Jarvis Jones Anchors Defense

Junior OLB Jarvis Jones looks to be back this week after missing the Florida Atlantic game with a groin injury that he played with in his dominating performance at Missouri two weeks ago. He exploded for nine tackles, including two sacks/tackles for loss, his first career interception, two forced fumbles and five quarterback pressures to pace the Bulldog defense during the 41-20 rout of the Tigers. The 2011 All-American returned his pick 21 yards to the Missouri 1-yard line to set up one of the Bulldogs' fourth quarter touchdowns. On the next series, Jones sacked QB James Franklin and forced a fumble that led to Georgia's fifth and final touchdown.

The Columbus native has 16.5 sacks over his last 16 games. For his effort versus the Tigers, Jones also received a helmet sticker from the ESPN College Football Live crew, was named the national defensive player of the week by the Lott IMPACT Trophy, Chuck Bednarik Trophy, the Bronko Nagurski Trophy and the SEC Defensive Player of the Week.

On A Regular Season Roll

During the 2011 season, Georgia went on a 10-game winning streak. This was the longest in-season winning streak since the 1982 team under Vince Dooley went a perfect 11-0 during the regular season. Georgia has now won 13 consecutive regular season games following its three victories in 2012. The streak ranks as the second-longest active regular season winning streak in the nation behind LSU (16).

This is the longest regular season winning streak for the Bulldogs under Mark Richt. UGA won 11 straight games over two seasons once before, winning the final seven in 2007 and the first four in 2008.

ON DECK: Tennessee

The Bulldogs are 18-21-2 all-time versus the Vols. However, Georgia has won three out of the last four meetings, including a 20-12 victory in Knoxville last year. During Tennessee's last trip to Athens, the Bulldogs knocked off UT 41-14. The Vols are coached by Derek Dooley, who is the son of the legendary Bulldog coach Vince Dooley.

Bulldog-Commodore History

Georgia and Vanderbilt resume their series on Saturday, which first began in 1893 in Nashville. Georgia leads the all-time series 52-18-2. The Bulldogs have won 16 of the last 17 meetings.

Georgia edged the Commodores 33-28 last year in Nashville. Aaron Murray posted his second straight career-high day versus Vanderbilt after going 22-for-38 for 326 yards. Leading 26-21, Murray connected with Marlon Brown for a 75-yard touchdown at the beginning of the fourth quarter to help distance the Bulldogs. The Commodores blocked a punt late in the game, but punter Drew Butler made a game-saving tackle to help seal the victory. On Vanderbilt's last trip to Athens, Georgia shut out the Commodores 43-0 on homecoming in 2010. Richt is 10-1 against Vanderbilt.

Georgia is No. 5 in this week's AP poll and No. 6 in the latest USA Today poll. This is the Bulldogs' top ranking since 2008. Coincidentally, UGA will be aiming for its first 4-0 start since that year. That year the Bulldogs finished 10-3. Since Mark Richt took over as head coach in 2001, Georgia has started the season 4-0 five different times.

A Quick Glance At Vanderbilt

Last Saturday, the Commodores (1-2, 0-1 SEC) walloped Presbyterian 58-0 in Nashville. It was VU's largest shutout since defeating The Citadel 58-0 in 1999.

The Commodores, with junior quarterback Austyn Carta-Samuels at the controls for the first time this year, tallied 605 yards of total offense. Senior running back Zac Stacy finished with 174 yards on eight carries including an 86-yard touchdown run on Vanderbilt's first offensive play against the Blue Hose. Carta-Samuels made his first career start for Vanderbilt after transferring from Wyoming in 2011 where he was a two-year starter. Jordan Rodgers, younger brother of Green Bay Packer quarterback Aaron Rodgers, had started the last nine games for the Commodores.

Vanderbilt opened its season with a 17-13 home loss to ninth-ranked South Carolina and then allowed Northwestern to score 17 points in the fourth quarter two weeks ago in Evanston, Ill., for a 23-13 win.

Piling On The Points Early And Late

Georgia scored 45 points versus Buffalo during the first game of 2012 and then had a 32-point outburst in the second half against Missouri for a 41-20 win. Georgia outscored Florida Atlantic 42-6 in the final three quarters and topped the Owls 56-20. This marks the first time in Bulldog history that the team has scored 40+ points in their first three games. The Bulldogs have scored 142 points to their opponents' 63 this season. Georgia's most prolific scoring output during the first three games of a season came in 1910. The Bulldogs took off for 202 points that year, highlighted by a 101-0 season opener against Locust Grove (then beat Gordon 79-10 before topping Alabama 22-0).

