COMMODORE ALL-STARS

Vanderbilt tight end Barry Burton became something of an authority on world travel last year after participating in four post-season all-star games and teammate Jay Chesley also saw post-season all-star action.

Burton, the Commodores two-time All-Southeastern Conference performer, played in the East-West Shrine Game, the Hula Bowl, the Japan Bowl and the Coaches All-America Game. The 6-2, 230-pounder was a seventh round draft selection of the World Champion Pittsburgh Steelers.

Chesley, also a concensus All-SEC player for two straight years, was picked to play in the prestigious Senior Bowl game in Mobile, Alabama. Jay, the third of the football playing Chesley brothers to star at Vandy, was drafted by the San Francisco 49ers.
