Commodore Outlook

While the challenges have differed from season-to-season during Melanie Balcomb's tenure as head coach at Vanderbilt, the results have been the same – nine seasons, nine NCAA Tournament appearances. As Balcomb enters season number 10, she faces a new challenge, but looks to capture that same result.

The 2011-12 Commodores return a unique blend of youth and experience. The roster shows just one senior, but Vanderbilt boasts four players (juniors Tiffany Clarke and Elan Brown, sophomores Jasmine Lister and Stephanie Holzer) who earned SEC All-Freshman honors during their respective rookie campaigns, as well as last season's SEC Sixth Woman of the Year (Holzer).

Building a team comprised mostly of juniors and sophomores, Balcomb knows she must prepare early for the battles of the SEC that will come when the calendar flips to 2012. To that end, the non-conference schedule is highlighted by visits from Oklahoma and Florida State, while the Commodores will travel to NC State.

"You don't want to go into the SEC not having played any BCS conference teams on the road, or at home for that matter," said Balcomb on her scheduling philosophy. "You don't want to play a conference team without having played that type of size and athleticism."

In addition to the three BCS conference opponents, the Commodores will travel to Austin Peay and UT-Martin before embarking on Southeastern Conference play.

The SEC schedule is one of the toughest Vanderbilt has faced during Balcomb's time in Nashville, featuring repeat opponents in perennial league powers Tennessee, LSU and Georgia, as well as two match-ups with South Carolina.

"We've never had LSU, Georgia and Tennessee, who've consistently been along with us in the top-four in the league," said Balcomb. "To have LSU, Georgia, Tennessee and South Carolina twice is by far the toughest schedule we've had in-conference."

Vanderbilt Women's Basketball - A Winning Tradition

- 19th winningest program in NCAA history (.673)
- 24 NCAA Tournament appearances & 12 straight NCAA appearances (one of eight teams)
- 12 straight 20-win seasons
- 14 Sweet 16 Appearances (Four under Melanie Balcomb)
- 1993 Final Four Participant
- Won 81.1 percent of games at Memorial Gym (83.5% under Balcomb)
- Six SEC Tournament titles in 1993, 1995, 2002, 2004, 2007, 2009 ('04, '07 & '09 under Balcomb)

The Commodores also hope to benefit from the fact they can remain in Nashville during the postseason through the first two rounds of the NCAA Tournament. The 2012 SEC Tournament will again be held at Nashville's Bridgestone Arena, while Vanderbilt will host the first and second rounds of the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Championship at Memorial Gym.

Guard play will again be a strength of Balcomb's team, as they will often play with three guards, led by sophomore Jasmine Lister. Lister led the team in scoring with 11.8 points per game, while adding 103 assists and serving as the team's top three-point threat with a 36.7 percentage.

"Jasmine played a lot of point as a freshman," said Balcomb. "She's playing this year with another level of confidence. She looks like a veteran and she'll play point as well as two-guard."

Lister's ability to slide to the two is keyed by the addition of freshmen guards Maggie Morrison and Kady Schrann.

"What's going to be different is that all three (Lister, Morrison and Schrann) of them can play one or two," Balcomb said. "It's new for us, in that we'll have one sophomore and two freshmen playing a lot in the backcourt."

The Commodores also will get contributions at shooting guard from junior Gabby Smith and sophomore Christina Foggie.

"Christina and Gabby really give us that veteran shooting presence to pair with our other young guards," Balcomb said.

The versatile Foggie averaged 9.9 points per game, but only saw action in 21 contests after battling a pair of concussions.

"Christina had 27 points in her first game, but then was in and out of the lineup," Balcomb explained. "She's really become stronger and she was already one of our best athletes."

Smith returns as one of the team's leading three-point shooters after posting a 33.9 percentage from beyond the arc last season. She will see action at guard, as well as some time at small forward.

"Gabby came as a shooter, but (in practice) she actually volunteered to play some small forward and it went really well," Balcomb said.

In addition, junior Elan Brown play guard and small forward. Brown appeared in all but one game last season, averaging 3.9 points per game.

"Elan started playing some three and four, but has played almost all small forward in preseason," Balcomb explained. "She'll give us a little more post play, while Gabby will give us more guard play."

