NOVEMBER 7 // 12:00 P.M.

Ben Hill Griffin Stadium at Florida Field (88,548)

Vanderbilt Commodores // 3-5, 1-3 SEC No. 11/12 Florida Gators // 7-1, 5-1 SEC

THE STORYLINE

- The Florida football team hosts Southeastern Conference Eastern Division foe Vanderbilt in The Swamp this week, in the Gators first home game since Oct. 3.
- Leading the SEC East by two games, Florida only needs to defeat Vanderbilt or South Carolina next week to clinch its first SEC Championship Game berth since 2009.
- Florida defeated Georgia 27-3 last week in Jacksonville, while Vanderbilt fell to undefeated Houston, 34-0.
- The series between Florida and Vanderbilt dates back to 1945 and the Gators hold a 36-10-2 all-time advantage. In Gainesville, UF holds a 19-2-1 lead over the Commodores.
- The Gators are plus-13 on the season in turnover margin, which is the top mark in the conference and ranks second in the country. In addition, Florida has scored 81 points of its opponents miscues, while only allowing 23 tallies on its own turnovers.
- Florida had four different players record an interception (Marcus Maye, Vernon Hargreaves III, Keanu Neal, Jarrad Davis) against Georgia, marking the first time UF accomplished that since Sept. 21, 2013 against Tennessee.
- Creating turnovers has been a key for the team's success in recent past. When winning or tying the turnover battle, the Gators are 33-7 overall since 2011. When losing the turnover battle, UF is 3-15 in the same span.
- Florida continues to live in its opponents backfields, as the Gators rank fourth in the SEC in sacks per game (2.75) and fifth in tackles for loss (7.3).
- Offensively, Florida has been led by its ground game all season long and Kelvin Taylor has been the featured back. The Belle Glade, Fla. native has totals of 154 carries, 584 yards and 10 touchdowns.
- Taylor's 10 rushing touchdowns this year are the most by a Gator since 2012 (Mike Gillislee, 10) and tied for the seventh-most by a Gator since 1996, while his eight rushing scores in SEC games are the most by a UF running back since 1997 (Fred Taylor, 9) and equal to the fifth-highest total by any Gator since 1996.
- Sophomore quarterback Treon Harris will start his 10th-career game and fourth this season this week. Harris has a 6-3 record as starter, including a 3-2 mark in SEC play.
- Freshman Antonio Callaway leads the team in receiving with 418 yards on 19 catches and ranks seventh in the country in yards per reception (22.0) for wide receivers with at least 15 catches. Meanwhile, 14 of Jake McGee's 26 catches (53.8%) in 2015 have gone for first downs or touchdowns.
- In addition, Callaway is one of two FBS true freshmen (Calvin Ridley) with two games of 110+ receiving yards and one touchdown and he is one of four SEC true freshmen since 2011 with two games of 100+ receiving yards and a receiving touchdown.
- This weekend is Homecoming for the Gators and UF is 10-2-1 all time against Vandy when facing them on this special weekend.

LAST TIME OUT - GEORGIA

Kelvin Taylor rushed for 121 yards and two touchdowns, Antonio Callaway caught a 66-yard scoring pass and the Florida defense swarmed all over Georgia and its first-time starting quarterback in forcing five turnovers in a 27-3 smashing Saturday at EverBank Field that placed the 11th-ranked Gators in total command of the Southeastern Conference Eastern Division.

UF opened a 20-0 halftime lead and staved off any hope that UGA could stage a comeback by intercepting quarterback Faton Bauta, a fourth-year junior making his first career start, four times, including three in the second half.

Florida rolled to 413 yards of total offense, compared to Georgia's 258. As is so often the case in this series, the team that ran the ball ruled. UF, which came into the game ranked 12 in the SEC at just 99 yards per game in league play, cranked out 258 yards on the ground. UGA was held to just 69.

Gators sophomore quarterback Treon Harris wasn't always on target, but he was on a 66-yard touchdown pass to freshman Antonio Callaway that provided Florida a 13-0 lead midway into the second quarter and seemed to take some life out of the Bulldogs.

The Gators scored 20 points off five Georgia turnovers on Saturday and have now outscored opponents 80-23 in points off turnovers this season.

Running back Kelvin Taylor delivered his second-straight 100-plus yard game against Georgia, as he rushed for a season-high 121 yards on 25 carries and two touchdowns.

FIRST-YEAR COACHES AT UF

• There have been 25 head football coaches at the University of Florida's 109 seasons of football. In their first full season as a head coach, 15 of UF's coaches finished with a winning record, two finished at even .500 and four coaches had losing records. Gary Darnell, Charlie Strong and D.J. Durkin did not coach a full season.

