SEASON SUPERLATIVES

- The Tigers' 88-64 win at Alabama marks Mizzou's 17th win this season. That is the most for Mizzou since the 2006-07 season when the team went 17-14 overall, earning a berth in the NIT Tournament. In fact, Mizzou has as many home wins this season as it did wins last season (13). The Tigers have earned six conference wins this season as well, marking the first time they have done that since the 2005-06 season when Mizzou finished 10-6 in Big 12 play. The Tigers are guaranteed their first winning season since 2006-07 as well as the team continues to show progress under third-year head coach Rob Pingeton.

- A win Thursday over Vanderbilt in the first round of the SEC Tournament would give the Tigers their most wins in a season since 2005-06 (18).

- The Tigers' 65-58 win over No. 14 South Carolina on Thursday marks their second win over a top-15 program this season. The last time Mizzou won a pair of games over top-15 competition was the 2000-01 season when Mizzou advanced to the NCAA Tournament Sweet 16. Mizzou defeated No. 12 Texas and No. 4 Georgia that season.

- The Tigers continue to show improvement as a team under the direction of third-year head coach Robin Pingeton. In fact, if the season ended today, Mizzou would have an improved field goal percentage (.418), more rebounds per game (39.1), more points per game (66.7), more assists per game (15.6), fewer turnovers, more 3-point field goals and more steals. Mizzou is also on pace to outscore its opponents in a full season for the first time since the 2009-10 season.

- The Tigers' win over No. 9 Tennessee marks the first time since Jan. 23, 2010 that a Mizzou team has defeated a top 10 opponent. In 2010 the Tigers knocked down No. 10 Baylor, 70-62.

- Mizzou has made at least 13 3-pointers in seven games this season, an SEC high in 2012-13 as Mizzou owns the top seven team 3-point shooting performances in the SEC this season. Morgan Eye owns two of the top individual three-point shooting performances in the league so far this season as well.

- Despite having one of the smaller teams in the SEC, the Tiger have managed to put together a positive rebounding margin for the season, checking in at +1.9. In fact, Mizzou is a better rebounding team than a season ago despite losing a pair of senior post players in Christine Flores and BreAnna Brock. Mizzou out-rebounded a much bigger South Carolina team, 38-30, last Thursday and pulled in a season-best 53 boards on Sunday at Alabama.

SEC Tournament

2012-13 Mizzou Women's Basketball

• The Tigers lead the SEC in defensive rebounding percentage (70.8) during all games this season and is second in defensive rebounds at 28.6 per game. Mizzou has given up the fifth-fewest offensive rebounds in the SEC this season (354) and has grabbed an SEC-best 858 defensive rebounds. Mizzou is one of just two SEC teams with at least 800 defensive rebounds.

• The Tigers continue to play great team basketball under third-year head coach Robin Pingeton and the numbers prove it. Mizzou has assisted on 467 of their 721 field goals (64.8-percent), an SEC-best this season. The Tigers assisted on 23 of 32 field goals at Alabama on Sunday.

• Despite having one of the smaller teams in the SEC, Mizzou has made a living scoring points in the paint this season. In fact, Mizzou is averaging 24.9 ppg in the paint this season and have eclipsed the 30-point mark in the paint 12 times. In fact, nearly 40-percent of the team's scoring this season has come inside the paint area. In wins, Mizzou is averaging 29.1 ppg in the paint, not a bad mark for a team that has made 253 3-pointers as well.

INDIVIDUAL ACCOLADES

• Three Tigers earned a spot on the All-SEC Teams this week. Bri Kulas was a second-team All-SEC Selection while point guard Lianna Doty earned a spot on the All-SEC Freshman Team. Morgan Eye took home a major conference award as well, being dubbed the Co-6th Woman of the Year in the SEC. In addition, Liz Smith was named to the All-SEC Community Service Team.

• Bri Kulas is averaging a team-best 13.7 ppg in SEC play and 3.4 of those 13.7 ppg have come from the free throw line as she has shown great ability to get to the charity stripe in league play and hit the freebies when she is there. Kulas entered SEC play as just a 65.4-percent free throw shooter, but in SEC play, she is shooting a team-best 82.1-percent from the stripe, third-best in the SEC. She has raised her season average nearly 10 points to 74.6-percent since SEC play started.

