Louisville enters the College World Series at 49-16 overall and riding a five-game winning streak. The Cardinals captured their fourth ACC Atlantic Division Championship in five seasons and earned a national seed for the fifth the increase between the second time in program history and fourth in the last five years.

Two-time All-ACC selection and second round draft pick Logan Wyatt helps lead a Louisville offense that features 11 regulars with a batting average of .283 or higher, while ACC Pitcher of the Year Reid Detmers is tied for the national lead in wins and second in the country in strikeouts on a pitching staff that allowed just one run in the Super Parianete Regionals

Louisville arrives in Omaha as one of the most balanced teams in the country. Of the eight teams still remaining, the Cardinals are the lone program to rank in the top 30 nationally in runs per game (13th), earned run average (18th) and fielding percentage (29th).

LOUISVILLE'S ROAD TO OMAHA

Louisville secured its place in Omaha with a dominant showing against No. 10 East Carolina at the Louisville Super Regional. The Cardinals broke out the bats in the middle innings of the opening game on their way to a 14-1 rout and followed it up with another complete performance in a series-clinching 12-0 victory. Reid Detmers allowed just one run across seven innings in game one, while Bobby Miller carried a no-hitter into the ninth inning of the second game before seeing it come to an end with nobody out in the final frame.

UofL had to battle its way back in the Louisville Regional, winning three consecutive games after falling into the loser's bracket. The Cardinals defeated Indiana and Illinois State to force a decisive final game with ISU, and freshman Alex Binelas sent Louisville to the Super Regionals with a walk-off single in the ninth inning.

The Cardinals are 6-1 in seven NCAA Championship games this season, hitting .320 as a team and averaging 8.1 runs per game. Meanwhile, the pitching staff has compiled a 2.32 ERA and held opponents to a .155 batting average

LOUISVILLE BASEBALL - NCAA CHAMPIONSHIP NOTES

 Louisville has advanced to the College World Series five times in its 13 NCAA Championship berths. The Cardinals are 32-13 in NCAA Regional games, 11-7 in NCAA Super Regional games and 2-8 in College World Series games.

 Making their eighth straight NCAA Championship appearance and the 12th in the last 13 seasons under head coach Dan McDonnell, the Cardinals are 45-28 overall in NCAA postseason games during that span.

 UofL is a national seed for the fifth time in program history, and is one of just two programs to be a national seed four times in the last five seasons.

 The Cardinals were among eight ACC teams in the 2019 NCAA Championship -- Clemson, Duke, Florida, State, Georgia Tech, Miami, North Carolina and North Carolina State, four of which reached the super regionals and three in the College World Series. Louisville is playing in the NCAA College World Series for the fourth time in seven seasons. The only other programs to make four appearances since 2013 are Florida, TCU and Texas Tech.

• Louisville competed against 11 of the other 63 teams in this year's NCAA Championship field during the regular season going 17-10 against those teams.

 Of the other seven teams at the 2019 College World Series, Louisville played against two this season (Florida State, Vanderbilt). The Cardinals were 2-2 in those four games.

 During his previous 14 seasons as a collegiate coach entering 2019, including his final two seasons as an assistant at Ole Miss in 2005 and 2006, McDonnell advanced to 13 NCAA Regionals and nine NCAA Super Regionals to go along with five College World Series berths. • Junior Danny Oriente is 16-for-35 (.457) with four doubles, a homer and 14 RBIs in 11 career NCAA Championship games, and was on the All-Lubbock and All-Louisville Regional teams in 2018 & 2019.

 Junior Jake Snider is 28-for-60 (.467) in 16 career NCAA Championship contests, tallying three of his four career home runs, 15 runs scored and 17 RBIs.
 Snider was the Louisville Regional Most Outstanding Player and on the All-Lubbock Regional Team in 2018.

 Junior Luke Smith tossed 8.1 innings in the victory over Illinois State in the NCAA Regional, marking the longest pitching outing by a Louisville player in NCAA Championship history.

• Six different Cardinals played in the 2017 College World Series. Tyler Fitzgerald, Justin Lavey and Jake Snider each started a game, while Pat Rumoro served as a defensive replacement. Nick Bennett and Adam Elliott each made an appearance on the mound.

*Bracket 1 will be necessary if the winner of Game 9 also wins Game 11. If it is the only game scheduled for that day, the game will tentatively start at 6 p.m. If there are two games for that day, the game will tentatively start at 1 p.m.

2019 MEDIA GUIDE

The 2019 University of Louisville baseball media guide is available online at GoCards.com.

MCDONNELL PICKS UP WIN NUMBER 600 With a win over Illinois State in the NCAA Regional, head coach Dan McDonnell tallied the 600th win of his career.

The winningest coach in program history, McDonnell has averaged more than 46 wins per season in his 13 years at the helm of the Louisville program. Prior to his arrival, UofL's season high for wins was 39. The Cardinals have collected 40 wins or more in 12 of McDonnell's 13 seasons.

