BY THE NUMBERS

- Louisville's pressuring defense 20.7 has forced opponents into an average of 20.7 turnovers over the last six games, including at least 20 each of the last three contests. The Cardinals, averaging 9.0 steals in that span, are converting the turnovers into 23.0 points per contest.
- 28.8 The Cardinals' bench is averaging 28.8 points through 13 games. The unit has scored more than 40 points on four occasions. Notably, Louisville is 8-1 when its bench outscores the opposing team's bench. Currently, Kylee Shook is averaging 5.9 points, the most among the reserves.
  - Kylee Shook had 18 points and 10 rebounds against Evansville, recording her first career doubledouble. The freshman, who matched a season high with four blocks, achieved the marks in 17 minutes.
  - Asia Durr ranks second nationally in 3-point field goals made, connecting on 46 over the course of 13 games. The sophomore, who is hitting at a 43.8 percent clip, has knocked down at least four treys in seven games, including a careerbest eight earlier this year.
  - After last week's performances, Louisville has earned at least 10 nonconference victories each of the last seven seasons. The Cardinals, currently 11-2 against non-league opponents, are 114-30 all-time under head coach Jeff Walz.

■ About Vanderbilt - Louisville plays its final game before the holiday break against Vanderbilt in Memorial Gymnasium on Wednesday (Dec. 21, 8 p.m. ET, SEC Network+). It is the Cardinals' second game against a Southeastern Conference foe and first time traveling to Nashville to face the Commodores since 2006.

Vanderbilt defeated Tennessee Tech 89-57 on Sunday for the Commodores' eighth-consecutive victory. Vanderbilt shot 50.0 percent and went 18 of 21 from the free throw line. The Commodores scored 17 second-chance points and 26 points off 20 Golden Eagles turnovers. The turning point of the game, arguably, came when Vanderbilt outscored Tennessee Tech 28-6 in the second quarter.

Christa Reed scored a team-high 25 points on 10-of-12 shooting, the only starter in double figures. Erin Whalen came off the bench and totaled 23 points - 8 of 8 from the charity stripe - and 11 rebounds, despite turning over the ball seven times. Fellow reserve Lealea Carter had 18 points, seven rebounds, and four assists.

Through 11 games, Reed is pacing the team with 12.7 points. Rachel Bell (12.1) and Rebekah Dahlman (11.1) also are averaging double figures, with Dahlman shooting a remarkable 91.7 percent from the line (33 of 36) and 55.6 percent from 3-point range (15 of 27). Cierra Walker boasts a team-high 41 assists.

Collectively, Vanderbilt ranks seventh in the country in 3-point field goal percentage (.417) and ninth in free throws made (182) and free throw percentage (.784).

■ Series History - Vanderbilt leads Louisville 8-4 in the all-time series, boasting a 4-1 advantage in Nashville. The Cardinals have won two of the last four meetings.

Last time the two teams played, Louisville earned an 81-62 decision on March 20, 2011, in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. The Cardinals shot 60 percent from the field, held a 35-19 advantage on the glass, and outscored the Commodores 41-26 in the first half.

Monique Reid led all scorers with 22 points on 10-of-15 shooting, also tallying six rebounds and five assists. Shoni Schimmel and Tia Gibbs each registered 19 points, and Keshia Hines finished with 16 points and nine rebounds.

■ High-Percentage Shooting - Louisville has shown its capability of firing from long range. While the Cardinals' 3-point total ranks in the upper half of the ACC, it's the team's accuracy from inside the arc that deserves attention.

Louisville has connected on 326 of its 649 2-point field goals this year, a solid 50.2 percent clip. It's the second-highest rate in the Jeff Walz era, only trailing the 2007-08 team's mark of 50.9 percent (874 of 1716).

■ Statistical Trends - Louisville is 166-18 (.902) when scoring 70 or more points under head coach Jeff Walz (8-1 this year; 18-3 in 2015-16). ... UofL boasts an 81-1 record (.988) when shooting 50 percent or better from the field under Walz (3-0 this year; 7-0 last season).

■ Picking Pockets - Under head coach Jeff Walz, Louisville consistently has been among the best in thefts. The Cardinals have ranked in the top 40 in steals on six occasions over the last nine seasons.

Louisville, which has recorded double-digit steals in seven games, boasts 129 steals. The Cardinals opened the season with 14 against UT Martin, followed with 10 versus Belmont, and tallied 16 against Bowling Green and Lafayette. Fourteen players have at least one steal this season, and Briahanna Jackson has a team-high 27 to rank 48th nationally.