• Notable First Seasons for UF Head Coaches

1925	8-2	Tom Sebring
1928	8-1	Charles Bachman
1960	9-2	Ray Graves
1985	9-1-1	Galen Hall (first full season)
1990	9-2	Steve Spurrier
2005	9-3	Urban Meyer

Florida First-year Coach Superlatives

Most Wins: 9 (Meyer, Spurrier, Hall*, Graves)
 Best Win Pct.: 8-1, .888 (Bachman, 1928)
 SEC Wins: 6 (Zook, 2002; Spurrier, 1990)
 Most Points Scored: 73 (Bachman, 1928 vs. Mercer)
 Number of Shoutouts: 4 (Graves, 1960)

• Entering 2015, there have been 67 first-year coaches in the SEC since 1977. Of those, over half (34) have finished their inaugural season with a sub-.500 mark. The cumulative record for those 67 coaches is 382-388-7 (.492). The average record of the 67 coaches in their inaugural seasons is 5.7 wins against 5.8 losses.

BLAZING FIVE FACTS

• Florida has played six night contests this season, which is tied for the second most in a regular season since 1998. Only UF's 2002 squad played more night games (seven) during the regular season.

• Kelvin Taylor is one of three UF running backs since 1996 with at least six career multi-rushing touchdown games, trailing only Earnest Graham (seven times).

• Florida has five players (Demarcus Robinson, Brandon Powell, Antonio Callaway, C'yontai Lewis, Jake McGee) with multiple touchdown receptions this year, which is tied for its highest total from the past six seasons. The 2009 team was the last group of Gators to have more than five players with multiple receiving touchdowns.

• Antonio Callaway is one of three SEC true freshmen wide receivers since 2011 with three 100-yard receiving games — Christian Kirk (three times), Amari Cooper (five times). In addition, he is one of two SEC players (Calvin Ridley) with two games of 110+ receiving yards and one touchdown in SEC play this season.

• UF and Michigan are the only two schools in the nation to hold three FBS teams to without a touchdown this season.

CROSSING PATHS

• Vandy has 10 players on its roster from the state of Florida, while UF has zero players from Tennessee.

• Josh Grady transferred to UF for his redshirt senior season after spending the last four years at Vanderbilt.

• Bryan Cox, Jr., Richerd Desir-Jones and Jordan Scarlett were high school teammates of Vandy's Chandler Dorrell and Wade Freeback.

• Alvin Bailey played at Armwood High School with Jordan Griffin for two seasons. Meanwhile, Grady and Bailey were teammates with VU's Kevin McCoy for three seasons there.

• Issac Brinson played with Will Holden for one season at Clay High School in Green Cove Springs, Fla.

• Devin Grimm was on Creekside's football team in Jacksonville with VU's Tommy Openshaw for three seasons together.

• Case Harrison, Chris Thompson and Chris Williamson were all teammates with Commodore running back Ralph Webb at Gainesville High School.

SERIES HISTORY & LAST MATCHUP

• Series History | Florida 36, Vanderbilt 10 -- UF holds the series edge over Vandy, 36-10-2, and has lost to the Commodores just once since 1989. In addition, the Gators are 19-2-1 at home against Vandy with its only two losses coming 2013 and 1945 in the two squads first meeting.

• 2014 | Florida 34, Vanderbilt 10 (Nashville) -- Treon Harris totaled then-career highs of 215 yards passing to go with 49 rushing and a pair of touchdowns, as the Gators earned a convincing 34-10 road defeat of Vanderbilt. The win not only avenged 2013's humbling loss to the Commodores, their first in Gainesville since 1945. Florida trailed 7-0 early in the game, but seized command with 24 unanswered points and finished with 429 yards of total offense -- a balanced 214 rushing and 215 passing -- while not turning the ball over. Defensively, UF limited Vanderbilt to just 308 yards and forced four turnovers, converting three of those takeaways into 13 points.

WEEK 5 | CFPA NATIONAL PERFORMER OF THE WEEK

DAVEY O'BRIEN QUARTERBACK OF THE WEEK

MANNING AWARD QUARTERBACK OF THE WEEK

Will Grier, QB

- Grier, who battled the flu during the week, connected on a career-high four touchdown passes and had just five incompletions (24 of 29, 271 yards) in a 38-10 triumph over the Rebels.
- All four of his scoring strikes came in the first half as Florida built a 25-0 halftime lead. 16 tackles in the contest, five of those being unassisted, in the home win over No. 3 Ole Miss.
- The 38 points scored were the third-most ever by the Gators against an opponent ranked among the nation's top three. It was the fourth time this season that Grier has thrown multiple touchdown passes, and was his second straight game with at least 250 passing yards.