• Morgan Eye's 175 career treys put her at No. 2 all-time on Missouri's career three-pointers made list. That trails Alyssa Hollins (226) who played four seasons under former head coach Cindy Stein. Eye's 175 in a two-year span is the best-two year span in Mizzou history, breaking Hollins' mark of 153 set in the 2006-07 and 2007-08 seasons. Eye is averaging 87.5 3-pointers per season in her first two years as a Tiger.

• Morgan Eye has knocked down 95 of Missouri's 157 treys off the bench, while Maddie Stock has also contributed to the number with 31 so far this season.

• Senior center Liz Smith has been a big part of the Tiger offense this season, and a big part of that is due to her increased efficiency. In fact, coming into the year Smith was just a 31.4-percent shooter and averaged a miniscule 1.5 ppg. This season, Smith has flipped the script and is shooting 52.7-percent from the floor while averaging 7.2 ppg. Her rebounding numbers are way up as well as she is grabbing 5.1 boards per game, up from just 3.5 a season ago.

• Lianna Doty has accumulated 55 steals so far this season, which surpasses last season's team steals leader, Christine Flores. Flores tallied 35 steals through 31 games in 2011-12. Missouri's all-time record for most steals in a season stands at 98, set by Amanda Lassiter in the 2000-01 season.

• Doty has also surpassed Kiley Simmons' 2011-12 team-leading 111 assists as she has 144 so far this season.

TIGER TRENDS

• Bri Kulas has been on fire over her last five games, including a career-high 26 points in Mizzou's win over No. 14 South Carolina Thursday. Over her last five games, Kulas is averaging 18.6 ppg on 51.7-percent shooting while connecting on 9-of-16 from distance and 24-of-31 free throws (77.4-percent). She is also pulling in 7.6 boards per game in that span, a team-best.

• Mizzou is fourth in 3-point shooting percentage at 33.9-percent while attempting an SEC-high 746 3-pointers this season. In fact, only two other SEC teams have attempted more than 600 3-pointers (Kentucky, 606; Alabama 632) and Mizzou is the only team to attempt at least 700 3-pointers.

• Mizzou has recorded more assists than 20 opponents in games this season, thanks in part to Lianna Doty who averages 4.8 assists per game.

• Mizzou's bench has been a huge key to the success of the program this season. In fact, the Tiger bench is outscoring the opponents' bench by an average of 6.5 points per game while shooting 38-percent from the floor to its opponents' 36-percent. A big reason for the Tiger production off the bench has been its ability to knock down the trey as Mizzou's bench has hit 157 3-pointers to its opponents' 60.

• Missouri has shot over 40 percent from the field in 19 games this season and grabbed over 30 rebounds in every contest except one. The Tigers grabbed 29 rebounds at Vanderbilt, missing the mark by just one. Mizzou's best outing came against SIU as the Tigers shot 57.7 percent including a whopping 50-percent from the perimeter. The Tigers shot 53.5 percent from the floor against No. 14 South Carolina last Thursday, its best total in SEC play this season.

RECORD WATCH

• The Tigers have now made a school-record 253 three-pointers this season. The previous record was set at 214 by last year's squad. The Tigers reset the SEC regular season record after pouring in 13 from distance at Alabama Sunday. The Tigers surpassed the previous mark of 248, originally set by South Carolina in 1994.

• The Tigers have also run past the previous school record for most threes attempted in a season. The Tigers have attempted 746 treys this season to surpass the school record of 628 set last season.

• Mizzou hit a school-record 18 three-pointers against Auburn. The 18 three-pointers made by the Tigers in the contest are the most ever by an SEC school, shattering the previous best mark of 17 by Ole Miss.

• Morgan Eye tallied three 3-pointers at Alabama on Sunday, matching the SEC regular season record for 3-pointers at 108. She is tied for the mark with Mississippi State's Alexis Rack who hit 108 in 2010. Eye can still break the record on Thursday against Vanderbilt.

• The Tigers' win over No. 9 Tennessee marks the first time Mizzou has defeated a top 10 team since Jan. 23, 2010 when the Tiger beat No. 10 Baylor, 70-62.

• Missouri's victory over the Florida Gators marks head coach Robin Pingeton and her staff's 40th victory at Mizzou.

