THE STORYLINE

The University of Florida football team will return home for the first time since Oct. 1, to face the Vanderbilt Commodores. The game time is set 12:21 p.m. will be televised live on the SEC Network. This is the first time all season that the Gators will have a kickoff before 3:30 p.m. ET.

Florida (4-4, 2-4 SEC) is coming off a rough month, dropping all four games in October. The Gators lost to No. 22 Georgia, 24-20, last Saturday in Jacksonville. Vanderbilt (4-4, 1-4) missed a game-tying field goal with eight seconds remaining and lost to No. 10 Arkansas, 31-28, last weekend in Nashville.

The Gators are coming off one of the toughest stretches in school history in the past month. Although Florida's schedule is currently only ranked as the 34th toughest in the country, UF faced four AP Top 25 teams in a row during October, including current No. 1 LSU and No. 2 Alabama.

This week marks the University of Florida's annual Homecoming celebration. The Gators lost to Mississippi State last year, ending a 21-game winning streak in Homecoming games. UF has an all-time record of 63-22-2 in Homecoming games. Florida has faced Vanderbilt 10 times in their Homecoming contest, with an 8-1-1 record. UF last faced the Commodores on Homecoming in 2007, with the Gators winning 49-22.

LAST TIME OUT

Richard Samuel scored on a four-yard touchdown run with 13:18 left in regulation, as the University of Georgia rallied from two touchdowns down beat the University of Florida, 24-20, at EverBank Field Saturday.

Florida had built a 17-3 lead, courtesy of a 31-yard touchdown pass from John Brantley to Jordan Reed and a 99-yard kickoff return by Jeff Demps, but the Gators couldn't overcome 14 penalties and six sacks allowed.

The early storyline surrounded the return of starting quarterback Brantley. The senior signal-caller came out during early warm-ups, then returned to the Gator locker room leaving questions about his availability. On the Gators' first drive, Brantley trotted on the field for the first time since suffering an injury in the first half of the Gators' loss vs. Alabama on Oct. 1.

Brantley was very sharp early, but as the game wore he continued in visible pain, finishing 12-of-34 for 245 yards. He was just 2-of-14 for 19 yards passing in the second half.

On the opening play of the game, Brantley threw a swing pass to Demps who raced 72 yards down to the Georgia 21. The Gators could get no closer and Brad Phillips, subbing for an injured Caleb Sturgis, missed a 38-yard field-goal attempt.

After a quick stop, the Gators got the ball back and put together an 11-play, 80-yard drive, taking 4:26 off the clock. Brantley marched the Gators to the Georgia 22-yard line, with completions to Chris Rainey (20 yards), Deonte Thompson (13), Trey Burton (14) and Andre Debose (14). After a sack, the Gators faced a fourth-and-19 from the Georgia 31-yard line. The Gators rolled the dice and Brantley stepped up, avoided the rush, and found Reed for a 31-yard strike.

Georgia got back in the game early in the second quarter, when Blair Walsh knocked home a 32-yard field goal, capping a 12-play, 67-yard drive. Running back Isaiah Crowell accounted for 32 yards on the ground during the drive.

The Bulldogs' momentum was short-lived, as on the ensuing kickoff

UF is led by senior quarterback John Brantley, who returned from injury against Georgia and threw for 245 yards and one score. Brantley has 1,187 passing yards with six touchdowns and three interceptions on the season. The running back duo of Chris Rainey and Jeff Demps have combined for 1,646 all-purpose yards and 10 TD on the season. The UF defense ranks 14th in the nation (297.25) and is seventh in the country against the pass (168.50).

The Gators are looking for their 21st win in a row over the Commodores, a streak dating back to 1989. The last Vanderbilt win over UF was in 1988, when VU upset No. 20 Florida, 24-9, in Nashville.

Vanderbilt has seen an offensive resurgence over the past two games with quarterback Jordan Rodgers taking the reins. Rodgers has passed for 426 yards and a pair of touchdowns while adding 162 rushing yards and three scores on the ground. The Commodores offense has totaled over 450 yards in each of their past two contests. Running back Zac Stacy has rushed for 703 yards, averaging 7.3 yards per carry, with six touchdowns this season. Although the VU defense has given up some yardage, they have a knack for taking the ball away, with 22 turnovers on the season, including 15 interceptions.

Demps fielded the ball at the 1-yard line and proceeded to race 99 yards for the touchdown to increase UF's lead to 14-3.

Florida added to its lead on its next possession when Phillips split the uprights from 43 yards out. Brantley hit Quinton Dunbar for a 24-yard pick-up to help set up the score.

The Gators appeared poised to go into the locker room with a two touchdown lead, but a fumble by Rainey at the UF 25 set the stage for Aaron Murray to hit Michael Bennett for a 20-yard touchdown. Like the Gators did earlier in the game, Georgia rolled the dice and went for it on fourth and long after Walsh had missed a 33-yard field goal on the Bulldogs' previous drive. Murray found Bennett at the goal line and the redshirt-freshman made an impressive catch to cut the score to 17-10.

Turnovers proved costly for the Gators again in the third quarter, as Frankie Hammond put the ball on the ground after a 9-yard reception setting the Bulldogs up at the Florida 18-yard line. Georgia again gambled on fourth down and Murray hit Tavarres King for a 14-yard TD pass to tie the game at 17-17.

The tie didn't last long, as Debose returned the ensuing kick 63 yards to the Georgia 26-yard line. Moments later, Phillips gave the Gators the lead back on a 40-yard field goal.

Georgia took its first lead of the game with 13:18 remaining on a four-yard run by Samuel, capping a nine-play, 45-yard drive and providing the eventual margin of victory.

For the game, Georgia controlled the ball for 37:40 while Florida had the ball for just 22:20. Georgia ended up with 354 yards of total offense, 185 rushing and 169 passing. Murray finishing the game 15-of-34 passing for 169 yards and two touchdowns while Crowell finished with a game-high 81 yards rushing on 18 carries.

Florida finished with 226 total yards, just 32 after the half. The Gators finished with -19 yards rushing, most of which was the result of sack yardage as the Bulldogs got to Brantley six times on the afternoon.

FROM THE LAST GAME

- Senior Jeff Demps opened UF's first drive with a 72-yard reception, marking a career-long catch, with his previous best being 61 yards. His longest this season up to that point was a 28-yarder
- Demps tallied a career-long kickoff return for a touchdown, the first kick return touchdown of his career, finding the end zone on a 99-yard return with 13:16 left in the second quarter. Demps became the sixth person in school history to tally a 99-yard kickoff return (three with 100)
- Demps' 99-yard TD return is tied for the longest in the Southeastern Conference in 2011 and is just the fifth in the league this season
- With five kick returns totaling 200 yards, the Gators averaged 40.0 yards per return, the best since 1996 when having more than two returns in a game. The previous best came in 2007, when UF averaged 37.0 yards per return versus Troy (five returns, 185 yards)
- UF's 40.0 yards per kickoff return average is the highest in the SEC this season and second in the nation (min. 5 kick returns)
- Quarterback John Brantley completed five passes for 13 or more yards (Rainey-20, Thompson-13, Burton-14, Debose-14, Reed-31) on Florida's second drive of the game, leading to a sophomore Jordan Reed 31-yard touchdown catch on fourth-and-19 to put the Gators on the board first
- Brantley was 10-for-20 for 226 yards in the first half alone, averaging 22.6 yards per completion, and finished the game with 12 completions for 245 yards (20.4 avg)
- For Reed, the touchdown was his first receiving of the season, just the second receiving score of his career
- Reed rallied for a career-high 69 yards receiving on four catches Saturday, including his career-long 31-yard TD
- Florida held Georgia scoreless in the first quarter for just the second time all season (last vs. Vandy Oct. 15)
- Freshman Marcus Roberson snagged his first career interception with just under seven minutes remaining in the first quarter
- The Florida defense has forced at least one interception in every UF/UGA match-up since 2004, including three INTs in 2008, 2009 and 2010
- For the first time this season, Georgia did not score first in its respective contest
- Sophomore Brad Phillips connected for his first career field goal on a 43-yard success that put UF up, 17-3, with 10:06 remaining in the first half and struck again with a 40-yarder to give Florida a 20-17 lead with just under five minutes remaining in the third quarter
- The Gators committed 14 penalties for 106 yards, compared to UGA's four for 22 yards
- The Bulldogs out-gained UF on the ground with 185 rushing yards to UF's (-19)
- Florida is now 9-4 all-time when returning a kickoff for a touchdown and move to 4-2 when scoring first this season
- Florida totaled 14 plays longer than 10 yards, including 12 in the first half alone, including 10 passing, two rushing and both Demps' and Debose's kickoff returns
- UF had four passing plays of 20+ yards against UGA (Demps 72-yd reception, Reed 31-yd reception, Dunbar 24-yd reception, Rainey 20-yd reception); in the previous two games combined against LSU and Auburn, the Gators had just three passing plays of 20+ yards
- The Florida defense forced four three-and-outs, including on back-to-back possessions in the fourth quarter
- The Gators held Georgia to 2-of-9 on third down in the second half, after UGA had converted 5-of-10 in the first half

(Gainesville, Fla.)

The 13th-ranked Gator football team held off Vanderbilt, 49-42, in double overtime. With 90,140 fans and a national television audience looking on, Florida used an interception by Reggie Lewis on a pass by Commodore quarterback Jay Cutler to end the game. On the previous possession, wide receiver Jemalle Cornelius hauled in a 16-yard reception from Chris Leak with a dramatic catch in the back of the end zone to propel UF to its 15th-straight triumph over Vanderbilt. Leak finished with a career-high 32 completions for 257 yards and 3 TD on the night. He also had a career-best 67 rushing yards and 2 TD on the ground.

FIRST-YEAR COACHES AT UF

• There have been 22 head football coaches at the University of Florida's 104 seasons of football. In their first full season as a head coach, 14 of UF's coaches finished with a winning record, two finished at even .500 and four coaches had losing records. Gary Darnell and Charlie Strong did not coach a full season.

• Among the 22 head coaches at UF, Muschamp was the sixth coach to start 4-0 or better. Just three have started 5-0 or better. Steve Spurrier won his first five games in 1990, Charles Bachman won his first eight games in 1928 and Galen Hall won his first nine games in 1984-85. Urban Meyer started his UF career 4-0 before losing at Alabama in 2005.

• There have been some standout seasons among first-year coaches at Florida. G.E. Pyle, J.A. VanFleet and Charles Bachman each only suffered one defeat in their initial season at the helm, while Ray Graves, Galen Hall, Steve Spurrier and Urban Meyer each won nine games during their first full season in charge.

