THE STORYLINE

- The Florida football team travels to Southeastern Conference Eastern Division rival Vanderbilt in Week 11.
- Florida defeated Georgia 38-20 last week in Jacksonville, Fla., while Vanderbilt topped Old Dominion 42-28 in Nashville.
- UF had 418 rushing yards against the Bulldogs, marking the fifth-best single-game total in school annals, and the second-best performance against an SEC opponent (454 vs. Vanderbilt, 1975).
- UGA entered the game allowing just three runs of 20-plus yards on the season (tied the national lead), and its longest opponent rush was for just 24 yards. UF had five runs of 20-plus yards, including a 65 yarder.
- The Orange and Blue ran 60 times last week, which is the team's fourth-highest carries total in a game, and second-highest against an SEC opponent (67 vs. Ole Miss, 1980).
- The Gators rushed for five touchdowns against UGA, marking their first five-TD game on the ground since scoring six rushing touchdowns against Appalachian State on Nov. 20, 2010.
 - The last time UF scored five rushing touchdowns against an SEC opponent was Sept. 25, 2010, against Kentucky.
- The series between Florida and Vanderbilt dates back to 1945 and the Gators hold a 35-10-2 all-time advantage. In Nashville, UF holds a 16-7-1 lead over the Commodores. Since 1990, Florida is 11-0 against VU in the Music City.
- The Gator offense leads the SEC and stands second nationally in red-zone efficiency, converting 24-of-25 trips inside the opponent's 20-yard line into points.
 - UF has scored 15 touchdowns in the red zone this year, with an additional nine trips resulting in field goals.
- Florida's punting units have been outstanding this season, as the Gators rank fifth in the nation and second in the SEC in punt returns, while ranking 14th nationally and third in the SEC in punting.
- UF's lines have proven to be stout in pass protection on offense and in quarterback pressures on defense.
 - The Gators are tied for third in the SEC with 11 sacks allowed on the year.
 - Florida is recording 2.86 sacks per game, which ranks fourth in the league.
- A strong run defense has seen the Gators allow just 25 double-digit runs this year, which is sixth in the nation.
- Antonio Morrison recorded 15 tackles against Georgia, marking the most stops by a Gator since Ahmad Black had 16 against South Carolina in 2010.
- Florida's defense is forcing 5.86 three-and-outs per game, which leads the SEC and ranks eighth nationally through games of Nov. 1.
 - The Gators have forced 41 three-and-outs on 100 drives, or 41 percent.
- On the offensive side, UF is 15-for-33 (45.5 percent) on third down in its last two games.
- The Gators' improved discipline enabled them to return to the win column last week:
 - UF surrendered just one turnover against Georgia after giving the ball up on offense at least three times in each of its previous four games.
 - The Orange and Blue has committed five or fewer penalties in each of their last five games.

LAST TIME OUT

Florida gashed rival Georgia behind a devastating ground attack, with tailbacks Kelvin Taylor and Matt Jones each nearly gaining 200 yards and leading the double-digit underdog Gators to a dominant 38-20 upset of the ninth-ranked Bulldogs in their annual SEC rivalry showdown at EverBank Field.

The win was the biggest for the Gators since crushing Florida State to end the 2012 regular season and Muschamp's first win over a top-10 foe since that big one at Tallahassee. More importantly, it was his first victory over Georgia, his alma mater and a team that started the day not only in command of the SEC East, but very much in play for a spot in the inaugural College Football Playoff.

Taylor rushed 25 times for a career-high 197 yards and two touchdowns -- including an electrifying 65-yard run late in the fourth quarter -- while Jones matched those 25 attempts with a career-best 192 yards and two scores, including a 44-yarder on the first possession of the second half to open a 24-7 advantage.

Together, the Taylor-Jones monster became the first UF rushing tandem to eclipse 100 yards since Chris Rainey and Jeff Demps in 2011 against Kentucky.

IT'S GREAT TO BE A FLORIDA GATOR.

