CATS HOST VANDERBILT IN HOME FINALE

After claiming its fifth win of the season with a 49-21 win over Charleston Southern last Saturday, Kentucky returns to SEC play for its home finale. The Cats are seeking to become bowl eligible for a school-record fifth-consecutive season when they play host to Vanderbilt Saturday on Senior Day in Commonwealth Stadium.

Kentucky was clicking on all cylinders in the win over CSU, claiming a season-high five rushing touchdowns and 10 tackles-for-loss. The Wildcats' offense gathered 228 rushing yards, 274 passing yards and seven total touchdowns in the game. Sophomore running back CoShik Williams led the way for the UK rushing attack, totaling 96 yards and three touchdowns, while fellow sophomore Donald Russell had 110 yards and two touchdowns. Wide receivers Randall Cobb and Chris Matthews each chipped in over 90 yards receiving and a touchdown.

Vanderbilt heads into Commonwealth Stadium on a four-game losing streak, including a 55-14 loss last Saturday at home to Florida. All 14 of Vanderbilt's points were scored in the second half, the first touchdown off a blocked punt and the second on a amazing catch in the corner of the endzone by Jordan Matthews.

The Wildcats led the all-time series against Vanderbilt 40-38-4, including having won five of the last six games. Last year, Kentucky defeated the Commodores 24-13 in Nashville. VU won the last meeting in Lexington, 31-24.

QUICK NOTES

- Saturday is Senior Day at Commonwealth Stadium. Kentucky will honor 15 seniors.
- UK ranks in the top 40 of six national statistical categories. The Cats are 10th in pass defense (165.4 yards per game); 20th in pass offense (277.9 yards per game); 22nd in scoring offense (34.4 points per game), 25th in passing efficiency (149.57 rating points), 28th in total offense (427.7 yards per game) and 39th in total defense (341.7 yards per game).
- UK has passed for 200 or more yards in all 10 games this season, including a season-high 353 passing yards against Georgia.
- UK's offense has been explosive through the air this season, ranking second in the SEC and 20th in the country in pass offense averaging 277.9 yards a game with 24 touchdowns. Conversely, Kentucky has had a stingy pass defense this year. The Wildcats rank second in the SEC and 10th in the country in pass defense, holding opponents to only 10 touchdowns through the air this season and an average of 165.4 passing yards a game.
- Senior quarterback Mike Hartline is having an impressive season as he currently leads the SEC in touchdowns passes (21), ranks second in the league in passing yards per game (267.4) and is third in total offense (264.0 yards per game). He has thrown over 200 yards in all 10 games this season.
- Junior Randall Cobb, a candidate for the Paul Hornung Award as the nation's most versatile player, is UK's leader in career touchdowns. Cobb has 35 TDs in just 33 career games. He has been responsible for at least one score by rushing, receiving or passing in every game this season.
- Cobb ranks first in the SEC and third nationally in all-purpose yardage with 176.8 all-purpose yards per game.
- Junior linebacker Danny Trevathan has been a dominant force on the defensive side of the ball for the Cats this season. He paces the SEC with 110 total tackles and ranks eighth nationally in tackles per game with 11.0. He has led UK in tackles in eight of 10 games, including double-digit tackles in six straight games. It is the longest streak since Marty Moore had double-figure tackles in 13-consecutive games in 1991-92. Trevathan also ranks fourth in the league in the tackles for loss category with 12.5 stops behind the line of scrimmage.
- In Kentucky's five wins this season, the Wildcats are +6 in turnover margin. In the five losses, UK is -10 in turnover margin.

LAST TIME VS. VANDERBILT

A potent Kentucky rushing attack and stout second-half defense led the Wildcats to a 24-13 win at Vanderbilt to record its second consecutive SEC road victory and post its fourth win in over the past five games in front of 33,675 fans at Vanderbilt Stadium.

UK claimed its sixth win of the season, making the Wildcats bowl-eligible for the fourth-straight year. The victory marked the first time since 1953-56 that UK has won at least six games in four consecutive seasons. A season-high 308 yards rushing by UK in the game was the most against an SEC opponent since rushing for 310 at South Carolina in 1995.

The Wildcats scored on their second drive of the game. On a trick play, tailback Derrick Locke threw a 41-yard pass to quarterback Morgan Newton down the right sideline to advance to the VU 21-yard line. On the next play, Randall Cobb scampered for a 21-yard score out of the "WildCobb" formation to put UK up 7-0. The Commodores cut the lead to 7-3 on the next possession after a 42-yard field goal from Ryan Fowler.

In the second quarter, Fowler booted a career-long 47-yard field goal to cut the UK lead to one. The Wildcats answered with a 36-yard field goal from Lones Seiber on the next possession. After VU made an interception at the UK 20, quarterback Mackenzi Adams threw a 21-yard touchdown strike to John Cole to give the Commodores a 13-10 going into the locker rooms.

Kentucky dominated the second half on both sides of the ball. UK scored on the first drive of the half, going 75 yards on 10 plays, capped by a 3-yard rushing touchdown by Cobb. Derrick Locke scored the final touchdown for the Cats in the fourth quarter on a 14-yard run. Locke recorded his third career 100-yard game after carrying the ball 25 times for 144 yards – both of which were career highs at that time.

UK's defense played well in the second half. The Commodores were limited to one first down, 31 total offensive yards, 0-of-5 on third downs and held the ball only 6:56 time of possession after the half. For the game, Kentucky held Vanderbilt to 209 yards total offense, the best showing since UK limited VU to 91 total yards in 1996. The Wildcats held VU to 11 first downs, the fewest against an SEC opponent since limiting South Carolina to nine first downs in 1999. Calvin Harrison picked off Adams just before the half, giving UK at least one interception in six consecutive games. Sam Maxwell led the defense with nine tackles, including one for a loss, and forced a fumble.

COMEBACK CATS

Since mid-season 2006, a span of 54 games, Kentucky has come from behind in the fourth quarter to win 13 games.

To put it in perspective, prior to that, you have to go back 182 games in order to find 13 fourth-quarter comeback victories for the Wildcats.

In 2006, the Cats set a school record by completing three consecutive fourth-quarter comebacks to defeat Georgia, Vanderbilt and ULM in succession. In 2007, Kentucky came from behind

Commonwealth Stadium

On game day, Commonwealth Stadium usually becomes the third-largest city in Kentucky.

- The Cats are in their 38th season at Commonwealth Stadium.
- Since its opening in 1973, Kentucky has played 241 games within the friendly confines of Commonwealth Stadium. UK has a 129-108-4 record (.544) in Commonwealth.
- Kentucky has broken the school record for attendance each of the last three seasons, once again ranking in the nation's top 25. UK has ranked in the nation's top 25 in attendance in 10 of the last 11 seasons.
- For the third-straight year, Kentucky fans broke the school record for average attendance at 69,594 per game. The previous mark was 69,434 per game in the 2008 season.
- The crowd of 71,024 vs. Florida on Oct. 20, 2007 was the largest crowd in the 38-year history of Commonwealth Stadium. The previous stadium record was 71,022 for the 1999 Tennessee game.
- The playing surface is named C. M. Newton Field in honor of the former UK Director of Athletics.

