DAVIS FLOWERS

51 R-Fr., Linebacker
6-0, 215
Dothan, Ala.
Houston Academy

2008 PROSPECTS Flowers, a walk-on prospect with excellent work ethic, will look to impress coaches as he competes for special teams duty and reserve linebacker role.

2007 Did not play as a first-year walk-on candidate at linebacker.

HIGH SCHOOL Senior captain... Three-year starter at LB, and three-time team defensive MVP... Averaged 16 tackles as senior, earning Alabama 2A Lineman of the Year nomination... Named first team All-State by sportswriters as junior and senior... Played in North-South all-star game.

ACADEMICS Flowers is enrolled in the School of Engineering.

PERSONAL George Davis Flowers, Jr... Son of George and Laura Flowers... Born on Feb. 20, 1989... Dad is a contractor and business owner... Has a older sister, Emily, and younger brother, Lit.

NICK FORTE

61 R-Jr., Off. Guard
6-2, 290
Brentwood, Tenn.
Brentwood Acad.

2008 PROSPECTS After showing progress during productive Spring Practice, Forte moves into preseason camp with a chance to earn reserve playing role at guard. One of the team's strongest players, Forte needs to improve his knowledge of offensive system.

2007 Did not see action in his second year as a walk-on offensive guard candidate... Solid practice squad member, earning team's Offensive Scout of the Week honors after win at South Carolina.

2006 Redshirted as sophomore after joining team in preseason as an invited walk-on, playing offensive guard.

HIGH SCHOOL Started three years on offensive line at powerful private PERSONAL Nicholas William Forte... Son of Will and Debbie Forte... Born Feb. 27, 1987... Native of Nashville area... Has an older brother, Adam... Transferred to Vanderbilt after a year at Auburn University.

TIM FUGGER

42 R-Fr., Def. End
6-4, 255
Oak Brook, Ill.
Montini Catholic

2008 PROSPECTS Talented enough to find a role at defensive end, Fugger's first priority is to stay healthy after struggling with injuries during spring drills. If healthy, Fugger would appear to match any Commodore defensive lineman in natural ability, offering a solid mix of strength, agility and speed.

2007 Did not see action as a redshirt freshman, spending year adding bulk and strength through team's conditioning program... Opened as tight end in preseason, moved to end just before opener.

HIGH SCHOOL Senior starter at TE and DE, helping Broncos to 14th straight 5A playoff berth... Named all-conference as TE... Despite missing final three games, finished with 14 catches for 267 yards and two TDs... As DE, added 61 tackles and sfour sacks... Also lettered in basketball and track as senior... Won conference 100-meter title in 10.8 PR... As sophomore, played football at Bishop Kenny in Jacksonville, Fla.

ACADEMICS Fugger is working toward a degree in Human and Organizational Development.

PERSONAL Timothy Scott Fugger... Son of Karen Fugger and the late Peter Fugger... Born July 1, 1989 in San Diego... Family relocated to west Chicago suburbs from Florida after sophomore year... Has two other brothers, Brian and Mark... Close friends with Commodore TB Ryan van Rensburg while both lived in Jacksonville... Plays the guitar.

JARED FUNK

12 R-So., Quarterback
6-2, 202
Arlington Heights, Ill.
St. Viator HS

2008 PROSPECTS Possessing the strongest throw of the team's four quarterback prospects, Funk sometimes gets forgotten as observers watch the competition, but he enters preseason camp off a solid Spring Practice performance. To force himself into the QB debate with starters Chris Nickson and Mackenzi Adams, Funk needs to show command of the system while playing to his strength as a passer.

2007 Did not see game action as redshirt freshman QB... Served as practice squad quarterback, and earned team's Offensive Scout of the Week honor after Auburn game.

2006 Redshirted as freshman... Served as scout quarterback, taking top offensive scout honors after Arkansas and Tennessee games.

