The Commodores are looking to break a three-game losing streak to the Blue Raiders, dating back to three closely contested games played over the last 15 years.

Vanderbilt fell to Middle Tennessee by a total of 12 points in games played on campus in 2001, 2002 and 2005. Before renewing the series in 2001 after a 55-year absence, the 'Dores held a 12-0 record over the Blue Raiders, dating back to the first game played during World War I.

The Commodores and Blue Raiders are played twice previously in Murfreesboro, with Vanderbilt claiming wins in 1920 and 1956.

SCHEU NAMED AS CAMPBELL TROPHY, SENIOR CLASS AWARD CANDIDATE

Steven Scheu (R-Sr., TE) was named a semifinalist for the William V. Campbell Trophy, as announced by The National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame on Sept. 24.

Known as the "Academic Heisman," the Campbell Trophy recognizes an individual as the absolute best football scholar-athlete in the nation. Scheu is one of 56 FBS players selected as a semifinalist for the honor that requires a candidate to be a senior or graduate student in their final year of eligibility, have a GPA of at least 3.2, be a significant contributor on the field and have demonstrated strong leadership and citizenship.

The NFF will announce 15 finalists on Oct. 26, and each of them will receive an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship as a member of the NFF National Scholar-Athlete Class. Finalists will travel to New York City for the 58th NFF Annual Awards Dinner in December, where the winner will receive a postgraduate scholarship increased to $25,000.

One week earlier, Scheu was selected as one of 30 Football Bowl Subdivision student-athletes to be tabbed as a candidate for the 2015 Senior CLASS Award. The recognition honors student-athletes who have notable achievements in four areas of excellence: community, classroom, character and competition.

Scheu, a 2014 Second Team All-SEC selection, led all SEC tight ends in catches and ranked second in yards last season. His 525 receiving yards were the most by a Vanderbilt tight end since 1983. Scheu is also a candidate for the Mackey Award, given to the nation's top tight end.

A native of Evansville, Ind., Scheu will graduate in December with a degree in medicine, health and society and plans to seek an MBA. He is a three-time selection to the SEC Academic Honor Roll and two-time member of the team's leadership council. This fall, Scheu returned to the field after an injury forced him out of spring drills.

RESULTS IN NON-CONFERENCE PLAY

Vanderbilt enters the Middle Tennessee game having captured 13 of its last 16 encounters against non-Southeastern Conference opponents.

Earlier this year, the Commodores defeated Austin Peay 47-7 (Sept. 19) and fell to Western Kentucky 14-12 (Sept. 3) in non-league games.

Since the 2011 opener, Vanderbilt is 15-3 against non-SEC teams in regular season action – and 17-4 overall against non-SEC foes including bowl appearances.

Besides the Austin Peay and WKU results, the 'Dores have defeated UMass, Charleston Southern and Old Dominion in 2014, Austin Peay, UMass, UAB and Wake Forest in 2013, and Presbyterian, UMass and Wake Forest in 2012.

VANDERBILT SHOWS IMPROVEMENT IN NEARLY EVERY AREA FROM YEAR AGO

Vanderbilt's 1-3 record matches the results from a year ago. Yet, a review of early-season statistics continue to reveal the 2015 'Dores to be much improved and more competitive than the 2014 squad.

The 2015 Commodores are improved in virtually every key statistical category from last year.

On offense, the Commodores are averaging 22.2 points per game - a 2.7-point increase from 2014. The unit, guided by first-year coordinator Andy Ludwig, has averaged 412.0 yards of total offense - 128.5 yards more than a year ago. First downs are up more than 65 percent, from 14.8 in 2014 to 22.0 this year. The 2015 Commodores have experienced increases in both rushing yards (17.8 yards more this year) and passing yards (110.8 yards more than in 2014). The added production has resulted in a 11% increase in third down conversions and a 5:41 improvement in time of possession.

The 2015 defense, directed by Head Coach Derek Mason, has experienced similar improvement. The unit has allowed 19.8 points per game, 19.4 points less than in 2014. It has allowed 321.0 yards of total offense, 102.2 yards less than a year ago; and kept opponents to just 17.3 first downs, 6.5 less than in 2014. The defense also has experienced big reductions in rushing yards allowed (from 156.0 to 125.8) and passing yards (from 267.2 to 195.2). The impacts of better Commodore defenses have resulted in 11 fewer opponent touchdowns, a 19% drop in third-down conversions by opponents, and a drop in red-zone efficiency from 90% in 2014 to 71% this year.

SHERFIELD ESTABLISHES RECEIVING MARK; BREAKOUT EFFORT FOR SOPHOMORE

Trent Sherfield (So., WR) produced one of the most impressive performances ever by a Vanderbilt wide receiver in the 'Dores' win over Austin Peay Sept. 19.

