SCOUTING THE COMMODORES

The Vanderbilt women's basketball team (9-3) looks to wrap-up non-conference play by running its winning streak to seven when it travels to Southern California on Saturday, December 29. Tiffany Clarke and Christina Foggie lead the Commodore scoring efforts, posting 15.2 and 14.5 points per game, respectively. Clarke adds 7.8 rebounds per game (seventh in SEC) and is shooting 60.0% from the field (second in SEC). Foggie is one of the league's top three-point shooters, shooting 38.8% (fourth). Also expected to start are guards Jasmine Lister and Elan Brown. Lister is posting 11.6 points per outing, while adding 5.5 assists per contest. Brown is one of the most versatile players on the team, averaging 6.5 points and 6.2 rebounds per contest, along with a team best 22 steals. Sophomore guard Kady Schranz has started nine of 12 contests this season, posting 7.4 points per game. Other major contributors include Gabby Smith (four starts, 3.4 ppg), Heather Bowe (5.3 ppg, 5.0 rpg) and Kendall Shaw (3.7 ppg, 2.5 rpg). The trip to USC is the longest of the season for Vanderbilt.

SCOUTING THE TROJANS

USC enters the contest having lost five-straight games, most recently to #4 Duke in the Women of Troy Classic. The Trojans are led by a pair of double-digit scorers in Cassie Harberts and Ariya Crook. Harberst is posting 16.2 points per game, while adding a team-best 7.5 rebounds per outing. Crook contributes 13.3 points and a team-best 2.8 assists per contest. Either Harberst or Crook have led USC in scoring during each game this season. USC's struggles have been on both ends of the floor. The Trojans rank 10th in the Pac-12 in scoring (61.2 ppg), while they are 11th in the league in scoring defense (67.9 ppg). Head Coach Michael Cooper's squad will be looking for its first win since November 27, when they defeated UC Santa Barbara, 62-51. USC has faced an SEC team this year, dropping a 79-61 decision to Texas A&M in Los Angeles on December 15.

LAST TIME OUT

Heather Bowe recorded a career-high 14 points and 12 rebounds to power the Commodores past the College of Charleston Saturday afternoon at Memorial Gym, 69-44. Vanderbilt (9-3) overcame a sloppy first half to outscored the College of Charleston (4-5) 40-23 in the second half, while also dominating the glass, 29-19 and 52-38 for the game. The Cougars outrebounded Vanderbilt 23-19 in the first half. The 14 points and 12 rebounds for Bowe gave the freshman from Eau Claire, Wis., her first career double-double. Tiffany Clarke's 15 points and 10 rebounds mark the second double-double of the season and 14th of her career. Clarke was 6-of-12 from the field. The two double-doubles from Bowe and Clarke marked the first time since Feb. 16, 2012, that two Commodores recorded double-doubles in the same game. Christina Foggie was the third Commodore in double-figures, as she finished with 12 points, four assists and four rebounds. Overall, 11 different players donning the Black and Gold scored on the afternoon. As a team, Vanderbilt shot 43 percent (25-of-58) from the field and 81 percent (17-of-21) from the free throw line. Vandy's defense stifled the College of Charleston all afternoon, as the Cougars shot just 25 percent (17-of-67) from the field, 15 percent (3-of-20) from three-point range and

#ShootForTheStars

43 percent (7-of-16) from the charity stripe. Megan Fischer and Latisha Harris each scored 10 points for the Cougars. Harris also had a team-high eight rebounds. As the second half wore on, Vanderbilt started taking advantage inside, as the Commodores dominated the paint, 42-14 for the game. The Commodores used an 11-0 run late in the first half to head into the locker room with the momentum after a sluggish start, 29-21. During the run, Foggie and Clarke fueled the Commodores as they combined for all 11 points. Foggie led all scorers with 10 first half points on 4-of-11 shooting from the field. She also chipped in a team-high three assists and a steal. Clarke had six points and six rebounds. Both teams struggled from the field, as Vanderbilt shot 35 percent (12-of-34) and College of Charleston shot just 29 percent (8-of-28). The Commodores forced 12 Cougar turnovers, while also outscoring College of Charleston 18-6 in the paint. Fischer led the Cougars with eight points in the first half.

