OPENING KICK

★ Vanderbilt travels to Auburn to take on the Tigers for the first time since 2007.

★ RB Ralph Webb needs 230 yards to break Zac Stacy's school record. Webb leads the league with 1,027 all-purpose yards and has recorded four 100-yard games this season, matching his total from last season. Webb ranks second in the SEC with 106.9 rushing yards per game trailing only Auburn's Kamryn Pettway.

★ LB Zach Cunningham leads the SEC with 85 tackles and is second with 13.5 tackles for loss.

★ KR Darrius Sims brings 2,247 career kick return yards into the weekend and needs only 17 yards to set the team's all-time record.

★ Saturday's game features two teams that like to run the ball on offense with Vanderbilt rushing 58.4% of the time and Auburn running the ball 70.4% of the time on offense.

A Vanderbilt victory would...

- ★ Give VU its third straight win, the team's longest winning streak since 2013.
- ★ Be Vanderbilt's third straight win over Auburn.
- ★ Be the Commodores' first win over a ranked team since 2013.

Last time vs. Auburn

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) -- Luckily for Zac Stacy, he won't be remembered for his last carry on a record-setting day.

Vanderbilt overcame a fourth-quarter fumble by its senior running back, who rushed for 169 yards and a go-ahead touchdown in a 17-13 victory over Auburn on Saturday.

Stacy had 27 carries and became the school's all-time rushing leader but lost the ball on his final rush, allowing the Tigers (1-6, 0-5 Southeastern Conference) to take over at their 32-yard line with 2:24 left.

Vanderbilt (3-4, 2-3) responded by smothering the SEC's worst-scoring offense. Clint Moseley over-shot an open Sammie Coates on fourth-and-13 with 52 seconds remaining.

WEBB CHASING STACY, VANDY RUSHING RECORD

Ralph Webb entered his junior season chasing history and former Commodore Zac Stacy.

Webb started the season

eighth all-time in rushing at Vanderbilt but has moved up to second on the list with his 855 yards rushing in the first eight games of the season - including a career-high 211 yards against Middle Tennessee

- passing Lonnie Sadler,

Jared McGrath, Jermaine

Johnson, Jamie O'Rourke, Carl Woods and Frank Mordica. Webb

broke the all-time school record for rushing attempts against Kentucky, taking over the top spot from Carl Woods.

Webb rushed for 1,152 yards last season - the most ever by a Vanderbilt sophomore - to run his career total to 2,059 yards in just two seasons on the gridiron for VU. Webb's 1,152 yards came up just 41 yards short of Stacy's single-season Vanderbilt record of 1,193 yards set in 2011.

In his two-plus years carrying the ball for the Commodores, Webb already owns the second-most yards in a single-season at Vanderbilt and the eighth-most yards in a single season, set in 2014 with 907 yards a VU freshman record. Webb owns rushing records for sophomores and freshmen at VU already. Stacy set the school record as a junior and followed it up with 1,141 yards as a senior in 2012.

Webb became the first Vandy rusher to top the 1,000-yard mark since that 2012 season by Stacy and just the fifth VU running back to ever cross the milestone. Stacy is the only Commodore in history to post two 1,000-yard seasons.

SIMS CLOSING IN ON KICK RETURN RECORD

Darrius Sims is running up the record book at Vanderbilt in kickoff return yards and needs 17 yards to break the record.

Sims moved into second all-time with a big day at Kentucky and moved closer with a season-best 124 return yards at Georgia.

ZACH THE TACKLER

Zach Cunningham has picked up where he left off the 2015 season, as a tackling machine.

The junior led the Commodores with 12 tackles in the season opener to register his fifth straight game with at least 10 tackles dating back to last season when he made a team-best 103 stops.

He followed up with 10 more tackles against Middle Tennessee to extend the streak to six games and push his total to 80 tackles over his last nine games.

He finally saw his streak of double digit tackle games come to an end with seven solo stops at Georgia Tech.

The junior recorded 10 tackles at Kentucky for his fourth game this season with at least 10 tackles. Through eight games he leads the league in tackles with 85 and is second in tackles for loss with 13.5.