Notable First Seasons for UF Head Coaches

1909	6-1-1	G.E. Pyle
1923	6-1-2	J.A. VanFleet
1925	8-2	Tom Sebring
1928	8-1	Charles Bachman
1960	9-2	Ray Graves
1985	9-1-1	Galen Hall (first full season)
1990	9-2	Steve Spurrier
2005	9-3	Urban Meyer

• Florida has also seen some coaches flop out of the gate in their first year. Both Raymond B. Wolf and Charley Pell were winless in their debut season. Wolf's first team in finished 0-9 in 1946 while Pell finished 0-10-1 in 1979.

• Hall had the most successful start to his UF coaching career. Hall took over for the final eight games of the 1984 season and led the Gators to eight-straight wins. Florida then opened the 1985 season with a win, before tying Rutgers. Hall did not lose his first game until a 15-13 loss against Georgia, giving him a 15-0-1 record in his first 16 games.

VS. RANKED OPPONENTS (Based on AP Poll Records)

• Urban Meyer began his career at Florida with the most consecutive poll appearances. He was ranked each week of his premiere season (12 weeks). In that same year, the Gators were ranked highest at No. 5 in back to back weeks (9/24/05 - vs. Tennessee & 10/1/05 - vs. Alabama). Meyer spent 51 consecutive weeks in the AP poll over a span of six seasons (09/03/05-10/30/10).

• Ron Zook faced No. 1 Miami in his first year as head coach at Florida, the highest ranked opponent any first year Florida coach has faced. The Gators lost to the Hurricanes, 41-16.

• The highest opponent that a Florida head coach has defeated in their first season has been No. 4. Three separate coaches have accomplished the feat. Urban Meyer defeated Georgia (14-10) in 2005, Ron Zook defeated Tennessee (30-13) in 2002 and Steve Spurrier claimed victory over Auburn (48-7) in 1990.

• From 1940-2005, Florida first-year coaches are 5-7 when facing opponents in the top-5 in their first year at the helm of the program. Since Steve Spurrier's debut in 1990, Florida first-year coaches are 5-2 when facing top-5 opponents. With losses in 1990 to Tennessee (5) and 2002 to Miami (1).

• Until the Alabama game, a first-year head coach at Florida had never faced a No. 3 ranked opponent. There have now been three instances where a Florida coach has faced either a No. 1 or No. 2 ranked opponent in their opening season. Ron Zook vs. No. 1 Miami on 9/7/2002 (L, 41-16), Charley Pell vs. No. 2 Alabama on 10/13/1979 (L, 40-0) and Muschamp vs. No. 1 LSU on 10/8/11 (L, 41-11).

• First-year head coach Will Muschamp faces six opponents ranked in the preseason this year. Overall, UF first-year head coaches are 12-24 vs. ranked opponents. A look at the individual coaching records vs. ranked foes in debut seasons:

Year	Coach	Record

• Florida has 43 runs of 10-or-more yards on the season, tied for the 22nd in the nation. UF has 107 total plays from scrimmage of 10-plus yards.

• Jeff Demps (157 yds) and Chris Rainey (105 yards) became the first running back duo to surpass 100 yards in the same game since Rainey (142 yds) and Emmanuel Moody (116 yds) did so against The Citadel in 2008. The last time two UF players rushed for 100 yards in the same game was in the 2009 BCS Championship game (Tim Tebow - 109 yards, Percy Harvin - 122 yards).

• Fifth-year senior CHRIS RAINEY has 2,129 rushing yards and 13 rushing TD in his career. Rainey broke the 2,000-yard mark at Kentucky. He has also totaled 719 receiving yards and six receiving TD. He leads the Gators in both rushing (526 yds, 2 TD) and receiving (305 yds, 2 TD) this season. He is the only player in the nation to lead his team in both categories.

• Rainey has 31 plays from scrimmage of 10-plus yards, tied for 14th-most in the nation. He has 19 runs of 10-or-more yards this season, the 22nd-most in the nation.

• Rainey is averaging 15.3 yards per catch, ranking fifth in the nation among all RBs. (min. 2 catches/game)

• Rainey racked up 108 yards rushing and 104 yards receiving against Tennessee, becoming just the second player in the country to tally a 100-yard rushing and receiving performance this season (Orwin Smith, Georgia Tech, 9/17). The only other Florida player to achieve this accomplishment was Percy Harvin (2007 vs. Vandy: 113 rushing, 110 receiving).

• Rainey had three 100-yard rushing games in a row (119 vs. UAB, 108 vs. Tennessee, 105 at Kentucky). He was the first UF running back to have three-consecutive 100-yard games since Fred Taylor did it in the final three games of the 1997 season.

• Rainey became just the fourth running back in school history to tally a 100-yard receiving game with his 104 against UT, the first since John L. Williams (103 yards) against Georgia 11/9/85 (also Neal Anderson, 107 yards vs. SW Louisiana 10/19/85; Tommy Durrance, 106 yards vs. Miami 11/27/71). He had the third-best receiving yardage by a Gator running back in school history.

• Rainey caught an 83-yard TD pass from Brantley against UT, the fifth-longest passing play by UF at Florida Field in school history and the longest since 1995 (96 yds, Kresser to Green vs. NIU). Rainey's catch was the longest ever by a Florida RB.

• He carried the ball a career-high 21 times against the Vols and he was named the Walter Camp National Offensive Player of the Week for his performance in Week 3.

• Rainey tallied 162 yards of total offense against UAB — a total that included 119 yards on the ground on 16 attempts (7.4 avg.), while punching in his fourth TD of the season. It marked the third 100-yard rushing performance of his career. He added 43 yards on three catches (14.3 avg.). Rainey led team in receptions for the fourth-consecutive game dating back to last season.

• Rainey scored a 14-yard rushing TD, had a 14-yard TD reception and returned a blocked punt 22 yards for a TD against FAU. He is the first Florida player in school history to score a rushing, receiving and return TD in a single game. Since 1996, Rainey is the third player in the nation to have at least one rushing TD, receiving TD and a return TD, the other two being Maurice Jones-Drew (UCLA, 10/8/05 vs. Cal; 3 rush, 1 rec., 1 return) and Jason Chery (UL-Lafayette, 10/11/08 vs. North Texas; 1 rush, 3 rec., 1 return). Rainey tied a career-high with six receptions against the Owls, the most by any UF running back since Robert Gillespie had 10 catches against UT in 2001.

• Senior JEFF DEMPS broke the 2,000-yard mark against FAU in the opener. He has 2,237 rushing yards and 21 rushing TD in his career. He also has 453 receiving yards (1 TD) and 511 kickoff return yards. He had a 99-yard kickoff return for a touchdown against Georgia.

• Demps has eight runs of 20-or-more yards, tied for 12th-most in the country.

• Against Kentucky, Demps rushed for a career-high 157 yards on just 10 carries and scored two TD. He had a career-long rush of 84 yards for a TD, the longest rush since Emmitt Smith had a 96-yard run in 1988 and the sixth-longest rush in school history.

• Demps exploded for a 35-yard TD in the second quarter against FAU and tacked on his second rushing score of the night at the 11:18 mark in the fourth quarter with a 20-yard run, marking his 19th and 20th career TD as a Gator. Demps had just three rushing TD alone in 2010. The season opener marked his third career multi-TD game. He previously had two rushing TD in 2008 vs. Arkansas and in 2009 vs. Charleston Southern. On the evening, Demps racked up 105 yards on the ground, his fifth career 100-yard rushing performance.

• Over the past several years, Demps and Rainey have shown their consistency and big-play ability. Among active players in the NCAA with at least 300 carries, the duo rank first and fifth in the nation, with Demps averaging 7.1 yards per rush and Rainey averaging 6.4 yards per rush.

• Sophomore TREY BURTON is listed as a running back, but his versatility has been displayed once again in 2011. Last season, Burton saw time at quarterback, fullback, wide receiver, tight end, h-back and on kickoff coverage. He has 439 rushing yards with 14 rushing TD and 314 receiving yards and 2 receiving TD in his career. He has scored a TD every 7.1 rushes in his career.

• Against Tennessee, Burton had his third career multi-TD game and the second when he's scored at least one receiving and one rushing TD (2010 vs. Kentucky).

• Burton found the end zone for a five-yard score against UAB, his first TD of the season — 12th rushing and 13th overall of his career. He averaged 7.7 yards on 6 carries (46 net yds), the second-highest rushing average of his career.

• In 2010, Burton set a UF record and an SEC freshman record, by scoring six TD in a single game against Kentucky (5 rushing, 1 receiving). Six TD in a single game were the most for any player in the nation since Middle Tennessee's Phillip Tanner scored six against North Texas in 2008.

• Burton scored 12 of UF's 40 TD (30 percent) last season and earned his place in the UF record books along the way.

Joyer has 8 carries for 28 yards on the season.

SPEED TO BURN

Jeff Demps won an individual national championship during the 2010 indoor track season, posting a scorching 6.57 time in the 60-meter dash. During the 2010 outdoor season, Demps captured two more individual national titles, winning the 100-meter dash in 9.96 seconds and, as a member of Florida's record-breaking 4x100-meter relay team, won the Gators' fourth relay title in school history. In the spring of 2011, Demps won the 60-meter dash at the 2011 NCAA Indoor Championship with a school-record time of 6.53 seconds, the fastest 60-meter dash time in America by an amateur athlete in nearly three years. Demps was also a member of the 2010 and 2011 Florida team's that won back-to-back NCAA Men's Indoor Track & Field titles. Having also been a part of the 2008 national champion football team, he became the first student-athlete in UF history to win a national championship in two sports.

- Left tackle XAVIER NIXON is the most experienced Gator on the offensive line with 19 starts for UF. In 2009, he became the first true freshman to start at left tackle for UF since Reggie Green did so in 1992. The last true freshman to start at either tackle position was Mo Collins at right tackle in 1995. Nixon started eight games in 2010 (7 at right tackle, 1 at left tackle) and five games in 2009 (all at left tackle).
- Senior DAN WENGER transferred to Florida from Notre Dame during the summer of 2011 and earned a starting role at left guard for the opener. DEFENSE

• Florida is fifth in the SEC and 14th in the nation in total defense (297.3 yards per game). It is fourth in the SEC and 22nd in the nation in scoring defense (19.5 ppg). The Gators are fifth in the SEC and 41st in the country by allowing 128.8 rushing yards per game. UF was the lone school that did not allow any rushing TD during the first four games.

• Florida's pass defense is third in the SEC and is seventh in the country, allowing 168.5 yards per game. The Gators held Auburn to 123 yards passing on Oct. 15 and allowed Georgia 169 yards last Saturday and have limited six of their eight opponents to under 200 yards passing.