Sherfield set a new Vanderbilt single-game standard with 240 receiving yards against the Governors. The yardage total came on 16 receptions, which ties the third highest total in team history.

The receptions and yardage totals are the most in the SEC since LSU's Josh Reed had 19 catches vs. Alabama (2001) and

Texas A&M's Mike Evans had 287 receiving yards vs. Auburn (2013).

Sherfield had seven catches for 55 yards at Ole Miss on Sept. 26.

Sherfield owns the SEC lead with 28 receptions (7.0 pg). He ranks second in the conference with 402 receiving yards (100.5 ypg).

Sherfield, who posted just one catch in seven games in 2014, looks to give Vanderbilt its most potent receiver since Jordan Matthews graduated after the 2013 season. In 2014, C.J. Duncan topped the team's wideouts with 441 receiving yards.

TWENTY FIRST-TIME CONTRIBUTORS IN COMMODORES' EARLY SEASON GAMES

Twenty Commodores have enjoyed their first collegiate action early in the 2015 season.

Josh Crawford (Fr., RB) became the newest first-time contributor, rushing for 20 yards and catching two passes for 11 yards at Ole Miss.

Six other players - Bailey Granier (R-Fr., OL), Cole Hardin (R-Fr., OL), Jay Hockaday (Fr., LB), Ronald Monroe (R-Fr., WR), Dare Odeyingbo (Fr., DE) and Brian Doney (So., WR) - saw their initial minutes in the Commodore win over Austin Peay.

Thirteen more players, including starting OLB Nehemiah Mitchell (Jr.), saw their initial collegiate action versus Western Kentucky or Georgia.

Offensive first-time players in addition to Crawford, Hardin, Monroe and Doney were Ladarius Banks (Jr., FB), Bruno Reagan (R-Fr., OL), Jared Pinkney (Fr., TE), Justin Skule (Fr., OL) and Kyle Anderton (Fr., FB).

Other first-time defensive contributors besides Hockaday, Odeyingbo and Mitchell were Khari Blasingame (R-Fr., ILB), Bryce Lewis (R-Fr., ILB), Josh Smith (Fr., OLB) and Charles Wright (R-Fr., ILB).

Two snap specialists - Wilson Johnson (Jr.) and Jacob Schultz (Jr.) - saw their first collegiate action vs. Western Kentucky.

COMMODORE DEFENSE EXPERIENCING SUCCESS VERSUS QUALITY ATTACKS

The Vanderbilt defense ranks among SEC and NCAA leaders in several areas despite preparing for its fourth outstanding offensive opponent.

The unit ranks in the top half of SEC in virtually every stat category, including points allowed (19.8 pts, 7th), total defense (321.0 ypg, 6th), first downs allowed (17.2 pg., 6th), pass defense (195.2 ypg, 6th), rush defense (125.8 ypg, 7th), third-down efficiency (23%, 2nd) and red-zone defense (71%, 2nd).

The defense has faced three strong offenses in Western Kentucky, Georgia and Ole Miss, and another impressive unit in Middle Tennessee. Western Kentucky, led by record-breaking QB Brandon Doughty, ranked among the 2014 NCAA leaders in points, total offense and pass offense. Georgia's offense sparked by Heisman Trophy candidate Nick Chubb ranked among national leaders in scoring, rushing and total offense. Despite scoring a season-low 27 points against Vanderbilt, Ole Miss ranks No. 2 nationally averaging 54.8 points per game.

Middle Tennessee, the Commodores' opponent this week, features another top offensive attack. The Blue Raiders behind QB Brent Stockstill average 44.5 points (12th in NCAA), 315.3 passing yards (21st in NCAA) and 476.8 yards of total offense.

'DORE OFFENSE MUCH IMPROVED; LOOKING FOR MORE TOUCHDOWNS

The Vanderbilt offense under first-year coordinator Andy Ludwig has shown vast improvement from a year ago.

After trailing the SEC in numerous categories in 2014, the 'Dores have shown far more production under Ludwig.

The unit's current total offense (412.0 ypg) ranks seventh in the SEC and is close to the team's modern-day yearly best of 412.8 yards established 41 years ago. The Commodores also rank second in the league in time of possession (33:20) and third-down efficiency (44%), and fifth in pass offense (275.0 ypg).

NOTES FROM OLE MISS GAME

PRODUCING TURNOVERS ... The Commodore registered its initial turnovers of the season against the Rebels, twice picking off Ole Miss QB Chad Kelly.

Jahmel McIntosh (Sr., safety) and Oren Burks (R-So., safety) came up with the interceptions. It was the third career pick for McIntosh, most among active Commodores.