LAST FIVE MEETINGS

2013 | Vanderbilt 34, FLORIDA 17 (Gainesville) Vanderbilt tailback Jerron Seymour scored three touchdowns, UF quarterback Tyler Murphy turned the ball over four times and the Commodores came away with a 34-17 defeat of the Gators in their homecoming game at the "Swamp." The Commodores (5-4, 2-4), meanwhile, snapped a 22-game losing streak in the series and won for the first time in Gainesville since 1945. The defeat also ended a 13-game home winning streak for the Gators. Florida outgunned Vandy in total yards for the game 340-183, but the turnovers were killers. Murphy finished 30 of 46 for a career-high 305 yards, throwing a late touchdown pass of 11 yards to true freshman Ahmad Fullwood, but he also threw three interceptions and fumbled once. Vandy scored on the game's opening possession, the third straight UF opponent to get on the board first, as the Commodores drove 14 plays and 62 yards to a 31-yard field goal from Taylor Hudson. After that, three Murphy interceptions in minus-territory set up a trio of Vandy touchdowns on drives of just 10, 22 and 4 yards, as the Commodores seized a 24-3 barely two minutes into the second half.

2012 | No. 4 FLORIDA 31, Vanderbilt 17 (Nashville) Jeff Driskel scored three touchdowns and ran for 177 yards to lead the Gators to a 31-17 win. Driskel's third touchdown, a 70-yarder, iced the game with 2:20 remaining and came after the hosts had cut the lead to seven. The teams combined for 23 points in a wild fourth quarter. Florida did most of its damage on the night on the ground, finishing with 403 yards of offense, 326 on the ground. Florida had scored 21-straight points to grab a 21-7 lead before the Commodores became the first team to score in the fourth quarter against the Gators on the season. In the third quarter, Solomon Patton raced 54 yards on a fake punt and Driskel scored on a 13-yard run to give the Gators an 18-7 lead. The scoring drive came after UF thwarted a huge drive by the Commodores, who had a first down at the UF 6. A false-start penalty and 14-yard sack by Josh Evans forced Vandy to settle for a 44-yard field-goal attempt instead. The kick was blocked by Earl Okine and recovered by Loucheiz Purifoy at the 38.

PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

The University of Florida is the only school in the Southeastern Conference to have two inductees into the NFL Hall of Fame since 2001. Former Gator running back Emmitt Smith was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, on Aug. 7, 2010, following Gator great Jack Youngblood into the elite fraternity.

A three-time All-American at UF from 1987-89. He set 58 school records in three seasons, including a career rushing mark of 3,928. Following his junior season with the Gators, Smith was a first-round selection in the 1990 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys. He finished his career with 18,355 rushing yards and 164 rushing TD, both of which are NFL records. He was named honorary captain for the 2011 UF vs. Tennessee game.

Youngblood, regarded as the best defensive end in UF history, became the first Gator enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2001. He was named to the All-SEC team of the decade for the 1970s and was the Most Outstanding Player at the 1971 Senior Bowl. He went on to be a five-time All-Pro player for the L.A. Rams. Youngblood appeared in a Rams' record 201 consecutive games and only missed one game in his 14 seasons, that one coming in his final season in 1984.

UF'S LEGENDARY STATUS

NATION'S ELITE

- No other school has captured a national title while facing the nation's toughest schedule. According to NCAA statistics, Florida has done so twice, in 1996 and 2006, and also won the 2008 title facing the second-toughest schedule in the country.
- UF is one of two schools (Arkansas) to face a top-10 strength of schedule five times from 2006-12.
- Florida is one of three schools in the nation to win three outright national titles since 1990. The 2006 and 2008 national championships were decided in the BCS National Championship Game, and Florida was the unanimous pick in all four major polls in 1996. Alabama (1992, 2009, 2011, 2012), Florida State (1993, 1999, 2013) and Nebraska (1994, 1995, 1997) have also won more than two national titles in that time frame, but the Huskers' 1997 title was split with Michigan.
- Florida is one of only two schools in the nation with three quarterbacks to win the Heisman Trophy and one of two schools nationally to have multiple Heisman winners since 1996.
- Florida is the only school in the nation to post 100 wins during each of the last two decades. UF won 102 games in the 1990s and 100 games in the 2000s. UF is one of only three schools in NCAA history to win 100 or more games in two different decades.
- The Gators won at least nine games for a period of 12-consecutive years (1990-2001), something only three schools in major college history have done and no other SEC school has done.
- Florida became one of six schools in major college history to win 100 games during a decade, producing a 102-22-1 record in the 1990s. UF again reached that benchmark in the 2000s, going 100-30.
- UF is the only school in modern major college history to score 500 or more points for a period of four-straight years (1993-96).
- Florida is one of two schools to have a player selected in the first round of the NFL Draft for nine-consecutive years, with a Gator being tabbed each year from 1983-91 (Miami, 14 years, 1995-2008).
- UF is one of only four schools in the nation to have multiple recipients of the William V. Campbell Trophy (formerly the Draddy Trophy), which is presented by the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame to the nation's top football scholar-athlete. (Brad Culpepper, '91; Danny Wuerffel, '96; Tim Tebow, '09)
- UF is the only school in the nation to have a Heisman Trophy recipient who also received the Campbell Trophy. Wuerffel accomplished both in 1996, while Tebow earned the Heisman in 2007 and the Campbell in 2009.

