- ♦ Junior Jordan Todman is fifth in the country in rushing and first in the BIG EAST with 149.33 yards per game.
- ♦ UConn is 1-2 all-time vs. the SEC with last year's win over South Carolina in the Papajohns.com Bowl.
- ♦ Quarterback Cody Endres is scheduled to make his first start of the season and the ninth in the past three years.

THE COACHES

CONNECTICUT HEAD COACH RANDY EDSALL

UConn Randy Edsall became the all-time winningest coach in UConn football history on Sat., September 11 with his 67th career win at the school.

He tackled the challenge of bringing a former NCAA Division I-AA team up to par with the BIG EAST in an 11-year span head on, guiding the Huskies to the 2007 BIG EAST Championship, three bowl games in the past five years with two bowl wins.

He is in his 12th season at UConn and has led the Huskies to wins in 57 of the UConn's last 94 games dating back to the ninth game of the 2002 season. He has a 59-43 (.563) mark through the first 102 games of UConn's tenure at the FBS level. His overall career mark at UConn stands at 68-67.

Saturday's game against Vanderbilt will be the 136th of his UConn career --the most of any coach in UConn history. He topped the mark of 121 set by J.O. Christian (1934-49).

His 68 career coaching wins at UConn is the most of any coach in school history as he passed J.O. Christian who had 66.

Immediately prior to becoming UConn's head coach in 1998, Edsall served as defensive coordinator at Georgia Tech in 1998 under George O'Leary. Edsall began his coaching career at his alma mater, Syracuse, from 1980-1990, working under Frank Maloney and Dick MacPherson in a variety of capacities. Edsall moved on to Boston College where he coached defensive backs under Tom Coughlin from 1991-93 before following Coughlin to the NFL's Jacksonville Jaguars, staying on the First Coast through the 1997 season.

Edsall is a native of Glen Rock, Pa., and graduated from Susquehannock High School. He was inducted into the York Area Sports Hall of Fame.

VANDERBILT COACH ROBBIE CALDWELL

Robbie Caldwell is in his first season in charge of the Vanderbilt program and was named the head coach of the program on July 14 following the retirement of Bobby Johnson. Caldwell had been an assistant at Vanderbilt for the past nine seasons and was the associate head coach and offensive line coach.

Caldwell has coached in 11 postseason bowl games and has been part of six conference-winning squads. Prior to coming to Vanderbilt, Caldwell had assistant coaching stints at Furman, North Carolina State and North Carolina. He is a 1976 Furman graduate and was the team MVP and captain in 1975.

RADIO & TV COVERAGE

TELEVISION COVERAGE; SNY FOR FOURTH CONSECUTIVE WEEK

Saturday's game will be televised live as the BIG EAST Network Game of the Week and will be seen locally by SportsNet New York (SNY) and throughout the East and Midwest. The Vanderbilt game marks the fourth-straight week that UConn football has appeared on SNY.

Mike Gleason is on play-by-play while John Congemi is on color and Eamon McAnaney is on the sidelines. John Kettering is the producer.

The game will also be replayed on SNY in its entirety on Monday, Oct. 4 at 2:00 p.m. and Wednesday, Oct. 6 at 7:00 p.m. The game will also be rebroadcast in a condensed mode on the "Husky Power Hour" on Sunday, Oct. 4 at 7:00 a.m. and 10:00 a.m.

RADIO COVERAGE

For the 19th consecutive season, WTIC 1080-AM in Hartford serves as the flagship station for the UConn Radio Network. WTIC is the state's only 50,000 watt signal and can be heard in 23 states and parts of Canada.

UConn football on home dates gets going early with "Breakfast At The Rent" with Ray Dunaway and Scott Gray beginning at 6:00 a.m. for noon games.

The UConn Football Radio Network also includes WILI 1400-AM in Willimantic, WSUB 980-AM in New London, WLIS 1420-AM in Old Saybrook and WMRD-1150 AM in Middletown. UConn football games are also broadcast over the internet at WTIC.com.

UConn AND SNY

SNY, the television home of the New York Mets, Jets and the BIG EAST Conference, in conjunction with the University of Connecticut announced in August of 2010 a comprehensive, multi-year partnership that makes SNY "the official television home of the UConn Huskies football and men's basketball programs".

SNY will annually feature 300 hours of UConn programming - including 120 hours of Huskies game coverage. Additionally, SNY will significantly expand its UConn sports coverage throughout its sports news and entertainment programming. SNY will also create a UConn Huskies sports section on the network's website - www.SNY.tv.

As the TV home of UConn football, SNY is planning to air approximately five live games in 2010 - which will be wrapped by in-depth post-game shows - produced by SNY. In addition to the network's live game coverage, SNY will carry the following UConn Huskies football programming:

- Comprehensive UConn Huskies Football Season Preview Show
- Randy Edsall's Weekly Press Conference
- In-Depth Post-Game Shows (Following all SNY-televised UConn football games)
- UConn Huskies Season-in-Review/Bowl Preview Special
- UConn's "Football Signing Day" Press Conference
- Re-airs of every UConn Huskies Football Game (subject to availability)
- Huskies Power Hour: A 60-minute cut-down version of that week's game.
- SNY Spotlight with Head Coach Randy Edsall. SNY Spotlight is an exclusive signature series - created by SNY's Original Entertainment Division - that features in-depth interviews with New York's most influential leaders in sports and entertainment.

When the college basketball season tips off, SNY's all-access pass will feature at least 13 UConn men's basketball contests and a minimum of one women's basketball contest each season.

SERIES NOTESHUSKIES VS. VANDERBILT ALL-TIME

Saturday's game will be the second meeting between UConn and Vanderbilt as the Commodores lead the series by a 1-0 count.