Facts and Figures on Commonwealth Stadium:

Seating Capacity: 67,942, including the Commonwealth Suites. With game workers, media, etc., total attendance can exceed 70,000.

Video Boards: Mitsubishi Diamond Vision, 19 x 34 feet on the west end zone (University Drive) and 16 x 28.5 feet on the east end zone (Nutter Field House).

Sound System: Coordinated by Mitsubishi as part of the video board project.

Scoreboards: Two, one in each end zone, constructed by Fairtron Scoreboards.

Game Day Experiences

The "Cat Walk": Fans are encouraged to greet the team when the Wildcats arrive for the "Cat Walk." The team buses will arrive at the Nutter Field House approximately two hours and 15 minutes before the game and the players will make the "Cat Walk" to their stadium entry point at Gate 1. Fans are encouraged to line up on the sidewalk and cheer the players as they enter the stadium.

A siren will be sounded while the team buses are on their way to the stadium. That's the fans' cue to proceed to the Cat Walk area to greet the team.

Wildcat Refuge: Fans of all ages, but especially the younger Wildcats, will enjoy playing at the Wildcat Refuge, located outside of the southwest corner (outside Gate 9) of Commonwealth Stadium. There are five giant inflatable games that are available two hours before kickoff.

UK Marching Band Will Parade Around Stadium: The UK Marching Band will parade around the stadium, beginning approximately one hour prior to kickoff. The and parade will begin at and return to Gate 4.

in the final period to knock off No. 1 LSU, then-No. 9 Louisville and Arkansas.

The 2008 win over Arkansas tied the largest Kentucky fourth-quarter comeback in school history. The Wildcats trailed 20-7 in the final stanza against the Razorbacks and came back to win, 21-20. UK trailed Vanderbilt 13-0 in the fourth quarter in 2004 and came back to win, 14-13.

In 2009, Kentucky claimed three more fourth-quarter comeback victories, vs. Louisville, at Auburn and at Georgia.

Against South Carolina on Oct. 16 of this season, UK trailed 28-17 heading into the fourth quarter when Mike Hartline connected with Randall Cobb for a 24-yard touchdown pass with 1:15 remaining. Cobb added a two-point conversion to cap a furious second-half rally and give Wildcats a stunning 31-28 victory over the Gamecocks. It marked the fifth time in his career that Cobb has scored the game-winning touchdown in the fourth quarter.

DID YOU KNOW?

• Brian credits UK athletics trainer Jim Madaleno with saving his life. Adams was at home (Georgia) in July of 2009 when his right arm began swelling. An initial medial evaluation indicated nothing major was wrong. That diagnosis didn't sound correct to Madaleno, who urged Adams to see another doctor. The second opinion discovered a blood clot which required immediate hospitalization and treatment. Gone untreated, Adams could have died.

• Was a 45th-round draft pick of the Cincinnati Reds in the 2009 major-league draft; decided not to sign with the Reds

SENIOR TB MONCELL ALLEN

• Originally from New Orleans, his family was displaced by Hurricane Katrina in 2005 and now lives in Charlotte, N.C.

• Nickname is "Turtle"

FRESHMAN DL NERMIN DELIC

• Born in Bosnia, his family moved to the United States (Georgia) when he was six years old

• Son of a special forces soldier, Edin Delic, who fled the worn-torn country with his wife and two children for a better life

SENIOR DE DEQUIN EVANS

• Nickname is "DQ"

• Entering just his fifth season of organized football

• Evans grew up in a housing project in Compton, Calif., and credits football for giving him a chance for a better life.

• Before attending junior college, Evans took a year off from school and bagged groceries at Albertson's. It was his time there that started to fuel the fire to Evans' current success.

REDSHIRT FRESH. TB JONATHAN GEORGE

• Had a unique combination of accomplishments in high school. In addition to his football exploits, Jonathan was a state track champion in the 200- and 400-meter dashes and also a state champion in his weight class in wrestling as a junior and senior.

SENIOR QB MIKE HARTLINE

• His brother, Brian, played at Ohio State and is now a wide receiver with the Miami Dolphins

• Jake is long off the tee in golf! He has driven the ball more than 400 yards and at one time was ranked fifth in the world in his age group for longest driving ability

SENIOR TB DERRICK LOCKE

• Came to UK as a dual-sport athlete, originally signing a track scholarship

• Competed for the UK track and field team as a long jumper, breaking the UK school outdoor record as a freshman with a leap of 25 feet, 3 1/4 inches

• Earned indoor All-America honors in 2008 and was the SEC Indoor Freshman Field Athlete of the Year

• Timed at 4.21 seconds in the 40-yard dash on 2008 Pro Day

• Member of UK's Army ROTC program

• Entering just his third year of playing football

• Played football only his senior season at Lexington Christian Academy offense since the 2007 Music City Bowl win over Florida State.

• Kentucky scored 42 points in the first half against Western Kentucky. The last time UK scored 42 points in a half was the second half vs. Kent State, 2007. It was the most points for UK in the first half since notching 56 against North Dakota in 1950.

• UK's 63 points against WKU were the most points scored in regulation since scoring 77 points vs. UTEP in 2002.

THE HART(LINE) OF THE OFFENSE

Senior quarterback Mike Hartline has completed 65.7 percent of his passes for 2,674 yards, 21 touchdowns and just eight interceptions. He leads the SEC in TD passes, ranks second in the league in average passing yards (267.4) and third in total offense (264).

In UK's victory over Charleston Southern, Hartline became only the fifth player in school history to reach 5,000 yards, joining Jared Lorenzen, Andre' Woodson, Tim Couch and Bill Ransdell.

In the win over No. 10 South Carolina, Hartline completed 32-of-42 passes for a then-career-high 349 yards and four touchdowns. Hartline had another career day against Georgia, completing 27-of-43 passes for a new career-high 353 yards and a career-high tying four touchdowns.

He also looked impressive against undefeated Auburn, completing 23-of-28 passes for a career-best 82.1 percent, 220 yards and one touchdown. It was the best completion percentage for a UK quarterback against a conference opponent since Tim Couch hit 83 percent, 44-of-53, against Vanderbilt in 1998.

Hartline now has 5,176 career passing yards and ranks fifth on UK's all-time list. He needs 388 more passing yards to tie Bill Ransdell (1983-86) for fourth place.

Career Passing Yards

1. 10,354 Jared Lorenzen, 2000-03

2. 9,360 Andre' Woodson, 2004-07

3. 8,435 Tim Couch, 1996-98

4. 5,564 Bill Ransdell, 1983-86

5. 5,176 Mike Hartline, 2007-present

BALANCING ACT

A primary offensive goal for Coach Joker Phillips is good balance between the run and the pass and the Wildcats did so in the early going of 2010.

UK rushed for more than 200 yards and passed for more than 200 yards in its first three games, marking the first time that has happened in school history.

It's interesting to note, however, since the injury to starting tailback Derrick Locke against Auburn, the Wildcats have tilted heavily toward the pass. With Locke out, UK has averaged 109.8 rushing yards and 308.5 passing yards per game.

COBB SETS SCHOOL RECORD FOR CAREER TOUCHDOWNS

With the game-winning touchdown against South Carolina on Oct. 16, junior Randall Cobb broke the school record for career touchdowns with 33 breaking the previous record of 32 set by Craig Yeast (1995-98). He now has 35 touchdowns in just 33 career games.