ABOUT HEAD COACH DAN MCDONNELL

On June 27, 2006, Dan McDonnell, one of the top young minds in college baseball, was named the 18th head coach of the University of Louisville baseball team. And on June 15, 2007, McDonnell and the Cardinals took the field at hallowed Rosenblatt Stadium in Omaha for game one of the 2007 College World Series.

Not bad for 353 days on the job.

As the first rookie head coach to lead his team to Omaha in 27 years, McDonnell was named National Coach of the Year by Rivals.com after guiding the Cardinals to a then-school record 47 wins during that 2007 season. He followed that impressive debut season by leading Louisville to 10 more NCAA appearances during the next 11 years, including three more College World Series berths in 2013, 2014 and 2017, as well as eight conference regular season titles and two conference tournament championships. Louisville has hosted 12 different rounds of NCAA postseason baseball in the last 12 years with NCAA Super Regionals in 2007, 2014, 2015, 2016 and 2017 as well as seven NCAA Regionals in 2009, 2010, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016 and 2017. McDonnell added his second career National Coach of the Year honor following the 2017 season receiving the award from Baseball America.

In McDonnell's first 12 seasons as head coach, Louisville ranked No. 1 nationally in wins with 554, including a school-record 53 wins during the recordsetting 2017 season. During the 12-year span, the Cardinals have produced a consensus National Player of the Year (Brendan McKay, 2017), 37 All-Americans, 91 all-conference selections, six conference Pitcher of the Year winners, four conference Player of the Year winners and one conference Freshman of the Year. Additionally, the UofL baseball program has generated 76 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft selections in the last 12 years.

The Cardinals finished the 2018 season with a 45-19 record overall after advancing to the final round of an NCAA Regional for the seventh straight year. Louisville registered its seventh straight 40win season and the 11th in 12 seasons under McDonnell. The Cardinals also advanced to the ACC Championship final for the first time since joining the league. Individually, a trio Louisville players earned All-America honors as lefthanded pitcher Adam Wolf was a second team selection and outfielder Josh Stowers and first baseman Logan Wyatt were third team members. Following the season, eight UofL players were selected in the 2018 MLB Draft --Stowers to the Seattle Mariners (second round); Wolf to the Detroit Tigers (fifth round); infielder Devin Mann to the Los Angeles Dodgers (fifth round); pitcher Riley Thompson to the Chicago Cubs (11th round); pitcher Sam Bordner to the Miami Marlins (16th round); pitcher Liam Jenkins to the Cleveland Indians (17th round); pitcher Austin Conway to the Chicago White Sox (31st round); and pitcher Bryan Hoeing to the San Francisco Giants (36th round).

McDonnell graduated from The Citadel in 1992 and later completed his master's degree in business administration in 1995. He is married to the former Julie Anne Underwood of Charlotte, N.C. The couple has two sons, Jake and Justin.

TEAM NOTES AND TRENDS

 Louisville captured its 40th win of the season at Virginia. The program record for victories in a season was 39 prior to Dan McDonnell's arrival in 2007, and the Cardinals have reached 40 wins in 12 of McDonnell's 13 seasons. UofL is one win away from the sixth 50-win season under McDonnell.

McDonnell.
Logan Wyatt, Alex Binelas and Zach Britton each hit home runs in the first inning of the series opener against Florida State. It was the first time the Cardinals have recorded three home runs in a single inning since Justin McClanahan, Chris Dominguez and Andrew Clark went back-to-back-to-back on April 16, 2008 at Ohio State.
The Cardinals pitching staff struck out 23 batters at Indiana. It was the most strikeouts in a game for UofL since at least 2000 and the third-highest total in Division I this season, trailing only Clemson (24) and Georgia (26) from their 20-inning game in April.
The Louisville offense has tallied double digit hits in 32 games this season. The Cardinals are 44-2 this season when they outhit the onnocition.

UofL set program records against Alabama A&M for most runs in a three-game series (61) and margin of victory in a three-game series (54).
The Cardinals have been active offensively in the first inning this season, plating at least one run in the opening inning of 31 games. Louisville has scored 56 first inning runs overall and is 24-7 when scoring in the first.
Louisville swiped a season-high nine bases on March 6 against Eastern Kentucky on Feb. 20, 2013. UofL currently leads the ACC with 106 stolen bases on the year. Louisville has finished in the top five in the country in stolen bases in four of the last six seasons.
In the victory over Morehead State on March 6, the Cardinals set a program record with eight different blavers recording a stolen base.

 The Cardinals are 44-0 this season when leading after eight innings. From 2012-17 Louisville accumulated a six-year record of 266-3 when entering the ninth with a lead, including a 50-0 mark in 2017.