SEC ELITE

- Florida is one of two SEC schools to have three Heisman Trophy winners: Steve Spurrier (1966), Danny Wuerffel (1996) and Tim Tebow (2007).
- UF is one of two SEC schools to win at least 10 games for a period of six-consecutive years (1993-98), something only four schools in major college history have done.
- The Gators are the only SEC team to rank in the top 15 of the final polls for 12-straight years, and only four have done it in major college football history.
- The Gators have the best league record over a 100-SEC-game span, going 87-13 in SEC play from the beginning of the 1990 season through the seventh conference game of 2001.
- Florida is only one of two schools in SEC history to claim four league championships in a row (1993-96). Florida has played in 10 of the 21 SEC Championship Games that have been held, winning seven.

GATORS IN THE PROS

- Florida had 33 players on 2014 NFL opening day rosters, fifth-most among all schools. UF's 7 NFL receivers were tied for the most and its 3 centers were the most from any school.
- Since 1998, Florida has had at least 29 players on opening day NFL rosters each year.
- During the 2013 NFL season, UF had 37 players appear on active rosters, totaling 193 starts and 341 games played.

- Florida has seen 20 former players go on to appear in the NFL's Pro Bowl. Of those, 13 made multiple appearances in the all-star showcase.
- A Gator has earned a Pro Bowl berth in 34 of the past 38 NFL seasons, including 14 of the past 15 and a streak of 11-consecutive Pro Bowls from 1986-96.
- At least one former UF player has appeared in the Super Bowl 28 times. Four Gators have appeared in the big game on two occasions (Super Bowls XXX and XLI).
- Fourteen former Gators have combined to win 21 Super Bowl rings. Don Chandler, Wilber Marshall and Max Starks have each won two, and Emmitt Smith and Godfrey Miles each claimed three.
- Florida is one of two schools (Pittsburgh) that has two players, Emmitt Smith and Fred Taylor, on the top-15 list of the NFL's all-time top rushers.
- Percy Harvin earned Offensive Rookie of the Year for his performance with the Minnesota Vikings in 2009. He then led the team in all major receiving and kickoff return categories in 2010.

HEAD COACH WILL MUSCHAMP

Muschamp, 43, came to UF after being the coach-in-waiting and defensive coordinator at the University of Texas since November 2008. He brought 16 years of coaching experience with him, including 12 years in the SEC, eight as a coach and four as a player at the University of Georgia. Muschamp also served as defensive coordinator at Auburn University (2006-07) and LSU (2002-04; he was LSU's linebackers coach in 2001) and was a finalist for the 2007 Broyles Award as the nation's top assistant coach.

Muschamp also brought a wealth of big-game experience. Prior to arriving at Florida, he coached in two national championship games, winning the ultimate prize in 2003 as the defensive coordinator at LSU, and coached in a third BCS bowl game following the 2008 season, when Texas won the Fiesta Bowl. In addition to his national championship past, Muschamp has coached in the SEC Championship Game twice and in the Big 12 Championship Game once, coming out on the winning side in each of those three contests.

After a 7-6 record in his first season at Florida, Muschamp led the Gators to one of the nation's top turnarounds in year two, finishing 11-2 and playing in a BCS bowl game. Florida improved from a 6-6 regular season in 2011 to an 11-1 regular season in 2012, which marked the biggest one-year leap for the program in 32 years (0-10-1 in 1979, 7-4 regular season in 1980). In addition, the Gators finished 7-1 in the SEC East, tying for the division crown, a year after posting a 3-5 record in the conference. Florida defeated three top-10 opponents for just the second time in school history. Muschamp was named the SEC Coach of the Year by the league's coaches as well as CBSsports.com.

The Gators finished No. 3 in the final regular-season BCS standings in 2012, the third-highest finish in school history, and ranked in the top 10 in both the final Associated Press and USA Today/Coaches' Poll. UF won 11 games for the sixth time in school history, won four of five games against the final BCS top-12 teams and beat seven bowl-eligible teams against the toughest schedule in the nation according to the NCAA.