"WILDCOBB" FORMATION HAS WORKED WELL

Kentucky's "Wildcat" formation, in which wide receiver Randall Cobb takes a shotgun snap from center, is working well again this season.

UK has run 42 plays from that set this year, generating 213 yards, five touchdowns, 15 first downs and an average of 5.1 yards per play. UK's TDs from the formation include a 51-yard Cobb run at Louisville, a 15-yard scoring pass to Moncell Allen vs. Western Kentucky and three TDs vs. Auburn -- a two-yard run, a one-yard run and a six-yard scoring pass to Jordan Aumiller.

Kentucky's success with Cobb last season led Todd Wright of The Sporting News Radio Network to dub it the "WildCobb" formation.

COBB UP FOR HORNUNG AWARD

Randall Cobb is a candidate for the new Paul Hornung Award as the most versatile player in major-college football. He splits his time between wide receiver, quarterback, punt and kickoff returner. He also is the holder for extra points and field goals.

Although he is only in his junior season, Cobb has already set a new school record with 35 total touchdowns -- 20 rushing, 13 receiving and two on punt returns. He's also thrown for five TDs during his UK career, including one on a fake field goal vs. Florida earlier this season.

Cobb currently leads the Wildcats in receiving with 63 for 783 yards and seven touchdowns, has rushed for 206 yards and three TDs, has returned a punt for a touchdown and has a 23.1-yard average on kickoff returns. He had a career-high 12 catches for a career-high 171 receiving yards and one touchdown against Mississippi State and is second in the SEC and ranks 20th nationally in receptions per game with 6.3.

Against Charleston Southern, Cobb posted his third career 100-yard receiving game and his second consecutive 100+ receiving yards game.

Cobb is first in the SEC and third nationally in all-purpose yardage, averaging 176.8 yards per game.

Cobb has received a weekly award as a Most Versatile Performer by the Louisville Sports Commission six times this season, more than any other player in the nation. The Louisville Sports Commission sponsors the Hornung Award.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT RANDALL COBB

"Randall Cobb is certainly the most versatile player in college football. To me, he's the most dynamic player in the nation. If you're looking for the best player in college football, why not talk about Randall Cobb?" - Mel Kiper, ESPN analyst

"There's not a better all-around player in college football than Kentucky's Randall Cobb." -- Chris Low, ESPN.com

"I just like classy guys who represent their school in the right way. I think he is a dynamic player and he is going to play at the next level and I can't wait until he gets the heck out of this league." -- Urban Meyer, Florida head coach

"The Swiss Army Knife of SEC players." -- Bruce Feldman, ESPN.com

Junior wide receiver Randall Cobb was named first-team Midseason All-America by CollegeFootballNews.com. He has scored at least one touchdown in 22 of 33 career games, including 16 of the last 19.

2010 TEAM CAPTAINS

Permanent team captains for the 2010 Kentucky football team are senior defensive end DeQuin Evans and junior wide receiver Randall Cobb.

Two game captains will join the permanent captains each week. The game captains are usually chosen based on performance from the previous week's game. They are listed below.

MATTHEWS LEADS SEC IN TOUCHDOWN CATCHES

Senior wide receiver Chris Matthews traveled to the Bluegrass State last season from Los Angeles Harbor Junior College in Los Angeles, Calif., and has fit in quite nicely in the Kentucky offense. In his first season at UK, he was the team's second-leading pass catcher and had the most receptions by a UK junior-college player in his debut season since Jimmy Robinson in 1997.

Matthews has picked up where he left off last year, as the 6-foot-5 receiver is a favorite target for quarterback Mike Hartline. Matthews is second on the team behind Randall Cobb with 46 catches for a 715 yards. He is averaging an impressive 15.5 yards per catch. His eight touchdown receptions is good for the SEC lead in that category.

Against South Carolina, Matthews had a career day with 12 catches for 177 yards, both career highs. It was his second 100-yard receiving performance of the year (also 114 yards vs. Florida) and his career. His 12 receptions tied for the second-most receptions in a game in UK history and the 177 yards marked the fourth-highest receiving yards total in a single game.

KING OF THE END ZONE

Sophomore La'Rod King is quickly making a name for himself as he emerges as a big playmaker for the Wildcat offense. The 6-foot-4 wide receiver currently ranks third on the team in receptions behind Cobb and Chris Matthews with 29 catches for 349 yards. He averages 12.0 yards per catch and has five touchdowns this season, including two in the win over South Carolina and two against Georgia.

OVER THE CENTURY MARK

Kentucky tailback Derrick Locke surpassed 100 yards rushing in the first four games of the season and has totaled seven for his career. Artose Pinner was the last Wildcat to run for 100 yards in four consecutive games in 2002.

Included in the spree was a career-high 166 yards vs. Akron and during that game Locke became just the seventh player in UK history to reach 2,000 rushing yards. He now has 2,305 career yards on the ground and ranks sixth on UK's all-time rushing list.

Locke rushed for "only" 68 yards and two touchdowns at Ole Miss, but that didn't stop him from reaching the century mark as he caught eight passes for a career-best 108 receiving yards.

Locke has missed the last three conference games (South Carolina, Georgia and Mississippi State) and UK's non-conference game with Charleston Southern because of a shoulder stinger. His status is uncertain for the Vanderbilt game.

REBUILT OFFENSIVE LINE DOING WELL

Kentucky has a rebuilt offensive line in 2010 with only one starter, guard Stuart Hines, returning from last season.

The unit of left tackle Chandler Burden, Hines at left guard, center Matt Smith, right guard Larry Warford and right tackle Brad Durham is helping the Wildcats average 427.7 yards total offense per game, fourth in the SEC and 28th nationally. The line has allowed 13 sacks in 10 games and ranks 31st nationally and third in the SEC in the sacks allowed category.

DEVELOPING DEPTH AT WIDE RECEIVER

Kentucky returns both starting wide receivers from last season, Randall Cobb and Chris Matthews, who combined to catch 71 passes for 801 yards and seven touchdowns a year ago. The key question is depth following the season-ending injury to junior Gene McCaskill during preseason drills.

Junior Matt Roark and sophomore La'Rod King have met the challenge so far. Roark has caught 11 passes for 163 yards, an impressive 14.8 yards per catch. King has grabbed 30 balls for 396 yards and five TDs.

IMPRESSIVE TALENT IN THE BACKFIELD

Fans are familiar with senior tailback Derrick Locke, who already ranks in the top 10 rushers in Kentucky history and whose sub-4.3 speed is a threat to go the distance as a runner, pass receiver or kickoff returner.

But there's more to the ballcarriers than Locke. Sophomore Donald Russell has started three games in Locke's absence and averages 4.6 yards per carry. Russell's biggest game of the year came against Charleston Southern, where the sophomore rushed for a career-high 110 yards on 10 carries scoring two touchdowns.

There also is good depth with freshman Raymond Sanders, who scored two touchdowns in his first collegiate action vs. Western Kentucky. Sanders saw extensive action vs. Georgia and earned his first career start vs. Mississippi State two weeks ago. Against UGA he charted a then career-high 16 rushes for 88 yards to go along with a career-high seven passes for a career-high 88 yards receiving. In the Mississippi State game, Sanders had a career-high 24 rush attempts for 71 yards.

