HOME RUN BREAKDOWN

NOTES

WEEKLY HONORS

Belmont has had three Ohio Valley Conference Player/Pitcher of the week honorees already in this young season. Most recently, Freshman Joshua South was named OVC Pitcher of the Week after a complete game shutout of preseason favorite Morehead State. In week three, Sophomore Jackson Campbell earned OVC Player of the Week honors after smashing a pair of long balls, scoring five runs and driving in six. He threw out three base runners and had a slugging percentage of .867. Senior pitcher Casey Queener earned OVC Pitcher of the Week honors the second week of the season after leading the team to its first win of the season. He pitched seven scoreless innings, scattering four hits and walking just one.

BOMBS AWAY

Sophomore Jackson Campbell cranked out two homers in week two's midweek game against SIU. His solo shot in the fourth and two-run long ball in the eighth marked Belmont's first and second home runs of the season. He sent another one over the fence last weekend against Morehead State. Campbell has hit three of BU's six home runs of the season, all over the left field fence.

SOUTH COMPLETES

Freshman Joshua South has been impressive in his appearances on the bump this season. Last week, South threw a complete game shutout of preseason favorite Morehead State. He only allowed multiple hits in one inning and no Eagle ever advanced past second base. Even more impressively, he threw nine complete innings without a walk.

WALK IT OUT

Junior Chandler Adkins has worked an impressive 14 walks, ranking among the OVC's best. Senior Chas Hadden has also been a problem for opponents at the plate both this season (12) and historically. Last season, Hadden drew 57 base on balls and averaged 1.10 walks per game, both ranking in the top three in the nation at the end of the season. Last season, Hadden broke the Belmont all-time record for career walks with his 146th walk of his career. He also holds the most walks in a single season, drawing 61 in 2016 with his mark of 57 last season marking the second most in Belmont history.

ACE

Senior Casey Queener has been a powerful force on the mound and the leader of the Belmont pitching staff. He leads the OVC with 48 strikeouts, 16 of those looking. Opponents are hitting just .183 off Queener.

ZACH ATTACK

Senior Zach Ehrhart has been a bright spot for the Bruins at the plate. Ehrhart has notched a hit in all but three games with five multi-hit games. In addition, he has reached base in all but two games, leads the team with 24 hits and has 15 RBI.

HAGAN HEATS UP

Junior Hagan Severance hit a stride this week. He notched six hits for a batting average of .429. He struck out only once in 14 at-bats and had an on base percentage of .500 in addition to his 11 putouts in center field.

GARDNER HEATS UP

Senior Devon Gardner has heated up at the plate in recent games. After a slow start to the season, Gardner has notched 13 of his 17 hits in the last nine games. He went 3-for-3 in game two of the series with Morehead State. This week he notched six hits in 15 at-bats.

STRONG START

Belmont started strong in Ohio Valley Conference play, winning its opening two series'. The Bruins defeated preseason conference favorite in two of three games the first weekend, holding the strong offensive team to just nine runs on the weekend. This past weekend, Belmont swept UT Martin. Belmont is off to its best conference start since 2014.

ROAD TEST

The Bruins face its first true road test this weekend. Belmont has only played away from its home diamond once this season for a midweek game at MTSU. Belmont won that game 5-4.

PRESEASON HONORS

Casey Queener was named to the 2019 Preseason All-Ohio Valley Conference Baseball team prior to the season. Last season, Queener had a breakout year on the bump as a regular weekend starter. The most dependable force on the mound for the Bruins, Queener earned a team-high 14 starts last season and struck out 96 batters in 85.1 innings of work. Opponents hit just .239 against him for an ERA of 4.22. He threw his first career complete game, shutting out conference foe Austin Peay, striking out 12 batters, scattering only three hits and walking just one.

NOTES

WATCH LIST

Sophomore Kyle Brennan has been named to the NCBWA Stopper of the Year watch-list. The national list has 75 total athletes with four from the OVC. Last season Brennan appeared in 28 games and recorded a 2.83 ERA in 47.2 innings of work. Other OVC pitchers on the list include Aaron Ochsenbein (EKU), Christian Edwards (JSU) and Aaron Stretch (SEMO).

FRIENDLY CONFINES

BU will play 33 of its 55 games at the friendly confines of E.S. Rose Park this season. The Bruins will start the season with a home-heavy campaign playing 15 of its first 16 games at home. In addition to its home games, Belmont will play 13 of its road games in its home state of Tennessee.

LOTZ OF KLOTZ

Even with an injury hindering him from making as many appearances last season, senior Kyle Klotz became Belmont's all-time leader in pitching appearances with 96. Klotz will continue to shatter the record with still a season left to play.

FAMILY TRADITION

Dave Jarvis will be accompanied by his middle son, Logan, for his 22nd season as the Head Coach of the Bruins. Logan enters his third season in a Belmont uniform under the direction of his father after sitting out last season due to injury. Coach Jarvis and Logan are the first father-son duo to go through the Belmont Athletics Program.

MILESTONES

Head Coach Dave Jarvis has hit career milestones in the last two seasons. In 2017, Coach Jarvis clinched his 900th career victory after edging Jacksonville State 3-2 on April 22nd last season. He reached the milestone in his 29th year at the helm of a baseball program, compiling wins at both Three Rivers Community College and Belmont. Last season, Coach Jarvis reached yet another milestone, winning his 600th game as the Belmont Head Coach. He reached that milestone against UT Martin in his 21st year as BU's head coach.

