What's On Tap

Vanderbilt takes on Western Carolina in a two-game midweek matchup starting on Tuesday at 4 p.m. at Hawkins Field. The Commodores and Catamounts will also play on Wednesday at 4 p.m. Redshirt freshman Caleb Cotham (2-0, 2.51 ERA) will start on Tuesday, with fellow redshirt Mark Lamm (0-0, 0.00 ERA) getting the nod on Wednesday. The series marks the first ever matchups between the schools on the baseball diamond.

Scouting Western Carolina

Western Carolina is 4-7 on the year after losing two of three at the Rice Classic over the weekend. The Catamounts lost to Michigan State, 5-3, last Thursday, but came back to defeat Creighton, 11-8, on Friday. WCU had No. 4 Rice on the ropes, leading 7-1 through three innings on Saturday, before falling 12-11.

The middle infield duo of second baseman Jason Haynes (.382) and shortstop Brent Greer (.372) lead the team in hitting, while centerfielder J.C. Lyons provides the power with four homers and 14 RBI.

The Catamount pitching staff has a 7.20 ERA through 11 games with 72 strikeouts and 40 walks in 95.0 innings on the year.

WCU is coming off a NCAA regional appearance a year ago and finished as the runner-up in the Chapel Hill Regional with a 42-20 record. Todd Raleigh, then WCU head coach, left over the summer to become the skipper at Tennessee. Bobby Moranda replaced him and is in his first season as a head coach after serving as an assistant at Georgia Tech for six seasons.

Commodore Tidbits

Vanderbilt went 3-1 on the week to move to 8-3 overall ... The Dores opened the week with a rout of nationally ranked Louisville, 17-6, last Tuesday and then played a close series against Illinois-Chicago over the weekend. The Flames won the first game in their last at-bat, scoring two run with two outs in the ninth off of Commodore ace Mike Minor who was going for a complete game shutout. The 2-1 loss to UIC was Minor's first of the season and just his second in 13 decisions in his career ... VU then rebounded with four runs in the bottom of the ninth on Friday to win 5-4. All of the runs came with two outs and two strikes on every batter, capped off by a Ryan Flaherty fly ball that got lost in the snow, allowing the game-tying and winning runs to score ... Saturday's game against Illinois-Chicago was cancelled due to snow and the Dores then pounded out 16 hits in the 9-3 series clinching win on Sunday ... For the week, VU hit .340 as a team with three homers, eight doubles and 29 RBI. The pitching staff recorded a 3.25 ERA with 33 strikeouts and eight walks in 36.0 innings ... Alex Feinberg continues his hot start to the season, going 8-for-15 (.533) on the week with a double, homer and seven RBI in four games last week. He now leads the team with a .447 average through 11 games with a .543 on base percentage ... Leadoff hitter David Macias went 9-for-19 (.474) with four runs scored last week and is now hitting .417 with four doubles and 11 runs scored on the year ... Andrew Giobbi was 6-for-13 with three doubles and four runs scored last week ... High-school teammate Ryan Flaherty rebounded with a 7-for-16 (.438) week with a homer and eight RBI. He now leads the team with 13 RBI ... Two other players, Brian Harris and Curt Casali responded with their first significant action. Harris was 4-for-11 (.364) in four games (three starts), while Casali started in all four games, going 5-for-11 (.357) with five runs scored ... Freshman Taylor Hill made his first career start on Friday and delivered, striking out seven with three walks in 5.2 innings. He allowed a run on three hits ... Minor was an out away from a four-hit shutout on Thursday. He entered the ninth with just 88 pitches and finished the game allowing two runs on five hits with six strikeouts and three walks in nine innings ... Redshirt freshman Caleb Cotham picked up the win over Louisville, allowing four runs on seven hits in 7.1 innings with nine strikeouts and a walk ... Redshirt junior Steven Schwartz made the most of his first appearance at Hawkins Field, retiring all 10 batters he faced in Sunday's win over Illinois-Chicago. He ended up striking out three in 3.2 innings of relief to pick up his first win at Vanderbilt ... Chase Reid threw two innings against UIC, allowing one unearned run on two hits with two strikeouts to pick up the win, his second of the year ... VU lost a game due to snow and now has 55 on the schedule ... The team plays five games in six days again this week, with two midweek games against Western Carolina before opening SEC play against South Carolina this weekend. VU is in a stretch of playing nine games against 2007 NCAA regional teams.

HEAD COACH TIM CORBIN

In five seasons at Vanderbilt, Tim Corbin has turned Vanderbilt into one of the national powers of college baseball. In 2007, Corbin guided the Commodores to their best season ever, finishing with a school record 54 wins. The team also achieved a No. 1 national ranking for the first time in school history and held that honor for 13 of 15 weeks during the regular season.

