Regular season rewind

The Vanderbilt women's swim team finished the regular season 5-7 in dual meets and picked up a fourth place finish at the Georgia Tech Invitational in late November. The five dual wins for the 'Dores marks a program best since it was brought back in 2007.

The 'Dores started the season facing two SEC opponents in Auburn and Texas A&M in Nashville, before hitting the road for two meets against Tulane and Libert. Vandy picked up its first win of the season in New Orleans over Tulane.

Vanderbilt closed out the first half of its season in Atlanta at the Georgia Tech Invitational. The 'Dores finished fourth of nine schools and were led in the pool by junior Elly Faulkner. Faulkner set three school records over the weekend at Georgia Tech, including the 100 Breast, 200 IM and 400 IM.

Following their winter training trip to Delray Beach, Fla., the Commodores started up again at home against West Florida and Liberty. The tri-meet was the final home meet of the season and celebrated the careers of Vandy's five seniors.

The 'Dores closed out the year on the road, picking up wins against Marshall, Cumberland and Arkansas-Little Rock.

In the final meet of the regular season the 'Dores faced SEC foe Arkansas along with Kansas.

Freshman focus

Vanderbilt's 10-person freshman class has done a lot this season to impress. Already through the regular season, the class has set four freshman records, with more sure to drop after the conclusion of SEC's.

Kayla Moran has already set freshman records in both the 50 free (23.60) and 100 fly (55.05). Carrie Bencic set the 500 free (4:57.45) freshman record, and Alex Blankenburg set the 400 IM (4:23.77) freshman record.

Record-breaking SEC's

At the 2013 SEC Championships the Commodores made history in a big way breaking 14 school records. Only four individual records were not broken - 500 free, 1000 free, 1650 free and the 200 breast. One of the most impressive performances at last season's SEC meet was by the 800 free relay team, who knocked off a 24-year old record by more than 12 seconds.

SEC Championship history

Despite finishing in 12th at last seasons SEC meet, the Commodores finished with 183 points; the most since the program was resurrected in 2007. Vanderbilt has made 16 SEC Championship appearances, with the highest finish of sixth coming in 1984.