Sophomore CoShik Williams also joined the fun against CSU, gathering 95 yards and three touchdowns to become to first player to score three rushing touchdowns in a game since Randall Cobb rushed for three TDs against Georgia in 2008.

UK had huge shoes to fill at fullback this season following the departure of John Conner, known at UK as "The Terminator" and now a New York Jet. Moving into the role is senior Moncell Allen, who has seen significant action as a reserve tailback and fullback during his career. Nicknamed "Turtle" for his strong, compact frame (5-7, 232 pounds), he has acquired a new nickname from Derrick Locke -- "The Turtlenator."

Senior tailback Derrick Locke became the seventh player in UK history to reach 2,000 rushing yards vs. Akron. He surpassed 100 yards rushing in UK's first four games, the first Wildcat to post four straight 100-yard rushing games since Artose Pinner in 2002.

"The Turtlenator" recorded his third career receiving TD and his second of the season against Mississippi State.

THE DEFENSE

- Kentucky ranks second in the SEC and 10th nationally in pass defense as the Wildcats have limited their opponents to an average of 165.4 passing yards per game.
- The Wildcats' defense limited CSU to 129 passing yards. Kentucky has now limited opponents to 130 passing yards or less in seven games this season.
- Kentucky's defense totaled 10 tackles-for-loss in the game, a season high. The previous season high was nine against Akron.
- In the last three SEC games against top-25 opponents (Auburn, South Carolina and Mississippi State), the UK defense has allowed a total of just 13 points in the second half.
- Kentucky shutout South Carolina in the second half, marking the first time the UK defense has shutout an opponent in the second stanza since against Vanderbilt on Nov. 14, 2009.
- The Wildcat defense limited South Carolina to 103 yards of total offense in the second half.
- The Wildcat defense surrendered only 172 total yards to Akron which is the least amount of yards surrendered since WKU posted 157 yards of total offense on Sept. 27, 2008.
- UK held Western Kentucky and Akron to under 100 yards passing, marking the first time its held back-to-back opponents under 100 yards passing since holding NE Louisiana and Georgia under 100 passing yards in 1997.
- UK totaled a season-high five sacks for 42 yards against Akron.

DEFENSIVE NUMBERS IMPROVED

Kentucky's defensive yardage and points allowed have shown significant reductions during the past four seasons since Steve Brown was appointed defensive coordinator in 2007.

- Fewest points allowed in 17 years - UK has allowed 24.7 points per game in 2007-10, the best four-year stretch of scoring defense since allowing 24.1 per game in 1990-93

• 2010 defense is the least experienced in 20 years, based on returning lettermen. UK has only 17 returning lettermen on defense this year, the fewest in 20 years, since the 1990 season. UK is currently starting only one senior – Ricky Lumpkin.

TREVATHAN LEADING THE WAY

As expected, junior linebacker Danny Trevathan has stepped into a leadership role on the Kentucky defense.

Trevathan leads the SEC with 110 total tackles, ranking eighth nationally. He has 12.5 tackles for loss this season, fourth in the SEC. He charted a career-high 17 tackles vs. Auburn, marking the most tackles by a UK player since Wesley Woodyard recorded 17 vs. Arkansas in 2007. He has led UK in tackles in eight of its 10 games this season, including double-digit tackles in six straight games. It is the longest streak since Marty Moore had double-figure tackles in 13-consecutive games in 1991-92.

HE'S THE GUY

Safety Winston Guy is second on the team in tackles with 73 stops and has played consistently with at least three tackles in every game, including a season- and career-high 16 vs. Charleston Southern. The junior from Lexington grabbed his first collegiate interception in the Auburn game and also picked one off against the Gamecocks.

BAILEY MAKING QUICK ADJUSTMENT

Making the transition from junior college to major college football usually takes some time to adjust, but safety Mychal Bailey has proven to be a quick study.

Bailey, who came to UK after two years at Southwest Mississippi Junior College, quickly earned a starting role and is third on the team with 46 tackles. He also had an interception in the win at Louisville.

LUMPKIN MAKING MORE BIG PLAYS

Senior defensive tackle Ricky Lumpkin set a goal of making more big plays this season and is hitting the mark so far in 2010.

Lumpkin has 5.5 tackles for loss in 10 games, including a quarterback sack, and also has been credited with a quarterback hurry. Although he was a starter last year, he had just 1.5 TFL and no sacks during the 2009 season.

McDERMOTT ON THE MARK

A pleasant development on the Wildcat defense has been the play of junior defensive tackle Luke McDermott.

A walk-on from Louisville who had seen limited action prior to 2010, McDermott earned a starting role early in the season and made significant contributions in each of the first four games.

Against Louisville he had a quarterback sack and a tackle for loss. He followed against Western Kentucky with a tackle for loss and an interception that set up a touchdown and had another sack to go along with four tackles against Akron. He added a sack at Florida and leads the team with three sacks on the year.

BIG PLAY DEFENDERS MUST BE REPLACED

Defensive coordinator Steve Brown has a challenge to replace six starters who made the majority of big plays for that unit last season.

Tackle Corey Peters, linebackers Micah Johnson and Sam Maxwell and cornerback Trevard Lindley each earned All-Southeastern Conference honors last year and departed dependable safety Calvin Harrison had the best season of his career.

New leaders must emerge to take their place. Some of the returning playmakers include defensive end DeQuin Evans, who led the team in tackles for loss and sacks last season; linebacker Danny Trevathan, the team's second-leading tackler; and cornerback Randall Burden, who had two interceptions and eight pass breakups.

SPECIAL FORCES

An admirer of the United States military, Coach Joker Phillips hopes to emulate the military's discipline, teamwork and efficiency with the Wildcats, most notably on special teams, which Phillips has renamed "Special Forces."

Here are some notes about the special forces:

• Junior Ryan Tydlacka is in his second season as the starting punter. He averaged a personal-best 50.5 yards per punt vs. Ole Miss, including a career-long 73 yarder. For the season he ranks third in the SEC at 45.2 yards per punt. Tydlacka was named SEC Co-Special Teams Player of the Week for his performance against South Carolina after averaging 41.5 yards per punt with three punts inside the 20.

• Freshman Joe Mansour has handled most of the kickoffs this season. He now is tied for the league-lead in touchbacks with 15 this season.

Alex Tejada of Arkansas also has 15.

- Randall Cobb is a capable punt returner and ranks fifth in the SEC in punt return average with 8.9 yards per runback. He has two punt return touchdowns in his career, including a 50-yard scoring return this season against Western Kentucky University.
- Derrick Locke is UK's all-time leader in kickoff return average at 27.3 per return, including a pair of 100-yarders in his career. Cobb also is good at it, posting a 23.1-yard average this year.
- Matt Roark has used his 6-6 height advantage to be a force on special teams. Roark has blocked six kicks during his career, including five extra points and a field goal. He has one block this year, swatting an extra point at Florida.
- UK ran a successful fake field goal at Florida, with holder Randall Cobb throwing to Chris Matthews for an 11-yard touchdown.