HIGH SCHOOL Captain and three-year starter at QB... Guided 2005 squad to 8-1 record, school's best record since 1986... PERSONAL Jared Milton Funk... Son of Craig and Christine Funk... Born Aug. 13, 1987... Youngest of four siblings; two brothers and a sister... Likes to snowboard... Helped at local homeless shelter and youth basketball camps.

MICHAEL GARCIA

44 R-So., Linebacker
6-0, 235
Jacksonville, Fla.
Bolles School

2008 PROSPECTS After showing that talented walk-ons can play through hard work, effort and attitude, Garcia returns trying to overcome a knee injury that prematurely ended his year.

2007 Energetic walk-on defensive player who suffered season-ending knee injury as playing time looked to expand... Contributed on coverage units with special teams against Alabama, Ole Miss and Eastern Michigan before sustaining injury at Auburn... Credited with a pair of assisted tackles on special teams.

2006 Redshirted...

Joined team as invited walk-on in camp... Earned Defensive Scout of the Week after Tennessee game.

HIGH SCHOOL Senior captain... Two-year starter at linebacker for Florida 3A power... Had 18 tackles and an INT in 2004 state title

GRAHAM

25 R-Fr., Receiver
6-0, 190
Nashville, Tenn.
Whites Creek HS

2008 PROSPECTS Nobody knows for sure how Graham will impact the Commodore football program, but his potential as a playmaker is undeniable. That's a big reason why coaches switched Graham from defensive back to receiver, where the Commodores have a huge void with the departure of All-SEC performer Earl Bennett.

2007 Did not play as redshirt freshman... Participated as a practice scout defensive back.

2007-08 (COMMODORE BASKETBALL) Joined the Commodore basketball squad during Christmas break... Saw increasing action as a reserve guard, developing into a fan favorite with stellar defensive intensity and energy off the bench.

HIGH SCHOOL Senior captain... Started at WR, QB, TB and DB... Named 4A All-State by sportswriters, and All-Midstate by Nashville Tennessean... In 2006, threw for 570 yards and five TDs, ran for 640 yards and 12 TDs, and caught 25 passes... Also posted four INTs – and 15 for career... Returned four kicks for TDs as senior... First freshman in school history to start varsity basketball game... Surpassed 1,500 career points for career, helping team to state tourney in 2006-07... School's first recipient of prestigious Hume Award given by Nashville school system for outstanding accomplishments by a football scholar-athlete.

ACADEMICS Graham is working toward a degree in Secondary Education from the Peabody College.

PERSONAL Jamie Donnell Graham... "JG"... Born Nov. 24, 1988 in Nashville... Has a younger brother, Jamonte... Raised by grandmother, Hattie Graham, following tragic 1996 death of mother, Jamie Denise Graham... An uncle, Whites Creek grad Odell Bradley, was basketball standout at IUPUI... Shelton Quarles, former Commodore LB and Super Bowl winner with the Tampa Bay Bucs, is a Whites Creek alum.

After helping the Commodore men's basketball squad to the NCAA tourney as a true freshman, Nashville native Jamie Graham will attempt to become the Southeastern Conference's only current student-athlete playing football and men's basketball. Graham redshirted during the 2007 football season. He played in 15 basketball games after joining the squad in January 2008.

JUSTIN GREEN

82 R-So., Tight End
6-6, 235
Troy, Ala.
Henderson HS

2008 PROSPECTS After seeing limited playing time as redshirt freshman, Green will see additional minutes as he continues to physically develop. On the field, Green gives the Commodores an athletic tight end with big-play receiving capabilities, though injuries have slowed his progress.

2007 Played in nine games as redshirt freshman, contributing as a pass-catching threat at tight end... Played in nine games... Slowed by leg injury for part of year... Caught four passes for 38 yards... All four receptions came against teams from his state of residence, Alabama and Auburn... Three receptions came in performance against home-state Alabama.

2006 Redshirted as freshman... Participated as scout tight end, earning top offensive scout honor after Tennessee State game.

HIGH SCHOOL First year of prep football came in senior campaign... As WR in spread offense, caught 25 passes for 375 yards and five TDs... Double-digit scorer and top rebounder as center on basketball team... Standout jumper in track & field.