And don't overlook the Bulldog defense this year as they have yet to play a game at full strength. Still, Georgia's first three opponents have combined to score only 23 points in the second half and one touchdown came on an interception return. Once Georgia has taken the lead this season, the Bulldogs are outscoring their opponents 111-43. Georgia's reserves saw significant action in the wins over Buffalo and Florida Atlantic as those teams managed to score late touchdowns. However in the Missouri contest two weeks ago in Columbia, once Georgia grabbed a lead, it outscored the Tigers 24-0.

OFFENSE

Murray Setting The Tone For SEC Quarterbacks

Junior QB Aaron Murray is one of the nation's elite at his position. During the offseason, Murray graduated with a degree in Psychology after posting a GPA of 3.4 and is now in graduate school. The Tampa, Fla., native finished 2011 with a school record 35 touchdown passes. In his 19 wins as a starter, Murray has 47 TDs to just 11 INTs. Murray is the SEC's leading active player in total offensive yards (7,314), completions (498), TD responsibility (75), TD passes (67) and passing yards (7,040).

In the road win over Missouri, Murray tied his career high in completions with 22. Against FAU, he tallied a career-high 342 yards and moved into a tie for second on the school's all-time career TD pass list.

A Look At The Offensive Line

Opponent	^Points	Total Offense (Rushing/Passing)	Sacks
Buffalo	45	485 (227 / 258)	3
@ Missouri	41	355 (113 / 242)	2
Florida Atlantic	56	*713 (328 / 385)	0

* - school record, tied No. 6 in SEC history; ^ - first time in school history that the Bulldogs have scored 40+ points in three consecutive games

Who To Cover?

Georgia has had a different 100-yard receiver in all three games this season. Most recently, redshirt sophomore SE Michael Bennett hauled in four catches for 110 yards, including a career-long 67-yard touchdown catch. Bennett was coming off a career-high eight catches for 79 yards in the road victory over Missouri a week earlier.

At Missouri, senior SE Marlon Brown returned from a hamstring injury that kept him out of game one to snag a career-high eight catches for 106 yards and two touchdowns. Senior FLK Tavarres King, who piled up 117 yards and a score in the opener versus Buffalo, added another two catches for 41 yards and a touchdown against Missouri. King, who has already graduated in Social Studies Education, is the SEC's active leader in both receptions (104) and receiving yards (1,864).

Junior TE Arthur Lynch posted the top performance of his career in the 56-20 win over FAU. Lynch snagged three catches for 73 yards and scored for the first time while wearing red and black. Also of note, sophomore CB/SE Malcolm Mitchell made his first appearance on offense this season and had one catch for 49 yards. Mitchell, who has started all three games this year at CB, earned All-SEC Freshman honors last year after finishing with 45 catches for 665 yards and four touchdowns.

Balanced Attack

Georgia has utilized a trio of weapons at tailback through the opening three games, with all three backs having 12 or fewer carries in each game. True freshman Todd Gurley tallied a career-high 111 yards and a score on 10 carries (11.1 avg.) versus FAU. He made his debut against Buffalo and was named the SEC Freshman Player of the Week after running for 100 yards and two touchdowns on just eight carries. He leads the SEC in all-purpose yds. (171.3) and in kickoff return yds. (34.7).

Gurley is not the Bulldogs' only weapon in the backfield. True freshman and Gurley's roommate, Keith Marshall, has also added 182 yards rushing and a score during the Bulldogs' three wins, including a 100-yard performance versus FAU. Redshirt sophomore Ken Malcome started the opener and ran for 33 yards and a touchdown to help pace Georgia down the stretch at Missouri.

No. 2 Signal Caller For The Bulldogs

Hutson Mason played in four games at quarterback in 2011, going 18-of-30 for 254 yards and two touchdowns, and has appeared in eight games over the last two seasons. In 2012, Georgia aims to redshirt Mason to give him a year separation with junior Aaron Murray. Mason is currently No. 2 on the depth chart.