The only other game in the series was on Oct. 26, 2002, as Vanderbilt posted a 28-24 win in Nashville. The game served as a catalyst for the Husky program as the Huskies won their final four games of the season, including a win at Iowa State. Following that Vanderbilt game, which put the Huskies at 2-6 for the season, UConn won 25 of its next 33 games, including the program's first bowl game -- the 2004 Motor City Bowl.

HUSKIES VS. SEC ALL-TIME

Connecticut has an overall record of 1-2 against teams from the Southeastern Conference. The Huskies lost at Kentucky by a 45-14 score in Randy Edsall's second game at UConn and then the Vanderbilt game in 2002. UConn's lone SEC win came on Jan. 2, 2009, with a 20-7 win over South Carolina in the Papajohns.com Bowl in Birmingham -- home of the SEC Conference office.

UConn has scheduled a home and home series with Tennessee as the Volunteers come to Rentschler Field on September 26, 2015 with a return trip to Knoxville on September 3, 2016.

UConn AND VANDERBILT CONNECTIONS

The UConn roster does not have any players from the state of Tennessee on it. Vanderbilt redshirt junior safety Elvio Tropeano is a native of Pomfret, Conn., and played at both Pomfret Academy and the Middlesex School...Vanderbilt assistant head coach Bruce Fowler was part of the Furman coaching staff that played UConn in 1991 and '93.

RENTSCHLER GAMEDAY

At UConn home games, FanFest takes place starting four hours before kickoff up until 30 minutes before the game. This year, it moves to between Gates A and B outside the stadium gates...The offerings change each game, but activities typically include inflatable games for children, live bands, promotional vehicles and UConn student-athletes from various teams signing autographs...The "Husky Walk" is a chance for fans to welcome the UConn teams as they get off the team buses and head to the stadium. That takes place at approximately two hours and 15 minutes before kickoff between Gates A and B...Starting this season at the end of home games, the UConn team will sing the "UConn Husky" fight song in front of the student section at Rentschler Field.

SQUAD NOTES

EDSALL HAS LONGEVITY AT UCONN

UConn head coach Randy Edsall is in his 12th season in charge of the Huskies and he is tied for the seventh-longest tenured FBS coach at his current job. In addition to Edsall, Iowa's Kirk Ferentz (a UConn graduate) and Oklahoma's Bob Stoops were all hired for their current jobs heading into the 1999 season. Joe Paterno is in his 45th season at Penn State to lead the way.

Edsall has now won 68 games at UConn, which is the school record. The previous record set by J.O. Christian with 66 (1934-49). Edsall holds the UConn school record for most games coached with 135 and broke the record of 121 held by Christian.

Edsall is the fourth coach to lead the Huskies into 100 career games, joining Christian (121), Tom Jackson (119 from 1983-93) and Robert Ingalls (106 from 1952-63).

"THE BIG HOUSE"

The Sept. 4 game UConn vs. Michigan game at Michigan Stadium had an announced crowd of 113,090 -- the largest crowd ever to watch a football game (college or professional) in the modern era. The former record was 112,118 at Michigan Stadium for the Michigan-Ohio State game on Nov. 24, 2003.

Previously, the largest crowd for a UConn game currently stands at 80,795 when the Huskies won at Notre Dame on November 21, 2009.

YOUNG ON DEFENSE

UConn's starting defensive lineup on Saturday vs. Buffalo reflected the youth that exists on that side of the ball for the Huskies. Connecticut started one senior, three juniors, six sophomores and one redshirt freshman on defense in the win over the Bulls.

MAKING THEIR DEBUT

CLOSE CALLS

UConn's five losses last season were by a combined 15 points and the Huskies have held fourth quarter leads in four of the five games.

* Sept. 12 vs. North Carolina: UConn led 10-0 after three quarters, but gave up 12 fourth quarter points for the loss. The Tar Heels scored the winning points on a safety when UConn was called for holding in the endzone.

* Oct. 10 vs. Pittsburgh: UConn led 21-3 late in the third quarter. Pittsburgh scored a TD with 12 seconds left in the third quarter and added a TD and field goal as time expired for the win.

* Oct. 24 vs. West Virginia: UConn led 17-14 at halftime and took a 24-21 lead with 3:50 to go in the fourth on an 88-yard TD play. West Virginia came right back and scored on a 56-yard running play with 2:10 to go for the win.

* Oct. 31 vs. Rutgers: UConn led 24-21 after taking their first lead of the game with 38 seconds to go. Rutgers scored on an 81-yard pass play for the 28-24 win.

* Nov. 7 vs. Cincinnati: This time a UConn comeback fell short. UConn trailed 30-10 at the half and 37-17 with 7:03 to go in the third. UConn then outscored Cincy 19-3, but failed on a two-point conversion with 5:03 to go that would have tied the game at 40-40. The teams traded TDs for the 47-45 final.

1,000 AND COUNTING

UConn's game against Rhode Island on Sept. 26, 2009 was the 1,000 game in program history dating back to the first team in 1896. UConn now has an overall program record of 475-500-38 in 1,013 games.

SEPTEMBER ROAD WINNING STREAK SNAPPED

With UConn's wins at Ohio and Baylor during September of 2009, the Huskies had won seven-straight road games during September prior to the loss at Michigan. UConn topped Temple and Louisville in 2008, Duke and Pittsburgh in 2007 and Indiana in 2006. UConn's last September road loss was a 28-13 loss at 16th-ranked Georgia Tech on Sept. 17, 2005.

HUSKIES MAKE NATIONAL POLLS

Connecticut was in the "Also Receiving Votes" category in both the preseason Associated Press and USA Today polls. In the AP voting, UConn received 32 points and was the sixth highest-team in the ARV category. In the USA Today coaches voting, UConn was eighth in ARV with 40 points.

UConn was in the ARV category in the first two weekly USA Today polls of the regular season.

Connecticut was selected No. 20 in the preseason by Athlon Yearbooks and No. 23 by SI.com.

