What's On Tap

No. 1 Vanderbilt hosts its first ever NCAA regional this weekend at Hawkins Field. The Commodores will take on No. 4 seed Austin Peay on Friday at 7 p.m. If the Commodores win, they will face the winner of the No. 2 seed Michigan/No. 3 seed Memphis contest on Saturday at 7 p.m. If VU loses, it will take on the loser of the above contest at 2 p.m. in an elimination game on Saturday. The regional sold out in less than 36 hours on Tuesday, with an expected crowd over 3,700 on hand, which would set new Hawkins Field attendance records.

Pulling Off The Trifecta

Like all schools, Vanderbilt has a set of goals and after last weekend the team has accomplished three of them. The Commodores won the SEC Eastern Division for the first time since 1974, the SEC regular season crown for the first time ever and most recently the SEC tournament title for the first time since 1980. The Commodores became the first team since Alabama in 1996 to win both the regular season and tournament titles. VU was the first team to win the tourney title since South Carolina achieved the feat in 2002 and was the first team ever to win five straight games out of the loser's bracket to win the title.

Vanderbilt looks to add to the season of first's this weekend at Hawkins Field.

Commodore NCAA Tournament History

Vanderbilt is making its sixth NCAA tournament appearance this weekend and will look to win its second regional championship in the last four years. The Commodores are 8-10 all-time in NCAA play and made the field in 1973, 1974, 1980, 2004 and 2006.

Last season the Commodores advanced to the championship round of the NCAA Atlanta Regional before falling to host and eventual College World Series team Georgia Tech.

In 2004, VU swept three games at the Charlottesville, Va. Regional, before falling to eventual runner-up Texas in a Super Regional in Austin. Right-handed pitcher Tyler Rhoden (one inning in relief against Texas) is the lone member of the current active roster to have played in the 2004 postseason.

Commodores Hold No. 1 In National Ranking For Ninth Straight Week

With a 5-1 record and SEC tournament title last week, Vanderbilt remained the No. 1 team in the country in the five polls this week.

Baseball America, the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association and the ESPN/Sports Weekly Coaches Poll all had the Commodores ranked No. 1 for the ninth straight week, while Collegiate Baseball put VU on top in its poll for the fourth straight week. Rivals.com put the Commodores on top for the third straight week.

The Commodores have been ranked No. 1 in at least one of the polls in 14 of the last 15 weeks. The Commodores at 51-11 are having the best year in school history and the team's 20-0 start was the best start of any sport at Vanderbilt. It bested the 17-0 start of the 1993 women's basketball team.

The 51 wins (45 in 2004) are the most ever for a VU squad and the 22 wins in SEC play is also a school record, besting the 16 win years in 2004 and 2006.

The No. 1 baseball ranking joins women's basketball and women's golf as the only NCAA sports to achieve a No. 1 ranking at Vanderbilt. The 1993 women's hoops squad was ranked No. 1 by the AP for six weeks, including the final regular season poll prior to postseason play. The women's golf team was ranked No. 1 for a time in 2004.

Price Named National Co-Player of the Year

Junior southpaw David Price was named Collegiate Baseball's National Player of the Year as the publication released its All-American teams on Wednesday.

Price shared the award with Tony Thomas of Florida State and was also named a first-team All-American. Senior right-hander Casey Weathers and junior outfielder Dominic de la Osa also garnered first-team plaudits.

Pedro Alvarez rounded out the Vanderbilt contingent, earning second-team honors.

Price was a Freshman All-American in 2005 and was a third team selection a year ago. He has had one of the best seasons on the mound this year and enters NCAA tournament play with an 11-0 record and a 2.71 ERA. The Murfreesboro product leads all of Division I with 175 strikeouts (school single season record) and only has 29 walks in 123.0 innings.

De la Osa is also having the best year of his career with a .386 batting average with 19 homers and 60 RBI (all career bests). He was an All-SEC pick by the coaches and also was a an all-tournament pick after hitting two homers with eight RBI in six games last week.

Weathers is 11-2 on the year with a 2.64 ERA and is one of three players nationally to lead his team in wins and saves. The California native was also a first team All-SEC selection and has 67 strikeouts with 18 walks in 44.1 innings.

Alvarez, the National Freshman of the Year in 2006, picked up where he left off a year ago and currently leads the team with a .397 batting average to go with 17 homers and 65 RBI. The batting average and homer total are career bests and his 39 career homers are the eighth most all-time in Vanderbilt. The New York City native was recently named to the USA National Team for the second straight year and is in contention for the Golden Spikes Award along with Price. He was a first team All-SEC pick and was named the MVP of the conference tournament last week.

The win over Arkansas put the season series at 2-2. The team has not lost a season series all-year now.

Nashville Regional A Sellout

Vanderbilt officials have announced that the NCAA baseball regional this weekend at Hawkins Field is officially sold out.

The last of the 3,700 tickets were sold online early this morning. Hawkins Field seats a little over 2,000 in its current configuration and 1,500 bleacher seats were added last week as well as 200 standing-room-only tickets in the patio area in left field.

If the Commodores win the regional they will then host the Super Regionals next weekend at Hawkins Field. For possible ticket info on the Super Regional call (615) 322-GOLD.

Head Coach Tim Corbin

In four seasons at Vanderbilt, Tim Corbin has raised expectations of the baseball program into one that is expected to be among the nations best on an annual basis.

Corbin's success and methods of running the Vanderbilt program has earned him respect among the college and international baseball communities.

This past summer he managed the USA Baseball National Team to a 28-2-1 record that culminated with a gold medal finish at the FISU (International University Sports Federation) World University Championship in Havana, Cuba in August. The .919 winning percentage was the highest ever for a national team and it garnered special recognition by the United States Olympic Committee in September.