■ Can I help you? - Louisville was one of the best teams in the country last year in earning assists on made field goals, helping on 62.8 percent of its baskets (587 assists on 934 field goals). Through 13 games, the Cardinals have been credited with 249 assists on 409 field goals, a 60.9 percent rate.

Briahanna Jackson has a team-leading 63 assists, Mariya Moore boasts 53, Taylor Johnson owns 33, and Myisha Hines-Allen has 25.

Closing in on Milestones - Louisville's success under 10th-year head coach Jeff Walz has expedited its pace to new milestones.

With Walz at the helm of the program, the Cardinals are averaging 26 victories per season and now are eight shy of reaching 800 wins (792-478) as a program. Louisville entered the year with 781 victories, 41st most in NCAA Division I history.

Louisville, also approaching the 100-win milestone in the KFC Yum! Center, currently stands at 96-13 in the downtown venue.

Good to (Tenne)See You Again - Louisville played three schools consecutively from the state of Tennessee to open the season, defeating UT Martin, Belmont, and Middle Tennessee. Louisville then beat Chattanooga and faces Vanderbilt on Dec. 21.

All-time, Louisville is 65-42 against schools from the state of Tennessee (Memphis: 23-23; Austin Peay: 9-0; UT Martin: 6-0; East Tennessee State: 5-0; Vanderbilt: 4-8; Middle Tennessee: 5-1; Tennessee Tech: 4-1; Tennessee State: 3-2; Belmont: 3-0; Chattanooga: 2-5; Tennessee: 1-2).

3-Point Threat - Asia Durr has experienced little issue dialing long distance. The sophomore has connected on 46 3-pointers this season through 13 games, a total that ranks second nationally. Her 3.54 per game is seventh best in the nation. Maybe equally impressive is the fact she is connecting on the shots at a 43.8 percent clip.

While early, Durr is well on her way to crack the school's single season top-10 list for 3-pointers made (Brandie Radde is 10th, with 70). Currently, Durr is ahead of the pace Shoni Schimmel used to set the school record in 2013-14 with 118 treys. Schimmel had 39 through 13 contests.

Returning to Form - The reigning and preseason ACC Player of the Year, Myisha Hines-Allen is returning to last year's form as a dominant offensive player.

The junior, overcoming a "slow" start for her standards, is averaging 14.0 points over the Cardinals' last six games, shooting 51.4 percent from the field. She is pulling down 7.3 rebounds and has two double-doubles in the stretch.

In the first seven games, Hines-Allen averaged 8.9 points and 8.6 rebounds, while shooting 45.8 percent - well below her 54.2 percent career average.

Fantastic Fourth - Louisville was stellar in the fourth guarter in wins over Western Kentucky and South Dakota State. Combined, the Cardinals outscored their foes 46-14, outrebounded them 17-5, and shot 67.9 percent from the floor over the 10-minute span. Opponents shot just 19.2 percent.

Against Western Kentucky, Louisville entered the final period behind 52-46. The Cardinals used a 9-2 run to open the quarter and take the lead, finishing with a season-best 24 points in the frame. Louisville shot a remarkable 9 of 15 from the floor, connecting on two 3-pointers, and outrebounded the Hilltoppers 14-4 in the period. Defensively, Western Kentucky mustered just nine points on 4 of 14 shooting.

The next game, Louisville outscored South Dakota State 22-5 in the final period. The Cardinals forced six turnovers and held the Jackrabbits to 1 of 12 from the floor, while shooting 10 of 13. Sydney Zambrotta had all 10 of her points in the period.

Climbing the Ranks - Myisha Hines-Allen and Mariya Moore have enjoyed plenty of success, especially on the offensive end during their times at Louisville.

Hines-Allen became the 26th member of the school's 1,000-point club in the Cardinals' victory at Middle Tennessee. The junior boasts 1,129 for her career and is 57 away from passing Joan Dunaway-Burks (1977-81) for 17th place.

Moore, meanwhile, joined the elite club following her second field goal against Chattanooga. She currently has 1,077 points, nine shy of moving into 22nd place.

The last time a pair of teammates reached 1,000 career points in the same season was during the 2014-15 campaign, when Sara Hammond and Bria Smith achieved the feat. Prior to that season, only two other times in school history did at least two teammates reach the milestone in the same year: 1991-92, Nell Knox, Tuonisia Turner, and Gwen Doyle; 1984-85, Jackie Spencer, Devita Ceaser, and Stephanie Edwards.