The Pinson, Ala. native finished 2015 in a flurry, racking up 10 tackles against Florida and Kentucky, 14 against Texas A&M and 10 solo tackles against Tennessee.

Sports Illustrated's Chris Burke pegged Cunningham as the 23rd overall pick to the Pittsburgh Steelers next spring in his initial NFL mock draft.

Cunningham has also been named as one of 12 semifinalists for the 32nd annual Butkus Award, given yearly to the nation's best linebacker. He is one of five linebackers from the Southeastern Conference to make the list along with Alabama's Ryan Anderson and Reuben Foster, LSU's Kendall Beckwith and Florida's Jarrad Davis.

IRON WEBB

Junior Ralph Webb has been a workhorse for the Commodores in his two-plus years of action on West End. The Gainesville, Fla. native has started all 32 games of his career and enters the season with the most career starts on the VU roster.

Webb has also carried the rock for the Dores, racking up a school-record 663 carries in his time on West End, including a single-season, school-record 277 last year.

On the other side of the ball, senior Adam Butler has the most career starts with 31. Will Holden holds the second-most career starts behind Webb on offense with 30.

GROUND GAME

Saturday's trip to Auburn will be Vanderbilt's first since 2007 and feature two of the Southeastern Conference's best running backs.

Vanderbilt enters the weekend averaging 162.9 yards per game on the ground led by Ralph Webb. The junior ranks second in the league with 106.9 yards per game to lead the Vandy running game that gains 162.9 yards per game.

Auburn brings the league's best running game into Saturday that also ranks third nationally at 303.4 yards per game. Kamryn Pettway leads the SEC in rushing per game and overall with 933 yards on the season and averages 133.3 yards per game.

Webb and Pettway rank 1-2 in the SEC in rushing and also in all-purpose yards. Webb leads the way in total all-purpose yards with 1,027 but Pettway's average of 135.3 all-purpose yards per game tops the SEC.

Both teams prefer to run the ball with the Commodores running on 58.4% of the team's offense plays and the Tigers running the ball 70.4% of the time.

Vanderbilt ran for a season-high 358 yards against Tennessee State two weeks ago with Webb (125) and Khari Blasingame (100) each eclipsing the 100-yard mark. The 358 yards rushing was the most for VU since 2012 against Presbyterian, also the last time the Dores had two 100-yard rushers.

PROTECTING THE ROCK

Vanderbilt has protected the ball through the team's first eight games, committing just seven turnovers.

The Commodores' seven giveaways are the fewest in the SEC and have helped the team produce a league-best +6 turnover margin.

Vandy has not turned the ball over the last two games against Georgia and Tennessee State giving VU three games this season with no turnovers, something the Commodores did just twice all of last season. The last time Vandy had back-to-back games without turnovers was 2013 in wins at Florida and against Kentucky. Vanderbilt's three games this season without turnovers is the most turnover-free games for Vanderbilt since 2011.

Through eight games last year the Dores had committed 21 turnovers while just forcing 10 turnovers.

SEC DEFENSE

The Commodores' defense has found its footing in the team's four Southeastern Conference games.

In league games only, Vanderbilt's total defense ranks third behind only Florida and LSU, allowing 318.0 yards. The Dores' scoring defense is even better allowing only 15.5 points per SEC game, trailing only Florida's 15.0 points per game.

Vandy's rush defense ranks fourth (136.5) and the passing defense is allowing 181.5 yards per game to rank third.

Zach Cunningham has led the defense all year and tops the league in total tackles and tackles in SEC games, averaging 13.8 stops per SEC game. His nine tackles for loss in league games ranks third overall.

SURE HANDS

Only two Commodores have caught passes in all eight games this season with freshman WR Kalija Lipscomb leading the way with 20 receptions.

Ralph Webb's 14 catches have been spread over the Dores' eight games with the running back catching multiple passes in five games.

KEEP IT IN YOUR POCKET

The referees will not need to reach into their pockets much on Saturday if Vanderbilt and Auburn continue their trends to this point in the season.

The Commodores are the third-fewest penalized team in the SEC with just 44.9 penalty yards per game. Auburn has been the least penalized team in the league to this point with just an average of 31.4 yards per game.

