PREVIEW

The Temple Owls take the field in 2014 under the direction of second-year head coach Matt Rhule. In his first season at the helm, Rhule promised two things - that the team would be exciting and that it would show improvement throughout the year.

Rhule held true to his word as the Owls were one of the most exciting teams in college football. More than half of the games were decided in the final minutes; five were decided by one score; the Owls scored 20-or-more points in all but three games and 30-or-more four times. Overall, the offense averaged nearly 400-yards per game, the second best mark in school history.

While the Owls got off to a rough start, the second half of the year showed much promise. In the 2013 season's last six games, the Owls held the lead or remained tied through 85% of their games (306 of 360 minutes). By contrast, the Owls trailed for over 78% of the time in the season's first six games. The defense made strides throughout the year playing its best in the season's final two contests - allowing just 235 total yards to Connecticut and 228 to Memphis.

Temple discovered its quarterback of the future as P.J. Walker started the season's last seven games and re-wrote the Temple freshman record book with 2,084 passing yards and 20 TDs. His insertion into the lineup coincided with the explosive second half of the season. By season's end, Athlon's named him "One of the Five to Watch" in all of college football for 2014.

Owls fans will keep an eye on Walker while continuing to watch the likes of junior All-Conference LB Tyler Matakevich, who has now posted back-to-back 100-tackle seasons (100 in 2012 and 137 in 2013). His 99 solo tackles in 2013 led the nation. Leaders like center Kyle Friend, RB Kenneth Harper, WR Jalen Fitzpatrick, LB Nate D. Smith and CB Anthony Robey will be joined by a young cast including 13 true freshmen who cut their teeth a year ago. A talented roster with just eight seniors, was bolstered by one of the top recruiting classes in the conference and one of the strongest in school history.

HEY TOUGH GUY

In 2013, the Temple Owls got back to a tradition of awarding single-digit jerseys to the toughest players on the team. This season, the coaches awarded four numbers and the players selected the balance.

By NCAA rule, offensive linemen are not permitted to wear single-digits and that prevented Kyle Friend and Dion Dawkins - each recognized by their peers as two of the toughest on the team - from changing their numbers.

The biggest surprise was that freshman Sean Chandler earned the respect of his peers as the players awarded him a single-digit jersey.

| 4 - Kenneth Harper | 8 - Tyler Matakevich |
| 5 - Jalen Fitzpatrick | 9 - Matt Ioannidis |

WHO'S #1?

When awarding the single-digit jerseys, there was a logjam on the ninth player. Head coach Matt Rhule decided that the #1 jersey would be given to the toughest player of the week. Therefore, the #1 will be worn by a different player from game to game.

YOU'VE GOT A FRIEND IN ME

Junior center Kyle Friend has taken his leadership to a new level this season. After earning captain status as a sophomore in 2012, and playing alongside three seniors, the Carlisle, PA, native has served as mentor to an inexperienced O-line.

Kyle and Eric Lofton became inseparable this Spring and the dividends paid off for Lofton who had seen limited action prior to his redshirt-junior season.

"I'm just trying to emulate what he does," said redshirt-junior Eric Lofton. "He's done it. I figure if I do what he does, we'll have another guy doing what Kyle Friend does. He does it the right way."

IT ALL STARTS ON THE LINE

Temple enters the 2014 season with a very inexperienced offensive line. While center Kyle Friend has started 21 games, the remaining players - starters and backups - have a combined 5 starts under their belt (not including Shahbaz Ahmed's 5 starts at defensive end a year ago).

Only six Division I teams enter the season with fewer than TU's 26 starts: Tennessee (6), Ohio State (20), Arkansas State (22), San Jose State (23), Army and Louisiana Tech (24).

WIZ KHALIF-A

A former NJ High School player of the year, redshirt-sophomore WR Khalif Herbin has become a weapon for the Temple Owls. Entering 2014, the Owls plan to use Herbin as a wide receiver, running back, kick and punt returner.

"He's been fantastic, he's been explosive, competitive and the other guys are matching his intensity level. Kalif is really fun to have on the field," said head coach Matt Rhule.

YOUNG CHAMP

Freshman CB Sean Chandler has had the nickname "Champ" since before he set foot on the Temple campus. Since his arrival, he's been nothing less than a knockout.