• Florida leads the SEC and ranks second among FBS teams with a +13 turnover margin. When winning or tying the turnover battle since 2011, the Gators are 33-7. When losing the turnover battle, UF is 3-15 during that span.

Florida 10 Margin (from 1996-2015)

In 185 Wins +155; In 65 Losses -64

- The Gators have scored 20-plus points in five consecutive SEC games, which is their longest streak since a seven-game run from 2009-10.
- Florida's offense has scored 23 touchdowns in 35 trips inside the red zone, which marks their highest red zone-touchdown percentage (65.7%) since 2008 (75%).
- The Gators have outscored their opponents by 51 points (71-20) in the first quarter this year, marking their highest point differential in the first quarter since 2009.
- Florida's 38 points against No. 3 Ole Miss was its highest total against a top-three opponent since its 41-14 rout of No. 1 Ohio State in the 2007 BCS National Championship Game, while its 28-point margin of victory was its largest against a top-three team since thumping No. 1 Florida State, 52-20, in the 1997 Sugar Bowl.
- By converting all five of their fourth downs against Tennessee--which was their highest single-game total since 1996 and tied for the third-most by an SEC team during that span--the Gators became just the fourth SEC team to achieve a 100-percent conversion rate on fourth down, with a minimum of five attempts, since 1996.
- Moreover, Florida is tied for sixth among FBS teams in fourth down conversions (12--tied for the third-most by a UF team since 1996) and owns the second-highest conversion percentage (75.0%) among teams with at least 15 attempts on fourth down.
- The Gators converted their first 10 fourth downs of the season, marking their longest streak since at least 1996.
- Florida amassed over 600 total yards and scored eight offensive touchdowns against New Mexico State, marking the first time since Sept. 12, 2009 versus Troy it reached both of those marks.
- The Gators were a perfect 8-for-8 in the red zone against New Mexico State, making it the first time since Sept. 8, 2007 (vs. Troy) UF had a 100-percent conversion rate in at least eight trips inside the red zone.

OFFENSIVE LINE

- UF's offensive line is in its second season under MIKE SUMMERS, the only holdover from Will Muschamp's staff.
- The Gators started the same five offensive linemen (CAM DILLARD, MASON HALTER, ANTONIO RILES, DAVID SHARPE, TRIP THURMAN) at the same five positions in their first six games of the season, marking the first time since 2008 they achieved such continuity.

RUSHING

- KELVIN TAYLOR's 10 rushing touchdowns this year are the most by a Gator since 2012 (Mike Gillislee, 10) and tied for the seventh-most by a Gator since 1996, while his eight rushing scores in SEC games are the most by a UF running back since 1997 (Fred Taylor, 9) and equal to the fifth-highest total by any Gator since 1996.

- Taylor is one of three UF running backs since 1996 with at least six career multi-rushing touchdown games, trailing only Earnest Graham (seven times).
- With 96 rushing yards against Georgia, JORDAN SCARLETT became just the fifth Gator true freshman since 1996 to rush for 95-plus yards in an SEC game. Scarlett joined Jeff Demps (2008) and Taylor (2013) as the only true freshmen UF running backs to hit that mark since 1996.
- Taylor scored a rushing touchdown in Florida's first four games, becoming the first Gator since Tim Tebow (2009) and first UF running back since Ciatrick Fason (2004) with a rushing score in four straight games.
- Four Gators (JORDAN CRONKRITE, WILL GRIER, Scarlett, Taylor) scored a rushing touchdown versus New Mexico State, the first time UF managed that since Nov. 20, 2010.

PASSING

- For the first time since 2009, UF quarterbacks have thrown for 250+ yards, 2+ touchdowns, zero picks and completed at least 15 passes in three different games (New Mexico State, No. 3 Ole Miss, No. 6 LSU). It's the first time since 2007 that two of those games came against SEC foes.
- Additionally, TREON HARRIS is the first Gator since Tim Tebow (2009) with multiple games of 215+ passing yards, 2+ passing touchdowns, and zero picks in a season, recording such games against NMSU and at No. 6 LSU.
- The Gators' 1,902 passing yards this year is their highest total through seven games since 2007 (1,972 yards).