 UofL has won 38 of its 50 ACC series since joining the league and is 41-8 in its series finales during that span, including an 13-5 record in rubber games.
 The Cardinals have won 20 of their 25 ACC series at home since debuting in the conference.
 While at Louisville, coach Dan McDonnell has guided the Cardinals to five College World Series berths, eight NCAA Super Regional appearances, 12 NCAA Regional bids, nine regular season conference championehins and two conference title with 38 All.Americans season conference championships and two conference tournament titles with 38 All-Americans.

PLAYER NOTES AND TRENDS

Danny Oriente and Jake Snider each hit their first home run of the season during the NCAA Regional. The Cardinals have 15 different players with at least one long ball on the season.
 Alex Binelas hit his 10th home run of the season at Virginia. He is the first freshman to reach double digit home runs since Chris Dominguez hit 15 as a redshirt-freshman in 2007.
 Tyler Fitzgerald ranked fourth in the country among shortstops with 60 RBIs during the regular season, trailing New Mexico State's Joey Ortiz (84), Vanderbilt's Ethan Paul (67) and Bryant's Jimmy Titus (62).

The Cardinals finished with eight players selected for the fourth consecutive year and fifth time in the last six years.

BINELAS GARNERS FRESHMAN ALL-AMERICA LAURELS

Third baseman Alex Binelas was named a freshman All-American by Collegiate Baseball Newspaper and the NCBWA. He is the 17th player in program history to pick up freshman All-America honors and the 14th under head coach Dan McDonnell.

The Oak Creek, Wisconsin, native has been a driving force in the middle of the Louisville lineup, hitting .307 with 14 home runs and 59 RBIs. His 14 home runs lead the Cardinals and he is the first UofL freshman to reach double digits in home runs since Chris Dominguez did so as a redshirt freshman in 2007.

Binelas had one of his many shining moments in the NCAA Regional final, singling with the bases loaded in the bottom of the ninth inning in a tie game to send the Cardinals into this week's Super Regional. He finished with six hits in the regional round and was named to the All-Louisville Regional team.

DETMERS SETS SINGLE-SEASON STRIKEOUT RECORD

Sophomore Reid Detmers has littered his name throughout the record book throughout the 2019 season. He etched his name to the top of the single-season strikeout list in game two of the NCAA Regional against Illinois State with a second inning punchout.

Detmers closed out the game with 11 strikeouts, giving him 156 for his career and surpassing the former top mark of 146 held by 2017 Golden Spikes Award Winner Brendan McKay.

With 162 after his start in the Super Regional, the Chatham, Illinois, native is just three strikeouts away from cracking the top five on the ACC's single-season chart.

LOUISVILLE CLAIMS FOURTH ACC ATLANTIC DIVISION CHAMPIONSHIP The Cardinals captured the ACC Atlantic Division crown for the fourth time in five seasons as members of the conference, Louisville has won a regular season title in nine of the last 11 seasons across three different conferences.

The Cardinals were the only team in the ACC to finish with 20 or more wins and captured the top overall seed for the ACC Championship. Louisville (2015-19) and Virginia (2010-14) are the only schools in ACC history to win at least 20 ACC baseball games four times in a five-year period.

Louisville has an all-time winning percentage of .732 in ACC play (109-40), the highest of any member. The next highest is Florida State at .681 (506-237).

DETMERS RECOGNIZED AS ACC PITCHER OF THE YEAR

Reid Detmers' outstanding sophomore campaign added another laurel to it on Monday as he was named the ACC Pitcher of the Year.

Detmers is the second Cardinal to earn the top pitching honor in the ACC, joining Drew Harrington who did it in 2016. The left-hander is the seventh pitcher to win the conference pitcher of the year award under Dan McDonnell and associate head coach Roger Williams.

The Chatham, Illinois, native captured the pitching triple crown this season, finishing the regular season leading all ACC qualified pitchers in wins (11), ERA (2.42) and strikeouts (138). He has struck out at least 10 in nine starts and has twice taken a no-hitter into the eighth inning. Through 17 starts, Detmers is tied for second on Louisville's single season list in wins and holds the program's single-season strikeout record.

SIX CARDINALS NAMED TO ALL-ACC TEAMS

In addition to Reid Detmers taking home the top pitching honor, six Cardinals were named to the three All-ACC teams.

Detmers was the lone first team selection for Louisville, with Alex Binelas, Michael McAvene and Logan Wyatt representing the Cardinals on the second team. Tyler Fitzgerald and Justin Lavey were on the third team. Binelas was also on the 12-member All-Freshman team.

The six selections were tied with Clemson, Florida State and Georgia Tech for the most in the ACC. The Cardinals have had at least six selections in each of their five years as members of the conference.

LOUISVILLE'S REVENGE TOUR THROUGH 2019 SCHEDULE The Cardinals' 2019 slate featured many of the same contests and sites as the 2017 edition. In 2017, Louisville lost at Cincinnati, Kentucky and Indiana, in addition to an 0-2 mark at home against Florida State. UofL has avenged each of the three road losses and won the series versus FSU.