■ Cardinals in the Polls - Coupling the 2006-07 campaign with that of head coach Jeff Walz's tenure, which started in 2007-08, Louisville has appeared in the Associated Press poll 140 times, with an average rank of 12th over that span. The Cardinals' total appearances in the 10-year timeframe ranks 12th among all NCAA Division I programs. When UofL exited the poll on Nov. 30, 2015, it ended a period of 81-straight weeks in the top 25.

Last year, Louisville debuted at No. 12 in the AP preseason poll and reached as high as fourth from Jan. 12-19. The Cardinals finished the 2014-15 campaign eighth in the AP Poll, their third time concluding the year in the top 10. Louisville also maintained a top-15 ranking throughout the year in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll, taking 10th in the final poll.

Success in the KFC Yum! Center - Louisville captured its 75th victory in the KFC Yum! Center in 2015-16 following its 75-42 victory over Valparaiso on Dec. 5. The Cardinals capped the year 13-3 at home.

UofL boasts a 96-13 record (.881) in the World's Most Spectacular Arena. All-time in the venue, Louisville holds a +21.8 scoring margin (75.8-54.0) and is shooting 45.0 percent from the field. With its 32 field goals against College of Charleston on Dec. 16, 2016, Louisville surpassed 3,000 field goals made inside the KFC Yum! Center (3063 for 6811).

■ Outlasting Opponents - Louisville defeated in-state foe Kentucky on Dec. 4 in overtime, only the Cardinals' 43rd contest in school history that went beyond regulation. With the victory, Louisville has won five-straight overtime games, dating back to 2013.

All-time, Louisville boasts a 24-19 overtime record, including a 15-6 mark at home. Under head coach Jeff Walz, the Cardinals are 7-4 in games that need extra time.

■ Bonus from the Bench - Louisville's bench contributed in a major way in the team's victory over South Dakota State, totaling 51 points on 20 of 31 shooting, including a 4 of 6 stint from 3. It's the most points the Cardinals have received from their bench since the 2011-12 season, when Louisville's reserves totaled 58 points in a 105-62 victory over Murray State on Nov. 29.

This year, Louisville's bench has accumulated 374 points - or 28.8 per game.

■ Welcome Back Walton - Louisville redshirt senior Cortnee Walton, who suffered a right elbow injury during the preseason and missed the first six games of the regular season, returned and has started the last six games. Overall, Walton is averaging 4.7 points and 7.0 rebounds, including 3.6 offensive boards per game.

Walton averaged 5.9 points, 7.3 rebounds, and 1.2 steals last season in 34 games. She completed the year with 136 boards on the offensive end, pulling down 4.0 per game for the second-highest average in the ACC.

■ Puny Periods - Louisville's defense clamped down on opponents last year, limiting foes to single-digit points in a period on 25 occasions through 34 contests.

The Cardinals are continuing that trend in 2016-17. Louisville has stifled nine of its 13 opponents to single-digit points in one period, most recently Evansville to nine points in the third quarter.

| Opp. Periods with Single-Digit Points |     |     |     |       |
|---------------------------------------|-----|-----|-----|-------|
| 1st                                   | 2nd | 3rd | 4th | Total |
| 5                                     | 3   | 1   | 2   | 11    |

Diving deeper into the numbers, of the 36 (25 in 2015-16) times the feat happened, 14 took place in the first period, 12 in the second, eight in the fourth, and two in the third.

■ Running Through a Gauntlet - Even before reaching their difficult ACC schedule, the Cardinals are putting themselves through a rigorous nonconference slate.

The Cardinals have faced 2016 NCAA Tournament participants Belmont (win), Middle Tennessee (win), Chattanooga (win), No. 3 South Carolina (loss), No. 5 Maryland (loss), No. 17 Kentucky (win), Western Kentucky (win), and South Dakota State (win). Still looming, the Cardinals' out-of-league schedule includes Vanderbilt and South Florida.

In a report compiled by the NCAA, the Cardinals' future opponents have won 81.5 percent of their games, the third highest in Division I.

More than half (17) of the Cardinals' 29 opponents won at least 20 games a year ago. Nineteen of this year's opponents reached postseason play in 2015-16, including 12 that reached the NCAA Tournament.