- Florida ranks fifth in the SEC and 28th among FBS teams in pass efficiency (147.0)--a category in which it hasn't ranked higher than 69th nationally since 2009, when it led the country with a 167.3 rating--in addition to ranking fifth in the SEC in completion percentage (62.7%).
- In its last four games, UF is 31-of-42 (73.8%) for 378 yards and three touchdowns when throwing on first down.
- The Gators threw four passing touchdowns in their rout of No. 3 Ole Miss, marking just the fourth time since 2005, and first time since Oct. 20, 2012 against South Carolina, they threw four touchdown passes in an SEC game.
- WILL GRIER is one of five SEC quarterbacks since 1996 with multiple games of 165+ passing yards, 2+ passing touchdowns, an 80-percent completion percentage (minimum of 15 completions) and zero interceptions. Of those five, Grier is the only one to do it as a freshman, and he's the only one to have one of those outings against a ranked SEC team, while he and Tim Tebow (2010 Sugar Bowl) are the only ones to have such a game against a ranked team.

- Grier's game against No. 3 Ole Miss marked the first time since Sept. 24, 2005 (Chris Leak) a Gator threw for 270+ yards, four touchdowns and zero picks against an SEC foe.
- Grier and Harris combined for the team's first 375-yard, 4-touchdown, zero-interception passing performance since Sept. 29, 2001 (Miss. State) in the win over NMSU.

RECEIVING

- ANTONIO CALLAWAY is the first Florida true freshman in program history and one of only three SEC true freshmen since 2011 to post three 100+ yard receiving games, amassing 112 yards (second-most by a UF true freshman) against Tennessee, 110 yards versus Georgia, and 100 yards at No. 6 LSU. He's also one of four FBS true freshmen with three 100-yard receiving games this year.
- Callaway is one of two FBS true freshmen with two games of 110-plus receiving yards and a receiving touchdown this season, and he's one of two SEC players to have two such games in conference games this year.
- Callaway is just nine yards shy of tying Percy Harvin for the third-highest total by a true freshman in UF history (427 yards), while his 22.0 yards per reception ranks third among Gators with 15-plus catches in a season since 1996.
- Four Gators (Callaway, JAKE MCGEE, DEMARCUS ROBINSON, BRANDON POWELL) caught touchdowns versus No. 3 Ole Miss, marking the first time since Oct. 20, 2007, at Kentucky, UF accomplished that feat in an SEC game.
- Of the 14 players who caught a pass against New Mexico State, 10 had multiple receptions -- which, in records dating back to 1946, is the first time that has happened.
- It was also the first time since Sept. 8, 2001 (Louisiana-Monroe) the Gators had 14 players with a catch.

- C'YONTAL LEWIS became the first Gator since Ike Hilliard (1994) with two touchdown catches in his career debut.

FLORIDA'S DEFENSE

- The Gators rank 15th nationally (3rd in the SEC) in total defense, allowing just 303 yards per game. In addition, the defense is allowing just 4.66 yards per play, 18th nationally and fourth in the SEC.
- Florida held Georgia scoreless in the first half on Oct. 31, for the first time since 2006 when the Gators defeated the Bulldogs, 21-14.
- Florida's 20-0 lead is Gators' largest halftime lead vs. Georgia since 1996.
- Florida's Week-Nine showing was the first time the Gators hadn't given up a touchdown vs. UGA since 1984.
- After only allowing three points in the game, UF held Georgia to its lowest point total in the contest since the Gators shutout the Bulldogs in 1984, 27-0.
- Florida has not allowed a touchdown in three of its four road games this season.
- With only 69 rushing yards in Week Nine, Georgia was held under 100 rushing yards for the first time since Jan. 1, 2014 against Nebraska (96 rushing yards).
- The Florida defense forced five Georgia turnovers on Oct. 31, the most turnovers since UF caused five takeaways vs. Eastern Michigan on Sept. 6, 2014.
- Florida is one of three SEC teams to force five turnovers in a single game this season.
- Four of those takeaways came in the form of an interception. The last time UF picked off an opposing QB four times was against FSU on Nov. 29, 2014 when the Gators had four picks off Jameis Winston.
- The Gators held the SEC's second-ranked offense in LSU to their fewest total yards in five weeks (423 yards) on Oct. 17.
- The Gators rank 10th-nationally in 1st-quarter points allowed against FBS opponents and fifth-nationally in 3rd-quarter points allowed.
- LSU committed just their second turnover of the season (fumbled punt), which led to a JAKE MCGEE touchdown.
- Florida has now converted 8-of-14 turnovers into touchdowns during the 2015-16 season.
- With eight tackles against LSU, ANTONIO MORRISON owned 245 career tackles, usurping Ahmad Black (244 – 2007-10) for the third-most career tackles by a Gator since 2005.
- Missouri was 1-of-14 on third down on Oct. 10, and didn't convert until their last drive with under a minute to go.
- UF forced Missouri to punt nine times on Oct. 10. It was the first time UF forced an SEC opponent to punt nine times in a game since 2011 vs. Auburn (also nine punts).
- The Orange and Blue also forced 12 Missouri drives to end in a punt or turnover (on downs/interception/fumble), which was the first time the Gators have accomplished that feat against an SEC opponent since Sept. 24, 2011 at Kentucky (14 total drives – 4 on downs, 2 interceptions, 2 fumbles, 6 punts).