WIN STREAK IN OXFORD ENDS ... Despite the encouraging effort, Vanderbilt's three-game win streak in Oxford came to an end in the 27-16 defeat to the Rebels.

The Commodores hold a 6-5 series advantage since registering a 31-23 victory over Ole Miss in 2005.

It also marked the 90th game between Vanderbilt and Ole Miss. The only team Vanderbilt has played more is Tennessee (109).

STELLAR DEFENSIVE PERFORMANCE ... For the most part, the Vanderbilt defense held an impressive Ole Miss offense in check.

The Commodores limited the Rebels, who entered the game averaging 64.0 points and 567.3 total yards, to 27 points and nearly 200 fewer yards than their season average.

LEADING TACKLER ... Zach Cunningham (R-So., ILB) topped the Commodores with 11 total tackles, including 1.5 tackles for loss and his first career quarterback sack.

It was the most tackles by a Vanderbilt defender since Cunningham registered 12 tackles last November at Mississippi State.

LIMITING TURNOVERS ... The Commodore offense is starting to protect the football. For the second straight game, the Commodores did not commit a turnover. It marks the first time that Vanderbilt went consecutive games without a turnover since the 2004 season (Georgia, Eastern Kentucky)

IMPRESSIVE ON THIRD DOWN ... The Commodores' third down conversion rate impressed on offense and defense against the Rebels.

The 'Dore offense converted on 10-of-22 third downs against Ole Miss' highly regarded defense. It was the team's highest third-down conversion total in the Mason Era.

On defense, the 'Dores held Ole Miss to 3-of-13 conversions, helping to result in four Rebel punts. In 2014, Vanderbilt didn't force a Ole Miss punt.

McCrary continues to show progress ... Johnny McCrary (R-So., QB) continues to display growth and maturity as Vanderbilt's starting signal caller.

McCrary was 23 of 42 for 194 yards and a touchdown vs. the Rebels. He also didn't suffer an interception or sack by the Rebels.

In his last two appearances, McCrary has completed 51 of 75 passes (68 percent) for 562 yards, three TDs and zero INTs.

OPENSHAW'S PLACEKICKING ... Tommy Openshaw (R-So., PK/P) became the first Commodore kicker to make three field goals since Carey Spear accomplished the feat against Wake Forest on Nov. 30, 2013.

Openshaw hit from 28, 41 and 34 yards against the Rebels, pushing his season total of field goal conversions to nine.

He missed early in the fourth quarter from 32 yards. The last 'Dore kicker with four FGs in a game was John Markham (vs. Duke, 9/23/2000).

SHERFIELD, SCHEU, SCOTT TOP RECEIVING CORPS ... Trent Sherfield (So., WR), Steven Scheu (R-Sr., TE) and Caleb Scott (So., WR) led the receiving corps. Sherfield had seven catches, a team high, for 55 yards. Scheu returned to action with five receptions for a team-high 57 yards. Scott enjoyed a career game, hauling in five catches for 42 yards.

BLOCKED FIELD GOAL ... The blocked field goal by Nifae Lealao (So., DT) early in the third quarter was the first by a Commodore since Adam Butler blocked a Tennessee kick on Nov. 23, 2013.

COMMODORE NOTES

MCCRARY PASSING PERFORMANCE AMONG TEAM'S TOP TEN TOTALS

Johnny McCrary (R-So., QB) set a new Vanderbilt completion percentage mark in a stellar performance vs. Austin Peay on Sept. 19.

McCrary's 84.9 completion percentage against the Governors erased Hank Lesesne's 81.8% completion record set against Georgia in 1961.

McCrary was 28-of-33 for 368 yards and two touchdowns vs. Austin Peay. The effort included two single-game career highs in passing yards, and completions. McCrary's 368 passing yards ranks No. 7 all-time in the team record books, and is the most by a Commodore QB since Chris Nickson threw for 446 yards at Kentucky in 2006. McCrary also compiled a career high of 409 total yards accounted for in the effort.

Last week, McCrary was 23-of-42 for 194 yards and a TD at Ole Miss.

McCrary has connected with at least seven different receivers in every game this year.

McCrary also jumped into the team's all-time Top Ten sophomore passers during the Ole Miss game.

LUDWIG BRINGS HISTORY OF SUCCESS TO VANDERBILT OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR ROLE

Andy Ludwig joins Vanderbilt as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach with a proven history of creating productive offensive attacks and winning football games.

Ludwig has worked more than two decades as an offensive coordinator at the collegiate level, including at the FCS level every year since 2001. In that 14-year span, Ludwig has been involved with 10 teams that have won 8+ games, six teams that have won 9+ games and three teams with 10+ win seasons. His offenses have averaged 31 points since 2001.

Most recently, Ludwig directed the Wisconsin Badgers' 2013-14 offenses to record-book production in Madison.