• Opponents have rushed for 1,030 yards on 294 attempts (3.5 avg.) against UF. The average per carry is the 39th-lowest allowed in the country.

• The Gator defense is tied for 23rd in the nation in touchdowns permitted (19) and is 14th in opponent yards per touch (5.7 avg.).

• Florida has held its foes to a combined 32-for-110 (.291) on third-down conversions, seventh in the nation. Florida Atlantic was 2-for-13 (.154), UAB was 1-for-10 (.100), Tennessee was 4-for-12 (.333), Kentucky was 4-for-17 (.235), Alabama was 7-for-13 (.538), LSU was 6-for-13 (.462), Auburn was 1-for-13 (.077) and Georgia was 7-for-19 (.368).

• Florida limited Tennessee to -9 rushing yards on 21 attempts (-0.4 avg.) - marking just the sixth time in the last 12 years they held an opponent to 1.0 yards per rush or less and second time this season after FAU gained 30 yards on 30 carries in the season opener. The last time Florida held two or more opponents to 1.0 yards per rush in a season was 2006 (3 times - vs. WCU, Tenn, UCF).

• The -9 yards rushing by the Vols was the ninth-fewest allowed by Florida all-time, the seventh-fewest by an SEC opponent and the fewest since 2006 by Tennessee (-11).

• UF's nine QB hurries against Auburn were the most since they had eight versus Alabama in the 2008 SEC Championship Game on 12/6/08. The trio of William Green, Jaye Howard and Earl Okine had two apiece against the Tigers.

• Freshmen De'Ante (Pop) Saunders (S) and Marcus Roberson (CB) both started in the secondary on defense on opening night, becoming the first true freshmen duo to start in the secondary in a season opener. The last time two true freshmen had started in the season opener for the Gators on defense was 2007, when both Brandon Hicks and Jerimy Finch started at linebacker.

• The Gators had 11 tackles for a loss of 54 yards in the win over FAU, equaling their most yards for a loss in a game since Sept. 29, 2007 against Auburn (12 TFL).

• Creating pressure on the QB is a big emphasis for the Gators this season. In three seasons at Texas, Muschamp's defense averaged 3.05 sacks, 3.97 quarterback hurries and 1.33 forced fumbles in 39 games. Last season, Florida had just 21 sacks (1.62/game), 13 hurries and six forced fumbles.

• As a defensive coordinator at Texas, Auburn and LSU, Will Muschamp-Coached teams were 68-3 (.958) in games where they held opponents to 20 points or less (71 of 104 games).

DEFENSIVE LINE

• Florida held four of its opponents in 2010 under 100 yards rushing and limited its first three opponents this season under the century mark. The Gators have held 22 opponents under 100 rushing yards since the beginning of 2008. UF held Tennessee to -9 yards rushing on 21 carries (-0.4-yard average).

• The 2011 defensive line features a good mix of veterans and young players. Seniors JAYE HOWARD and OMAR HUNTER have combined for 37 career starts on the interior of the line. Senior defensive end WILLIAM GREEN has just three starts in his career, but he has been a regular in the defensive line rotation since he arrived as a true freshman in 2008.

• The Gators will be looking to get more pressure from the defensive line this season under the direction of defensive coordinator Dan Quinn and defensive line coach Bryant Young. Last season, UF had just 21 sacks, the fewest for a Florida team since 2002 (20 sacks). The Orange and Blue had three sacks last weekend against Georgia, more than they totaled in the previous three games combined. UF has 12 sacks in the last six games.

• Quinn came to UF after serving as the defensive line coach for the Seattle Seahawks for the last two seasons. Florida will look to bring a lot of pressure from the defensive line this season, as the Seahawks ranked sixth in the NFC in total sacks (37.0), with 24.0 of them coming from the defensive line. Seattle had 13 different players record at least one sack in 2010, led by end Chris Clemons who ranked seventh in the NFC with 11.0 sacks.

• A trio of sophomores look to have breakout seasons in 2011. SHARRIF FLOYD and RONALD POWELL were both named to the 2010 SEC All-Freshman Team last season and DOMINIQUE EASLEY had an impressive showing this past spring. Powell was rated the No. 1 overall recruit in the nation in 2010, while Floyd and Easley were the No. 1 and No. 2 defensive tackle prospects, respectively.

• Floyd had a career-high 11 tackles at No. 1 LSU and eight versus Georgia and Powell is tied for first on the Gators with three sacks (for 18 yards lost) this season. Easley registered a career-high nine tackles versus LSU and is tied for UF's lead with 7.0 tackles for loss in 2011, including his first career sack at Auburn.

• Howard is the leading tackler among defensive linemen, totaling 107 in his career, including 18.0 tackles-for-loss and 7.0 sacks, both tops among all current UF players. He registered the first TD of his career at Kentucky when he snagged a fumble in mid-air and waltzed two yards into the end zone. Howard matched his a season-high with eight tackles against Georgia and finished with six tackles and two quarterback hurries at Auburn. Howard is fourth on the squad with 41 tackles (19 solo) and has three QB hurries.

• Hunter has 17 career starts (11 in 2009, 6 in 2010), the third-most among Florida defenders. He has 58 total tackles in his career and seven tackles-for-loss. At Kentucky, Hunter had a then-season-high four tackles and was credited with his first fumble recovery in the first quarter. The Gators opened the scoring on the next play on a 45-yard scoring strike from John Brantley to Gerald Christian. He had a season-high five tackles at Auburn and collected his first career sack versus Georgia.

• Powell started one game as a true freshman, totaling 25 tackles, 2.5 tackles-for-loss and 1.0 sack. He was named to the 2010 SEC Coaches' All-Freshman Team. Powell plays the BUCK position in the new defensive scheme, lining up as a hybrid linebacker/defensive end. He had three tackles and a sack against UGA.

• Redshirt junior EARL OKINE, who had seen action in 16 games entering the campaign, had a career-high three solo tackles against FAU and two quarterback hurries versus Auburn.

• Redshirt sophomore defensive end KEDRIC JOHNSON had three tackles, highlighted by his first career sack, in the win over Kentucky. He also added a quarterback hurry against the Wildcats and has 2.5 tackles for a loss of seven yards this year in the eight games he has played.

LINEBACKERS

• The linebacking group is led by junior JON BOSTIC and sophomore JELANI JENKINS. Bostic started six games last season, while Jenkins started 11 games and was named to the SEC All-Freshman team. Both players were preseason All-SEC Third Team picks by the leagues' coaches.

• Bostic had a team-high nine tackles versus Georgia and a career-high 13 tackles and a sack at LSU. He totaled 10 tackles, eight of which were solo, forced his first career fumble and had a sack at Kentucky. He had previously matched his personal best with eight tackles versus Tennessee and had a sack. He leads the Gators with 60 tackles (33 solo) and has six tackles for loss (totaling 42 yards) this year and has 135 tackles, 8.5 tackles-for-loss, 4.5 sacks and three picks in his career.

• Bostic had three interceptions last season, tying for the team lead. He tied with 10 others for No. 4 in the nation among linebackers. All three of Bostic's interceptions came in UF territory, including a pick in the end zone against Tennessee in 2010.

• Jenkins is third on UF with 46 tackles (27 solo) this season and leads the squad with five pass breakups. He is second in tackles among returners, totaling 124 tackles in his career with 9.5 tackles-for-loss, three sacks, one interception and one fumble recovery. He had eight tackles at LSU after a season-high nine tackles (five solo and one for loss) against Alabama, added seven more at Auburn and had five solo tackles versus UGA.

• Junior LERENTEE MCCRAY made his first career start at the SAM linebacker spot to open the season and started in the same spot against Tennessee, LSU and Auburn. He had a career-high seven tackles in Baton Rouge, two of his four tackles against Auburn were for losses and he had first-ever sack against Georgia.

• Redshirt freshman MICHAEL TAYLOR had a career-high seven tackles against LSU and totaled six against Georgia. At Kentucky, he recorded six tackles (all solo), two of which were for loss. He snared his first career interception in the third quarter and had a 30-yard interception return that set up a 27-yard field goal by Caleb Sturgis.

SECONDARY

• Sophomore MATT ELAM, who has started all eight games at safety, is second on the Gator defense with 48 tackles, including a career-high 12 at LSU. He forced the first fumble of his career during the third quarter against UAB that was recovered by freshman Marcus Roberson, had his first career interception to ice the win over Tennessee and added another pick to set up the Gators' third touchdown of the opening quarter at Kentucky. Elam tied for the team lead with nine tackles at Auburn, two of which went for losses of 10 yards.

• Freshmen DE'ANTE (POP) SAUNDERS (S) and MARCUS ROBERSON (CB) both started against FAU, becoming the first true freshmen duo to start in the secondary in a season opener. The last time two true Gator freshmen started in the season opener on defense was 2007, when both Brandon Hicks and Jeremy Finch started at linebacker. Roberson tallied his first career interception against Georgia.

• Sophomore CODY RIGGS, who had 18 tackles and one interception as a true freshman last season, started the first seven games and equaled his career high with four tackles against Tennessee, Auburn and Georgia. Riggs was credited for his first career sack (0.5) at Kentucky and had three tackles.

• Junior JOSH EVANS established a personal best of five tackles against Georgia and picked off Tennessee's first pass of the second half, while redshirt freshman JOSH SHAW established a career high with six tackles against Auburn. Evans has 25 tackles (18 solo) and Shaw has 20 tackles this season.

• Redshirt sophomore cornerback JEREMY BROWN started 10 games last season, finishing with 15 tackles, five pass breakups, three interceptions and one tackle-for-loss. He was not able to play his first two years on campus due to chronic back problems and has missed the first eight games of 2011.

• Redshirt senior MOSES JENKINS earned the first two starts of his career last season and has 40 tackles with one interception, one tackle-for-loss and one sack. He was granted a fifth year of eligibility after missing eight games in 2009 with a concussion and began 2011 with a pair of solo tackles against UAB.

• Florida had 22 interceptions in 2010, tied for fourth in the nation, nine of which were returned for 30-plus yards, including four TD. Florida's 538 interception return yards were the most in the country last season.

SPECIAL TEAMS

- D.J. Durkin is in his second season as the Gators' special teams' coordinator. Last year, he helped UF finish second in the nation in net punting (40.9 yds). Florida's punt coverage unit allowed just 109 return yards on 51 punts.

- In 2010, Florida ranked fourth in the SEC in kickoff coverage, allowing just 20.1 yards per return. In addition, UF led the SEC in kickoff return average (26.3) as well as kickoff return TD (2).