ACADEMICS Green is majoring in Economics from the College of Arts and Science. He is a 2007 SEC Academic Honor Roll recipient.

GREENSTONE

74 R-Fr., Def. Tackle
6-2, 280
Lawrenceville, Ga.
Collins Hill HS

2008 PROSPECTS A strong showing in preseason camp should secure a role at defensive tackle for the redshirt freshman who impressed teammates and coaches as a practice player in 2007. Naturally strong, Greenstone has eagerly taken to coaches' instruction. Greenstone's effectiveness in the interior is likely to blossom as he continues to build strength and bulk in the weightroom.

2007 Did not play as a first-year defensive tackle... Used campaign

CHRIS GRIFFIN

84 R-So., Receiver
6-1, 185
Memphis, Tenn.
Central HS

2008 PROSPECTS A walk-on receiver prospect, Griffin provides the offensive coaches a hard-working practice scout contributor. His route to the playing field likely will come through special teams.

2007 Did not see game action, serving as practice squad receiver.

2006 Did not see action as a freshman walk-on... Participated as scout team receiver.

HIGH SCHOOL Three-year letterwinner... Started at TE and DE... All-Metro TE as senior... Also lettered as thrower in track... Member of National Honor Society.

ACADEMICS Griffin is majoring in Political Science from the College of Arts and Science.

PERSONAL Christopher Bernard Griffin... Son of Denise Scott... Born May 6, 1988... One of four children: one brother, two sisters... Older brother, Peter, played linebacker at Stanford.

BRYANT HAHNFELDT

8 Sr., Placekicker
5-11, 185
Nashville, Tenn.
Montgomery Bell

2008 PROSPECTS Fully recovered from a 2006 knee injury, Hahnfeldt enters preseason camp looking to cap his career with the best season in a Commodore uniform. Showing more leg strength than in the previous year, Hahnfeldt improved across the board in 2007. His season looks completely different if a career-long, 49-yard field goal attempt to win the Tennessee game goes a couple inches right. Hahnfeldt is also expected to handle the team's kickoff chores.

More on Hahnfeldt

Hahnfeldt is the third product of Nashville's Montgomery Bell Academy to serve as the Commodore placekicker. Others include the team's all-time leading scorer for kickers, John Markham, and Jeff Owen.

2007 In first full year of competition following knee injury, served as team's primary placekicker and kickoff specialist... Has handled kickoff and placekicking chores for three consecutive seasons... Connected on 13 of 20 field goal attempts, bettering previous single-season high in field goals made (12, 2005)... Hit 28 of 29 extra point attempts... Named team's Specialist of the Week after kicking performances against Richmond and Florida... Finished season with team-high 67 points, one shy of his previous best set in 2005... Season point total is tied for fifth highest single-season total by kicker...

Ranks third all-time among Commodore placekickers with 186 career points, trailing only John Markham (209, 1997-2000) and Ricky Anderson (192, 1981-84)... Ranks fourth among 'Dores with 33 career field goals, behind leader Markham's total of 47... Hit on nine of first 12 field goal attempts before struggling with leg muscle strain during last four games... Matched single-game career high with three field goals in victory over Eastern Michigan, including a season long of 45 yards... Also credited with four tackles on kickoff coverage.

2006 Served as team's primary placekicker after battling back from off-season knee injury... Provided one of the top Commodore highlights in recent years, kicking a 33-yard field goal in the closing seconds to secure 24-22 win at Georgia... Working with a new snapper and holder, converted on eight of 17 field goals, and 27 of 29 extra points... Ranked second in scoring on team to QB Chris Nickson with 51 points... Hit seven of first 12 field goal tries, including a career long of 51 yards against Temple, then finished by making just one of last five FG attempts... Untimely wind left game-winning 48-yard FG attempt just short against Arkansas... Hit three of seven FGs beyond 40 yards, but struggled in 30-39 yard range, converting just two of six attempts.