• Morgan Eye set a new single-game record at Mizzou with her eight threes against UT Martin. The previous record was seven, reached by Julie Helm, Alyssa Hollins and Amanda Hanneman. Her .571 three point shooting percentage also marks an SEC game high record this season. She shattered that record, making 11 three-pointers against Auburn. The number marks the most ever in an SEC league game and also sits just one shy of the best-ever NCAA mark. Her 11 threes are also tied with Washington's Kristi Kingma for an NCAA season game-high.

• Missouri's win over UT Martin marked head coach Robin Pingeton's 370th career victory, and women's basketball's 80th victory in Mizzou Arena.

EYE NAMED CO-6TH WOMAN OF THE YEAR

Eye is the first Tiger to receive a 6th Woman of the Year award, and she is a well-deserving candidate. This season she averaged 13.5 points and knocked down 95 of Missouri's 157 three-pointers off the bench. Eye holds the all-time season three-pointers record at Mizzou (108), and she is currently tied for the SEC all-time record as well.

KULAS JOINS ALL-SEC SECOND TEAM

Averaging a team-leading 14.1 points per game this season, Kulas joins just 14 other Tigers all-time who have been recognized to All-Conference Second Teams. Kulas has started in every game for Missouri this year, becoming a major asset on the court. She has tallied five double-doubles this season, and she leads the team with an average of 6.6 rebounds per game.

DOTY EARNS ALL-FRESHMAN HONORS

Doty is the second freshman at Missouri to be named to the conference All-Freshman team as teammate Kyley Simmons was named to the Big 12 All-Freshman squad last season. Doty has dished out a team-leading 144 assists this year and averages 4.8 assists per game. Those numbers also lead all freshmen in the Southeastern Conference.

SMITH EARNS COMMUNITY SERVICE AWARD

Senior Liz Smith has been recognized by the Southeastern Conference today as a member of the 2013 SEC Women's Basketball Community Service Team. Smith joins the 13 other SEC women's basketball student-athletes on the team. Smith is very active in the Columbia, Mo. community. Smith dedicates much of her time to a learning partnership with Grant Elementary, where she takes time to read and visit with children. Not only that, but Smith has volunteered at Coyote Hill, a local home for abused and neglected children.

NATIONAL RECOGNITION

- Missouri is ranked No. 6 in the country with an average of 8.4 three-pointers made per game.
- Morgan Eye leads the Nation and the SEC with her 3.6 three-pointers per game and is also ranked No. 13 in the nation for her .417 3-point percentage. That clip leads the SEC as well. Eye is one of only two players in the nation to have recorded over 100 treys this season. She is joined by Michigan's Kate Thompson who has made 104 so far.
- Freshman Lianna Doty leads all SEC freshmen in assists per game with 4.8. She is fifth overall in the league and 56th in the nation.

DOTY EARNS FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK HONORS

Freshman Lianna Doty was recognized by the Southeastern Conference on Monday (Feb. 4) after her stellar performances in Missouri's wins over Florida and No. 9 Tennessee. The Tigers went 2-0 that week with Doty's help. She earned her first career double-double against Florida with 11 points and a career-high 10 rebounds in the game. She was just three assists away from a triple-double as she dished out seven dimes against Florida as well. Doty also had a strong performance in Missouri's 80-63 upset of No. 9 Tennessee, tallying seven assists in that contest as well. Doty's 144 assists this season lead all freshmen in the league, and the number is also more than last season's Tiger assists leader, Kyley Simmons, who recorded 111 assists in 31 games.

BENCHMARKS

- Mizzou's bench outscored Arkansas-Pine Bluff's bench 60-8, the largest differential for Mizzou this season.
- The Mizzou bench also outscored Tennessee 34-3, with 26 of those points coming from Sophomore Morgan Eye.
- The Tiger bench is proving to be a great asset as the bench has only been outscored eight times this season.
- In fact, the Tiger bench is outscoring its opponents' bench by an average of 6.4 points while shooting 38.4-percent from the floor to its opponents' 35.0-percent. A big reason for the Tiger production off the bench has been its ability to knock down the trey as Mizzou's bench has hit 157 3-pointers to its opponents' 60. Morgan Eye has made 95 of those 152 threes off the bench while Maddie Stock has made 31.