PUNTING

- The Gators have a tough task replacing Ray Guy Award winner Chas Henry in 2011. Freshman Kyle Christy and senior David Lerner battled throughout the preseason to secure the starting spot on opening night but the Gators did not have any punts against Florida Atlantic.

- It was the first time since Nov. 21, 2009, against FIU that Florida did not have to punt in a contest and just the sixth time since 1996 without any punts.

- DAVID LERNER debuted with a pair of punts in the win over UAB, both of which were fair caught inside of the Blazers' 20-yard line.

- In his 24 punts this season, Lerner has placed seven inside of the 20 and five have been fair caught. He is averaging 38.3 yards per punt, with a long of 50 against Tennessee that was matched against Alabama.

- Making his collegiate debut at Auburn, KYLE CHRISTY punted seven times and averaged 46.1 yards per kick, with four inside of the Tigers' 20-yard line, three longer than 50 yards and two that were fair caught. He was named an Honorable Mention Punter of the Week by the College Football Performance Awards and his second career punt of 67 yards was the longest by a Gator this season and tied for the third-longest on the road in school history. Christy punted five times for an average of 39.2 yards against Georgia, with a long of 48 yards, one touchback and one inside of the 20-yard line.

KICKING

- Redshirt junior CALEB STURGIS is 15-for-16 (.938) on field-goal attempts and 19-for-19 on extra points to hold the team lead with 64 points. He is tied for second nationally in field goals made and is tied for 26th in kicking points in 2011. Sturgis was sidelined for the game against Georgia.

- Sturgis had at least one field goal in the first seven Gator contests this year and has made multiple conversions in five of the seven outings he has played.

- Before missing a 52-yard attempt in the second quarter against Alabama, Sturgis had made 14-straight field goals dating back to last season (a streak that was third in school history). The school record for consecutive field goals made is 17, set by Bobby Raymond in 1984.

- Florida had a stretch of 17 field goals made in a row dating back to last season end against the Crimson Tide, the second-longest streak in school history.

Consecutive Field Goals Made (Florida - All-Time)

1. 28.....1984-85 (made last 18 of '84, first 10 of '85)
2. 17.....2010-11 (made last 5 of '10, first 12 of '11)
- 17.....2001-02 (made last 16 of '01, first of '02)
4. 11.....3x (1978, 2000, 2008)

- Sturgis returned to full health for the 2011 season after missing eight games with a back injury last season. He was a semifinalist for the Lou Groza Award in 2009 after converting 22 of 30 field-goal attempts with a long of 56 yards (vs. Georgia).

- Sturgis established a single-game best with 15 points against Tennessee, connecting on field goals from 28, 30, 46 and 42 yards and he also was 3-for-3 on point-after attempts.

- Sturgis scored the Gators first points of the season with a 51-yard field goal in the first quarter versus Florida Atlantic. He became the sixth kicker in UF history to make at least three 50-yard field goals in his career (Berj Yepremian, 4; Jeff Chandler, Matt Leach, Chris Perkins and David Posey each had 3).

- Sturgis has converted 84 of 89 (.944) point-after attempts in his career and is 39-for-50 (.780) on field-goal attempts. He has 201 total points in his career and is fifth in field goals made at UF (39).

- Sturgis handles kickoffs for the Gators and has 41 kicks for 2,719 yards and a 66.3 average this year, with eight touchbacks and one out of bounds. In his career, he has averaged 64.6 yards per kickoff with 34 touchbacks.

- Sophomore BRAD PHILLIPS stepped in for Sturgis against Georgia and was 2-for-3 on field goals, making kicks of 43 and 40 yards after missing from 38 yards on the Gators' opening drive.

RETURN GAME

- Florida returned five kickoffs for 200 yards against Georgia, the highest single-game average (40.0) in the SEC this season and second-best nationally (Arizona State averaged 53.7 per return on Sept. 1 against UC Davis). UF's average versus the Bulldogs was its highest in an outing since posting a 37.0 average in the win over Troy during the 2007 campaign.

- Senior JEFF DEMPS had a 99-yard touchdown return in the second quarter in Jacksonville, becoming the sixth player in school history to have a kickoff return of at least 99 yards (three with 100). His return matched the longest in the SEC this season and the fifth time in 2011 that has happened.

- Against Florida Atlantic, Demps returned a pair of kickoffs 30 yards (15.0 avg.) and had an 88-yard TD return on the first play of the game nullified by a holding penalty. He had a 28-yard kick return in the first quarter versus Alabama and has four kick returns for 157 yards this year (39.2 avg.).

- Last season, the Gators ranked sixth in the nation in kickoff return average (26.3 yds/return). Sophomore ANDRE DEBOSE returned two kicks for TD, tied for second-most in the country, and averaged 28.0 yards per kick return, 15th-best in the nation and second-best in the SEC.

- Debose had a 50-yard kick return to start the UAB game, marking the fourth time in his 22 career returns to that point that he had a return of 50-plus yards. It was the seventh time in the past 15 games that the Gators had a kickoff return of 50 or more yards. Debose has returned 10 kicks this year for 280 yards (28.0 avg.), including a season-best 63-yarder against Georgia.

- Debose was selected as a Freshman All-American by the Sporting News and named the nation's top kick returner by the College Football Performance Awards. He was selected third-team Preseason All-SEC entering 2011.

- In 2010, Debose recorded an 88-yard kickoff return for a TD against LSU, marking the first for UF since Brandon James took one back in the 2009 season opener against Charleston Southern. Debose became the second freshman in UF history to have a kickoff return for a TD, joining Bo Carroll, who accomplished the feat in 1997.

- Debose then took the opening kickoff vs. South Carolina back for a 99-yard TD, setting a UF single-season record with his second kickoff return for a TD. He has also tied the school career record (Bo Carroll, Stacey Simmons).

- Debose tied the UF single-game record with 159 kickoff return yards vs. South Carolina (Tony Lomack, vs. Kentucky, Nov. 18, 1989) last season. Debose's 154 vs. LSU in 2010 marked the third-highest single-game total in UF history. Chris Rainey totaled 148 vs. Georgia, which is the fourth-highest in team history.

- Last season, Florida was the only school in the nation to have five different players return a kickoff 45 or more yards, with Debose, Jeff Demps, Mike Gillislee, Solomon Patton and Chris Rainey all doing so.

- SOLOMON PATTON had a season-high 33-yard kickoff return against Alabama and also had career highs in kick returns (5) and kick return yardage (132) versus the Crimson Tide. He has 10 returns for 241 yards this season (24.1 avg.).

BLOCKED KICKS

- Florida has blocked three kicks in Will Muschamp's first eight games as a head coach. In UF's season opener, sophomore SOLOMON PATTON blocked an FAU punt in the third quarter that was returned 22 yards by redshirt senior CHRIS RAINEY for a TD. It marked the second-straight contest that Patton had blocked a punt (2011 Outback Bowl vs. Penn State). Rainey blocked a punt in the second quarter against Tennessee, his fifth block to establish a school and SEC record. He is the active leader nationally in career blocked punts and is tied for 10th-best since the NCAA began tracking the stat in 1937. Patton added another punt block in the fourth quarter at LSU.

- Last season, UF led the SEC with four blocked kicks (three punts, one field goal), the fourth time in the past five years that the Gators have led the league in that category.

- Omar Hunter got the first blocked kick of the 2010 season for Florida, knocking down a 35-yard field goal attempt by Kentucky's Craig McIntosh in the fourth quarter, which set up a UF TD drive.

- Rainey blocked two punts against Vanderbilt in 2010, the first gave UF the ball at Vandy's three-yard line and set up the Gators' first TD. The second was returned 42 yards by Patton for a TD, the first of his career.

- Rainey was responsible for four-consecutive UF punt blocks, with blocks against Kentucky and Mississippi State in 2009 and the two blocks against Vanderbilt in 2010. Two of them were returned for a TD, as Rainey took his '09 block against Kentucky 23 yards for a TD.

- Patton recorded his first career punt block in the second quarter of the Outback Bowl. Defensive end Lerentee McCray scooped up the ball and took it 27 yards for the TD, the first of his career.

FAMILY TRADITION

- JOHN CROFOOT played in nine games last season, serving as the holder on the field-goal unit, and he has continued in this role to start the 2011 campaign. Kyle Crofoot, John's younger brother, joined the team in the summer of 2011 as a walk-on. With John and Kyle, there have now been five members of the Crofoot family to serve as special-teamers at SEC schools, following brothers Clayton (Auburn, 2008-09), Chas (Auburn, 2004-05) and Ike (South Carolina, 2003-06).

TITLE CENTRAL

Florida is the only school in the nation to win three outright national titles since 1990. The 2006 and 2008 national championships were decided in the BCS National Championship Game, and Florida was the unanimous pick in all four major polls in 1996. Nebraska has also won three national titles in that time frame (1994, 1995, 1997), but the 1997 title was split with Michigan.

GATORS AND THE POLLS

- The Gators opened the season ranked No. 22 in the AP Preseason Poll and No. 23 in the USA Today Preseason Coaches' Poll. Florida will play six teams ranked in the top 25 of the preseason polls, including all four opponents in the month of October. UF is the only school in the nation scheduled to play three top-five teams in the USA Today preseason poll.
- Florida was ranked in the USA Today Preseason Poll for the 21st year in a row. During that 21-year span, Florida opened the season ranked in the top 10 19 times, including earning the top spot three times (1997, 2001, 2009). The last time Florida did not open the season in the top 10 was in 2003 (No. 21).
- UF has been ranked in each of the past eight AP preseason polls, dating back to 2003. That streak ranks third in the SEC behind LSU (11-straight preseason polls) and UGA (10-straight preseason polls).

 - Florida broke its single-game attendance record in 2009, drawing 90,907 to The Swamp for the Nov. 28 showdown against Florida State. It marked the largest crowd ever to watch a football game in the state of Florida. The state has hosted 14 Super Bowls, three BCS national title games and has featured 18 bowl games that included a team that went on to win at least a share of the national title.
 - The crowd of 90,888 for the UF-Alabama game on Oct. 1 was the second-highest single-game total in school history and the most since 90,885 watched the Orange and Blue face South Carolina on Nov. 13, 2010.

 - The largest crowd for a home opener at The Swamp was 90,707 in UF's 2005 win over Wyoming in Urban Meyer's first game as head coach of the Gators. The 2009 opener (90,621) was the second-largest.

PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

The University of Florida is the only school in the Southeastern Conference to have two inductees into the NFL Hall of Fame since 2001.

Former Gator running back Emmitt Smith was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, on Aug. 7, 2010, following Gator great Jack Youngblood into the elite fraternity.