Redshirt freshman QB Christian LeMay has appeared in two games this season. Redshirt sophomore Parker Welch is the only other quarterback with collegiate playing experience. Welch played in two games last season and completed his only pass for 20 yards versus Coastal Carolina.

DEFENSE & SPECIAL TEAMS

Getting Defensive

Georgia has made excellent second-half adjustments as opponents have scored just 23 points in the second half, and six of those came on an interception return for a touchdown. In its most recent contest, the Bulldog defense blanked FAU in the second half. The Owls' touchdown came on the aforementioned fourth quarter pick-six.

Georgia surrendered a total of 23 points to Buffalo in the season opener. It was a tale of two halves for the Bulldog defense. The Bulls had two touchdown drives that covered 75 yards each and one that covered 94 yards. Georgia did have a goal-line stand at the end of the opening half that resulted in a Buffalo field goal.

Against Missouri, Georgia blanked the Tigers in the first and fourth quarters and allowed 10 points each in the second and third quarters. Missouri's two touchdown drives were courtesy of quick-strike scores of 41 and 69 yards. Both of the drives mentioned above were three plays each that were shorter than a minute. After Georgia fell behind 17-9, the Bulldogs outscored Missouri 32-3 the rest of the way including 17-0 in the fourth quarter.

Here's a look inside the numbers for the Georgia defense this season:

2012

Opp.	Plays	Yards	Sacks	Pts. Allowed (1st half / 2nd half)
vs. UB	70	347	2	23 (16 / 7)
@ UM	80	371	2	20 (10 / 10)
vs. FAU	71	318	1	14 (14 / 0)

SEC Sack Leader Jarvis Jones Is Back At It

Junior OLB and 2011 Butkus Award finalist Jarvis Jones gives the Bulldogs a solid foundation at linebacker. This season, he has 17 tackles, including 3.5 sacks, one interception and three forced fumbles, despite not playing versus Florida Atlantic (goin'). Jones earned multiple national player of the week honors for his dominating performance versus the Tigers. A consensus All-American, he led the SEC and was tied for fifth nationally with 13.5 sacks (which was just a half sack off David Pollack's school record 14 set in 2002) last year.

Youthful Linebacker Making Impression

With All-American Jarvis Jones sidelined with an injury versus FAU, several young Bulldogs linebackers made their presence known against the Owls. After a career-high 10 tackles against Missouri, sophomore ILB Amarlo Herrera piled up seven tackles versus FAU plus had a 35-yard interception return for a touchdown. The pick came on the next play after the Owls had thwarted a Bulldog drive with an INT in the end zone. Herrera ranks second on the team with 22 tackles.

True freshman Jordan Jenkins made his first career start with Jones out and finished with three tackles and a pass break-up. After missing the first two games of 2012, junior OLB Chase Vasser had seven tackles against FAU, including 1.5 tackles for loss. Senior ILB Michael Gilliard is third on the team with 19 tackles this season.

Stingy Secondary Mostly Intact

Georgia featured a revamped secondary in its first two games with two projected starters unavailable (senior All-American Bacarri Rambo and senior Sanders Commings). The Bulldogs lined up in the nickel versus Buffalo with redshirt freshman CB Devin Bowman, senior SS Shawn Williams, redshirt sophomore FS Connor Norman, senior CB Branden Smith and sophomore CB Damian Swann. This marked the first starts and the most significant playing time for both Bowman and Norman. Swann led the team with a career-high eight tackles in just his second career start. Commings returned to the lineup as a S/CB against Florida Atlantic after missing the first two games and had four stops.

Sophomore Malcolm Mitchell has started the first three games at CB. The Valdosta native recorded six stops and two pass breakups during the victory over the Tigers. Mitchell was Georgia's second-leading receiver in 2011 with 45 catches for 665 yards and four touchdowns. Mitchell missed the season opener with an ankle injury.

Veteran Presence Up Front

Senior N John Jenkins, a 6-3, 358-pound native of Meriden, Conn., tied his career high with six tackles versus Buffalo and added another five stops at Missouri. Jenkins is in his second season with the Bulldogs and is flanked by seniors Abry Jones and Cornelius Washington at the DE spots. Opening with four tackles against the Bulls, Washington tallied five stops at Missouri, including 2.5 tackles for loss. Junior DE Garrison Smith, who posted six stops of his own versus Buffalo, and junior N Kwame Geathers are also in the rotation up front. Geathers blocked a PAT against FAU to give the Bulldogs four in the Richt era.

