What's On Tap

Vanderbilt continues its stretch of nine of 11 games on the road this weekend as the Commodores travel to Starkville to take on Mississippi State in a three-game Southeastern Conference series. The teams open play on Friday at 6:30 p.m. and will play on Saturday at 2 p.m. and at 1:30 p.m. on Sunday.

Scouting Mississippi State

Mississippi State is coming off a College World Series appearance in 2007 and has battled through injuries the first half of the season. Head coach Ron Polk announced his retirement last month, effective at the end of the season, ending a historic 35-year head coaching career that saw him take the Bulldogs to six CWS appearances and four SEC regular season titles. His teams always had success in the postseason with five conference tournament titles and 20 regional appearances during that span.

The team enters the weekend with a 14-18 overall record and a 3-9 ledger in conference play. MSU lost two of three to Kentucky in Lexington last weekend and fell at Memphis, 9-8, in mid-week action on Tuesday.

Catcher Cody Freeman was leading the team in hitting with a .397 average before suffering a back injury a few weeks ago. Third baseman Connor Powers is the top power source with 10 homers and 34 RBI to go with a .355 batting average. As a team, State is hitting .302 with 35 homers and 223 runs scored in 32 games (6.9 per game).

Commodore Tidbits

Last week was unkind for Vanderbilt as the team went 1-4, its worst week of action in nearly two years. The team went 0-4 the week of April 18-23, 2006 with a loss at MTSU and a sweep at Alabama ... The Commodores regained the services of junior All-American third baseman Pedro Alvarez at the start of the week against Southeast Missouri, but the team suffered a 12-8 loss to snap a four-game losing streak. Alvarez had missed 23 games due to a broken bone in his hand, but concerns on if his power would be slow to return were erased as he hit two homers and had two doubles on the week. His first homer was estimated to be over 435 feet, while his second went over 400 ... The return of Alvarez spiked the performance of Dominic de la Osa who led the team with a 10-for-23 (.435) week, with three doubles, a homer and four RBI ... David Macias went 7-for-19 (.368) with a double, homer and three RBI as the only other Commodore to hit over .300 for the week ... VU hit .262 in the five games with six homers, 11 doubles and 26 runs scored ... The pitching staff did not fare any better posting a 7.93 ERA over the five game stretch with 30 strikeouts and 17 walks in 42.0 innings. Opponents had 61 hits over that span for a .326 batting average against ... The weekend rotation of Mike Minor, Caleb Cotham and Brett Jacobson combined to give up 18 runs, 15 earned, on 21 hits in 15 innings ... Reliever Chase Reid gave up his first three earned runs of the year in relief against Ole Miss on Sunday. He had only given up an unearned run in his first 18.1 innings pitched of the year ... Jason Cunningham pitched a scoreless inning of relief against Ole Miss on Sunday. It was his first appearance since throwing against Arizona State in the second game of the year on Feb. 23 ... The Commodores defense also fared poorly committing 11 errors for a .939 fielding percentage.

Alex Feinberg Out For Two Weeks

Although Pedro Alvarez returned, the Commodores lost the services of senior second baseman Alex Feinberg who suffered a broken jaw in the first game of Saturday's doubleheader against Ole Miss. A fastball clocking in around 92 mph from Ole Miss ace Lance Lynn hit him below the mouth breaking his jaw. Feinberg went back to Nashville Saturday night and had successful surgery on Sunday morning. His down time is expected to be a week and he should be ready to play next weekend at home against Auburn. The Orinda, Calif., native was leading the team with a .400 batting average, good for third in the SEC at the time of the injury.

Aaron Westlake Out For The Year

Freshman infielder Aaron Westlake had season ending surgery on Tuesday due to blood clots in his right shoulder. The California native had played in 15 games, with four starts at designated hitter. He batted .241 with four RBI and had his best game two weeks ago in the series clinching win over Arkansas on March 30. Westlake went 2-for-3 with three RBI in the contest that gave the Commodores its first ever series win over the Razorbacks. The team will attempt to get a medical redshirt season for him. The Shasta High School graduate from Redding was considered the No. 55 prospect out of California last year by Baseball America.

Strong Pitching Leads Commodores To Pair Of Midweek Wins

Nick Christiani pitched six innings of five-hit ball to help lead Vanderbilt to a 5-1 win over Western Kentucky Tuesday night at Hawkins Field.

Christiani struck out six and walked three in 6.1 innings of work to move to 3-1 on the year. In his last two outings, the junior from New Jersey has allowed just one run in 9.1 innings with nine strikeouts.