UConn's last appearance in the top 25 with a spot in both national polls came on Sunday, Sept. 28, 2008 following its win at Louisville. UConn was ranked 23rd in the USA Today coaches' poll and 24th in the Associated Press poll. The Huskies fell out of both polls following a loss to North Carolina.

During the 2008 season, UConn was ranked in the AP top 25 one week and received votes in ten of the other 16 polls. In the USA Today poll, UConn was ARV in every week but two.

UConn earned its first national rankings in 2007 as it appeared in four AP polls: 16 on Oct. 28, 16 on Nov. 14, 25 on Nov. 11 and 20 on Nov. 18. It also appeared in three USA Today polls: 20 on Oct. 28, 16 on Nov. 4 and 21 on Nov. 18.

BIG EAST PRESEASON POLL

Connecticut was picked fourth in the BIG EAST preseason media poll. It was the highest selection for the Huskies since joining the league in 2004 and UConn also received its first-ever first place vote.

Pittsburgh was first followed by Cincinnati, West Virginia, UConn, Rutgers, USF, Syracuse and Louisville.

UConn VS. RANKED TEAMS

The November 7, 2009 game vs. Cincinnati marked the 16th time in school history that the Huskies faced a team ranked in the Associated Press poll at the time of the game. UConn's only win in those 16 games came on Oct. 27, 2007 with a 22-15 win over No. 11 South Florida. UConn first played a ranked team in the 2001 season opener at No. 9 Virginia Tech. UConn has played the country's top ranked team once when it travelled to Miami on Oct. 5, 2002.

FASTEST FROM DIVISION I-AA TO THE POLLS

UConn FOOTBALL A LEADER IN ACADEMICS

The UConn football program continues to be a leader in the BIG EAST Conference in terms of academic performance by its student-athletes.

UConn was the top team in the NCAA's Graduation Success Rate (GSR) of both October 2008 and '09 among league schools.

The UConn football program also had the highest NCAA GSR for African-American student-athletes among all state universities that participated in a bowl game in 2008.

In five of the past seven years, including 2007, '08 and '09, UConn was recognized by the American Football Coaches Association for its high graduation rate.

UConn's overall GSR in 2009 was the third-highest of the more than 50 state universities that participated in a bowl game.

In 2010, the NCAA's Academic Progress Rate (APR) for the UConn football team was an impressive 949 over a four-year cycle, with a one-year mark of 968 for the 2008-09 academic year.

HUSKIES VS. THE BIG EAST

UConn owns an all-time mark of 17-24 in BIG EAST Conference games since joining the league for football in 2004. The Huskies posted their best conference record with a 5-2 mark in 2007.

HUSKIES ON THE ROAD SINCE 2002

The Huskies have put together a 19-27 road record since 2002.

In non-conference road affairs over that same span, Connecticut has posted a mark of 16-11 and has won eight of its last 12 such games, including last year's wins over Ohio, Baylor and Notre Dame and this year's losses to Michigan and Temple.

HUSKIES VS. NON-CONFERENCE FOES SINCE 2002

Connecticut boasts a 39-18 record against non-conference opponents in the regular season since making the move to the FBS in 2002.

The Huskies have won 14 of their last 19 regular season non-league games overall with the only blemishes coming via a one-point loss at Virginia (17-16) in 2007, losses to North Carolina in 2008 and '09 and Michigan and Temple in '10.

UConn has posted the following records in non-conference games: 6-6 (2002), 9-3 (2003), 4-1 (2004), 3-1 (2005), 3-2 (2006), 4-1 (2007), 4-1 (2008), 4-1 (2009), 2-2 (2010).

Connecticut is also first in BIG EAST in total offense at 394.00 yards per game, which is 53rd nationally.

In addition, Jordan Todman is fifth in the country in rushing yards per game at 149.33 and leads the BIG EAST. He is also sixth in all-purpose running and tied for 21st in scoring. Mike Smith is 45th in the country and fifth in the BIG EAST in receiving yards per game at 77.50. Lawrence Wilson is tied for 28th and second in the league with 9.75 tackles per game while Taylor Mack is 40th in the country and third in the BIG EAST in punt returns. Dave Teggart is tied for 49th and second in the BIG EAST in scoring and is tied for 14th in field goals per game at 1.75, which is second in the BIG EAST.

HUSKIES IN THE NFL

UConn had 11 former players that were on NFL rosters in 2009 (a school high) and seven former Huskies are currently on NFL rosters.

The 2009 NFL Draft made history for the Huskies as four UConn players were selected in the first 63 selections. UConn is the only BIG EAST school to have four players picked that early since the league was reorganized in 2005. UConn had two players selected in the 2010 NFL Draft.

The veteran of the UConn group is in his sixth year in the league. Quarterback Dan Orlovsky is in his second season with the Houston Texans after spending his first four with the Detroit Lions.

Fullback Deon Anderson was in his fourth year with the Dallas Cowboys, but was released last week.

UConn currently has one third-year player on NFL rosters: defensive back Tyvon Branch of the Oakland Raiders – a fourth round pick.

UConn has three NFL second year players, including Donald Brown, a running back who was UConn's first All-American in the BCS era and the Huskies' first NFL First Round Draft Pick. He's with the Indianapolis Colts and played in last year's Super Bowl.

Other second year players are: Darius Butler with the New England Patriots and William Beatty with the New York Giants.

UConn rookies in the NFL are Marcus Easley, who was drafted by the Buffalo Bills in the fourth round of the 2010 draft, and Robert McClain, who was picked in the seventh by Carolina and has made the 53-man roster. Easley has already suffered a season-ending knee injury.

Larry Taylor was assigned to the practice squad of the New York Jets. Taylor is in his first year in the NFL after spending the previous two years in the CFL with the Montreal Alouettes. He was the 2009 CFL Special Teams Player of the Year as Montreal won the Grey Cup.