The final component of the backcourt is freshman Nadine Ndip. Ndip, a walk-on, brings some extra athleticism and work ethic to practice.

"I love her. She plays defense, she's scrappy and is a great teammate," Balcomb said.

Clarke's development became evident at the end of the 2010-11 season, as she led the team in rebounds in three of the final four regular season contests, before leading the squad in points and rebounds in both SEC Tournament games and earning a spot on the All-Tournament Team.

"Tiffany Clarke had a really solid last five or six games and played at a very high level," said Balcomb. "We're expecting really big things from Tiffany this year if she continues developing that consistency."

Holzer was named SEC Sixth Woman of the Year last season. She averaged 12.1 points and 6.4 rebounds per game during SEC play, appearing in all 16 games off the bench.

"Steph can face-up better than anyone we have in the post and she can play with her back to the basket better than anyone we have in the post," Balcomb said. "She's very efficient with her minutes and we're hoping to get more minutes out of her. She's in much better shape, stronger and healthier than she was a year ago."

Balcomb feels Holzer's development could be the most important factor for the team this season, while pointing out that the ceiling is quite high for the sophomore.

"If she can keep herself on the floor, she could be one of the best post players to ever play here, hands down,” Balcomb said. “The more we can keep Steph Holzer on the floor, the better. She changed the game, which is why she got sixth woman. We didn’t need her at the start of games, we needed her to finish games.”

Another wildcard is redshirt freshman Clair Watkins. Watkins suffered a knee injury during preseason and missed all of last season, but once she develops, she will be able to contribute.

“Clair has to adjust to the physicality of college ball and when she does that, she’ll help us right away,” said Balcomb. “She’s very skilled. She can shoot, face-up and play with her back to the basket. She suits us very well.”

The expectations have risen to the point at Vanderbilt where each season, the goal is to compete for an SEC championship and make a run in the NCAA Tournament. This season is no different and the mix of youth and experience should help to meet that standard as Vanderbilt looks for its 13th consecutive NCAA bid.

Scouting the Lakers

Clayton State returns three starters from a team that won the NCAA Division II National Championship a season ago. Eighth year Head Coach Dennis Cox led his team to a 35-1 mark en route to the title, and sees his squad ranked preseason No.1 by Division II Bulletin, the highest preseason rank in program history. The Lakers return senior guard Tanisha Woodard, who was an All-Peach Belt Conference and Division II All-Region selection a season ago, while also being named the Peach Belt’s Defensive Player of the Year. She is two points shy of becoming the eighth player in program history with 1,000 career points. Fellow senior guard Brittany Hall led the team in three-point shooting last season (.430).

On-Deck

Up next for Vanderbilt is the regular-season opener against Alabama A&M. The Bulldogs will visit Memorial Gym on Friday, November 11, for a 6:00 p.m. tipoff. It is the season opener for both squads. The game can be heard live on Nashville Sports Radio 560 AM and see live as part of Vanderbilt All-Access on VUCommodores.com (subscription service).

Scouting the Bulldogs

Alabama A&M was picked to finish fifth in the Southwest Athletic Conference by the league’s coaches, while receiving two first place votes. Junior guard Whiquitta Tobar was named Co-Preseason Player of the Year, while junior center Gabrielle Williams earned second team Preseason All-SWAC honors. Altherias Warmley is in her 10th season as head coach at Alabama A&M and led her team to a 15-14 mark last year, going 11-7 in SWAC play. Tobar led the team in points (18.1 ppg), rebounds (6.2 rpg) and assists (87).

Commodores vs. Alabama A&M - The Series

Vanderbilt and Alabama A&M have met once, with the Commodores taking an 80-29 win in Nashville in the 2005-06 season. In the meeting at Memorial Gym, Vanderbilt jumped out to an 18-0 lead and did not allow the Bulldogs a point for over 10 minutes to open the contest.

