TEAM NOTES

Limbaugh in fifth season

Vanderbilt head coach Scott Limbaugh, who is in his fifth season with the Commodores, has led Vanderbilt to 12 team titles in his tenure, with the Commodores capturing two titles this season - at the Nike Golf Collegiate and the SEC Championship - and finishing runner-up at the Tavistock Collegiate. The Commodores also won the stroke-play portion of the East Lake Cup in Atlanta, Ga., to close out the fall season.

Limbaugh has the Commodores in their fifth consecutive regional, a program first, and has led the team to four consecutive NCAA Championship appearances. The Commodores have finished second and fourth, respectively, in the last two NCAA Championships in stroke play and have advanced to match play in each of the seasons. Limbaugh was named as one of five finalists for the Dave Williams Collegiate Coach of the Year in 2015, in 2016, was named the GCAA Southeast Region Coach of the Year, and was recently named the 2017 SEC Coach of the Year, the first award won by a Vanderbilt men's golf coach.

All-SEC

The Southeastern Conference handed out their all-conference hardware earlier this month, and the Commodores were front and center in the selections honoring the best in the league in 2016-17. Vanderbilt head coach Scott Limbaugh won the program's first SEC Coach of the Year honor and freshman John Augenstein was named the league's Freshman of the Year, while Patrick Martin and Matthias Schwab were named to the All-SEC First Team and Theo Humphrey was named to the All-SEC Second Team for their accolades this season.

All-Americans

Matthias Schwab became the third Commodore to be honored as a first-team All-American by the Golf Coaches Association of America in 2016, joining Hunter Stewart in 2015 and Brandt Snedeker in 2004. Additionally, two of the five Freshmen All-Americans in 2016 were Commodores - Will Gordon and Patrick Martin. Gordon and Martin became the program's first freshmen All-Americans. Gordon was also named a third-team All-Americans in 2016, while Martin was an honorable mention selection.

Golfstat Rankings

Vanderbilt spent a majority of the season ranked number one in the latest Golfstat.com poll, the first time in the history of the program the Commodores had reached the top spot in the Golfstat rankings. Currently, the Commodores are third behind Southern California and Oklahoma State. Individually, Martin is ranked 14th, Schwab 21st, and Humphrey 37th in the nation according to Golfstat.

Schwab closing career strong

Senior Matthias Schwab from Rohrmoos, Austria, is considered one of the top collegiate golfers in the nation, and his play this season has certainly reflected that idea. Schwab has finished in the top 12 in seven of nine tournaments he has played this year, with his best finish coming as a runner-up finish at the Tavistock Collegiate. For his career, the senior from Rohrmoos, Austria, now has 11 top-five finishes and 16 top-10 finishes. Earlier this spring, Schwab took part in the Arnold Palmer Invitational with the Arnold Palmer exemption, an award voted on by his peers at the 2016 Palmer Cup which is given to the player that best represents "the 'Arnold Palmer Legacy'". Schwab missed the cut by three shots at the event, which was held March 16-19 at Bay Hill. In Schwab's four-year career, he is an astonishing 85.6% against opponents.

Vanderbilt wins SEC Championship

The Commodores won their first SEC Championship April 21-24 in Sea Island, Ga., after claiming three 3-2 victories in match play over Ole Miss, Florida, and Texas A&M, respectively, to close out the victory. Vanderbilt also won the stroke-play portion of the tournament, carding a three-round score of 11-under par, 829 (276-281-272), defeating second-place Texas A&M by six shots. Sophomore Patrick Martin finished second in the individual standings after losing to Florida's Alejandro Tosti on the second playoff hole. Vanderbilt captured their first SEC Championship in 52 years of appearances at the championship. The Commodores' previous-best finish was tied for second in 2015.

Vanderbilt finishes T-2 at College Grove Regional

Vanderbilt finished in a tie for second at the College Grove Regional and advanced to the NCAA Championship for the fourth consecutive season. Four Commodores finished in the top 17, with sophomore Patrick Martin leading the way with a T-3 finish. Freshman John Augenstein finished in a tie for 13th, junior Theo Humphrey in 16th, and senior Matthias Schwab in a tie for 17th.

