points at Mizzou (866 counting the 12 he scored in two games at Oregon) and his career scoring average of 17.0 points would be the 10th highest in school history with at least two seasons played ... Brown sat out the first half of the 2012-13 season due to transfer rules.

> Mizzou Basketball completes its three-game home stand on Wednesday as the Tigers host the Vanderbilt Commodores on SEC TV.

> Tiger fans can purchase a 4-Pack of tickets to Wednesday's game for just $40 ... Limited tickets are available for the game.

> Mizzou and Vanderbilt have played some tight ball games since the 2010 season, as three of the last four games have been decided by six points or less ... Missouri fell to the Commodores 78-75 in Nashville last month, but have won three straight games in Columbia dating back to a double overtime win in 1958.

> Missouri is in the midst of hosting three consecutive conference games for the first time since 1998-99 ... The Tigers hosted Kansas State, Baylor and Texas Tech and earned three consecutive wins ... The Tigers could duplicate that feat with a win on Wednesday.

> The close win over Tennessee was nothing new for Missouri fans ... Of the team's last 18 games, 17 have been decided by 10 points or less ... The 18 total games decided by 10 points or less this year are the most since the 2004-05 season (22).

> Mizzou continues to lead the Southeastern Conference in free throw shooting, hitting 73.4 percent on the year and an improved 75.7 percent during league play ... The Tigers have made 494 total free throws this season and are on pace to top 600 free throw makes for just the sixth time in program history and for the first time since 1995-96.

> Missouri's 19.8 free throw makes per game ranks No. 19 nationally and No. 2 in the SEC behind Kentucky (20.6).

> Jabari Brown (135), Jordan Clarkson (114) and Earnest Ross (113) have each surpassed 100 free throw makes this year ... The Tigers haven't had three players with 100 makes in a season since 1995-96.

> Freshman forward Torren Jones has scored 16 points over his last four games, including a career high eight points on 4-of-5 shooting against Tennessee ... Prior to his last four games Jones had scored just eight total points in the season's first 21 contests.

> Missouri has had at least one player score 20 or more points in 20-of-25 games this season and have enjoyed multiple 20-point scorers eight times, including in five of its last seven games ... Jabari Brown has logged 20 points in nine of his last 10 outings, including a career high 33 points vs. Kentucky and 22 in the first meeting with Vanderbilt ... Brown has topped 20 points 19 times in his career and Mizzou is 15-4 in those contests ... In Brown's lone 20-point miss over the last 10 games he helped account for 29 total points with his six assists (zero turnovers) at No. 3 Florida.

> The Tigers have a total of 31 20-point games this season, all coming from Clarkson (14), Brown (13) and Ross (4) ... Missouri had a player top 20 points 25 times all of last season.

> Missouri has been one of the league's better rebounding teams as well, ranking No. 3 in the SEC with a +5.7 rebounding margin ... The Tigers average 26.6 defensive boards per game, No. 3 in the SEC.

> Missouri recorded a rare ACC road win on Dec. 28 at N.C. State ... Although the Tigers haven't played many road games in ACC territory, the win in Raleigh was the second in ACC country in program history ... Mizzou won 87-73 at Maryland on Jan. 24, 1989 ... It was the club's first non-league road win since a 75-68 win at Old Dominion on Dec. 30, 2011.

> Head Coach Frank Haith will coach his 320th career game overall and is 66-23 in three seasons at Mizzou ... Haith was the fastest coach in school history to 50 wins and has just one starter back for the second consecutive campaign.

> Haith is quickly approaching his 200th career victory ... He has 195 career wins heading into Wednesday's game.

> Johnathan Williams, III (7.1 rpg) is on pace to become the first Tiger freshman to lead the team in rebounding since Linas Kleiza (8.4) in 2003-04 ... Williams is coming off a 12-rebound effort at Arkansas and is No. 8 in the SEC in rebounding.

> Mizzou plays in the friendly confines of Mizzou Arena where the club is 45-3 since 2011-12 and went a perfect 17-0 at home last season.

> Mizzou boasts a 149-23 (.867) record at home since the building opened in 2004-05 ... The Tigers are also 96-6 at home since 2008-09, amounting to an incredible .942 winning percentage.