Among those cut were -- Cody Brown with the Arizona Cardinals, but he has been picked up by the New York Jets on the practice squad.

Also cut were Donald Thomas with the Miami Dolphins, Julius Williams of the Jacksonville Jaguars, who made the team last as a free agent; and Tyler Lorenzen of the New Orleans Saints, who was on the team's practice squad and earned a Super Bowl championship ring.

HUSKIES IN THE CFL

In addition, there are six former Huskies that are playing in the Canadian Football League this year -- O'Neill Wilson (British Columbia Lions) and Jordan Younger (Toronto Argonauts), are both seven-year players in the league.

Maurice Lloyd (Edmonton Eskimos) is in his fifth year in the CFL while Shawn Mayne (Montreal Alouettes) is in his fourth year while Martin Bedard (Montreal Alouettes) is in his second.

James Hargrave, who was one of the captains for the 2005 Huskies, is in his first year in the CFL with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats.

HUSKIES IN THE UFL

There are four former Huskies that are playing in the United Football League for the local Hartford Colonials franchise -- which also plays at Rentschler Field. The four are -- tailback Andre Dixon, offensive lineman Keith Gray, linebacker Danny Lansanah and defensive lineman Julius Williams.

SCOUT TEAM PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Each week head coach Randy Edsall issues an award for the Scout Team Players of the Week.

MICHIGAN -- Jonathan Jean-Louis (offense), Yawin Smallwood (defense), Brandon Steg (special teams).

TEXAS SOUTHERN -- Tebucky Jones (offense), Chris Lopes (defense), Mike Osiecki (special teams).

TEMPLE -- Gus Cruz (offense), Tim Willman (defense), Malik Generett (special teams).

BUFFALO -- Reuben Frank (offense), Brandon Steg (defense), Tevrin Brandon (special teams).

GAME BALLS

After each UConn victory, head coach Randy Edsall awards game balls for the team's top performer on offense, defense and special teams.

TEXAS SOUTHERN -- Jordan Todman (offense), Lawrence Wilson (defense), Anthony Sherman (special teams).

BUFFALO -- Robbie Frey (offense), Jerome Junior (defense), Anthony Sherman (special teams).

ACTIVE CAREER LEADERS:

Lawrence Wilson (5), Robbie Frey (5), Scott Lutrus (4), Anthony Sherman (4), Moe Petrus (2), Dave Teggart (2), Cody Endres (1), Jerome Junior (1), Jordan Todman (1), Trevardo Williams (1).

HUSKIES ON THE REBOUND

UConn is 25-14 in games following a loss since Oct. 26, 2002.

BALL CONTROL IS THE KEY

A telling sign of UConn's strong performance on both sides of the ball during its tenure as a FBS program has been its ability to both record and prevent long drives.

Since the start of the 2002 season, UConn's offense has strung together 73 scoring drives of at least 80 yards while the Husky defense has surrendered just 52 such marches -- including two by Michigan on Sept. 4 and one by Buffalo last week.

UConn also holds a 19-6 advantage over its opponents in the number of 90-yard and over drives since becoming a I-A program. Michigan had a 96-yarder on Sept. 4.

HUSKIES DOMINATING ON BOTH SIDES OF THE BALL

Over the past 93 games, UConn has outgained its opponent 61 times.

This stretch, like many UConn trends, dates back to a 28-24 loss at Vanderbilt on Oct. 26, 2002.

CONNECTICUT'S FOUR CAPTAINS

The UConn team selected four team captains for the 2010 season, Scott Lutrus and Anthony Sherman (both for the second-consecutive year) and Zach Hurd with Kendall Reyes. Jasper Howard, who passed away last season and would have been a senior in 2010, is an honorary captain.

OFFENSE NOTES

TODMAN LEADS THE RUSHING GAME

Junior Jordan Todman (North Dartmouth, Mass.) has led Connecticut in rushing in all three games this season that he has played in with 105 yards and a touchdown vs. Michigan, 151 yards and three TDs vs. Texas Southern and 192 yards on 26 carries vs. Temple. He missed the Buffalo game due to an injury suffered vs. the Owls.

The 192 yards vs. Temple was a career-high and his 59-yard rush for a third-quarter TD tied a career high.

He is ranked fifth in the country in rushing and first in the BIG EAST at 149.33 yards per game. He was named to the BIG EAST Weekly Honor Roll for his efforts against Texas Southern and Temple.

Todman moved into the top 10 of career rushing at UConn on vs. Temple. He now has 1,932 career yards, which is tenth, while Donald Brown is the leader with 3,800 from 2006-08. Tony Jordan is No. 9 with 1,983 from 1978-80 and Jeff Gallagher is No. 8 with 1,989 from 1985-88.

The Temple game was his eighth 100-yard game of his career with five last year. He has now rushed for 100 yards of more in six of his last seven regular season games.

His 22 career rushing TDs now places him in a tie for ninth place in school career history with Arthur Williams, who had 22 from 1925-27. Eighth place belongs to Vinny Clements with 23 from 1968-70, while the leader is Wilbur Gilliard with 34 from 1992-95.

Todman was the leading returning rusher for the Huskies as he rushed for 1,188 yards last year -- the sixth-highest mark in school history.

He also teamed with the graduated Andre Dixon (who rushed for 1,093 yards in '09) to mark the first time UConn had two 1,000 yard rushers in the same season. UConn was just one of two FBS schools to have multiple 1,000 yard rushers last year -- along with Nevada.

Todman was a Second Team All-BIG EAST performer in 2009 and became the 11th Husky to rush for 1,000 yards. His 235 carries in 2009 was the sixth-highest in school history and his 14 rushing TDs is tied for fifth.

He was named a preseason candidate for the Doak Walker Award, given to the top running back in the nation.