	2017	2019

LOUISVILLE HITS 40-WIN MARK FOR SEVENTH STRAIGHT SEASON

The Cardinals captured their 40th victory of the season in the opener at Virginia. Louisville has won at least 40 games in seven consecutive years and 12 of 13 seasons with Dan McDonnell at the helm. Prior to McDonnell's arrival, the program record for victories in a season was 39.

Louisville's run of seven straight seasons with 40 wins in the regular season is the longest such streak in the country. Stanford is currently the only program with three straight years of 40-plus regular season wins, while NC State is the only other program with two straight years.

FITZGERALD ONE OF 14 SEMIFINALISTS FOR BROOKS WALLACE AWARD

Junior Tyler Fitzgerald is one of 14 semifinalists for the Brooks Wallace Award. The award, sponsored by Mizuno, honors the nation's top shortstop and will be presented this summer by the College Baseball Foundation.

Fitzgerald has started 62 of 65 games at shortstop for the Cardinals, hiting .324 with a team best 82 hits and 64 RBIs, all of which are career highs. Fitzgerald also has a career-best seven homers on the year and his RBI total was fourth among the country's shortstops.

The Rochester, Illinois, native is one of four ACC shortstops among the final 14, joining Wake Forest's Patrick Frick, Georgia Tech's Luke Waddell and NC State's Will Wilson.

DETMERS NAMED GOLDEN SPIKES AND DICK HOWSER AWARD SEMIFINALIST Continuing his year-long run of accolades, starting pitcher Reid Detmers was named a semifinalist for the Golden Spikes Award and Dick Howser Award.

The sophomore is the 12th player in program history to be a Golden Spikes Award semifinalist and the first since Drew Ellis and Brendan McKay in 2017. The duo was also on the semifinalist list for the Dick Howser Award in the same season.

Both awards will announce their winners on Friday, June 14 prior to the opening day of the 2019 College World Series

LOUISVILLE'S CONTINUED FLIRTATIONS WITH NO-HITTERS The Cardinals have taken a no-hitter into the eighth inning on four separate occasions this season. Reid Detmers tossed seven no-hit innings against Brown on February 22 before the Bears spoiled things against the UofL bullpen with two outs in the ninth. Detmers followed it up with eavy hittage the part up to the two outs in the ninth. Detmers followed it up with seven hitless innings the next week versus James Madison, only to see the bid end in the eighth.

In the finale against Wake Forest, Bobby Miller made his own run at history with seven hitless innings in his second start of the season. However, the Demon Deacons broke through against the relievers in the eighth. Miller then was on the brink of history in the second game of the Super Regional against East Carolina, no-hitting the Pirates through eight innings before allowing a hit with nobody out in the ninth

It has been more than 35 years since Louisville last tossed a no-hitter, going all the way back to Dave McCormick's gem against Cincinnati on March 26, 1983. The Cardinals have five in program history.

LOUISVILLE'S BACK END BULLPEN RESURGENCE

Louisville has consistently produced top of the line bullpen arms, many of which are spread across pro baseball. This season is no different, with the Cardinals a perfect 36-0 when leading after eight innings.

Michael Kirian and Michael McAvene have been key pieces at the end of games in 2019 with marked improvement from their 2018 numbers. Kirian held a 12.71 ERA in 11.1 innings as a freshman last season, while McAvene had a 4.55 ERA over his two-year career entering 2019. This season, Kirian is 3-1 with four saves and has given up just five earned runs in 29.1 innings for a 1.53 ERA. McAvene is 2-0 with seven saves and nine runs allowed in 30.1 invinges the product the three with five earned runs in 29.1 innings for a 1.53 ERA. innings. The duo has combined to strike out 85 batters with just 18 walks.

McAvene and Kirian pitched the final six innings of the series finale at Clemson, striking out eight with no runs and just three hits allowed. The pair also worked 4.1 scoreless to close out Louisville's come from behind win in the final game against Miami.

LOUISVILLE LEADS COUNTRY IN WINS SINCE 2007 Dan McDonnell took the reins of the Louisville baseball program in 2007. Louisville entered 2019 with the most wins of any Division I program from 2007-18 with 554.

LOUISVILLE IN NATIONAL POLLS EVERY WEEK SINCE START OF 2012 Louisville, which surpassed its previous high national ranking of No. 2 (in 2016) with the No. 1 ranking on March 13 and March 20 during the 2017 season, has enjoyed a historic run by remaining ranked in at least one major national poll every week since the release of the 2012 preseason rankings -- the longest such span in school history.

Ranked in the top 25 in all six major preseason polls for 2019, the Cardinals have earned a preseason national ranking in 12 straight seasons (2008-2019) overall. Louisville entered the 2019 season ranked fourth in the D1Baseball rankings, eighth in the Perfect Game and USA Today polls, ninth in the Collegiate Baseball Newspaper and NCBWA rankings and 11th by Baseball America.