- Missouri has used at least 11 players in 20 games this season, and the Tiger bench has put up at least 30 points in ten games this year.

SHOOTING THE THREE

- The Tigers have earned a better three-point field goal percentage than opponents in 17 of 30 games this season, and the same 3FG percentage against Ole Miss.

- Missouri is ranked sixth in the country and first in the SEC with an average of 8.4 three-pointers made per game. The Tigers have the fourth-best three-point shooting percentage in the league at 33.9 percent.

- Tennessee and Vanderbilt have been the only league opponents that Missouri has faced this season with a better three-point shooting percentage at the time of the game. The Lady Vols were shooting 34.6 percent from behind the arc, good for second in the league at the time of the contest while Vanderbilt was shooting 35 percent to Missouri's 33.7 percent.

- The Tigers 18 three-pointers made against Auburn stands as a league game-high so far this season, as does the Tigers' 37 three-point attempts against SEMO.

- Missouri's 18 three-pointers against Auburn also marks the most made for any SEC team in conference history.

- Morgan Eye's 11 three-pointers made against Auburn also stands as a record, marking the most three pointers made by a Tiger in a single game, as well as the most made in an SEC league contest. It is also an NCAA game high number this season.

- In fact, the Tigers monopolize the game highs for the league when it comes to three-pointers made as Mizzou has made 13 threes in three games and 14 threes in three games this season, as well as 18 threes in one game. Mizzou has made over 10 treys in ten games.

- Missouri's four three-pointers against Vanderbilt were enough to break the single season record for three pointers at Mizzou (214), which was set last season. Mizzou has made 235 threes so far this year, which is also an SEC all-time season record.

BULL'S EYE

Sophomore sharpshooter Morgan Eye has set several records this season, first setting the Mizzou single-game record with her eight three pointers made in one game. She didn't stop there, however, and made 11 threes in Missouri's first-ever SEC game against Auburn. Her 11 threes stand as the most made in a single game in Mizzou history and also the most made in any SEC league contest. Eye was just one short of the NCAA record. Eye leads the SEC and is currently ranked No. 1 in the nation for her 3.6 three-pointers per game. She is also ranked No. 13 in the nation (and first in the league) for her .417 3-point shooting percentage. Eye has attempted 10 or more treys in 13 games this season, and she is shooting 43.0 percent from the field. Eye is one of only two players in the country with more than 100 treys on the season so far, and her 108 threes this season sets the all-time Mizzou record for most three-pointers in a season. The previous record was 90, made by Alyssa Hollins in the 2007-08 season. It also ties her at the top of the SEC all-time season three-pointers list.

MORE NOTABLES THIS SEASON

- Her 171 career three-pointers ranks her second all-time at Mizzou. Alyssa Hollins is in the lead with 226.
- She is second in scoring among all SEC sophomores this season at 12.6 points per game. She is 13th overall in scoring, just behind of teammate Bri Kulas, who is 9th with 14.1 points per game.
- She leads the league in 3-point shooting at 41.7-percent. Her 3.62 3-pointers per game also lead the league.
- Her 33 points against Auburn are tied for the most by an SEC player this season and are the most in an SEC game this season.
- Eye has made 95 of Missouri's 157 three-pointers off the bench this season.
- She earned her first start against Arkansas, and she started again for the Tigers against LSU, South Carolina and Alabama.

GIRL ON FIRE

Freshman Lianna Doty has made a serious impact on the court so far this season. Doty has accumulated 56 steals this season, which passes last season's team steals leader, Christine Flores. Flores tallied 35 steals through 31 games in 2011-12. Doty also served up 144 assists, flying by Kyley Simmons' team-leading 111 assists last season. Simmons averaged 3.5 assists per game in 2011-12, while Doty is currently averaging 4.8 dimes per game this year which ranks 56th in the nation and fifth in the SEC.

MORE NOTABLES THIS SEASON

- Doty leads all SEC freshmen in assists per game this season. The next best freshman is Florida's Sydney Moss who averages 3.8 assists per game.
- Doty recorded her first double-double against Florida, putting up 11 points and 10 rebounds in the contest. She was just three assists away from a triple double.
- Doty also dished up seven assists in Missouri's historic win over no. 9 Tennessee. Her performance that week earned her SEC Freshman of the Week honors.

