◆◆◆◆◆◆◆◆◆◆◆◆

▼ Ran for a career-high 216 yards (11th-most in school history) with a TD last time out vs. Tennessee
▼ Averaging 103.5 yards per game over Mizzou's four-game win streak
▼ Now has 2,089 career yards, the 13th-most in school history, just 256 yards from cracking Mizzou's all-time top 10
▼ Part of a Mizzou offense that has averaged 254.5 yards per game over the four-game win streak. For perspective, that mark would rank 12th nationally and third in the SEC, trailing only Alabama and Georgia.

BOWL ELIGIBILITY IN REACH AS MIZZOU HEADS TO VANDY

▼ The turnaround Missouri Tigers (5-5 overall, 2-4 in Southeastern Conference play) take to the road over the next two weeks to close out the 2017 regular season, and they'll look to continue their momentum Saturday in Nashville, Tenn., where they'll take on the Vanderbilt Commodores (4-6, 0-6). Kick time from Vanderbilt Stadium is set for 6:30 p.m. (central time), with the game being televised on the SEC Network.

▼ Mizzou is riding high after claiming its fourth-consecutive blowout victory, the latest a 50-17 win over Tennessee on the Tigers' Senior Night. Thanks to a punishing ground attack that ate up 433 yards (averaging 8.2 yards per rush), Mizzou out-gained Tennessee by a 659-to-258 margin in total offense, and broke open a 17-17 game by scoring the final 33 points on the night to pull away in the second half. Senior RB Ish Witter made his final appearance at Faurot Field a memorable one as he ran for a career-best 216 yards and one touchdown, while true freshman phenom Larry Rountree III added 155 yards and a score as well. Junior QB Drew Lock, the nation's leader in touchdown passes on the season with 35, added four scoring strikes through the air, while the Tiger defense continued its stellar play of late.

▼ Mizzou's defense forced four second-half turnovers, and allowed the Volunteers to drive more than 35 yards only three times in UT's 14 possessions. Tennessee's eight second-half drives resulted in four punts and four turnovers, and senior S Anthony Sherrils again was the primary culprit, as he intercepted a pass and forced and recovered a fumble, giving him two straight games with an interception and fumble recovery. He now has three such games in his career as Mizzou has had only four such games since 2000. Cornelius 'Pig' Brown was the only other Mizzou player to accomplish that feat, doing so back in 2007 against Illinois.

▼ Vanderbilt comes into Saturday's contest after a 44-21 home defeat to Kentucky that marked its sixth loss in seven games, after the Commodores had started the season 3-0. Against Kentucky, Vanderbilt struck first on a 37-yard touchdown run by RB Ralph Webb in the first quarter, but it was all Wildcats after that, as UK scored 34 unanswered points to take a commanding 34-7 lead. Vandy was victimized by four interceptions of QB Kyle Shurmur that helped the Wildcats maintain control of the game, while Kentucky out-gained them by a 427-to-368 margin in total offense.

▼ Mizzou continues to be one of the nation's top turnaround stories. After opening 1-5 this season, Mizzou can improbably reach bowl eligibility with a win Saturday. The Tigers would be just the 13th FBS team to ever accomplish that feat and just the sixth from a Power 5 conference. The only SEC team to start 1-5 and make a bowl game was the 1983 Ole Miss team that lost the Independence Bowl to finish 6-6 on the year.

▼ What may be even more remarkable is that since 2001, every SEC team to start 1-5 has failed to even eclipse three wins, making Coach Barry Odom's team one of the best turnarounds in SEC history. Mizzou is just the third SEC team ever to win four straight games after losing five straight (Tennessee in 1988 and South Carolina in 1992).

Junior QB Drew Lock

Senior WR J'Mon Moore

MOVING UP THE RECORD BOOKS

▼ QB Drew Lock is moving up the Mizzou passing record books, and doing so quickly with his performance over the last seven weeks. After throwing for four TDs last week, Lock now ranks third in Mizzou history in career passing yards (7,743) and second in passing TDs (62). He is also third in single season passing TDs (31).

▼ WR J'Mon Moore hauled in one TD grab last week and now ranks fourth in school history with 20 career TD grabs. Moore also ranks sixth in school history with 2,174 career yards.

LOCKED IN LATELY

▼ Junior QB Drew Lock has been on fire over his last seven games. He has 27 touchdowns and just five interceptions while passing for 2,113 yards on 142-of-224 (63.4 percent). He now has four games in his career with 400 or more yards, tying for the most in school history with Chase Daniel (four from 2005-08).

▼ Last week, Lock threw for four TD passes, marking his sixth consecutive game with at least three TD passes. That is tied for the longest streak by any FBS quarterback this season (Ohio State's J.T. Barrett did so in six as well) and it is the nation's longest active streak. It is the longest streak by any SEC QB since at least 2000.

▼ Lock now leads the nation with his 35 passing TDs this year, which are already the second-most in school history and eighth-most in SEC history (SEC record is 40). Lock is second nationally in yards per completion (15.94), fourth in passing efficiency (196.0), 10th in both total passing yards (3,012) and passing yards per game (301.2) and is sixth in points accounted for (216). He is first or second in virtually every passing category in the SEC. Lock has more TD passes through 10 games than any SEC QB in the last 15 seasons.

▼ Lock now ranks third in school history with 7,743 career passing yards. He sits 1,056 yards behind second-place Brad Smith who had 8,799 from 2002-05. Lock's 62 career TD passes rank second all-time on Mizzou's career TD passes list. To the right is a look:

Rank	Yds	Att	Comp	INT	Pct.	TD
1. Chase Daniel (2005-08)	12515	1609	1094	41	.680	101
2. Brad Smith (2002-05)	8799	1484	835	33	.563	56
3. Drew Lock (2015-17)	7,743	1015	555	28	.547	62

7. Phil Bradley (1977-80)	5352	798	437	29	.548	32

MOORE MOVING UP THE TD CHARTS

▼ Senior WR J'Mon Moore pulled in one TD grab last week vs. UT. That continued to move him up the school career TD reception chart. He enters Saturday at fourth place in school history, here's a look at the chart:

Rank	TDs
1. Chase Coffman (TE)	30
2. Danario Alexander	22
Jeremy Maclin	22
4. J'Mon Moore	20
5. Justin Gage	18
Martin Rucker	18
7. Dorial Green-Beckham	17
8. L'Damian Washington	15

▼ Moore now leads the SEC in TD grabs (ninth nationally) this year (nine) and is second in receiving yards (779) and yards per game (82.2).

▼ Moore has two 100-yard games this year and eight in his career. Only Justin Gage (11), Jeremy Maclin (10) and Danario Alexander (10) have more 100-yard receiving games in their Mizzou careers than Moore. Keep in mind that Maclin and Alexander were All-Americans and Gage was an All-Big 12 honoree as Moore has found himself in elite company.

MOORE ALSO MOVING UP YARD CHART

▼ Moore's 39 yards last week came on three catches and he now ranks sixth in program history with 2,174 career yards. Moore needs two yards this Saturday to move into fifth place all-time, which would pass Martin Rucker who had 2,175 from 2004-07. He needs just 141 yards to catch four-place Jeremy Maclin who had 2,315 from 2007-08.

SHOW ME

A DEFENSE THAT STARTS IN THE TRENCHES

▸ Mizzou has 38.0 tackles for loss over the last four games and now leads the SEC in tackles for loss, ranking 11th nationally.

▸ Mizzou had just 27.0 tackles for loss in its previous five games before posting 38.0 over its last four.

▸ Mizzou also has 16.0 sacks over its last four games after posting just 11 in the first six contests. Mizzou has three games of 5.0 sacks in that stretch, marking the first time since 2014 that Mizzou has had three separate games with at least 5.0 sacks.

▸ Mizzou is limiting its opponents to 110.3 yards per game on the ground over the four-game winning streak (would rank ninth nationally for perspective), its best four-game streak in rush defense since early 2015.

▸ Mizzou allowed 222.8 yards per game on the ground over the first six.

▸ Mizzou is allowing just 16.5 points per game over its four-game win streak after allowing 45.2 over its first six games (1-5).

MIZZOU LINE PLAY STOUT ON BOTH SIDES

▸ When Mizzou transitioned to the Southeastern Conference in 2012, most observers advised that the SEC is a line of scrimmage league, and the emphasis on play in the trenches is the difference between winning and losing.