TEAM NOTES

Career leaders currently on course for Dores

Four Commodores currently competing on the course are the four of the top career scorers in program history. Sophomore Patrick Martin is first with a 70.53 stroke average in 62 stroke-play rounds played, with Matthias Schwab second a 70.82 stroke average in 104 total rounds. Junior Theo Humphrey is third at 71.49 strokes per round in 93 total rounds and sophomore Will Gordon is fifth all-time with a 71.61 stroke average in 62 rounds. Current PGA Tour member Jon Curran, who played from 2005-09 is fourth with a 71.56 stroke average, and PGA star Brandt Snedeker, who went 3-0 at the 2016 Ryder Cup, is sixth with a 71.77 career average. Snedeker played for Vanderbilt from 2000-2004.

Augenstein fitting in

Freshman John Augenstein, from Owensboro, Ky., is already fitting in nicely with his more veteran teammates this year. Augenstein has tied Matthias Schwab and Theo Humphrey for the lowest round of the season with a 66 in the first round of the Nike Golf Collegiate at Colonial Country Club, while also posting a career-best fifth-place finish at the tournament. He also carded a top 20 (T-17) finish at the Tavistock Collegiate and the NCAA College Grove Regional (T-13). In the final two matches at the SEC Championship, Augenstein clinched both matches against Florida and Texas A&M.

Balanced Effort

Combined among the five starters, Vanderbilt has had one individual champion (Patrick Martin at Schenkel Invitational), 13 total top fives, and 20 top 10's. As a team, Vanderbilt has finished in the top four in all but one tournament this season.

Dores not afraid to go low

In 2016-17, the Commodores have counted 40 rounds in the 60's on reknown courses - Pebble Beach Golf Links, Colonial Country Club, Isleworth Country Club, East Lake Golf Club, Seaside Golf Club, and the Golf Club of Houston to name a few of the courses.

Humphrey, Martin, and Schwab named Nicklaus Award Semifinalists

Theo Humphrey, Patrick Martin, and Matthias Schwab have been named three of 30 semifinalists for the Jack Nicklaus Award, which is given to the top collegiate Division 1 golfer. Division I finalists for the award will be named May 25. Nicklaus Award recipients will be announced June 1 with the honor presented by Jack Nicklaus at a ceremony during the final round of the Memorial Tournament presented by Nationwide at Muirfield Village Golf Club. In addition to receiving the Jack Nicklaus National Player of the Year Award, the five recipients will compete in the Barbasol Shootout for an exemption into the PGA TOUR's Barbasol Championship, held July 20-23, at the Robert Trent Jones Golf Trail at Grand National in Opelika, Ala. The Barbasol Shootout will be held Saturday, June 3 at the storied Scioto Country Club in Columbus, Ohio - the same club where Jack Nicklaus first learned the game of golf as a young boy.

2016 NCAA Championship

The Commodores finished in a tie for fourth with USC in stroke play, and fell to the Trojans in quarterfinal action on the first day of match play. Individually, Matthias Schwab led the way, finishing in a tie for third.

Martin receives 2nd Annual Tom Cousins Award

Sophomore Patrick Martin was selected for the second annual Tom Cousins Award at this year's East Lake Cup by a selected panel of industry leaders for their accolades both on and off of the golf course. After losing his grandfather to bone cancer in 2009 – the man responsible for introducing Martin and his family to golf – he decided to create a benefit golf tournament, inviting all to make a donation in order to participate. With the help of family, friends and local businesses, in four years the annual tournament raised more than $36,000 for the St. Vincent's Bruno Cancer Center in Birmingham, Ala. Thanks to his fundraising efforts, the Cancer Center named one of their treatment rooms after his grandfather.

The award is named after developer and philanthropist Tom Cousins, who laid out a bold vision to revitalize the East Lake community of Atlanta by providing cradle-to-college education, mixed-income housing and community wellness to break the cycle of poverty to create a holistic environment. East Lake now acts as a national model for community redevelopment through Purpose Built Communities for transforming a struggling community into a thriving neighborhood.