CARDINALS CONTINUE EXCELLENCE IN THE CLASSROOM

Louisville baseball wrapped up the spring semester with a cumulative team grade point average of 3.31 to mark its 16th consecutive semester with a 3.0 or higher.

Overall, 33 student-athletes amassed a 3.0 GPA or better during the spring semester, with 16 members on the Dean's List. The span of 16 straight semesters with a team GPA of 3.0 or better coincides with unparalleled success on the field for Louisville, which has three College World Series appearances, five NCAA Super Regional betters, seven NCAA Regional bids and seven conference championships during those eight seasons.

Five members of the Louisville baseball program earned their undergraduate degrees from UofL at the conclusion of the semester. Current players Bryan Hoeing, J.D. Mundt, Zeke Pinkham and Pat Rumoro, along with bullpen catcher Gabe Burchell received their bachelor's degrees

BINELAS CLAIMS ACC AND NATIONAL PLAYER OF THE WEEK NOD

For the second time in three weeks, Alex Binelas was named the ACC Player of the Week, and added Perfect Game National Player of the Week honors as well April 22-28. The Oak Creek, Wisconsin, native went 9-for-13 (.643) with four doubles, three triples, a home run, 13 RBIs and 10 runs while starting three of Louisville's four victories.

The highlight of the week came in the series opener against Alabama A&M, when Binelas became the sixth player in program history and first since 1998 to hit for the cycle. He laced an RBI single in the first inning before a three-run homer in the second. The freshman then added a double in the third to get three-fourths of the way to the cycle through three innings. Binelas lined a ball to the wall in the seventh, but stopped at second for his second double of the night. In his final at bat of the evening, he drove a pitch to right that rolled to the wall and ended with him standing on third to complete the cycle. For the night, Binelas was 5-for-6 with five runs scored and eight RBIs.

Binelas added three more extra-base hits on in the second game against Alabama A&M to go with a three-run triple in Tuesday's victory at Cincinnati.

RECORD SETTING NIGHT AT JIM PATTERSON STADIUM The Cardinals had an offensive weekend to remember against Alabama A&M, but the opening game of the series on Friday night stole the show with numerous records falling in a 32-1 victory for Louisville.

The numbers of note included:

- 32 runs were the second-most in program history (42 vs. Georgetown on April 18, 1947)
 28 hits were the most since at least 2000
- Most total bases since at least 2000 (46)
 Most doubles since at least 2000 (11)
- Third-most runs scored in Division I this season
 Tied for the second-most hits in Division I this season
- Third-largest margin of victory in Division I this season
 The 19 strikeouts by the Louisville pitching staff were a Jim Patterson Stadium record

TORRID OFFENSIVE STRETCH JUMPSTARTS CARDINALS Following a second straight loss at Clemson on April 6, the Cardinals found themselves in third in the ACC Atlantic Division standings with an offense that ranked near the bottom of the league in most categories.

Louisville rallied for an 11-inning victory over the Tigers in the series finale, starting an offensive surge that saw the Cardinals win 13 of the next 14 and vault to the top of the ACC Atlantic Division standings.

While the pitching shouldered the load for the first half of the 2019 season, the second half of the campaign has been led by an offense as hot as any in the country.

FEELING AT HOME INSIDE JIM PATTERSON STADIUM

Since opening the gates at Jim Patterson Stadium in 2005, the Cardinals have won more than 77 percent of their games in the ballpark posting a 404-115 record (.778 winning percentage), including an impressive 33-4 mark during the 2017 season at the corner of Third and Central. The Cardinals were 33-8 on their home field this season. Louisville set a school record for home wins with 36 in 2016 and the Cardinals have registered 30 or more wins at home in five of the last seven seasons.

WYATT PICKS UP PLAYER OF THE WEEK HONORS

Junior Logan Wyatt became the second straight Louisville player to be named the ACC Player of the Week after a blistering hot four-game week April 15-21. He was also named the NCBWA and Perfect Game National Player of the Week for his efforts.

It marked the first time the Cardinals have won the conference's Player of the Week award in consecutive weeks since joining the league in 2015.

Wyatt hit .550 (11-for-20) as the Cardinals picked up a win at Kentucky and took two of three from Miami. The junior had three doubles, three homers and drove in 12 runs over the four games. Wyatt also had one of the highlights of the week with a straight steal of home in the fifth inning of Saturday's series finale as the Cardinals rallied back from a 6-0 deficit to win 9-6.

LOUISVILLE SLUGGERS STAY HOT IN LEXINGTON

Louisville's red-hot offense kept rolling in Lexington on April 16, with the Cardinals pounding out 18 runs on 23 hits. Both totals were season highs and the 23 hits were the most for Louisville since tallying the same number on April 24, 2005 at Saint Louis.

Other notable numbers for the Cardinals' win at Kentucky included the most doubles (6) since June 4, 2016 against Ohio State, the most runs scored (18) against Kentucky since April 22, 1976, and the largest defeat of Kentucky (12) since April 10, 2012.