▸ Fast forward to 2017 and Barry Odom's Tigers are arguably the strongest in the conference combined on both sides of the ball, by one set of measurements – tackles for loss. The Mizzou offensive line leads the nation with the fewest tackles for loss allowed – allowing just 2.70 per game. Mizzou had a string of 140 consecutive offensive plays without allowing a TFL snapped in the fourth quarter against Tennessee last weekend after putting the backups in late in the game. Two weeks ago, Mizzou held Florida without a TFL, the first time an SEC team had been held without one since Arkansas against vs. Auburn in 2016.

▸ On the flip side, the Tiger defensive line (#DLineZou) is doing a formidable job of creating havoc in opponent's backfields, as MU ranks 11th nationally in tackles for loss produced, with an average of 7.7 per game. Mizzou has 38.0 tackles for loss over its four-game win streak (9.5) for a combined loss of 134 yards. On the flip side, Mizzou has allowed just 8.0 for 39 yards.

▸ Heading into this weekend, Mizzou is one of only three teams that rank in the nation's top 15 in both fewest tackles for loss allowed on offense, and tackles for loss produced on defense. The combined ranking of 12 (1 + 11) is the lowest number of the other schools who are in the top 15 in both lists, so we'll go ahead and claim that as the national leader. The other teams on both charts include Ohio State (8th on offense; 8th on defense) and Troy (8th on offense; 14th on defense). Here's a look at the charts:

Team	TFL Allowed Rank	TFL Rank
MIZZOU	1st	11th
Fresno State	2nd	38th
Army	2nd	118th
BYU	4th	124th
Mississippi State	5th	73rd
Ohio State	6th	9th
Buffalo	6th	113th
Miami	9th	2nd
Colorado State	9th	91st
Vanderbilt	9th	41st
Alabama	11th	41st
Troy	11th	10th
West Virginia	13th	33rd
Navy	14th	102nd
New Mexico	15th	106th

▸ To put what Mizzou has done when it comes to not allowing while piling up TFLs, the Tigers have allowed just 119 TFL yards all season. On the flip side, Mizzou has forced 270 TFL yards, 151 more than it has allowed. That is more than an entire full-length football field difference in TFL yards allowed vs. TFL yards forced.

SLOWING THE GROUND GAME

▸ Mizzou has held its last three opponents to just 441 total yards rushing (110.3 per game). That is the fewest rushing yards allowed by a Mizzou defense in a four-game span since Sept. 15-Oct. 10, 2015, in games against UConn (77 yards), Kentucky (120), South Carolina (112) and Florida (129) when Mizzou allowed 438.

▸ To put Mizzou's four-game stretch into perspective, Mizzou had allowed 1,337 rushing yards through the first six games for an average of 222.8 per content. Mizzou has since cut the production basically in half. For perspective, Mizzou's 110.3 yards per game allowed clip over the last four games would rank ninth nationally.

▸ Mizzou's most impressive performance during the current four-game streak was when it came to stopping the run against the Gators. Mizzou limited Florida to just 93 yards on 31 attempts, the sixth-best single-game performance in school history in SEC play. Below is a look.

Opponent	Yds.	Att.	Avg.	Result
Vanderbilt (10/25/14)	44	27	1.6	W, 24-14
at Tennessee (11/22/14)	53	29	1.8	W, 29-21
Florida (10/19/13)	59	31	1.9	W, 36-17
S. Carolina (10/26/13)	75	35	2.1	L, 27-24 (OT)
Vanderbilt (10/16/12)	89	43	2.1	L, 19-15
Florida (11/4/17)	93	31	3.0	W, 41-16

▸ Keeping in mind sample size, it is important to note that Mizzou made several personnel changes to help spark the change. Senior DT A.J. Logan returned from suspension and at 6-2, 330 pounds, he has teamed with junior DT Terry Beckner, Jr, to give Mizzou a great front against the run. Senior S Anthony Sherrils returned from missing two games with concussion protocol and Kaleb Prewett moved from linebacker to safety as Brandon Lee began to play well at linebacker. Those personnel changes are a key reason why Mizzou has been so effective against the run during its four-game winning streak.

▸ It is no surprise that while limiting production on the ground, Mizzou has been holding its opponents off the scoreboard as well. Mizzou has allowed just 49 points over its three-game winning streak, which included a pair of late TDs against second- and third-string defenses. Mizzou is allowing just 16.35 points per game after allowing 45.2 points per game over the first six games.

SPEAKING OF TACKLES FOR LOSS

▸ After the last four weeks of play, Mizzou is now 11th nationally and leads the SEC, averaging 7.7 tackles for loss per game. What is particularly amazing about that is Mizzou has just one player - LB Terez Hall - in the national top 50 in tackles for loss. He is 47th with 11.0 through 10 games. Mizzou has 27 different players with a TFL, a national-best, tied with Ohio State and Penn State.

TERRY ON A TEAR

▸ Mizzou junior DT Terry Beckner, Jr., is on a tear during Mizzou's win streak, sparking Mizzou's incredible defensive turnaround. The nation's No. 1 overall recruit in 2015 had a career-high six tackles against Idaho while registering a pair of sacks, good for his first career multi-sack game.

▸ He followed that game with another dominant performance at UConn when he totaled four tackles, including 2.5 tackles for loss and a sack.

▸ Against Florida, Beckner was again disruptive, posting five tackles, with 2.0 TFLs and a sack. As Florida attempted to get back into the game with a last-minute drive inside Mizzou's 10-yard line, Beckner tallied a sack and two TFLs on three consecutive plays to force a field goal and hold the Gators at bay.

▸ Over his last five games, Beckner has 4.5 total sacks and 7.0 tackles for loss.

▸ Beckner's season was cut short in each of his first two campaigns in Black & Gold, tearing his ACL twice. He is finally fully healthy and is rounding into the player that he was touted as coming out of high school.

▸ A freshman All-American in 2015, Beckner is emerging as one of the stars along Mizzou's defensive line.

LOGAN RETURNS

▸ A key to Terry Beckner getting loose in the last four weeks is the return of senior DT A.J. Logan, who missed the first six games of 2017 due to an NCAA suspension.

▸ While he doesn't necessarily fill up the stat sheet, he is lauded by Mizzou's coaching staff as one of the most consistent and assignment-sound players on Mizzou's defense, which is a key reason he started 12 games a year ago.

▸ Logan tallied 15 tackles (five solo) with 2.0 tackles for loss and a QB hurry last season and is impressive in run defense. He teams with Beckner to give Mizzou a pair of experienced and explosive options on the interior of the defensive line.

▸ In his season debut vs. Idaho, he tallied one tackle and it came behind the Idaho line of scrimmage for a loss of two yards. He added a pair of tackles and a TFL vs. Florida.

▸ Since his return, Logan has routinely ate up blockers which allowed Mizzou to register 38.0 tackles for loss over the last four weeks of play, including a season-high 12.0 vs. Idaho. The Tigers had 9.0 against UConn, 8.0 vs. Florida and nine vs. Tennessee last time out. Mizzou had just 27.0 in its previous five games combined before Logan's return as he has sparked the play for Mizzou's defensive line.

▸ In that span, Mizzou also had 16.0 total sacks. Mizzou had just 11.0 sacks in the season's first six games without Logan.

SHOW ME

AN EXPLOSIVE GROUND GAME

▼ Mizzou's backfield duo of senior Ish Witter and Larry Rountree III are coming off of a great game at Tennessee. The duo helped the Tigers rush for 433 yards, the most for a Mizzou team since rushing for 469 against Texas Tech in 2003.

▼ Witter ran for 216 yards, the 11th-best mark in school history, and a score.

▼ Rountree posted 155, the most by a Mizzou true freshman since Damarea Crockett hung 225 on Tennessee a year ago.

▼ Mizzou had two running backs over 100 yards (Witter, 216; Rountree, 155) for the first time since the Tigers played Tennessee last season (Crockett, 225; Witter, 163).

▼ During Mizzou's four-game winning streak, Rountree has had 395 rushing yards on 51 carries, averaging 7.7 yards a carry, while finding the end zone four times.

▼ Meanwhile, Witter has rushed for 415 yards on 60 carries, averaging 6.91 yards a carry, while scoring four touchdowns.

A WIN SATURDAY WOULD

▼ Give Mizzou a five-game winning streak, its longest since winning six straight en-route to an SEC East title in 2014. It would continue the longest winning streak for head coach Barry Odom.

▼ Give Mizzou three straight SEC wins for the first time under Odom.

▼ Be Mizzou's first SEC road win under Coach Odom.

▼ Move Mizzou to bowl eligible for the first time since 2014 and 32nd time in school history. It would be the first time Mizzou earns bowl eligibility under Coach Odom.