> Non-conference opponents have not enjoyed their stops in Columbia, Mo., over the last few seasons and the Tigers have raced to an incredible 81 consecutive wins at home vs. non-league opposition since the end of the 2005-06 campaign ... Missouri's last non-conference loss at home came vs. Sam Houston State in the 2005 Preseason NIT, but since then, Missouri has gone nearly eight full seasons without a loss.

> That non-conference win streak is No. 2 nationally behind Duke ... Duke has won 109 consecutive non-ACC games at home.

> Jordan Clarkson recorded the first 30-point game of the SEC season on Nov. 12 and logged the 26th 30-point game during Missouri's SEC / Big 12 eras ... Clarkson needed just 18 shots to reach 31 points (12-of-18 FGs), and is one of just two Tigers during the two eras to have 30+ points, 5+ assists and zero turnovers ... Clarence Gilbert had a ridiculous 43 points, nine assists and zero turnovers vs. Iowa State in a four overtime win on Jan. 13, 2001. > Head Coach Frank Haith enters his third season at Missouri and will look to lead the Tigers to their third consecutive 20-win campaign ... Only Norm Stewart, Quin Snyder and Mike Anderson have enjoyed three 20-win seasons at Mizzou ... Stewart of course led the way with 17 20-win campaigns ... Snyder and Anderson each had three. > Missouri has won at historic levels over the last five seasons ... In fact the Tigers have won 23+ games each of the last five seasons. > The five consecutive 20-win seasons is a school record and Missouri's five consecutive trips to the NCAA Tournament is the longest active streak in the Southeastern Conference. > Mizzou Arena has been the site of two undefeated home seasons in its history ... Missouri was 18-0 in 2008-09 and was 17-0 at home last season ... Hearnes Center, the former home of Missouri Basketball, was the site of five undefeated home campaigns (1974-75, 1980-81, 1988-89, 1989-90 and 1993-94). > Since 2006-07 (72-0) the club's margin of victory has been 25.8 points in those non-league home tilts. > Mizzou has three transfers sitting out this season ... Zach Price transferred from Louisville, where the 6-foot-10 forward was a member of the Cardinals' NCAA National Championship team ... Deuce Bello transferred from Baylor ... Both will be classified as redshirt juniors next season ... Most recently the Tigers added Cam Biedscheid from Notre Dame at semester break. > Mizzou will be on national television a school-record 20 times this season ... That number has grown each of Mizzou's two years in the SEC ... The Tigers were on national TV 18 times last season, which was also a school record. > Mizzou was picked fifth in the Southeastern Conference's

preseason media poll ... Kentucky was the projected league champion.

The winningest coach at Missouri through his first two seasons (53-16, .768), Haith has made an immediate impact at Mizzou, not only with his club's efforts on the hardwood, but his commitment to the program's academic advancement and his support of the Columbia community.

Last year en route to Mizzou's fifth consecutive trip to the NCAA Tournament, Haith's Tigers enjoyed a record-breaking team cumulative GPA of 3.06 and had three players, including starters Jabari Brown and Laurence Bowers, named to the SEC Winter Honor Roll. Bowers later became the first-ever Missouri Basketball player to finish his playing career with a Master's degree and Haith's time at Mizzou has resulted in 9-of-10 seniors earning degrees. In the community, Haith has been an active fundraiser for the Boys & Girls Club of Columbia and serves on the Coaches vs. Cancer leadership council. Coaches vs. Cancer was of course co-founded by Mizzou legend Norm Stewart. Haith was also a 2012 recipient of the Key to the City of St. Louis from Mayor Francis Slay and was honored by his alma mater, Elon, as the 2012 Eugene Perry Distinguished Alumnus, and was tapped into the Mizzou Omicron Delta Kappa leadership society for his efforts mentoring student-athletes.

While Haith has shown an incredible ability to be well-rounded outside of basketball, it has been his team's play on the court that has led to record-breaking attendance marks at Mizzou Arena the last two seasons. Last year he became the fastest Tiger head coach to 50 wins and has worked diligently to revamp a roster that has completely transformed in just two years.

Last season Missouri was the lone college basketball program to advance to NCAA Tournament play with just one returning starter and Haith will look to duplicate that feat once more this season with just one starter, Jabari Brown, back from last year's 23-11 campaign.