Smith was a three-time All-American at UF from 1987-89. He established 58 school records in three seasons, including a career rushing mark of 3,928. Following his junior season with the Gators, Smith was a first-round selection in the 1990 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys. He finished his career with 18,355 rushing yards and 164 rushing TD, both of which are NFL records. He was named the honorary captain for the 2011 UF vs. Tennessee game.

Youngblood, regarded as the best defensive end in UF history, became the first Gator enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2001. He was named to the All-SEC team of the decade for the 1970s and was the Most Outstanding Player at the 1971 Senior Bowl. He went on to be a five-time All-Pro player for the L.A. Rams. Youngblood appeared in a Rams' record 201 consecutive games and only missed one game in his 14 seasons, that one coming in his final season in 1984.

UF'S LEGENDARY STATUS

NATION'S ELITE

- No other school has captured a national title while facing the nation's toughest schedule. According to NCAA statistics, Florida has done so twice, in 1996 and 2006, and also won the 2008 title facing the second-toughest schedule in the country. UF is one of two schools (Arkansas) to face a top-10 strength of schedule in four of the past five seasons (2006, '07, '08, '09).
- UF is the only school to claim three national championships in the past 13 years. The Gators have also played in the national championship game four times in the past 14 years.
- Florida is one of only two schools in the nation with three quarterbacks to win the Heisman Trophy and one of two schools nationally to have multiple Heisman winners since 1996.
- Florida is the only school in the nation to post 100 wins during each of the last two decades. UF won 102 games in the 1990s and 100 games in the 2000s. UF is one of only three schools in NCAA history to win 100 or more games in two different decades.
- The Gators won at least nine games for a period of 12 consecutive years (1990-2001), something only three schools in major college history have done and no other SEC school has done.
- Florida became one of six schools in major college history to win 100 games during a decade, producing a 102-22-1 record in the 1990s. UF again reached that benchmark in the 2000s, going 100-30.
- UF is the only school in modern major college history to score 500 or more points for a period of four-straight years (1993-96).
- Florida is one of two schools to have a player selected in the first round on the NFL Draft for nine consecutive years, with a Gator being tabbed each year from 1983-91 (Miami, 14 years, 1995-2008).
- UF is one of only four schools in the nation to have multiple recipients of the William V. Campbell Trophy (formerly the Draddy Trophy), which is presented by the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame to the nation's top football scholar-athlete. (Brad Culpepper, '91; Danny Wuerffel, '96; Tim Tebow, '09)
- UF is the only school in the nation to have a Heisman Trophy recipient who also received the Campbell Trophy. Wuerffel accomplished both in 1996, while Tebow earned the Heisman in 2007 and the Campbell in 2009.

SEC ELITE

- Florida is one of two SEC schools to have three Heisman Trophy winners: Steve Spurrier (1966), Danny Wuerffel (1996) and Tim Tebow (2007).
- No other SEC school has won at least 10 games for a period of six-consecutive years (1993-98), something only three schools in major college history have done.
- The Gators are the only SEC team to rank in the top 15 of the final polls for 12-straight years, and only four have done it in major college football history.
- The Gators have the best league record over a 100-SEC-game span, going 87-13 in SEC play from the beginning of the 1990 season through the seventh conference game of 2001.
- Florida is only one of two schools in SEC history to claim four league championships in a row (1993-96). Florida has played in 10 of the 19 SEC Championship Games that have been held, winning seven.

GATORS PRO SUCCESS

THE 2010 ROOKIE CLASS

- Maurkice Pouncey was the lone offensive rookie selected for the 2010 Pro Bowl roster. Pouncey started every game for the Steelers, becoming the first Steeler rookie lineman since Frank Varrichione in 1955 to accomplish either of those feats.
- With Pouncey's Pro Bowl selection, Florida became the only school in the nation to have a rookie earn that honor in each of the past two seasons. Percy Harvin garnered that recognition following his 2009 rookie campaign with the Minnesota Vikings.
- Joe Haden, the NFL Defensive Rookie of the Month for November, finished second among rookies with six interceptions in 2010. He became the first Browns rookie since 1959 (former Gator Bernie Parrish) to pick off a pass in three-consecutive games and the first Cleveland player to do so since Eric Turner in 1994.
- Jermaine Cunningham (11), Aaron Hernandez (seven) and Brandon Spikes (eight) combined to start 26 games for the New England Patriots, who finished with a NFL-best 14-2 record and the No. 1 seed in the AFC Playoffs. Cunningham tied for the rookie lead in forced fumbles, while Hernandez finished third among NFL rookies in receiving yards and tied for third in receiving TD.
- Tim Tebow finished the season second among NFL rookies with six rushing TD for the Broncos and first in yards per carry (min. 40 carries).
- Carlos Dunlap set a Bengals rookie record with 9.5 sacks, which was just a half sack behind rookie leader Ndamukong Suh.

HISTORY OF SUCCESS

- Florida has seen 20 former players go on to appear in the NFL's Pro Bowl. Of those, 12 made multiple appearances in the all-star showcase. Last season, Steelers center Maurkice Pouncey was the lone offensive rookie to earn the honor.
- A Gator has earned a Pro Bowl berth in 32 of the past 36 NFL seasons, including 12 of the past 13 and a streak of 11 consecutive Pro Bowls from 1986-96.
- At least one former UF player has appeared in the Super Bowl 27 times. Four Gators have appeared in the big game on two occasions (Super Bowls XXX and XLI).
- Thirteen former Gators have combined to win 20 Super Bowl rings. Don Chandler, Wilber Marshall and Max Starks have each won two, and Emmitt Smith and Godfrey Miles each claimed three.
- Florida is one of two schools (Pitt) that has two players, Emmitt Smith and Fred Taylor, on the top-15 list of the NFL's all-time top rushers.
- Percy Harvin earned Offensive Rookie of the Year for his performance with the Minnesota Vikings in 2009. He then led the team in all major receiving and kickoff return categories in 2010.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING

"It's going to be a challenge, of course, but I'm ready for everything. I'm just so blessed and honored too, because when I was at Florida, I played against Andre Caldwell, Louis Murphy and Percy Harvin every day in practice. So playing versus those dudes definitely got me ready for the next level. I think just being able to play against that type of talent will just transfer over and help the transition a whole lot easier."

HEAD COACH WILL MUSCHAMP

When athletic director Jeremy Foley began his search for the University of Florida's next head football coach, he knew exactly what he was looking for in a coach: someone familiar with the Southeastern Conference, a coach who had competed on the big stage, a relentless recruiter who was familiar with the state of Florida and the SEC and someone with energy and passion.

From the very beginning, the search honed in on one person and on December 11, 2010, former Gainesville native Will Muschamp was introduced by Foley as the 23rd head coach in Florida football history.

"It was very, very clear early on that this was the guy we wanted to bring to Gainesville to lead our football program and build on the wonderful foundation that's been left here by Urban Meyer," said Foley at Muschamp's introductory press conference.

Muschamp, 40, came to UF after being the coach-in-waiting and defensive coordinator at the University of Texas since November 2008. He brings 16 years of coaching experience with him, including 12 years in the SEC, eight as a coach and four as a player at the University of Georgia. Muschamp has also served as defensive coordinator at Auburn University (2006-07) and LSU (2002-04; he was LSU's linebackers coach in 2001) and was a finalist for the 2007 Broyles Award as the nation's top assistant coach. The son of a football coach, he turned down appointments at West Point and Annapolis to become a four-year letterman as a safety at the University of Georgia from 1991-94, where he was voted defensive co-captain as a senior.

"This is a dream come true to be the head coach of the Florida Gators," said Muschamp, who spent 10 years of his childhood living on 27th Street in this city. "I grew up watching the Gators and whatever other SEC team was on television. I have great memories watching SEC football with my father on Saturdays and playing football in the backyard with my two brothers right here in Gainesville."

Not only does Muschamp, a highly-respected coach among both his peers and his players, bring collegiate and National Football League experience back to Gainesville, he also brings a wealth of big-game experience. He has coached in two national championship games, winning the ultimate prize in 2003 while defensive coordinator at LSU, and coached in a third BCS bowl game following the 2008 season, when Texas won the Fiesta Bowl. In addition to his national championship past, Muschamp has coached in the SEC Championship Game twice and in the Big 12 Championship Game once, coming out on the winning side in each of those three contests.

In his five seasons as an SEC defensive coordinator, Muschamp's defenses ranked among the nation's top 10 in total defense every single year, while always maintaining a top-15 rating in scoring defense, including three times inside the top 10.

In four of his eight seasons overall as a Division I defensive coordinator, the high-energy coach's team has allowed less than 100 rushing yards per game and has twice led the nation in rushing defense while yielding less than 75 rushing yards per game. His 2003 LSU defense led the country by allowing 67 yards per game on the ground, the best mark by an SEC team in the 2000s, while Texas gave up just 73.1 yards on the ground in 2009 to pace the nation.

From 2008-10 under Muschamp's guidance, the Texas defense ranked No. 1 in the nation with 119 sacks for 949 yards lost. His unit also ranked in the top 10 nationally during the same time frame in several other major categories, allowing 2.9 yards per rushing attempt (third), 96.7 rushing yards per game (fourth), 297.4 yards per game (seventh), all of which are Big 12 bests during that span. He also helped the Longhorns' defense to top-20 rankings during his tenure at Texas, with 650 first downs allowed (18th) and a 114.3 pass efficiency defense (20th).

In 2009, the Texas Longhorns advanced to the BCS National Championship Game as Muschamp's charges gave up just 73.1 rushing yards per game, the best figure by any BCS school from 2008-10. The Longhorns also led the nation in third-down defense (26.5 percent), turnovers created (37, tied with Ohio University) and interceptions (25) as Texas claimed the Big 12 championship in 2009.

Under Muschamp's tutelage at Texas, Brian Orakpo claimed the 2008 Rotary Lombardi Award (lineman of the year), Bronko Nagurski Trophy (most outstanding defensive player) and Ted Hendricks Award (top defensive end), while the Longhorns' defense saw Sergio Kindle become the first player in college football history to be named a finalist for both the Butkus Award (nation's top linebacker) and the Hendricks Award. Earl Thomas also earned finalist honors for the Jim Thorpe Award in 2009.

In the 2009 and 2010 NFL Drafts, Muschamp had a combined eight players drafted, including seven in the first four rounds and two first-rounders in Orakpo and Thomas.

In a two-year stint as the defensive coordinator at Auburn from 2006-07, Muschamp's defense ranked third in the nation in scoring defense (15.4 points per game) and fourth in the nation pass defense (170.7 pass yards per game). During the same time frame, Auburn ranked third in the SEC in total defense by holding opponents to 295.1 yards per game.