BINELAS CAPTURES ACC PLAYER OF THE WEEK HONORS

Freshman third baseman Alex Binelas was named the ACC Player of the Week after leading the offensive charge in the four victories the week of April 8-14.

Binelas was at the forefront of the offensive outburst, going 8-for-15 (.533) at the plate with four doubles, a home run and seven RBI. The freshman tallied seven of his eight hits in the sweep at NC State, with four going for extra bases.

The Oak Creek, Wis. native went on a 20-game tear from March 26-April 30, hitting .453 (34-for-75) with 10 doubles, four triples and six home runs, while driving in 28 and scoring 32 times.

OFFENSIVE EXPLOSION IN RALEIGH

Louisville entered the weekend series at NC State with a .258 team batting average and scoring 6.2 runs per game. The Cardinals blew past those numbers against the Wolfpack, tallying 34 runs over three games and hitting .379 for the weekend.

UofL scored 14 runs in both games on Saturday, marking the first time the Cardinals had reached double digit runs in both games of a doubleheader since March 16, 2004 against Murray State (13-1, 13-4).

The 28 runs scored on Saturday were the most in a doubleheader for the Cardinals since March 23, 1991 when they scored 40 in two games against Western Illinois. The 28 runs were also the most runs scored by Louisville in consecutive ACC games since joining the conference in 2015.

DETMERS EARNS MIDSEASON HONORS

Sophomore Reid Detmers has racked up midseason honors this season, being named the Midseason Pitcher of the Year by Perfect Game, Midseason Top Pitcher by D1Baseball and the March National Pitcher of the Month by the NCBWA.

Detmers ranks third in the country with 156 strikeouts and has walked just 25 batters in 100.1 innings. The southpaw has finished three starts this season with a career high in strikeouts. Detmers worked seven hitless innings with a then-career best 11 strikeouts against Brown on Feb. 22. His next start out against James Madison, he once again carried a no-hitter through seven innings, finishing with 14 punchouts on the night.

Following victories over Boston College and Duke, Detmers set the Jim Patterson Stadium record striking out 16 Georgia Tech hitters over 7.2 innings on March 22. The lefty gave up just one run in 7.1 innings against Wake Forest on March 29 while tallying double digit strikeouts for the fifth time on the year.

LOUISVILLE FRESHMEN HAVE MEMORABLE WEEK AT THE PLATE

On a roster that returned seven of its position starters from the 2018 season, Louisville had three freshmen with memorable moments at the dish the week of March 11-17.

Alex Binelas was the first of three to hit his first collegiate home run, doing so in the third inning against Ole Miss. The two-run shot was part of a 2-for-4 showing with four RBIs for the Oak Creek, Wis. native.

Henry Davis, who has split time behind the plate this season, launched his first collegiate home run with a towering shot in the seventh inning of Louisville's opening win at Duke. He then added a second long ball in the finale, when he was 3-for-5 with three RBIs. Two batters after Davis hit his second homer of the weekend, Jared Poland got in on the act with a two-run blast that tied the game at four as the Cardinals rallied back for the victory.

DETMERS EARNS BACK-TO-BACK ACC PITCHER OF THE WEEK HONORS

Sophomore lefthander Reid Detmers was named the ACC Pitcher of the Week in consecutive weeks after dominant starts against Brown and James Madison.

Detmers tossed seven no-hit innings with 11 strikeouts against Brown. The southpaw retired the first 16 batters he faced before issuing a walk with one out in the sixth inning. Detmers then retired the next five hitters to finish off his outing.

He then followed it up with seven more hitless innings against James Madison before allowing the only hit of the game to lead off the eighth. Detmers finished his eight innings with a career-high 14 strikeouts.

FOUR FORMER CARDS ON MLB OPENING DAY ROSTERS

The Major League Baseball season opened up on March 28 and four former Louisville baseball players were on Opening Day rosters.

Nick Burdi (Pittsburgh Pirates), Adam Engle (Chicago White Sox), Chad Green (New York Yankees) and Matt Koch (Arizona Diamondbacks) were each on the roster to start the 2019 season

Since the hiring of head coach Dan McDonnell prior to the 2007 season, 64 Louisville players have signed professional contracts after being selected in the Major League Baseball Draft, including a school-record nine Cardinals in 2010.

LOUISVILLE TABBED AS PRESEASON ACC FAVORITE The Louisville baseball team was voted as the 2019 ACC preseason favorite by the league's 14 head coaches. The Cardinals were selected as the favorite in both the Atlantic Division and the conference

Louisville received seven first place votes in the Atlantic Division and tallied 90 points to narrowly edge out Florida State, which picked up six votes for the top spot and 86 points. Clemson was third with 71 points followed by NC State (53), Wake Forest (49), Notre Dame (24) and Boston College (19)

North Carolina was a near unanimous selection to win the Coastal Division, as 13 coaches voted the Tar Heels in the top spot. Virginia received the other first place tally and is tied with Duke for the second position with 64 points. Miami (61), Georgia Tech (59), Pitt (24) and Virginia Tech (23) round out the rest of the division.