Vanderbilt vs. The SWAC

The Commodores have posted a 6-1 mark against the SWAC. The last meeting against a SWAC opponent was the victory over Alabama A&M in 2005-06. Before that, Vanderbilt had not played a SWAC team since the 1993-94 season, when they defeated Texas Southern, 103-44, at Memorial Gym in the regular season, then took down Grambling, 95-85, in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, also at Memorial Gym. Vanderbilt first played the SWAC in 1985-86. The Commodores traveled to Baton Rouge, La., to take on Southern, falling to the Jaguars in their only loss to a SWAC team. That same year they traveled to Mississippi Valley State and defeated the Delta Devils. Both teams traveled to Nashville the following season, with the Commodores taking a pair of wins.

Just For Starters

The Commodores have won their last five-straight season openers, as well as eight of nine under Head Coach Melanie Balcomb. Last season, Vanderbilt downed Howard, 80-55, in the opener at Memorial Gym. The only defeat under Balcomb came to start the 2005-06 season, when Vandy fell at Arizona State, 69-60, in the WBCA/BTI Classic. All-time, Vanderbilt is 28-6 in season-opening contests.

The Still Young 'Dores

After fielding one of the youngest teams in the SEC a season ago, Vanderbilt will again feature one of the most youthful teams in the league. The Commodores have just one senior (Jordan Coleman) and three juniors (Elan Brown, Tiffany Clarke, Gabby Smith) on their 11-person roster. Only Alabama and Georgia join Vanderbilt in having one senior. By the measure of juniors and seniors combined, Vanderbilt returns fewer than any team in the league with four. Ole Miss has five juniors and seniors, while every other team in the conference returns at least six. While the Commodores may be young, they are certainly talented, as four returners earned SEC All-Freshman honors during their respective rookie campaigns (Brown, Clarke, Jasmine Lister and Stephanie Holzer).

Commodores Versus The Top 25

Vanderbilt will face as many as six teams that are ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 Poll: Tennessee (No. 3), Georgia (No. 13), Florida State (No. 14), Oklahoma (No. 15) Kentucky (No. 18) and LSU (No. 21). The Commodores face Tennessee, LSU and Georgia twice in SEC play, while they could potentially play Oklahoma in the annual Vanderbilt Thanksgiving Tournament at Memorial Gym. This means Vanderbilt will have at least eight games against teams ranked in the AP's preseason poll. The Commodores went 2-6 against ranked opponents in 2010-11.

Preseason Honors From Media

Stephanie Holzer was named Preseason Second Team All-SEC by regional and select national media, it was announced by the league on October 25. Holzer, who was honorable mention and SEC Sixth Woman of the year as a redshirt freshman in 2010-11, returns after averaging 11.1 points and 6.0 rebounds per game. She was joined on the second team by C'eira Ricketts and Sarah Watkins of Arkansas, Valencia McFarland of Ole Miss, and Tennessee's Meighan Simmons. The media also slotted the Commodores fifth in the SEC, behind Tennessee, Georgia, Kentucky and LSU.

On The Verge

The Commodores received votes in both the Associated Press and ESPN/USA Today Coaches Preseason Polls. Vanderbilt picked-up four votes in the AP poll, while garnering 19 in the coaches poll. This marks the 19th time Vanderbilt has either been ranked or received votes in the writers' edition of the poll. In addition, the Commodores have now been ranked or received votes in all but one season under Head Coach Melanie Balcomb, with 2003-04 being the lone exception.

Vanderbilt Basketball Is Equal Opportunity

The Vanderbilt women's and men's basketball teams have made their respective NCAA Tournament fields each of the last two seasons, something only accomplished by 15 NCAA Division I institutions. 2010-11 was the ninth time both teams made the NCAA Tournament, but just the second time both teams went in consecutive years (2007, 2008). Both teams made the tournament in 1989, 1991, 1993, 1997, 2004, 2007, 2008 and 2010.

The 20 Standard

Vanderbilt reached the 20-win mark for the 12th consecutive season versus Mississippi State in the SEC Tournament Quarterfinals. It was the 25th time in school history the team reached 20 wins, and the 19th time in the last 20 years.

The Tournament Standard

The 2010-11 season saw Vanderbilt make the NCAA Tournament for the 24th time and 12th in a row. The Commodores have posted a 37-24 mark in the tournament and won at least one game in each tournament during 11 of the 12 appearances. Vanderbilt has made 14 appearances in the Sweet 16, including six in the last 11 seasons. The Commodores have one Final Four appearance (1993).