NOTES FROM TSU

- The Commodores had two 100-yard rushers (Ralph Webb 125, Khari Blasingame 100) in the same game for the first time since Sept. 15, 2012, against Presbyterian. Zac Stacy ran for 174 yards and Brian Kimbrow ran for 137 yards.
- The Dores picked up back to back wins for the first time since 2013.
- Vanderbilt scored on its opening drive for the second-consecutive game and fourth time this season with Blasingame's one-yard run.
- Kyle Shurmur hit Jared Pinkney in the flat for a 21-yard touchdown. It was the longest offensive touchdown of the season and first from outside the red zone.
- The Commodores scored 21 points in the first half. It is the second time this season they have had 20 or more points in the first half. They also overcame a deficit to win for the third time this season.
- Vanderbilt led 21-17 at halftime, marking the fourth time VU has led at the break this year.
- Webb matched the Commodore season long rush with his 49-yard scamper to begin the third quarter. The 49-yard rush matched Webb's season long as well.
- The Commodores did not have any turnovers for the third time this season. They are 2-1 in those games.
- The Dores improve to 6-1 under Derek Mason when they score 30 or more points.
- Caleb Scott earned his first start of the season and the 11th of his career.
- Pinkney broke out for career-highs in receptions (four) and receiving yards (50) against Tennessee State. He also corralled his first career touchdown reception.
- Nifae Lealao recorded his first career sack early in the second quarter. He finished with two tackles and 1.5 sacks for the game.
- Torren McGaster intercepted his first pass of the season and third of his career in the last minute of the second quarter.
- Landon Stokes tallied his first sack of the season in the third quarter.
- For the second-consecutive game this season, Vanderbilt scored on both its opening drives of both halves.
- All five of Vanderbilt's touchdown drives were 70 yards or longer giving them 11 on the season.
- The Dores totaled 501 yards of total offense, the most since Sept. 19, 2015, against Austin Peay.
- The defense responded after a slow start by holding the tigers to 126 yards and eight first downs in the second half.

DEREK MASON: HEAD COACH & DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Head coach Derek Mason is on a very short list of head coaches that also serve as their own offensive or defensive coordinators in college football.

Mason and San Diego State head coach Rocky Long are the only two head coaches in the country that run both the team and the defense. Mason and Long are two of eight college head coaches to serve as both head coach and coordinator joining head coaches that run the other side of the ball with Georgia Tech's Paul Johnson, Massachusetts' Mark Whipple, New Mexico State's Doug Martin, Washington State's Mike Leach, Kansas' David Beaty and Tulsa's Philip Montgomery running their respective teams' offenses.

Mason, Beaty, Johnson and Leach are the only ones to pull double duty at the Power 5 level. Mason and Johnson will put their teams on the field against each other on September 17 in Atlanta when the Commodores travel to Atlanta to take on Johnson's Yellow Jackets.

VANDERBILT COACHES YOUNGEST IN SEC

Vanderbilt's coaching staff has skewed much younger this year under Derek Mason in his third season. During the offseason, Mason hired former Vanderbilt All-SEC LB and 27-year-old Chris Marve to coach the team's linebackers and former Oklahoma DL and 34-year-old C.J. Ah You to coach the Commodores' defensive line. Adding Marve and Ah You to the coaching staff dropped the Dore's average age on the coaching staff to 41.6. Mason's staff is the youngest staff in the Southeastern Conference, narrowly in front of South Carolina's new coaching staff. Marve and Ah You join Marc Mattioli (29), Cortez Hankton (35) and new offensive line coach Cameron Norcross (39) as VU coaches to begin the season under 40-years-old.

The SEC by average age (44.5) is the second-youngest league among the Power 5 conferences led by the Atlantic Coast Conference with an average coach age of 43.9. The SEC is in front of the Pac-12 (44.7), Big 12 (44.7) and the Big 10 (45.1).

after suffering a concussion. Nehemiah Mitchell started seven games last year as a linebacker but has made the move to the defensive line and joins Adam Butler and Nifae Lealao up front for the Dore's D. The Vandy secondary returns nearly intact with the return of three starters. Torren McGaster, Tre Herndon and Oren Burks are all back with Burks transitioning into the created Star position in Mason's defense. Burks will now serve as a hybrid safety-linebacker.