Muschamp's first full-time coaching experience in the SEC came at LSU as the linebackers coach for one season before being elevated to defensive coordinator from 2002-04. His 2003 defense helped the Tigers to the national championship by leading the nation both in scoring defense (11.0 points per game) and total defense (252.0 yards per game), while finishing second nationally in pass efficiency defense (89.8) and third in rushing defense (67.0 yards per game). The Tigers allowed just 19 TD all season in 2003, three less than the next closest competitor nationally.

Between his positions at LSU and Auburn, Muschamp spent a season with the NFL's Miami Dolphins in 2005 as Assistant Head Coach for Defense. He helped the Dolphins finish second in the league with 49 sacks, while leading Miami to top-10 finishes with 4.7 yards per play (seventh), 3.7 yards per rush (seventh) and 6.0 yards per pass (ninth).

The 1994 graduate of the University of Georgia moved immediately into coaching following his collegiate playing career, working as a graduate assistant at Auburn from 1995-96, earning his master's degree in 1996. He became a secondary coach at West Georgia (1998) and Eastern Kentucky (1999) before moving on to his first defensive coordinator position at Valdosta State for the 2000 season, where he helped the Blazers to a 10-2 record and the Gulf South Conference championship with an 8-1 league mark.

In his playing career at Georgia, Muschamp earned his way from walk-on to scholarship player by the spring of his redshirt freshman season and eventually was named co-captain for his senior season. He also earned a spot on the SEC Academic Honor Roll in 1993.

Muschamp and his wife, Carol, have two sons, Jackson and Whit.

In a continuing effort to reach out to former UF lettermen, the Gators held their annual Former Letterwinners BBQ before to the 2011 season. This was a tradition that started prior to the 2005 season under Urban Meyer.

A new initiative this season, the Gators will have honorary captains for each home contest.

IN THE BOOTH

Brian White (running backs) and Travaris Robinson (defensive backs) will coach from the booth on game days, along with Kirk Callahan (defensive graduate assistant) and Adam Sitter (offensive graduate assistant).

The staff that head coach Will Muschamp has assembled brings together a collection of coaches with vast experience, and not just in college. Florida's total of 53 years of experience in the NFL (combined coaching and playing) is 21 years more than the next closest SEC school.

ASSISTANT COACHES

D.J. DURKIN | Linebackers/Special Teams Coordinator

In his second season with the Gators, Durkin will oversee the linebacker group and coordinate special teams. Last season, Durkin mentored Ray Guy Award winner Chas Henry, who was a consensus All-American at punter. In his first season with UF, his linebacker unit helped the Gators post the 31st-ranked run defense in the nation (130.6 yds/game). In 2010, UF led the SEC in kickoff return average (26.8/return) and kickoff return TD (2).

AUBREY HILL | Wide Receivers/Recruiting Coordinator

Former Gator wide receiver Aubrey Hill enters his first season as the wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator after spending three seasons in the same role at Miami (Fla.). Hill coached Miami WR Leonard Hankerson to one of the best seasons in program history in 2010 with 13 TD catches and 1,156 receiving yards. He coached two WRs to first-team All-Big East honors while at Pittsburgh. As a player at Florida, Hill helped the Gators to a 43-10-1 record and three SEC Championships in his four seasons.

DEREK LEWIS | Tight Ends

Entering his first season at Florida, Lewis will oversee the tight ends. He spent the past four seasons as Tight Ends/Assistant Special Teams Coach at the University of Minnesota. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, University of Texas, where he mentored David Thomas, the most prolific receiving TE in Longhorns history (98 catches, 1,367 yds, 15 TD in career). Lewis played for years at Texas and was voted First Team All-Big 12 in 1997.

DAN QUINN | Defensive Coordinator/Defensive Line

After spending 10 seasons in the NFL, Quinn returns to the college ranks as UF's Defensive Coordinator and Defensive Line Coach. He served as the defensive line coach with the Seattle Seahawks (2009-10), New York Jets (2007-08), Miami Dolphins (2005-06) and San Francisco 49ers (2003-04). In seven of his 10 seasons in the NFL, Quinn's opponents averaged less than one rushing TD per game, including three seasons of 10 or less total.

TRAVARIS ROBINSON | Defensive Backs

Robinson joins the staff as the Defensive Backs coach after previously working with Coach Muschamp at Auburn as a student assistant and graduate assistant. In 2010, Robinson coached the secondary at Texas Tech and mentored two DBs to All-Big 12 Honorable Mention honors. In previous coaching stops, Robinson coached CBs at Southern Miss (2009) and DBs at Western Kentucky (2008). He played four years at Auburn (1999-2002) and two seasons in the NFL with the Atlanta Falcons and Tampa Bay Bucs.

FRANK VERDUCCI | Offensive Line/Run Game Coordinator

Verducci brings 28 years of experience at the collegiate and NFL levels to the Gators' staff and will oversee the offensive line in 2011. As the OL coach at Notre Dame in 2009, Verducci mentored two NFL Draft picks who went on to make active rosters. He was the OL coach for the Dallas Cowboys in 2002 when former Gator Emmitt Smith broke the all-time NFL rushing record. Iowa's career, single-season and single-game rushing records were all broken while Verducci served as OL coach.

CHARLIE WEIS | Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks

A 32-year coaching veteran, including 16 in the NFL and five as head coach at Notre Dame, Weis has coached in five Super Bowls, owns four Super Bowl rings and has been a part of teams that appeared in six AFC Championship games. In 2010 with the Kansas City Chiefs, Weis helped the team win 10 games and win the AFC West title with an offense that led the NFL in rushing (164.2 yds/game). He has developed quarterbacks such as Tom Brady, Matt Cassel, Brady Quinn and Jimmy Clausen.

BRIAN WHITE | Running Backs

Entering his third season with the Gators, White changes roles and will serve as the running backs coach in 2011. He has 25 years of coaching experience and was the 2004 winner of the AFCA Division I Assistant Coach of the Year. He coached TE Aaron Hernandez in 2009, who became the first Gator and first player from the SEC to win the John Mackey Award. White served as RB coach for Wisconsin from 1995-2006 and mentored Ron Dayne during his 1999 Heisman Trophy season.

BRYANT YOUNG | Defensive Line

A former All-American defensive tackle at Notre Dame, Young was the seventh overall pick in the 1994 NFL Draft and the 1994 NFL Rookie of the Year. He totaled 89.5 sacks in his 14-year NFL playing career and was a four-time Pro Bowler and 1996 First Team All-Pro DT. After his playing days ended, Young returned to his alma mater as a graduate assistant for one season before taking the DL coach position at San Jose State in 2010.

GAME 1

NO. 22/23 FLORIDA 41, FLORIDA ATLANTIC 3

September 3, 2011

Ben Hill Griffin Stadium at Florida Field | Gainesville, FL

Attendance: 88,708

The 2011 football season and the Will Muschamp Era began with a "boom," as the Gators dominated Florida Atlantic from start to finish en route to a 41-3 victory. For the Gators it was their 22nd consecutive season-opening win. Chris Rainey and Jeff Demps combined for five touchdowns, while John Brantley was extremely efficient on the evening. Rainey scored three touchdowns in three different ways (a first by a Gator in school history) - one rushing, one receiving and on a blocked punt return, while he and Demps combined for 271 yards of offense to set the pace. Demps finished with 12 carries for 105 yards and two touchdowns, while also hauling in three passes for 21 yards. Rainey had 11 carries for 79 yards and a score and six receptions for 67 yards and a touchdown. Brantley finished the night 21-of-30 passing for 229 yards and a touchdown. In the first half, he propelled the Gators to a 24-3 lead, including a 5-for-5 clip on third-down plays with four first downs in the process. On the first drive, Brantley methodically marched the Gators down the field, with Rainey doing it on the ground and as a receiver to set up a 51-yard field goal by Caleb Sturgis. Brantley completed 4-of-5 passes on the drive for 40 yards while Rainey rushed three times for 23 yards and caught two passes for 15 more yards. The drive was derailed by a high snap over Brantley's head before the senior QB hit Quinton Dunbar with a 14-yard gain to put the Gators back in field-goal range. Brantley later hit Rainey with a 14-yard touchdown pass to put the Gators up, 10-0. On the Gators' third drive, they marched 68 yards in just three plays, capping it with Demps' 35-yard touchdown run to increase the lead to 17-0. Florida's next drive was a 9-play, 91-yard effort that ended in Rainey's second touchdown of the game, a 14-yard run, set up by Brantley spreading the ball around to multiple receivers. The Owls got on the board with 1:22 left in the half on a 27-yard field goal by Vinny Zaccario. In the third quarter, Solomon Patton blocked a punt that Rainey scooped up and returned it 20 yards for a touchdown, his third TD of the game. It was his second career returned blocked punt, while it's the first three touchdown game of his career. Demps padded the Gators' lead in the fourth quarter with a 20-yard TD run and Sturgis added a 29-yard field goal with 1:46 left.

GAME 2

NO. 18/18 FLORIDA 39, UAB 0

September 10, 2011

Ben Hill Griffin Stadium at Florida Field | Gainesville, FL

Attendance: 87,743

It wasn't always pretty, but it was effective. The No. 18 University of Florida football team rolled up over 500 yards of offense and pitched its first shutout since 2006, picking up a convincing 39-0 victory over UAB at Ben Hill Griffin Stadium in the Gators' final tune-up before heading into SEC play. Chris Rainey ran for 119 yards on 16 carries, keying a Gator rushing attack that amassed 300 yards on the ground and Florida finished with 512 yards of total offense. The Gators held UAB to 212 total yards, just 71 on the ground and shut out an opponent for the first time since beating Western Carolina, 62-0, in 2006. After a 50-yard return from Andre Debose on the opening kickoff, the Gators went straight to their bag of tricks, getting a 40-yard flea-flicker from John Brantley to Quinton Dunbar. Unable to punch it across the goal line, Florida settled for a 24-yard Caleb Sturgis field goal to grab a 3-0 lead just over two minutes into play. On the Gators' second drive, they marched 12 plays and 62 yards before Sturgis added his second field goal of the game to take a 6-0 lead. True freshman Hunter Joyer made his first career carry a memorable one, a 3-yard touchdown run to put the Gators up 13-0 late in the first quarter. Joyer was the fourth Gator since 2008 to score a touchdown on his first carry. Sturgis added his third field goal of the game with 4:10 left in the second quarter, capping an 8-play, 46-yard drive that was highlighted by a 26-yard run by Trey Burton. On the ensuing drive, the Blazers snapped the ball through punter Trey Ragland's hands and out of the end zone for a safety to put the Gators up 18-0 with 2:32 left in the half. After a short kick following the safety, the Gators wasted little time going back to work. Brantley hit Debose for an 18-yard completion to the UAB 14. Moments later, Burton scored his first touchdown of the season on a 5-yard run to give the Gators a 25-0 lead heading into the locker room. After Marcus Roberson recovered a fumble on the Blazers' opening drive of the second half, the Gators wasted little time, as Rainey took it in from 19 yards out to put the Gators up, 32-0. The touchdown was set up by a 18-yard strike from Brantley to Dunbar and a 12-yard run by Burton. Facing a fourth down in its own territory, UAB tried a fake punt on fourth down but the Gators stopped it short. After taking over on the UAB 36, the Gators needed just three plays to add to the lead and did so when Mike Gillislee scored from 13 yards out for a 39-0 lead.