HEAD COACH JEFF WALZ

Head coach Jeff Walz, entering his 10th season as a head coach, has compiled a 245-87 (.738) record as the Cardinals' leader. He has led Louisville to six NCAA Sweet 16 appearances, two of which culminated with NCAA runner-up finishes (2009, 2013). Walz, who is averaging 26 wins per season, became the winningest coach in program history in 2013-14. He also has the most 20-win seasons in school history (8) and the top-three entries for most victories in a season (34 in 2008-09; 33 in 2013-14; and 29 in 2012-13).

Hired on March 27, 2007, the Bluegrass State native took the program to its first NCAA Sweet 16 and it culminated with Louisville earning the No. 12 ranking in the final ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll. For his efforts, Walz was named the WBCA Maggie Dixon Rookie Coach of the Year.

Prior to taking the reins at Louisville, Walz spent time on four other coaching staffs: Western Kentucky (1996-97), Nebraska (1997-01), Minnesota (2001-02), and Maryland (2002-07). He helped Maryland win the program's first national title in 2006.

■ Playing in a Packed House - Since beginning play in the KFC Yum! Center in 2010-11, Louisville has played in front of three arena-capacity crowds (capacity is 22,000), while averaging more than 9,000 per game.

In Louisville's regular-season finale against Connecticut on March 3, 2014, fans packed the venue for a program-record crowd of 22,163. The record prior to that was attained against Kentucky on Dec. 5, 2010, a 78-52 victory in front of 22,152.

The record was first set in the team's opening game in the downtown arena, playing host to Tennessee with 22,124 on hand on Nov. 12, 2010.

All three games ranked in the top five of Division I games attended that season: vs. Kentucky, No. 1 in 2010-11; vs. Tennessee, No. 2 in 2010-11; and vs. UConn, No. 2 in 2013-14.

■ Louisville-Vanderbilt Connections - Associate head coach Stephanie Norman, now in her 10th season at Louisville, served as an assistant coach at Vanderbilt from 2002-07. While with the Commodores, she helped the school reach the NCAA Tournament five times, including a pair of Sweet 16 appearances.

Head coach Jeff Walz's wife, previously Lauren Lueders, played at Vanderbilt. She was a four-year letterwinner and ranked second on the team her senior season in 3-pointers made with 58. She totaled 133 over her career.

■ Dreaming of December - As the Cardinals noticeably improve each month under head coach Jeff Walz, so too does their record. In the 12th month, Louisville boasts a 58-13 mark (.817) under its leader. In 2007-08 and 2008-09, Louisville produced consecutive 8-0 records. Last season, the program put together a 7-1 mark.

■ Million Mark Surpassed - Louisville has thrived in more ways than one in the KFC Yum! Center since beginning play there in 2010. Along with winning 88.1 percent of its games, Louisville hit a milestone earlier this season when attendance surpassed the one-million mark for women's basketball games.

Through 109 games in the downtown venue, Louisville averages 9,896 per contest and has welcomed more than 1.05 million fans through the doors of the KFC Yum! Center.

■ Louisville Athletics Above the Rest - Louisville continues to remain as one of the elite athletics departments in the country. Currently, Louisville is one of only two schools nationally (other: West Virginia) that has its football, men's basketball, and women's basketball programs in the Associated Press' top 15 (women's basketball: No. 8; men's basketball: No. 10; football: No. 15).

The Cardinals have four additional sports currently ranked among the nation's top teams in men's soccer (8th), field hockey (8th), men's swimming (8th), and women's swimming (11th). UofL's men's soccer team was the No. 4 overall seed in the NCAA Championship and advanced to the Elite Eight. UofL's women's cross country team advanced to the NCAA Championship for the first time in school history and the Cardinals' field hockey team competed in the NCAA Tournament.

■ Achieving Nonconference Success - Head coach Jeff Walz has compiled an impressive 114-30 record (.792) against nonconference foes in his 10 years at the helm of the program. Two times - in 2008-09 and 2013-14 - he rolled through nonconference play with just one loss, sporting 13-1 and 12-1, records, respectively.

■ Crashing the Boards - Louisville's superior size and athleticism was on full display in the Cardinals' victory over Lafayette.

Paced by Myisha Hines-Allen's career-tying high 14 rebounds, Louisville finished with a 62-28 advantage on the boards. The Cardinals' rebounding total is tied for third most in a game in school history and is the most since the 2013-14 team set the program record with 68 on Nov. 9, 2013, against Loyola Chicago.