In his first three seasons at UF, the formula for the Gators' success was to take care of the football, control both lines of scrimmage, finish games, have outstanding special teams and a physical defense. The Florida defense continued to be one of the nation's best in 2012, ranking fifth nationally in scoring defense (14.5 points per game) and total defense (287.5 yards per game). UF's rush defense improved dramatically from year one under Muschamp, limiting opponents to just 94.9 rushing yards per game after allowing 132.7 yards per game in 2011. The secondary also shut down the opposition, ranking as the nation's No. 2 pass efficiency defense (95.55) and allowing just seven touchdown passes, the second-fewest in the nation.

A year after being outscored 86-59 in the fourth quarter, UF posted a 128-32 edge in the final quarter in 2012. That led to a 5-1 record in games decided by one score or less and matched a school-record eight come-from-behind wins. UF improved from -12 in turnover margin to +15 and ranked seventh nationally. Punter Kyle Christy set a school record for average yards per punt, placekicker Caleb Sturgis finished his career as Florida's leader in career field goals made and the special teams unit blocked six kicks in the last eight games.

Muschamp's first season in Gainesville produced the school's 24th-consecutive winning season and its 32nd-consecutive season of .500 football or better, the longest streaks in the nation. With the victory over Ohio State in the TaxSlayer.com Gator Bowl, UF established a school record with its fourth-straight bowl win. Muschamp's first squad will go down as one of the youngest in school history: 15 true freshmen and 52 underclassmen saw action — the second most in school history.

Despite returning 37 combined starts on the defensive side of the ball, the fewest in the SEC, Muschamp's defense ranked second in the nation in third down conversion defense (.273) — the best national ranking in school history. Florida allowed just 166.8 yards per game passing to rank seventh nationally and permitted just 299.5 yards per game to rank eighth nationally.

In his five seasons as an SEC defensive coordinator, Muschamp's defenses ranked among the nation's top 10 in total defense every single year, while always maintaining a top-15 rating in scoring defense, including three times inside the top 10.

In four of his eight seasons overall as a Division I defensive coordinator, his teams allowed less than 100 rushing yards per game and twice led the nation in rushing defense while yielding less than 75 rushing yards per game. His 2003 LSU defense led the country by allowing 67 yards per game on the ground, the best mark by an SEC team in the 2000s, while Texas gave up just 73.1 yards on the ground in 2009 to lead the nation.

From 2008-10 under Muschamp's guidance, the Texas defense ranked No. 1 in the nation with 119 sacks for 949 yards lost. His unit also ranked in the top-10 nationally during the same time frame in several other major categories, allowing 2.9 yards per rushing attempt (third), 96.7 rushing yards per game (fourth), 297.4 yards per game (seventh), all of which are Big 12 bests during that span.

In 2009, the Texas Longhorns advanced to the BCS National Championship Game as Muschamp's defense gave up just 73.1 rushing yards per game, the best figure by any BCS school from 2008-10. The Longhorns also led the nation in 2009 in third-down defense (26.5 percent), turnovers created (37, tied with Ohio University) and interceptions (25) as Texas claimed the Big 12 championship in 2009.

Under Muschamp's tutelage at Texas, Brian Orakpo claimed the 2008 Rotary Lombardi Award (lineman of the year), Bronko Nagurski Trophy (most outstanding defensive player) and Ted Hendricks Award (top defensive end), while the Longhorns' defense saw Sergio Kindle become the first player in college football history to be named a finalist for both the Butkus Award (nation's top linebacker) and the Hendricks Award (nation's top defensive end). Earl Thomas also earned finalist honors for the Jim Thorpe Award in 2009.

In the 2009 and 2010 NFL Drafts, Muschamp had a combined 10 players drafted, including nine in the first four rounds and two first-rounders in Orakpo and Thomas.

As the defensive coordinator at Auburn from 2006-07, Muschamp's defense ranked third in the nation in scoring defense (15.4 points per game) and fourth in the nation in pass defense (170.7 pass yards per game). During the same time frame, Auburn ranked third in the SEC in total defense by holding opponents to 295.1 yards per game.