BENNETT AND WYATT RECEIVE 2019 PRESEASON ALL-AMERICA RECOGNITION A pair of Louisville players were named preseason All-Americans in 2019 by various organizations. Junior first baseman Logan Wyatt garnered preseason All-America honors from Baseball America, Collegiate Baseball Newspaper, D1Baseball, NCBWA and Perfect Game. Additionally, junior lefthanded pitcher Nick Bennett was a preseason All-America selection by the NCBWA and Perfect Game.

A Louisville native, Wyatt earned Third Team All-America recognition from Collegiate Baseball newspaper and was an All-ACC First Team honoree as a sophomore last season after hitting .339 with six home runs, 69 RBIs, 22 doubles, 63 walks, 51 runs scored, .559 slugging percentage and .490 on-base percentage. He closed 2018 ranked third in the NCAA in walks, 15th in on-base percentage, 17th in RBIs and 18th in doubles. Wyatt was also named to the 2018 NCAA All-Lubbock Regional Team after finishing 6-for-16 with two home runs and 10 RBIs in four NCAA Recional games. Regional games.

Bennett, a junior from Cincinnati, Ohio, closed his sophomore season with an 8-2 record, 2.84 ERA and 72 strikeouts in 73.0 innings pitched, including 11 starts. He was an All-ACC Second Team honoree and was an All-ACC Academic Team selection in 2018. During his first collegiate season in 2017, Bennett earned Freshman All-America honors and was an All-ACC Third Team selection while accumulating a 5-1 record, 3.18 ERA and 61 strikeouts in 65.0 innings pitched and 15 total appearances, including 13 starts.

WYATT NAMED TO USA BASEBALL GOLDEN SPIKES AWARD WATCH LIST

Junior first baseman Logan Wyatt was named to the preseason watch list for the 2019 USA Baseball Golden Spikes Award. The list features 55 of the nation's top amateur players across high school and college baseball.

Wyatt is the 11th Cardinal to appear on the preseason watch list since 2009, including Brendan McKay who won the Golden Spikes Award in 2017.

An All-American in 2018, Wyatt has garnered preseason All-America honors in 2019 from Baseball America, Collegiate Baseball Newspaper, D1Baseball, NCBWA and Perfect Game. The Louisville native was an All-ACC First Team honoree as a sophomore last season after hitting .339 with six home runs, 69 RBIs, 22 doubles, 63 walks, 51 runs scored, .559 slugging percentage and .490 on-base percentage. Wyatt was also named to the 2018 NCAA All-Lubbock Regional Team after finishing 6-for-16 with two home runs and 10 RBIs in four NCAA Regional games

LOUISVILLE 2018 RECRUITING CLASS AMONG BEST IN COUNTRY The University of Louisville baseball program received its highest recruiting ranking in program history after D1Baseball tabbed the 2018 class at No. 3 in the nation. Louisville's 2018 class was also ranked fourth nationally by Baseball America and Collegiate Baseball Newspaper.

The 2018 class ranking marked the ninth time in the last 11 years Louisville has earned a top 25 national recruiting ranking under the guidance of head coach Dan McDonnell. The Cardinals had the top class in the ACC according to D1Baseball and was among five ACC programs in the top 25 classes – No. 6 Florida State, No. 8 Miami, No. 12 Clemson and No. 17 Virginia.

BENNETT, FITZGERALD, PINKHAM, WYATT NAMED TEAM CAPTAINS Lefthanded pitcher Nick Bennett, infielder Tyler Fitzgerald, catcher Zeke Pinkham and first baseman Logan Wyatt have been selected by University of Louisville players and coaches as team captains for the Cardinals baseball team in 2019.

Bennett, a junior from Cincinnati, Ohio, closed his sophomore season with an 8-2 record, 2.84 ERA and 72 strikeouts in 73.0 innings pitched, including 11 starts. He was an AII-ACC Second Team honoree and was an AII-ACC Academic Team selection in 2018. During his first collegiate season in 2017, Bennett earned Freshman AII-America honors and was an AII-ACC Third Team selection while accumulating a 5-1 record, 3.18 ERA and 61 strikeouts in 65.0 innings pitched and 15 total appearances, including 13 starts.

LOUISVILLE UNVEILS FLAKER FAMILY PRO LOCKER ROOM

The Cardinals unveiled the newly completed Flaker Family Pro Locker Room at Jim Patterson Stadium on January 28. UofL Vice President for Intercollegiate Athletics/Director of Athletics Vince Tyra and McDonnell were joined by Aaron and Ashley Flaker, who provided the lead gift on the Pro Locker Room, for the ribbon-cutting ceremony and news conference to officially open the space. More than a dozen UofL alumni in professional baseball as well as this year's UofL baseball team were in attendance for the event.

