THE SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

The Southeastern Conference, with its storied 75-year history of athletic achievements and academic excellence, has built perhaps the greatest tradition of intercollegiate competition of any league in the country since its inception in 1933.

The 2006-07 academic year was another season to remember for the SEC as conference teams captured eight national titles and five national runner-up finishes. The SEC became the first conference to ever win national championships in football, men's and women's basketball in the same school year. Since 1990, the SEC has won 121 national team championships for an average of nearly seven per year.

Florida won the SEC's first national title of the year with its win in the BCS National Championship Game in football. Auburn for the second straight year took home a pair of national titles in both men's and women's swimming and diving. Florida won its second national championship when the men's basketball team repeated as national champions, and the Tennessee Lady Vols made it a sweep in basketball with their women's basketball national championship. Vanderbilt won its first ever school national championship when the Lady Commodores were crowned national champions of bowling. Georgia capped the year off with a pair of national championships as the Gym Dogs won their third straight gymnastics championship as well as the men's tennis team who finished off a perfect season with a national championship. Florida finished first among Southeastern Conference schools and sixth overall in the Director's Cup final standings.

Overall, the SEC finished in the top two in 12 of its 20 sponsored sports and in the top five in 15 of the 20 sports. Nine SEC teams participated in football postseason bowls with Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, LSU and South Carolina winning the Cotton, BCS National Title Game, Chick-Fil-A, Music City, Sugar and Liberty Bowls, respectively. Five men's basketball teams were invited to the NCAA Tournament with Florida winning its second straight NCAA Men's Basketball Championship. The SEC has now sent at least one team to the sweet sixteen for 18 straight years. Five women's basketball teams were also invited to the NCAA Tournament with Tennessee winning the NCAA National Championship and LSU advancing to the Women's Final Four. The SEC had five teams advance to postseason play in baseball hosting three regionals and one super regional with Mississippi State advancing to the College World Series. With 159 teams advancing to NCAA postseason competition, the SEC continued to solidify its place as the nation's premier conference.

In addition to the eight team championships, 52 SEC student-athletes garnered individual national championships, while 522 individuals were awarded with First-Team All-American Honors. Student-athletes around the league continued to excel in the classroom as well with over 2,000 earning recognition on the SEC Academic Honor Roll.

On the national all-sport level, the SEC placed eleven teams in the top 50 of the NACDA Director's Cup rankings. Florida led the league with a sixth place finish. Tennessee placed seventh while Georgia was 12th; LSU finished 17th, Auburn 19th, Arkansas 31st, South Carolina 32nd, Vanderbilt 33rd, Alabama 43rd, Kentucky 45th and Ole Miss 49th to round out the league's top-50 finishes.

SEC NOTES

* Mississippi State advanced to the College World Series, finishing tied for seventh in Omaha. The SEC earned five NCAA Tournament selections (Arkansas, Ole Miss, Mississippi State, South Carolina and Vanderbilt). Vanderbilt skipper Tim Corbin was the unanimous selection as SEC Coach of the Year.

* The SEC finished the season with five teams ranked in the top 25 rankings, including three in the top 10. Vanderbilt was the nation's top ranked team for most of the season and finished as high as sixth in two polls.

* The SEC has averaged nearly eight games played per year in the College World Series since 1990. In 2004, 12 of the 15 games played in Omaha involved a SEC team. In 1997, the SEC had a team in 13 of the 14 games played in the CWS. Since 1990, an SEC team played in 103 of the 239 games played in the College World Series, an amazing 43 percent of games.

* The SEC has sent nine of its 12 schools to the College World Series since 1990 - Alabama, Arkansas, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, LSU, Mississippi State, South Carolina and Tennessee.

* The SEC bettered its conference attendance record in 2007, with 1.68 million fans attending SEC games. The SEC continually leads the nation in baseball attendance.