Not only has he risen up the depth chart to the starting RCB position, but he earned the respect of his peers when he was awarded the single-digit jersey given to the toughest players on the team.

Chandler, from Camden (NJ) High took advantage of his proximity to the Temple campus by watching his teammates during spring workouts before heading to class.

TY GOES TO THE RUNNER

Junior LB Matakevich has developed a reputation as a tackling machine. After becoming the first Temple freshman to break the 100 tackle barrier in 2012, he topped it the following year with 137 tackles. His 99 solo tackles led the nation, becoming the first Owl in 25 years to lead the nation in any category.

Not surprising, Matakevich finds himself among the nations elite players placing him on the Watch Lists for the Bednarik, Butkus, Nagurski, and Rotary Lombardi Awards, and CFPA LB Trophy.

Said head coach Matt Rhule, "He's a leader, he's tough, he's physical, he represents what we want to represent. Players around him respond to him. He has the physical tools, the mental tools and the intangibles - the instincts, the feel for the game - that are hard to find. I don't think there's any secret why he led the nation in tackles last year and right now he's much better than he was last year."

SWISS ARMY KNIFE

Redshirt junior WR John Christopher has become the jack of all trades for the Temple Owls. Besides his value as a wide receiver - one that has earned him the respect of his coaches and teammates who for a second season bestowed him with a single-digit jersey - he has become indispensable on special teams.

"He makes that diving catch at SMU that makes ESPN's top plays, and what I love about it is he ran down on the kickoff the following play," said Matt Rhule. "That's what John Christopher is. He was voted by his teammates into the single digits for the second year in a row. When your teammates do it, that's really something. He's physically tough, he's mentally tough, he's a great student, great teammate. He's everything that we're trying to find here. He's everything that we're trying to recruit."

Christopher serves as the long snapper on punts adding speed to the position which allows him to get downfield to make tackles. He also serves as a backup holder and punt returner.

TEMPLE MADE

When Adam DiMichele was promoted from graduate assistant to full-time wide receivers coach on February 6, 2014, he became the 19th Temple football player to become a coach at his alma mater - and the first in over 25 years.

DiMichele was a quarterback and two-time team MVP and captain for the Owls from 2006-08. He is ranked fourth in TU history with 5,024 passing yards and 40 TDs.

BIG MAN ON CAMPUS

Freshman DT Freddie Booth-Lloyd is listed at 315-lbs. and carries it well on his 6-0 frame. However, he does not look like a sprinter until you see him run.

Earlier this year (3/17/14), Deadspin posted a video that went viral titled a "300-pound Relay Racer Runs Like He was Shot Out of a Cannon" (<http://deadspin.com/300-pound-relay-racer-runs-like-he-was-shot-out-of-a-ca-1545532481>).

So popular was the video and so unique is Freddie that he was recognized while traveling this year.

BAM-BAM

Redshirt-sophomore WR Zack Bambarly was a walk on from Easton, PA, in 2012. Last season, he saw limited game action in two contests and was awarded the scout team player of the week prior to the win at Army.

What makes Bambarly unique is that he suffers from Type-2 diabetes. Throughout practice he needs to track his blood sugar levels and often has to take insulin.

POSITION BY POSITION

QUARTERBACKS

The quarterback position is led by offensive coordinator Marcus Satterfield, now in his second season. Last year, the Owls offense gained nearly 400 yards per game, the second best mark in school history and the most since 1979.

In 7 starts at QB in 2013, true freshman QB P.J. Walker threw for 2,084 yards and 20 TDs. Those marks set the record for Temple freshmen and challenged the all-time school marks. With a complete offseason of training and a full season ahead, many are expecting Walker to re-write the school passing records in just his sophomore season. He was already named by Athlon's as one of the Top 5 Players to Watch in 2014 and is on the Watch Lists for the Maxwell, Manning, Davey O'Brien and CFPB QB Awards.

WALKER

Connor Reilly began the 2013 season as the starter but injuries and inconsistency opened the door for Walker. On a national stage in a packed house, Reilly made his first collegiate start in the opener at Notre Dame and showed promise. The following week, however, he suffered a knee injury and never completely recovered before the reins were handed to Walker.