McINTOSH DEBUTS

Sophomore Craig McIntosh has handled field goals the last seven games, making 9-of-11 field goals and 26-of-27 extra points. He has made seven consecutive field goals, including a long of 50 yards at Ole Miss. It's the longest streak since Lones Seiber made seven in a row in 2007. Taylor Begley hit nine in a row in 2005.

Last year, McIntosh handled the kickoff duties for Kentucky's last 10 games, posting 11 touchbacks in 51 kickoffs. He finished 2009 ranked fourth in the SEC in total touchbacks.

CATSCELLANEOUS

"OPERATION WIN" BEGINS

New head coach Joker Phillips calls his plan for Kentucky football "Operation Win" -- win in the classroom, win in the community and win on the field.

"Operation Win is definitely a process, a growing process," Phillips said. "We have to get our kids thinking about the three things we want them to do -- win in the classroom, win in the community and win on the field.

"We have to eat, sleep and breathe Operation Win. We have to ingrain it in our kids' minds."

While keeping the bedrock principles of hard work, personal responsibility and honest communication in place, Phillips has numerous changes and accomplishments during the first few months of Operation Win:

- A strong finish to recruiting as several well-regarded prospects committed to the Wildcats in the 48 hours leading up to the signing day in February;
- The addition of Ray "Rock" Oliver, a highly respected coach from the Cincinnati Bengals, to lead the strength and conditioning workouts. The players have responded favorably to the challenges brought by Oliver and his staff.
- Pushing the tempo of spring practice with the goal of improving the team's practice speed and intensity.
- The team compiled a composite 2.66 grade-point average in the spring, up from 2.35 last fall.
- A strong start to the 2011 recruiting campaign.

PHILLIPS MAKES HISTORY IN DEBUT SEASON

With wins over Louisville, Western Kentucky and Akron, Joker Phillips became the first UK head coach to start 3-0 in his debut season since the legendary Paul "Bear" Bryant went 3-0 in his first season with Kentucky in 1946.

SEPTEMBER TO REMEMBER

Kentucky opened the 2010 season at 3-0 for the third time in the last four seasons. The Wildcats also began 3-0 in 2007 and 2008. Since 2007, Kentucky is 13-2 in the month of September.

CONTINUED SUCCESS IN 2009

Kentucky won seven games during the 2009 season and advanced to the Music City Bowl, continuing UK's success in recent seasons.

- UK has won at least seven games in each of the last four seasons, the first time that has been accomplished in almost a century – since 1909-12.
- UK has gone to four-straight bowl games for the first time in school history.
- UK extended its school-record non-conference win streak to 18 games before a loss in the Music City Bowl.
- UK notched three SEC road wins – at Auburn, Vanderbilt and Georgia – for the first time in 32 years, since 1977.
- UK defeated Auburn for the first time in 43 years, since 1966. It was also UK's first win at Auburn in nearly half a century, since 1961.
- UK won at Georgia for the first time in 32 years, since 1977.
- UK's 42-0 win over Miami (Ohio) was its first shutout in 13 years.
- UK had three come-from-behind wins in the fourth quarter (vs. Louisville, Auburn, Georgia), giving the Wildcats 12 such wins over the last four seasons.
- For the third-straight year, Kentucky fans broke the school record for average attendance at 69,594 per game, with three crowds over the 70,000 mark.

COACHING STAFF CHANGES

After Joker Phillips was named head coach, there were four changes on the Kentucky coaching staff.

Tee Martin inherited Phillips' former slot as wide receivers coach. Martin, a former quarterback in the NFL and CFL, came to UK from New Mexico. He has extensive recruiting ties in Georgia, particularly in the Atlanta area, along with his native Alabama and throughout the South.

Lexington native Mike Summers was brought in to coach the offensive line. A veteran collegiate coach who also has experience in the NFL, Summers' lines have been the power plants for dynamic offenses at several schools, most recently at Arkansas.

David Turner, who was at Kentucky in 1993-94, returned to coach the Wildcat defensive line. He has been at four Southeastern Conference schools, Alabama, Vanderbilt, Mississippi State and UK.

Former UK player and assistant coach Greg Nord has returned to his alma mater as special teams coordinator and tight ends coach. Nord coached the running backs under Jerry Claiborne from 1982-89.

There was also one change among the graduate assistant coaches, as former Wildcat wide receiver Tommy Cook returned to his alma mater and will be the GA for the defensive staff.

It's A WILDCAT STATE

Kentucky is often referred to as a "basketball state," given the fact that UK arguably is the greatest men's basketball program in collegiate history.

However, we like to think of Kentucky as a "Wildcat state" because of the tremendous overall support for UK athletics. In 2009-10, Kentucky was one of only five schools to rank in the nation's top 25 in attendance for football, men's basketball and women's basketball.

In addition, Kentucky has ranked in the nation's top 35 in football attendance every year since Commonwealth Stadium was expanded in 1999. On game day, Commonwealth Stadium usually becomes the third-largest city in Kentucky.

And, over the years, one would be hard-pressed to find a school with the ups-and-downs of Kentucky football, yet has the solid bedrock of support enjoyed by the Wildcat gridders. For example, contrast Kentucky with other institutions from so-called "basketball states." Kentucky, North Carolina, Kansas, Duke, and Indiana rank 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, and 10th (respectively) in all-time college basketball victories. Here is the average attendance for those schools in the 2009 football season:

School	2009 average attendances
Kentucky	69,594
North Carolina	56,607
Kansas	50,581
Indiana	41,833
Duke	26,314

Kentucky a basketball state? We say it's a Wildcat state.

FAMILY TIES AT KENTUCKY

- Alex and Nathan Dutton are identical twin brothers.
- WR Aaron Boyd is the brother of former UK quarterback Shane Boyd, who is now with the Sacramento Mountain Lions (UFL).
- OL Dave Ulinski is the grandson of former Wildcat, Harry, a center/linebacker at UK from 1946-49. Ulinski is one of UK's retired jersey honorees.
- WR Matt Roark is the son of Ray Gover, a UK football letterman from 1985-88 as a defensive back and wide receiver.
- TE Gabe Correll is the grandson of Ray Correll, who played for the Wildcats in 1951-53 and is one of Kentucky's retired jersey honorees.
- FB Brian Murphy is the son of Pat Murphy, who played football at UK in the early 1970s and brother of Sean Murphy, a UK footballer from 2003-07.
- C Sam Simpson's father (also named Sam) played football at Kentucky from 1977-79.
- Ryan Phillippi is a third-generation Kentucky quarterback. His grandfather, Chuck, was a UK QB in the 1950s and father Kent was a UK QB in the 1970s.

Did you Know?

- The Kentucky cheerleaders did it again in January, winning an unprecedented 18th national championship – including 14 of the last 16 – at the annual Universal Cheerleaders Association competition.
- Wildcat superfan Jim Brown had an attendance streak of 412 consecutive home games, but had to miss the Alabama game on Oct. 3, 2009 because of illness. He had seen every home game since 1938, with the exception of 1944 (military service, World War II). For more on Brown, see the feature story on page 140 of the UK football media guide.
- Kentucky is one of only 10 schools that have won an NCAA men's basketball championship while also having a claim on a national championship in football.
- UK is one of only seven universities in the U.S. that have programs in agriculture, engineering, law, medicine and pharmacy on a single campus.