LOADS OF EXPERIENCE BACK FOR VU IN '16

The Vanderbilt roster is loaded with experience coming into the 2016 season with eight returning starters on offense, seven on defense and kicker Tommy Openshaw back. The Commodores' skill positions return virtually everyone from a year ago led by QB Kyle Shurmur. The now sophomore quarterback led Vandy to Southeastern Conference wins over Missouri and Kentucky as part of his five-game starting stretch as a true freshman. Ralph Webb is back after a record-setting sophomore campaign that saw him rush for more yards than any Vanderbilt sophomore in history with 1152 yards. The receiving corps welcomes back Trent Sherfield, Darrius Sims and Caleb Scott while the line has Barrett Gouger, Bailey Granier and Will Holden back up front.

Defensively, Vanderbilt is happy to have first team All-SEC LB Zach Cunningham back in the middle of the defense. The now junior led VU with 103 tackles last year as a sophomore and will get more help this year with the return of Nigel Bowden to the defense. Bowden missed the majority of last year

JELKS, STANKAVAGE SIDELINED FOR SEASON

OL Andrew Jelks and QB Shawn Stankavage will be sidelined for the 2016 season with injuries. It's the second straight season missed for Jelks due to injury and second in the last three years for Stankavage.

Jelks has started 22 games in his career but has not played since 2014.

VU 2017 SCHEDULE HAS SEVEN HOME GAMES

Vanderbilt is set to host seven home games in 2017.

Despite opening on the road at Middle Tennessee, the Commodores will play their most home games at Vanderbilt Stadium since 2014.

The Dore's welcome Alabama to West End for the first time since 2007 and match up with the Tide for the first time since 2011.

Vandy continues its series with local teams Middle Tennessee and Western Kentucky and begin a series with Kansas State. The Commodores and Wildcats last played in 1984, when VU opened the season with a 26-14 win over KSU.

FIVE NEW COACHES ON STAFF FOR 2016

Heading into his third season at Vanderbilt head coach Derek Mason has just one original member of his coaching staff in Gerry Gdowski remaining on the staff. But Gdowski has a new role for the 2016 campaign as the former Nebraska QB now coaches the Commodores' QBs. Former QBs coach and offensive coordinator Andy Ludwig traded spots with Gdowski and now coaches the Dores' tight ends.

Five new coaches have joined the staff in veteran coaches Jeff Genyk, Osia Lewis and Cameron Norcross along with young coaches C.J. Ah You and Chris Marve rounding out Mason's staff.

Genyk brings head coaching experience to the table, having served as the head coach at Eastern Michigan 2004-08. He also has stops as an assistant at Northwestern, California, Nevada and Wisconsin. He joins VU from Northwestern, where he served as a quality control for the Wildcats. For the Dores, Genyk serves as the teams special teams coordinator and running backs coach.

Norcross coached in the Mountain West Conference for 15 years prior to his move to West End, coaching for 11 years at his alma mater, Nevada, and four years at Fresno State most recently. He helped the Bulldogs to an 11-2 season in 2013 and helped Nevada head coach Chris Ault develop an innovative offense for the Wolfpack.

Ah You joins the Commodores from Oklahoma, where he played for Bob Stoops prior to an NFL career. Back with the Sooners, Ah You served as a defensive quality control assistant working with the team's defensive line. He was a seventh round pick of the Buffalo Bills in 2007 but played six seasons with St. Louis, ending his career after the 2012 season.

Marve is no stranger to Vanderbilt having earned All-SEC honors with the Commodores as a LB in 2010 and 2011. Marve led the Dores in tackles in 2009 and 2011, including a remarkable 121 total tackles in 2009 which made him the last Dore to surpass 100 tackles in a season until Zach Cunningham did it last year with 103 tackles. The Memphis, Tenn. native owns three degrees from Vanderbilt.