Muschamp's first full-time coaching experience in the SEC came at LSU as the linebackers coach for the 2001 season before being elevated to defensive coordinator from 2002-04. His 2003 defense helped the Tigers to the national championship by leading the nation both in scoring defense (11.0 points per game) and total defense (252.0 yards per game), while finishing second nationally in pass efficiency defense (89.8) and third in rushing defense (67.0 yards per game). The Tigers allowed just 19 touchdowns all season in 2003, three less than the next closest competitor nationally.

Between his positions at LSU and Auburn, Muschamp spent a season with the NFL's Miami Dolphins in 2005 as Assistant Head Coach for Defense. He helped the Dolphins finish second in the league with 49 sacks, while leading Miami to top-10 rankings in yards per play (4.7, seventh), yards per rush (3.7, seventh) and yards per pass (6.0, ninth).

The 1994 graduate of Georgia moved immediately into coaching following his collegiate playing career, working as a graduate assistant at Auburn from 1995-96, earning his master's degree in 1996. He became a secondary coach at West Georgia (1998) and Eastern Kentucky (1999) before moving on to his first defensive coordinator position at Valdosta State for the 2000 season.

In his playing career at Georgia, Muschamp earned his way from walk-on to scholarship player by the spring of his redshirt freshman season and eventually was named co-captain for his senior season. He also earned a spot on the SEC Academic Honor Roll in 1993.

FLORIDA VS. IDAHO - Declared no contest

August 30, 2014

Ben Hill Griffin Stadium at Florida Field | Gainesville, FL

University of Florida Athletics Director Jeremy Foley and University of Idaho Athletics Director Rob Spear have agreed that Saturday night's game has been declared a no contest and that not rescheduling the game is the only viable option for both programs.

The two schools, however, have agreed to schedule a game in Gainesville for the 2017 season on a date to be determined later.

"We looked at a number of options and, in the end, we both thought it was in the best interest of our student-athletes and football programs to play out the remainder of our respective schedules as they stand," Foley said.

Florida will fulfill the terms of the contract between the two schools and pay Idaho its $975,000 guarantee by February 1, 2015, as outlined in the agreement.

"I want to thank UF, especially AD Jeremy Foley, for the professional and first-class way they worked through this issue and the focus on student-athlete welfare," Spear said. "It was not in our best interest to play 10 consecutive weeks without a bye week. We look forward to our return to Florida in 2017."

FLORIDA 36, KENTUCKY 30 (3OT)

September 13, 2014
Ben Hill Griffin Stadium at Florida Field | Gainesville, FL (Attendance: 88,334)

In a thrilling night game in The Swamp, the Gators outlasted the Wildcats in the first triple-overtime game in school history, 36-30. Matt Jones plunged in from one yard out in the third overtime period to secure the victory after Kentucky's Austin MacGinnis missed a field goal in the first half of the third overtime period. The star of the night was sophomore wide receiver Demarcus Robinson, who tied a school record with 15 catches in the game, totaling 216 yards (4th-most in school history) and two touchdowns. Robinson's 15 catches matched Carlos Alvarez's school record set back in 1969 against Miami. Jeff Driskel rebounded after a shaky first half to finish with a career-high 295 yards and three scores. Meanwhile, the Florida defense stuffed the run and came up with key turnovers to shut down the Wildcats passing attack late in the game. Safety Keanu Neal had two interceptions, including a pick with 28 seconds remaining in regulation to prevent Kentucky from getting into field goal range for a chance to win. Brian Poole also had an interception and broke up a key pass in the second overtime period on a ball thrown into the end zone to hold UK to a field goal.

NO. 2/3 ALABAMA 42, FLORIDA 21

Bryant-Denny Stadium | Tuscaloosa, AL (Attendance: 101,821)

After a back-and-forth first half that saw the two teams combined for five turnovers, Alabama took control late in the third quarter. Coming out of halftime down 21-14, the Gators' Antonio Morrison intercepted a tipped pass and returned it to the Alabama 16 yard line. Two plays later, Jeff Driskel ran it in to tie the game 21-21. The Crimson Tide answered emphatically, with a 16-play touchdown drive that lasted over seven minutes and drained the UF defense. On the ensuing drive, the Gators offense couldn't get anything going and the Florida defense was forced back on the field. The Tide sustained another long drive to go up two touchdowns. Alabama continued to pound away at the tired Florida defense in the fourth quarter and added another score, as Amari Cooper hauled in his third touchdown catch of the day. The Crimson Tide offense finished the day with 645 yards, the most ever allowed by a Gator team. Bama quarterback Blake Sims finished a career-best day with 445 yards and four touchdown passes. Florida's offense meanwhile only mustered 200 yards on the day as they had trouble staying on the field, converting only 2-of-13 third down attempts.

