COMMODORES HEAD EAST FOR RIVALRY SHOWDOWN AT TENNESSEE

Vanderbilt travels to Knoxville to take on Tennessee in one of the Commodores' oldest series that dates back to 1888. Vandy has won the last three series going 8-1 vs. Tennessee since 2011. Last season the two teams played the entire series in Nashville in rainy weather with the Commodores sweeping the set. VU took two-of-three the last time the two teams met in Knoxville in 2012. The Dorees are 156-55-3 all time vs. the Volunteers.

TOUGH TO HANDLE

Vanderbilt's pitching staff has been tough to handle this season. The Commodores' staff entered the week leading the nation in hits per nine innings and is now allowing only 5.81 hits per nine innings. The VU hurlers lead the Southeastern Conference with 281 strikeouts and ranked fourth nationally at the beginning of the week with 9.4 strikeouts per nine innings. Tyler Beede (46), Walker Buehler (45) and Hayden Stone (38) all rank in the top 15 in the SEC in strikeouts.

DOUBLIN' DANSBY

Dansby Swanson leads the SEC with 14 doubles after his recent power surge. The Commodores' second baseman has five doubles over his last five games and eight during his 11-game hitting streak. Swanson's 14 doubles are the second-most in college baseball with the Dorees' total of 67 leading the league and ranked fourth nationally at the beginning of the week.

BIG LEAGUE DORES

Major League Baseball opened the 2014 season this week with seven former Commodores on Opening Day rosters. Pitchers David Price and Sonny Gray each got the nod on Opening Day for their respective teams in Tampa Bay and Oakland. Pedro Alvarez opened the year in the middle of the Pittsburgh lineup after an All-Star season in 2013. Ryan Flaherty began his third season in the big leagues with Baltimore and Mike Baxter opened his first season with the Los Angeles Dodgers last week in Australia. Nick Christiani made his first Opening Day roster, joining the Cincinnati Reds. Lefty Mike Minor opens the year on the disabled list in Atlanta but is expected to join the Braves' rotation in the coming weeks.

COMMODORE NOTES

Corbin by the Numbers

438 wins are the second-most in the SEC in the last 10 years.

226 wins over the last five years ranks third in the SEC during that span.

163 Commodores have been named SEC All-Academic.

145 MLB picks have been spent on Corbin's players and recruits, including 112 while at VU.

23 Commodores have earned All-American honors.

17 Dores have earned Freshman All-American honors.

9 trips to the NCAA Tournament under Corbin. Vanderbilt had made the tournament just three times prior to his arrival.

8 Vanderbilt players have been picked in the first round of the MLB Draft, including 5 in the top ten picks.

4 Super Regionals in the Corbin-Era are the only four in VU history.

1 MLB first round pick has pitched in the weekend rotation in every season since Corbin's arrival.

BEEDE, B. MILLER PRESEASON ALL-AMERICANS

Juniors Tyler Beede and Brian Miller have both been named preseason All-Americans. Beede was tagged as a first team All-American by both the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association and Baseball America. Miller earned a second team nod from the NCBWA. Both right-handers are coming off record-setting sophomore seasons for the Dores. Beede set the school record with 14 wins going 14-1, including winning his first 11 starts. Miller saved a Vandy record 16 games and took over the top spot all-time at VU with 21 saves in just his second season in the Black & Gold.

LOTS COMING BACK BUT LOTS TO REPLACE

The Vanderbilt roster welcomes back 18 lettermen from last year's SEC championship squad. Half of those 18 lettermen reside on the Commodores' pitching staff led by All-American Tyler Beede. The VU pitching staff returns 39 (72%) of the team's 54 wins from last year, 413.1 (69%) of the team's 596 innings and 358 (69%) of the club's 520 strikeouts in 2013. The Dores' offense, however, does not return as much experience with six starters from last year's lineup gone. Those six players (Tony Kemp, Mike Yastrzemski, Connor Harrell, Conrad Gregor, Spencer Navin and Jack Lupo) combined for 435 (62%) of the team's 700 hits, 286 (62%) of the club's 459 runs, 22 (54%) of the squad's 41 home runs and 106 (76%) of the team's 139 stolen bases.