CUNNINGHAM, WEBB ON PRESEASON WATCH LISTS

Zach Cunningham and Ralph Webb enter their junior seasons with numerous accolades, including being named to a pair of awards watch lists.

Cunningham is on the Bednarik Award watch list after a stellar 2015 that saw him earn first team All-SEC honors. The Bednarik Award is given annually to the nation's best defensive player.

Webb finds himself on the Doak Walker Award watch list. The Gainesville, Fla. native became just the fifth Commodore to eclipse the 1,000-yard mark last season, rushing for 1,152 yards. The Doak Walker is awarded annually to college football's top running back.

BURKS NAMED TO GOOD WORKS TEAM

Oren Burks has been named to the Allstate/AFCA Good Works Team for his accomplishments on and off the field.

As a student, Burks has become a key leader on the Vanderbilt campus. He has been elected president of Vanderbilt's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) for the 2016-17 calendar year after serving as a Commodore football representative in last year.

He is a co-founder of the Revitalizing & Empowering Vanderbilt's African-American Male Population (REVAMP) student organization in 2015, and helped coordinate a series of on-campus lectures and activities during the school year. REVAMP was recognized as the university's top new student organization last spring.

THREE COMMODORES EARN PRESEASON ALL-SEC NOD

A trio of Commodores earned preseason recognition from the league's coaches last week when LB Zach Cunningham and RB Ralph Webb were tabbed second team All-SEC and LB/S Oren Burks was tabbed as a third team member.

Cunningham is coming off a first team All-SEC season as a sophomore last year when he led the Commodores in tackles (103), tackles for loss (16.5) and sacks (4.5).

Cunningham, Webb & Burks

Webb enters his junior season needing 1,085 yards to break

Zac Stacy's all-time rushing record. Webb rushed for 1,152 yards as a sophomore last season - the most ever by a sophomore at Vanderbilt - on a school record 277 carries. Webb holds the record for rushing yards for sophomores and freshmen (907). Stacy holds the record for rushing yards for a junior with 1,193, which is also the school single-season record.

Burks moves into the Vanderbilt defense's new star position this year after posting a solid sophomore season in 2015. He made a career-high 58 tackles and led the Commodores with three interceptions.

The nod from the league's coaches adds to the media voting Cunningham and Webb to their All-SEC second team at SEC Media Days in July.

WELCOME TO POLY-VILLE

The Vandy roster features an island-like feel to it in 2016 with three players coming from Polynesian descent.

Junior Nifae Lealao is the elder statesman of the trio and has been joined by freshmen Josiah Sa'o and Sean Auwae-McMoore. Sa'o plays alongside Lealao on the defensive line with Auwae-McMoore on the offensive line. Auwae-McMoore calls Hawaii home while Lealao and Sa'o both call California home.

Vanderbilt's soccer team joined the Polynesian party, adding freshman Taiana Tolleson to the growing 'ohana' (family) at Vanderbilt.

Even with four Polynesians in athletics on West End, the most famous Polynesian in Nashville remains Heisman Trophy winner and Tennessee Titans QB Marcus Mariota.

LIKE FATHER, LIKE SON

WR Caleb Scott and DB Donovan Sheffield are second-generation Commodores. Both following their dad's collegiate path through Vanderbilt

Scott is the son of former Commodore TE Chuck Scott (1981-84). Scott's dad was a 1983 All-America and two-time All-SEC pick who still ranks T-3rd all-time among Commodores with 20 TD catches, sixth in receiving yards (2,219), and seventh in receptions (145).

Caleb Scott produced his best season at VU last year, catching 24 passes for 339 yards and two TDs.

Sheffield is the son of DB Robert Sheffield (1993-95). Sheffield's dad was a three-year letterwinner at cornerback from 1993-95.

Donovan Sheffield played in six games as a freshman in 2015, making five tackles, including two for loss.

MASON CREATES PLAYER PERSONNEL DEPT.

Head Coach Derek Mason unveiled the program's new player personnel department in early July with an impressive five-member team to be directed by former University of Nebraska administrator and Nashville-area native Austen Everson.