Frank Nutile (Ramsey, NJ/Don Bosco Prep) and Lenny Williams (McKees Rocks, PA/Sto-Rox) were part of the 2014 recruiting class. Nutile suffered a torn ACL this summer and will miss the season while recovering from surgery.

Tim DiGiorgio and Thomas Rumer have redshirted over the past couple of seasons and have not seen game action.

WIDE RECEIVERS

This position is under reconstruction from a year ago. Adam DiMichele, a graduate assistant last season, takes over after the departure of Terry Smith.

The 2014 unit will have to make up for the loss of energetic leader, Ryan Alderman (team captain), and statistical leader, Robby Anderson (44-791-9TDs), from a year ago.

Returning are Jalen Fitzpatrick (38-429-3TDs) and John Christopher (31-331-2TDs). Like Alderman, each is undersized but tough as nails. Both earned single-digit jersey numbers in 2013-14 - given to the Owls' toughest players - and each played through injuries to compete in every game last season.

FITZPATRICK

The Owls are looking for explosiveness from three players who redshirted a year ago. Romond Deloatch and Samuel Benjamin had their 2013 season cut short due to injury, knee and shoulder, respectively. Khalif Herbin, a former New Jersey player of the year, is a threat to score from anywhere on the field.

Nate Hairston saw action last year at WR. This spring he experimented at DB but was returned to offense. Brandon Shippen, a two-year contributor on defense, is making the switch to receiver.

CHRISTOPHER

Competition is emerging from a quartet of freshmen. Ventell Bryant (Tampa, FL/Jefferson), Matt Eaton (Pascagoula, MS/Pascagoula), and Brodrick Yancy (Bradenton, FL/Manatee) were all part of the 2014 recruiting class. Derrek Thomas was a mid-year transfer from Milford Academy. All four had their share of missed time this summer.

Zach Bambary made contributions a year ago on the scout team and in limited special teams action. Dean Mosley, a converted QB, adds depth.

Tom Bradway, Marshall Ellick, and Rob Heyen are walk-ons who enrolled at Temple in the winter of 2014. Bradway transferred from Lafayette (where he was a baseball player) and Ellick comes by way of Air Force Prep.

Sophomore Keith Kirkwood, a transfer from Hawaii will have to redshirt for the 2014 season. The Neptune, NJ, native elected to play closer to home.

TIGHT ENDS & FULLBACKS

Gone is last year's starter Chris Coyer. Coyer started 8 games with 20 catches for 277 yards and 2 TDs.

The only returner with experience is Wanemi Omuso. Omuso, who has played 18 games with 0 career catches, is primarily a blocking TE and is coming off knee surgery that derailed his 2013 season.

OMUSO

The Owls added former Florida recruit and Archbishop Ryan star Colin Thompson. The redshirt sophomore has been hampered by foot injuries

throughout his college career and has yet to take the field for the Owls.

Kip Patton (Norristown, PA) and Chris Myarick (Elkins Park, PA) are incoming freshmen.

There are two fullbacks on the roster - Marc Tyson and Eric Neefe. A former wrestler, Tyson converted from LB to FB last summer. Neefe, a Philadelphia native, walked on and redshirted in 2013.

RUNNING BACKS

The stable of running backs are tutored by Tyree Foreman, who in his eighth year at Temple has coached three all-conference players (Bernard Pierce, Montel Harris and Matt Brown).

Kenneth Harper, one of just eight seniors on the roster, returns. Last season he was the workhorse leading the team with 136 carries, 613 yards and 9 TDs on the ground (his 9 rushing TDs were 2nd in the conference). He added 26 catches for 241 yards and 2 TDs receiving. In 2014, he earned a spot on the Doak Walker Award Watch List.

HARPER

Jamie Gilmore played sparingly on offense but he averaged over 6.0-yards per touch. In his only extended action of the season, he rushed 16 times for 92 yards in the season finale win at Memphis.

Sophomore Jahad Thomas was moved to running back midway through camp and has impressed. He shared the backfield with P.J. Walker at Elizabeth HS.

Hassan Dixon made contributions a year ago on the scout team and in limited special teams action.

Jabo Lee spent the 2013 rehabbing from knee surgery and should be back to full strength by summer camp. The Dillon, SC, product was originally recruited by Tennessee.

Chris Cargill was a walk-on in 2013 and did not see game action last season. Roy Wesley walked on this spring.