▼ Make Mizzou just the 14th team in FBS history to start 1-5 and earn bowl eligibility. Mizzou would be just the sixth Power 5 team to accomplish the feat and second SEC team (1983 Ole Miss). Of the 13 teams to earn bowl eligibility after starting 1-5, Appalachian State in 2014 was the only team not invited to a bowl, meaning only 13 have gone from 1-5 to bowling.

▼ Would make Mizzou the first team since 1976 to have both a five-game losing streak and five-game winning streak in the same season.

A LOOK INSIDE THE TURNAROUND

▼ After starting 1-5 and now sitting a 5-5, just one win away from bowl eligibility, Mizzou Football's 2017 team is arguably one of the greatest turnaround stories in college football history. Looking at the numbers, it is easy to see why Mizzou has been able to get this thing going:

Stat	First 6 Avg.	Last 4 Avg.	Improvement
Rushing Offense	156.3	254.5	62.8%
Rushing Defense	222.8	110.3	50.5%

Total Offense	443.5	588.8	32.8%
Total Defense	498.0	316.5	36.4%
Tackles for Loss	6.5	9.5	46%
Sacks	1.8	4.0	122%
Turnover Margin	-10	+4	NA

▼ The offense has stolen a lot of headlines over the four-game winning streak, with good reason. Mizzou has scored 45 or more points in four-straight games for the first time in school history after hanging 50 on the Vols last week. The Tigers also averaging nearly 600 yards of total offense.

▼ But as good as the offense has been, the defense has arguably been the key to the turnaround. The Tigers were allowing almost 500 yards and 42 points per game over the first six games, decreasing that to 317 yards per game and just 16.5 points over the last four. Mizzou has 38.0 TFLs, 16.0 sacks and is +4 in the TO margin in that span.

LOCKED IN ON A NEW RECORD?

▼ Another Drew Lock stat worth watching as Mizzou prepares for Vanderbilt is the single-season passing TD mark. Lock has 35 through the first 10 games (3.5 per game). Should he keep that pace, he would pass Mizzou legend Chase Daniel for the most-ever in a regular season at Mizzou. He currently ranks second with his 35. Below is a look:

Player/Rank	Year	TDs
1. Chase Daniel	2008	39
2. Drew Lock	2017	35
3. Chase Daniel	2007	33
Chase Daniel	2006	28
5. Maty Mauk	2014	25

▼ Lock is also just five TD passes away from tying the SEC single season record of 40, set by Kentucky's Andre Woodson in 2007. Below is a look:

Player/Rank	Year	TDs
1. Andre Woodson (UK)	2007	40
2. Danny Wuerffel (UF)	1996	39
3. Johnny Manziel (A&M)	2013	37
Tim Couch (UK)	1997	37
5. Aaron Murray (UGA)	2012	36
Tim Couch (UK)	1998	36
Peyton Manning (UT)	1997	36
8. Drew Lock (MIZ)	2017	35

LOCK WITH IMPRESSIVE STREAK

▼ Mizzou junior QB Drew Lock has thrown at least three TDs in each of the last six games. He tied Ohio State's J.T Barrett as they are the only two quarterbacks in the country to accomplish that feat this season. Barrett's streak ended last week, throwing just two vs. Michigan State as Lock now owns the nation's longest streak. Below is Lock's game-by-game stats during the streak.

Rank	Att	Comp	%	Yds	TD	Int
Kentucky	42	22	52.4	355	3	0
Georgia	35	15	60.0	253	4	1
Idaho	33	23	69.7	467	6	1
UConn	37	31	83.8	377	5	0
Florida	20	15	75.0	228	3	1
Tennessee	28	13	46.4	217	4	1

▼ Looking deeper, we looked all the way back to 2000 since CFBReference.com began archiving single game passing marks and could not find another SEC QB to throw for at least three TDs in six consecutive games. Florida's Danny Wuerffel (1996), Kentucky's Tim Couch (1997 & 1998) and Tennessee's Peyton Manning (1997) would be the next worth checking.

IMPRESSIVE OFFENSIVE STAT

▼ On the year, Mizzou is averaging 7.35 yards per play, an incredible number that is impressive without context. Good thing we have context and perspective to make it that much more impressive.

▼ Since 2008, only one offense ranks better and that was 2010 Auburn when Cam Newton guided the Tigers to 7.37 yards per play. Mizzou also checks in better than Texas A&M's offense in 2013 when it averaged 7.34.

▼ What makes both of those numbers impressive is that those offenses were led by Heisman Trophy winners (Newton in 2010 and Manziel, who won the year before in 2012).

A 1-2-3 BACKFIELD PUNCH?

▼ When Mizzou lost sophomore RB Damarea Crockett due to an injured shoulder in the Georgia game (he's out for an indefinite time), the Tiger ground attack was supposed to go on the shelf. But senior Ish Witter and true freshman Larry Rountree III have provided just the opposite effect – Mizzou's ground game has actually become even stronger. Here's a look at Mizzou's rushing averages (as well as Witter/Rountree breakdown) in the first six games versus the last four:

Team

Category	First 6	Last 4
Rush Yds/Gm	156.3	254.5
Rush Yds/Att	4.9	6.2
Rush TDs	4	9
Time/Poss	21:43	28:05

Ish Witter

Category	First 6	Last 4
Rush Yds/Gm	51.2	103.2
Rush Yds/Att	5.5	6.9
Rush TDs	0	4

Larry Routree III

Category	1st 6	Last 4
Rush Yds/Gm	21.5	98.8
Rush Yds/Att	4.2	7.7
Rush TDs	1	4

▼ Mizzou is coming off of its best rushing performance since 2003 last Saturday against the Volunteers. Mizzou ran for 433 yards, the most since hanging 469 against Texas Tech in 2003, a game that became known in Mizzou lore as 'The Brad Smith Game' when QB Brad Smith ran for 291 yards and five TDs in a 62-31 Mizzou win.

▼ The ground game last week paved the way for Mizzou's largest SEC win by margin of victory (33 points) since joining the SEC.

▼ Witter is now over 2,000 yards in his career as well.

A TIGHT END PASSING GAME

▼ Mizzou Football's offense, under the direction of second-year OC Josh Heupel, has seen a TE renaissance over the last two years.
▼ Mizzou's TE group of senior Jason Reese, junior Kendall Blanton and freshman Albert Okwuegbunam have combined for 25 catches, 441 yards and 11 total scores.
▼ The 11 TDs caught by the TE group are the most by a Mizzou TE group since 2007 when Chase Coffman and Martin Rucker combined for 15.
▼ Okwuegbunam became the third TE in school history to catch three TDs in a single game earlier this season vs. Idaho. He leads the group with seven scores this season, after adding two more vs. UConn last week.
▼ Albert O is third nationally among TEs in TD grabs.

INCREDIBLE TURNAROUND?

▼ While Mizzou Football is still hopeful for more wins in its final two games, it is important to note that Mizzou's turnaround from a 1-5 start is among the best by an SEC team this century. Since 2000, no team in SEC history that has started 1-5 has finished with more than three wins, meaning Mizzou is the first SEC team this century to start 1-5 and get to four wins.

▼ Looking deeper into that stat, hopefully not jinxing anything, but there have only been 12 teams in the history of college football to start 1-5 and make it to a bowl game. Mizzou obviously still has work to do in regards to a bowl, needing to win one of its last two games.

▼ The only SEC team to ever start 1-5 and qualify for a bowl was the 1983 Ole Miss team that wound up in the Independence Bowl, but lost to Air Force, 9-3. Below is a look:

School	Start	Final	Bowl
Utah State (1993)	1-5	7-5	Las Vegas Bowl (W, 42-33)
Miami OH (2016)	0-6	6-7	St. Petersburg Bowl (L, 17-16)
Texas Tech (2012)	1-5	6-7	Sun Bowl (L, 41-10)
Rutgers (2008)	1-5	8-5	PapaJohns.com Bowl (W, 29-23)

OFFENSE HITTING ON ALL CYLINDERS

▼ The Mizzou offense has enjoyed itself the last six weeks, following its bye week after the Auburn game. Since then, Mizzou has gone 4-2 overall, but is mere seconds away from being 5-1 in that stretch, counting a six-point loss at Kentucky that wasn't decided until time ran out on the Tigers as they were mounting a potential game-winning drive. In those six games, the offense has acquitted itself nicely, as it has produced more yards and points against every defense it's faced than what those teams are allowing on average for the season. The chart below indicates what each opponent is currently giving up per game on the season, with Mizzou's offensive output in that game listed for comparison purposes. The numbers show that Mizzou has produced the biggest season output in many categories against the last five foes, including against Georgia, which currently boasts the nation's fifth-ranked defense.