2005 Served as Commodores' primary placekicker and punter as true freshman... Named All-SEC Freshman by coaches ballot... Earned team's postseason Special Teams Player of the Year... Topped Commodores in scoring with 68 points, converting 12 of 17 field goals and 32 of 33 extra point attempts... Point total was fourth highest by Commodore placekicker, earning Freshman All-American honorable mention status... Only four other placekickers in team history have made more than 12 field goals in a single season... Converted on five of six FGs beyond 40 yards... Single-game career high of three field goals came against MTSU... Earned all-conference as punter, averaging 41.1 yards... Placed 33 percent of punts inside the opponent's 20-yard line... As kickoff specialist, knocked 36% of attempts for touchbacks... Ranked among the leaders in special team tackles with five solo stops... Season ended on sour note, suffering knee injury at Tennessee.

HIGH SCHOOL Three-year starter as kicking specialist for Division II power... Handled placekicking, kickoff and punting chores for MBA... Won Tennessee's 2004 Mr. Football Kicker Award, given for all classifications... Division II All-State selection... Converted on 17 of 22 field goals and 23 of 24 extra points as senior... Three field goal conversions came from 47 yards... 95 percent of kickoffs were not returned... Averaged 39.6 yards as senior punter.

ACADEMICS Hahnfeldt is expected to graduate in May. He is majoring in Human and Organizational Development.

PERSONAL Bryant Campbell Hahnfeldt... Son of Ed and Elizabeth Hahnfeldt... Born April 14, 1987... Three older brothers... Mom is facilities manager; dad works in sales... Started kicking as a seventh grader... Enjoys playing golf... Mentored by former NFL punting great Reggie Roby while student at MBA... Aspires to operate his own restaurant.

2008 PROSPECTS Hensley offers proof that young players can overcome setbacks, and mature into solid student-athletes. Removed from the team early in the 2007 season due to disciplinary reasons, Hensley righted his personal journey, returning to the field in spring drills to play the best football of his career. Early in the Black & Gold Scrimmage, playing with the first unit, Hensley went down with a lower leg fracture. Though doctors believe he will return fully healthy in preseason camp, it represents another setback to clear.

Played OT and on kick conversion units in first four games of season... Suspended final eight games of year by Coach Johnson due to violation of team rules.

2006 Worked as reserve offensive tackle, seeing limited action in seven games... Also participated on placekicking teams.

2005 Redshirted as freshman...

Worked as offensive tackle and guard during fall practices.

HIGH SCHOOL Captain as senior... Started as senior at OT... Started three years at DT... Named All-Area... Selected for Tenn.-Ky. All-Star Game... Earned four basketball letters and three in track and field.

ACADEMICS Hensley is working toward a degree in Human and Organizational Development from the Peabody College.

PERSONAL Michael Eric Hensley... Son of Michael and Kathie Hensley... Born April 3, 1987... Has an older sister... Perfect attendance throughout high school... Participated in Tennessee Boy's State... Selected to represent state at National Student Leadership Conference and 2005 presidential inauguration.

R-Sr., Tailback
6-1, 214
Jefferson City, Tenn.
Jefferson Co. HS

2008 PROSPECTS Jennings returns for his final preseason camp in search of both his sophomore form and the tailback starting role vacated by the graduation of Cassen Jackson-Garrison. Jennings struggled with leg injuries for much of Spring Practice, limiting his effectiveness. Coaches expect the punishing rusher to enter camp fully healthy.

2007 Returned to action after missing the entire 2006 campaign rehabbing a knee injury... Played in 10 games, missing encounters with Ole Miss and Eastern Michigan... Proved a punishing chainmover as rusher in typical one-back set... Shared role with frequent starter Jackson-Garrison and Jared Hawkins... Earned two starting assignments – in win at South Carolina and against Alabama... Finished season with 346 rushing yards on 96 carries - both totals rank second among 'Dore rushers... Returned to action with a 67-yard, 2-TD effort in win over Richmond... Had season-high 70 rushing yards vs. Kentucky... Scored opening TD in win over Miami (Ohio)... Caught first two TD passes of career... Scored the Commodores' last TD at Tennessee with a 19-yard reception from Mackenzi Adams.