OFFENSIVE LINE

Perhaps even more than the receiving corps, the O-line has been under major reconstruction. Chris Wiesehan was hired from Hawaii to replace Allen Mogridge and five players who combined for 41 starts are gone. Coach Weez brought two simple philosophies in reference to the 5 starting O-linemen: "There are five steaks on the table. The hungriest guys are gonna eat;" and "We can't be fingers. We have to become a fist."

LOFTON

The thumb would then be center Kyle Friend. He was team captain as a sophomore last season and has started 21 straight games. Friend was the only player to play every down of offense in 2013. He made the 2014 CBSportsline "Freaks" list due to his ability to bench press 225-pounds 40 times and run a 4.95 40 and finds himself on the Rimington Award Watch List.

Dion Dawkins was making strides as a true freshman in 2013. He made consecutive starts in games 4-5, however, he suffered a season ending foot injury vs. Louisville.

Two of the most improved players this spring were junior Shahbaz Ahmed and redshirt junior Eric Lofton. Ahmed made the switch from D-line to O-line this spring and Lofton played in 13 games in the past two seasons, mostly on special teams.

Brendan McGowan and Jacob Quinn each had opportunities to start in 2013 and hope that experience pays dividends in 2014.

Leon Johnson, Semaj Reed, and Adrian Sullivan each redshirted as freshmen last season and look to contribute this year. Peter Calderone is a redshirt-junior who has yet to see game action.

James McHale (Dunmore, PA/Dunmore), Jaelin Robinson (New Haven, CT/Wilbur Cross), and Aaron Ruff (Philadelphia, PA/Imhotep) were all part of the 2014 recruiting class. The Owls also added walkons Nick Apostolu (Springfield, PA/Springfield) and Gordon Thomas (Philadelphia, PA/Imhotep).

DEFENSIVE LINE

Incumbents Hershey Walton and Matt Ioannidis, who each started more than half of the 12 games, give the Owls toughness and experience on the interior of the line.

Aveer Robinson, a true freshman who played in 11 games a year ago, and Brian Carter, who redshirted in 2013, will challenge on the inside. Carter has missed most of camp after suffering an ankle injury.

Both Bryan Osei and Kiser Terry will move inside from defensive end after bulking up during the offseason.

The Owls entered spring ball with questions at defensive end and believe that they have found answers in Sharif Finch and Praise Martin-Oguike. Finch played LB as a true freshman last season and showed a knack for rushing the passer. Martin-Oguike rejoined the team after missing two seasons.

The position remains fluid, however, as junior Brandon Chudnoff, redshirt-sophomore Haason Reddick, senior Obi Onejeme, sophomore Avery Ellis (who redshirted a year ago after playing LB as a freshman), and redshirt freshman Julian Taylor continue to improve.

Joining the competition is a group of star recruits. Freddie Booth-Lloyd (Cocoa, FL/Cocoa), Michael Dogbe (Morris Plains, NJ/Parsippany Hills), Jacob Martin (Aurora, CO/Cherokee Trail), and Brenon Thrift (Monroeville, PA/Gateway) were all part of the 2014 recruiting class.

The Owls recently added JUCO transfer Julio Derosier. Derosier played last season at ASA in Brooklyn and hails from Homestead, FL.

IOANNIDIS WALTON
FINCH MARTIN-OGUIKE

LINEBACKERS

The linebacking corps is led by Mike Siravo who returned to Temple last season after six seasons at his alma mater, Boston College.

One of the most stable units on the team, the linebackers return juniors Tyler Matakovich and Nate D. Smith. Both are two-year starters and leaders of not just the unit but the team.

MATAKOVICH SMITH WILLIAMS

Matakovich, who already has a laundry list of honors as an Owl including first team all-conference, led the nation in solo tackles last year with 8.8 per game. He is on the Watch Lists for nearly every major award he is eligible for including Bednarik, Butkus, Nagurski, Rotary Lombardi, and CFPA LB.

Manning the middle is Nate D. Smith who started 7 games at MLB last season, including the season's last six. Over that 6 game stretch, Smith had 38 tackles, 6 TFL, 3 sacks, and a fumble recovery returned for a TD.