ENDRES BACK IN THE MIX

Redshirt junior Cody Endres took over quarterback duties for UConn at the end of the first half on Saturday vs. Buffalo and led the Huskies to scoring 31 second half points as UConn won 45-21 in a game that was tied 14-14 at the half.

He was seven of 11 in the air for 139 yards and two TDs vs. the Bulls.

Endres, who missed the first three games of the season due to a suspension, is scheduled to be the UConn starter on Saturday vs. Vanderbilt. Endres has played in 13 career games over the past three years and has started a total of eight games.

In 2008, Endres played in five games and started two. In his first collegiate start he led UConn to a win over BIG EAST Champion Cincinnati.

Last season, he started the year as the backup quarterback and then became the starting QB for six games when Zach Frazer went down with an injury. Endres' own 2009 season ended with a shoulder injury against Rutgers on Oct. 31. He threw for a career-high 378 yards vs. West Virginia on Oct. 24, 2009.

EXPERIENCE ON THE LINE

Todman and company are having a chance to run the offense behind a very experienced line this year. UConn returned players that made 49 of the 65 starts on the offensive line in 2009.

UConn's returning offensive linemen made a total of 75 starts over their careers entering the 2010 season.

Senior offensive guard Zach Hurd (Waterford, Conn.) and junior center Moe Petrus (St. Laurent, Que.) lead the way with 30 career starts, including the first four games of the 2010 season.

FREY GETS CAREER HIGH...AGAIN

Junior Robbie Frey (Lehigh, Pa.) rushed for a career-high 112 yards with a TD on Saturday vs. Buffalo as he assumed the No. 1 tailback role in the game in the second half. Frey had all of his carries and rushing yardage in the second half.

Frey was named to the BIG EAST Conference Weekly Honor Roll for his efforts.

He is now the second-leading rusher on the Husky team with 269 yards on 39 carries (6.9 avg.) with three TDs.

Frey's previous career high came two weeks ago when he had 101 yards with two TDs on 12 carries against Texas Southern on Sept 11. The 101 yards was his career high and he had a 63-yard rush for a touchdown, which was also a career-high.

He carried the ball four times for 12 yards against Michigan on Sept. 4 and had 10 carries for 44 yards against Temple.

He ended his season in 2009 on Oct. 31 as he suffered a knee injury against Rutgers. He also saw limited practice time during the spring.

Frey had a solid day returning kickoffs on October 24, 2009 vs. West Virginia as he had a career-high 136 yards on five returns. His high was 55 yards in the second quarter -- which set up a TD drive.

He had three returns for 163 yards vs. Rutgers before a shoulder injury ended his day and season. He had a 100-yard kickoff return for a touchdown vs. the Scarlet Knights -- the third in school history.

THE RECEIVERS LOOKING TO STAND UP

As experienced as UConn is in many areas of its team this year, it does lack that at the wide receiver position.

UConn lost its top two receivers from last year in Marcus Easley (48 rec., 893 yards, 8 TD) and Brad Kanuch (27 rec., 325 yards and a TD). Those two combined for 75 of UConn's 214 receptions (35 percent) and nine of UConn's 16 receiving TDs (56.3 percent).

UConn's leading returning receiver entering the year was redshirt junior Isiah Moore (Cambridge, Mass.), who had 24 receptions for 286 yards and a TD. Second is redshirt sophomore tight end Ryan Griffin (Londonderry, N.H.) with 23 for 272 yards.

Five different Huskies made three receptions each vs. Michigan in the opener while seven different UConn players had at least one reception on Sept. 11 vs. Texas Southern.

Junior Mike Smith (Houston, Texas) leads the Huskies in receiving this year with 16 for 310 yards and two TDs. Redshirt junior Kashif Moore (Burlington, N.J.) is second with 13 for 171 and a TD.

Moore and Smith are the only two Huskies to have multiple receptions in all four games this season, while Moore has had multiple receptions in six-straight games dating back to last year's wins over USF and South Carolina.

SHOEMATE JOINS THE HUSKIES

Tailback D.J. Shoemate (Corona, Calif.) enrolled at UConn in July after spending his first two years at the University of Southern California. Shoemate is eligible to play at UConn immediately and has two years of eligibility remaining.

He had three carries for 10 yards vs. Michigan -- his first action as a Husky -- on Sept. 4 and then had nine carries for 45 yards, including a 28-yarder, vs. Texas Southern. He had his first receptions as a Husky with a pair vs. Temple. He started the Buffalo game and had 16 carries for 60 yards and a TD.

Shoemate served as a backup fullback for the Trojans and played on special teams as a sophomore in 2009. He played in 12 games for USC. Shoemate began 2008 as a wide receiver, and then was moved mid-season to fullback. He also played on special teams and played in a total of nine games.

He enjoyed a tremendous career at Servite High School in Anaheim where he was teammates with current Husky quarterback Johnny McEntee.

FRAZER AT THE QB POSITION

Senior Zach Frazer started the first four games of the season for UConn at quarterback. Frazer has seen action in 16 games for UConn over the past two-plus seasons and has 13 career starts. Frazer transferred to Connecticut from Notre Dame and sat out the 2007 season in Storrs.

Frazer began the 2009 season as UConn's starting QB and led the Huskies to a win at Ohio. He was injured in the loss to North Carolina and did not play in the next five games.

He was called into action on Oct. 31 vs. Rutgers when Cody Endres went down and was 21 of 46 for 333 yards, one TD and three interceptions.

Frazer started the final five games of 2009 and led the Huskies to wins in the final four. Following the three interceptions vs. Rutgers, he threw just two more in the next five games.

He led his team to a double-OT win over his former school, Notre Dame, and was 12 of 25 for 141 yards against the Irish. He also enjoyed an outstanding game in the regular season final vs. USF as he was 20 of 30 for 225 yards and a pair of TDs.

