GAMEDAY STORYLINES

- After an eight-day break between games, Troy returns to the court on Thursday at Vanderbilt. The Trojans are coming off of a 104-51 win over Nicholls at home last Tuesday. Troy is 3-0 at home this season, but 0-2 on the road with close losses to Samford and Belmont, who are a combined 13-4 on the season.
- The Trojans come into Memorial Gym with the nation's top scoring offense at 97.4 points per game, over 7.0 points more than second place UConn (90.2). Troy, in its fourth season under head coach Chanda Rigby, has led the Sun Belt in scoring in every season under Rigby.
- However, it's Troy's defense that made headlines in last week's 104-51 win over Nicholls. The Trojans held the Colonels to 25 percent shooting and forced them into 35 turnovers. Troy is forcing opponents into an average of 26.8 turnovers per game and grabbing 14.0 steals per game, both marks that rank second in the NCAA.
- Individually, Ashley Beverly Kelley leads the Trojans in scoring at 21.0 points per game, tops in the Sun Belt and 19th best in the NCAA. The senior Mid-Major All-American has scored in double figures in every game this season and in 19 straight dating back to last season.
- Beverly Kelley is second in the Sun Belt in assists and assist-turnover ratio to her teammate, Amanda Mendoza. The sophomore is averaging 6.6 assists and has a 4.1 assist-turnover ratio, good for 14th and sixth in the NCAA, respectively.
- Junior forward Caitlyn Ramirez is Troy's second leading scorer at 14.4 points per game. She enters Thursday's game as the NCAA's leader in field goal percentage at 69.0 percent on the season.
- Vanderbilt comes in having won six straight games overall and with a 6-0 record at Memorial Gym this season. The Commodores rank 13th in the NCAA giving up just 51.4 points per game.
- Troy is 0-2 all-time against Vanderbilt, but hasn't played the Commodores since 2005.

LAST TIME OUT FOR TROY (vs NICHOLLS)

■ The nation's top offense was on full display, but Troy was sparked by its defense in a dominating, 104-51, win over Nicholls at Trojan Arena on Tuesday.

■ Troy (3-2) held Nicholls to just 25 percent shooting and had 19 steals on 35 Nicholls turnovers that led to 41 Trojan points. Troy's 53-point victory was just two points shy of tying the program's Division I era record for margin of victory.

■ "Scoring a 100 points is what people like to talk about," Chanda Rigby said. "But as a team we know, and have decided that, it doesn't matter how many times we score 100, if we don't hold people to lower scores we're not going to achieve our goals."

■ The defense was the headline, but Troy's offense was as powerful as normal as the Trojans scored 100 points for the third time in as many home games this season. The win was Troy's eighth straight at Trojan Arena.

■ Five Trojans scored in double figures, led by 16 points from Caitlyn Ramirez who also led the team with nine rebounds. The Sun Belt leader in field goal percentage, upped that number even more with a 7-of-10 showing, including 6-of-7 in the second half.

■ Three Trojans scored 15 points each, including Ashley Beverly Kelley who was also 7-of-10 from the floor with four assists. Rachel Reid and Jayla Chills each scored 15 off the bench for Troy, combining for five of Troy's 12 3-pointers.

DISTRIBUTING MINUTES

- Chanda Rigby and the Trojans are regularly substituting five players at a time this season in order to conserve energy in their up-tempo system.
- "We try to sub five at a time like a hockey game. We're teaching our team how to play very hard in a spurt of about two minutes," Rigby said.
- In their most recent win over Nicholls, no Trojan played more than 23 minutes (Kristen Emerson) and only three played over 20 minutes. On the other hand, every player dressed for the game played at least six minutes.
- Troy is the only team in the Sun Belt with 13 different players averaging at least 7.0 minutes per game. Troy is one of four in the league with no players averaging over 30.0 minutes per game.

TROJANS PICKED FIFTH

- Despite finishing third last season and returning their top scorer, the Trojans have been picked to finish fifth in the Sun Belt Preseason Coaches Poll this season.
- However, the Trojans were just 11 points behind the second place team, and all of the top five teams, including Troy, received first place votes.
- "It shows how good our conference is, but it is fodder for motivation. In no way, shape or form do we see ourselves as fifth, but we have to prove it. We won't be happy at all unless we finish first, and that's what we're striving for everyday," Rigby says of the prediction.