Freshmen Specialists

The Bulldogs have a pair of true freshmen specialists. P Collin Barber of Cartersville, Ga., and PK Marshall Morgan of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., have replaced a couple of Bulldogs who are currently NFL starters (Drew Butler-Pittsburgh, Blair Walsh-Minnesota). Morgan ranks fourth in the SEC among kickers with 27 points. He has hit 3-of-4 field goals and connected on 17-of-18 extra points. His performance at Missouri included a 41-yard FG and a 52-yard FG, which was the longest for the Bulldogs on the road since Walsh drilled a 53 yarder in 2009 (Oklahoma State).

Barber lifted a 57-yard punt on his first try against Buffalo and is averaging 40.9 yds. this year. This season is the first since 1985 that Georgia opened with a punter and placekicker without any collegiate experience. That year, punter Cris Carpenter and placekicker Steve Crumley were redshirt freshman.

Redshirt sophomore P Adam Erickson has recorded six "pooch" punts for the Bulldogs this season, averaging 35.8 yds/game. He had a career-long 46 yarder against Florida Atlantic. Erickson has placed four of his six attempts inside the 20-yard line.

The Return Men

Georgia has featured a couple of newcomers returning kickoffs and punts in 2012. Freshman TB Todd Gurley tied a school, SEC and NCAA record with a 100-yard kickoff return for a touchdown in the first quarter versus Buffalo. Gurley leads the SEC in kickoff return average at 34.7. His return came on the third time he touched the ball as a collegiate player. Gurley was named the College Football Performance Awards National Kickoff Returner of the Week and the SEC Freshman Player of the Week for his efforts. This was the first time the Bulldogs have had a 100-yard return since Brandon Boykin accomplished the feat versus Kentucky in 2010. Boykin had three of them in his career.

The Bulldogs have had 17 special teams touchdowns since Mark Richt took the head coaching job in 2001. While Missouri attempted to kick away from Gurley for most of the game, the Tarboro, N.C., native still had two returns for 65 yards against the Tigers.

CB Damian Swann had his first career punt return covering 30 yards versus Buffalo before having one return for 10 yards against Missouri. He had four fair catches in the game.

Another note in the punt return game, two regulars on offense have made significant contributions through the first two contests. Senior running back Richard Samuel thwarted Missouri's fake punt attempt in the fourth quarter. Samuel shed his block and tackled Tiger punter Trey Barrow to give the Bulldogs the ball at the Missouri 38-yard line. Sophomore FLK Chris Conley blocked a Buffalo punt to set up a 35-yard field goal. Conley's block was the 20th punt block in the Richt era.

Making Their First Starts

Georgia had eight first-time starters, including five true freshmen this year. Versus Buffalo, true freshman RT John Theus, sophomore C David Andrews and redshirt freshman FB Merritt Hall got the nod while redshirt sophomore FS Connor Norman and redshirt freshman CB Devin Bowman lined up on defense to start things off. True freshman Marshall Morgan kicked off to start the game and kicked the extra points against the Bulls.

At Missouri, true freshman TB Todd Gurley got the first start of his career. Fellow true freshman OLB Jordan Jenkins got his first career start for the Bulldogs against Florida Atlantic.

The True Freshman Experience

RT John Theus, TB Keith Marshall, TB Todd Gurley, PK Marshall Morgan, OLB Jordan Jenkins, FB Quayvon Hicks, TE Ty Flournoy-Smith, CB Sheldon Dawson, SS Josh Harvey-Clemons, OLB James DeLoach, P Collin Barber, OLB Josh Dawson and C Preston Mobley were the 13 true freshmen to play for the Bulldogs in the first game. This marks the most true freshmen to play in the season opener in the Richt era. The previous high was 11 in 2008.

Georgia is tied for fourth nationally with its 13 true freshmen who have played in 2012.

Taking It To The House

Here are the four *100-yard kickoff returns in school history:

2012: Todd Gurley vs. Buffalo

2010: Brandon Boykin @ Kentucky

2009: Boykin @ Tennessee

2009: Boykin vs. South Carolina

* - these 100-yard kickoff returns tie the school, SEC and NCAA records; there have only been two 100-yard plays by Georgia players in Sanford Stadium history with Gurley and Boykin's returns

Freshman Todd Gurley took his first career kickoff return 100 yards for a touchdown versus Buffalo. Gurley also had a 100-yard rushing game against the Bulls during his first collegiate game and was named the SEC Co-Freshman Player of the Week.