TIGHT END PASSING GAME

▼ Mizzou's whiplash offensive attack under Offensive Coordinator Josh Heupel uses the entire field horizontally and vertically, and in his short time at MU, the tight ends have benefited greatly. Under the direction of TE Coach Joe Jon Finley, Mizzou boasts a group of big-bodied, strong blocking, and athletic pass catchers who create sizable mismatches all over the field.

▼ If the first 10 weeks of play are any indication, Mizzou's tight ends will continue to loom large in the Tiger offense in 2017. The trio of redshirt freshman Albert Okwuegbunam (or Albert O for anyone who has to say it aloud), junior Kendall Blanton and senior Jason Reese have combined for 25 catches, 441 yards and 11 scores. It's an 10-game sample size of course, but that's a pace for 30 catches, 529 yards and 13 touchdowns.

▼ The increase in production is no surprise really, as Finley's tight end group played a much bigger role in the passing game in 2016, with a combined 48 catches for 540 yards and five touchdowns. It was the most catches and yards for Mizzou's tight ends collectively since 2010, and the most TDs by the group since 2008. Here's a look at the increased production from Mizzou's TEs since joining the SEC:

Year	Catches	Yards	TDs
2017 (10 gms)	25	441	11
2016 (12 gms)	48	540	5
2015 (12 gms)	33	276	1
2014 (14 gms)	21	186	1
2013 (14 gms)	9	78	0
2012 (12 gms)	4	27	0

A RETURN TO TIGHT END U

▼ Mizzou's offense established a reputation for producing top-notch TEs, as three different standouts won first-team All-American honors in a span of four seasons from 2007-10. With Albert Okwuegbunam emerging as one of the nation's top TE weapons, he's certainly got a chance to continue that proud heritage.

▼ On the year, he has 15 catches for 193 yards and seven scores, third-most among tight ends nationally.

▼ Against Idaho, the Springfield, Ill., native caught a career-high four passes for a career-best 57 yards and a school TE record three TD grabs. The only other Mizzou tight ends to haul in three TDs in a single game were Chase Coffman in 2007 against Colorado (scores of 25, 23 and five yards) and Dwayne Blakley against Western Michigan in 1999 (scores of four, 10 and seven yards). He followed that performance with a pair of first-quarter redzone TD grabs at UConn, posting eight catches for 91 yards and five scores over those two games.

▼ Looking at Mizzou's impressive runs of TEs, Martin Rucker got the run started when he won consensus first-team All-America status as a senior in 2007, with 84 receptions for 834 yards and eight touchdowns. The next year saw Chase Coffman win the John Mackey Award as the nation's top TE (as well as consensus first-team All-America) when he caught 90 receptions for 987 yards and 10 TDs as a senior. Just two years later, junior Michael Egnew was yet another consensus first-team All-American thanks to a 90-catch, 762-yard, five-TD season.

▼ And of course, we'd be remiss if we didn't also point out that Mizzou is proud to claim one of the game's most transformational TEs ever to play the game – Kellen Winslow – who went on to be a College Football and Pro Football hall of famer. As a senior in 1978, Winslow was a first-team All-American after catching 29 passes for 479 yards and six touchdowns.

▼ For grins, here's a look at how Albert O's production stacks up with the freshman seasons from those four All-Americana.

Name (Year)	Season	Rec.	Yds.	Avg.	TDs
Kellen Winslow (Fr.)	1975	1	12	12.0	0
Martin Rucker (Fr.)	2004	19	263	13.8	4
Chase Coffman (Fr.)	2005	47	503	10.7	4
Michael Egnew (Fr.)	2008	4	22	5.5	0
Albert O. (Fr.)	2017	15	193	12.9	7

TOUCHDOWNS FOR 10

▼ Against Florida, two Mizzou players – junior TE Kendall Blanton and senior RB Ish Witter – caught their first touchdown passes of the season. That is of worth note because Mizzou now has 10 players this season who have caught a touchdown pass. Mizzou is one of only six schools that can make that claim (four in Power 5). Below is a look:

School	Players w/ a TD Catch
TCU	12

AN EXPLOSIVE PASSING ATTACK
- Mizzou is the only school with multiple receivers in this top-10 listing of most receptions of 50 yards or more, through games of Nov. 11.
- Mizzou is one of only three teams in the nation to have five different players catch at least three TD passes this season.
- Mizzou ranks seventh nationally, averaging 15.77 yards per completion.
- Mizzou has a national-best 18 plays of 50+ yards.
- QB Drew Lock leads the nation with 13 passes of 50+ yards and six of 60+ yards, also a national-best.
- WR Emanuel Hall ranks third nationally at 22.77 yards per catch.

WE ARE THE THREE AMIGOS!
- Would you say that Mizzou has a plethora of long-distance threats at the wide receiver position?
- We sure would, as the starting wideout trio of senior J'Mon Moore, junior Emanuel Hall and sophomore Johnathon Johnson combine to give MU the most explosive threesome in the country, and the stats back that up. When comparing most receptions in 2017 of 50 yards or more, all three Tigers rank among the top eight in the nation, heading into this weekend. Here's the breakdown:

Player/Rank	Year.	+50s
1. Aaron Cephus (Rice)	Fr	6
James Washington (Oklahoma St.)	Sr.	6
3. Keke Coutee (Texas Tech)	Jr.	5
Marquise Brown (Oklahoma)	So.	5
Diontae Johnson (Toledo)	So.	5
James Proche (SMU)	So.	5
Andy Isabella (UMass)	Jr.	5
8. J'Mon Moore (Mizzou)	Sr.	4
Johnathon Johnson (Mizzou)	So.	4
Emanuel Hall (Mizzou)	Jr.	4
seven others tied at eighth with four

- Mizzou is the only school with multiple receivers in this top-eight listing of most receptions of 50 yards or more, through games of Nov. 11. Mizzou leads the nation with 14 pass plays of 50+ yards (also lead nation with 18 plays of 50+ yards).
- Mizzou's big-play ability through the air has the Tigers ranked 16th nationally and second in the SEC in passing offense, averaging 306.0 yards per game. Mizzou is seventh nationally and leads the SEC in yards per completion (15.77).

PICK YOUR POISON WITH PASSING ATTACK
- Heading into the Vanderbilt game, Mizzou could make the claim to having the country's most diverse passing attack, thanks to its five players with at least three receiving touchdowns – one of only three schools nationally through games of Nov. 11 that can make that claim. Here's a look at the details:

Rank	Players with 3 or more receiving TDs
Washington State		7
Mizzou		5
Ohio State		5
Arkansas State		4
Iowa State		4

- The production is already historical from a program standpoint, as the only other time in Mizzou history it has had five players with at least three receiving touchdowns in a season was in 2011, when five Tigers had 3 or more. Here's a look:

- 2017 Receiving TDs: Moore (7); Okwuegbunam (7); Hall (4); Johnson (4); Reese (3).
- 2011 Receiving TDs: Kemp (5); Lucas (5); Moe (4); Egnew (3); Washington (3).

AERIAL ASSAULT
- After tossing 217 yards and four scores last week vs. Tennessee, Mizzou will look to keep its high-powered pass attack going. Through 10 games, Mizzou ranks second in the SEC and 16th nationally in passing offense, averaging 306.0 yards per contest.
- The key to Mizzou's offense has been the big-play ability through the air. The Tigers are averaging 15.77 yards per completion, the nation's seventh-best mark and the SEC's best.
- Mizzou QB Drew Lock is second nationally in yards per completion (15.94) while Mizzou has three players ranked in the national top 53 in yards per reception.
- On the year, Mizzou has a national-leading 18 plays of 50+ yards. Of those 18 plays, nine have gone for 60+ yards as Mizzou's offense continues to be explosive under second-year offensive coordinator Josh Heupel.
- Lock leads the nation with 14 passes of 50+ yards and seven of 60+ yards, also a national-best.

400 YARDS ON LOCK
- Three weeks ago vs. Idaho marked the fourth time that junior QB Drew Lock has passed for more than 400 yards. That ties the school record for 400-yard outings by a QB as 2007 Heisman Finalist Chase Daniel also recorded four 400-yard passing games in his career.
- Lock now owns the first-, fourth- and fifth-ranked passing yardage performances in school history.