GAME 3

NO. 16/17 FLORIDA 33, TENNESSEE 23

September 17, 2011

Ben Hill Griffin Stadium at Florida Field | Gainesville, FL

Attendance: 90,744

No. 16/17 Florida claimed its SEC opener for the seventh-consecutive year, as the Gators defeated Tennessee, 33-23, before a crowd of 90,744 at Ben Hill Griffin Stadium. Florida broke open what was a close game at the half, getting two scores early in the third quarter, a 1-yard run by Trey Burton and an 83-yard highlight reel touchdown reception from Chris Rainey to grab a 30-7 lead. Burton opened the scoring with a 1-yard touchdown reception earlier in the game and Caleb Sturgis hit four field goals to improve to 9-for-9 on the year. Rainey finished a spectacular night with the first 100/100 game of his career — 100 yards rushing and receiving. He finished with 21 carries for 108 yards and two receptions for 104 while also blocking a punt. Tennessee quarterback Tyler Bray threw three touchdown passes, connecting for one each with Marlin Lane, Da'Rick Rogers and Mychal Rivera, while also getting a field goal from Michael Palardy. Florida wasted little time jumping out in front, marching 80 yards on nine plays in just over four minutes, with John Brantley connecting with Burton for the touchdown and early lead. Brantley went 5-for-5 passing for 52 yards and the touchdown pass on the opening drive. After a missed field goal by UT, the Gators once again moved the ball efficiently on offense. Sturgis was true on a 28-yard attempt to give the Gators a 10-0 lead. After Rainey's school-record fifth blocked punt, the Gators settled for a 30-yard field goal from Sturgis to grab a 13-0 lead and he added a 46-yard field goal for a 16-0 margin. Tennessee marched 89 yards on just six plays with the benefit of two pass interference calls and Bray hit a wide open Lane for an 8-yard touchdown with just under two minutes left in the half to get the Vols on the board, cutting the lead to 16-7. UT received the kick to start the second half but Florida made the first impact play when Josh Evans picked off Bray to set the Gators up at the Vols' 42-yard line. Burton's second touchdown of the game, a one-yard run, resulted in a 23-7 lead. After the Gators forced another punt, Rainey took a short dump pass by Brantley and did the rest himself, going 83 yards for the longest touchdown reception of his career, giving Florida a commanding 30-7. Tennessee grabbed a measure of momentum late in the third quarter, when the Vols recovered a fumble by Demps setting them up at the Gators' 17-yard line and Bray hit Rogers for a 14-yard score to cut the margin to 30-13. Palardy later kicked a 20-yard field goal to cut Florida's lead to 30-16. The Gators answered with a 42-yard field goal from Sturgis to increase the lead to 33-16. The Vols wouldn't go away, as Bray connected with Rivera for his third touchdown pass of the day cutting the lead to 33-23 with 4:46 to go. Tennessee got the ball back late but Matt Elam ended any thoughts of a comeback with an interception of Bray to ice the game.

GAME 4

NO. 15/15 FLORIDA 48, KENTUCKY 10

September 24, 2011

Commonwealth Stadium | Lexington, KY

Attendance: 65,134

No. 15/15 Florida improved to 4-0 for the third-straight year with a convincing 48-10 victory over Kentucky, beating the Wildcats for the 25th consecutive time. The Gators turned four Kentucky turnovers into 24 points and rushed for over 400 yards as a team in a dominating victory. The Gators used a perfect balance of quick, efficient offense and attacking defense, getting a 45-yard touchdown pass from John Brantley to Gerald Christian, 20 and 84-yard runs by Jeff Demps, a 1-yard run by Trey Burton, a fumble return by Jaye Howard and a 60-yard run by Mike Gillislee. Florida again raced out to the lead on the legs of its 1-2 running back tandem of Demps and Chris Rainey. Demps had 10 rushes for 157 yards and two touchdowns while Rainey hit the century mark again with 15 carries for 105 yards. It was the first time two Gators had gone over 100 yards rushing in the same game since Tim Tebow and Percy Harvin did so in the 2009 BCS Championship Game. The Gators rushed for 405 yards on the night on 46 carries (8.8 yards per attempt), the second time in four outings they've amassed better than 300 yards on the ground. On Kentucky's second possession, the Gators were able to make an impact, as Lerentee McCray stripped Josh Clemons and Omar Hunter recovered the fumble at the Wildcats' 45-yard line. It took just one play for the Gators to capitalize, as Brantley found Christian over the middle and the sophomore tight end scored from 45 yards out for a 7-0 lead. The Gator defense stepped up again and forced a quick punt, setting Florida up at the Kentucky 42 on its next drive. On the fourth play, Demps took it around the right side and sprinted to the end zone for a 14-0 lead. After an interception by Matt Elam and a spectacular 27-yard run by Rainey, Burton found the end zone on a 1-yard run to give the Gators a 21-0 lead. UF's three scoring drives took just seven plays, covered 126 yards and consumed just 2:08 off the clock combined. The Wildcats responded with a 23-yard field goal from Craig McIntosh to end the first quarter. Early in the second quarter, Jon Bostic got a hit on UK's Morgan Newton, who fumbled and Howard scooped it and returned it two yards for a 28-3 lead. Florida's defense forced three first-half turnovers and turned it into 21 points. With 2:54 left in the half, Caleb Sturgis made it 31-3 with a 45-yard field goal. A fumble at the Gators' 26 by freshman Jeff Driskel set up a 19-yard touchdown pass from Newton to La'Rod King to cut the lead to 31-10 at the half. In the second half, the Wildcats pinned the Gators back at their 1-yard line after downing a punt near the goal line. Moments later, however, Demps showed his track speed, racing 84 yards for a touchdown, the sixth-longest rush in UF history. Linebacker Michael Taylor's first career interception set up a 27-yard field goal by Sturgis late in the third quarter. Gillislee made it 48-10 with an electrifying 60-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter, the longest rush of his career, which closed out the scoring.

GAME 5

NO. 3/2 ALABAMA 38, NO. 12/12 FLORIDA 10

October 1, 2011

Ben Hill Griffin Stadium at Florida Field | Gainesville, FL

Attendance: 90,888 (second-highest in school history)

No. 2/3 Alabama proved worthy of its lofty ranking, handing No. 12 Florida a 38-10 defeat at The Swamp. The Gators (4-1, 2-1 SEC) had all the momentum early, but the Crimson Tide (5-0, 2-0 SEC) took control of the game in the second quarter and erased a 10-3 deficit with 35 straight points. UA running back Trent Richardson has put on a show, carrying the ball 29 times for 181 yards and two touchdowns. The Gators' vaunted rushing attack was kept in check, as they had 15 yards rushing and the duo of Jeff Demps and Chris Rainey was held to 8 yards on 14 carries. The Gators did most of their damage through the air, as John Brantley went 11-of-16 for 190 yards, a touchdown and an interception, but went down with an injury late in the first half and was replaced by true freshman Jeff Driskel. UF's offense never recovered after Brantley's injury, mustering just 46 yards of offense in the second half. The Gators grabbed a quick lead on a 65-yard strike from Brantley to Andre Debose on the game's first offensive play and a 21-yard field goal by Caleb Sturgis, while Alabama got a field goal from Jeremy Shelley, two touchdowns from Richardson, an interception return from Courtney Upshaw and a short sneak by quarterback A.J. McCarron. After receiving the kick, Brantley went deep and found Debose streaking down the far left side of the field as he got behind his defender. The Crimson Tide cut into the Gators' lead with an impressive opening drive, marching 52 yards on 12 plays and getting a 32-yard field goal from Shelley to make it 7-3. Brantley continued to move the Gators down the field through the air on their second possession, connecting with Deonte Thompson for a 30-yard and 13-yard gains on a pair of third-and-longs. It appeared that Brantley and Debose connected for a second touchdown on a second-and-goal from the Alabama 4-yard line. The play was originally ruled a touchdown, but after an official review Debose was ruled not to have had possession. Two plays later, Sturgis chipped in a 21-yarder to extend the Gators' lead. Alabama came right back after Marquis Maze returned the ensuing kickoff 70 yards, setting up the Tide on the Gators' 29-yard line. Richardson took it in from 5 yards out to knot the game at 10-10. The Gators appeared to be on the move after Brantley hit Debose for a 25-yard gain to the Alabama 43-yard line. After a sack moved the Gators back, Brantley was intercepted by Upshaw, who returned it 45 yards to give the Tide its first lead, 17-10. Alabama later marched 61 yards on 10 plays and capped its drive with a 1-yard sneak by McCarron to extend the lead to 24-10. The Gators responded with a strong drive, getting all the way down to the Alabama 15-yard line, keyed by a 25-yard pass play from Brantley to Rainey. A pair of sacks, however, moved the Gators back to the 35-yard line, the second of which was more costly, as Brantley went down with an injury and would not return. Sturgis then missed a 52-yard attempt, his first miss this season after hitting his first 12 attempts. Neither team established offensive tempo in the third quarter, as the squads combined for six punts. Early in the fourth quarter, however, Alabama marched 92 yards on a 11 plays and capped the drive with a 36-yard touchdown run by Richardson, his second touchdown on the night. After a Florida fumble, the Tide wasted little time putting an exclamation point on the game with a 20-yard touchdown run by Eddie Lacy to make it 38-10.

