BLOGGING POLICY

The following is a set of guidelines that the Vanderbilt University Athletic Communications Office will use as a basis for issuing media credentials to independent online media representatives (bloggers). Overall, Vanderbilt University strives to work with individuals who adhere to professional standards, demonstrate transparency in their operations, and regularly produce quality content. While what follows shall serve as a guideline, they may be altered for certain events when necessary and are subject to regulations set forth by the Southeastern Conference and/or the NCAA.

- Individuals associated with a web-only media outlet may apply for credentials on a game-by-game basis unless otherwise specified. Requests for credentials must be sent via e-mail or in writing to the requested Athletic Communications Director and be received at least three (3) business days prior to the event. Request should include applicant's legal name, company or blog they are representing, a mailing address and website address.
- The Athletic Communications Office requires that a requesting outlet possess its own domain name (.com, .net, etc.) and will not accept requests from sites based on free services (blogspot, wordpress, etc.).
- First time applicants must submit traffic/subscriber data from an independent source in order to be considered. Sites with fewer than 25,000 legitimate unique visitors per month are not eligible for football or men's basketball credentialing. Sites with fewer than 7,500 legitimate unique visitors per month are not eligible for women's basketball credentialing.
- In the interest of protecting the Vanderbilt University fan base, we require that all applicants that give users ability to submit comments and/or place cookies on user's computers supply a privacy policy that describes in full how the data collected through such activities is used or disseminated.
- Athletic Communications seeks to perpetuate the program and sport being credentialled and therefore prefers to work with online media outlets with an established track record covering our school, our conference or the requested sport. In the request, please provide a short summary of previous relevant experience, if any.
- As a general guideline, we would like to work with outlets that have been in continuous operation for at least 3-6 months. Additionally, an average of 3-5 substantive postings per week is expected in season from applicant web sites.
- Obtaining media credentials is an opportunity to interview players and team officials for legitimate media purposes only. Bloggers who are granted access to the press box and other areas inside the venue are expected to act professionally and adhere to all SEC and NCAA-mandated media guidelines at all times.
- The standard of professionalism also extends to content posted on the requesting website, whether posted by the requester, user or other agent. Profanity, racial or sexual comments will not be tolerated from credentialled outlets.
- No credentials will be issued to individuals under the age of 18.
- Vanderbilt University reserves the right of its personnel to deny or revoke credentials without notice and an individual shall surrender their credential upon request for violating the policies and/or safety procedures of security personnel, Vanderbilt University, the Southeastern Conference, or the NCAA.
