VU NCAA Quickfacts

The Commodores faced Murray State in 2001 and 2002 in the opening regional round in Nashville. Vandy defeated the Racers 4-0 in both meetings.

Vanderbilt has never met Tulsa in the NCAA Championships.

All-time Vandy tennis great Julie Ditty helped lead the 'Dores to the NCAA Finals in 2001. Ditty is currently one win away from tying the all-time record for USTA Pro Circuit Championships (30).

Amanda Fish is the only current Commodore to advance past the Sweet 16. As a freshman in 2004, Fish aided in Vandy's second run to the Final Four.

More on Vandy

Tale of Two Seasons

Vanderbilt started 2007 with a 2-5 record, the worst of Head Coach Geoff Macdonald's tenure. Senior and lineup leader Amanda Fish was out with an ankle injury, while illness and minor injuries plagued other teammates. The Commodores were unable to notch a win at the ITA Indoors Tournament, which features the top 16 teams in the country.

Following the tournament the 'Dores went on a spectacular 12-match win streak that took the team deep into conference season. Macdonald's squad finished out the season 15-3 after ITA Indoors, dropping contests to then-No. 3 Georgia and then-No. 4 Florida.

Newman has Excellent Debut

Freshman Catherine Newman (Greensboro, N.C.) debuted at No. 24 on the ITA Rankings in early January. During fall play, Newman compiled an impressive 14-2 record, with a key win over then-seventh-ranked Jenna Long of UNC.

Taylor Enjoying Breakthrough Year

In the summer of 2006, Amanda Taylor spent several weeks of intense practice overseas. The work paid off, as 2006-07 has been Taylor's best season to date. In 2005-06, the Richland, Wash. native finished the season 23-5, playing mostly at No. 3. Taylor followed with an incredible fall, posting a 13-3 mark. Taylor moved up to No. 2 in the lineup for dual match season and finished the regular season 19-3 and 9-1 in the SEC. Taylor earned SEC Player of the Week honors for her undefeated performance at the ITA Indoors tournament in February. Taylor will likely earn All-American status for her final No. 8 rank with doubles partner Amanda Fish. Taylor also earned a spot on the SEC's Community Service Team for her work with Preston Taylor Ministries, a Nashville-based charity that serves the community's inner-city youth.

Fish/Taylor Become National Doubles Leaders

Amanda Fish and Amanda Taylor earned a eighth-place national rank on the ITA doubles chart, becoming the first VU tandem to crack the Top 10 since 2004.

The pair has led Commodore doubles charge at No. 1 since early February. The duo compiled an 8-3 SEC record, posting a recent upset over then-ninth-ranked Kentucky pair Joelle Schwenk and Kim Coventry at the conference tournament in Lexington, Ky.

The Vandy pair has provided a crucial piece of the Commodore doubles success in 2007. The squad has only surrendered only three doubles points through the last 17 matches, which included the ever-challenging conference season and non-conference opponents No. 2 Georgia Tech and No. 24 Texas A&M.

The last time a pair from Head Coach Geoff Macdonald's squad ranked in the ITA's Top 10 was in 2004, when VU's Aleke Tsoubanos and Kelly Schmandt finished the year ranked No. 2 overall. The pair posted a 32-4 mark and set a new Commodore record for consecutive doubles wins (15).