■ Relentless Defense - Louisville has forced at least 20 turnovers in eight of 13 games this season. Maybe the more impressive note, though, is the Cardinals matched a season best against Bowling Green, when they forced the Falcons into 32 turnovers.

The Cardinals pressured South Dakota State into 30 turnovers on Dec. 14, more than three times the number of South Dakota State's field goals (9).

Opponents are turning the ball over 22.2 times per game, leading to 319 points for Louisville - or 24.5 points per contest.

■ Paint Points a Positive - The Cardinals have taken advantage of points in the paint, averaging 38.0 in the area. Louisville has surpassed the 30-point plateau 10 times this year, including a season-best 56 - the most since tallying 58 against Iowa on Dec. 14, 2014.

The Cardinals, who averaged 31.2 points in the paint a year ago (1,062 points). The 2014-15 team scored a program best 72 in the area against Western Kentucky.

Louisville vs. Vanderbilt -- Page 6

■ Stretches and Spurts - Through 13 games this year, Louisville has produced 37 runs of 8-0 or better (six against Evansville), including a 21-0 stretch against UT Martin. Defensively, the Cardinals have forced their opponents into 37 scoring droughts of at least three minutes (four by Evansville), including a 7:36 drought by South Dakota State.

Last year, through 34 games, the Cardinals totaled 61 runs of 8-0 or better and 96 scoring droughts of at least three minutes.

■ Wade Watch List - Louisville juniors Myisha Hines-Allen and Mariya Moore were named two of the 25 "Wade Watch" list candidates for the 2017 Wade Trophy that recognizes the national player of the year.

Louisville is one of six schools to have multiple representatives on the list.

The Wade Trophy — now in its 40th year — is the oldest and most prestigious national player of the year award in college women's basketball. It is named in honor of the late, legendary Delta State University head coach Lily Margaret Wade, who won three consecutive national championships with the Lady Statesmen.

■ Trio to Watch - Sophomore Asia Durr, Myisha Hines-Allen, and Mariya Moore were three of the top-50 players nationally named to the Naismith Trophy Women's 50 preseason list. The Cardinals' trio of selections are tied for the most in the ACC and tied for the second most in the country.

Named in honor of Dr. James Naismith, the creator of the game of basketball, the first Naismith trophy was awarded in 1969. The trophy was sculpted by Marty C. Dawe of Atlanta and has become among the most prestigious national honors awarded each year to top basketball players in the nation.

■ Louisville Chosen Second in ACC Preseason Polls - The Cardinals were picked to finish second in both the Atlantic Coast Conference's Blue Ribbon Panel and coaches' polls. Louisville received 758 points from the Blue Ribbon Panel, including eight first-place votes, while earning 209 points from the league's 15 head coaches. Notre Dame was picked to win the title in both polls. The conference tournament will be held at the HTC Center from March 1-5 in Conway, S.C.

2016-17 ACC Preseason Media Poll

■ Melting Pot - Louisville's 2016-17

roster continues last year's pattern of being diverse. Of the 15 student-athletes on its roster, 11 different states are represented (Arizona, California, Colorado, Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Kentucky, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Texas).

■ Tournament No. 50 - When Louisville played in the Basketball Hall of Fame Women's Challenge, it marked the program's 50th regular-season tournament in school history. The Cardinals, who went 3-1 in the event, have been crowned champions in 17 of those. Most recently in 2013-14, when the program defeated three schools before earning an upset win at No. 11 Oklahoma in the Preseason WNIT. Interestingly, the Cardinals' season-opening win and first victory in the tournament was against Taylor Johnson's Loyola Chicago team. Johnson had 18 points and three assists in the 101-54 loss.

■ Preseason Conference Accolades - Myisha Hines-Allen was voted the ACC's preseason Player of the Year - by both the coaches and league's media and SIDs - and also named to the all-conference team with Mariya Moore and Asia Durr. Louisville was the only school with three selections on both preseason teams.

Hines-Allen, who capped her sophomore campaign as the school's second player of the year, is the first student-athlete in program history to earn a league's preseason honor. She also earned preseason Associated Press All-America honorable mention accolades and was named an ESPN preseason second team All-America.