COACHING STAFF

Scott Limbaugh, Head Coach

Head coach Scott Limbaugh has lifted the Vanderbilt golf program to new heights in his fifth season with the Commodores.

Since his arrival prior to the 2012 campaign, Limbaugh has quickly established himself as one of the nation's preeminent coaches. He has mentored two first-team All-Americans, four Palmer Cup selections, a Walker Cup member and six total All-America selections, all while also garnering five consecutive NCAA Regional bids and four consecutive NCAA Championship appearances from 2014-16 for the first time in program history. Under Limbaugh, Vanderbilt has won 12 team tournaments -- the most by a head coach in Vanderbilt golf history -- and garnered 10 individual tournament winners.

The coach has also led Vanderbilt to a second-place (2015) and fourth-place (2016) finish in the stroke play portion of the NCAA Championship and Elite Eight appearances in 2015 and 2016. He has also had two of his players participate in a PGA Tour event: Hunter Stewart in 2014 at the RBC Heritage and Matthias Schwab at the Arnold Palmer Invitational in 2017.

Limbaugh's student-athletes have evolved into some of the SEC's best. He has coached 11 All-SEC selections, one SEC Player of the Year (Hunter Stewart in 2015) and one SEC Freshman of the Year (John Augenstein in 2017). Prior to his arrival, Vanderbilt boasted only 10 All-SEC players in the entire history of the program.

In 2015, Limbaugh became a finalist for the Dave Williams National Coach of the Year. One year later he was named the 2016 GCAA Southeast Region Coach of the Year, and in 2017, he garnered the program's first SEC Coach of the Year.

The 2016-17 season has once again produced numerous firsts for the Vanderbilt program. The Dores captured the SEC Championship for the first time in program history under a new revamped format in Sea Island, Ga. The Commodores won the stroke play portion of the tournament by six shots, and then won three dramatic match-play victories against Ole Miss, Florida, and Texas A&M to win the tournament. Schwab claimed the victory over Ole Miss with a clutch putt on the 18th to defeat the Rebels, while Augenstein clinched the wins over the Gators and Aggies in extra holes, with Augenstein winning the Florida match with a decisive 10-foot putt on the 20th hole.

Vanderbilt also won the prestigious Nike Collegiate Invitational at world-renowned Colonial Country Club in Forth Worth, Texas, and knocked off a number of nationally ranked teams in the process. This season Patrick Martin and Matthias Schwab earned First-Team All-SEC honors, Theo Humphrey landed on the All-SEC Second Team and John Augenstein became Vanderbilt's first SEC Freshman of the Year honoree. Vanderbilt also advanced to its fifth consecutive NCAA regional, a program-best, where it finished in a tie for second at the College Grove Regional. That victory propelled the team to its fourth consecutive NCAA Championship.

In 2015-16, Vanderbilt won four team tournaments: the DICK's Sporting Goods Challenge, the Schenkel Invitational, the FarmLinks Collegiate Match Play and the Mason Rudolph Championship. Matthias Schwab claimed a share for the individual championship at the Carmel Cup, while Will Gordon tied for the individual lead at the Schenkel. Vanderbilt finished in second at the NCAA Franklin Regional held at the Vanderbilt Legends Club's North Course, a finish which included a final-round 20-under par, 268, the team's lowest round of the season and tied for the second-lowest round in program history. At the NCAA Championship in Eugene, Oregon, Limbaugh's Commodores finished in a tie for fourth in the four-round stroke play and advanced to match play for the second time in two years, the only two years in the program's history the team has advanced to match play.