While helping the Badgers to the program's fifth 11-win season in 2014 and a 20-7 overall record, Ludwig's offense was regarded among the most powerful in Big Ten and team history. In 2014, Wisconsin's 4,482 rushing yards established a new Big Ten record and the unit's 320.1 rushing yards per game as the conference's highest average since 1976.

Ludwig's Wisconsin offense also featured Melvin Gordon, who ended his career as one of the most productive runners in NCAA history. As a senior in 2014, Gordon finished second in the Heisman Trophy voting, won the Doak Walker Award and consensus All-America recognition, and was a finalist for the Maxwell and Walter Camp Player of the Year awards after rushing for 2,587 yards, the second highest single season total in FBS history, and 29 touchdowns. Gordon briefly held the FBS record for single-game rushing yards after amassing 408 yards in three quarters of action vs. Nebraska. Gordon also posted a remarkable average of 206.0 rushing yards in Big Ten Conference action, and ended his career with an amazing 251-yard performance against Auburn in the Outback Bowl.

Ludwig's production at Wisconsin came after similar successes at San Diego State (2011-12), California (2009-10), Utah (2005-08), Oregon (2002-04) and Fresno State 1998-2001).

FORMER NEBRASKA STRENGTH COORDINATOR LEADING 'DORES CONDITIONING EFFORT

James Dobson, long-time conditioning coordinator at the University of Nebraska, has been guiding the Commodores' strength program since January.

Dobson spent the last seven years guiding Nebraska's conditioning programs under former Cornhusker football head coach Bo Pelini. In Dobson's tenure, Nebraska joined Alabama and Oregon as the only three teams nationally to post at least nine wins every year.

In Dobson's last game with Nebraska, the Cornhuskers faced Southern California in the Holiday Bowl – the Huskers seventh straight postseason appearance.

Under Dobson, the Huskers were regarded among the nation's most outstanding fourth quarter teams. In 2014, the Huskers outscored opponents by a remarkable 119-62 margin. Nebraska also scored more fourth-quarter points than its foes in 2008 (155-52), 2009 (96-32), 2010 (64-53) and 2012 (101-82).

Dobson's conditioning program helped the 2014 Nebraska offense average 37.4 points, 248.2 rushing yards and 446.2 total yards. Dobson's efforts also produced a tenacious Nebraska squad. The Huskers were known for producing remarkable comeback victories in recent years, including four such wins during the 2012 season and a thrilling 37-34 overtime victory over Iowa in the 2014 regular season finale.

Prior to Nebraska, Dobson spent nine years with the University of Iowa program, helping the Hawkeyes to one of the most successful periods in school history.

Dobson also brought his top two Nebraska assistants – Tyler Clarke and Ben Schumacher – to Vanderbilt.

COMMODORE NOTES

EARL BENNETT NAMED AS TEAM'S 2015 SEC LEGEND

Earl Bennett, one of the most productive wide receivers in Southeastern Conference history during a three-year Vanderbilt career from 2005-07, will be celebrated as Vanderbilt's Legend as part of Southeastern Conference Championship activities this December in Atlanta.

A native of Birmingham, Ala., Bennett was a three-year All-SEC receiver. He set numerous conference receiving marks, including five touchdown catches in a game and 236 career receptions which was later bettered by Vanderbilt's Jordan Matthews.

Bennett established himself as a true freshman in 2005, combining with senior QB and SEC Offensive Player of the Year Jay Cutler for 79 receptions, 876 yards and nine TDs. He registered 82 catches as a sophomore and 75 as a senior, becoming the only player in SEC history to post three consecutive seasons of at least 75 receptions.

Bennett played five years with the Chicago Bears and recently returned to Vanderbilt to complete his undergraduate degree.

FATHERS OF FIVE COMMODORES ENJOYED CAREERS IN THE NFL

Five Vanderbilt student-athletes possess NFL bloodlines as the sons of former pro players.

- Johnny McCrary (R-So., QB) is the son of the late Greg McCrary, who played tight end for seven years with the Atlanta Falcons, Washington Redskins and San Diego Chargers.

- Caleb Scott (So., WR) is the son of former Vanderbilt All-America tight end Chuck Scott, who played one season with both the Los Angeles Rams and Dallas Cowboys.

- Torey Agee (R-Jr., DT) is the son of former fullback Tommie Agee, who enjoyed a seven-year career with the Seattle Seahawks, Kansas City Chiefs and Dallas Cowboys.

- Landon Stokes (R-So., OLB) is the son of Fred Stokes, a 10-year defensive end with the Los Angeles and St. Louis Rams, Washington Redskins and New Orleans Saints.

