What's On Tap

No. 1 Vanderbilt hits the road for the third time in the last four weekends of Southeastern Conference play against Kentucky at Cliff Hagan Stadium. The teams will start the three game set Friday at 5:30 p.m. CT and will continue on the same time on Saturday, before closing things out on Sunday at Noon CT.

Scouting Kentucky

Kentucky is 25-7-1 on the year and 5-6-1 in SEC play after dropping two of three to Tennessee at home last weekend. The Wildcats dropped their first non-conference game of the year to Louisville Wednesday night, 8-1. It also snapped a 36-game non-conference winning streak dating back to last season when the club won a share of the SEC regular season crown.

The Wildcats are a potent offensive ballclub under John Cohen, as they lead the SEC with a .341 batting average with 323 runs scored in 33 games (9.8 runs per game).

Infielder Mike Brown leads the team with a .425 batting average to go along with 12 stolen bases in 13 attempts. Catcher Sean Coughlin is the top power source and run producer with six homers and 49 RBI to go along with a .371 batting average. Eight of the nine everyday starters are hitting above .315 heading into the weekend.

UK will throw southpaws Chris Rusin (3-2, 4.53 ERA) and Andrew Albers (5-0, 3.30 ERA) on Friday and Saturday and righthander Greg Dombrowski (4-1, 4.06 ERA) on Sunday. Righthander Aaron Lovett is the team's relief ace with three saves and 17 strikeouts in 22.0 innings to go with a 3-1 record and 1.64 ERA.

The team sports a 3.92 ERA with 236 strikeouts and 99 walks in 293.2 innings pitched.

Price Approaching School Career Strikeout Record

With 10 strikeouts against Alabama last Friday, junior lefthander David Price now has 346 in his career. He enters Friday's contest against Kentucky five strikeouts away from breaking Mike Willis' school record of 350 set from 1969-72. Of note, Willis achieved the mark in four years at Vanderbilt, compared to Price in three. The fellow southpaw went on to a five year career in the major leagues with the Toronto Blue Jays (1977-81) and finished with a 7-21 record and 15 saves with a 4.59 ERA.

Vanderbilt Career Strikeouts

1. Mike Willis (1969-72)	350
2. David Price (2005-)	346

Commodore Tidbits

Vanderbilt (30-5, 7-5 SEC) are 4-1 in its last five games and have won two of three in the last two SEC series (Alabama, South Carolina) ... The Commodores were one out away from sweeping the Crimson Tide on Sunday, before UA rallied to tie the game in the ninth and win it in extra innings. The loss was the first for the Commodores when leading heading into the ninth (23-0 previously) ... The pitching staff led the way this week with a 1.46 ERA in four games with 35 strikeouts and 22 walks in 37.0 innings. The Does did not allow an earned run to Alabama through the first 19 innings of the series, before they broke through with a solo homer in the second inning on Sunday ... Vanderbilt handed the Crimson Tide their first ever series loss to a No. 1 ranked team (six previous opportunities) ... Junior David Price struck out 10 and pitched a three-hit shutout to lead Vanderbilt to a 3-0 win over Alabama Friday night. The win snapped a four game losing streak to the Crimson Tide. He is the only pitcher to toss a complete game shutout in Southeastern Conference action this season (143 other opportunities). It was the fourth complete game for Price this season (in nine starts) and his seventh double-digit strikeout game in his last eight starts. He is now 6-0 on the year with a 2.50 ERA and has 346 strikeouts in his career, four shy of the school record of 350 set by Mike Willis from 1969-72 ... Mike Minor gave up two unearned runs in 5.1 innings against Alabama on Saturday to move to 5-0 on the year. He struck out three and walked two and now sports a team best 1.88 ERA and 1.17 ERA in SEC play ... Offensively, VU hit .277 on the week with three homers and 14 runs scored (3.5 per game) ... David Macias was 8-for-15 (.533) on the week, including a career best four hits in Wednesday's win over Austin Peay ... Matt Meingasner was 7-for-14 in four games, with all seven hits coming in the Alabama series ... Dominic de la Osa came off the bench to deliver a game-tying RBI double in the ninth against Austin Peay last Wednesday. He served as the DH the whole weekend while recovering from a hamstring strain and hit two homers and a double against the Crimson Tide. He now has eight homers on the year, one short of his career high set last season ... Brett Jacobson threw four innings of shutout baseball against Austin Peay on Wednesday ... The four starting pitchers (Jacobson, Price, Minor, Christiani) allowed three runs, one earned, in 24.2 innings on the week ... Nick Christiani gave up one run, a solo homer, on five hits with six strikeouts and a walk to Alabama on Sunday ... After this weekend VU plays three of its final five conference series at Hawkins Field.