The Commodores took a 1-0 lead in the second when Andrew Giobbi scored on a wild pitch by Hilltopper starter Rye Davis. Dominic de la Osa's RBI single in the third made it 2-0.

WKU scored a run in the top of the fourth on a bases loaded walk to Matt Payton.

De la Osa tripled and stole home in the fifth to put the lead back at two at 3-1. Steven Liddle added a pinch-hit RBI single in the seventh to make it 4-1.

VU closed out the scoring in the eighth, plating an unearned run to extend the advantage to 5-1.

David Macias led VU with four hits, with Dominic de la Osa adding three of his own.

Drew Hayes pitched the final two innings to pick up his second save of the year. He struck out four and walked one while allowing just one hit.

The strong pitching continued on Wednesday as five Vanderbilt pitchers combined to hold Austin Peay to a run on seven hits in an 8-1 win Wednesday night at Hawkins Field.

David Macias led off the first with a single and scored on a RBI grounder by Pedro Alvarez to take a 1-0 lead. Macias added a sacrifice fly RBI in the second to make it 2-0.

Ryan Flaherty led off the third with a solo homer to right, his sixth of the year to push the advantage to 3-0. He led the Commodores with three hits on the night.

Chase Reid (2-0) pitched two scoreless innings to start the game and was relieved by Jason Cunningham who continued the shutout for two more innings. Cunningham got into trouble in the top of the fifth giving up two hits and left the game with runners on the corners and no outs. Drew Hayes came on in relief and got out of the jam to preserve the shutout.

Andrew Giobbi's two-run double in the fifth extended the lead to 5-0. Ryan Flaherty singled with one out and moved to third on a double to left by Dominic de la Osa. Steven Liddle was intentionally walked before Giobbi doubled down the right field line off of reliever David Vicini.

Greg Bachman's RBI single in the sixth broke up the shutout to make it 5-1.

VU plated two more runs in the sixth to build the lead up to 7-1. Brad French was hit by a pitch and Pedro Alvarez doubled him in for the first run. Flaherty brought Alvarez home with a single to left.

The Dores added a run in the seventh when Jordan Wormsley singled, moved to third on a single by Brian Harris and scored on a RBI squeeze bunt by Brad French.

Sean Bierman pitched two scoreless innings after Hayes and Mark Lamm closed it out with a scoreless ninth.

Alvarez and de la Osa Approaching School Homer Record

With 18 homers in 2007, Pedro Alvarez moved into sixth place on the school's career list with 40 total jacks. Also in the Top 10 after a stellar junior campaign is Dominic de la Osa with 36. Alvarez missed 23 games but returned last week and added two homers in Mississippi to move his career total to 42.

De la Osa broke Boomer Whipple's mark of 809 career at-bats last weekend and now has 817 going into the Mississippi State series. De la Osa also has 56 career doubles, just five off the school mark of 61 set by Sean Luellwitz from 1999-2002.

Commodores Picked To Finish First in SEC (East) By Coaches

Vanderbilt is predicted to repeat as the 2008 Southeastern Conference baseball champions, as voted by the league's 12 baseball coaches in the 17th annual preseason SEC poll.

The Commodores, ranked as high as No. 3 nationally in the preseason polls, seek to capture their fifth SEC Championship, having also won titles in 1973, 1974, 1980 and 2007. Vanderbilt returns eight position starters and four pitchers from their 2007 squad which also won the SEC Tournament and earned the National No. 1 Seed in the NCAA Tournament.

Since 1996, the SEC has named a regular season champion as well as a tournament champion. Prior to 1996, the tournament champion was considered the SEC Champion.

HEAD COACH TIM CORBIN

In five seasons at Vanderbilt, Tim Corbin has turned Vanderbilt into one of the national powers of college baseball. In 2007, Corbin guided the Commodores to their best season ever, finishing with a school record 54 wins. The team also achieved a No. 1 national ranking for the first time in school history and held that honor for 13 of 15 weeks during the regular season.

The Vanderbilt baseball team also swept through the Southeastern Conference, winning both the regular season and tournament crown for the first time ever, and it marked the first time an SEC team had done it since 1996. The team lost only one conference series the entire season against SEC West Division winner Arkansas in Fayetteville and avenged the series loss by defeating the Razorbacks in the SEC tournament title game.

The conference recognized Corbin for the work he had done, naming him SEC Coach of the Year. Corbin also picked up Co-National Coach of the Year by College Baseball Insider and regional coach of the year honors by the American Baseball Coaches Association.