HEAD COACH JOKER PHILLIPS

- Named the 36th head coach of the Kentucky football program on Jan. 4, 2010
- Named the head coach in waiting of the Kentucky football program in Jan. 2008
- Joe "Joker" Phillips, Jr., was nicknamed "Joker" as a baby by his grandfather in order to distinguish him from his father, Joe Phillips Sr.
- Participated in football, basketball and track at Franklin-Simpson HS; all-state in football, playing quarterback and cornerback; all-region in baseball
- Wide receiver at UK under coaches Fran Curci and Jerry Claiborne, finishing his career fifth on the school career receiving list with 75 catches for 935 yards and nine touchdowns
- Wide receiver with Washington (NFL) in 1985 and 1987; Toronto (CFL) 1986
- Received bachelor's degree in advertising from UK in 1986

WHAT THEY'VE WRITTEN ABOUT JOKER PHILLIPS

Quotes from January, 2008, when Phillips was named head coach of the future. Quotes are from articles in the Lexington Herald-Leader, Louisville Courier-Journal, Danville Advocate-Messenger, The Cats'Pause, KentuckySportsReport.com, Nashville Tennessean:

• "Phillips' credentials certainly scream head coach. He's been an outstanding position coach, ace recruiter, master motivator and his (2006- 07) offenses at UK have been a pair of the best in school history. (His) ability to connect with players, their families and coaches may be his greatest strength." – Matt May, The Cats' Pause

• "I just think it was a great move by the university and a great move for the program. Coach Joker was instrumental in my career. He knows how to go out and get players, and he recognizes how to get the best out of the players he brings in. You know the program will be in good hands because he care so much about Kentucky football." – All-SEC tight end Jacob Tamme, now with the Indianapolis Colts

• "He has all the charisma a head coach would have. I'm glad Kentucky did what they had to do to keep him, because other people were going to keep coming after him. With Joker Phillips, they're not just making a good minority hire. They're making a great hire, period." – Lou Holtz, longtime head coach and current ESPN analyst

• "And when Phillips choked up Friday talking about his home state, and his hometown of Franklin, it reminded you of the Kentucky kids – Andre' Woodson, Jacob Tamme, Keenan Burton, to name three – who helped turn the program around. They were Kentucky kids who wanted to be here, succeed here and build a foundation for success. Joker Phillips is one of those Kentucky kids. He's a reason why right now, in football, Kentucky has a good thing going. It's smart to take advantage of it." – John Clay, Lexington Herald-Leader

• "I felt like he was a guy I could really relate to. When he was recruiting me, he was really open and honest the whole time about me making the best decision for myself and not downplaying anybody else. He just played up Kentucky. I like that." – 2009 All-SEC defensive tackle Corey Peters

• "Cats are smart to name Phillips future coach" – Louisville Courier- Journal headline of a column by Rick Bozich

• "There's not a finer man than Joker Phillips. When he was a kid, he was never in trouble. He hung around the little league park to help kids when he was in high school. He was just a nice kid to be around. You knew he was going to be a good guy. I'm not surprised in the least that he has been this successful." – Gary Moyers of the Danville Advocate-Messenger, who covered Phillips for the Bowling Green Daily News during the coach's high school playing days

• "Joker Phillips is one of the finest college football coaches I know. He's a fine person, too. That's why I believe the football program will be in fine hands once current coach Rich Brooks decides to leave the program on his own terms." – Keith Taylor, KentuckySportsReport.com

2010 GAME REVIEWS

KENTUCKY 23, LOUISVILLE 16

SEPT. 4, 2010

Kentucky used three spectacular touchdown drives in the first half, jumping on in-state rival Louisville 20-3 under first-year head coach Joker Phillips, then held on to defeat the Cardinals 23-16 in the first game of the newly renovated Papa John's Cardinal Stadium.

The Wildcats received the opening kickoff and wasted no time getting on the board, scoring on a two-play 70-yard drive. La'Rod King caught a 38-yard pass on the first play and Derrick Locke blazed 32 yards for the touchdown, giving UK a 6-0 lead.

Later in the first quarter, senior quarterback Mike Hartline led a 10-play, 92-yard drive capped by Locke's second touchdown run of the game, this one from one-yard out, to give UK a 13-0 lead.

Louisville got on the board in the second quarter with a field goal. UK responded when wide receiver Randall Cobb lined up as the quarterback in the "WildCobb" formation and rushed 51 yards untouched down the sideline to give the Cats their biggest lead of the day at 20-3.

Louisville's defense held tough in the second half, allowing three points to the Wildcats when Tydlacka nailed a 41-yard field goal in UK's opening drive of the second half. The Cardinals answered quickly to the Wildcats' field goal when Bilal Powell rushed 80 yards to score the Cardinals' lone touchdown on the day and cut the UK lead to 10.

Louisville's next two possessions ended in turnovers as junior college transfer Mychal Bailey gathered an interception and Louisville native Ridge Wilson recovered a fumble. In the fourth quarter, Louisville marched 71 yards down the field, converting several third- and fourth-down conversions to tack on a 27-yard field goal from Philpott and get the game within 23-16. However, the Wildcats took the kickoff with 3:16 to play and tallied three first downs to run out the clock.

The victory was the fourth in a row for the Wildcats over the Cardinals as Hartline became the first starting quarterback to go 3-0 in Governor's Cup history. Hartline completed 17 of 26 passes for 217 yards. Locke reached the century mark by rushing for 104 yards and two touchdowns.

Defensively, UK was led by junior linebacker Danny Trevathan, who had 11 tackles, including 3.5 tackles for loss.

KENTUCKY 63, WESTERN KENTUCKY 28

SEPT. 11, 2010

Quarterback Mike Hartline accounted for four touchdowns and wide receiver Randall Cobb had a hand in three TDs in leading Kentucky to a dominating 63-28 victory over in-state foe Western Kentucky University at Commonwealth Stadium.

WKU actually got on the board first and started the scoring a minute and 13 seconds into the game, getting a 59-yard rushing touchdown from junior tailback Bobby Rainey. However, the Hilltoppers did not score again until 1:15 left in the half as Kentucky posted 35 consecutive points to take a commanding lead in the game.

The UK scoring surge started when Hartline drove the Cats down the field, setting up a two-yard touchdown pass to senior wide receiver Chris Matthews. Kentucky scored again at the end of the first quarter after walk-on defensive tackle Luke McDermott made his first career interception deep in WKU territory. Two plays later, Hartline dove into the endzone on a quarterback sweep to give UK a lead it would not relinquish.

Kentucky scored four more touchdowns in the second quarter, starting with a 50-yard punt return for a touchdown by Cobb. Senior tailback Derrick Locke poked the ball in the endzone from one-yard out for his third rushing touchdown of the season and senior fullback/tailback Moncell hauled in a 15-yard scoring pass from Cobb. UK ended the half when Hartline completed a four-yard pass in the corner of the endzone to sophomore La'Rod King to give UK a 42-14 lead at halftime. It was the most points UK had scored in the first half of a game since tallying 56 vs. North Dakota in 1950.