Commodore Outfielders Heating Up

As Vanderbilt heads into the stretch of SEC play, the team is being lead offensively by outfielders David Macias, Matt Meingasner and Dominic de la Osa. All three have been a factor offensively for the Commodores over the last few weeks. Macias has led the way going on a 11-for-20 tear (.550) with three doubles and three runs scored over the last five games. He had a career high four hits in the win over Austin Peay (4/4) and had three more hits in the win over Belmont (4/11). Matt Meingasner has hit .500 over the last five games (9-for-18) with two doubles and four RBI and is coming off his best weekend of SEC play in which he was 7-for-11 against Alabama. He has raised his average from a season low .282 after the Austin Peay contest to .337 heading into the weekend. Dominic de la Osa has hit two homers in the last three games and is now batting .350 entering the Kentucky series. After coming through with a pinch hit RBI single against Austin Peay (4/4), he served as the starting DH for the Alabama series and will be back in the outfield this weekend. De la Osa is 7-for-17 (.412) with two doubles, two homers and three RBI in his last five games.

Commodores Retain No. 1 National Ranking

With the series win over Alabama last weekend, Vanderbilt remained the No. 1 team in the country in four of the five major polls. The Commodores have been ranked No. 1 in at least one of the polls in seven of the last eight weeks.

The Commodores at 30-5 are off to the best start in school history and the team's 20-0 start was the best start of any sport at Vanderbilt. It bested the 17-0 start of the 1993 women's basketball team. The team picked up its 30th win on Wednesday, marking the fourth straight year they have achieved the feat.

The No. 1 baseball ranking joins women's basketball and women's golf as the only NCAA sports to achieve a No. 1 ranking at Vanderbilt. The 1993 women's hoops squad was ranked No. 1 by the AP for six weeks, including the final regular season poll prior to postseason play. The women's golf team was ranked No. 1 for a time in 2004.

Commodores Rally Late To Defeat Belmont 7-6

David Macias scored the game-winning run on a wild pitch in the bottom of the ninth inning to lead Vanderbilt to a 7-6 come from behind win over Belmont Wednesday night at Hawkins Field. Vanderbilt rallied for its 17th come from behind victory and improved to 30-5 overall. With the game tied at 6-6, Macias led off the ninth with a double down the right field line. Alex Feinberg then laid down a sacrifice bunt to second base, allowing Macias to move to third. Feinberg reached as well as the first baseman dropped the throw from second. Carlo Testa (3-2) then intentionally walked de la Osa before throwing a wild pitch to Ryan Flaherty with the

The Commodores trailed 6-4 going into the bottom of the eighth when Dominic de la Osa led off with a single to center. Ryan Flaherty grounded out, moving de la Osa to second and then Andrew Giobbi followed with a RBI triple to left to make it 6-5. Matt Meingasner then laced a RBI single to left to tie the game.

Jonathan White got the 'Dores on the board in the second with a solo homer to right, his second of the year.

Ben Petsch's RBI double in the third extended the lead to 3-1.

The Commodores rallied to tie the game with two runs in the bottom of the fourth. Andrew Giobbi started things with a one out single to left and scored on a RBI double by Matt Meingasner to make it 3-2. Jonathan White's sacrifice fly to right then tied the game.

Kane Simmons solo homer in the top of the sixth put the Bruins back on top 4-3. The Commodores rallied right back in the bottom half to tie the game when Dominic de la Osa singled, advanced to second on a fielding error and scored on a RBI single by Ryan Flaherty.