MOORE WITH IMPRESSIVE STREAK
- Entering Saturday's game vs. Vanderbilt Mizzou senior WR J'Mon Moore has an impressive streak intact, having caught a pass in 27 consecutive games dating back to 2015. Only 19 active players have longer such streaks, three of which play in the SEC as his streak is the league's fourth-longest active streak.

THE LONG HALL
- Junior WR Emanuel Hall enjoyed a breakout performance in Mizzou's game at Kentucky (4 receptions, 129 yards, one touchdown), and he continued that by burning a stout Georgia defense with four catches for a career-high 141 yards and two more scores. He added three catches for 80 yards vs. Idaho, including a score, and had five catches for 37 yards last week at UConn.
- Hall again went over the 100-yard mark for the fourth time in his career and his third time in the last five games against Florida. He hauled in five grabs for 113 yards and had a 50-yard TD overturned into a 49-yard grab that went down to Florida's one-yardline, just shy of another score. It was his second long grab to fall just shy of a TD this season.
- Last week, Hall exploded for 102 yards on five catches, including a pair of deep scores.
- Through games of Nov. 11, Hall now ranks fifth in the NCAA in yards per reception, with a 22.77 yards-per-catch average (31 receptions, 706 yards, 6 TDs). To the right is quick look at the national leaders:

Rank	Player (school)	Opponent
1.	Aaron Cephus (Rice)	25.82
2.	DJ Chark (LSU)	24.76
3.	Emanuel Hall (Mizzou)	22.77

QUICK STRIKE
- At Kentucky, QB Drew Lock hooked up with WR Emanuel Hall for a 58-yard TD pass on the first play of its final drive before halftime. That was Mizzou's third one-play scoring drive of 2017 and 11th dating back to last season. To put that mark into perspective, Mizzou had 10 total one-play scoring drives from 2013-15, which included seven alone in 2013.
- Since the beginning of last year when Josh Heupel took the reins of the offense, 10 of the 11 one-play drives have been pass plays, five going to senior WR J'Mon Moore. Of the 11 one-play drives, seven were of 50+ yards with three of them being of the 70+ yard variety. Sophomore Johnathon Johnson has two of the 10 scores as well.

SHOW ME

Senior S Anthony Sherrils

A DEFENSIVE STAR
▼ Senior S Anthony Sherrils was named SEC Defensive Player of the Week following Mizzou's win over Florida and then turned in a scintillating performance against Tennessee.
▼ He tallied six tackles, an interception, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery against the Vols. It was his second straight game with an INT and a fumble recovery.
▼ Since 2000, Mizzou has had just four instances in which a player had an INT and a fumble recovery in the same game. Sherrils has accounted for three of them with two in the last two games. He also did so as a sophomore in 2015.
▼ The only other Mizzou player to do it since 2000 was Pig Brown against Illinois in 2007.

SHERRILS WITH RARE ACCOMPLISHMENT
▼ Senior S Anthony Sherrils was named SEC Co-Defensive Player of the Week following a great performance against the Gators two weeks ago. Sherrils was the first Mizzou player to earn SEC Defensive Player of the Week since Kentrell Brothers on Sept. 14, 2015. He tallied six tackles and also posted an interception and a fumble recovery in the game, both of which led to Mizzou touchdowns.
▼ He followed that outing with six tackles, an INT, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery vs. Tennessee last week. Since 2000, Mizzou has had just four instances in which a player had an INT and a fumble recovery in the same game - Sherrils has now had three of those, including each of the last two games. His other game with an INT and a FR was as a sophomore in a 9-6 win over UConn in 2015.
▼ The only other player achieve this for Mizzou since 2000 was S Cornelius 'Pig' Brown in 2007 vs. Illinois.

TEREZ APPROACHING RAREFIED AIR
▼ On the year, Mizzou junior LB Terez Hall is closing in on a unique accomplishment. With 11.0 tackles for loss on the year, he is currently tied for second in the SEC in that category. He also has more TFLs than any Mizzou linebacker since Kentrell Brothers had 12.0 in 2015. His next TFL will give him the most at Mizzou by a linebacker since 2009 when Sean Weatherspoon had 15.0. in 2009. Both Brothers and Weatherspoon are playing in the NFL as Hall's production matches some of the best in school history.
▼ Hall had a coming out party over the last six weeks as his play has turned the heads of college football pundits across the nation. While those around Mizzou have become accustomed to seeing Hall making plays all over the field, he shined in front of the national audience at Kentucky, totaling a career-high 12 tackles (10 solo) with a career-high 2.5 tackles for loss and a pass break-up.
▼ Hall followed that performance with a 10-tackle outing at No. 4 Georgia, posting 1.5 tackles for loss as well.

▼ He followed with three tackles and a half TFL against Idaho after sitting out much of the second half as Mizzou rested its starters in the victory. He added four stops with another TFL at UConn.
▼ He was incredible vs. Florida, posting a game-high 11 tackles with 1.5 tackles for loss and a PBU.
▼ He added four stops vs. Tennessee last weekend.

GARRETT A TACKLING MACHINE
▼ While Terez Hall is stealing many of the headlines on the Tiger defense, sophomore MLB Cale Garrett has been as consistent as they come as he is quietly putting together a solid season.
▼ Garrett leads the team with 73 tackles and has chipped in 6.0 tackles for loss, two sacks, two interceptions and a fumble recovery.
▼ Against Kentucky, Garrett registered six total tackles with a TFL and his first interception of the season.
▼ At Georgia, Garrett matched a career-high with 12 tackles and pulled in an INT for the second consecutive game for the first time in his career. He returned the INT 21 yards to the UGA five which led to a game-tying score for Mizzou. The INT was an acrobatic, one-handed grab has he read an underneath route to a TE and reached out to grab the Jake Fromm pass.
▼ Garrett tallied his fifth sack of the season to go along with a QBH and a team-high six tackles at UConn.
▼ Garrett added eight against Florida, including six solo stops.
▼ Garrett led Mizzou with six solo tackles and a TFL vs. Tennessee last weekend.

SHOW ME

A LEADER AT LINEBACKER
▼ Junior LB Terez Hall is a tackling machine and has emerged as one of the leaders on the Mizzou defense.
▼ Hall is now tied for the SEC lead with 11.0 tackles for loss this season. His next TFL will give him the most for a Mizzou player since Sean Weatherspoon in 2009.
▼ Hall also posted a game-high 11 tackles with 1.5 TFLs against Florida as he had developed into one of the top linebackers in the SEC.

A STACKED OFFENSIVE LINE

▸ Mizzou's projected starting O-line averages 6-foot-5.5 and 326 pounds.
▸ To put that mark into perspective, the NFL's Kansas City Chiefs, who are right down I-70 about two hours from Columbia, average 6-foot-6 and 316 pounds as Mizzou's offensive line checks in at about the same average height and about 10 more pounds per player.
▸ The group boasts 60 career starts and all seven O-linemen who made starts a year ago.
▸ Mizzou leads the nation in tackles for loss allowed (2.70 per game) after leading the nation in that category a year ago with the best mark in FBS history (2.92). Mizzou is ahead of that pace this year.
▸ Mizzou also ranks ninth nationally and second in the SEC in sacks allowed, having surrendered just 9.0 all year.

DIFFERENT LOOK FOR O-LINE

▸ What a year a difference makes for the Tiger offensive line. Going into Barry Odom's first season as head coach in 2016, the Tigers featured the nation's least experienced offensive line, with a collective three career starts on the roster (all by Alec Abeln in 2015). Despite the new faces and the uncertainty in a brand new Josh Heupel scheme, MU's offensive line was a revelation as it developed under the guidance of OL Coach Glen Elarbee into one of the nation's best.

▸ Heading into 2017, the line presented a completely different feel. Elarbee's group returned all 60 starts from last year, and all seven players who started at least once in 2016 – a stark contrast to the meager total of three returning career starts going into last season.

Pos.-Name (Year)	Ht.	Wt	Career Starts
LT – Yasir Durant	6-7	340	7
LG – Kevin Pendleton (Jr.)	6-4	330	21
C – Trystan Castillo (RS-Fr.)	6-4	315	10*
RG – Tre'Vour Simms (So.)	6-5	340	10*
RT – Paul Adams (Jr.)	6-6	315	22*

* - denotes started every game in 2017

▸ Adams turned in an outstanding sophomore season as a first-time starter in 2016. According to Pro Football Focus, he ranked ninth nationally among all tackles in highest pass block efficiency, at 98.6%, which was the best mark among SEC tackles.