- Jaire George (Fr., RB) is the son of 1995 Heisman Trophy winner and Houston Oiler-Tennessee Titan running back Eddie George.

The 1955 team, shown celebrating a 34-0 shutout of No. 17 Kentucky, went on to register a 25-13 victory over No. 8 Auburn in the 1955 Gator Bowl.

VANDERBILT TEAMS OF 1915 AND 1955 SHARE HISTORIC ANNIVERSARIES

Two of the most accomplished teams in Vanderbilt gridiron history, the 1915 and 1955 squads, are enjoying signature anniversaries this year.

One hundred years ago, 1915 squad coached by Dan McGugin was a dominant power in the South, becoming just the second of four Commodore units to reach nine wins. The World War I era team went 9-1 overall, winning its first seven games by a combined 459-0 margin. The Commodores' only loss in 1915 came at Virginia.

Known as the "Point-A-Minute" Commodores, the 1915 unit was anchored by tackle Josh Cody, the only three-time All-America in team history, and a small back named Irby "Rabbit" Curry, who would die three years later when his plane was shot down over France.

The 1955 team, celebrating a 60th anniversary this year, will always be remembered by fans as the first Commodore squad to make a postseason appearance. The unit, led by running back Charley Horton, receiver Joe Stephenson and quarterback Don Orr among others, started the season 1-2 before going on a six-game win streak.

Finishing the regular season at 7-3, Commodores under Art Guepe accepted an invitation to play No. 8 Auburn in the Gator Bowl. Vanderbilt forced five fumbles and scored 12 unanswered points in the second half to claim a 25-13 victory.

Commodore starting running back Ralph Webb shown boating off the Gold Coast of Australia. He studied biodiversity Down Under along with a dozen other Vanderbilt students.

RALPH WEBB'S MAY 2015 SCHEDULE: STUDYING ABROAD IN AUSTRALIA

It was quite an interesting summer for Ralph Webb. Vanderbilt's leading RB spent much of May studying in Australia.

Webb and teammate Chris Martin (Sr., FB) joined a dozen other Vanderbilt students to study biodiversity along Australia's Gold Coast. Among the class activities over a two-week span included snorkeling in the Great Barrier Reef, kayaking through mangroves, night-hiking in dense rainforests, taking a helicopter ride along the Australian coast, and zip-lining in tropical rainforests on Fraser Island.

It also marked Webb's first trip off the United States mainland, made more interesting by the cancellation of an initial flight on the journey to Australia.

The trip left quite an impression on the sociology major, who described the Down Under class as an "life-saving opportunity."

Webb's Maymester in Australia also was featured in "Beyond the Field: Stories of The SEC" during SEC Media Days in late July.

LEGACY 'DORES: SCOTT, SHEFFIELD FOLLOWING DADS TO VANDERBILT

Caleb Scott (So., WR) and Donovan Sheffield (Fr., CB) are second-generation Commodores. Both are following their dad's collegiate path.

Scott is the son of former Commodore TE Chuck Scott (1981-84). Scott's dad was a 1983 All-America and two-time All-SEC pick who still ranks T-3rd all-time among Commodores with 20 TD catches, sixth in receiving yards (2,219), and seventh in receptions (145).

Sheffield is the son of DB Robert Sheffield (1993-95). Sheffield's dad was a three-year letterwinner at cornerback from 1993-95.

'DORES WEAR 'DEEP WATER' GRAYS VS. UGA; 4TH DESIGN FEATURES NEW HELMET LOOK

The Commodores worn their Deep Water gray uniforms – the team's fourth option for NIKE apparel – against Georgia on Sept. 12.

The "Deep Water" unveiling uniform came in August at Dore Jam, the team's annual fan event to kick off the season.

The gray alternate supplements Vanderbilt's three primary options of black, gold and white uniforms.

The uniform design, which features black lettering and gold-trimmed jersey numbers, also comes with a black chromed finish helmet that features textured water and a large anchor decal on the side matching the "Deep Water" theme.

The gray design also features "Anchor Down" in black lettering on the right pants.

Curing Kids Cancer founders Grainne and Clay Owen join Gibson Guitar officials and Vanderbilt Football Director of Player Development Al Smith to present a $25,000 check to the Monroe Carell Jr. Children's Hospital at Vanderbilt.

VANDERBILT BRINGING AWARENESS TO 'CURING KIDS CANCER' EFFORT

Vanderbilt coaches and players helped kick off the Curing Kids Cancer annual awareness campaign when the Commodores took the field against Austin Peay Sept. 19.

Vanderbilt's players wore Curing Kids Cancer helmet stickers with a gold ribbon while their coaches wear gold whistles and Curing Kids Cancer lanyards. Players and coaches will both wear Curing Kids Cancer glow-in-the-dark wristbands.