The Bruins got the lead back in the seventh when Ben Petsch spanked a two-run homer to left off Cameron Betourne to take a 6-4 lead.

Cody Crowell came on in the seventh and pitched 1.2 innings of scoreless, hitless relief. Stephen Shao recorded two outs in the ninth with Casey Weathers (6-2) recording the final out in the frame to pick up the win.

Shea Robin Named To Johnny Bench Watch List

The Greater Wichita Area Sports Commission named junior catcher Shea Robin to the initial Johnny Bench Award Watch List.

Twenty-seven catchers from seventeen conferences were nominated for the award by their coaches. Because the award is given annually to the top division one collegiate catcher, the list will be updated to include other candidates until May 7, 2007.

Robin is one of four catchers from the Southeastern Conference to be on the list, joining Tennessee's J.P. Arencibia, Mississippi State's Edward Easley and LSU's Robert Lara.

The Woodlands, Texas, native is hitting .293 on the season with a homer and 16 RBI. He is second on the team with a .314 batting average in 12 SEC games entering the weekend. The watch list will be narrowed down to ten semi-finalists, whom will be announced May 17, 2007.

Record Watch

With 11 homers this year, Pedro Alvarez is now in 10th place with 33. He needs three homers to move past Greg Smith into ninth place on the all-time list. Alvarez needs 16 more round-trippers to tie Scotty Madison's mark of 49 set from 1977-80.

Commodores Picked To Finish Second in SEC East By Coaches

Southeastern Conference coaches predicted Vanderbilt to finish second in the Eastern Division in a vote done prior to the season.

Two of the 12 league coaches voted the Commodores as their pick to win the regular season championship. South Carolina received seven of the 12 championship votes in the poll and Arkansas received three votes.

The Gamecocks received 63 of a possible 66 points to win the Eastern Division, while the Commodores were second with 54 points.

Arkansas was the unanimous predicted winner in the Western Division with a total of 66 points. Ole Miss, last season's SEC Tournament champion, was second with 53, while Alabama finished third with 47.

Head Coach Tim Corbin

In four seasons at Vanderbilt, Tim Corbin has raised expectations of the baseball program into one that is expected to be among the nations best on an annual basis.

Corbin's success and methods of running the Vanderbilt program has earned him respect among the college and international baseball communities.

This past summer he managed the USA Baseball National Team to a 28-2-1 record that culminated with a gold medal finish at the FISU (International University Sports Federation) World University Championship in Havana, Cuba in August. The .919 winning percentage was the highest ever for a national team and it garnered special recognition by the United States Olympic Committee in September.

Those results were probably to be expected, as Corbin has taken Vanderbilt to heights it has rarely seen in its long baseball history.

His overall record of 144-95 (.602) is the fourth best in terms of wins, and first in terms of win percentage for coaches with 100 games or more.

Last year he guided a youthful Commodore squad to a 38-27 record and sixth place finish in the rugged Southeastern Conference. The team was the youngest team in the league, with seven everyday starters either freshmen or sophomores. For the second time in three seasons, Corbin guided the team to the SEC Tournament Championship game and the young squad also gained valuable NCAA experience after advancing to the championship round of the Atlanta Regional.

The 2006 team posted impressive series wins over College World Series participant Georgia, Super Regional participants South Carolina and Ole Miss, and took series on the road against Florida and LSU. The team handed LSU its worst conference loss at home in school history in the process.

With virtually the entire team back, Corbin knows the expectations are there to build upon that success and take the Commodores to their first College World Series in school history. It is a goal that he and his coaching staff are determined to achieve in the near future.

In addition to on the field successes, the baseball program itself has had significant upgrades to the facilities with a brand new fieldhouse, complete with new locker rooms for players, coaches and Commodore alums playing professional baseball. Also included are coach's offices, a classroom that overlooks Hawkins Field and a new weight room. These recent upgrades reinforce the excitement and commitment made to the baseball program due to the successes Tim Corbin has achieved as well as those he will strive to accomplish in the future.