Best for Last

Junior forward Tiffany Clarke played her best basketball at the end of the season, earning SEC All-Tournament honors. She posted 20.5 points and 13.0 rebounds in Vanderbilt's two games at the tournament. She was the only player named to the All-Tournament squad not from Kentucky or Tennessee. She matched her season high with 23 points against Mississippi State before grabbing a career-high 17 rebounds against Kentucky. Clarke moved into the starting lineup on January 30 and averaged 13.3 points and 9.0 rebounds through the remainder of the season, including four double-doubles and three 20-point performances. On February 20 against Kentucky, she became the first Commodore with 20 points and 10 rebounds in a game since 2005.

70 Is The Magic Number

Vanderbilt posted a 19-3 record last season when holding its opponent to under 70 points, while going just 1-9 when they allowed 70 points or more. The three losses came to Tennessee (68 and 65 points in a pair of wins) and Kentucky (69 in SEC Semifinal win). The only win in those 10 contests which saw the Commodores allow 70 points was the double-overtime win at Florida. In addition, Vanderbilt posted a 14-1 mark when scoring 70 points.

Holzer On The Floor

During her rookie campaign last season, redshirt sophomore Stephanie Holzer was one of the most productive players for Vanderbilt, when she was on the floor. She collected at least three fouls in 17 of the 28 games she saw action in, while fouling out five times. If Holzer's statistics were projected out over 40 minutes, she would have averaged 23.6 points, 12.8 rebounds and 3.0 blocks. However, she also projected out to 6.2 fouls per 40 minutes. Her impact was still noticeable enough to earn SEC Sixth Woman of the Year honors.

200 SEC Wins

Vanderbilt became the fourth program in Southeastern Conference history to reach 200 conference wins when it defeated Mississippi State on February 17, 2011. The Commodores joined Tennessee, LSU and Georgia as 200-win programs in the league. Vanderbilt is 201-143 all-time in SEC play.

Home Cooking

Vanderbilt opened the 2010-11 season by winning its first 12 contests, which matched the best start in program history (2001-02 & 1992-93). Unfortunately, the Commodores lost their final three home games of the season, which marked the first time they lost three-straight home games since 2003-04. Vanderbilt went 7-0 at home in non-conference play, the first undefeated home non-conference run since 2006-07.

Melanie Balcomb

Head Coach

Vanderbilt's women's basketball program has been a model of consistency under 10th-year Head Coach Melanie Balcomb. In nine seasons at the helm, Balcomb has guided the Commodores to nine NCAA Tournaments, nine 20-win seasons, eight top 25 finishes, three SEC Tournament Championships and four Sweet 16 appearances.

Since her hiring in 2002, Balcomb has elevated an already tradition-rich program and guided it to new heights. Just last season, Balcomb became the third coach in school history to reach 200 career wins, while also becoming the fastest to reach the milestone. Balcomb accomplished the feat in 275 games, five games sooner than Jim Foster.

With a 215-84 record at Vanderbilt, Balcomb's winning percentage of 71.9% is greater than any coach in school history. In her nine seasons at the helm, Balcomb has averaged 23.8 wins per season, won 83.0 percent of games played at Memorial Gym, posted an 8-1 record in the NCAA first round, developed eight WNBA Draft picks, and most importantly, graduated 100% of her players.

An 18-year head coaching veteran, Balcomb is a renowned offensive strategist. In her nine seasons at Vanderbilt that reputation has only been enhanced. Each season under Balcomb, Vanderbilt has ranked in the top 20 in field-goal percentage and has an average national ranking of 8th (47.5%). The offensive success also extends beyond the arc where the Commodores have an average national rank of 14th (38.1%) in three-point field goal percentage.

The Commodores have finished in the top five nationally in field-goal percentage four times and in the top five in three-point field-goal percentage three times under Balcomb. Her teams have also finished in the top five in assists per game, free-throw percentage and scoring offense.

Balcomb's teams have found success throughout every season on West End, but specifically seem to click down the home stretch. In nine seasons, Balcomb's teams have won 73.6% (56-20) of its final nine regular season games.