■ (Un)Hampered by Height - With the addition of 6-foot-4 freshmen Ciera Johnson and Kylee Shook, Louisville owns one of the taller teams in the ACC. The Cardinals also have significant height with Sam Fuehring and Cortnee Walton, who are each 6-foot-3, giving Louisville and Boston College four players who are at least 6-foot-3. Duke, Virginia, and Georgia Tech each have five players 6-foot-3 or taller. Louisville Sports Information Office - (502) 852-6581

During 2010-11, Louisville defeated five schools in the top 25, including three in the top 10: Kentucky (No. 8), DePaul (No. 7), and Xavier (No. 5). After defeating one in 2011-12, the Cardinals again defeated five ranked in AP Poll in both 2012-13 and 2013-14. In 2013-14, UofL defeated No. 14 LSU and No. 11 Oklahoma within a three-day window, and then posted six ranked victories in 2014-15.

■ Johnson Joins Cardinals - Highly talented guard Taylor Johnson transferred to Louisville from Loyola Chicago during the summer of 2016.

The two-time all-conference honoree, who is playing her final season of eligibility, is off to a solid start with the Cardinals. She is third on the team with 33 assists in 13 games - with 18 turnovers - and has the second-most steals with 21.

Johnson averaged 14.2 points, 4.9 rebounds, 3.3 assists, and 2.5 steals in 93 games at Loyola Chicago. In her final season there, she started all 30 games and averaged the league's eighth-best scoring mark at 15.1 points to go with 4.9 rebounds.

The 5-foot-7 guard ranked sixth in school history in career points (1,325), fourth in scoring average, tied for third in steals (234), and 11th in assists (306).

■ Cardinals on the Road - Since Jeff Walz became head coach at Louisville in 2007, the Cardinals have a 118-64 record (.648) in games away from home (includes 36-20 record for neutral site games).

In 2015-16, the Cardinals owned a 13-5 record away from the KFC Yum! Center (includes 2-3 neutral record). Louisville forced 18.0 turnovers per game in those contests, held a +6.6 rebounding advantage, connected on 72.7 percent of its free throws, and boasted +8.1 scoring margin.

■ Unmatched Exposure - Head coach Jeff Walz was one of six Division I women's basketball head coaches and 12 participants invited to the second Women's Basketball National Media Day, hosted by the NCAA and ESPN, on ESPN's campus in Bristol, Conn.

The 10th-year coach conducted multiple interviews with regional and national media, recorded a national podcast with ESPN, WNBA, and ACC analyst LaChina Robinson, held an interview with ESPN.com national women's college basketball writer Mechelle Voepel, and participated in a one-on-one interview with ESPN analyst Doris Burke.

■ Highlighting the Exhibition - Louisville's 97-50 exhibition victory over Lindsey Wilson proved to be a confidence booster for Asia Durr. Head coach Jeff Walz continually called for the sophomore to shoot the ball more, and she finished with a game-high 19 points, shooting 7-of-10 from the field. Last year, in 31 games, she only had 10 field goal attempts 12 times.

Freshmen Ciera Johnson (14 points in 20 minutes), Jazmine Jones (15 points on 7-of-8 shooting, 4 rebounds, 2 steals), and Bionca Dunham (9 points, 10 rebounds, 4 blocks in 19 minutes) also had solid performances.

Collectively, Louisville shot 54.9 percent from the field, while forcing 26 turnovers.

■ Hines-Allen Continues to Collect Honors - Myisha Hines-Allen picked up where she left off as a sophomore, receiving honors. The junior, named an Associated Press honorable mention All-American, has earned additional national attention following the announcement of being named the preseason ACC Player of the Year.

Hines-Allen, who averaged a remarkable 18.0 points and 8.1 rebounds in league play last year, was named an All-American by four other national outlets: Sporting News (first team), Lindy's (second team), Athlon Sports (second team), and College Sports Madness (second team).

Louisville vs. Vanderbilt -- Page 8

■ Lofty Expectations - Louisville, returning eight letterwinners from a season ago, including all five starters, attracted plenty of attention from the preseason publications.

In addition to being selected fifth in the Associated Press preseason poll and eighth in the USA Today/Coaches' rankings, the Cardinals also rank in the top eight by five other outlets: third by Lindy's and Sporting News, fifth by SLAM Magazine, sixth by Athlon Sports, and seventh by the U.S. Basketball Writers' Association.

Though early, the Cardinals earned a No. 1 seed in the first ESPN Bracketology of the year (other No. 1 seeds: UConn, Notre Dame, and South Carolina).

■ espnW Praises Hines-Allen, Moore - espnW selected Myisha Hines-Allen and Mariya Moore as two of the top-25 players in the country for 2016-17. Hines-Allen was tabbed 11th, while Moore was voted 22nd.