BUFFALO

Sept. 1, 2012 • Sanford Stadium - Athens, Ga.

Quarterback Aaron Murray led the passing attack, finishing 15-for-26 for 258 yards and three touchdowns. Freshman Todd Gurley became the first Georgia true freshman to run for at least 100 yards and three touchdowns since Danny Ware in 2004 against Georgia Southern. Gurley finished with eight carries for 100 yards and three touchdowns, including a school, SEC and NCAA-record tying 100-yard kickoff return for a touchdown. Keith Marshall finished with 10 carries for 51 yards. Tavarres King finished with six catches for 117 yards and a touchdown, while Michael Bennett and Rantavious Wooten each hauled in one touchdown pass each.

Jarvis Jones led the team defensively, racking up eight tackles, including six solo tackles and 2.5 tackles for a loss. Damien Swann also finished with eight tackles, while Michael Gilliard registered seven.

The Bulldogs got on the board early when Gurley rushed for a 10-yard touchdown that capped off a seven play, 53-yard drive that took 3:10 off the clock that made it 7-0.

Buffalo answered with a 16-yard touchdown pass from Alex Neutz to Alex Zordich that made it a 7-6 game after a failed point-after attempt.

Georgia answered on the ensuing kickoff, when Gurley took it 100 yards to the end zone to give the Bulldogs a 14-6 lead, following the extra-point by Marshall Morgan.

Morgan extended the Bulldog lead to 17-6 on a 35-yard field goal at the 12:16 mark of the second quarter. King hauled in a 63-yard touchdown pass from Murray to cap off a four play, 75 yard drive that took just 1:23 off the clock.

Buffalo drove the ball 94 yards on eight plays to cut the lead to 24-16 on a Branden Oliver run. With just two seconds on the clock, the Bulls made a 18-yard field goal that sent the game into halftime with Georgia holding a 24-16 lead.

Georgia scored the only points of the third quarter when Murray found Wooten for a 38-yard touchdown pass. Following the Morgan kick, the Bulldogs pulled away 31-16.

On its opening possession of the fourth quarter, Murray ended a 49-yard march downfield when he found Bennett in the back of the end zone for 12 yards that extended Georgia's lead to 38-16. Gurley scored his third touchdown of the game when he broke off a 55-yard run. Morgan made the point after, bringing the score to 45-15.

With just over four minutes left to play, Buffalo orchestrated a 10-play, 75-yard drive that resulted in a two-yard touchdown run by Zordich.

Coach Mark Richt said...

"There's no such thing as a bad victory. We are thankful for the win. I want to congratulate Buffalo for the effort. They played extremely well. 1-0 is a great thing. ... We've got some things to clean up, there's no doubt about that. We had a play with 10 men on the field and a play with 12 men on the field. We had some issues that should not happen. But they did, so we've got to correct them and square them away for next week."

MISSOURI

Sept. 8, 2012 • Faurot Field - Columbia, Mo.

The Bulldogs scored 24 unanswered points in the second half to pull away from the Missouri Tigers and capture the 41-20 victory in their first SEC contest of the season. Quarterback Aaron Murray led the Bulldogs through the air, going 22-for-35 for 242 yards and three touchdowns. Marlon Brown led the receivers with eight catches for 106 total yards, while Michael Bennett added 79 yards and Tavarres King finished with two catches for 41 yards and a touchdown. Todd Gurley led Georgia in rushing for the second consecutive game, finishing with 65 yards and a touchdown on 10 carries. Ken Malcome added 33 yards on seven carries and one touchdown.

ILB Amarlo Herrera posted a career-high 10 tackles, all in the first half, and recovered a fumble to lead the Dawgs on defense. All-American OLB Jarvis Jones tallied eight tackles, a sack and an interception on the day, and Shawn Williams and Christian Robinson each tallied eight tackles apiece.