Jarred Alwan and Rob Dvoracek saw a good deal of action at linebacker in 2013, and each has been sidelined during 2014. Dvoracek battled through injuries to stay on the field but will be sidelined once again to start the season. Alwan played as a true freshman, starting opening day, and continues to grow from the experience. Stephaun Marshall has been working at MLB.

The competition at strong-side LB has been a battle throughout camp. Avery Williams has found a home at linebacker. The redshirt-sophomore played RB, LB and DB last season and was able to contribute on special teams. Shahid Lovett (Vineland, NJ/Vineland/Lackawanna CC), a JUCO transfer was moved from SS to LB midway through camp. Marshall is making the conversion from safety to linebacker similar to the one made by Michael Felton a year ago. Both are strong and athletic and will be core special teams players in addition to seeing action on defense.

The Owls added depth with Zayd Issah, a highly touted high school prospect from Central Dauphin who spent some time at Penn State. Jared Folks (Harrisburg, PA/Susquehanna Township) was part of the 2014 recruiting class.

Buddy Brown, a redshirt freshman, was one of the more highly touted New Jersey players a year ago, is battling a knee injury that sidelined him for most of 2013. Chris Smith, redshirted in 2013 and contributed to the scout team. Dan McLaughlin was a walk on who joined the team in the spring of 2014. The Owls also added Zach Mesday (Bordentown, NJ), Rob Ritrovato (West Chester, PA), Nick Sharga (Cherryville, PA) and Rob Varner (Royersford, PA). Sharga played last season at West Virginia-Wesleyan.

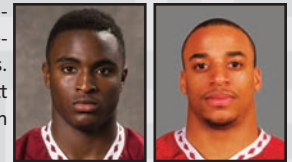

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Coaching the secondary will be defensive coordinator Phil Snow (safeties) and Fran Brown (cornerbacks).

The defensive backfield has been transformed from a year ago due to the play of two JUCO transfers and one freshman recruit.

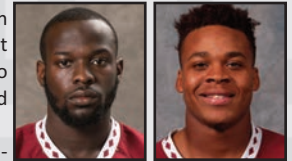

At the safety position, the Owls needed to replace FS Abdul Smith who started 12 games a year ago. The battle was expected to come from a trio of juniors.

Alex Wells (Baltimore, MD/Overlea/ASA College) and Shahid Lovett (Vineland, NJ/Vineland/Lackawanna CC) are mid-year JUCO transfers. Wells shined throughout the spring while Lovett was limited due to injury. Lovett has since been moved to LB.

CHANDLER ROBEBY

Boye Aromire is a hard-hitting safety who played corner as a true freshman for Virginia Tech in 2011. Nate L. Smith was a highly touted recruit in 2012 and has made strides this offseason to compete for playing time. Will Hayes saw limited action in 2013.

AROMIRE WELLS

They will all have to fight off 2014 recruits - Shamir Bearfield (Jersey City, NJ/St. Peter's Prep) and Jyquis Thomas (Plant City, FL/Plant City). Each has been impressive early in camp. The Owls have also added freshman Cam Hutchins (Matawan, NJ/Old Bridge).

Freshman Sean Chandler (Camden, NJ/Camden) has been the surprise of camp. He not only has moved up the depth chart to the starting CB spot but he impressed his teammates enough for them to vote him into a single-digit jersey reserved for the toughest players on the team.

Cornerback Anthony Robey has more experience than the rest of the DBs combined. His streak of 24 consecutive starts began in the Gildan New Mexico Bowl in 2011 and his 28 starts overall are more than twice as many than the other 19 defensive backs combined. Tavon Young, who split the starting job with Zamel Johnson at the other corner last season, also returns with experience. They will need to fight off a talented group of incoming freshmen and junior transfer Khiry Lucas (Cleveland, MS/East Side/Hinds CC).

Anthony Davis (Monroeville, PA/Gateway) and Cequan Jefferson (Richmond, VA/Henrico) are both incoming freshmen and were part of the 2014 recruiting class. Jefferson was a mid-year transfer from Fork Union Military Academy. Also in the mix are Brett Pierce, Ikeem Boyd, and Artrel Foster.

SPECIALISTS

For the second year in a row, the Owls will need to replace one of the top NCAA punters. Last season, Paul Layton, a University of Albany graduate with one year of eligibility remaining, transferred to Temple to fill the void left when Brandon McManus departed for the NFL.