Over the course of the season, the Cardinals will face nine other players that were picked in the top 25.

■ Returning from Cuba - The Cardinals became the first NCAA women's basketball program to visit and play in Cuba, enjoying a seven-day trip from Aug. 6-12. Louisville played three games against the Cuban national team, winning two, participated in a guided tour of two different cities in the country, shopping in the Cuban markets, salsa lessons, and time at a resort in Varadero.

■ Cardinals Ink Another No. 1 Class - Head coach Jeff Walz and his staff inked the top-ranked recruiting class in the country for 2017, Louisville's second No. 1 class in three seasons, according to espnW HoopGurlz.

The three-member class, with all five-star prospects, consists of Lindsey Duvall, a 5-foot-9 guard from Mt. Washington, Ky.; Dana Evans, a 5-foot-6 guard from Gary, Ind.; and, Loretta Kakala, a 6-foot-3 forward from Manteca, Calif.

Duvall, No. 22-ranked player in the class, eclipsed 1,000 career varsity points during her sophomore campaign in 2014, averaging 23.7 points and 7.5 rebounds that year. While missing most of her junior season after having a tumor removed from just below her left knee, she returned to produce 18.7 points and 8.1 rebounds in seven contests, while leading her program to the state championship game. Evans, ranked seventh overall in the class, averaged a remarkable 35.8 points, 5.4 rebounds, and 5.0 assists in her junior season. She was named a Naismith High School All-American in 2016. Kakala, the 25th-best player in the class, was a first-team all-district player last year and averaged 16 points and 8.5 rebounds in her junior season.

■ UofL Earned Sixth-Consecutive 20-Win Season - With the victory over No. 19 South Florida on Feb. 15 during the 2015-16 campaign, Louisville notched its 20th win of the year. It marked the program's sixth-consecutive season in which it achieved at least 20 wins and the eighth time achieving the plateau under head coach Jeff Walz.

In the stretch that begins in the 2010-11 season, Louisville has compiled a 166-52 mark (.761). Against league competition, the Cardinals are a stellar 74-24 (.755) between the BIG EAST (2010-13), the American Athletic Conference (2013-14), and the ACC (2014-present).

Since 2010, Louisville has registered one 30-win season (33-5, 2013-14) along with 20-win seasons the other five years (22-13, 2010-11; 23-10, 2011-12; 29-9, 2012-13; 27-7, 2014-15; 26-8, 2015-16).

■ Making a 180-Degree Turn - Louisville made quite the turnaround after a slow start to the 2015-16 campaign.

The Cardinals, ranked eighth in the final AP Poll, won 25 of their last 29 games, building a 15-game winning streak along the way, and cruised to a second-place finish in the Atlantic Coast Conference. Three of Louisville's losses in the stretch came to top-25 teams, while the program defeated five ranked schools.

Louisville outscored opponents by an average of 15 points, held them to 39.8 percent shooting, and forced 18.5 turnovers per game. Over that timeframe, Myisha

Hines-Allen paced the Cardinals in scoring (18.3), rebounding (8.6), and shooting (56.8).

■ Statistically Recapping 2015-16 - The Cardinals finished the 2015-16 season ranked in the top 35 in multiple categories: scoring margin, assists per game, turnover margin, and offensive rebounds per game.

Individually, Myisha Hines-Allen ranked 20th in field goals made (246), 25th in field goal percentage (54.7), and 66th in final points (581). Cortnee Walton also boasted a top-25 mark, holding the 22nd-best average for offensive rebounds per game (4.0).

■ Top-10 Worthy Performances - Myisha Hines-Allen, Mariya Moore, and Asia Durr each logged singleseason marks in 2015-16 that rank among the top 10 in the school's annals.

Hines-Allen hit 246 field goals, fifth most in a season in school history, totaled the fourth-most double-doubles at 11, and logged 581 points and 277 rebounds - marks that both rank ninth best.

Moore connected on a stellar 77 treys, seventh most in a season, while her 125 made free throws surpassed her freshman total for eighth most. Moore is one of just two players (Angel McCoughtry) to have at least two entries for most free throws in a season.

Durr connected on 84.1 percent of her free throws, the seventh-best mark in a season.

■ Named to the "Wade Watch" list for the Wade Trophy Award, the Naismith Trophy Women's Player of the Year preseason watch list, and the Wooden Award Preseason Top 30.

 Logged 12 points for the second-consecutive game, tallying the total against both College of Charleston and Evansville.