Troy (head coach)

Chanda Rigby is in her fourth season as the head coach at Troy in 2015-16. In her first three seasons, Rigby has quickly turned around the Troy program. The program won just two games in 2011-12, the season prior to Rigby's arrival, and has most recently won 20 games in 2014-15.

Troy's 2014-15 team won 20 games for just the fourth time in program history and made the second postseason appearance in program history. The Trojans posted a 15-5 Sun Belt record, good for a program-best third place finish, then played in the Women's Basketball Invitational, making a postseason appearance for the first time since 1997. The team also tied the Troy Division I era record with six straight wins in January before breaking the record with eight straight wins to close the regular season.

In addition to a winning culture, Rigby has also brought an exciting, fast-paced tempo to Troy. All three of her teams at Troy have led the Sun Belt in scoring offense, and the most recent two teams have both finished in the NCAA's top 20 in scoring offense.

Rigby has also brought a pressure defense to Troy as the Trojans have forced 46 opponents into 20-plus turnovers in the last three seasons. Most recently, in 2014-15, the Trojans averaged 12.1 steals per game, ranking first in the Sun Belt and fourth in the NCAA.

In her three seasons, Rigby has coached five first or second team All-Sun Belt selections, more than the program had in its previous seven combined seasons in the Sun Belt Conference. Most recently, in 2014-15, Ashley Beverly Kelley and Ronita Garrett were both named to the All-Sun Belt First Team, giving Troy two first team selections for the first time in over a decade.

Rigby came to Troy after seven seasons as the head coach at Pensacola State, including a state championship and Final Four trip in each of her last two seasons. She led the Pirates to a combined 64-6 record over the last two seasons with two trips to the National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) Final Four; the Pirates were victorious in third-place games on both occasions.

With over 20 years of head coaching experience, Rigby has been successful at every level of competition, posting a 421-173 record at the high school, two-year college and four-year college levels.

RIGBY'S SYSTEM

HIGH-POWERED OFFENSE

- Troy again has one of the nation's top scoring offenses in 2015-16, averaging 97.4 points per game. In fact, it is the No. 1 ranked scoring offense through Troy's first five games.
- Troy's high scoring numbers are a product of head coach Chanda Rigby's signature up-tempo system. Now in her fourth season, Rigby isn't slowing down. The Trojans' goal on every possession is to get a shot off within 7 seconds.
- Under Rigby, the Trojans have scored 100 points in nine games, including in three so far in 2015-16. Prior to her arrival Troy had last scored 100 in a game in 1996-97, a span of 441 games between 100-point efforts.

■ Troy's 103 points in their season opener against West Alabama this season were the most ever for the Trojans in a season opener. It also gave Troy a 100-point game in four straight seasons for the first time in program history.

■ Rigby's Troy teams have scored 80-plus points 41 times in her four seasons, something Troy did just seven times in the previous four seasons.

■ Troy has led the Sun Belt in scoring in each of Chanda Rigby's first three seasons, including in 2013-14 when it averaged 80.4 points per game. Troy became just the second Sun Belt team since 2000 to average over 80.0 points per game (Middle Tennessee, 2009-10, 80.8)

■ Rigby has had success with the system at numerous levels, including the JUCO level where she was before coming to Troy. Rigby's last two teams at Pensacola State averaged 79.3 and 90.1 points per game on their way to two straight NJCAA Final Four appearances.

PRESSURE DEFENSE

■ Chanda Rigby has also brought a pressure defense with her to Troy. So far this season, the Trojans are forcing 26.8 opponent turnovers per game, the best mark in the Sun Belt and the second highest mark in the NCAA. Troy's 14.0 steals per game also lead the Sun Belt and also rank second in the NCAA.

■ Last season, the Trojans forced 20-plus turnovers 19 times, including in 11 of the last 18 games.

■ Troy forced 30-plus turnovers four times last season, including a season-high 39 against ULM. The 39 turnovers by the Warhawks were the most forced by a Troy team since at least 1999-2000 when opponent turnover stats were first available.

■ In Chanda Rigby's four seasons, Troy has forced 49 opponents into 20-plus turnovers and 11 into 30-plus turnovers.

■ In addition to increasing their number of opponent turnovers and steals in each season under Chanda Rigby, Troy has also lessened its own turnovers. Troy currently has a +8.40 turnover margin, which ranks second in the Sun Belt and ninth in the NCAA.