Vanderbilt was one of nine SEC teams participating in the campaign, joining Georgia, South Carolina, Mississippi State, Alabama, Ole Miss, Tennessee, Texas A&M and LSU.

In honor of the support from Vanderbilt, Curing Kids Cancer recently made a $25,000 donation to fund pediatric cancer research at Monroe Carell Jr. Children's Hospital Cancer Center at Vanderbilt.

The campaign supports National Childhood Cancer Awareness Month in September. Cancer is the leading cause of disease-related death for children killing more children each year than AIDS, Asthma, Cystic Fibrosis, Diabetes and Muscular Dystrophy combined. Gold is the official color for childhood cancer awareness.

"As Chairman of Curing Kids Cancer, I'm very happy to see so many of these college football coaches and players stepping up to raise awareness about childhood cancer," said ESPN GameDay commentator Lee Corso. "It's fantastic that so many teams are supporting this great cause. We all want to tackle kids' cancer and kick it into the end zone, making it a thing of the past."

"These teams and coaches are under a tremendous amount of pressure to perform at the highest levels," said the charity spokesman for the campaign 'Mr. College Football' and SEC Network commentator Tony Barnhart. Tony is also a member of the Curing Kids Cancer executive advisory board. "What a wonderful testament to their desire to help eradicate these horrible diseases that they would not only join the cause, but do so in ever-increasing numbers. It's another example of how the college football community can be such a great example and a formidable force for good."

In 2014 Curing Kids Cancer provided more than $1 million in funding for cutting-edge research projects that may eventually make traditional chemotherapy obsolete. Over the past ten years, the organization has raised more than $7 million for pediatric cancer research.

SEC NETWORK'S SATURDAY PRE-GAME SHOW 'SEC NATION' AIRED FROM THE COMMONS SEPT. 12

SEC Nation, the SEC Network's traveling pregame show, aired Sept. 12 from the Vanderbilt campus, in advance of the Commodores' game versus Georgia.

SEC Nation aired live from The Commons, home to Vanderbilt's entire first-year student population and site of the ESPN's ESPN College GameDay Show on Oct. 4, 2008.

SEC Nation, which airs every Saturday during the season from a campus site, is expected to host Joe Tessitore, analysts Tim Tebow, Greg McElroy and Marcus Spears, media personality Paul Finebaum and reporter Kaylee Hartung with the morning headlines, along with matchup previews and an inside look at each school's tailgating scene. Special guests also are featured on the show.

Last year, SEC Nation visited Vanderbilt for its Ole Miss game at LP Field, now known as Nissan Stadium.

Vanderbilt, Arkansas (Sept. 5) and LSU (Sept. 19) will be the show's first three stops of the 2015 season.

VANDERBILT, SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE JOIN IN EFFORT TO RAISE AWARENESS OF PROSTATE CANCER

The Vanderbilt football program, in conjunction with the Southeastern Conference, kicked off a campaign to highlight prostate cancer prevention and awareness on Sept. 3 vs. Western Kentucky.

Helmets worn by all Commodore student-athletes featured a commemorative sticker when Vanderbilt faced Western Kentucky in the opener.

Shirts worn by the entire Vanderbilt coaching staff also featured a similar prostate cancer awareness patch.

The Southeastern Conference launched the campaign to honor former commissioner Mike Slive, who coped with the disease during his administrative career. The league's 14 athletics directors voted unanimously in May to recognize Slive by dedicating games in his honor. The Prostate Cancer Awareness Games are scheduled on each of the 14 league campuses during the month of September.

Slive and his family were honored by Vanderbilt Athletics at halftime of the WKU game.

Prostate cancer is the second leading cause of cancer death among American men. Although the disease is serious, most men diagnosed with prostate cancer can successfully fight the disease with early detection. Men over the age of 50 are encouraged to talk with their physicians about their risk for the disease and their options for screening.

Vanderbilt-Ingram Cancer Center experts are also onboard for this important awareness and prevention campaign. VICC provides multidisciplinary care for men seeking information, screening options and leading-edge treatment for prostate cancer. Men who want to know more about their risks for prostate cancer or who are seeking care may schedule an appointment at VICC by calling toll free 1-877-936-8422.

Each Vanderbilt player helmet will feature this decal in effort to raise prostate cancer prevention awareness.

'SEC INSIDE' SHOW ON SEC NETWORK FEATURES COMMODORES IN OPENER

The Vanderbilt football program was featured in early September in the premiere of 'SEC Inside,' the SEC Network's new all-access presentation.

The in-depth look at Vanderbilt's preparations for the Western Kentucky opener aired Sept. 8, along with a similar feature on the Florida Gators.