▸ Coaches always preach about the importance of depth, and the Tigers have that luxury on the front line in 2017, as four players can come off the bench who have started previously, including senior C/G Alec Abeln (9 career starts), junior T/G Samson Bailey (9), senior G Adam Ploudre (8) and sophomore C Jonah Dubinski (2).

▸ Dubinksi is a former walk-on who earned a scholarship during the early stages of fall camp after being a key cog up front for the Tigers. He earned a pair of starts later in 2016 and has spent plenty of time running in the two deep at center during fall camp.

MIZZOU AGAIN LIMITING NEGATIVE PLAYS

▸ Mizzou led the nation in tackles for loss allowed last season, allowing just 2.92 per game, the lowest mark in FBS since the NCAA began archiving the stat. Mizzou is off to a similar start this year, allowing just 27.0 total TFLs through the first 10 games (2.70 per game), the nation's best mark. To put that mark into perspective, Mizzou has 77.0 tackles for loss through 10 weeks, more than twice as many as it has allowed.

▸ A big key to that is Mizzou's offensive line, which has thrived under second-year OL coach Glen Elarbee. The group checks in as the biggest in the SEC, averaging 6-5.5 and 326 pounds. The Kansas City Chiefs offensive line averages 6-6 and 316 to offer a little perspective.

▸ The group has allowed just 9.0 sacks this season, a mark that ranks seventh in FBS and second in the SEC. Last year, Mizzou allowed just 14 sacks (1.15 per game), 16th-best in the NCAA, the best in the SEC and fourth among Power 5 teams.

HISTORICAL NIGHT FOR THE LONG BALL

▸ Mizzou's passing game got untracked following Mizzou's bye week at Kentucky, as it rolled to a 355-yard output and three touchdowns – all season mosts for an opponent against the Cats.

▸ The scoring strikes all came from long distance, and went from QB Drew Lock to three different receivers, with all three coming from 50 yards out or longer. That marked just the second time in Mizzou history (first time ever against an FBS opponent) it had three touchdown passes of 50 yards or longer in a single game, and it was also the most 50-yard scoring plays overall by a Tiger team since 1942, when Mizzou had four scores of 50 yards or more against Iowa State. In that game, MU had rushing TDs of 77, 64 and 57 yards and tacked on a 77-yard scoring through the air in a 45-6 victory.

▸ Here's a rundown of the long-distance scores in 2017.

Yds	Type	Players	Opponent
75-TD	Pass	J. Johnson from D. Lock	at Kentucky
72-TD	Pass	J. Johnson from D. Lock	at UConn
65-TD	Pass	J. Johnson from D. Lock	Missouri State
63-TD	Pass	E. Hall from D. Lock	at Georgia
63-TD	Pass	E. Hall from D. Lock	at Georgia
61-TD	Pass	J. Reese from D. Lock	South Carolina
58-TD	Pass	E. Hall from D. Lock	at Kentucky
50-TD	Pass	J. Moore from D. Lock	at Kentucky
50-TD	Pass	J. Moore from D. Lock	Missouri State
50-TD	Pass	J. Moore from D. Lock	Missouri State
50-TD	Pass	E. Hall from D. Lock	Tennessee

▸ Keep in mind that these are just scoring plays. Mizzou leads the nation in passing plays of 50+ yards with 14 as three of the 14 did not end up in scores.

▸ The next-best team on the list nationally is West Virginia with 12 while the next-best SEC team is Auburn with 10.

SHOW ME

THE LONG HALL

▸ Junior WR Emanuel Hall is third nationally in yards per catch and has emerged as one of the nation's top deep ball threats with six TDs, four of which have come from 50+ yards out.
▸ He has done the bulk of his damage over the last six games, posting 602 yards on just 26 catches (23.15 per catch) with all six of his scores.
▸ He had a pair of TDs last week vs. Tennessee.

Senior DE Jordan Harold

SHOW ME

OH CAPTAIN, MY CAPTAIN
- One of the best stories on the team in 2017 comes from RS senior DE Jordan Harold. After not getting a single Division I offer out of high school, Harold wound up at Division II powerhouse Northwest Missouri State but wanted to play Division I, so he transferred to Mizzou as a walk-on.
- Harold, who is without a doubt one of the team's hardest workers, earned a starting spot last year and was named a team captain in 2017.
- On the year, Harold has 24 tackles and has added 3.0 tackles for loss, a sack and two QBHs.

FLOAT IT LIKE FATONY
- When Mizzou's offense can't get into scoring position, it knows it has a reliable partner with its punt game, led by junior P Corey Fatony, to help the Tigers maintain field position. Through 10 games, Fatony is among the nation's best flippers of the field, as he ranks fifth nationally in individual punting, with his season average of 46.0 yards per kick.
- On the season, Mizzou ranks No. 3 nationally through 10 weeks in team net punting, with an average of 43.44, which leads the SEC. Fourteen of Fatony's punts have gone for 50 yards or more, with 11 fair catches and 18 punts inside the 20-yardline. He had four inside the 20 at Georgia.
- After 10 games, Mizzou is averaging just 3.43 yards per punt return this season, ranking 15th nationally and third in the SEC.
- Mizzou has allowed just 24 total return yards on 41 punts this season, averaging just 0.59 yards per punt.
- The longest punt return against the Tigers this year was a 16-yarder by Florida.
- Mizzou did not allow a return yard against South Carolina, limited Purdue to -1 yard and allowed just one to Auburn.
- Mizzou did not allow a punt return in three straight games before allowing one punt return for just three yards at UConn.

SERIES VS. VANDERBILT
- Saturday will mark the 10th all-time gridiron meeting between Mizzou and Vanderbilt, with the Tigers holding a 5-3-1 edge in the previous nine matchups. Mizzou has won three of the last four meetings overall, including a 26-17 game last season in Columbia which gave Head Coach Barry Odom his first-ever SEC win. Mizzou's last appearance in Nashville went Vandy's way, as the Commodores won a defensive battle by a 10-3 score in 2015. Prior to that, the Tigers downed Vanderbilt on their way to consecutive SEC Eastern Division titles in 2013 (51-28 in Nashville) and 2014 (24-14 in Columbia).

- A year ago, Odom's Tigers broke a five-game losing streak with their win over Vanderbilt. Freshman RB Damarea Crockett had a big game on Faurot Field, rushing for 154 yards and one touchdown on 20 carries, while MU's passing combo of QB Drew Lock and WR J'Mon Moore also had big days. Lock threw for 294 yards and a pair of touchdowns that both went to Moore, who ended with eight receptions for 138 yards. The big blow was a Lock-to-Moore 82-yard catch-and-run bomb in the second quarter that put the Tigers up 19-0 at the time. The Commodores wouldn't go away however, and scored 17 unanswered points to make it a four-quarter game, but the Tigers answered with the second Lock-to-Moore TD (this one from four yards out) midway through the final period to account for the final score. Mizzou outgained Vandy in total offense by a slim 481-to-411 margin, but the Tiger defense was stout on key downs, as they limited the Commodores to only 3-of-14 on third down attempts, and 0-of-2 on fourth down tries.

SHOW ME

JUST GIVE HIM THE RAY GUY AWARD
- Junior P Corey Fatony ranks fifth nationally in punting, averaging 46.0 yards per punt.
- Fatony has Mizzou ranked third nationally in net punting, allowing just 24 return yards on 341punts this season.
- While many judge a punter on yards per kick, it is Fatony's ability to float the ball, allowing his team to get under while still booming the ball that should likely allow him to pursue a punting career at the next level.

NOTABLES ON QB DREW LOCK - 2017 TEAM CAPTAIN
- Had a 467-yard, six-touchdown performance against Idaho (10/21) ... The 467 yards are the fourth-most in school history and he now owns three of the top five single-game passing marks ... His six TDs were also the second-most at Mizzou
- Followed that with Mizzou's third-best completion percentage performance at UConn (10/28), going 31-for-37 (83.8 percent) for 377 yards, five TDs and no picks
- Went 15-for-20 for 228 yards and three more scores vs. Florida (11/4) ... His 210.26 QB rating was his best ever against an SEC opponent
- Threw four touchdowns vs. Tennessee (11/11)... That pushed his total to 35 on the season, which surpasses Chase Daniel (33 - 2007) for second-most in a single season in Mizzou history. Lock now only trails Daniel's 2008 total of 39 touchdown passes... Has now thrown for three or more touchdown passes in six-straight games, a feat that has not been done by an SEC QB since at least 2008
- Has 27 touchdowns and just five interceptions while passing for 2,113 yards on 142-of-224 (63.4 percent) over his last seven games ... Moved his career passing yards total to 7,743, the third-most in school history ...Has thrown for 62 career touchdowns, second-most in program history... Leads the nation in passing TDs (35), is second nationally in yards per completion (15.94), sixth nationally in points responsible for (216) and is 10th in passing yards (3,012) and passing yards per game (301.2) ... He's first or second in the SEC in virtually ever passing category.