FLORIDA 10, TENNESSEE 9

October 4, 2014

Neyland Stadium | Knoxville, TN (Attendance: 102,455)

A stellar defensive effort and some late offense helped Florida come-from-behind on the road to beat Tennessee for the 10th-straight year. After being held scoreless through the first three quarters, true freshman quarterback Treon Harris entered the game and led the Gators on two scoring drives to give UF a 10-9 victory. The defense did their part all afternoon, limiting the Vols offense to just three field goals and 233 total yards of offense. Tennessee entered the red zone a total of four times on the day and totaled only 9 points as the Gator defense held strong. Running back Matt Jones paced the offense with his second 100-yard game of the season, totaling 114 yards on 23 carries and scoring Florida's only touchdown of the day. Kicker Austin Hardin nailed a career-long 49-yard field goal with 6:20 remaining in the game that proved to be the game winner. Bryan Cox, Jr., had a career day with 3.0 sacks to lead a pass rush that totaled six in the game. The defense limited Tennessee to just 28 total rushing yards on 29 carries on the day.

LSU 30, FLORIDA 27

October 11, 2014

LSU kicker Colby Delahoussaye hit a 50-yard field goal with three seconds remaining as the Tigers escaped with a narrow win over the Florida Gators in Gainesville, 30-27. After a back-and-forth second half, the score was tied 27-27 when Jeff Driskel's pass was tipped and intercepted by Rickey Jefferson and returned to the Tigers' 36 yard line with 24 seconds left on the clock. LSU was able to gain three yards and stop the dock, setting up Delahoussaye's game winner. Florida opened the scoring in electric fashion, as Andre Debose returned a punt 62 yards for his fifth-career kick return touchdown (first punt return touchdown). LSU responded just over two minutes later with a 12 yard touchdown run by freshman Leonard Fournette, who totaled 140 yards on 27 carries and added a second score in the third quarter to give LSU its first lead of the day. Driskel finished with 183 passing yards and one touchdown, which gave UF a lead with 6:10 left in the game. Driskel also led the team with 71 rushing yards on 21 carries and scored on a nine yard touchdown run in the first quarter. The Gator defense limited LSU to 110 passing yards, but gave up 195 yards on the ground and three rushing touchdowns. For the first time on the season, UF did not force a turnover; meanwhile Florida turned it over three times.

MISSOURI 42, FLORIDA 13

October 18, 2014

Ben Hill Griffin Stadium at Florida Field | Gainesville, FL (Attendance: 89,117)

Missouri jumped out to a lead after returning the opening kickoff and never looked back, totaling four return touchdowns on its way to a huge win in The Swamp. Marcus Murphy had a 96-yard return for a touchdown to open the game and the Gators kept giving the Tigers chances to add to their lead. Six Florida turnovers led to 24 Missouri points, including a fumble returned for a touchdown and an interception returned for a score. In addition, Murphy had an 82-yard punt return for a touchdown, giving Missouri four non-offensive scores on the night. The Gator defense did their part, limiting the Tigers to just 119 yards of total offense, including just 20 passing yards. The UF offense couldn't muster anything, failing to score until late in the third quarter after the team was down 42-0. Florida had 283 yards of offense, 135 on the ground and 148 through the air.

GAME 8

FLORIDA 38, NO. 9 GEORGIA 20

November 1, 2014

EverBank Field | Jacksonville, FL (Attendance: 83,004)

With their backs against the wall, the Gators came out swinging and making history. Behind the two-headed rushing attack of Matt Jones and Kelvin Taylor, Florida rushed for 418 yards and beat Georgia 38-20 -- the first win for head coach Will Muschamp over the Bulldogs. Early in the second quarter, wide receiver Mike McNeely took the snap on a 4th-and-9 and raced to the right on a fake field goal for a 21-yard touchdown, tying the game at 7-7. With the momentum swinging in their favor, the Gators scored 31-straight points and took a 31-7 lead early in the fourth quarter. The running back tandem of Jones and Taylor each nearly rushed for 200 yards, as Jones finished with 192 and two scores while Taylor added 197 and a pair of touchdowns. After tying the game in the second quarter, the Gators' defense locked down and held UGA scoreless on their next eight possessions.