In 2014-15, Vanderbilt had one of the most successful seasons in the history of the program, with Stewart leading the way by winning the SEC Player of the Year, the first by a Commodore men's golfer, and being named as a First-Team All-SEC selection and a First-Team All-American. He also ended the season as the No. -ranked golfer in the nation according to Golfstat, and he became the Commodores' first-ever Walker Cup member in August of 2015. Schwab was also named as an All-SEC First-Team member and a Third-Team All-American by the GCAA. Zack Jaworski was likewise named an honorable mention All-America selection. Schwab and Stewart, who each played in the Palmer Cup in 2015, were named recipients of the Michael Carter Award, which is presented to the Palmer Cup participant that best represents the qualities and ideals sportsmanship, integrity and upholding of the game.

Carson Jacobs was named to the All-SEC Second Team and Theo Humphrey to the All-SEC Freshman Team. The 2014-15 season marked the most selections to the All-America and All-SEC teams in the history of the program.

The Commodores also made a splash at the 2015 NCAA Championship, finishing second in stroke play competition before falling in the quarterfinals of match play to eventual national champion LSU in their first-ever appearance in the Elite Eight. The exploits of the 2014-15 season earned Limbaugh a spot among the nation's top collegiate coaches when he was named one of five finalists for the Dave Williams National Coach of the Year in the spring of 2015.

Astonishingly, eight of the top 11 single-season stroke averages in the history of the program have been with Limbaugh at the helm, with Stewart posting the program's top all-time stroke average at 69.49.

Prior to his arrival in Nashville, Limbaugh spent five seasons serving as the recruiting coordinator and assistant coach for the SEC and national powerhouse Alabama. Limbaugh's tenure in Tuscaloosa saw the Crimson Tide finish as the NCAA runner-up (2012), capture SEC championships in two seasons (2008, 2012) and win two NCAA East Regional titles (2009, 2012). Alabama also played in four NCAA Championships and claimed 20 team tournament titles with Limbaugh on staff.

"I believe that Vanderbilt is a special place and we can build champions on and off the golf course," said Limbaugh shortly after arriving at Vanderbilt. "There are many things that attracted me to Vanderbilt: First of all, Vanderbilt is a great university and Nashville is such an awesome location. We will have the opportunity to build champions in the classroom, on the golf course, and have young people that represent Vanderbilt in a way that Vanderbilt needs to be represented."

Individually, Limbaugh has helped mentor 16 All-Americans on the course, with five of those being first-team selections (Michael Thompson, 2008; Bud Cauley, 2009, 2010, 2011; Justin Thomas, 2012; Hunter Stewart, 2015; Matthias Schwab, 2015, 2016). Thomas, who was recruited by Limbaugh, claimed the prestigious Jack Nicklaus and Phil Mickelson awards while also earning SEC Player of the Year and SEC Freshman of the Year honors. He has also coached two Walker Cup team members (Bud Cauley, Hunter Stewart), six Palmer Cup members (Michael Thompson, Bud Cauley, Justin Thomas, Hunter Stewart, Matthias Schwab, Will Gordon), three SEC Players of the Year (Michael Thompson, 2008; Thomas, 2012; Stewart, 2015), and three additional SEC Freshmen of the Year (Bud Cauley, 2009; Cory Whitsett, 2011, John Augenstein, 2017).

Off the course and in the classroom, Limbaugh also helped recruit and tutor some of the nation's best. In 2012, he coached the NCAA Elite 89 winner in Whitsett, and in 2008, Joseph Sykora claimed the H. Boyd McWhorter SEC Student-Athlete of the Year honor. In all, Limbaugh has coached 66 Academic All-SEC honorees and six Golf Coaches Association of America (GCAA) All-America Scholar members.

Limbaugh is considered one of the nation's best recruiters. On the recruiting trail, Alabama recruited two of the top-ranked junior golfers in America in his tenure with the Crimson Tide (Bud Cauley (2008) and Bobby Wyatt (2010)), one U.S. Junior Amateur Champion (Cory Whitsett, 2010), and six American Junior Golf Association All-Americans. The Crimson Tide, according to Golfweek, also landed three top-10 recruiting classes (2008, 2010, 2011) in Limbaugh's time in Tuscaloosa.