2006 Did not play, redshirted due to knee injury from 2005 season.

2005 Started first 10 games of season at tailback before suffering knee injury versus Kentucky that prematurely ended campaign... Shared rushing workload at TB with Cassen Jackson-Garrison... Was team's second leading rusher with 448 yards... Season rushing total marks career best... A punishing runner (3.6 yards per carry) who was best in short yardage situations, rushed for seven TDs... Set career highs in rushing attempts (24) and rushing yards (103) against Ole Miss, helping Commodores to league victory... Also rushed for a team-high three TDs against Rebels, sharing Offensive Player of the Week honors with tackle Chris Williams... In season opener at Wake Forest, rushed for two scores, including the game winner with 1:48 left... Was team's leading rusher against Georgia (84 yards) and Florida (50 yards)... Showed excellent ability as receiver out of backfield, ranking fourth among Commodores with 21 catches, good for 156 yards and a touchdown... Caught six passes in win over Richmond.

2004 Played in 10 of 11 games, missing only the opener versus South Carolina... First collegiate start came at Georgia... Ended with 135 rushing yards on 46 carries... Five rushing TDs topped all Commodore running backs, and ranked second on team to Jay Cutler... Had seven carries for 27 yards in first substantial playing time at Navy... Rushed for 33 yards in win over Mississippi State... Scored first collegiate TD from nine yards versus Rutgers... scored two TDs in finale versus Tennessee.

HIGH SCHOOL Three-year, two-way starter... Senior captain... Earned

Associated Press All-State as LB and RB... Tennessee Mr. Football 5A Offensive Back finalist in 2003... Named All-East Tennessee and Lakeway Region Offensive Player of the Year as senior... In 2003, ran for 1,456 yards, averaging 9.3 yards a carry, and 17 TDs for 10-2 squad that went to second round of playoffs... As LB, contributed 62 tackles and five forced fumbles... Rushed for 973 yards and 18 TDs as a junior, and more than 800 yards as a sophomore... Scored more than 1,300 points as three-year starting guard in basketball.

ACADEMICS Jennings is expected to graduate in December with a degree in Human and Organizational Development.

PERSONAL Jeffery Lynn Jennings Jr... Son of Jeff and Mattie Jennings... Born Sept. 5, 1985 in Johnson City, Tenn... Dad is a technical operator for Lear Corporation... Earned third place finish in two sprint races at U.S. Track Junior Olympics as a 9-year-old competing for Knoxville Track Club... Younger brother, Jordan, ranks among top junior golfers in state.

Birmingham, Ala.
Oak Mountain HS

2008 PROSPECTS One of the team's top coverage defenders on special teams, Johnson enters the preseason wanting to show coaches he should be a viable candidate at the team's middle linebacker position left vacant by the graduation of Jonathan Goff.

2007 Played in all 12 games... Served as reserve linebacker behind

All-SEC performer Jonathan Goff and key member of team's coverage units... Shared team's Specialist of the Week honors after two-tackle effort in narrow loss to Georgia... Also connected pair of tackles in season-opening win over Richmond.

2006 A top contributor on coverage units, Johnson saw action in 11 of 12 games, missing the finale against Tennessee... Earned six tackles, including five solo stops... Saw limited action at OLB... Tackle of Ole Miss returner during opening kickoff was one of team's top hits of season.

2005 Redshirted... Worked as linebacker during fall practices.

HIGH SCHOOL Senior captain... Started at TB/LB as sophomore and junior, then moved to DE/LB as senior... Recorded 295 tackles and nine sacks in career... All-Metro selection... National Honor Society member.

ACADEMICS Johnson is majoring in Economics from the College of Arts and Science. He is a 2007 SEC Academic Honor Roll recipient.

2008 PROSPECTS Entering his second season, Kadri has a chance to command a prominent role at defensive end during preseason drills. Naturally strong, Kadri will only improve as he develops proper technique and leverage.