The Vanderbilt baseball team also swept through the Southeastern Conference, winning both the regular season and tournament crown for the first time ever, and it marked the first time an SEC team had done it since 1996. The team lost only one conference series the entire season against SEC West Division winner Arkansas in Fayetteville and avenged the series loss by defeating the Razorbacks in the SEC tournament title game.

The conference recognized Corbin for the work he had done, naming him SEC Coach of the Year. Corbin also picked up Co-National Coach of the Year by College Baseball Insider and regional coach of the year honors by the American Baseball Coaches Association.

The Commodores hosted their first ever NCAA regional as the No. 1 National Seed and arrived as a power in college baseball.

Corbin's success and methods of running the Vanderbilt program has earned him respect among the college and international baseball communities.

In the summer of 2006 he managed the USA Baseball National Team to a 28-2-1 record that culminated with a gold medal finish at the FISU (International University Sports Federation) World University Championship in Havana, Cuba. The .919 winning percentage was the highest ever for a national team and it garnered special recognition by the United States Olympic Committee.

His overall record of 198-108 (.647) is third best in terms of wins, and first in terms of win percentage for coaches with 100 games or more.

In 2006 he guided a youthful Commodore squad to a 38-27 record and sixth place finish in the rugged Southeastern Conference. The team was the youngest team in the league, with seven everyday starters either freshmen or sophomores. For the second time in three seasons, Corbin guided the team to the SEC Tournament Championship game and the young squad also gained valuable NCAA experience after advancing to the championship round of the Atlanta Regional.

The 2006 team posted impressive series wins over College World Series participant Georgia, Super Regional participants South Carolina and Ole Miss, and took series on the road against Florida and LSU. The team handed LSU its worst conference loss at home in school history in the process.

In addition to on the field successes, the baseball program itself has had significant upgrades to the facilities with a brand new fieldhouse, complete with new locker rooms for players, coaches and Commodore alums playing professional baseball. Also included are coach's offices, a classroom that overlooks Hawkins Field and a new weight room. These recent upgrades reinforce the excitement and commitment made to the baseball program due to the successes Tim Corbin has achieved as well as those he will strive to accomplish in the future.

He has already pushed the program to its most successful season, rewritten a significant portion of its record book, and ascended to the ranks of Southeastern Conference and national powers. For him, such excellence has been a constant in a career that covers two decades in both the collegiate and international baseball ranks.

Corbin, along with his coaching staff, are a tireless group that saw their recruiting efforts pay off last fall as the 2005 recruiting class was labeled the nation's best by Baseball America.

Professional baseball has also taken notice of the program as 20 VU players have been drafted over the last three years including eight in 2007.

In 2005, Corbin directed the squad to its second consecutive 30-win season, an achievement that had not been done in over 15 years. The campaign was highlighted with series wins over Alabama, Mississippi, South Carolina and College World Series participant Tennessee.

In 2004, Corbin not only directed the Commodores to their first NCAA Tournament appearance in 24 years, he guided them to their first-ever Super Regional as they swept through the Charlottesville Regional with victories over George Mason, Princeton and host Virginia. In the Super Regional they fell to the eventual national runner-up, Texas, but still carved out a piece of history as the first team in NCAA baseball history to make it that far one year after having finished with a sub-.500 record.

Along the way Vanderbilt racked up 45 wins, was the only team to rank among the SEC's top five in earned run average (first), batting average (fourth) and fielding percentage (first), and finished with a .703 winning percentage, which was third-best in the highly competitive conference, which sent nine schools to the NCAA Tournament. The Commodores' school-record .978 fielding percentage was second in the nation, and their 30 error-free games were 11 more than the previous season.

Before Corbin was hired as the 21st coach in program history, Vanderbilt had not earned a spot in the conference tournament in a decade. Not only has he led his team there twice, the Commodores made it to the 2004 championship game.

During the 2004 regular season, Vanderbilt swept a series against Mississippi State for the first time. It was one of three conference whitewashes and one of five series wins in all.

His efforts earned him the 2004 Vanderbilt Coach of the Year award and a nomination for the Nashville Sports Council's Sports Person of the Year. Plus, a school-record five players were named to the SEC All-Tournament team, five players were drafted on the first day and seven VU players in all were chosen in the Major League Baseball Draft, topped by No. 6 overall pick pitcher Jeremy Sowers.

His first Vanderbilt team finished 27-28 overall and 14-16 in the SEC, good enough for second in the Eastern Division. It earned a conference tournament berth with a season-ending sweep of Tennessee capped by a dramatic ninth-inning rally in the finale. The overall and conference victory totals were the most by a first-year Vanderbilt coach and were made more impressive by the fact that the Commodores were 12-5 in one-run games.

That squad set then school records for fielding percentage (.972), fewest errors in a season (60), most saves in a season (15) and fewest walks allowed in a season (168) — all of which were bettered in 2004. The team notched series victories over nationally-ranked conference foes LSU, Auburn and Florida, each of which was ranked among the top 15 at the time.