The Wildcats scored three times in the second half, getting a 35-yard touchdown reception from Cobb late in the third quarter. Seeing his first collegiate action, freshman tailback Raymond Sanders scored two rushing touchdowns in the final seven minutes of the game to give UK the 63-28 victory.

Hartline did an excellent job leading the offense and completed 16 of 20 passes for 213 yards and three TDs while adding the rushing touchdown. Cobb totaled 207 yards and three TDs in rushing, receiving, passing and kick returns. Rainey also had an outstanding game for WKU with 184 rushing yards and two touchdowns.

KENTUCKY 47, AKRON 10

SEPT. 18, 2010

Tailback Derrick Locke rushed for a career-high 166 yards and two touchdowns, quarterback Mike Hartline threw for 250 yards and two TDs and the Kentucky defense stifled the visitors for most of the game as the Wildcats defeated Akron 47-10.

Leading 6-3 midway through the second quarter, thanks to a pair of Craig McIntosh field goals, the Kentucky offense got hot and posted touchdowns on six consecutive possessions. Hartline threw 13-yard TD passes to wide receivers Randall Cobb and Chris Matthews to give the Cats a 20-3 advantage at halftime. Cobb's TD was the 28th of his career, moving him into second place on the UK career touchdown list.

Locke went to work after intermission, scoring on runs of five and 56 yards. In addition to his career-high single-game effort, Locke also became the seventh Wildcat in school history to rush for more than 2,000 yards in a career.

UK completed the scoring when freshman tailback Raymond Sanders ran for a 28-yard touchdown and sophomore tailback CoShik Williams tallied his first collegiate TD from eight yards out.

Meanwhile, the Kentucky defense limited Akron to 79 total yards in the first three quarters before substituting liberally in the final quarter. The Wildcats posted nine tackles for loss, including five quarterback sacks. Linebacker Danny Trevathan led the defense with eight tackles, including one TFL. Ten different Cats had a primary or assisted tackle for loss.

When the game clock wound down, Kentucky fans could leave Commonwealth Stadium with their Wildcats victorious and the Joker Phillips era off to a 3-0 start. It's the best start for a UK head coach in his inaugural season since 1946 when legendary Paul "Bear" Bryant did the same.

NO. 9/8 FLORIDA 48, KENTUCKY 14

SEPT. 25, 2010

Senior wide receiver Chris Matthews hauled in a career-high six catches for 114 yards and two touchdowns, but it was not enough for the Cats, who fell to the Florida Gators 48-14 in front of a crowd of 90,574 at Ben Hill Griffin Stadium in Gainesville, Fla.

Florida freshman quarterback Trey Burton began his six-touchdown career night with an 11-yard touchdown run from behind center. On the Gators' next possession, Burton switched the tables and caught an 11-yard touchdown pass from UF starting quarterback John Brantley.

In the second quarter, the Gators' Jeremy Brown ended a Kentucky drive with a 52-yard interception return for a touchdown. The Cats responded with a drive deep into Florida territory. It was there that Kentucky pulled off a fake field goal attempt, in which junior Randall Cobb, who was the holder for the kick, threw an 11-yard touchdown pass to a wide-open Matthews. The touchdown pass capped the scoring in the first half and made the score 21-7.

After Florida's Burton rushed 10 yards for a touchdown in the third quarter, the Cats' Matt Roark blocked the Gators' point-after attempt to make the score 27-7. Just over midway through the third quarter, Kentucky senior quarterback Mike Hartline threw a gorgeous 27-yard touchdown pass to Matthews to bring the Cats within 13 points. Hartline finished the game completing 21-of-39 passes for 242 yards and a touchdown. Burton and the Gators responded, however, with a nine-yard touchdown rush from the speedy freshman.

Burton continued his record-setting play in the fourth quarter with two more touchdowns. The first came on a three-yard run, the second on a seven-yard run. Burton's six touchdowns were a single-game record for the Florida program.

OLE MISS 42, KENTUCKY 35

OCT. 2, 2010

Junior wide receiver Randall Cobb totaled a career-high 267 all-purpose yards and senior running back Derrick Locke had 214 all-purpose yards, but the Cats fell on the road to the Ole Miss Rebels 42-35 on a sun-soaked afternoon in Oxford, Miss.

UK got on the board first with an eight-play, 60-yard drive with Locke accounting for all 60 yards for the Cats, including a seven-yard touchdown run on fourth-and-one. Following a fumble on the UK 11-yard line, Ole Miss used three plays to get into the end zone and tie the game at seven.

UK responded with a 12-play drive, spanning 80 yards, in which senior quarterback Mike Hartline completed three third-down passes. The drive was capped by a 15-yard touchdown pass from Hartline to Cobb.

Ole Miss took advantage of a pair of UK turnovers to notch touchdowns and pull ahead 21-14. Sophomore kicker Craig McIntosh pulled the Cats within four at the end of the half with a career-long 50-yard field goal.

Following an Ole Miss touchdown to begin the second half, the Cats responded with an 11-play drive capped by a McIntosh 42-yard field goal to bring the Cats within eight. The Rebels then scored a pair of touchdowns for a 42-20 lead early in the fourth quarter.

The Cats rallied, beginning with a 41-yard pass from Hartline to Cobb to the Ole Miss three-yard line. Locke ran it in two plays later. Cobb then made a spectacular catch on the Cats' two-point conversion attempt to bring UK within 14.

UK scored again with 1:46 left on the clock on a 13-yard touchdown catch from senior wide receiver Chris Matthews. UK's on-side kick attempt was a valiant one, but just barely slipped through Kentucky's hands and went out of bounds to give Ole Miss the ball and the win.

Hartline threw for a career-best 300 yards, with Cobb and Locke each getting a career-high 108 receiving yards. Danny Trevathan led the defensive effort with a career-high 15 tackles.

NO. 8/8 AUBURN 37, KENTUCKY 32

OCT. 9, 2010

Randall Cobb accounted for four touchdowns - two rushing, one passing and one receiving - but Wes Byrum's 24-yard field goal as time expired provided the winning margin as No. 8 Auburn held off upset-minded Kentucky, 37-34.

Cobb opened the game with a 36-yard kickoff return into Auburn territory and finished the first possession with a two-yard touchdown run. The wide receiver/quarterback, operating from the "WildCobb" formation for parts of the game, added a six-yard touchdown pass to freshman tight end Jordan Aumiller, a 16-yard TD catch from Mike Hartline and a one-yard scoring run.

In the process, Cobb tied the Kentucky career record for most touchdowns in a career with 32. He also was the first player since Aaron Boyd in 2003 to run for a touchdown, catch a touchdown pass and throw a TD pass in the same game. Cobb rang up 207 total yards during the game. Hartline had a sparkling performance as well, completing 23 of 28 passes for 220 yards and one touchdown.

Auburn also had an outstanding effort from its quarterback Cameron Newton, who had 408 yards total offense, throwing for 210 yards while rushing for 198 yards and four touchdowns.

Newton's four TD runs staked the visitors to a 31-17 halftime lead. Kentucky's defense stiffened in the second half. Safety Winston Guy stopped one possession with an interception and linebacker Danny Trevathan led the team with a career-high 17 tackles. With the spark from the defense, the Wildcats rallied to tie the game at 34-34 on a 35-yard field goal by Craig McIntosh with 7:31 left in the game.