2007 One of three true freshmen to play for the Commodores, Kadri spelled Curtis Gatewood at DE... Saw action in 11 of 12 games, only missing the Alabama contest... Finished with six total tackles, including five solo stops... Posted two tackles against Eastern Michigan... Added a tackle and quality minutes in victory at South Carolina.

HIGH SCHOOL Senior defensive captain... Worked his way into starting role as DE late in junior season... Earned first team All-Region as senior, accumulating 68 total tackles and three QB sacks... Ended prep career with 17 tackles for loss... Helped Cardinals to berth in 2006 4A state playoffs... Also saw limited action as blocking fullback in goal-line situations and at offensive tackle as senior... Also earned varsity letters in track and field... Tanner, Ala.
Tanner HS

2008 PROSPECTS One of the SEC's top safeties, Langford enters his final season as one of the team's top leaders and most physical players. Voted as the defensive captain by virtually every teammate, Langford has earned their respect by the way he plays and how he conducts himself off the field. Langford, along with fellow safety Ryan Hamilton and cornerbacks D.J. Moore and Myron Lewis, makes up arguably the finest Commodore secondary since the Chavous-Vinson-Battles days of a decade ago. The active team leader in interceptions, Langford possesses all the skills to become an All-SEC performer.

2007 One of most consistent and hardest-hitting Commodore defensive players, Langford had his finest season as the most veteran member of the team's secondary personnel... Started all 12 games at strong safety, and has started all 35 games of his Commodore career... Posted single season career highs in total tackles and defended passes as junior... Ranked fifth among Commodores with 40 solo tackles and 65 total tackles... Tied for second behind D.J. Moore with two interceptions,

More on Langford

Langford is an enthusiastic role model for youngsters. For the last three summers, Langford has mentored kids at the Martha O'Bryan Center, a Christian outreach ministry in East Nashville.

Alabama... Had eight tackles, a tackle for loss and forced fumble in narrow loss to Georgia... Tied previous single-game high with 10 tackles and nabbed interception in loss at Florida... Shared a tackle for loss and netted 10 total tackles in superb performance at Tennessee.

2006 The hard-hitting reputation remained intact as Langford performed well while playing with pain in his second year as a starter in Commodore secondary... Demonstrated superb leadership skills, evidenced by teammates voting Langford as Captain's Award postseason recipient... Gained more postseason accolades as recipient of team's Most Valuable Defensive Secondary Award... Started every game at safety, and enters 2007 season with 23 consecutive starts to his credit... Shared team high for second consecutive season with three interceptions... Also concluded season among team leaders with 36 solo tackles (T-4th), 51 total tackles (3rd), four defended passes (2nd), two fumble recoveries (T-3rd) and six tackles for loss (T-5th)... Posted at least four tackles in seven of last eight games... Shared team's Defensive Player of the Week honors for effort in win over Temple... Added seven tackles and an interception at Ole Miss, then received second Defensive Player of the Week recognition for five tackle/one tions, upping his career total to a team-high eight INTs... Only player to earn share of Defensive Player of the Week honors on three occasions; recognized after performances against Georgia, Florida and Tennessee... Notched at least three tackles in 10 of 12 games... Produced five tackles and an interception against fumble recovery performance against South Carolina... Also contributed eight tackles, a season high, in Commodore win at Georgia.

2005 First-year starter at safety put together one of the team's most consistent seasons by secondary player... Shared team's postseason Defensive Back MVP honors with Andrew Pace... Started every game at free safety in first collegiate season... Named to All-SEC Freshmen team by coaches, and honorable mention freshman All-American by The Sporting News... Topped squad with three interceptions... Tied for fourth on team with 44 solo tackles and tied for second with four defended passes... Achieved 54 total tackles, three tackles for loss, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery... Had at least four tackles in nine games... Posted nine tackles, forced fumble and INT in outstanding performance against LSU... Effort against LSU, which featured hard hit while defending Tiger pass attempt, earned team's Defensive Player of the Week honor... First career INT came in win over Richmond... Interception ended first Tennessee drive of second half in 'Dore win.