In addition to Everson, who serves as Director of Player Personnel, Eric Lammers is the Director of Recruiting, and Corey Phillips and Donielle White are the Assistant Recruiting Coordinators. Andrea Poole Cain, a veteran staffer, serves as Director of Recruiting Relations.

South Carolina
Sept. 1 | Nashville

NASHVILLE – Will Muschamp had no worries about sending Elliott Fry out for the longest field goal of his career. Even though this was the coach's first game with South Carolina, he had seen the kicker connect repeatedly in clutch situations.

Fry kicked a career-long 55-yard field goal with 35 seconds left, and the South Carolina Gamecocks rallied from a 10-point halftime deficit to beat Vanderbilt 13-10 Thursday night in Muschamp's debut as head coach.

Muschamp started Orth at quarterback and also played freshman Brandon McIlwain. But it was Orth who went back into the game in the third quarter and threw for 152 yards rallying the Gamecocks to their eighth straight victory over Vanderbilt in the Southeastern Conference opener for both teams.

Vanderbilt now is 0-3 in season openers under coach Derek Mason, though his Commodores did manage to score an offensive touchdown in the first half. But Tommy Openshaw missed a 45-yard field goal wide left with 3:44 left, and Vandy turned it over on downs with 14 seconds left.

"Every decision we made will be questioned," Mason said. "The bottom line is we didn't win this game. Now we have to get back to next week and play MTSU."

Fry also kicked a 48-yard field goal in the third quarter, and Deebo Samuel atoned for a fumbled punt in the first quarter by scoring an 8-yard TD on an end-around with 7:30 left. Fry had total confidence he could connect from 55 after barely coming up short from 62 in warmups.

GAME 2

Middle Tennessee
Sept. 10 | Nashville

NASHVILLE – Vanderbilt coach Derek Mason turned the lights out in the locker room for 10 minutes during a weather delay that lasted for an hour, 44 minutes. He wanted his Commodores to picture themselves playing good football.

Aside from a blocked punt on the first play once the game resumed, Ralph Webb and the Commodores did just that.

Webb ran for a career-high 211 yards and two touchdowns as Vanderbilt easily handled the weather delay and beat Middle Tennessee 47-24 Saturday.

"We did what this team hasn't done since I've been here," Mason said. "I mean just responded all the way around."

Vanderbilt (1-1) took control with a 28-point second quarter after trailing 10-5 at the end of the first, the final two TDs coming after the storm. Middle Tennessee blocked a field goal on the first play after resuming the game, setting up Brent Stockstill's 5-yard TD pass to Ty Lee to pull within 19-17.

The Commodores answered by scoring two TDs in a span of 87 seconds, the last a 3-yard TD by Webb giving him 102 yards before halftime. Vanderbilt also forced two turnovers to win its second straight in this series against an in-state rival.

Stockstill finished with 399 yards passing and three TDs for Middle Tennessee (1-1), which was trying to start 2-0 for the first time since 2001.

Georgia Tech
Sept. 17 | Atlanta

ATLANTA – Justin Thomas threw an 81-yard touchdown pass to Marcus Marshall on the first play of the game, Dedrick Mills ran for three touchdowns and Georgia Tech beat Vanderbilt 38-7 on Saturday, holding the Commodores scoreless in the final three quarters.

Mills ran for 58 yards with touchdown runs of 15, 4 and 5 yards. His last two scoring runs came in the third quarter, when Georgia Tech extended a 17-7 halftime lead.

Thomas threw for 136 yards and ran for 84 yards before sitting out the final quarter as Georgia Tech (3-0) remained undefeated against Vanderbilt (1-2) since World War II.

"Today was our day," Thomas said.

The Yellow Jackets gained momentum for Thursday night's visit from No. 5 Clemson as they won their sixth straight game in the series and improved to 12-0-1 against the Commodores since 1941.

Vanderbilt was held to 275 total yards, including 69 yards rushing on 18 carries by Ralph Webb, who led the Southeastern Conference in rushing through two games.

Georgia Tech produced a surprising 222 yards passing, including a late 77-yarder from backup Matthew Jordan to Clinton Lynch.

The Commodores were held to 85 yards rushing while averaging only 2.8 yards per carry.

