2017: Openshaw completed his fourth consecutive year as the Commodores' primary kicker and earned national accolades for his off-the-field activities... He struggled to match his kicking performance as a junior in 2016, making three-of-seven field goal attempts, including a long of 42 yards at Florida... Made 39-of-40 extra point attempts... Away from the field, Openshaw was named to the Allstate-American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) national FBS Good Works Team and a semifinalist for the Wuerfel Trophy.

2016: Openshaw enjoyed an All-Southeastern Conference caliber campaign - and one of the best ever by a Commodore kicker... As a third-year starter, Openshaw converted 15-of-19 field goals... His 78.9 percent conversion rate has been bettered only once (Carey Spear's 83.3% in 2012) since the mid-1970s... Openshaw was also 11-of-11 inside 40 yards and converted on four efforts from 47 yards and beyond, including twice from 52 yards...

Openshaw's conversions from 52 yards at Auburn and vs. NC State in the Camping World Independence Bowl matched the eighth longest in team history... Openshaw's 81 points scored ranks as the third-highest single-season scoring total ever by a Commodore kicker... His career scoring output of 175 points ranked fifth all-time among Commodores after the 2016 season.

2015: Openshaw played in every game, spending much of the year in the dual capacity of punter and kicker... As a first-year punter, Openshaw averaged 40.9 yards on 79 punts... Booted a 78-yard punt, equaling No. 6 all-time on team charts, against Missouri... As a kicker, Openshaw converted on 62.3 percent of field goals (12-of-19)... Made 7-of-10 attempts between 40-49 yards... Made field goals of 28, 41 and 34 yards at Ole Miss.

2014: Openshaw saw action in 11 games, serving as the team's primary kicker in his redshirt freshman season... Made 72.7 percent of field goals, converting 8-of-11... Was 6-of-6 on field goals inside 40 yards... Made all 21 PATs on the season... Also served as team's primary kickoff specialist during last two months of season.

2013: Openshaw did not see action as a true freshman.

High School: Ranked among nation's top kicking specialists by several services... Started three years... Became team's kicker as a sophomore, adding punting duties as a senior... Became school's first player to earn first-team 6A All-State from writers after making five FGs and 45.6-yard punting average as a senior... Also named All-District as a senior... Was 16-of-22 on field goals as a junior, including team record 56-yarder, as team advanced to second round of state playoffs.

Personal: Thomas Reilly Openshaw... Completed undergraduate degrees in engineering science and economics in May 2017; working on a master's in leadership and organizational performance at Vanderbilt's Peabody College... Son of Mark Openshaw and Susanne Openshaw... Born Sept. 30, 1994... Has three younger sisters: Colleen, Tara and Claire... Dad works as a construction manager; mom is retired from the U.S. Navy... Mom was a gymnast at U.S. Naval Academy... Involved in youth activities at hometown church... Enjoys golf... Named to prestigious Allstate-AFCA national Good Works Team in September 2017... Went on four mission trips as Vanderbilt undergraduate, visiting Dominican Republic on two occasions, St. Lucia and Costa Rica.