Jim Cooper, a true freshman a year ago, was tasked to handle McManus' kicking duties and struggled through most of the season. With a year under his belt, Cooper was expected to return to the form that made him highly recruited coming out of high school.

However, both redshirt-junior Tyler Mayes and freshman Austin Jones (Orlando, FL) have been more consistent during the summer.

MAYES

The return games starts with Khalif Herbin. The dynamic receiver is always a threat with the ball in his hands. His competition at KOR is Jahad Thomas, who handled the chores a year ago, and Brandon Shippen. At punt return, Jalen Fitzpatrick and John Christopher provide depth.

Matt RHULE

Head Coach
Penn State '97

8th Season at Temple (2nd as Head Coach)

On December 17, 2012, Matt Rhule returned to North Broad Street to take the helm as head coach of the Temple Owls. Following six seasons as one of Al Golden's top assistants, he joined the New York Giants as the assistant offensive line coach in 2012. He is now in his second year as the 26th Owls head coach and eighth on the Temple campus.

Prior to the start of his first season in charge he offered that his squad would produce an exciting brand of football and they would improve as the season progressed. Rhule delivered on those promises as the 2013 Owls produced nearly 400 yards per game of offense (the second best total in school history). Despite an 0-6 start to the season, the troops never surrendered and the team never trailed at the start of the fourth quarter in the second half of the season. The mission in the 2014 offseason was to learn how to finish out games.

The State College, PA native, a former player at Penn State, has 16 years of collegiate coaching experience, including seven seasons at Temple, and six bowl games -- two with the Owls -- on his resume.

Rhule joined the Giants in the spring of 2012. He worked closely with Pat Flaherty, who has been the offensive line coach since 2004. They finished the 2012 campaign at 9-7, second in the NFC East, and averaged 355 yards of offense per game. Four New York players, including guard Chris Snee, were selected to the Pro Bowl.

During his previous tenure at Temple, Rhule's role changed several times. In spring 2012, he was promoted to co-offensive coordinator after serving as the assistant offensive coordinator and tight ends coach as well as the recruiting coordinator under Steve Addazio in 2011. Temple's 2012 recruiting class was ranked #1 in the Mid-American Conference and helped lay the foundation for the program's transition to the Big East Conference.

Under Al Golden, Rhule was promoted to offensive coordinator in the spring of 2008. He also coached the TU quarterbacks. He coached the defensive line in 2006 and served as the quarterbacks coach and recruiting coordinator during the 2006 and 2007 seasons. For three consecutive years, Temple's recruiting class was ranked #1 in the MAC [2006, 2007, 2008].

In 2011, the Owls went 9-4 and played in the fourth bowl game in school history, the Gildan New Mexico Bowl, where they crushed Wyoming, 37-15 -- Temple's first postseason victory since the 1979 Garden State Bowl. Rhule mentored two-time first-team All-MAC selection TE Evan Rodriguez. For the second time in Rhule's tenure, the Owls set the Temple single-season rushing yardage record and rushing touchdowns records behind the explosive efforts of All-MAC junior running backs Bernard Pierce and Matt Brown.

In 2010, Rhule guided the offense to the largest margin of victory in a MAC game. Helping the team to an 8-4 regular-season record, the Owls recorded back-to-back winning seasons for the first time since 1978-79, including their first win over a BCS team. The Owls recorded the largest margin of victory (42 points) in a MAC game against Buffalo. A school record six offensive players earned All-MAC honors, including repeat first-team honorees OL Colin Madison, OL Darius Morris, and RB Bernard Pierce as well as first-time honoree TE Evan Rodriguez.

In 2009, Rhule's offense helped TU win a single-season record nine consecutive games en route to a 9-4 overall record and first-place tie in the MAC East. Under Rhule's guidance, the Owls set the Temple single-season rushing yardage record. A school record five offensive players were named All-MAC, including three on the first team. All-American Bernard Pierce rushed his way into the Temple record book, re-writing all records for a rookie en route to 2009 MAC Freshman of the Year honors.

In 2008, Rhule took the reins as offensive coordinator, helping the Owls to their most wins in nearly two decades. The Owls out-scored their opponents for the season for the first time since 1990. Rhule coached All-MAC honorees C Alex Derenthal and school record holder WR Bruce Francis, while QB Adam DiMichele set the school record for passing touchdowns with six in the 55-52 win over Eastern Michigan. WR Bruce Francis set the school records for career receiving TDs (23) and consecutive games with a reception (38).