Frazer made his collegiate debut in UConn's win over Louisville in 2007. He came into the game late in the first half after starting QB Tyler Lorenzen suffered a broken foot. He led UConn to a come-from-behind win over Louisville as he was eight of 15 for 90 yards and a TD -- despite not having played in a football game since his high school senior year of 2005 in Mechanicsburg, Pa.

DEFENSE NOTES

DEFENSE AMONG THE NATION'S BEST

UConn's defensive unit was amongst the best in the nation in 2007 and 2008. In 2008, the UConn scoring defense was ranked 22nd in the country and third in the BIG EAST at 19.77 points per game and was sixth in the nation and first in the BIG EAST in total defense, giving up just 278.00 yards per game. UConn was also first in the league in pass efficiency defense and ninth in the country.

This season, Connecticut is ranked 34rd in the country in pass defense at 181.50 yards per game.

SIO MOORE MAKES HIS FIRST CAREER START; THEN HONORED BY BIG EAST

UConn redshirt sophomore Sio Moore (Apex, N.C.) started the first game of his collegiate career on Saturday vs. Buffalo. He responded well as he led the team in tackles with 16 and also had an interception.

For his efforts, Moore was named the BIG EAST Conference Defensive Player of the Week.

Moore had played in the first three games as a backup in 2010 and saw action in four games last year with six tackles.

He played his freshman year of high school football at West Haven High School in Connecticut before moving to North Carolina.

WILSON SHOWS EXPERIENCE

UConn senior linebacker Lawrence Wilson (Birmingham, Ala.) was the leading tackler on the Husky team with 140 stops and had 11 tackles for a loss and five sacks. He was a first team All-BIG EAST pick last year.

Wilson has started 2010 right where he was in 2009 as he led the Huskies with 12 tackles vs. Michigan, seven against Texas Southern, six vs. Temple and 14 vs. Buffalo.

Wilson has started 41 games during his career and all 13 last year.

He is part of an experienced linebacker crew. Joining him is senior Greg Lloyd (Clermont, Fla.), who has 24 career starts (most of them on the defensive line) and senior Scott Lutrus (Brookfield, Conn.) with 35. Lloyd had 11 tackles vs. the Wolverines, six against Texas Southern and seven vs. Temple.

Lloyd was a second team All-BIG EAST pick and suffered a season-ending knee injury that also kept him out of spring practice. It was originally thought that Lloyd might have to miss this season as well, but he has recovered and will play.

Lutrus missed the Texas Southern, Temple and Buffalo games with an injury.

STEPHEN MAKES FIRST CAREER START

UConn redshirt freshman Shamar Stephen (Brooksville, N.Y.) started the first game of his collegiate career on Sept. 18 vs. Temple. He had played in a reserve role in the first two games of the year and recorded four tackles with one for a loss of four yards. On Saturday vs. Buffalo, he made three tackles, including a half a tackle for a loss.

He currently has 11 tackles on the year with one sack and is tied as the 11th-leading tackler on the team.

JOSEPH STARTS RIGHT AWAY IN 2009

UConn sophomore Jesse Joseph (Laval, Que.) started his first career game for the Huskies in last year's opener. He became the first Husky to start as a true freshman in a season-opener since punter Shane Hussar in 2004. Tailback Terry Caulley and fullback Deon Anderson both started the season-opener as true freshmen in 2002.

Joseph wound up starting all 13 games and had 38 tackles on the season.

Joseph became the first player to start the opening game as a true freshman on defense in the UConn FBS era -- since 2002.

SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

TEGGART ALREADY IN RECORD BOOK

Redshirt junior Dave Teggart (Northborough, Mass.) has connected on all 77 of his extra point attempts during his career -- including 47 last year. The 47-straight extra points ties a school record (based on a single-season) while its also the fourth-highest total in single-season history.

His 77 extra points is fifth in school history while Matt Nuzie had 124 from 2003-06 for the record.

Teggart ended the 2009 regular season in fine form as he booted a 42-yard field goal as time expired to give the Huskies a 29-27 win over USF.

In the opener against Michigan, he made a 32-yard field goal, but had a 40-yarder blocked. He hit on distances of 32 and 36 yards vs. Texas Southern. Teggart connected on three of five field goals vs. Temple with makes of 36, 27 and 47 yards. The 47-yarder tied a career-high. He was one of two vs. Buffalo on Saturday.

Teggart kicked a 29-yard field goal with 1:10 to go that tied the game vs. Notre Dame (Nov. 21, 2009) -- a contest the Huskies eventually won in overtime.

He had a total of 14 field goals in 2009 which is tied as the fourth-highest in school history.

Teggart made his collegiate debut on Oct. 25, 2008 as the Huskies' kicker and was an impressive four-for-four on field goals and also made four extra point attempts against Cincinnati.

Teggart is the first kicker in school history to successfully convert his first 11 field goal attempts.

BIG SHOES TO FILL AT PUNTING

UConn lost a highly experienced punter from the last three years in Desi Cullen. Cullen graduated as the leading punter in school history in terms of average at 41.1 yards per boot. Last season, he averaged 42.8 yards per punt (another school record) and had two of the top six punting seasons in school history.

Redshirt freshman Cole Wagner (York, Pa.) has had 19 punts for an average of 38.5 yards this year. His long is 66 yards and he has had seven within the 20-yard line.

STADIUM/ATTENDANCE NOTESRENTSCHLER FIELD

The Huskies moved into brand new Rentschler Field in East Hartford for the 2003 season with the stadium opening its doors on August 30 when UConn defeated Indiana, 34-10.

Conveniently located within miles of Interstates 91, 84 and 384, the home of the Huskies lies on 75 acres of land donated to the State of Connecticut from the historic Pratt & Whitney Airfield.

The stadium, like the former airfield, is named for that company's founder, Frederick Rentschler. The stadium boasts a capacity of 40,000 with 38 luxury suites in a massive press box tower which helps enclose the natural grass field.