Athletics director Jeremy Foley announced Jim McElwain as the 25th head coach of the Florida football program on December 4, 2014. In his third season at Colorado State, McElwain was named the 2014 Mountain West Coach of the Year and the AFCA Region 5 Coach of the Year after he led the Rams to a 10-2 record with a bowl appearance.

McElwain, a 30-year coaching veteran, spent the 2008-11 seasons as offensive coordinator at Alabama, where he played a key role in leading the Crimson Tide to two BCS national championships (2009 and '11).

"It's an honor to be a part of the one of the most powerful brands in college athletics in the Florida Gators," said McElwain. "I'm humbled, yet very excited about the tremendous opportunity that Dr. Machen and Jeremy Foley have afforded me and my family. I can't tell you how eager I am to get to Gainesville to set a course for who we are going to be and what we will be all about."

"Coach McElwain was someone we targeted from the beginning of the search," said Foley. "The more we worked through the process and did our due diligence, coupled with our meeting and conversations with him and those around him, it was obvious he is the right person to lead the Florida Gator football program."

COACHING ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Took over a struggling CSU program and turned it around in just three seasons. The Rams had not had back-to-back winning seasons since 2002-03 and had won just three games each of the three years prior to McElwain's arrival.
- After going 4-8 in his first season in Fort Collins, CSU won eight games in 2013, its most wins in 12 seasons, including a victory in the New Mexico Bowl over Washington State.
- The Rams' offense arguably was the best in school history in 2014, as quarterback Garrett Grayson, wide receiver Rashard Higgins and running back Dee Hart led an explosive attack.
- Grayson, the Mountain West Offensive Player of the Year, ranked among the nation's passing leaders with 4,006 yards, 32 touchdowns and a 166.2 passer rating.
- Higgins, a Biletnikoff Award finalist, led the nation with 145.8 receiving yards per game and 17 touchdowns. Hart rushed for 1,275 yards with 16 touchdowns on the ground.
- Through 12 games in the regular season (McElwain did not coach the bowl game), CSU averaged a school-record 497.8 yards per game (13th nationally) and averaged 7.2 yards per play (4th nationally).
- The Rams passing attack led the way with record-breaking numbers, averaging 326.3 yards per game (7th nationally) and 9.2 yards per pass attempt (2nd nationally). They also ranked 25th in the nation scoring 35.9 points per game.
- The 2013 New Mexico Bowl win capped an 8-6 season that saw McElwain's team re-write the school's record book in several offensive categories, including new standards for single-season points scored (507) and yards per game (470.8). The 2013 Rams scored 50 or more points four times and topped the 500-yard mark for total offense eight times, both school records, and were the only team in Division I FBS to feature a 3,500-yard passer (Garrett Grayson, 3,696) and a 1,500-yard rusher (Kapri Bibbs, 1,741).

- Colorado State made the second-biggest improvement among FBS schools in scoring offense from 2012 to 2013 (from 100th to 22nd) behind Auburn (from 112th to 12th). The Rams' year-to-year improvement in total offense was fourth-biggest in FBS (100th to 24th) behind Auburn (+104), Washington (+84) and Missouri (+80).
- In four seasons at Alabama, McElwain played a key role in the Tide compiling an overall record of 48-6, serving as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. His offense led the nation by committing only 57 turnovers in that period and sent two players to the Heisman Trophy ceremony in New York: 2009 winner Mark Ingram and 2011 finalist Trent Richardson.
- In 2011, Alabama led the SEC in rushing at 214.5 yards per game (16th nationally), ranked second in total offense at 429.6 total yards per contest (31st nationally) and third in scoring at 34.8 points per game (20th nationally). McElwain also had recruiting responsibilities in the state of Florida while coaching at Alabama.
- In back-to-back seasons, McElwain led the Alabama offense to record-breaking seasons. During the 2009 National Championship season, the Tide offense set a school record with 5,642 yards from scrimmage. The 2010 offense topped that total as the Tide offense set new school marks for total yards (5,773) and total passing yards (3,395) in one fewer game than 2009.
- In 2010 under McElwain's tutelage, quarterback Greg McElroy set single-season passing records with a 70.9 completion percentage, 20 touchdown passes and 2,987 yards. He finished the year fourth nationally in pass efficiency with a rating of 168.9. His completion percentage that season was the second-best in SEC history.
- McElwain's 2008 offense proved to be one of the nation's most efficient and productive units. Alabama finished fifth in the SEC in scoring offense (30.1 ppg) and 35th nationally after ranking 64th (seventh in the SEC) in that category in 2007 with an average of 27.1 ppg.
- At Fresno State in 2007 he made an immediate impact, helping lead the Bulldogs to a 9-4 record, including a 40-28 triumph over Georgia Tech in the Humanitarian Bowl.
- McElwain served as the assistant head coach, receivers coach and special teams coach at Michigan State from 2003-05. In 2005, five Spartan receivers had at least 28 receptions and the group combined to set another school record with 24 touchdown catches.
- He coached 2004 All-America punter Brandon Fields and kicker Dave Rayner, who led the Big Ten Conference in scoring.
- The 2003 MSU team reached the Alamo Bowl behind a receiving corps that set school records for receptions (312) and yards (3,510).