GAME 6

NO. 1/2 LSU 41, NO. 17/18 FLORIDA 11

October 8, 2011

Tiger Stadium | Baton Rouge, LA

Attendance: 93,022 (third-highest in stadium history)

No. 17/18 University of Florida fell victim to a top-three team for the second-consecutive week, falling to No. 1/2 LSU, 41-11, at Tiger Stadium. The early storyline surrounded the Gators entering the game with a true freshman at quarterback, just not the one everyone figured, with Jacoby Brissett making his first career start despite not having taken a snap prior to this game. As the game started, however, the Gators never got into a rhythm offensively, nor could they stop the LSU offense, as the Tigers pounced on Florida early and never looked back. The Gators went three-and-out on their first possession, rushing twice before a short dump-off pass on third down forced a punt. The Tigers wasted little time, as on their second play Jarrett Lee hit a wide open Rueben Randle for a 46-yard touchdown to give the Tigers a 7-0 lead. Florida posted similar results on its second drive, this time with Trey Burton under center, going three-and-out again. After a punt, LSU started its second drive on its own 44 and marched 56 yards on 10 plays and scored on a 2-yard run by Spencer Ware to move ahead, 14-0. The Gators appeared to force the Tigers to punt, but punter Brad Wing faked the punt and went untouched 52 yards for an apparent touchdown. Wing was flagged for a taunting penalty at the 8-yard line, however, and the score was negated and LSU still wound up with a first down at the UF 23-yard line. Moments later, Drew Alleman connected on a 35-yard field goal to increase the Tigers' lead to 17-0. LSU added to its lead midway through the second quarter when Spencer Ware scored from 8 yards out to cap a lightning quick two-play drive. Jordan Jefferson hit Russell Sheppard with a 37-yard pass on the drive's first play to set up the touchdown. Florida mounted its best drive of the half on its final possession, finally getting on the board on a 34-yard field goal by Caleb Sturgis. The Gators marched 59 yards on 14 plays, including a pair of third and long conversions by Brissett, one a 10-yard pass to Burton, and the other a 14-yard connection with Frankie Hammond to help move the Gators into the red zone for the first time on the day. Alleman kicked his second field goal of the day, a 23-yarder with 4:40 left in the third quarter to push LSU's lead to 27-3. Florida scored its lone touchdown on a 65-yard touchdown pass from Brissett to Andre Debose late in the third quarter, the second-straight week that Debose had scored on a 65-yard strike. Rainey converted a two-point conversion to cut the lead to 27-11. LSU immediately responded, with Lee hitting Randle for a 57-yard gain to set up a 3-yard touchdown pass from Jordan Jefferson to Mitch Joseph to make it 34-11. Alfred Blue added a 2-yard touchdown run with 1:27 left to close out the scoring. The game was decided on much more than Florida starting a freshman quarterback. Brissett finished 8-of-14 for 94 yards, the touchdown to Debose and a pair of interceptions. Mike Gillislee led Florida in rushing with 56 yards on nine carries, while Rainey had 52 yards on 13 rushes. The Gators surrendered 453 yards of total offense to LSU - 215 through the air on just 14 passing attempts and 238 yards on the ground.

GAME 7

NO. 24/RV AUBURN 17, RV/RV FLORIDA 6

October 15, 2011

Jordan-Hare Stadium | Auburn, AL

Attendance: 87,451

The University of Florida football team will head into its bye week in search of answers, rest and healthy bodies after dropping its third-consecutive game, 17-6, to No. 24 Auburn at Jordan-Hare Stadium. In a tightly-contested game, Auburn (5-2, 3-1 SEC), used a 25-yard touchdown pass from Barrett Trotter to DeAngelo Bennett, a 14-yard run by Onterio McCalebb and a late field goal by Cody Parkey, while Florida (4-3, 2-3 SEC) got a pair of field goals from Caleb Sturgis. In a game dominated by stout defenses, Florida used three quarterbacks on the night in an effort to provide different looks, while Auburn used two. In the end, a pair of muffed punts by Florida would prove to be the difference. On the second play of the game, true freshman Jacoby Brissett, making his second career start, tried to take a shot at the end zone but was intercepted on his deep pass. Auburn opened the game with seven-straight rushing attempts trying to build on what Alabama and LSU found success with in victories over the Gators each of the past two weeks. The game turned on a muffed punt by Chris Rainey late in the first quarter, although it appeared he may have been interfered with. Muschamp argued to no avail and, three plays later, Trotter rolled out and Barrett won a jump ball in the end zone, hauling in a 25-yard pass for a 7-0 lead. In the second quarter, the Gators switched up their look, going with Trey Burton at quarterback and the adjustment sparked the offense. On back-to-back plays, Rainey took an 8-yard reception from Burton into Auburn territory and a 9-yard run with a personal foul tacked on the end of it that pushed the Gators to the Auburn 25. The drive stalled and Sturgis split the uprights from 47 yards out to cut the lead to 7-3. When the Gators got the ball back, they continued to chip away at the Auburn lead, coming up with their best drive of the game. UF marched 64 yards on 11 plays, including a nice 25-yard hook-up from Brissett to Frankie Hammond on third-and-four to move inside Auburn territory. Hammond caught three passes for 29 yards on the drive as Florida moved all the way to the Auburn 8-yard line. The drive was capped by a 25-yard field goal by Sturgis after Brissett's fade to Jordan Reed on third fell incomplete. Auburn marched to the Florida 28-yard line on the final drive of the half, but Parkey pushed a 45-yard field goal attempt wide right to end the half. After a slow start, Brissett hit 4-of-5 passes in the second quarter and finished 5-of-10 passing for 45 yards. Jeff Driskel entered in the third quarter and Brissett never returned. Driskel struggled to move the Gators early, but looked more comfortable as the game wore on, finishing 9-of-18 for 75 yards. Auburn started its second drive of the third quarter at the Florida 30 after a short punt, but the Gator defense continued to hold its ground. Parkey missed to the left on a 42-yard attempt and the Gators breathed new life. Florida nearly took the lead in the third quarter, calling a flea-flicker on a second-and-inches, but Driskel overthrew a wide-open Reed. Auburn increased its lead to 14-6 on the first play of the fourth quarter when McCalebb danced around the left side for a 14-yard touchdown, capping a seven-play, 66-yard drive. Driskel and Burton combined to lead the Gators on an 11-play, 64-yard drive down to the Auburn 16-yard line in the fourth quarter. Trailing by eight and with an injured kicker, Florida opted to go for it on fourth-and-four but Driskel's pass to Deonte Thompson fell incomplete and the Gators turned the ball over on downs. Florida's defense came out stout again, forcing a three-and-out and a punt. The Gator offense faced a fourth-and-three near midfield on its ensuing drive and appeared ready to go for it, but a false start backed UF into a fourth-and-eight and the Gators punted, in what appeared to be to their advantage, pinning Auburn at its own 3-yard line. The Gator defense once again forced a quick three-and-out, setting up a punt from the Auburn end zone. The Gators sent Robert Clark back to receive the punt after Rainey had numerous difficulties all night fielding punts, however, in an ironic twist, Clark muffed the punt and Auburn recovered at the Florida 47. Parkey put the game out of reach with :35 left, hitting a 42-yard field goal after missing his two previous attempts. The Gators finished with just 194 yards of total offense on the night, 128 passing and just 66 on the ground.

GAME 8

NO. 22/21 GEORGIA 24, FLORIDA 20

October 29, 2011

EverBank Field | Jacksonville, FL

Attendance: 84,524

Richard Samuel scored on a four-yard touchdown run with 13:18 left in regulation, as the University of Georgia rallied from two touchdowns down to hand the University of Florida its fourth-straight loss, 24-20, at EverBank Field. Florida (4-4, 2-4 SEC) had built a 17-3 lead courtesy of a 31-yard touchdown pass from John Brantley to Jordan Reed and a 99-yard kickoff return by Jeff Demps but the Gators couldn't overcome 14 penalties, six sacks and just 32 yards of offense in the second half. Brantley was very sharp early, but as the game wore he continued in visible pain, finishing 12-of-34 for 245 yards. He was just 2-of-14 for 19 yards passing in the second half. On the opening play of the game, Brantley threw a swing pass to Demps, who took the pass 72 yards down to the Georgia 21. The Gators could get no closer and Brad Phillips, subbing for an injured Caleb Sturgis, missed a 38-yard field goal attempt. After a quick stop, the Gators got the ball back and put together an 11-play 80-yard drive, taking 4:26 off the clock. Brantley marched the Gators to the Georgia 22-yard line with completions to Chris Rainey (20 yards), Deonte Thompson (13), Trey Burton (14) and Andre Debose (14). After a sack, the Gators faced a fourth-and-19 from the Georgia 31-yard line. With Sturgis unavailable, the Gators rolled the dice and Brantley stepped up, avoided the rush, and found Reed on the end for a 31-yard strike. Georgia (6-2, 5-1) got back into the game early in the second quarter when Blair Walsh knocked home a 32-yard field goal, capping a 12-play, 67-yard drive. Isaiah Crowell accounted for 32 yards on the ground during the drive. The Bulldogs' momentum was short-lived, as on the ensuing kickoff Demps fielded the ball at the 1-yard line and proceeded to race 99 yards for the touchdown to increase UF's lead to 14-3. Florida added to its lead on its next possession when Phillips split the uprights from 43 yards out. Brantley hit Quinton Dunbar for a 24-yard pick-up to help set up the score. The Gators appeared poised to go into the locker room with a two-touchdown lead, but a fumble by Rainey at the UF 25 set the stage for Aaron Murray to hit Michael Bennett for a 20-yard touchdown. Like the Gators did earlier in the game, Georgia rolled the dice and went for it on fourth and long after Walsh had missed a 33-yard field goal on the Bulldogs' previous drive. Murray found Bennett at the goal line and the redshirt-freshman split end made an impressive catch to cut the score to 17-10. Turnovers proved costly for the Gators again in the third quarter, as Frankie Hammond put the ball on the ground after a 9-yard reception, setting the Bulldogs up at the Florida 18-yard line. Georgia again gambled on fourth down and Murray hit Tavarres King for a 14-yard TD pass to tie the game at 17-17. The tie didn't last long as Debose returned the ensuing kick 63 yards to the Georgia 26-yard line. Moments later, Phillips gave the Gators the lead back on a 40-yard field goal. The Gators managed only 15 yards of offense in the third quarter and their defense finally started to show some of the fatigue of being on the field for a large chunk of the second half. Georgia took its first lead of the game with 13:18 remaining on a four-yard run by Samuel, capping a nine-play, 45-yard drive and providing the eventual margin of victory. For the game, Georgia controlled the ball for 37:40 while Florida had the ball for just 22:20. Georgia ended up with 354 yards of total offense, 185 rushing and 169 passing. Florida finished with 226 total yards, just 32 after the half. The Gators finished with -19 yards rushing, most of which was the result of sack yardage as the Bulldogs got to Brantley six times on the afternoon. For the Gators, it marks their first four-game losing streak since 1988.