Rhule arrived in Owl Country after spending four seasons as an assistant coach at Western Carolina, including three as assistant head coach.

From 2002 to 2005, Rhule was an assistant at Western Carolina under head coach Kent Briggs, serving as assistant head coach during his last three seasons. In 2005, he was offensive line coach and run game coordinator after directing the linebackers his first three years. Rhule was special teams coordinator during his tenure in Cullowhee (NC). In 2005, the Catamounts led Division I-AA in kickoff returns, averaging 27.44 yards per return. Sophomore Mike Malone earned first team All-Southern Conference honors with a 31.29 yards per kickoff return average, ranking second nationally. Two offensive linemen and the team's punter captured second team all-league accolades.

In 2004, WCU ranked 12th nationally in total defense and 15th in pass defense, largely due to the production of Rhule's linebacker corps. The team's top five tacklers were linebackers in its eight man front scheme. In 2003, the Catamounts led the SoCon in rush defense for the first time in school history.

Rhule arrived at Western Carolina after serving as assistant defensive line coach at UCLA in 2001. He assisted in coaching five Bruins that earned All PAC-10 honors as the team posted a 7-4 record under head coach Bob Toledo.

From 1999 to 2000, Rhule served as an assistant coach at Mid-American Conference member Buffalo, directing the Bulls defensive line in 2000 and working as assistant defensive line coach in 1999. In 2000, the team's sack total increased from 12 to 27 utilizing a 3-4 alignment. Buffalo also earned its first two Division I-A victories that season.

Rhule began his coaching career as a volunteer assistant at Penn State in the spring of 1998 before working at Albright College in Reading, PA for the 1998 season. At Albright, he coached the linebackers in a 4-3 scheme and recruited western and central Pennsylvania.

Rhule played four seasons at linebacker with the Nittany Lions under Joe Paterno. A three-time Penn State Scholar-Athlete, he earned Academic All-Big Ten honors in 1997. He received his undergraduate degree in political science before earning his master's degree in educational psychology from Buffalo in 2003.

Born January 31, 1975, he spent his childhood in New York City before moving to State College, PA, as a teenager.

He is married to the former Julie Nibert. The couple has a son, Bryant (9), and a daughter, Vivienne (1).

THIS WEEK'S OPPONENT

GOOD OLE ROCKY TOP

Temple will play consecutive games in the state of Tennessee - albeit 271 days apart. The Owls traveled to Memphis for the season finale in 2013 on November 30 and play in Nashville to start the season on August 28.

WHO SAYS YOU CAN'T GO HOME?

Born in Greenback, TN, Satterfield played for Greenback High School under his father, Bill. From there, Satterfield went on to Chattanooga Community College and played at East Tennessee State University.

Satterfield also spent time as a graduate assistant at University of Tennessee - Knoxville from 2002-03. After his years in Knoxville, Satterfield left the Volunteer State for the University of Richmond and Western Carolina University.

In 2006, Satterfield returned to Tennessee to coach at the University of Tennessee -Martin until 2008, and then moved to the University of Tennessee -Chattanooga from 2009-2012.

TEMPLE VS. THE SEC:

Temple is 7-11-1 against teams from the Southeastern Conference. Temple has played 9 of the 14 teams in the conference; they have yet to meet with Arkansas, Auburn, Kentucky, Louisiana State, and Mississippi State.

Morrison became the head coach at Temple in 1940 and was in Philadelphia until 1948, where he compiled a 31-39-9 record.

FRIENDS OR FOES?

Temple DB Shamir Bearfield and Vanderbilt DB Tre Bell are both alumni of St. Peter's Prep in Jersey City, NJ. Bearfield, who is a freshman for the Owls, and Bell, now a redshirt freshman at Vandy, both played in the Chesapeake All-Star Game.

DB Khiry Lucas and Vanderbilt safety Jahmal McIntosh both hail from Cleveland, MS. Lucas played at East Side High School, while McIntosh played five minutes away at Cleveland High School. McIntosh went straight to the Commodores in 2011; before coming to Temple, Lucas played at Hinds County Community College in Pearl, MS, before joining the Owls this season.