Balcomb's success as a head coach is not limited to Vanderbilt. Before arriving at Vanderbilt, Balcomb had successful coaching tenures at Ashland (Ohio) and Xavier. In total, she has coached 500-plus games, winning 67% of the time and averaging 22 wins per season.

Last season featured many obstacles that Balcomb successfully maneuvered through to reach another NCAA Tournament and finish third in the SEC. Injuries took an unfortunate toll on the team throughout the year with at least one of Vanderbilt's five leading scorers unavailable for 14 out of the team's 32 games. Injuries coupled with matching Georgia for the fewest upperclassmen in the SEC challenged Balcomb to use different personnel groupings regularly.

Despite the challenges, Balcomb again reached 20 wins, finishing 20-12 and 10-6 in the SEC. Individually, Balcomb helped Jence Rhoads earn honorable mention All-America honors from the Associated Press in addition to first team All-SEC recognition. Rhoads was also a WBCA Region 3 All-American. Freshman center Stephanie Holzer was named honorable mention All-SEC, SEC Sixth Woman of the Year and to the SEC All-Freshman team. Freshman point guard Jasmine Lister was also named to the SEC All-Freshman Team.

Balcomb started at Vanderbilt in 2002 and wasted no time in implementing her own style of winning. Working to transition veteran players into a new system while building new team chemistry, Balcomb's first year saw the Commodores win six of their last seven regular season games, earn an NCAA Tournament berth, and lead the nation in field goal percentage (51.3) against the fourth toughest schedule in the country. She was named a finalist for the Naismith Coach of the Year award.

In 2003-04, Balcomb led the Commodores to their fourth Southeastern Conference Tournament title. She masterfully balanced strong upper-class leadership with exciting freshmen talent, winning 10 consecutive games and advancing to the program's 11th Sweet 16 appearance. One year later, her team made its second consecutive trip to the NCAA Sweet 16. The Commodores posted the most wins (10) in the program's history in Southeastern Conference play finishing with a 10-4 record.

The Commodores were ranked seventh in the final AP poll of the 2006-07 season, and earned a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament after winning another SEC Tournament title. That Vanderbilt squad was the nation's best three-point shooting team, and ranked among the top 10 in points scored. The team's 28-6 mark was the best record for a VU squad in 14 years.

The 2008 season was also one of Balcomb's most impressive coaching jobs. Despite graduating three All-SEC seniors, she led the Commodores to a 25-9 record and the school's 13th appearance in the NCAA Sweet 16, all with two freshmen and no seniors in the starting lineup.

In 2009, Vanderbilt won its sixth SEC Tournament title, the third for Balcomb in the last six years. The team also advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 for the 14th time in school history -- Balcomb's fourth trip with the Commodores. Vanderbilt finished the year ranked No. 8 in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll after narrowly missing an upset of No. 1 seed Maryland in the Raleigh Regional Semifinal.

National accolades came flooding in for Vanderbilt, including senior Jennifer Risper being named the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) National Defensive Player of the Year. Risper and classmate Christina Wirth, who herself was named an All-American and the SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year, were both selected in the 2009 WNBA Draft.

In 2010 Balcomb was faced with one of her most challenging tasks. Faced with replacing National Defensive Player of the Year Jennifer Risper and All-American Christina Wirth, Balcomb guided an undersized team back to the NCAA Tournament, where they narrowly missed advancing to their third consecutive Sweet 16.

Despite having to overcome numerous injuries throughout the season and a size disadvantage in almost every game, Vanderbilt finished the season 23-11 overall. Individually, Balcomb helped junior point guard Jence Rhoads earn first team All-SEC honors, while senior shooting guard Merideth Marsh earned second team All-SEC accolades. Elan Brown and Tiffany Clarke were also named to the SEC All-Freshman Team.

In nine seasons at Vanderbilt, Balcomb has won 12 games in the NCAA Tournament, which ranks 13th among active coaches for most wins in the NCAA Tournament during that time. She holds a winning percentage of 67.1 against SEC opponents. In all, Balcomb owns series advantages over 10 of the 11 schools in the SEC.