A HOT TICKET

Swelling interest in the Husky football program as it gradually moved up into BIG EAST play can perhaps be best evidenced by the rise in attendance.

UConn sold 28,000 season tickets in 2008 and sold its entire allotment of student season tickets at 4,700. These figures are staggering sums considering that the entire 2001 season ticket base was around 4,000. In 2002, the number reached 11,300 in the final season of Memorial Stadium. The burgeoning season ticket base more than doubled to 24,000 for the inaugural season at Rentschler Field and rose to 28,000 a year later in 2004. UConn reached an all-time high of 32,000 season tickets in 2005.

SELLOUT STATS

The Huskies have sold out 26 of their first 47 dates at Rentschler Field, including a stretch of 12 in a row.

UConn has played to 96-pct. of capacity all-time there, drawing 1,808,057 fans, or an average of 38,507 per game.

RENTSCHLER FIELD PROVES FRIENDLY FOR HUSKIES

The Huskies went 7-0 at home in 2007 at Rentschler Field and 4-2 in 2005 after compiling a 6-1 home record in 2004.

UConn's 3-4 mark at home in 2006 was its only sub-.500 record at Rentschler Field.

The seven home wins in 2007 set a school record for a single season which was previously set in 2004. In the process, the Huskies joined the 1993 West Virginia Mountaineers as the only BIG EAST schools to ever post a perfect 7-0 home record.

UConn presently stands at 35-12 all-time at Rentschler Field including a 21-4 mark in non-conference games.

MICHIGAN, TENNESSEE AMONG THOSE COMING TO RENTSCHLER FIELD IN THE FUTURE

Following UConn's trip to Ann Arbor on Sept. 4, the Wolverines will come to Rentschler Field on Sept. 21, 2013 to take on the Huskies.

UConn will also play a home-and-home series with Tennessee beginning in 2015 with the Volunteers coming to Rentschler Field on Sept. 26 with a return trip to Knoxville on Sept. 3, 2016.

Other upcoming non-conference opponents coming to Rentschler Field include Vanderbilt (2010), Iowa State (2011), North Carolina State (2012) and Maryland (2013). By the conclusion of the 2010 season, UConn will have played host to non-conference opponents from the Atlantic Coast Conference, Big 10, Big XII and Southeastern Conference at Rentschler Field.

ANN ARBOR, Mich. - Sophomore quarterback Denard Robinson rushed for 199 yards and passed for 187 more as Michigan defeated Connecticut in the season-opening game for both teams.

The game was the rededication game of Michigan Stadium and played before a crowd of 113,909 - the largest crowd to ever see a professional or college football game in the modern era.

Robinson set a Michigan school record for most rushing yards by a quarterback. Robinson also was an effective passer as he was 19 of 22 in the air.

The Huskies were led in rushing by junior tailback Jordan Todman (North Dartmouth, Mass.) with 20 carries for 105 yards while starting quarterback Zach Frazer (Mechanicsburg, Pa.) was 18 of 37 in the air for 205 yards.

The Wolverines outgained the Huskies in total offense by a 474-332 count.

Michigan led 21-10 at the half and scored a field goal on its first possession of the second half in a drive that consumed 8:09. Brendan Gibbons connected on a 24-yard FG for the score.

The Huskies were deep in UM territory late in the third quarter when junior tailback D.J. Shoemate (Corona, Calif.) was hit and fumbled the ball on a fourth down play after he gained enough yards for the first down.

Michigan sealed the win with an 11-yard TD pass from Robinson to Vincent Smith with 13:07 to go that made it 30-10 after the Wolverines missed the extra point.

Michigan scored a touchdown on its first possession of the game as it went on a 14 play-96 yard drive. Smith scored on a 12-yard run for the score as Denard Robinson had 69 yards of rushing.

The following drive Connecticut moved the ball to the Michigan 23, but the Wolverines blocked a 40-yard field goal attempt.

Michigan scored after the blocked field goal on a seven-play, 77-yard drive as Robinson was impressive again. He had 52 yards of rushing on that drive - including a 32-yard run for the TD and a 14-0 Michigan lead. He also completed two passes for 21 yards.

Michigan made it 21-0 early in the second quarter as it went on an eight play-38 yard drive as it gained great field possession on a poor Connecticut punt. Michael Shaw ran for three yards for the TD.

The Huskies came back and scored the final 10 points of the half to make it 21-10 Wolverines at halftime. Connecticut got its first points of the season on a 32-yard field goal by junior David Teggart (Northborough, Mass.) that completed a 12 play-48 yard scoring drive.

UConn then forced Michigan to punt for the first time of the game and the Huskies proceeded to score a touchdown on a 10 play-77 yard drive. Junior Mike Smith (Houston, Texas) had two receptions on the drive for 68 yards - including a nifty 47-yarder where he maintained possession several times as the ball bobbled in his hands.

Todman scored the TD on a two-yard run on a fourth down play.

Attendance-37,359

EAST HARTFORD, Conn. -- Junior tailback Jordan Todman rushed for 151 yards and three touchdowns as the University of Connecticut won their 2010 home opener, 62-3 over Texas Southern before a crowd of 37,359 at Rentschler Field.

The Huskies leveled their record on the season at 1-1, while the Tigers drop to 0-2. The victory was the 67th win in head coach Randy Edsall's career at UConn making him the school all-time winningest coach. Edsall, in his 12th year at UConn, passed the mark of J.O. Christian, who had 66 from 1934-49.

Todman did all of his damage in the game's first 27 minutes as the Huskies thoroughly dominated the contest. He narrowly missed topping his career-best rushing total of 162 yards and his 21 career rushing touchdowns tie him for 10th all-time at Connecticut with Jeff Gallaher. Also topping the 100-yard rushing mark in the contest was redshirt junior tailback Robbie Frey, who registered a career-best 101-yards, including a 63-yard touchdown run in the third quarter. Frey finished with two touchdowns among his 12 carries, as the Huskies had teammates top the 100-yard rushing mark for the first time since the Notre Dame last season. The Huskies out-gained the Tigers on the ground, 307-18.