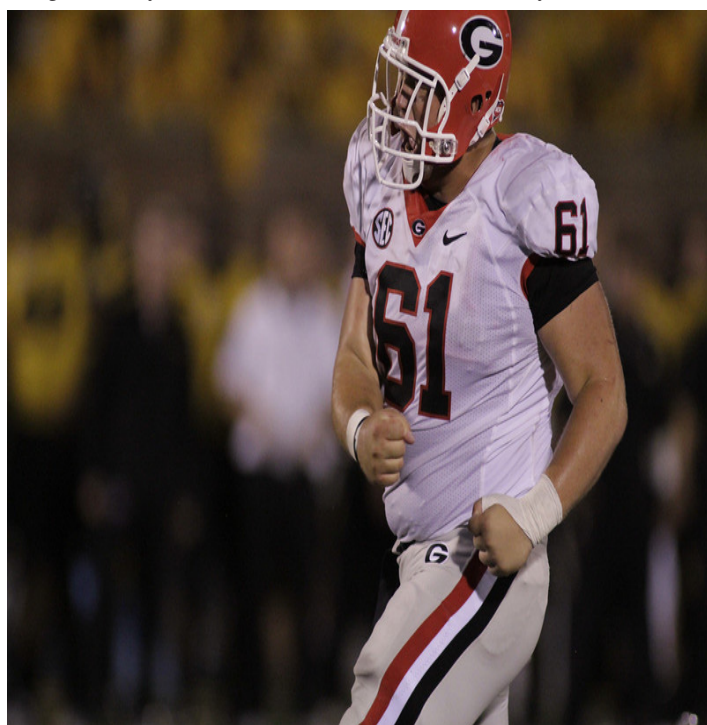

Neither team was able to score in the first quarter, and the Tigers finally ended the scoring drought with a 38-yard field goal by Andrew Baggett at the 12:07 mark of the second quarter to take a 3-0 lead. Georgia responded later in the quarter with a career-best 52-yard field goal from freshman Marshall Morgan to knot the score at 3-3. It was the longest field goal on the road by a Bulldog since Blair Walsh made a 53-yarder at Oklahoma State in 2009.

Missouri scored the first touchdown of the game at the 1:31 mark in the second quarter on a 41-yard pass from James Franklin to Marcus Lucas for a 10-3 lead, but the Georgia offense quickly mounted their own scoring drive right before halftime, going 71 yards in five plays and finishing with a 2-yard touchdown pass from Murray to Brown. Morgan missed the ensuing PAT, so the Tigers maintained a 10-9 lead over Georgia heading into the break.

Missouri opened up play in the second half with a 69-yard touchdown pass from Franklin to L'D Washington with 11:48 remaining in the third quarter to take a 17-9 lead, but once again, Murray found an open Georgia receiver in the end zone - this time Tavarres King - for a 7-yard touchdown pass at the 7:27 mark in the third quarter. The Bulldogs went for two points and were rewarded for their efforts, as Michael Bennett caught a pass from Murray to knot the score at 17 apiece.

Baggett booted a 25-yard field goal at the 2:39 mark in the third quarter for Missouri's final points of the game, but the Bulldogs then drove the ball 72 yards on five plays in just over 90 seconds to take their first lead at 24-20, as Murray found Brown for an 11-yard touchdown pass.

It was all Georgia in the fourth quarter, as Morgan nailed his second field goal of the game - this time from 41 yards out - to extend the Georgia lead to 27-20 with 11:17 remaining. Later in the quarter, Jarvis Jones intercepted a pass from Franklin and returned it 21 yards to the 1-yard line. Gurley then ran the ball in from the one to give the Dawgs a 34-20 lead with 7:33 remaining in the game. Malcome capped the scoring sput for Georgia with a 6-yard run at the 5:16 mark to seal the 41-20 victory.

Coach Mark Richt said...

"I'm very pleased, and I'm just so proud of our team. It was a really hard-fought ballgame, and 21 points is not indicative of how close the game was. We just made some plays at the end there that got some quick scores for us. My hat just goes off to the Missouri coaches, and their players and fans...Richard Samuel's stop on the fake punt might have been the play of the game. It's the one that made me the happiest."

Coach Mark Richt said...

"The offense really did a good job — running the ball, passing the ball, pass protecting. Other than the turnovers that were alarming, it was a good output by the offense. ... When you get that type of output, you're executing and doing some very good things. If we can keep from shooting ourselves in the foot with turnovers and penalties, we've got a chance to be good on offense."