BARRY ODOM
2nd Season as Mizzou Head Coach
Mizzou, 1999
Career Record: 9-13

◤ 15 Years of Experience at Mizzou
◤ Mizzou Linebacker (1996-99) under Mizzou head coach Larry Smith
◤ Spent Four Years as a Defensive Coordinator (3 at Memphis, 1 at Mizzou)
◤ Safeties Coach at Mizzou from 2009-11
◤ Mizzou Football Operations from 2006-08
◤ Head Coach of Rock Bridge High School (Columbia) from 2001-02
◤ True Son who Graduated from Mizzou in 1999
◤ Native of Maysville, Okla.

A longtime fixture at Mizzou, Barry Odom, 40, is in his second year guiding a program he has been immersed in at every level for some 15 years – including six in an administrative capacity (2003-08), four as a coach (2009-11, 2015) and four as a highly-successful student-athlete (1996-99). The 2016 season was his first as Mizzou's head coach, and came after he had spent the previous four seasons as a defensive coordinator, including three at Memphis (2012-14) and one at Missouri, where his units were considered among the nation's best.

Highly-respected among his coaching peers for his integrity and for his championship vision, Odom has his Tigers pointed in the right direction after a rebuilding year in 2016 that saw Mizzou win four games. They closed the season out in strong fashion, with wins in two of their final three games - with both coming against bowl teams in Arkansas and Vanderbilt. Those victories sent Mizzou into the off-season with a lot of momentum that Odom expects to capitalize on in his second year in command.

Odom was named the 32nd head football coach in program history in December of 2015, and his undeniable passion for Mizzou, coupled with his strong track record of success at each level of his career pointed to him being the right man to lead the Tigers into the future in the nation's toughest conference.

In 2015, Odom turned in an outstanding season as first-year defensive coordinator for Mizzou under coach Gary Pinkel (who retired after that season), as his Tigers ranked ninth in the nation in total defense, allowing just 302.0 yards per game. Since the NCAA began tracking defensive statistics in 1978, that marked the first time in MU history that Mizzou had produced a top-10 defense. Odom's defense was also ranked seventh nationally in scoring defense (16.2 avg.), seventh in pass defense (169.2 avg.) and second in tackles for loss (8.8 avg.).

Prior to that, Odom became one of the more highly sought-after coordinators in the country due to three stellar years directing Memphis' defense from 2012-14. His 2014 defense was a key component of Memphis' 10-3 season, as his unit finished the regular season ranked fifth nationally in scoring defense (17.1 avg.) and 22nd in total defense (343.3 avg.). That marked an impressive incremental improvement under Odom's watch, as Memphis ranked 117th nationally in total defense the season prior to his arrival. In his first season at Memphis, the defense improved to 50th nationally (383.6 avg.), followed by a jump to 39th in 2013 (370.7 avg.). Memphis earned a share of the 2014 American Athletic Conference title, giving them a conference title for the first time since 1971.

Odom, a Maysville, Okla., native, played at Mizzou under former Coach Larry Smith, and starred as a linebacker from 1996-99. He ended his playing career with 362 tackles, which still ranks as seventh-most in school history. Odom was a captain for his senior year of 1999, and was a key figure on the Missouri teams which reached bowl games in 1997 and 1998, ending a 14-year postseason drought for Tiger fans.

Success followed Odom's career path at each future stop after his playing days. After earning his undergraduate degree in December of 1999, he served as an intern with Mizzou's Tiger Scholarship Fund while he worked on his Master's in Education from the University of Missouri (which he would earn in May of 2004). He returned to his home state of Oklahoma in July of that year to serve as an assistant football coach for his alma mater Ada High School, which finished that season as runners-up for a state title.

Born Nov. 26, 1976, in Lawton, Okla., Odom and his wife Tritia (Tia) were married in July of 2000. Tia is a native of Kahoka, Mo., and is a graduate of MU's College of Human Environmental Sciences. The couple has three children – sons James Trump and Garyt Robert, and daughter Anna Lockwood.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING...

FORMER MIZZOU HEAD COACH GARY PINKEL ON BARRY ODOM
"I'm so happy for Barry, he's absolutely the right guy for the job. You saw the reaction he got from the team and that says it all. He's got a great plan to take the MizzouMade legacy and make it even better, and I know he'll work extremely hard to do that and make our fans proud. Barry is a man's man, he's a person of great integrity who treats people the right way. He's got exceptional leadership skills and people skills, and he will run a tough, disciplined program. At the same time, he cares very much for his players, and it will show. I know he expects to come in and take Mizzou Football to a higher level, and I look forward to watching that happen."

VIRGINIA TECH HEAD COACH JUSTIN FUENTE ON BARRY ODOM
"The University of Missouri has selected an outstanding coach and leader in Barry Odom. Not only does Barry possess a great defensive mind, he has a unique ability to connect with and motivate kids. I've always known that it was not a matter of if, but when, Barry would be a head coach. I have no doubt he'll do a great job with the opportunity he's been given."

OKLAHOMA ATHLETIC DIRECTOR JOE CASTIGLIONE ON BARRY ODOM
"From the moment I met him on his official visit as a prospective student-athlete, through watching his playing years as a Tiger, it was clearly evident that Barry Odom's character, leadership skills and intent to make everyone around him better would position him for success in everything he pursued. I've followed his career journey ever since with great interest. I'm absolutely thrilled for him as he realizes his dream of becoming Head football Coach at Mizzou. He has taken every opportunity to properly prepare for this moment and I firmly believe he will lead Missouri to a lot of success."

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR JOSH HEUPEL // QUARTERBACKS

Second Season at Mizzou
Hometown: Aberdeen, S.D.
Alma Mater: Oklahoma, 2001

OC

NOTABLES ON OC JOSH HEUPEL

- The first hire made by Barry Odom after taking over as Mizzou's 32nd head coach was Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks Coach Josh Heupel. The move paid immediate dividends for Odom's program, as Heupel transformed Mizzou's offense in short time into arguably the nation's most improved attack a year ago.
- The improvement Mizzou saw on offense under Heupel's direction was eye-popping in 2016. Mizzou led the SEC and ranked 13th nationally in total offense last year (500.5 ypg), a year after Mizzou ranked 124th in 2015 (280.9 ypg). Other huge statistical spikes of improvement came in passing offense (20th nationally in 2016; Mizzou was 113th in 2015), rushing offense (38th in 2016; 119th in 2015) and scoring (48th in 2016; 126th in 2015).
- Additionally, Heupel oversaw the continued development of sophomore QB Drew Lock into one of the SEC's top signal callers. In only his first full year as a starter, Lock took to Heupel's comprehensive coaching and blossomed into a 3,000-yard passer. Lock led the SEC with his 283.2 yards per game average, and finished with 3,399 yards and 23 touchdowns.
- Heupel brought with him to Mizzou an impressive track record of success, including four national championship game appearances, seven BCS bowl games and coaching oversight of two Heisman Trophy winning quarterbacks. Including the 2016 at Mizzou, he has 14 years of coaching and recruiting experience at the highest level, including the last six seasons as offensive coordinator and play caller at Mizzou, Oklahoma and Utah State. Heupel finished his first season as assistant head coach/offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach in 2015 with Utah State.