A 2003 Huntingdon College (Ala.) graduate, Limbaugh played for the Hawks for two seasons after helping lead Central Alabama Community College to two NCAA Junior College National Championships. Limbaugh was a co-captain on that 2000 National Champion team for Central Alabama. As a golfer at Huntingdon, he competed at nationals and was team captain in 2002. After his playing career was over, Limbaugh was hired as an assistant coach at his alma mater and was elevated to head coach in June of 2004, where he served until Alabama men's golf hired him as an assistant in 2007.

Limbaugh, a Childersburg, Ala., native, was the 2005-06 Eaton/Golf Pride South Region NCAA Division III Coach of the Year. He coached Huntingdon to a fourth-place NCAA Division III men's golf finish in 2007, which was its best finish in school history. It was Huntingdon's third straight NCAA appearance as Limbaugh's teams qualified in all three of his seasons as head coach. His first Huntingdon team in 2005 finished ninth before the 2006 team finished 15th. His 2006 team was ranked No. 1 for almost the entire season in Division III.

Limbaugh produced three All-Americans during his time at Huntingdon, including Alex Balog, Jacob Collinworth and Matt Mahanic. Collinworth was a first-team selection after finishing second individually at the NCAA Division III Championships.

Limbaugh and his wife, Kate, have two daughters, Malley (6), and Annie (4), and one son, Thomas (1).

COACHING STAFF

Dusty Smith, Assistant Coach

Dusty Smith joined the Vanderbilt men's golf staff in the summer of 2011 after serving as an assistant coach with the men's and women's golf teams at Lamar University for three seasons before his arrival in Nashville.

Smith is the Commodores' recruiting coordinator and is in charge of the annual Vanderbilt Golf Camp at Legends Club every summer. He also spearheads Vanderbilt's golf fundraiser, Vanderbilt Golf Day, every spring.

Along with Coach Limbaugh, Smith has led Vanderbilt to unprecedented new heights as a program. In all since his arrival in Nashville six years ago, the Commodores have:

- Won 12 team tournaments
- Captured the school's first SEC Championship in April of 2017
- Had 10 individual medalists in his tenure
- Coached two first-team All-American Vanderbilt golfers and Eleven All-SEC selections, including four first-team members
 - Had six All-American selections
 - Four Palmer Cup members
 - Coached Vanderbilt's first ever SEC Player of the Year (Hunter Stewart) and SEC Freshman of the Year (John Augenstein)
 - One Walker Cup member
 - Three consecutive NCAA Championship appearances
 - Had two golfers earn exemptions into PGA Tour events (Hunter Stewart and Matthias Schwab)

Vanderbilt finished fourth in 2015 and 2016 in the final Golfstat rankings, and in both seasons, the Commodores advanced to match play at the NCAA Championship. Both appearances marked the best-ever finish at the championship and the program's first foray with match play, which pits the top eight teams from the four-round stroke-play competition.

Smith, a former Ping All-American, served as an assistant coach with the men's and women's golf teams at Lamar, his alma mater, prior to his stint with the Commodores.

During Smith's three years at Lamar, the Cardinals men's team won the 2009 Southland Conference Championship and finished second in 2011, advancing to the NCAA Regional at Virginia Tech in May. Smith helped lead eight men's golfers to the All-Southland Conference team during his tenure, and also coached Southland Conference Player of the Year M.J. Daffue in 2011.

The Lady Cardinals picked up six tournament victories in his tenure at Lamar, and finished second in the 2011 Southland Conference Tournament. Five Lady Cardinal golfers earned All-SLC honors, with Therese Nilsson (2009) and Stine Pedersen (2011) being named the SLC Academic Student-Athlete of the Year for women's golf.

A native of The Woodlands, Smith earned honorable mention Ping All-America honors as a junior at Lamar after tying for 10th at the NCAA Championships. The following year, Smith earned All-Southland Conference honors for the third time as Lamar finished third at the NCAA Championships.

Smith, who helped The Woodlands High School win the 2002 Class 5A state championship, is a 2007 graduate of Lamar with a degree in business administration.

Smith resides in Nashville with his wife Janie and daughter Adella Jane, who was born in June of 2016.