Connecticut's offense was not one-dimensional as redshirt senior quarterback Zach Frazer had a solid outing as well. He completed six of nine passes, for 104 yards and two touchdowns. The scoring passes went to junior wide receiver Michael Smith, who snagged his first career touchdown midway through the first quarter, and to redshirt junior Kashif Moore, who scored on a 24-yard pass late in the first period.

The Huskies led 24-0 at the end of the first 15 minutes and took a 45-0 lead into the locker room at intermission. The Connecticut defense was so dominant that the Tigers did not register a first down until the 6:54 mark of the second quarter.

Texas Southern was only able to generate eight first downs on the contest, and was out-gained 444-169 in the contest. Redshirt senior linebacker Lawrence Wilson led the Huskies with seven tackles, while redshirt sophomore linebacker Sio Moore had a huge game, registering six tackles, a sack and a total of two tackles for loss.

The Husky defense also forced four turnovers with interceptions by senior linebacker Greg Lloyd, freshman cornerback Taylor Mack and redshirt sophomore linebacker Jory Johnson. Junior defensive back Kijuan Dabney recovered a fumble.

Edsall was able to substitute freely and the scoring was capped by an 11-yard touchdown run by redshirt junior tailback Meme Wylie, the first score of his career.

PHILADELPHIA - Junior tailback Jordan Todman rushed for a career-high 195 yards and one touchdown and junior kicker David Teggart hit on three field goals as the University of Connecticut football team had a 30-16 loss against Temple. The game was played before a crowd of 18,702 at Lincoln Financial Field.

Todman's previous career high was 162 yards against Cincinnati last year. Teggart's third quarter field goal of 47 yards tied his career high.

The Huskies led 16-14 midway through the fourth quarter, but Temple's Adrian Robinson had a 43-yard fumble return off a five-yard Todman rush to make it 20-16 Owls with 8:28 to play.

Temple was able to score again late in the fourth quarter, taking a 27-16 lead with 5:54 left to play. Temple's Delano Green had a 47-yard punt return and Bernard Pierce scored on a two-yard rush.

Brandon McManus converted a 32-yard field goal with 26 seconds remaining in the game to give the Owl's the 30-16 lead and eventual final score.

UConn trailed 7-6 at halftime but Todman opened the third quarter scoring with a career-high 63-yard TD run to give the Huskies at 13-7 lead a minute into the second half.

The Owls took a 14-13 lead with 5:14 left in the third quarter on a one-yard rush by Pierce. That capped a nine play-60 yard drive as Pierce rushed nine times on the possession.

The Huskies regained the lead on the next possession as Teggart connected on the career-long 47-yarder. That drive included a 16-yard pass from junior quarterback Zach Frazer to junior Mike Smith.

The Huskies outgained Temple on total offense in the first half by a 245-135 count but UConn was also called for five penalties for 38 yards.

UConn scored first on its opening drive as junior kicker Teggart connected on a 36-yard field goal for the 3-0 lead. The 12 play-71 yard drive started on the Husky 10 and UConn moved the ball to a first and 10 on the Temple 22. The drive stalled from there as UConn picked up only three more yards to set up Teggart's score.

Temple scored the only touchdown of the first half as it covered 69 yards on three plays as quarterback Chester Stewart scored on a 27-yard TD run. Stewart also had a 33-yard pass to Joe Jones to open the drive.

Connecticut rounded out the first half scoring on a 26-yard field goal by Teggart to make it 7-6 Owls at the half. The drive was 80 yards on 10 plays as Frazer had two completions for 33 yards and Todman had 39 yards on three carries in the drive.

EAST HARTFORD, CONN. - Offensive reserves redshirt junior quarterback Cody Endres and redshirt junior running back Robbie Frey came off the bench to provide sparks and the Connecticut defense returned two interceptions for touchdowns as the Huskies defeated Buffalo, 45-21, Saturday afternoon before a crowd of 36,738 at Rentschler Field.

Endres, who had missed the first three games of the season due to a suspension, entered the contest at the end of the first half and connected with junior wide receiver Michael Smith on a 27-yard reception on his first pass which set up a 37-yard field goal by redshirt junior kicker Dave Teggart that broke a 14-14 halftime tie.

The Huskies would never look back. Endres finished with seven completions in 11 attempts for 139 yards and two touchdowns. His first score was on the Huskies' next possession when he hit Smith for a 56-yard scoring strike. He also connected with redshirt sophomore tight end Ryan Griffin on a six-yard score on the first play of the fourth quarter.

Frey, who saw increased playing time due to the injury suffered by starter Jordan Todman ran for a career-high 112 yards on 13 carries and one touchdown. Junior tailback D.J. Shoemate earned his first start at Connecticut and responded with 60 yards on 16 carries and his first Husky touchdown late in the first quarter.

The Connecticut defense had several standouts on a squad that allowed just 134 yards of total offense after intermission. Redshirt sophomore linebacker Sio Moore made his first career start and had a career-best 16 tackles and his first interception. Redshirt sophomore safety Jerome Junior returned a Jerry Davis pass 27 yards for the first score of the game just 1:26 into the contest. He added a second interception later in the game. The scoring was capped when redshirt sophomore cornerback Bliid Wreh-Wilson took a Davis pass back 46 yards with 4:01 to play.

Smith finished with a career-high 130 yards receiving, while redshirt senior linebacker Lawrence Wilson had 14 tackles.

Davis did throw for 227 yards and three touchdowns (all to Ed Young) but he threw three of the Bulls four interceptions. He connected with Young twice in the second quarter, the second of which knotted the score at 14 just 36 seconds before the half.