Those results were probably to be expected, as Corbin has taken Vanderbilt to heights it has rarely seen in its long baseball history.

His overall record of 144-95 (.602) is the fourth best in terms of wins, and first in terms of win percentage for coaches with 100 games or more.

Last year he guided a youthful Commodore squad to a 38-27 record and sixth place finish in the rugged Southeastern Conference. The team was the youngest team in the league, with seven everyday starters either freshmen or sophomores. For the second time in three seasons, Corbin guided the team to the SEC Tournament Championship game and the young squad also gained valuable NCAA experience after advancing to the championship round of the Atlanta Regional.

The 2006 team posted impressive series wins over College World Series participant Georgia, Super Regional participants South Carolina and Ole Miss, and took series on the road against Florida and LSU. The team handed LSU its worst conference loss at home in school history in the process.

With virtually the entire team back, Corbin knows the expectations are there to build upon that success and take the Commodores to their first College World Series in school history. It is a goal that he and his coaching staff are determined to achieve in the near future.

In addition to on the field successes, the baseball program itself has had significant upgrades to the facilities with a brand new fieldhouse, complete with new locker rooms for players, coaches and Commodore alumni playing professional baseball. Also included are coach's offices, a classroom that overlooks Hawkins Field and a new weight room. These recent upgrades reinforce the excitement and commitment made to the baseball program due to the successes Tim Corbin has achieved as well as those he will strive to accomplish in the future.

He has already pushed the program to its most successful season, rewritten a significant portion of its record book, and ascended to the ranks of Southeastern Conference and national powers. For him, such excellence has been a constant in a career that covers two decades in both the collegiate and international baseball ranks.

Corbin, along with his coaching staff, are a tireless group that saw their recruiting efforts pay off last fall as the 2005 recruiting class was labeled the nation's best by Baseball America.

Professional baseball has also taken notice of the program as 29 players have been drafted over the last three years including 13 in 2005.

In 2005, Corbin directed the squad to its second consecutive 30-win season, an achievement that had not been done in over 15 years. The campaign was highlighted with series wins over Alabama, Mississippi, South Carolina and College World Series participant Tennessee.

In 2004, Corbin not only directed the Commodores to their first NCAA Tournament appearance in 24 years, he guided them to their first-ever Super Regional as they swept through the Charlottesville Regional with victories over George Mason, Princeton and host Virginia. In the Super Regional they fell to the eventual national runner-up, Texas, but still carved out a piece of history as the first team in NCAA baseball history to make it that far one year after having finished with a sub-.500 record.

Along the way Vanderbilt racked up a school-record 45 wins, was the only team to rank among the SEC's top five in earned run average (first), batting average (fourth) and fielding percentage (first), and finished with a .703 winning percentage, which was third-best in the highly competitive conference, which sent nine schools to the NCAA Tournament. The Commodores' school-record .978 fielding percentage was second in the nation, and their 30 error-free games were 11 more than the previous season.

Before Corbin was hired as the 21st coach in program history, Vanderbilt had not earned a spot in the conference tournament in a decade. Not only has he led his team there twice, the Commodores made it to the 2004 championship game.

During the 2004 regular season, Vanderbilt swept a series against Mississippi State for the first time. It was one of three conference whitewashes and one of five series' wins in all.

His efforts earned him the 2004 Vanderbilt Coach of the Year award and a nomination for the Nashville Sports Council's Sports Person of the Year. Plus, a school-record five players were named to the SEC All-Tournament team, five players were drafted on the first day and seven VU players in all were chosen in the Major League Baseball Draft, topped by No. 6 overall pick pitcher Jeremy Sowers.

His first Vanderbilt team finished 27-28 overall and 14-16 in the SEC, good enough for second in the Eastern Division. It earned a conference tournament berth with a season-ending sweep of Tennessee capped by a dramatic ninth-inning rally in the finale. The overall and conference victory totals were the most by a first-year Vanderbilt coach and were made more impressive by the fact that the Commodores were 12-5 in one-run games.

That squad set school records for fielding percentage (.972), fewest errors in a season (60), most saves in a season (15) and fewest walks allowed in a season (168) — all of which were bettered in 2004. Three different players earned conference Player of the Week honors (the most for VU in a single season), and the team notched series victories over nationally-ranked conference foes LSU, Auburn and Florida, each of which was ranked among the top 15 at the time.

Plus, on May 6, 2003, Vanderbilt recorded the first perfect game in school history, which was a collective effort instead of the product of one dominant player on the mound. Four different pitchers contributed to the 4-0 victory over Western Kentucky University.

Corbin came to Vanderbilt following nine seasons as an assistant coach at baseball power Clemson.

During his time there (1994-2002) the Tigers had more victories than all but four programs. Clemson won more than 71 percent (434 wins, 172 losses) of its games, captured two Atlantic Coast Conference regular season titles, made nine appearances in the NCAA Tournament and reached the College World Series four times (1995, 1996, 2000, and 2002). The Tigers ended the 2002 season with their ninth consecutive top 25 finish and their sixth top 10 finish since 1994.

Prior to his tenure at Clemson, Corbin was head coach at Presbyterian College for six seasons beginning in 1988. There he restarted a baseball program that laid dormant for several years. He directed Presbyterian College from NAIA to NCAA Division II status and had a 106-138 overall record. Along the way, the Blue Hose made three consecutive appearances in the South Atlantic playoffs (1991-93), and Corbin earned South Atlantic Coach of the Year honors in 1990.