Before arriving at Vanderbilt, the Cranbury, N.J., native spent seven seasons at Xavier University. Beginning in 1995, her up-tempo style wreaked havoc on the Atlantic 10 while building the Musketeers into a national contender. In 1998, Xavier recorded its second post-season appearance in school history with a selection to the Women's National Invitational Tournament. Each of the next three seasons, Xavier competed in the NCAA Tournament, capped in 2001 by a victory over perennial power Tennessee and a run to the Elite Eight.

En route to earning three invitations to the NCAA Tournament and compiling a 136-78 record during her tenure, Balcomb's offensive schemes helped push Xavier onto the national stage. Musketeer field-goal percentages ranked among the top three in the nation during three different seasons while the 1999 squad led the country in 3-point accuracy at 40.1 percent. Her 2000-01 squad averaged 79.4 points per game, the highest total in program history. Individual records were rewritten as well. Of the 15 Musketeers who have scored at least 1,000 points in a career, six of them played on Balcomb-coached teams.

Before her accomplishments at Xavier, Balcomb took her first head coaching position at Ashland University. Prosperity was immediate as Balcomb's first unit matched the best record in school history at 18-9 while registering its first winning season in the Great Lakes Valley Conference with an 11-7 mark.

Prior to becoming a head coach, Balcomb served three years as an assistant at Providence College (1990-93), during which the Lady Friars went 62-30, made two NCAA Tournament appearances and once (1990-91) led the nation in scoring while they amassed a 26-6 record. In 1989-90, Balcomb was an assistant at Ohio University and she began her coaching career with a four-year stint (1985-89) on the staff at Niagara University.

In all, Balcomb has coached 19 players who have received All-SEC accolades. Nine of her players have been drafted by the WNBA, including VU's Chantelle Anderson, Ashley McElhiney, Jenni Benningfield, Ashley Earley, Carla Thomas, Dee Davis and Christina Wirth. Her Xavier teams won two league tournament titles (2000 and 2001) and one regular-season championship in the Atlantic 10 Conference (2001).

Xavier's successes during the Balcomb era helped push for construction of the Cintas Center, a state of the art facility which became home to Xavier basketball at the start of the 2000-01 season and - ironically - was dedicated with a victory over Vanderbilt. That season the program posted a school record for attendance with a total of 40,098 fans, who thrilled in the Musketeers' style of play and their results. Commodore followers have enjoyed the entertainment as well.

Her basketball education began at an early age among some of the most well respected coaches in the game. Balcomb's father, Alan, was a varsity boy's coach for 30 years at South Brunswick (N.J.) High School, and then served as an assistant for four years at Princeton University under Pete Carril, the master of the half-court game.

For Balcomb, however, a complete education goes far beyond the hardwood. Every eligible, four-year player during Balcomb's coaching tenure has earned her degree. In May of 2011, Balcomb's team earned a Public Recognition Award for finishing among the nation's top 10 percent in multi-year Academic Progress Rates (APR). Six of seven squads at Xavier earned team grade point averages that ranked in the Top 25. In 2004-05, 40 percent of the Commodore basketball team was named to the Southeastern Conference Academic Honor Roll. Vanderbilt led the SEC with eight players being named to the honor roll in 2003-04.

Two Commodores have been named SEC Scholar Athletes of the Year under Balcomb. Hillary Hager received the honor in 2004 and Christina Wirth won it in 2009. With was also named a 2009 Lowe's Senior CLASS All-American, while receiving WBCA and NCAA post-graduate scholarships. Hager recently returned to Vanderbilt and received her doctorate in 2010.

Balcomb also stresses the importance of community service to her teams. VU logged more than 95 hours of community service last season, including numerous opportunities to visit with young patients at the Vanderbilt Children's Hospital. After the devastating Nashville flood in 2010, Balcomb and her coaching staff volunteered in helping to clean up flood-damaged areas. Balcomb herself has been active in outreach to the surrounding area, participating in numerous fundraising events for local and national organizations, including Coaches vs. Cancer, the Race for the Cure, Mercy Ministries, Vanderbilt Children's Hospital and the Girl Scouts of America. She joined colleagues to represent the SEC in the 2008 4Kay Golf Classic to benefit the Kay Yow Cancer Fund.

An avid golfer, Balcomb finds time to make it to beach on her rare weeks off, and also enjoys reading.