LEADING LADY

Senior Sydney Crafton is an important weapon for the Tigers this season. Not only does she have the most collegiate playing experience on the team, but she has proved to be a great asset on the court. In Mizzou's contest against Memphis, Crafton put up her third-career double-double while leading the team in four categories. She racked up 12 rebounds, six assists, two blocks and two steals in the contest. She has led the Tigers in scoring in five games this season as well, including a 20 point performance against Vanderbilt. She has shown great improvement in her game under the direction of Pingeton and her staff. In fact, Crafton is shooting a team-best 54.4 percent from the floor this season despite entering her senior campaign as just a 40-percent career shooter. Her 206 field goal attempts this season aren't enough to rank her among the league leaders, but if she did have enough shots to qualify, she would be second in the league.

DOUBLE DIGIT DIVA

Junior Bri Kulas has been on a hot streak as of late, recording five double-doubles so far this season, two in a row in Missouri's last two contests of the season.

As a matter of fact, Kulas has scored in the double digits in 10 consecutive contests this season. Kulas has put up double digit scoring numbers in a total of 20 games this season, averaging 14.1 points per game.

MORE NOTABLES THIS SEASON

- After scoring career-high 26 points to help Missouri earn its second Top-15 win for the season, Kulas sits at No. 9 in the league for her 14.1 points per game and is No. 13 in the league averaging 6.6 rebounds per game. Her 5.1 defensive rebounds per game ranks seventh in the conference as well, contributing to Missouri's 28.6 defensive rebounds per game.
- A big part of her game as of late has been her ability to get to the free throw line. She is shooting 82.1-percent from the line in SEC play. In fact, she is 55-of-67 in league games this season. That is a vast improvement for Kulas, who entered SEC play as just a 59-percent free throw shooter. Her 67 free throw attempts in league games leads the team.
- Kulas has put up 20 or more points in a team-leading seven games this season.

- Is the first Tiger to make 10 free throws in a single game since Christine Flores made 11 against North Dakota on Dec. 10, 2011.

HOMESTAND COMES TO A CLOSE

Missouri's seven game homestand came to a close with the Tigers' contest against Murray State.

Not only were the Tigers undefeated over those seven contests for a season-best win streak, but the Tigers have averaged a 27.7-point margin of victory and 86.3 points per game. Including games in Mizzou Arena before the Cancun Challenge, Mizzou remains undefeated at home with a 46.3 shooting percentage, holding opponents to just 34.3 percent from the field.

CUNNINGHAM WILL TAKE REDSHIRT YEAR

Columbia native, Lindsey Cunningham, will use a redshirt for the 2012-13 season. She will have four years of eligibility remaining, beginning in 2013.

STOCK NAMED CO-FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK

Freshman Maddie Stock was named the Southeastern Conference Co-Freshman of the Week on Monday after scoring 22 points in just 16 minutes of playing time on Sunday in Missouri's 110-47 win over Southern Illinois. Stock shares the honor with Mississippi State's Sherise Williams who scored a personal best 21 points against Florida A&M on Sunday. Stock proved to be an important weapon for the Tigers on Sunday as she put up 16 straight points in the second half of the game. Stock has reached double-digits in two consecutive games and four times this season. She has also reset her career-best in each of the last two games. Stock shot 88.9 percent against Southern Illinois and made 6-of-7 three-point attempts in the contest. The Tigers finished the game with 110 points, the ninth-most in school history. It also marks the first time since 2005 that Missouri has scored 100 or more points in a contest.

2012-13 Mizzou Women's Basketball

TURN OF THE CENTURY

Missouri's 110 point victory over Southern Illinois marks the first time since playing Murray State on Dec. 3, 2005, that the Tigers have scored 100 or more points in a game. The number also marks the ninth-best in program history and just 11 off of the school record (121 vs. SLU in 1978) while the 110 points are the most by a Tiger team since they scored 111 against Centenary on Dec. 3, 1999. The win also marks the first time since Jan. 2, 2004 (vs. Miami of Ohio) that the team has made 40 or more field goals. The Tigers' win over Southern Illinois marks the Tigers' highest margin of victory this season (63). The previous high came against UAPB (38). The Tigers' 110 points is also the most since the team put up 105 against Murray State on Dec. 3, 2005.