CO-DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR RYAN WALTERS // SECONDARY

3rd Season at Mizzou
Hometown: Los Angeles, Calif.
Alma Mater: Colorado, 2008

Co-DC

NOTABLES ON CO-DC RYAN WALTERS

- In his third year with the Mizzou coaching staff is Ryan Walters, who came to MU with Barry Odom in February of 2015 when Odom was announced as the defensive coordinator. When he was named Mizzou's head coach, Odom kept Walters on board to continue coaching the Tiger safeties. Thanks to his outstanding work on the field, as well as in recruiting circles, Odom named Walters Co-Defensive Coordinator prior to the 2016 season, and now in 2017, Walters will coach the entire secondary, as he brings the cornerbacks into his position room.
- Walters was a key factor in Mizzou's 2015 defense that finished in the top 10 nationally in total defense, scoring defense and pass defense. He also developed senior Ian Simon and sophomore Anthony Sherrils into two of the top safeties in the SEC in 2015.
- Walters, 31, came to Mizzou after spending the 2014 season as cornerbacks coach at Memphis, where he worked with Odom. At Memphis, the pair oversaw a defense that was among the most improved in the nation. Memphis went 10-3 in 2014, thanks in large part to its defense which ranked fifth nationally in points allowed (17.1 ppg) and 22nd in total defense (343.3 ypg) in the regular season.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH ANDY HILL // WR

22nd Season at Mizzou
Hometown: Trenton, Mo.
Alma Mater: Missouri, 1985

WRs

NOTABLES ON WR COACH ANDY HILL

- Andy Hill has coached 21 seasons at the University of Missouri, making him the longest-tenured coach on the Tiger football staff. In fact, only one other assistant coach in MU football history ever enjoyed a longer tenure at Mizzou: Clay Cooper (29 seasons). Hill's 21st season on the MU sideline in 2016 tied him for second place on the longevity list with Chauncey Simpson (1934-54)
- In 2016, Hill transitioned back to coaching the wide receivers, a role that gained him some well-deserved recognition from 1996-2012, coaching some of the best players in Mizzou history. He spent 2013-15 coaching Mizzou's quarterbacks, including mentoring freshman starter Drew Lock in 2015.

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH CORNELL FORD // RB

17th Season at Mizzou
Hometown: Gary, Ind.
Alma Mater: Toledo, 1991

RB

NOTABLES ON RB COACH CORNELL FORD

- Cornell Ford is in his 17th season at Mizzou and in his second with the title of assistant head coach and working with the Tiger running backs. The 2016 season saw Ford switch to the offensive staff, and his first season mentoring the backfield couldn't have gone better, as his backs were a key reason why Mizzou's offense was one of the most improved in the nation.
- Before working with the running backs, Ford spent 12 years coaching the Tiger cornerbacks, after he focused on MU's outside safeties his first three years. Ford is also the Tigers' chief recruiter in St. Louis, where he has signed some of the very best players in the state who have been critical to Mizzou's success over the years.

ASSISTANT COACH GLEN ELARBEE // OL

2nd Season
Hometown: Carrollton, Ga.
Alma Mater: Middle Tennessee, 2003, 2004

OL

NOTABLES ON OL GLEN ELARBEE

- In his second year with Barry Odom's program is Offensive Line Coach Glen Elarbee. In his first year with Mizzou, Elarbee proved that he is undoubtedly one of the top line coaches in the nation, as he took the nation's youngest and most inexperienced group (with just three combined career returning games started from 2015) and molded them into one of the nation's most improved lines.
- In 2016, the improvement Mizzou saw on offense with Elarbee's help was eye-popping. Mizzou led the SEC and ranked 13th nationally in total offense last year (500.5 ypg), a year after Mizzou ranked 124th in 2015 (280.9 ypg). Other huge statistical spikes of improvement came in passing offense (20th nationally in 2016; Mizzou was 113th in 2015), rushing offense (38th in 2016; 119th in 2015) and scoring (48th in 2016; 126th in 2015). His line finished first in the nation in tackles for loss allowed (2.92), the lowest in the nation for any team since at least 2005.

ASSISTANT COACH JOE JON FINLEY // TE

2nd Season at Mizzou
Hometown: Arlington, Texas
Alma Mater: Oklahoma, 2008

TE

NOTABLES ON TE COACH JOE JON FINLEY

- One of the top young position coaches in the country is second-year Mizzou tight ends coach Joe Jon Finley. Finley joined Barry Odom's first staff at Mizzou prior to the 2016 season, and his tight ends played a vital role in MU's offense becoming one of the most improved in the nation.
- Senior Sean Culkin enjoyed a career year in 2016, as he had career-bests in receptions (24), and yardage (282), while he and fellow tight ends Kendall Blanton (Soph.), Jason Reese (Junior) and Tyler Hanneke (Senior) also all contributed heavily in Mizzou's much-improved run game. Following the 2017 NFL Draft, Culkin signed a free agent contract with the Los Angeles Chargers
- Finley coaches a position in which he was an all-conference performer in his playing days for the Oklahoma Sooners.

ASSISTANT COACH BRICK HALEY // DL

1st Season
Hometown: Gadsden, Ala.
Alma Mater: Alabama A&M, 1988

DL

NOTABLES ON DL BRICK HALEY

- University of Missouri Head Football Coach Barry Odom added longtime defensive line coach and Southeastern Conference veteran Brick Haley to his coaching staff in the offseason. Haley will serve as Mizzou's defensive line coach, a position he has coached with great success for 19 years overall, including the last 13 straight. In all, Haley – an outstanding recruiter and developer of talent – has logged 26 years as a full-time defensive coach, including three as defensive coordinator, and two as an assistant in the National Football League.
- Haley comes to Mizzou after spending the past two seasons at Texas, where he coached the Longhorn defensive line. This past season, Texas' defense led the Big 12 Conference in both quarterback sacks (3.42 per game) and tackles for loss (7.6 per game), while ranking 5th and 16th nationally in those categories, respectively. In 2015, Texas ranked fifth in the NCAA in sacks.

ASSISTANT COACH BRIAN ODOM // OUTSIDE LBs

1st Season at Mizzou
Hometown: Ada, Okla.
Alma Mater: Southeastern Oklahoma, 2004

LB

NOTABLES ON OLB COACH BRIAN ODOM

- Brian Odom, who is in his first season as outside linebackers coach for Mizzou, is actually in his second tour of duty with the Tigers. He began his career in athletics as an administrative and defensive graduate assistant coach on Gary Pinkel's staff in 2005. He comes to Mizzou from Washington State, where he was the defensive quality control assistant for the 2015 and 2016 seasons. At WSU, Brian was instrumental in the Cougars' defensive turnaround, working under Defensive Coordinator and former Mizzou assistant coach Alex Grinch.
- Prior to Washington State, Brian spent three years running the football strength and conditioning program at the University of Houston (2012-14), after spending seven years working with the football performance program at the University of Arizona (2005-11).

THE $98M FUTURE OF #TheZOU

❧ The University of Missouri Board of Curators unanimously voted on Aug. 25 to approve construction of Mizzou Athletics' $98 million south end zone facility at Faurot Field/Memorial Stadium. This project will provide state-of-the-art training facilities for Mizzou Football, create additional premium seating opportunities and game-day enhancements for all Tiger fans to enjoy, and bring new jobs to Columbia.

❧ The Board of Curators' total approved project budget is $98 million; to consist of campus infrastructure funds totaling $800,000, long-term debt financing not to exceed $57 million and private gifts covering the remainder of the project costs.

❧ The Tigers' new football operations area will include team and staff locker rooms, an enhanced sports medicine facility featuring a Hydrotherapy area with recovery pools, Hyroworx and lap pools, a weight room, nutrition oasis and equipment room, as well as team and position meeting rooms, and coaches offices. A grand lobby entrance at field level showcasing Mizzou's proud football tradition will greet visitors, and a recruiting lounge will allow the Tigers' staff to host recruits

❧ Since the athletics department received its first pledge toward the new facility last September, the generosity of 42 individuals, coupled with Sterk's visionary leadership, has generated more than $50 million in pledges over the last 11 months to help this game-changing project come to fruition. Construction of the nearly 200,000-square foot facility, which includes more than 150,000 square feet of enclosed space, is expected to start in early 2018 with the demolition of the stadium's south end zone grandstands, and be completed ahead of the 2019 campaign.

❧ Memorial Stadium's capacity, currently listed at 71,168, will be around 65,000 when the largest capital project in Mizzou Athletics history is complete, according to school officials.

❧ Coach Odom: "Missouri is making a bold statement with today's announcement and I am confident that it not only will pay big dividends in recruiting, but it will help improve our game-day atmosphere throughout the stadium," he added. "I can't wait to get the shovels in the ground and get going. I am thankful to lead the Mizzou Football program and represent our University and State, and am pleased we have undertaken a project of this stature.

LUXURY SEATING

❧ 16 Suites
❧ 750-person field-level club
❧ 1,254-seat indoor club
❧ General seating area for 1,324 fans
❧ A full kitchen will also be constructed in the facility to service the new premium areas, and new video boards will further enhance the Mizzou game-day experience.
❧ AD Jim Sterk: "Our goal is to build one of college football's premier facilities for our student-athletes and coaches to utilize on a daily basis, and we are confident that we can achieve that within the project's budget and scope," he added. "When this facility is completed, not only will it be an incredible asset in recruiting, but our expectations are that it will enhance the game-day environment for our fans at Memorial Stadium, too."