After a muffed kickoff, Auburn took over on its own seven-yard line and methodically moved down the field. Newton drove his team 86 yards in 19 plays, converting three third-down situations, setting up Byrum for the game-winning field goal on the final play.

KENTUCKY 31, NO. 10/12 SOUTH CAROLINA 28

OCT. 16, 2010

Behind a career performance from senior quarterback Mike Hartline, Kentucky rallied from an 18-point halftime deficit to top the No. 10-ranked South Carolina Gamecocks 31-28.

Hartline completed 32-of-42 passes for 349 yards, four touchdowns and no interceptions, career highs for completions, yards and TDs. Three of the scoring passes came in the second half after the Wildcats trailed 28-10 at intermission.

USC jumped on the board first with a 30-yard touchdown run from freshman running back Marcus Lattimore. The Gamecocks then scored again with 4:40 remaining in the first quarter when quarterback Stephen Garcia connected with sophomore wide receiver Alshon Jeffery.

Following an interception by Wildcat safety Winston Guy, UK cut the Gamecocks' lead in half early in the second quarter with a 10-yard strike from Hartline to La'Rod King.

South Carolina responded with a seven-play, 77-yard drive, capped off by a 10-yard touchdown run from Lattimore to stretch the lead to 21-7. Following a 26-yard field goal from Craig McIntosh, South Carolina scored its fourth touchdown of the first half with a 47-yard pass from Garcia to Lattimore down the left sideline.

Behind by 18 at the break, the Cats didn't fold. Kentucky got back in the game in the third quarter on a magnificent 14-play, 95-yard drive, finished by a five-yard pass from Hartline to King, his second touchdown of the game.

In the fourth quarter, the Cats then scored again to pull within 28-23 when Hartline threw a 38-yard touchdown pass to Matthews down the left sideline. UK took over on its own 32-yard line with 7:31 to play and Hartline methodically moved the team downfield. Facing a fourth-and-seven situation on the South Carolina 24-yard line, Hartline put the Cats ahead with a touchdown pass to Randall Cobb with 1:15 on the clock. Cobb then swept left end for a two-point conversion to make the score 31-28. South Carolina mounted its own drive, moving to the Kentucky 20-yard line with 11 seconds to play. Garcia's pass to the end zone was deflected by Cartier Rice and then intercepted by Anthony Mosley to clinch the victory.

GEORGIA 44, KENTUCKY 31

OCT. 23, 2010

Senior quarterback Mike Hartline passed for a career-high 353 yards and tied his career high with four touchdown passes, but it was not enough for the Cats as they fell to Georgia 44-31 in front of 70,884 fans at Commonwealth Stadium.

Following a Kentucky fumble on its own 26-yard line, Georgia drove down to the three-yard line where sophomore running back Washaun Ealey ran in the first of his school-record five rushing touchdowns.

UK responded with a 16-play drive spanning 56 yards to set up a 41-yard field goal from sophomore kicker Craig McIntosh. The 7-3 score didn't stay on the board long as Georgia's Brandon Boykin returned the ensuing kickoff 100 yards for the Bulldogs' second touchdown of the game.

A pair of two-yard touchdown runs from Ealey made the score 28-3 in favor of Georgia before Hartline threw the first of two touchdown passes to sophomore wide-out La'Rod King. The first was a 35-yard pass to make the score 28-10 at halftime.

Georgia came out of the break strong with a seven-play, 70-yard drive capped off by a two-yard touchdown by Ealey. The extra point attempt was missed. King caught his second touchdown pass of the game in the final seconds of the third quarter to make the score 34-17.

Georgia responded with a scoring drive, including a one-yard touchdown run by Ealey. Kentucky senior wide receiver Chris Matthews followed that up with a nice catch-and-run down the left sideline for 39 yards and a touchdown. The Wildcats were successful in their two-point conversion attempt as Randall Cobb threw to Matt Roark.

Georgia tacked on a 30-yard field goal and Kentucky drove 59 yards on six plays, capped off by a nine-yard run from freshman running back Raymond Sanders, to give the game its final score of 44-31. Sanders finished with a career-high 16 rushes for 79 yards, and a career-high seven receptions for a career-high 77 yards receiving.

NO. 23/23 MISSISSIPPI STATE 24, KENTUCKY 17

OCT. 30, 2010

The Kentucky Wildcats fought back from a 10-point deficit late in the second quarter to tie the game, but Mississippi State got the final touchdown in the fourth quarter as the Bulldogs came out with the 24-17 win.

Mississippi State scored the game's opening 10 points thanks to a 33-yard field goal from Derek DePasquale and a 54-yard touchdown run from Vick Ballard.

Kentucky got on the board with 2:39 remaining in the first quarter when senior quarterback Mike Hartline connected with Randall Cobb on a 48-yard pass down the middle for a touchdown.

The Bulldogs scored with 2:39 left in the second quarter on a 21-yard pass from Chris Relf to Arceto Clark. The Cats pulled within seven just before the half, though, as Craig McIntosh hit a 43-yard field goal as time expired.

The Cats evened the score late in the third quarter when Hartline hit senior fullback Moncell Allen on a boodleg to the right. It was a two-yard reception for Allen, his third career receiving touchdown and second of the season.

MSU drove 63 yards for the game-winning touchdown, with Relf running it in from four yards out with 10:28 remaining. The Wildcats got two more possessions but were unable to get the tying score.

Hartline threw for 258 yards and two touchdowns. Cobb amassed a career-high 292 all-purpose yards, including career bests with 12 catches for 171 yards. Danny Trevathan paced the defense with 16 tackles, his fifth-consecutive game in double figures.

KENTUCKY 49, CHARLESTON SOUTHERN 21

NOV. 6, 2010

With tailbacks Derrick Locke and Raymond Sanders nursing injuries, CoShik Williams rushed for 96 yards and three touchdowns while Donald Russell ran for 110 yards and two TDs as Kentucky defeated Charleston Southern 49-21.

Russell began the scoring for UK with a hard-nosed 25-yard run down the right sideline, fighting through numerous tackle attempts by CSU defenders. The touchdown run capped off a seven-play, 62-yard drive.

Following a Buccaneers touchdown drive, Williams then broke free for 41 yards to get the lead back for UK, 14-7. The resilient Buccaneers responded with a 10-play 80-yard drive capped by a 17-yard touchdown reception from Deon Lee. Kentucky scored the last two touchdowns of the half though, a 53-yard touchdown reception by Chris Matthews and a three-yard touchdown run from Williams that was set up by a 47-yard pass from quarterback Mike Hartline to La'Rod King.

Hartline threw for 272 yards and two touchdowns in the game, and became the fifth quarterback in UK history to throw for 5,000 yards in a career.

The Cats' offense continued to roll in the second half, racking up 21 points, including a 36-yard touchdown reception by Randall Cobb. Cobb has been responsible for at least one score via rushing, receiving or passing in every game this season. He finished with four catches for 101 yards, his second-consecutive 100-yard receiving game.

The Kentucky defense had a season-high 10 tackles for loss. Safety Winston Guy led the way with a career-high 16 tackles. Linebacker Danny Trevathan notched 13 tackles – his sixth-consecutive game in double figures – along with a quarterback sack and tackle for loss.