A 10-person film crew spent two days on the Vanderbilt campus prior to the game gathering material for the show. The crew chronicled team and position meetings, two practices, team travel, and pregame activities including the team's Dore Alley walk through Vandynville and Star Walk entrance into Vanderbilt Stadium.

Mason also granted the crew pregame and postgame access to the team's locker room.

Show producers also had access to video captured by four crew shooters during the Vanderbilt-Western Kentucky game, ranging from Commodore coach and student-athlete reaction on the sidelines to crowd interaction.

VANDERBILT-GEORGIA GAME MARKED COMMODORES' 9TH CBS APPEARANCE

The Commodores are now 3-6 all-time on CBS after the team's 31-14 loss Sept. 12 to nationally ranked Georgia.

The Georgia game was marked Vanderbilt's first appearance on CBS since the Commodores defeated the Bulldogs 31-27 on Oct. 19, 2013.

Five of Vanderbilt's last six CBS encounters also have featured SEC opponents ranked in the Associated Press Top Ten.

Vanderbilt and CBS Sports hold historical ties in football. The first college football game ever aired coast-to-coast was CBS's broadcast of the 1955 Gator Bowl involved unranked Vanderbilt and No. 8 Auburn. It also marked the first bowl appearance for Vanderbilt, who upset the Tigers 25-13. The famed announcer Russ Hodges, who called Bobby Thomson's "Shot Heard 'Round the World" when the Giants defeated the Brooklyn Dodgers for the National League pennant one year earlier, had play-by-play duties at the Gator Bowl.

COMMODORE NOTES

WEBB REMAINS VANDERBILT'S LEADING RUSHER

Ralph Webb (R-So., RB) continues to be the workhorse out of Vanderbilt's offensive backfield.

One year after setting team rushing records for a freshman, Webb ranks as the team's top rusher through four early-season games. A sophomore from Gainesville (Fla.) H.S., Webb has 282 rushing yards and two rushing touchdowns on 83 carries. He had 90 yards, including a career-long rush of 43 yards, at Ole Miss on Sept. 26.

Webb is bringing more versatility to the Commodore attack as a sophomore. He ranks second on the team with 15 receptions and third with 117 receiving yards. Both are single-season career highs. Webb also has a pair of receiving touchdowns.

Webb surpassed 1,000 career rushing yards plateau against Georgia and currently has 1,189 yards and six TDs.

In 2014, Webb produced 907 rushing yards, surpassing the former 'Dore freshman record of 798 yards set by Kwane Doster in 2002. He established four freshman rushing marks for the Commodores: single-season rushing yards (907), single-season rush attempts (212), rushing yards in a game (166, vs. Old Dominion). Webb's 2014 rushing total ranks seventh on Vanderbilt's all-time Top Ten single-season charts. Webb has also been a workhorse in the Commodore backfield. His 212 rush attempts in 2014 ranks as the third highest single-season total by a Commodore, topped only by Jermaine Johnson (267, 1995) and Corey Harris (229, 1991).

WEATHERLY, AZUBIKE TOP AT APPLYING PRESSURE ON QBS

Vanderbilt's leading quarterback sack specialists are among the leading defensive returnees in 2015.

After moving to a new position before the 2014 season, Stephen Weatherly (R-Jr., OLB) has become arguably the unit's most productive player. In his career, Weatherly has contributed eight quarterback sacks and 18.5 tackles for loss.

Caleb Azubike (Sr., DE) was another defender facing the transition of playing a new role last year. After starting at outside linebacker, Azubike moved to defensive end, concluding the year with four sacks.

Adam Butler (R-Jr.) and Jay Woods (R-So.) have the versatility to play tackle or outside as an end. Woods had his first career sack vs. Georgia on Sept. 12.

Dartmouth went 20-10 overall, and 8-2 in 2014, during Hankton's tenure.

Mattioli, a former coach at LaGrange (Ga.) College, worked with Mason for two years as a defensive graduate assistant at Stanford.

NORMAN JORDAN RE-JOINS FISHER, LIGHT ON VANDERBILT RADIO NETWORK

Veteran play-by-play announcer Joe Fisher and sideline reporter Mitch Light are joined by former Commodore running back Norman Jordan this season on the Vanderbilt Radio Network.

Jordan, a 1983 Vanderbilt graduate who helped the Commodores to the 1982 Hall of Fame Bowl in Birmingham, Ala., rejoins the network as color analyst, replacing former Vanderbilt quarterback John Gromos. Jordan served as the network as its sideline reporter during the late 1990s to early 2000s, Fisher is working his 18th season as the team's play-by-play announcer. He handles similar duties for Vanderbilt men's basketball and baseball. Fisher also serves as Vanderbilt Athletics' Director of Broadcasting.