- Prior to his stint at Michigan State, McElwain spent three seasons (2000-02) at Louisville as the receivers coach and special teams coach as the Cardinals earned bowl bids in each of those three seasons. He coached four first-team All-Conference USA selections at Louisville and also tutored three of the Cardinals' all-time leading receivers, including Deion Branch and Arnold Jackson.
- From 1995-99, McElwain was the offensive coordinator, quarterbacks and receivers coach at Montana State. Under his direction, quarterback Rob Compson threw for nearly 7,000 career yards and a school-record 54 touchdowns. McElwain also coached the Bobcats' all-time leading receiver Chip Hobbs, who caught 144 career passes for 2,060 yards and 18 TDs.
- McElwain was at Eastern Washington from 1985-94 in a variety of capacities, starting as a graduate assistant and working his way up to quarterbacks and receivers coach. The Eagles made two NCAA Division I-AA playoff appearances (1985 and 1992) and earned a share of the Big Sky Championship in 1992. McElwain coached EWU's all-time leading receiver, Tony Brooks (2,969 career yards), who earned third team AP All-America honors in 1993.

"Coach Mac looked deeper than X's and O's. He was as bright and intelligent as they come and had a way of making sure everybody knew exactly what he wanted, just the way he communicated and related to guys. But more than that, I'd sit back in the meeting room and think, 'He's one of the most genuine coaches I've ever known,' and there aren't a lot of coaches who have that combination."

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT HEAD COACH JIM McELWAIN

“Coach McElwain was someone we targeted from the beginning of the search. The more we worked through the process and did our due diligence, coupled with our meeting and conversations with him and those around him, it was obvious he is the right person to lead the Florida Gator football program.”
-- UF Athletics Director Jeremy Foley

TIM TEBOW // PHILADELPHIA EAGLES QUARTERBACK

“He’s someone who has a great track record. He’s been in big-time games. He’s been in big-time situations. He’s been at a school where there’s a lot of pressure and at Florida you need to know how to handle big games and a lot of pressure because that’s something that comes with being the head coach at UF.”

GARRETT GRAYSON // NEW ORLEANS SAINTS QUARTERBACK

“They’re going to have a hell of a year. They’re going to have fun. He’s serious, but he makes sure you enjoy football. Before he got to CSU, we were missing that. He changed the atmosphere, made it more of a family culture. So Florida football, I won’t be surprised if they’re battling for an NCAA championship in a couple of years.”

A.J. McCARRON // CINCINNATI BENGALS QUARTERBACK

“He was an unbelievable coach for me, not only as a player, but as a person. He just taught me a lot about life, how to act, what to do, what not to do. He means the world to me.”

NICK SABAN // ALABAMA HEAD COACH

“First of all he’s a real quality person. Players really respect him and like him. He’s a really good teacher. He’s innovative in terms of things that he does that create problems. And I think he really has the best interest of the player in mind, and the game.”

BRIAN GRIESE // ESPN ANALYST

“I think Jim McElwain is a slam-dunk hire. Let’s put it that way. He can flat-out coach. ... From a quarterback’s perspective, I love this hire.”

BARRETT SALLEE // BLEACHER REPORT SEC WRITER

“McElwain doesn’t have the same name recognition that Meyer had when he came to Gainesville prior to the 2005 season, but he has similar credentials. Offensive guru? Check. Proven winner? Check. What’s not to like?”

DANTE FOWLER, JR. // JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS LINEBACKER

SHAQ BELL // FORMER COLORADO STATE CORNERBACK

“He’s an up-front guy. When I met with him, he told me he wanted me to be a leader. That’s from like 1-on-1 meetings. He’ll stay on you about it. He holds everyone accountable. He doesn’t have any favorites. He coaches everybody the same.”