BRINGING THE NINETIES BACK

Missouri's 110-47 win over SIU sets a milestone, marking the first time since 1999-2000 that the Tigers have scored at least 90 points in three straight games. (Missouri earned a 90-57 victory over Eastern Illinois on Dec. 18, 1999 and followed that up with a 91-44 win over Illinois State on Dec. 22. The Tigers also topped UW-Milwaukee 90-47 on Dec. 30.) It is also the first time since 2003-04 that the Tigers have had three games with at least 90 points in the same season. In fact, from 2006 through last season, Mizzou had just three 90 points games.

TIGERS UNDEFEATED IN EXHIBITION PLAY

Mizzou Women's Basketball finished the exhibition season 2-0 with victories over Lindenwood and Lincoln. Newcomers Bri Kulas, Maddie Stock and Lianna Doty displayed their talents in the contests, proving that they will be valuable assets on the court this season.

TIGERS EARN EXHIBITION WIN OVER LINCOLN

Mizzou opened the exhibition season with a 75-50 win over Lincoln University on Oct. 30, giving head coach Robin Pingeton a 3-0 record in season opening exhibition games at Mizzou. Senior Sydney Crafton led the Tigers with what would be a career-high, 28 points. She started the game by making her first 10 field goals, and finished 11-for-12 on the night. Also making a good impression on her first outing was freshman Maddie Stock, who put up double figures for the Tigers. Freshman Lianna Doty saw 22 minutes of playing time and racked up six assists in her first appearance at Mizzou Arena as well.

FRAZIER ANNOUNCES RETIREMENT

The Mizzou Women's Basketball program has announced that senior Kendra Frazier will retire from the basketball program at Missouri. Frazier, who suffered an ACL tear in the spring of 2010, has had several surgeries to repair the injury, however she has not been able to fully recover. Frazier has spent the last two seasons playing a vital role on the Tiger bench and will continue to do so until she completes her degree in December. "The last four years have been a great experience for me," Frazier said. "Even through the most trying times, my teammates and the coaching staff have provided me with an amazing support system. I value the relationships that I have built at Mizzou and the experiences that I have had. This was a difficult decision for me, but I think it is one that will benefit me in the long run. I appreciate Coach Pingeton and my team's support through the decision-making process." Frazier joined the Mizzou Basketball family in 2008 and immediately made an impact on the team. She played in 17 games her freshman season and scored her first career basket against Illinois. She played in 19 games her sophomore season averaging 6.3 points per game.

Missouri 82, Auburn 77

Athens, Ga. - Missouri Women's Basketball opened their inaugural Southeastern Conference season at Georgia on Sunday, falling to the Bulldogs, 77-46. The Tigers drop to 11-4 on the season, 0-1 in conference play while Georgia improves to 13-1 overall, 1-0 SEC. Junior Bri Kulas recorded 14 points in the loss, marking her 10th consecutive double-figure scoring game and her 12th this season. Morgan Eye also put up 13 points in the loss, grabbing four rebounds as well.

Columbia, Mo. - The Mizzou women's basketball team improved to 12-4 on the season and won its 11th straight home game to open the season as it defeated Auburn in its SEC home opener, 82-76, on Sunday afternoon (Jan. 6) at Mizzou Arena. A pair of school and SEC records fell on Sunday as Mizzou hit a school-record 18 three-pointers, led by a school-record 11 from sophomore Morgan Eye (Montrose, Mo.). The 18 three-pointers made by the Tigers on Sunday are the most ever by an SEC school, shattering the previous best mark of 17 by Ole Miss. Additionally, Eye's 11 three-point buckets are also the most ever in an SEC league game and just one shy of the best-ever NCAA mark.

Sunday's win was all about Eye as she scored a career-high 33 points with her school-record 11 three-pointers. She also added four assists and two boards in the win. She led a Tiger offense that connected on 18-of-36 shots from deep. Freshman Maddie Stock (Town & Country, Mo.) added 11 points with three three-pointers while freshman point guard Lianna Doty (St. Louis, Mo.) hit two from deep to cap a well-rounded day for the frosh. In fact, Doty finished with 10 points, eight assist and two boards while connecting on 4-of-5 field goals. Liz Smith (Overland Park, Kan.) tallied 10 points as well and Bri Kulas (Shawnee Mission, Kan.) scored all nine of her points in the second half.