Prior to joining Vanderbilt, Fisher was a television sports anchor in the Nashville market from 1987-96, with stints at WSMV-4 and WKRN-2. He also worked in public relations.

Light, entering his third season providing sideline commentary, is a Vanderbilt graduate and editor of Athlon sports publications.

MORE ON THE COMMODORE RADIO NETWORK

Vanderbilt football games are carried on NewsRadio WLAC AM-1510, the Nashville station that owns one of the nation's strongest signals.

The Vanderbilt Radio Network also includes two other Nashville stations: WSNR AM-560 and WSNR 95.9-FM.

The Vanderbilt Radio Network will also provide a live broadcast. In past years, a slight delay in the broadcast impacted the ability to merge play-by-play announcer Joe Fisher's call to the TV broadcast.

COMMODORES' LATE RALLY FALLS SHORT IN OPENER VS. WKU

NASHVILLE – Perhaps it's only fitting that Vanderbilt's comeback hopes Thursday died with a failed two-point conversion attempt. All night long, the Commodores stumbled whenever they got near the end zone.

Joe Brown stopped Nathan Marcus a yard shy of the goal line on a two-point conversion attempt with 33 seconds left to preserve Western Kentucky's 14-12 victory over Vanderbilt on Thursday night. Earlier in the game, Vanderbilt had failed to score on three separate trips inside Western Kentucky's 10-yard line.

"I thought all the way to the end we were going to win this game," Vanderbilt coach

Derek Mason said. "I came into this game that way, and I felt that way all the way through. I'm confident about what this football team can accomplish."

Vanderbilt's comeback hopes instead fell a yard short.

The Commodores had cut the lead to 14-12 when Johnny McCrary threw a 2-yard touchdown pass to Trent Sherfield on 4th-and-goal. Brown made an open-field tackle after Marcus caught Johnny McCrary's pass on a potential game-tying conversion attempt.

MISTAKES DOOM DORES IN LOSS TO NO. 10 GEORGIA

NASHVILLE – Vanderbilt coach Derek Mason says his quarterback Johnny McCrary is trying hard to make plays. The Commodores need to help him figure out how to protect the ball better with chances to score.

McCrary threw for 295 yards and a touchdown Saturday. But the red-shirt sophomore also was intercepted three times, once in the end zone with the Commodores trying to rally late before losing 31-14 to No. 10 Georgia in the Southeastern Conference opener for both teams.

NASHVILLE

In two games, McCrary now has been intercepted five times with three of those in the end zone, and the Commodores now are 0-2 to start Mason's second season.

"If we can fix our red zone problems, it will be good for us," Mason said. "We're racking up yards, but not points."

Vanderbilt was trying to beat Georgia in back-to-back games in Nashville for the first time since the 1950s. The Commodores held the ball for nearly 33 minutes overall and rolled up 231 of their 400 yards in the fourth quarter.

COMMODORES ROLL TO FIRST WIN, SHERFIELD STARS VS. AUSTIN PEAY

NASHVILLE – Trent Sherfield may not have known he was on the brink of a record-setting performance Saturday, but his coach did.

Sherfield's 17-yard reception in the fourth quarter of Vanderbilt's 47-7 win over Austin Peay gave the sophomore 16 catches for 240 yards - the latter of which is the most by a Commodore in a single game.

"I knew," second-year Vanderbilt coach Derek Mason said. "I wanted him to have the record. I wanted him to have the catch. He's worked hard. You reward guys for the work they do. That's what I believe. I talked to (receivers coach) Cortez Hankton, I said, 'keep him in, let's play, let's keep doing what we're doing.' He got the catch, we got him out of the game."

By then, the game was long decided - due in large part to a 16-point outburst in the late moments of the second quarter, when Vanderbilt rallied from a 7-3 deficit to take a 19-7 advantage into the locker room at halftime.

COMMODORES DROP HARD-FOUGHT BATTLE AGAINST NO. 3 OLE MISS

OXFORD, Miss. – Vanderbilt stayed in the game against No. 3 Mississippi much longer than just about anyone expected.

But the Commodores could never find the big offensive play to pull off an upset over the Rebels.

Ole Miss beat Vanderbilt 27-16 on Saturday night, pushing past a feisty Commodores defense that slowed down the Rebels for the first time all season.

SEPT. 26, 2015

OXFORD, MISS.

"We are going to continue to get better," Vanderbilt coach Derek Mason said. "Teams are not going to want to see us in October and November, I can tell you that."

Vanderbilt (1-3, 0-2 Southeastern Conference) lost its third straight against the Rebels, who came into the game averaging 64 points per game. Johnny McCrory threw for 194 yards and Ralph Webb ran for 90.

Vanderbilt stayed within striking distance all night thanks to a defense that didn't give up big plays and generally played mistake-free football.