B. MILLER NAMED TO STOPPER OF THE YEAR WATCH LIST

Commodore closer Brian Miller was named to the NCBWA Stopper of the Year watch list prior to the season. Miller is coming off the greatest season ever by a Vandy closer, saving a school record 16 games as a sophomore. The Franklin, Tenn. native already holds the school's all-time record with 21 saves in his first two seasons.

COMMODORE NOTES

COMMODORES TABBED SECOND IN SEC EAST

The Southeastern Conference's 14 coaches have picked Vanderbilt to finish second in the league's East division behind South Carolina. The Commodores received five first place votes in the East with the Gamecocks picking up the other nine. Florida was selected to finish third with Kentucky, Tennessee, Georgia and Missouri rounding out the East division. In the West, LSU finished just ahead of Mississippi State despite the Bulldogs receiving seven first place votes to the Tigers' six. Arkansas was voted to finish fifth followed by Ole Miss and Auburn. South Carolina was also selected as the favorite to win the league title with five votes but LSU (4), Mississippi State (4) and Vanderbilt (1) all received votes.

HEDMAN, MACIAS JOIN VANDY STAFF

The Commodores added Drew Hedman and former Commodore David Macias to the coaching staff. Hedman begins his coaching career as the Dore's volunteer assistant coach after playing professionally in the Boston Red Sox organization. Hedman was the Division III Player of the Year in 2009 as a senior at Pomona College and was a high school teammate of former Commodore Aaron Westlake. Macias serves as the team's news strength and conditioning coach after playing and working in the Chicago Cubs organization for the last five years. He was a first team All-SEC player in 2008 and played a vital role on Vanderbilt's legendary 2007 team.

VU RECRUITING CLASS TABBED 20TH

After back-to-back top-ranked classes the Commodores' freshman class was ranked 20th by Baseball America this fall. Tullahoma, Tenn. right-hander Jordan Sheffield highlights the 15-man class. The class has also proved to be extremely versatile with multiple players working at multiple positions during the fall and early spring. Nolan Rogers has logged time in the outfield as well as second base. Switch hitters Ro Coleman, Bryan Reynolds and Aubrey McCarty have all seen time in the infield and outfield. McCarty also brings the unique ability to pitch with both arms. Lefty John Kilichowski and right-hander Hayden Stone add depth to an already deep VU bullpen. Catchers Jason Delay and Karl Ellison will push junior Chris Harvey behind the plate.

FORMER DORES IN MLB POSTSEASON

Vanderbilt was well represented this past fall in major league baseball's postseason with five former Commodores making the playoffs. Pitchers David Price, Mike Minor, Sonny Gray and Nick Christiani joined third baseman Pedro Alvarez in the postseason. Price helped Tampa Bay to the American League wild card and into the American League Division Series against eventual World Series champ Boston. Minor pitched the Atlanta Braves into the postseason as the National League East Division champions. Gray joined the A's late in the season and pitched well in two postseason games for Oakland in ALDS against Detroit, including eight scoreless innings against Justin Verlander in Game 2. Alvarez starred for the Pittsburgh Pirates all season as an All-Star and into the postseason in the NLDS.

CORBIN CLOSING IN ON 500 WINS AT VANDERBILT

Head Coach Tim Corbin enters the 2014 season with 465 wins at Vanderbilt. Only long time Vandy skipper Roy Mewbourne has more wins on West End than Corbin with 655 over his 24 seasons. Corbin's winning percentage of .655 is the best among VU coaches with over 50 games.

Head Coach Tim Corbin begins his 12th season at the helm of the Vanderbilt baseball program. During his tenure Corbin has turned the Commodores into a national power and taken the program to unprecedented success leading Vanderbilt to the College World Series for the first time in 2011.

Corbin's overall record of 465-229 (.670) is second all-time in terms of wins at Vanderbilt, and first in terms of winning percentage for coaches with 100 games or more.