- Produced season highs of eight assists and nine rebounds in consecutive games: Kentucky and Western Kentucky.
  - Scored a game-tying high 17 points against South Carolina.

Became the 27th member of the school's 1,000-point club after converting a layup against Chattanooga. She currently boasts 1,077 points for her career, ranking 24th, and needs nine more to move into 22nd place (Valerie Owens, 1,085 points, 1976-80; Misty Smith, 1,085 points, 1994-98) on the all-time scoring list.

- Compiled a stellar performance at Middle Tennessee, pouring in 27 points on 9-of-14 shooting to go with six assists.
- Ranks ninth on the school's career 3-point chart and needs three to pass Marla Inman Eltrevoog (157 3-pointers, 1994-
- 97).
  - Named to the Blue Ribon Panel and coaches' all-ACC preseason teams.
  - Voted a 2015-16 WBCA All-America honorable mention after being selected to the association's all-Region I team.
  - Named to the Blue Ribbon Panel's and coaches' all-ACC first team last year.

Started 32 of 34 games played, producing 14.1 points, 4.7 rebounds, 4.4 assists, and 1.5 steals per game. She shot 76.7 percent from the charity stripe.

Ranked 15th in the ACC in scoring (14.1), fifth in assists per game (4.4), 11th in free throw percentage (.767), and sixth in 3-point field goals per game (2.3) and assist-turnover ratio (1.6). Nationally, she was 54th in 3-point field goals made (77), 65th in free throws made (125), and 67th in total assists (148).

Compiled multiple top-10 marks on the school's single-season best lists. She hit 77 3-pointers, seventh most in a season. Her 125 free throws are eighth most, surpassing the mark she set during her freshman campaign.

Scored a career-best 31 - 24 in the second half - on 10-of-19 shooting to go with seven assists to complete a comeback against NC State. She tallied the Cardinals' final four points - all free throws - over the last 17 seconds.

■ Named to the preseason watch list for the Naismith Trophy, which recognizes the national player of the year, and the Wooden Award Preseason Top 30.

Recorded fifth 20-point performance of the season, totaling 20 in 20 minutes against College of Charleston. She also had three rebounds and three assists.

■ Connected on four 3-pointers against College of Charleston, the ninth game this season with at least three treys. She ranks second nationally in 3-pointers made (46), seventh in 3-pointers per game (3.54), and 13th in total field goals (84).

Totaled 20 points and a season-best seven rebounds against Maryland. Her 27 field goal attempts are the eighth most by a player in school history.

Torched the nets for a career-best 34 points on 12 of 18 shooting in only 23 minutes against Bowling Green. She knocked down 8 of 13 3-pointers. Her 34 points are the most by a UofL player since Shoni Schimmel scored 38 at USF on Jan. 30, 2013. The eight treys are tied for the second most in a game in school history and are the most since Schimmel hit nine against Memphis on Jan. 26, 2014.

• Opened the season with 24 points against UT Martin, connecting on seven 3-pointers. Her point total is tied for the third most in a season opener in school history, matching Kristin Mattox's mark against Miami (Ohio) on Nov. 26, 1993.

■ Named to the Blue Ribbon Panel and coaches' preseason all-ACC teams.

Voted to the 2015-16 Blue Ribbon Panel's and the coaches' all-ACC freshman team.

Played in 31 games last year, starting two, averaging 11.0 points, 2.6 rebounds, 1.4 assists, and 1.1 steals.

■ Named to the ACC All-Tournament Team after 15.0 points. She is just the fourth freshman in program history to earn all-tournament honors and first since Marla Inman Eltrevoog (1994-95).

■ Was 29th in the ACC in scoring (11.0) and 10th in 3-point field goal percentage (.361). In conference-only stats, she was 21st in scoring (12.4), 14th in field goal percentage (.479), and third in free throw percentage (.875).

Underwent successful surgery after a groin injury suffered during USA Basketball Trials in the summer 2015.

Highest-rated recruit to sign at Louisville in school history, tabbed the No. 1 overall player by Full Court and Prospects Nation; listed No. 2 overall in the class of 2015 by espnW.

Won the Gatorade Georgia Girls Basketball Player of the Year consecutively, collecting it for 2013-14 and 2014-15. Received the title of Miss Georgia Basketball for consecutive years by the Atlanta Tip-Off Club (2014, 2015). Selected the 2015 Parade Magazine Girls Basketball Player of the Year.
