

Vanderbilt Women's Tennis

January 13, 2012 • Currey Tennis Center (Indoor Courts)
Vanderbilt Commodores vs. Lipscomb Bisons • 5 p.m.

Getting things started...

The No. 15 Commodores start the 2012 spring season after making their 13th NCAA Sweet 16 appearance in program history last year.

Opening their calendar with a flurry of matches on Vanderbilt's home courts, the Commodores look to jump into their season head first, testing the endurance of the team early on against unranked opponents.

Scouting Opponent...

The Bisons return only three players from their 3-14 2010-11 campaign: sophomore Bellini and seniors Bowman and Keevil.

'Dores in the rankings...

The Commodores enter the season ranked No. 15 by the ITA and boast three ranked singles players and a No. 14 doubles pair.

Senior Jackie Wu tops the list of Vanderbilt players ranked by the ITA as the No. 23 player overall. Wu won the ITA Ohio Valley Regional this past fall, beating SEC rival Brynn Boren, of Tennessee.

Wu's doubles partner, Lauren Mira, ranked No. 69 in singles, and the pair were ranked No. 14 in doubles play.

Freshman Marie Casares also made the list, as No. 110.

Casares and fellow freshman Ashleigh Antal joined Wu and Mira on the doubles rankings as the No. 49 pair.

Out of their league...

The Commodores play in arguably the most competitive league in the country, with nine schools represented on the ITA's latest rankings.

Ranked fifteenth overall, up one spot from their 2011 finish of No. 16, the Commodores are third amongst SEC schools, behind only No. 1 Florida and No. 7 Georgia.

Coming up next...

Vanderbilt hosts Miami (Ohio) tomorrow at 1:00pm, another team they saw in the fall season, followed by Austin Peahy on Monday and Belmont Tuesday.