For the second time in his career Corbin was named the SEC Coach of the Year by the league's coaches after the Commodores posted one of the best seasons in school history in 2013. The Commodores matched the school record with a 54-12 mark and smashed the Southeastern Conference record, finishing the conference slate an amazing 26-3. Vanderbilt won every series during the regular season, including nine series sweeps. The squad outscored opponents by an average of 8.2-3.9 runs per game with the pitching staff turning in a sub 3.00 ERA for the second time in three seasons. Five Commodores earned All-American honors led by first team All-Americans Tony Kemp and Tyler Beede. Kemp became just the second Commodore in history to be named SEC Player of the Year and just the third in league history to win both Freshman of the Year and Player of the Year awards in his career. Over the summer, Beede pitched for Team USA to become the 12th Vanderbilt player to don the Stars & Stripes.

The Commodores' SEC regular season championship was the team's second in three years and third under Corbin. For the fourth time in five years the Dores played in the SEC Championship game and made their eighth straight appearance in the NCAA Tournament hosting Regionals for the third time in school history and Super Regionals for the second time.

The 2012 Vanderbilt Commodores overcame a slow start to the season to post the team's seventh straight trip to the postseason. The Dores finished the season as one of the hottest teams in the nation winning four of the last four SEC series of the regular season, including series victories over No. 3 Kentucky and at No. 4 LSU. Vanderbilt rolled into the SEC Tournament having won 12 of the last 15 regular season games. Corbin guided the Commodores to the championship game for the sixth time in nine trips, losing to a red-hot Mississippi State team in the final. Vanderbilt made the NCAA Tournament with a trip to the Raleigh Regional finishing runner-up to host NC State to end the season 35-28.

For the second consecutive season (2011-12) the Commodores' freshman class was tabbed as the nation's best by Baseball America, becoming the first school in the poll's 13-year history to post back-to-back top classes. Vanderbilt's 2012 freshman class was the unanimous top class, also picking up the honor from Collegiate Baseball. Since Corbin's arrival in 2003, Vanderbilt has earned three top-ranked recruiting classes (2005) and is the only school in the nation to have more than two top classes.

In 2012, one of Corbin's prize pupils, David Price, was named the American League Cy Young Award winner. Price was the top overall pick by Tampa Bay in 2007 after a stellar career at Vanderbilt. The southpaw went 20-5 with a 2.56 ERA and 205 strikeouts over 211 innings for the Rays to become the first Commodore to win the Cy Young.

The Commodores' magical run to Omaha saw several school records equaled or passed. VU won 54 games to match the school record set in 2007 and set the SEC record with 12 players selected in the Major League Baseball draft. Hawkins Field hosted the NCAA Regional round for just the second time in history and Super Regionals for the first time with the Dores sweeping through both rounds en route to the College World Series. Individual awards supplemented the team's success with Grayson Garvin earning SEC Pitcher of the Year and Tony Kemp picking up SEC Freshman of the Year honors. Garvin became the second VU pitcher to earn the prestigious league award joining David Price, while Kemp is the second Commodore to be named the league's freshman of the year along with Pedro Alvarez. All four awards have come under Corbin's watch. Sonny Gray, Jason Esposito, Aaron Westlake and Garvin all garnered All-American honors with Kevin Ziomiek, T.J. Pecoraro, Conrad Gregor and Kemp being named Freshmen All-American.

The 2010 Commodores racked up the second-most wins in school history finishing the year with a 46-20 mark, eventually falling at Florida State in the third game of the Super Regional. In order to get to Florida State the team advanced out of the Louisville regional, a place that saw the Dores' 2009 season end. During the regular season, Corbin led the Commodores to a 16-12 mark, good enough for third in the Southeastern Conference East division behind Florida and eventual national champion South Carolina.

The 2008 draft saw eight Commodores selected, highlighted by Pedro Alvarez who was taken with the second overall pick by the Pittsburgh Pirates. Vanderbilt became the first school in draft history to have the first overall pick (David Price in 2007) and second overall pick in consecutive drafts.

In 2007, Corbin guided the Commodores to their best season ever, finishing with a school record 54 wins. The team also achieved a No. 1 national ranking for the first time in school history and held that honor for 13-of-15 weeks during the regular season.

The Vanderbilt baseball team also swept through the Southeastern Conference, winning both the regular season and tournament crown for the first time ever and it marked the first time an SEC team had done it since 1996. The team lost only one conference series the entire season against SEC West Division winner Arkansas in Fayetteville and avenged the series loss by defeating the Razorbacks in the SEC tournament title game.