Vanderbilt coach Derek Mason gave credit to Georgia Tech defenders for looking "sort of like popcorn" as they shed blockers.

GAME 4

Western Kentucky
Sept. 24 | Bowling Green

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. -- Vanderbilt's defense turned away a 2-point conversion play at the end of the first overtime as the Commodores escaped with a 31-30 victory over Western Kentucky on Saturday.

Kyle Shurmur's 5-yard pass to Nathan Marcus on the first possession of overtime gave Vanderbilt (2-2) its first lead of the game, and Tommy Openshaw added the point after for the Commodores.

Western Kentucky (2-2) answered quickly, needing just two plays to find the end zone on Mike White's 8-yard pass to Shaquille Johnson in overtime.

Hilltoppers coach Jeff Brohm elected to go for two points. White rolled to his right, but his pass was deflected into the air off Anthony Wales' helmet and ruled incomplete, as Vanderbilt players rushed the field to celebrate the comeback victory.

Vanderbilt coach Derek Mason was just glad to escape with the victory after his team yielded 501 yards of total offense to the Hilltoppers.

"Defensively, we leaked a lot of oil out there today, but we came up big when we needed to," Mason said. "That was important. When we needed to establish some momentum, we did. The offense got it back and got rolling. The offense kept us alive."

The Commodores went 75 yards in the final 1:02 of regulation in seven plays to tie the game at 24-24 and force overtime. A pass interference call in the end zone on Western Kentucky's De'Andre Simmons against Vanderbilt's Trent Sherfield gave the Commodores the ball at the Hilltopper 2 with three seconds to play in regulation. Vanderbilt running back Ralph Webb, who had three rushing touchdowns in the game, leaped from just inside the 5 and landed just beyond the front edge of the end zone for the tying score.

GAME 5

Florida
Oct. 1 | Nashville

NASHVILLE -- The Florida Gators aren't in the mood to pick apart a road win in the Southeastern Conference, especially after last week's ugly loss.

No matter what they might need to fix.

Jordan Scarlett ran for a 4-yard touchdown with Eddy Pineiro adding a pair of field goals as No. 23 Florida held off Vanderbilt 13-6 Saturday.

"A wise man once said, 'you even have to bring your ugly babies home from the hospital,' and that was ugly," Florida coach Jim McElwain said. "In fact that might have been what someone told my dad when I was born. But I feel really good that our guys found a way to win."

Florida (4-1, 2-1 Southeastern Conference) came up with two interceptions and two sacks on a day where the Gators defense otherwise struggled against one of the nation's worst offenses with three starting linemen missing most of the game.

Ralph Webb ran for 110 yards as Vanderbilt outgained Florida 265-236 in total offense. The Commodores (2-3, 0-2) had a final chance to force overtime until Nick Washington intercepted a Wade Freebeck pass with 54 seconds left sealing the Gators' win.

The Gators never trailed and led 10-3 after Scarlett scored on a 4-yard touchdown run, and Pineiro kicked a 42-yard field goal as the half expired. Pineiro added a 26-yarder with 8:17 left.

Florida had a chance to pad its lead after Vanderbilt punter Sam Loy fumbled the snap and lost the ball with 5:07 left with the Commodores trailing 13-6. But Austin Appleby fumbled the snap on second-and-goal at the Vanderbilt 1 with 2:56 left giving the Commodores one last chance.

GAME 6

Kentucky
Oct. 8 | Lexington

LEXINGTON, Ky. -- Stephen Johnson rushed for a touchdown and converted a big fourth-and-1 play late in the game leading to Austin MacGinnis' 28-yard field goal, while the Wildcats' defense stifled Vanderbilt late to survive with a 20-13 victory on Saturday.

Needing a spark to slow Vanderbilt's momentum after scoring 10 straight points, the Wildcats turned to their ground game led by Benny Snell Jr. (20 carries, 94 yards) and Jojo Kemp with just under 8 minutes remaining. The duo positioned Kentucky to cash in a third and final time on fourth down as Johnson stretched for 1 yard to the Commodores' 19.