Kentucky 69, Missouri 43

Columbia, Mo.- The Mizzou women's basketball team fell to 12-5 on the season and 1-3 in SEC play after losing to No. 6 Kentucky, 69-43, on Sunday afternoon (Jan. 13) at Mizzou Arena. The loss snapped an 11-game home winning streak for the Tigers, which was their best home start since 2005-06. Sydney Crafton (Jefferson City, Mo.) led Mizzou with 11 points on 4-of-7 shooting on the day.

Aside from Crafton, junior Bri Kulas (Shawnee Mission, Kan.) gave Mizzou a lift, scoring nine points in the loss, while center Liz Smith (Overland Park, Kan.) added eight more points. In fact, Kulas, Smith and Crafton were a big reason why, that despite a glaring height differential, Mizzou tied UK in the paint points, 24-24, on Sunday. The Tigers played good team basketball again on Sunday, assisting on 12 of 18 field goals, led by seven dimes from freshman point guard Lianna Doty (St. Louis, Mo.), just one off of her career-high.

January 31, 2013
Missouri 69, Florida 64

College Station, Texas.- Junior Bri Kulas led the Tigers in scoring on Sunday, for her 14th game in double-figures this season. Despite a strong effort, the Tigers fell to the Aggies, 77-58, dropping to 13-8 overall, 2-5 SEC this season. Freshman Lianna Doty was an asset on the floor as she recorded a career-high eight assists, half of Missouri's 16 assists on the game.

Columbia, Mo.- With the game tied at 64 and 1:30 remaining, senior leader Sydney Crafton scored four straight points to put Mizzou (14-8, 3-5) ahead for good as the Tigers knocked off the Florida Gators (13-9) on Thursday (Jan. 31) night by a 69-64 final. The win for the Tigers marked the 40th victory for coach Robin Pingeton. Both teams battled in the tightly contested game, making huge runs as the squads fought for control until the final buzzer. Florida used a 14-0 run to end the first half with a two-point lead, and Missouri went on a 14-0 run in the second half to regain the upper hand in the contest.

The Tigers were led by freshman guard Lianna Doty, who had 11 points, 10 rebounds and seven assists in the contest. Center Liz Smith also had a huge day with 15 points and six boards, including going 5-for-6 from the line. Again, the team showed depth on the offensive end with seven of the 10 players who checked in for Mizzou registering points, and six players with eight points or more. The victory for the Tigers gives Mizzou its most wins since the 2006-07 season, when the team totaled 17 victories.

2012-13 Mizzou Women's Basketball

February 22, 2013
LSU 78, Missouri 74

February 24, 2013
Auburn 67, Missouri 59

Columbia, Mo.- A 9-2 run by Missouri (15-11, 4-8) in the final four minutes of regulation forced overtime, where Mizzou fell to LSU by a 78-74 final Friday (Feb. 22) afternoon at Mizzou Arena. Missouri never led in regulation, and trailed by as many as 12 points at one point in the game, but claimed their first lead of the game 50 seconds into overtime. LSU responded with a 9-0 run that spanned more than three minutes, sealing the game.

Missouri was led by strong efforts from Liene Priede and Liz Smith, who had 18 and 15 points, respectively. Priede's outburst matched her career high for points in a game, and Smith fell just four points short of her career mark. The teams were close statistically in almost every category, although LSU won the battle of points off turnovers by a decisive 29-10 margin and got to the free throw line 23 times, connecting on 19 of those 23.

Priede's 18 points came on 7-of-11 shooting, including a career-best four 3-pointers, marking the third game this season that she has reached double-figures scoring. She also added four assists and three boards in the loss. Smith was sensational as well with her 15 points, marking the fourth time in the last six games that she has scored in double figures. In fact, she is averaging 10.7 ppg over her last six. Bri Kulas added 17 points in the game. Mizzou assisted on 21 of 28 field goals in the loss.