Located behind the UofL dugout and accessible from the first base concourse, the Flaker Family Pro Locker Room features 10 spacious lockers, two showers, one kitchenette and lounge space with a couch, two chairs and two televisions. The Pro Locker Room will be open to UofL alumni in professional baseball for off-season training while also serving as an umpires' locker room on game days at Jim Patterson Stadium.

MCDONNELL NAMED USA BASEBALL COLLEGIATE NATIONAL TEAM MANAGER Louisville baseball head coach Dan McDonnell will serve as the manager of the USA Baseball Collegiate National Team for 2019.

The 2019 summer will be McDonnell's second coaching tour for Team USA after he served as an assistant coach with the Collegiate National Team in 2009. Team USA finished with a 19-5 overall record that summer with series victories over Canada and Guatemala, and won a gold medal at the 2009 Enbridge Northern Gateway Pipeline World Baseball Challenge in Prince George, British Columbia, Canada.

MCDONNELL'S ALL-AMERICANS

In Dan McDonnell's 13 seasons as head coach, Louisville produced 38 All-Americans, more than three times as many as what the program had prior to McDonnell's arrival.

JIM PATTERSON STADIUM

Since its opening in 2005, Jim Patterson Stadium has provided the University of Louisville baseball program with one of the great home field advantages in all of college baseball. With an initial seating capacity of 2,500 upon opening, the ballpark underwent an expansion project prior to the 2013 season increasing capacity to more than 4,000 and maintaining Jim Patterson Stadium as one of the elite facilities in the nation.

Spearheaded by the leadership gift of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Patterson, the privately funded expansion of Jim Patterson Stadium was a $4 million facility development plan which featured the addition of 1,500 chair back seats, a 6,400 sq. ft. terrace directly accessible above the chair back seats and a two-tiered ground level terrace extending from the first and third base dugouts. The project also included an expanded press box, which doubled the previous space used to facilitate media and hospitality, and a visiting team locker room behind the third base dugout.

The expansion doubled the number of chair back seats taking the total to 3,000 while the overall capacity of more than 4.000 places Jim Patterson Stadium among the Top 30 of university controlled collegiate ballparks in the nation. The increased seating enables Louisville to host NCAA Regional and Super Regional games without the additional expense of temporary bleacher rentals. Since opening, Jim Patterson Stadium has hosted eight NCAA Regionals (2009, 2010, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2019) and six NCAA Super Regionals (2007, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2019).

After starting construction in August of 2004, the University of Louisville unveiled Jim Patterson Stadium, located at the corner of Central Avenue and Third Street, on Friday, April 15, 2005, when the Cardinals battled East Carolina in front of a then-school record crowd of 3,213.

Along with the 3,000 chairback seats, Jim Patterson Stadium has a tiered, turf berm in left field. The press box features an expanded television suite, two radio booths, game operations booth, an expanded seating area for non-broadcast media, an AD suite and a development suite. The ballpark measures 330 feet down the lines, 375 to the power alleys and 402 to straightaway center. Prior to the 2015 season, the University of Louisville partnered with ANC Sports for the installation of a new LED video board in right-centerfield at Jim Patterson Stadium. The all-digital surface more than quadrupled the size of the previous video space and measures 36-feet wide and 23-feet tall.

The playing surface is FieldTurf, same as the Tampa Bay Rays' Tropicana Field, as well as Louisville's Papa John's Cardinal Stadium. The playing field was completely resurfaced in the summer of 2013 providing the Cardinals with one of the nation's best surfaces. The exterior of the ballpark has elements that mirror UofL's nearby football facility.

The adjacent building along the first base side of the ballpark houses the baseball offices, while the basement of the building features three pitching/batting cages, full club house facilities with a players' lounge, theatre style team-meeting room, weight room, equipment room, computer lab, training room and laundry facilities.

The first eight feet of the roof supports are constructed with green brick from the left field wall at historic Parkway Field, and infield dirt was taken from Parkway and placed in the batters box as a tribute to a facility that has seen the likes of Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig, Honus Wagner, Grover Cleveland Alexander, Satchel Paige, Pee Wee Reese and Jackie Robinson among others.

In January of 2007, crews converted the home plate area from dirt into a field turf surface complete with permanent batters boxes. The only dirt on the field is on the pitcher's mound. The 2008 off-season included a complete reconstruction of the left field berm, with terracing giving the fans a place for a lawn chair or blanket. Children of all ages can enjoy the playground beyond the fence in centerfield.

The Cardinals have won more than 77 percent of their games at Jim Patterson Stadium since opening the gates during the 2005 season. Of the 14 NCAA postseason rounds contested at Jim Patterson Stadium, the Louisville baseball program has advanced through 11 of those, including sweeping the 2019 NCAA Regional and NCAA Super Regional to clinch the program's fifth College World Series appearance. In NCAA Championship games at Jim Patterson Stadium, the Cardinals have produced a 33-9 record overall.