2004 Redshirted. Named scout team Defensive Player of the Week on six different occasions.

HIGH SCHOOL Two-time captain... Three-year starter at RB and safety... Named to Birmingham News' Super 2A First Team All-State as senior, Dacula Daily's 1A-3A Player of the Year... As senior, rushed for 1,459 yards and 30 TDs, leading team to 10-2 record and state playoffs... Also ontributed three INTs and 59 tackles... Rushed for 1,351 yards and 15 TDs as junior... All-area in basketball and track & field... Earned school's Scholar Athlete Award.

REILLY LAUER

68 R-So., Tackle
6-6, 275
Gates Mill, Ohio
St. Ignatius HS

2008 PROSPECTS Coaches that graded practice tapes suggest that Lauer made as much progress during spring drills as any offensive player. Though he must continue to add weight and strength, Lauer could become a contributor at offensive tackle.

2007 Played one game at DE... Credited with assisted tackle in win over Eastern Michigan... Moved to OT during offseason.

2006 Redshirted as a freshman... Participated as a scout team offensive tackle, earning Offensive Scout of the Week honors after the Georgia, South Carolina and Florida games.

HIGH SCHOOL Three-year letterwinner for Ohio's prep power... Two-year starter at DE; started at OT as senior... Contributed 71 tackles and five QB sacks on defense... Posted 115 total tackles and nine sacks in career... Also played lacrosse... National Merit Scholar.

ACADEMICS Lauer is enrolled in the College of Arts and Science, working toward a degree in Sociology.

2008 PROSPECTS Lewis developed into a solid contributor as a first-year starting cornerback last year across from All-SEC performer D.J. Moore. Lewis has ideal size for a cornerback, and is blessed with enough speed and quickness to defend the conference's top receivers. Coming off a solid Spring Practice, Lewis should only get better as he develops his strength and gets more game experience.

2007 First-year starter put together superb campaign starting at cornerback across from All-SEC performer D.J. Moore... Impressive play of inexperienced Lewis-Moore duo served as key ingredient to Commodores having one of nation's top-ranked defensive units... Garnered all-conference consideration after ranking among the SEC leaders and topping team with 12 pass breakups, most 2008 PROSPECTS Gaston Miller did as much as any tailback in Spring Practice to make a case for additional playing time. Though small in stature, Miller runs with passion and is tough to get on the ground. As elusive as any Commodore tailback, Miller's presence in the back field would appear to add versatility to the Commodore attack.

2007 After playing as a true freshman, Miller spent the season as a red-shirt... Named team's Offensive Scout of the Week after Alabama game.

2006 Played in final eight games as true freshman... Saw first action in win over Temple, rushing for 58 yards on eight carries... Performance versus Temple also included season-long rush of 19 yards... Finished season with 13 rushes for 70 yards... Also carried three times for 13 yards in finale vs. Tennessee.

MOORE

17 Jr., Cornerback
5-10, 182
Spartanburg, S.C.
Broome HS

2008 PROSPECTS One of the SEC's most electrifying players, Moore is also one of the league's most versatile talents. In 2007, if Moore tried it, he did it with gusto: as a shutdown cornerback, Moore brought a nose for the football and ranked among the NCAA interception leaders; as a return specialist, he posted the team's highest kickoff return average in 50 years; on offense, Moore averaged 13 yards on six touches. The All-SEC performer looks to build on his production as a sophomore as the Commodore coaches looks to keep him involved in virtually every phase of the game.

2007 One of the Southeastern Conference's most versatile athletes,

More on Moore

As a prep senior, Moore was one of South Carolina's most celebrated athletes. The versatile Moore won the state's Prep Athlete of the Year Award in 2005 as a standout in football, basketball and track. A two-time All-State player in football, Moore was regarded as an elite point guard in basketball. In track & field, he captured the AA high jump state title with a leap of 6'6".