Auburn, Ala.- Morgan Eye hit six three-pointers in Missouri's 67-59 loss at Auburn on Sunday to surpass the century mark and bring her season tally to 103 so far. Several Tigers had stand out performances in the game, and at the half, senior Liz Smith had already swiped a career-best two steals in the game. Both Bri Kulas (10) Eye (12) had scored in the double figures. Eye was 4-for-6 from behind the arc, while Kulas was a perfect 3-for-3 from the floor at the half. With Sunday's loss, the Tigers drop to 15-13 overall, and 4-10 in league play while Auburn improves to 15-12 overall, 4-10 SEC.

2012-13 Mizzou Women's Basketball

February 28, 2013
Missouri 65, South Carolina 58

Columbia, Mo.- Bri Kulas and Liz Smith turned in impressive performances on senior night, carrying Mizzou (16-13, 5-10) to a 65-58 win over No. 14 South Carolina Thursday (Feb. 28) night at Mizzou Arena. Kulas accounted for a career-high 26 points to accompany 11 rebounds, and Smith tallied eight points with five boards. Liene Priede hit double-digits with 10 points in her final home game as a Tiger, and Sydney Crafton hit 11, including a clutch layup late in the game. The strong team effort led to the Tiger's second victory in a row over ranked opponents, previously knocking off then-No. 10 Tennessee.

South Carolina's latest lead in the game came at 11-10, with 12:24 remaining in the first half. In a hot-shooting performance by the Tigers, the team shot 53.5 percent from the floor and held the Gamecocks to just 32.8 percent shooting. The strong play allowed Mizzou to overcome a turnover deficit of 16-5, largely because Missouri outscored South Carolina 34-14 in the paint.

Missouri 88, Alabama 64

Columbia, Mo.- Missouri Women's Basketball will close the regular season 17-13 overall and 6-10 SEC after Sunday's 88-64 win at Alabama. This is the first 17-win season for the Tigers since the 2006-07 season, and the first that time the Tigers have earned six conference wins since the 2005-06 season when Mizzou finished 10-6 in Big 12 play.

The win was also record-breaking within the league, as the Tigers now have made 253 three-pointers this season, the most in SEC history. The previous record was set at 248 by South Carolina in 1994. Sophomore Morgan Eye also leads the league with her 108 treys this season. She is tied at top of the SEC all-time season three-pointers list as the current record was set at 108 in 2010 by Mississippi State's Alexis Rack.

Junior Bri Kulas led the Tigers in the contest, earning her fifth double-double of the season. She finished with 23 points and a career high 14 rebounds overall as she was 9-of-14 from the field. Both Liz Smith and Liene Priede also finished in double-figures with 11 points each.

2012-13 Mizzou Women's Basketball

#30 MORGAN EYE

- She ranks 13th in the league for her 12.6 points per game. That number puts her second among all sophomores in the league as well, behind Auburn's Hasina Muhammad.
- Leads the team with her .417 three-point shooting percentage, with her 259 three-point attempts and with her 108 three-pointers made. She is one of only two players in the country to have recorded over 100 threes this season.
- Currently ranked No. 1 in the nation for her 3.6 three-pointers per game and is also ranked No. 13 in the nation for her .417 three-point shooting percentage. Those numbers both lead the Southeastern Conference as well.

- Hit a school record eight three-pointers against UT Martin, and also shot 57.1 percent from behind the arc in the contest and shattered that record when she made 11 threes against Auburn on Jan. 6. The number was just one shy of the NCAA record, but stands as the most threes made in an SEC league contest.
- Is the first Tiger to score over 30 points in a game since RaeShara Brown hit the 30 mark at Kansas State in 2011. Before Brown, the last Tiger to put up 30 or more points was EeTisha Riddle in the 2006-07 season.
- Currently holds the school record for three-pointers made in one season (108), as she broke the record originally set by Alyssa Hollins in the 2007-08 season (90) against Mississippi State. She is just three three-pointers away from reaching the SEC record for most threes in a season, which stands at 108, set by Alexis Rack of Mississippi State in 2010. Eye currently ties for fourth on the list with Tennessee's Shanna Zolman.
- Earned her first-career start against Arkansas, grabbing six rebounds in the contest. She has started in three contests for Mizzou.
- Her 171 three-pointers made in her career rank her second all time on Missouri's career three-pointers list. She sits behind Alyssa Hollins who made 226 treys in her career.
- Her 108 three-pointers ties the SEC all-time season three-pointers record for individuals, originally set in 2010.