"I was really proud of that team last year because we had so many new parts, including on our coaching staff, but those who know me understand I am never satisfied and always want to achieve more," Haith said. "We are going to continue to develop a program that our fans and our state can identify with. We want this program to have that same blue-collar mentality that Coach Stewart brought and I feel like that's starting to take shape."

During last season's NCAA Tournament run Missouri enjoyed its second undefeated season in Mizzou Arena history, going 17-0 at home with wins over a pair of nationally-ranked opponents, including No. 5 Florida. In fact under Haith Missouri is an outstanding 9-4 vs. Top 25 teams including a 5-3 mark vs. the Top 10.

That performance came on the heels of a 30-5 inaugural season in Columbia.

Picked fourth in the Big 12 Conference pre-season coaches' poll, Missouri won a school-record 14 league games, and finished second in the conference standings with a 14-4 mark. The Tigers won the school's final Big 12 Tournament Championship with a 3-0 run in Kansas City, before advancing to the NCAA Tournament.

With that record-setting first season in the books, Haith received recognition in the form of numerous coaching accolades, including the prestigious Henry Iba National Coach of the Year honor, as well as the Associated Press National Coach of the Year. He was also named the Big 12 Coach of the Year and was the U.S. Basketball Writers Association District VI Coach of the Year. As a first-year coach, Haith guided his team to more regular season wins than any other Mizzou coach before him and became the first Tiger head coach since 1920-21 to win his first 14 games.

"It has been a special two years here and the future is only going to get brighter," Haith said. "Anytime you take over a program there is a process you need to follow to build a recruiting base, build your brand and most importantly, build the support of your fans. That has taken place here quickly and I'm really excited about the long-term future of Mizzou Basketball."

The 27-year coaching veteran was hired at Missouri on April 5, 2011, and immediately appreciated the Tiger's passionate fan base. The Burlington, N.C., native came from the University of Miami where he was not only forced to instill a winning mentality to his players and supporters, but do it at a university void of any lengthy basketball tradition.

Haith's task at the University of Miami was monumental, but his process of building a well-rounded program certainly helped turn around the fortunes of the Hurricanes last season, which had the most experienced team in the country with a host of fifth-year and sixth-year seniors, each recruited by Haith.

In his first of seven seasons as the head coach, Haith guided the 'Canes to seven ACC victories (despite being picked last) and qualified for postseason play. He was recognized by being named a Naismith National Coach of the Year finalist and NABC District 6 Coach of the Year.

Miami returned to postseason play the following year. The Hurricanes won 18 more games and advanced to the quarterfinals of the NIT, recording the program's first postseason wins since 2000. Over his final four seasons, Haith's Miami squad averaged 21 wins per season, with four consecutive postseason trips.

Postseason success was a theme under Haith. His teams won six total games in the NCAA and National Invitation tournaments, including a memorable run to the second round of the Big Dance in 2008. The 'Canes went 23-11 in Haith's fourth season, just one win shy of the school record and he was named a finalist for ACC Coach of the Year and the Skip Prosser Man of the Year honors.

And it's not just on the hardwood where Haith has fueled incredible growth amongst his players. During his time at both Missouri and Miami his players were visible in the community and Haith has seen an incredible 31-of-33 seniors to play for him walked across the stage to receive a diploma.

"That's my proudest moment," Haith said. "To know we churn out young men, ready to make positive contributions in the community, ready to be great fathers and husbands. That's what coaching at the college level is all about."

It's not an accident Frank Haith was hired as the 17th basketball coach at Mizzou. The grind from student-assistant at Elon College to being named the National Recruiter of the Year by Rivals.com doesn't just happen without a dedication to family, career and your student-athletes.

Haith paid his own way through Elon and graduated in 1988. He helped the Fighting Christians twice win 20 games and earned the opportunity to cut his teeth at perennial power Wake Forest the following year as a graduate assistant. His first full-time coaching position at Division I came at UNC-Wilmington from 1990-92 and he laid the foundation for his job at Missouri with a three-year stop at Texas A&M from 1992-95, which included helping the Aggies reach postseason play in 1994.

One of 10 siblings, family will always be first for Frank Haith, and his student-athletes are part of that family. A proud father and husband, Frank and his wife Pam are the parents of two children, Corey and Brianna and his son is entering his second year with the Mizzou program this season.