The conference recognized Corbin for the work he had done, naming him SEC Coach of the Year. Corbin also picked up Co-National Coach of the Year honors from College Baseball Insider and regional Coach of the Year honors by the American Baseball Coaches Association.

The Commodores hosted their first-ever NCAA regional as the No. 1 National Seed and arrived as a power in college baseball. Corbin's success and methods of running the Vanderbilt program has earned him respect among the college and international baseball communities. In the summer of 2006 he managed the USA Baseball National Team to a 28-2-1 record that culminated with a gold medal finish at the FISU (International University Sports Federation) World University Championship in Havana, Cuba. The .919 winning percentage set a new national team high and it garnered special recognition by the United States Olympic Committee.

In 2006, he led a youthful Commodore squad to a 38-27 record and sixth-place finish in the rugged Southeastern Conference. The team was the youngest team in the league, with seven everyday starters being freshmen or sophomores. For the second time in three seasons, Corbin guided the team to the SEC Tournament Championship game and the young squad also gained valuable NCAA experience after advancing to the championship round of the Atlanta Regional. The 2006 team posted impressive series wins over College World Series participant Georgia, Super Regional participants South Carolina and Ole Miss, and took series on the road against Florida and LSU. The team handed LSU its worst conference loss at home in school history in the process.

In 2004, Corbin not only directed the Commodores to their first NCAA Tournament appearance in 24 years, he guided them to their first-ever Super Regional as they swept through the Charlottesville Regional with victories over George Mason, Princeton and host Virginia. In the Super Regional, they fell to the eventual national runner-up, Texas, but still carved out a piece of history as the first team in NCAA baseball history to make it that far one year after having finished with a sub-.500 record. Along the way Vanderbilt racked up 45 wins, was the only team to rank among the SEC's top five in earned run average (first), batting average (fourth) and fielding percentage (first) and finished with a .703 winning percentage, which was third-best in the highly competitive conference, which sent nine schools to the NCAA Tournament. The Commodores' school-record .978 fielding percentage was second in the nation, and their 30 error-free games were 11 more than the previous season.

His first Vanderbilt team in 2003 finished 27-28 overall and 14-16 in the SEC, good enough for second in the Eastern Division. It earned a conference tournament berth with a season-ending sweep of Tennessee capped by a dramatic ninth-inning rally in the series finale. The overall and conference victory totals were the most by a first-year Vanderbilt coach and were made more impressive by the fact that the Commodores were 12-5 in one-run games. That squad set then school records for fielding percentage (.972), fewest errors in a season (60), most saves in a season (15) and fewest walks allowed in a season (168). The team notched series victories over nationally-ranked conference foes LSU, Auburn and Florida, each among the top 15 at the time. Plus, on May 6, 2003, Vanderbilt recorded the first perfect game in school history, which was a collective effort. Four different pitchers contributed to the 4-0 victory over Western Kentucky.

Corbin, along with his coaching staff, are a tireless group that saw their recruiting efforts pay in 2005, 2011 and 2012 as their recruiting class was labeled the nation's best by Baseball America. Professional baseball has also taken notice of the program with eight Commodores being selected in the first round since 2003.

Before Corbin was hired as the 21st coach in program history, Vanderbilt had not earned a spot in the conference tournament in a decade but made the post-season tournament in 2004. During the 2004 regular season, Vanderbilt swept a series against Mississippi State for the first time. It was one of three conference whitewashes and one of five series wins in all. His efforts earned him the 2004 Vanderbilt Coach of the Year award and a nomination for the Nashville Sports Council's Sports Person of the Year. Plus, a school-record five players were named to the SEC All-Tournament team, five players were drafted on the first day and seven VU players in all were chosen in the Major League Baseball Draft, topped by No. 6 overall pick, pitcher Jeremy Sowers.

Corbin came to Vanderbilt following nine seasons as an assistant coach at baseball power Clemson. During his time there (1994-2002), the Tigers had more victories than all but four programs.

Prior to his tenure at Clemson, Corbin was head coach at Presbyterian College for six seasons beginning in 1988. There he restarted a baseball program that had been dormant for several years.