The Commodores hosted their first ever NCAA regional as the No. 1 National Seed and arrived as a power in college baseball.

Corbin's success and methods of running the Vanderbilt program has earned him respect among the college and international baseball communities.

In the summer of 2006 he managed the USA Baseball National Team to a 28-2-1 record that culminated with a gold medal finish at the FISU (International University Sports Federation) World University Championship in Havana, Cuba. The .919 winning percentage was the highest ever for a national team and it garnered special recognition by the United States Olympic Committee.

His overall record of 198-108 (.647) is third best in terms of wins, and first in terms of win percentage for coaches with 100 games or more.

In 2006 he guided a youthful Commodore squad to a 38-27 record and sixth place finish in the rugged Southeastern Conference. The team was the youngest team in the league, with seven everyday starters either freshmen or sophomores. For the second time in three seasons, Corbin guided the team to the SEC Tournament Championship game and the young squad also gained valuable NCAA experience after advancing to the championship round of the Atlanta Regional.

The 2006 team posted impressive series wins over College World Series participant Georgia, Super Regional participants South Carolina and Ole Miss, and took series on the road against Florida and LSU. The team handed LSU its worst conference loss at home in school history in the process.

In addition to on the field successes, the baseball program itself has had significant upgrades to the facilities with a brand new fieldhouse, complete with new locker rooms for players, coaches and Commodore alums playing professional baseball. Also included are coach's offices, a classroom that overlooks Hawkins Field and a new weight room. These recent upgrades reinforce the excitement and commitment made to the baseball program due to the successes Tim Corbin has achieved as well as those he will strive to accomplish in the future.

He has already pushed the program to its most successful season, rewritten a significant portion of its record book, and ascended to the ranks of Southeastern Conference and national powers. For him, such excellence has been a constant in a career that covers two decades in both the collegiate and international baseball ranks.

Corbin, along with his coaching staff, are a tireless group that saw their recruiting efforts pay off last fall as the 2005 recruiting class was labeled the nation's best by Baseball America.

Professional baseball has also taken notice of the program as 20 VU players have been drafted over the last three years including eight in 2007.

In 2005, Corbin directed the squad to its second consecutive 30-win season, an achievement that had not been done in over 15 years. The campaign was highlighted with series wins over Alabama, Mississippi, South Carolina and College World Series participant Tennessee.

In 2004, Corbin not only directed the Commodores to their first NCAA Tournament appearance in 24 years, he guided them to their first-ever Super Regional as they swept through the Charlottesville Regional with victories over George Mason, Princeton and host Virginia. In the Super Regional they fell to the eventual national runner-up, Texas, but still carved out a piece of history as the first team in NCAA baseball history to make it that far one year after having finished with a sub-.500 record.

Along the way Vanderbilt racked up 45 wins, was the only team to rank among the SEC's top five in earned run average (first), batting average (fourth) and fielding percentage (first), and finished with a .703 winning percentage, which was third-best in the highly competitive conference, which sent nine schools to the NCAA Tournament. The Commodores' school-record .978 fielding percentage was second in the nation, and their 30 error-free games were 11 more than the previous season.

Before Corbin was hired as the 21st coach in program history, Vanderbilt had not earned a spot in the conference tournament in a decade. Not only has he led his team there twice, the Commodores made it to the 2004 championship game.

During the 2004 regular season, Vanderbilt swept a series against Mississippi State for the first time. It was one of three conference whitewashes and one of five series' wins in all.

His efforts earned him the 2004 Vanderbilt Coach of the Year award and a nomination for the Nashville Sports Council's Sports Person of the Year. Plus, a school-record five players were named to the SEC All-Tournament team, five players were drafted on the first day and seven VU players in all were chosen in the Major League Baseball Draft, topped by No. 6 overall pick pitcher Jeremy Sowers.

His first Vanderbilt team finished 27-28 overall and 14-16 in the SEC, good enough for second in the Eastern Division. It earned a conference tournament berth with a season-ending sweep of Tennessee capped by a dramatic ninth-inning rally in the finale. The overall and conference victory totals were the most by a first-year Vanderbilt coach and were made more impressive by the fact that the Commodores were 12-5 in one-run games.

That squad set then school records for fielding percentage (.972), fewest errors in a season (60), most saves in a season (15) and fewest walks allowed in a season (168) -- all of which were bettered in 2004. The team notched series victories over nationally-ranked conference foes LSU, Auburn and Florida, each of which was ranked among the top 15 at the time.