2018 POSTSEASON AWARDS

Last season, four Bruins earned post-season honors. Pitchers Casey Queener (Second Team All-OVC), Kyle Brennan (All-OVC Freshman Team) and Logan Bowen (All-OVC Freshman Team) all return. Matt Cogen was named to the All-OVC First Team, but will not return this season after being taken in the 2018 MLB Draft. In addition, Brennan was named to the 2018 Collegiate Baseball Freshman All-American team as a relief pitcher after an impressive freshman campaign.

BIG LEAGUES

Belmont currently has two alums on 40-man rosters in the MLB. Matt Beaty, a 2015 graduate, was added to the Los Angeles Dodgers' roster in November. Drew Ferguson was added to the San Francisco Giants' 40-man roster in December during the Rule 5 Draft.

2018 MLB DRAFT

Two members of the 2018 Belmont Baseball roster were chosen in the 2018 MLB Draft. Starting pitcher Dylan King was picked in the 18th round by the Los Angeles Angels and Outfielder Matt Cogen was selected in the 30th round by the LA Dodgers.

Entering his 22nd season at the helm of Belmont's baseball program, head coach Dave Jarvis has cultivated a rich program that's seen success both on the field and in the classroom. Jarvis has led the Bruins since their inception as a NCAA Division I institution in 1998, only suffering five losing seasons in 21 years.

Throughout his tenure, Jarvis has helped Belmont to a three conference championships and a pair NCAA tournament births in 2011 and 2012. As a coach, Jarvis has culminated an overall record of 932-714-2 in 37 years and helped produce eight seasons in which the Bruins garnered 30 or more wins. The team constructed a program-best 39 wins during the 2013 season. Belmont's continued success on the diamond has seen itself ranked in the top-10 nationally in four of NCAA's statistical categories at the conclusion of its 2016 and 2017 campaigns.

Last season the Bruins registered a 19-36 mark while registering a win over nationally ranked Vanderbilt University at First Tennessee Park. The Bruins also saw their 27th and 28th MLB draftees in Dylan King and Matt Cogen picked by the Angels and Dodgers respectively.

The previous season, the Bruins registered a 31-29 mark while finishing third in the OVC. The Bruins made their first appearance in the OVC Championship Game since joining the conference. The Bruins also amassed their 26th MLB draftee. In the past six years, Belmont has sent 13 to the pros as well as having two others sign free agent contracts. Collectively, Jarvis has coached more than 67 players who have gone on to play professionally. In 2017, outfielder Tyler Walsh was selected in the 33rd round by the Los Angeles Angels. In 2016, Belmont saw Aaron Quillen enter the draft as he was selected by the Cincinnati Reds.

The Bruins were recognized for their accomplishments during conference play last season with three All-OVC selections and a Freshman All-American award winner in Kyle Brennan. In addition to conference recognition, BU has earned nine All-America honors since Jarvis took over, including three Freshman All-American nominations. Nick Egli earned All-America honors and was awarded the 2017 Gregg Olson Award.

In 2011 Belmont beat Oklahoma State and Troy in the Baton Rouge Regional, marking the first time in program history that the Bruins won a NCAA tournament game in any sport. Concluding the landmark season, Jarvis was named the TBCA College Coach of the Year. The previous year BU carved another program-best when they started the season with a perfect 10-0 start.

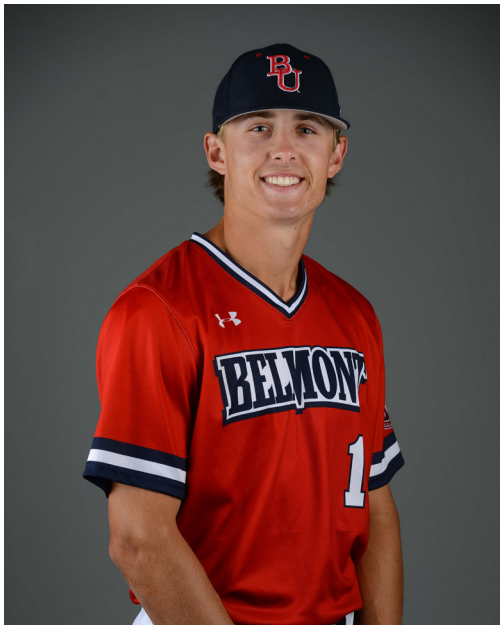

Belmont toppled its first ranked opponent in 2001 when Jarvis' squad beat then-No. 13 Georgia who would be an eventual College World Series participant. Since then the Bruins have beaten multiple ranked opponents, most recently sweeping national powerhouse Vanderbilt in 2015 when the Commodores were ranked in the top-10 on both meetings.

Jarvis fine-tuned his coaching ability with a nine-year stint as head coach at Three Rivers Community College in Poplar Bluff, Mo., from 1985-93. With Jarvis at the helm, the Raiders were consistently ranked in the National Junior College Athletic Association top-20 poll, highlighted by a No. 4 ranking in 1992. He was a three-time selection as Coach of the Year for the Midwest Community College Athletic Conference, as well as garnering Coach of the Year honors for women's basketball.

Jarvis broke into NCAA Division I baseball as an assistant with Murray State in the fall of 1993. At Murray, he was primarily responsible for the instruction of hitters and catchers as well as teaching base running skills. Jarvis also used his extensive junior college network to create a recruiting pipeline for the Thoroughbreds.

Jarvis finished his playing career at Arkansas State as the starting catcher and team captain. The Missouri native earned a bachelor's degree in education and later received his master's in education, both at Arkansas State.

A dedicated family man, Jarvis has three sons, Jordan, Logan, and Jackson. Logan currently plays under his father at Belmont. The family resides in Franklin, Tenn.