He has already pushed the program to its most successful season, rewritten a significant portion of its record book, and ascended to the ranks of Southeastern Conference and national powers. For him, such excellence has been a constant in a career that covers two decades in both the collegiate and international baseball ranks.

Corbin, along with his coaching staff, are a tireless group that saw their recruiting efforts pay off last fall as the 2005 recruiting class was labeled the nation's best by Baseball America.

Professional baseball has also taken notice of the program as 29 players have been drafted over the last three years including 13 in 2005.

In 2005, Corbin directed the squad to its second consecutive 30-win season, an achievement that had not been done in over 15 years. The campaign was highlighted with series wins over Alabama, Mississippi, South Carolina and College World Series participant Tennessee.

In 2004, Corbin not only directed the Commodores to their first NCAA Tournament appearance in 24 years, he guided them to their first-ever Super Regional as they swept through the Charlottesville Regional with victories over George Mason, Princeton and host Virginia. In the Super Regional they fell to the eventual national runner-up, Texas, but still carved out a piece of history as the first team in NCAA baseball history to make it that far one year after having finished with a sub-.500 record.

Along the way Vanderbilt racked up a school-record 45 wins, was the only team to rank among the SEC's top five in earned run average (first), batting average (fourth) and fielding percentage (first), and finished with a .703 winning percentage, which was third-best in the highly competitive conference, which sent nine schools to the NCAA Tournament. The Commodores' school-record .978 fielding percentage was second in the nation, and their 30 error-free games were 11 more than the previous season.

Before Corbin was hired as the 21st coach in program history, Vanderbilt had not earned a spot in the conference tournament in a decade. Not only has he led his team there twice, the Commodores made it to the 2004 championship game.

During the 2004 regular season, Vanderbilt swept a series against Mississippi State for the first time. It was one of three conference whitewashes and one of five series' wins in all.

His efforts earned him the 2004 Vanderbilt Coach of the Year award and a nomination for the Nashville Sports Council's Sports Person of the Year. Plus, a school-record five players were named to the SEC All-Tournament team, five players were drafted on the first day and seven VU players in all were chosen in the Major League Baseball Draft, topped by No. 6 overall pick pitcher Jeremy Sowers.

His first Vanderbilt team finished 27-28 overall and 14-16 in the SEC, good enough for second in the Eastern Division. It earned a conference tournament berth with a season-ending sweep of Tennessee capped by a dramatic ninth-inning rally in the finale. The overall and conference victory totals were the most by a first-year Vanderbilt coach and were made more impressive by the fact that the Commodores were 12-5 in one-run games.

That squad set school records for fielding percentage (.972), fewest errors in a season (60), most saves in a season (15) and fewest walks allowed in a season (168) — all of which were bettered in 2004. Three different players earned conference Player of the Week honors (the most for VU in a single season), and the team notched series victories over nationally-ranked conference foes LSU, Auburn and Florida, each of which was ranked among the top 15 at the time.

Plus, on May 6, 2003, Vanderbilt recorded the first perfect game in school history, which was a collective effort instead of the product of one dominant player on the mound. Four different pitchers contributed to the 4-0 victory over Western Kentucky University.

Corbin came to Vanderbilt following nine seasons as an assistant coach at baseball power Clemson.

During his time there (1994-2002) the Tigers had more victories than all but four programs. Clemson won more than 71 percent (434 wins, 172 losses) of its games, captured two Atlantic Coast Conference regular season titles, made nine appearances in the NCAA Tournament and reached the College World Series four times (1995, 1996, 2000, and 2002). The Tigers ended the 2002 season with their ninth consecutive top 25 finish and their sixth top 10 finish since 1994.

Prior to his tenure at Clemson, Corbin was head coach at Presbyterian College for six seasons beginning in 1988. There he restarted a baseball program that laid dormant for several years. He directed Presbyterian College from NAIA to NCAA Division II status and had a 106-138 overall record. Along the way, the Blue Hose made three consecutive appearances in the South Atlantic playoffs (1991-93), and Corbin earned South Atlantic Coach of the Year honors in 1990.