BARRETT JONES // ST. LOUIS RAMS OFFENSIVE LINEMAN

“Mac’s greatest strength is that he’s a tremendous teacher of the game. He has a special ability to put things in terms that guys can understand. He’s also great at getting guys to buy into the system and understands how to put guys in positions where they will be successful.”

GREG McELROY // SEC NETWORK ANALYST

“He’s one of the most relatable coaches I’ve ever been around. His ability to feature players in game plans and getting players to buy in are a few of his greatest strengths. He’s a diligent worker and is fiercely competitive. Florida Gator fans should rejoice.”

PAT FORDE // YAHOO! SPORTS COLUMNIST

“I believe the Gators hired a guy who can win in McElwain. He dramatically upgraded CSU and brings a Nick Saban-style organizational approach to Gainesville. McElwain has proven himself as a head coach, and he knows offense.”

DESMOND HOWARD // ESPN ANALYST

“What I’ve heard about Coach McElwain is that he lets his assistant coaches coach. He likes to get guys who have experience in multiple systems, meaning that you’re not just focused on one type of system; you’re very flexible. He can get guys to play for him because he’s not trying to tailor them just to one specific system.”

FLORIDA 61, NEW MEXICO STATE 13

September 5, 2015

Ben Hill Griffin Stadium at Florida Field | Gainesville, FL (Attendance: 90,227)

After punting on their first possession of the game, the Gators scored a touchdown on five of their next six drives to jump out to a 34-13 halftime lead against New Mexico State. UF saw contributions by a lot of new faces, as a pair of young quarterbacks (So. Treon Harris, RS-Fr. Will Grier) combined to throw for 379 yards and four touchdowns, while a balanced rushing attack added four more scores. Defensively, the Gators shut down the Aggies in the second half, forcing five punts and an interception while holding them to minus-one total yard after the break.

FLORIDA 31, EAST CAROLINA 24

September 12, 2015

Ben Hill Griffin Stadium at Florida Field | Gainesville, FL (Attendance: 88,034)

In a back-and-forth game, the Gators held on to beat the Pirates 31-24 in a rematch of the 2015 Birmingham Bowl. Florida continued to use two quarterbacks, as Will Grier and Treon Harris split time at the helm of UF's offense. Florida secured the victory with 12 seconds left when ECU quarterback Blake Kemp fumbled and the Gators' Alex McCalister recovered. UF totaled 373 yards of offense, led by Grier's 151 passing yards and two scores. Tight end DeAndre Goolsby scored his first career touchdown and had 94 yards on three catches, while Demarcus Robinson had five catches for 55 yards and a score. Kelvin Taylor led the rushing attack with 55 yards and a touchdown. The Florida defense stifled the run game, limiting ECU to (-13) yards for the game, the fewest rushing yards allowed by the Gators since 1998. Jarrad Davis led the way with 10 tackles, including three tackles-for-loss. Jalen Tabor scored his first career touchdown on a 39-yard return late in the third quarter to give Florida a 24-14 lead.

FLORIDA 14, KENTUCKY 9

September 19, 2015

Commonwealth Stadium | Lexington, KY (Attendance: 63,040)

Florida won 14-9 in Lexington to extend its winning streak over Kentucky to 29 years, the longest active streak in the nation over a major opponent in an annual series. After an early interception by Vernon Hargreaves III was returned inside the Wildcats' 20 yard line, Will Grier led the Gators in for a touchdown and early 7-0 lead. Kentucky responded with a field goal later in the first quarter, but Grier led another scoring drive just before the half. Grier completed 4-of-4 passes on the drive for 44 yards and Kelvin Taylor ran it in from 3 yards out for a 14-3 halftime lead. In the second half, the Florida offense struggled to get anything going while the defense limited Kentucky to a pair of field goals. Quincy Wilson intercepted a pass with 33 seconds remaining in the game to seal the victory.

FLORIDA 28, TENNESSEE 27

September 26, 2015

Ben Hill Griffin Stadium at Florida Field | Gainesville, FL (Attendance: 90,527)

It was a stunner. After falling behind 27-14 early in the fourth quarter, things looked bleak for the Gators as they looked to continue their winning streak over the Vols. But in a miraculous turn of events, redshirt freshman quarterback Will Grier led two touchdown drives late in the fourth quarter. A 63-yard catch-and-run touchdown pass from Grier to true freshman Antonio Callaway on 4th-and-13 with 1:26 to play blew the lid off the Swamp as Florida took a 28-27 lead. The Vols got the ball back with a chance to win the game, but a field goal from 55 yards as time expired sailed wide right, clinching Florida's 11-straight win over Tennessee. Callaway became the first true freshman to record a 100-yard receiving day since Reidel Anthony in 1994. Grier finished the game with 283 passing yards and two touchdowns while running back Kelvin Taylor had his first 100-yard game of the season and his fourth-career multi-score game (102 yards, 2 TD).