Moore put together one of the finest seasons ever by a Commodore defensive back... Started every game at cornerback while serving as team's primary kickoff returner... Named as First Team All-SEC recipient by Associated Press, Second Team All-SEC by coaches... Received team's postseason Defensive Secondary MVP Award... Ranked among SEC and national leaders in several defensive statistical categories, including interceptions, solo tackles, total tackles and defended passes... Finished with six interceptions, tied for the most in the SEC and the highest total by a Vanderbilt player since Leonard Coleman's eight-interception school record in 1982... Also topped the team with 63 solo tackles and ranked second with 83 total tackles and 10 pass breakups... As kickoff returner, averaged 25.7 yards and achieved a team-record 823 yards in kickoff return yardage... After posting 11 tackles and grabbing an interception in opener over Richmond, came back with 13 total tackles vs. Alabama... Named National Defensive Player of the Week after stellar performance – two key interceptions and eight total tackles – leading Vanderbilt to 17-6 road win over South Carolina... Preserved victory over Ole Miss with interception, and gave Commodores extra cushion with fourth-quarter interception and 24-yard TD return vs. Eastern Michigan... Post QB sack, three pass breakups and six solo tackles in win over Miami (Ohio)... Also contributed nine tackles at Florida and 7-tackle, 1-INT effort vs. Wake Forest... Explosive kick returner, posting seven returns of 40 yards or more, including 63-yarder vs. Richmond and 55-yarder at end of Tennessee game that gave Commodores chance for potential game-winning, last-second field goal attempt... Earned team's Specialist of the Week honors after performances against Alabama and Ole Miss... In midseason stretch, gave 'Dore offense added dimension running reverses as WR... Produced 78 rushing yards on six carries, including 39-yard rushes vs. Georgia and Miami (Ohio).

2006 Played in every game as a true freshman, starting nine straight games at CB... Also saw action as a punt returner... Named to All-SEC Freshman squad by coaches... Finished year with 27 solo tackles and 37 total tackles... Shared team lead in fumble recoveries (3) with Curtis Gatewood... After earning team's Specialist of the Week honors in first collegiate appearance at Michigan, Moore posted six total tackles and a fumble recovery in his first collegiate CB start in front of 92,000 fans at Alabama... Was outstanding in win at Georgia, setting career highs in solo and total tackles... Also contributed a fumble recovery that led to points at Georgia... Sealed win at Duke with late INT.

NICKSON

3 R-Sr., Quarterback
6-1, 210
Brundidge, Ala.
Pike County HS

2008 PROSPECTS Nickson enters preseason camp looking for anything besides a repeat of 2007 when early-season injuries affected performance and confidence. Instead, Nickson hopes to return to 2006 form when he displayed a quality arm and quick feet. After putting together a solid Spring Practice, Nickson is expected to compete with junior Mackenzi Adams for the starting job.

2007 Opened season as starting quarterback before injuries and inconsistency forced lineup change... Played in eight games, starting first six contests before Mackenzi Adams became starter... Completed 62 of 119 passes for 763 yards and six TDs... Team's fifth leading rusher with 178 yards and 2 TDs on 58 carries... Opened season by sharing Offensive Player of the Week honors with receiver Earl Bennett in win over Richmond by hitting 19 for 26 passes for 284 yards and career-high four TDs... Also played well in win over Ole Miss, completing 17 of 25 passes for 200 yards while rushing for 57 yards... Passed for two TDs and rushed for 67 yards in win over Eastern Michigan, though also threw for four INTs... Appeared to lose confidence and

More on Nickson

Nickson was an Alabama prep legend, guiding Pike County to the 3A state title in 2003 by accounting for 67 scores, including 42 touchdown passes. He was the state's all-classification Player of the Year in 2003. As a junior, Nickson helped an undermanned Bulldog squad of less than 25 total players advance deep in the state playoffs.

passing accuracy while struggling in losses to Alabama and Auburn... Gave way to Adams early in Georgia outing... Returned against Miami (Ohio) to rush for 42 yards and a TD on 11 carries... Did not play in final three games.