Kentucky didn't take a chance on a final fourth-and-1 at the 10, and MacGinnis' kick with 1:38 left provided a cushion that proved huge as Vanderbilt, with no timeouts, quickly drove 59 yards to the 8 seeking at least a tie. But several passes by Vandy's Kyle Shurmur were incomplete, including a fourth-down attempt that went off Kalija Lipscomb's hands with 2 seconds left.

Kentucky (3-3, 2-2 Southeastern Conference) is now halfway toward its goal of a postseason berth. Vanderbilt (2-4, 0-3 SEC) fell short in its quest to give coach Derek Mason his first conference road win.

Kemp added a 4-yard TD run for the Wildcats. Kemp, Johnson and Stanley "Boom" Williams each ran for at least 54 yards as Kentucky gained 258 on 52 attempts.

Most importantly, the Wildcats made huge, timely plays when needed on both sides of the ball to protect a lead that seemed in doubt as the Commodores tried to rally from a 17-3 halftime deficit.

GAME 7

Georgia
Oct. 15 | Athens

ATHENS, Ga. -- Derek Mason finally picked up the sort of victory that should ease some of the heat on the Vanderbilt coach.

Just the opposite for Georgia's Kirby Smart, who is facing plenty of scrutiny after a stunning loss to the Commodores.

Vanderbilt claimed its first Southeastern Conference road win in Mason's three seasons as coach, upsetting Georgia 17-16 on Khari Blasingame's 2-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter and a huge fourth-down stop late in the game Saturday.

The victory set off a wild celebration as the Vanderbilt players raced over to Sanford Stadium's famous hedges to celebrate with a small group of black-and-gold-clad fans.

"I told our young men this morning that if we wanted to do something epic, we needed to make sure we took the fight to them," Mason said.

For Vanderbilt (3-4, 1-3), it was only the third win over Georgia in the last 22 meetings between the SEC East rivals. Mason had dropped his first nine league road games.

"You saw a football team committed to doing one thing, and that's going on the road and getting a win," Mason said. "We also talked about a new season, the second half of the season. We can't do anything about what's behind us, but we could do something about what is in front of us."

Georgia went ahead for the first time early in the third quarter on Jacob Eason's 17-yard touchdown pass to Isaac Nauta. The Bulldogs added their third field goal, stretching the lead to 16-10 with just under 14 minutes remaining.

But Vanderbilt responded with its only extended drive of the game, going 75 yards on eight plays to reclaim the lead when Blasingame powered over with 9:43 to go. The big play was a screen pass on third-and-12 that Ralph Webb took for a 37-yard gain to the Bulldogs 11.

GAME 8

Tennessee State
Oct. 22 | Nashville

NASHVILLE -- Vanderbilt went to its running game to make an impressive comeback against Tennessee State.

After falling behind by three points late in the first half, the Commodores rattled off three unanswered touchdowns en route to a 35-17 win over Tennessee State on Saturday.

"The biggest thing was being ahead of the chains, being good on first and second downs so you don't have to be in those bad situations," Commodores quarterback Kyle Shurmur said. "So if like we're in third and short it's so much better than third-and-8 or third-and-9."

Vanderbilt's Ralph Webb rushed for 125 yards and Khari Blasingame ran for 100 and three touchdowns.

"It felt good just to be out there making plays," Blasingame said. "Those offensive linemen, they really did a good job moving people. Those holes were huge. You could have put a truck through those things."

Shurmur completed 15 of 23 passes for 143 yards and one touchdown, giving Vanderbilt (4-4) its fifth homecoming win in the past six years. Vanderbilt fell behind 17-14 late in the first half before the rattling off three straight touchdowns.

Ronald Butler completed 19 of 30 passes for 285 yards, two touchdowns and one interception for Tennessee State (5-2) in the second all-time meeting between the Nashville schools that are only three miles apart.

"I thought defensively we struggled in the first half," Commodores coach Derek Mason said. "It was a rough start, but offensively, I thought they came on and did a really good job of answering back."

Vanderbilt took its first lead at 21-17 with 1:46 left in the half after Darrius Sims had a 33-yard run to the 3 and Blasingame punched it in to cap a five-play, 78-yard drive.