#25 FLORIDA 38, #3 OLE MISS 10

October 3, 2015

Ben Hill Griffin Stadium at Florida Field | Gainesville, FL (Attendance: 90,585)

After setting the tone early, the Florida Gators dominated the third-ranked Ole Miss Rebels in front of an electric, sold-out crowd in The Swamp. After both teams punted on their first possessions, Will Grier threw a perfect strike to Demarcus Robinson for a 36-yard touchdown to open the scoring early in the first quarter. Grier followed up with a two-yard scoring pass to Jake McGee on the ensuing drive and then a 77-yard catch-and-run to Brandon Powell put the Gators ahead 19-0 midway through the second quarter. Grier threw his fourth touchdown pass of the half with 20 seconds left on the clock, hooking up with Antonio Callaway for a 15-yard score. Grier became the first UF quarterback to throw four touchdowns in a half since Chris Leak did it in 2005 against Kentucky. On the other side of the ball, the devastating Gators defense shut down the Rebels high-powered offense and forced four turnovers in the game which led to 19 points for Florida.

GAME 6

#11 FLORIDA 21, MISSOURI 3

October 10, 2015

Memorial Stadium | Columbia, MO (Attendance: 70,767)

Florida started out fast, posting long touchdown drives on two of its first three possessions, and relied on another stellar defensive performance to beat Missouri 21-3 on the road. The Gators won the toss and took the opening drive 75 yards in 12 plays and Kelvin Taylor capped it with a one-yard touchdown run to open the scoring. After the Tigers responded and quickly got in the red zone on their first possession, the UF defense stiffened and held them to a field goal. Taylor added his second touchdown at the end of an 8-play, 82-yard drive and put the Gators ahead 14-3 in the first quarter. Both teams missed field goals in the second quarter and the score remained 14-3 at the half. The UF defense forced five-straight three-and-outs to end the first half and start the second half. Jalen Tabor picked off a pass midway through the third quarter and returned it 40 yards for a touchdown, his second pick-six of the season. For the game, the Florida defense limited Missouri to 257 total yards (151 passing, 106 rushing) and forced seven three-and-outs in the game.

GAME 7

#6 LSU 35, #8 FLORIDA 28

October 17, 2015

Tiger Stadium | Baton Rouge, LA (Attendance: 102,321)

LSU's special teams one-upped Florida's in the fourth quarter, as a fake field goal-turned touchdown proved the difference in the Tigers' 35-28 victory in the battle of SEC unbeaten. Lined up for a tie-breaking field goal, LSU holder Brad Kragthorpe took the snap, then fired an overhand lateral to placekicker Trent Domingue flailing into the left flat. Domingue bobbled the throw before hauling it in and racing untouched for a 16-yard touchdown run that put the Tigers ahead by seven points with 10:40 remaining in the game. The LSU trickery came one possession after UF wide receiver Antonio Callaway returned a punt 72 yards for a touchdown with just over a minute left in the third quarter, becoming the first true freshman in school history to score on a punt return in an SEC game. The Tigers' seven-point margin after the fake held up, with the Gators getting the ball back three times before a 15-yard penalty undermined the first drive, four incompletions doomed the second and the third ended with a desperation Hail Mary chuck from the UF 49 that quarterback Treon Harris threw out of bounds.

GAME 8

#11 FLORIDA 27, GEORGIA 3

October 31, 2015

EverBank Field | Jacksonville, FL (Attendance: 84,628)

Both teams got off to a slow start, but a muffed punt led to a Florida touchdown and the Gators seized the momentum on their way to a 27-3 win over Georgia. Nick Washington recovered the muffed punt in the end zone to give UF a 6-0 lead as the first quarter clock expired. In the second quarter, Antonio Callaway once again came up with a big play, hauling in a 66-yard touchdown pass from Treon Harris. Callaway became the first true freshman receiver in school history to record three 100-yard receiving games, finishing with 110 yards on three catches. Kelvin Taylor continued his strong running against the Bulldogs, totaling 121 yards and a pair of touchdowns -- a year after running for 196 yards and two scores against UGA. The Florida defense was outstanding, forcing five turnovers and limiting Georgia to just 223 total yards, its fewest in the rivalry since 1991 when UGA totaled 220 yards. Georgia's 3 points were its fewest in the series dating back to 1984, when the Gators won 27-0.