CLARKE HITS 1,000

With 22 points against Hartford last week, senior forward Tiffany Clarke became the 34 player in Vanderbilt history with 1,000 career points. The Duluth, Ga., native now has 1,048 points, 30th in program history. Next in her sights is Abi Ramsey (1,049 points). Clarke could be the first of three Vanderbilt player to hit the milestone this season, with Christina Foggie at 937 points and Jasmine Lister at 929 points.

COMMODORES VS. TOP 25

Vanderbilt scored a win in its first game against a top-25 foe this year, defeating No. 12/13 Oklahoma on Sunday. The Commodores went 3-5 against the top-25 last year. The three wins came against No. 12 Oklahoma, No. 17 Georgia and No. 11 Tennessee, all at Memorial Gym. As of this week's poll, the Oklahoma game was the first of nine against ranked teams. In total, nine teams on Vanderbilt's 2012-13 slate are currently in the Associated Press Top 25 (No. 15 Dayton and No. 21 Florida State were unranked when Vanderbilt faced them).

SHUTTING THEM DOWN

In Vanderbilt's 67-36 win over Austin Peay, second half defense was the big difference maker. The Commodores held the Lady Govs to nine points in the period, including 3-28 from the field and 1-10 from three-point range. The nine points marked the lowest output in a half for a Vanderbilt opponent since November 22, 2005. On that date, the Commodores held Alabama A&M to eight first half points en route to an 80-29 win. In addition, Vanderbilt held the Lady Govs to just 13-56 from the field, good for 23.2%. That marks the lowest field goal percentage for an opponent since December 21, 2008, when UT Martin was held to 17.6% (9-51) from the field in an 86-29 Commodore victory.

MIXING IT UP

Through just 12 games this season, Head Coach Melanie Balcomb has used five different starting lineups, including a new starting five against College of Charleston. That matches the number of lineups Vanderbilt used all of last season. In fact, Balcomb did not change the starting lineup at all until the 16th game of the season. Against the Cougars, Balcomb used the starting five of Jasmine Lister, Christina Foggie, Gabby Smith, Elan Brown and Tiffany Clarke for the first time this season.

CLARKE IS SHOOTING FOR THE STARS

Senior forward Tiffany Clarke has connected for 69 field goals on 115 attempts this season, good for a .600 shooting percentage which is second in the Southeastern Conference. In addition, her mark of .612 at the last NCAA national update on December 16 was 10th in the nation. Off that shooting, Clarke is averaging 15.2 points per outing this season, tops on the team and fifth in the league.

STARTING TO DEFEND

Two Vanderbilt players who found themselves atop statistical categories in the SEC last year are off to a solid start this year. Christina Foggie, who led the SEC with 17.7 points per game last year, is averaging 14.5 (sixth in the conference). The junior is a First Team Preseason All-SEC honoree and has been named to watch lists for the Wooden Award and Wade Trophy. Jasmine Lister led the conference with 5.5 assists last season and already has two double-digit assist performances this season, 10 versus McNeese State and 11 at Western Kentucky. Lister's 5.5 assists per game this season rank third in the Southeastern Conference.

STARTING THEM EARLY

Head Coach Melanie Balcomb has always shown a willingness to play freshmen early if they earn the minutes. Freshman forwards Heather Bowe and Kendall Shaw have seen action in most of Vanderbilt's games this season (all 12 for Bowe, 11 of 13 for Shaw), with Bowe starting two contests in Puerto Rico. Bowe is posting 5.3 points and 5.0 rebounds per game. Shaw has contributed 3.7 points and 2.5 boards. The rookie duo became even more important with the loss of center Stephanie Holzer for the season, as they will be trying to replace Holzer's 11.0 points and 7.5 rebounds per game. The rookie tandem is holding its own, posting 9.0 points and 7.5 rebounds, combined.

BATEY BREAKS OUT

Freshman guard Morgan Batey had a pair of breakout performances against Austin Peay and Tennessee Tech. The Atlanta native had her first career double-figure performance against the Lady Gobs on Wednesday, scoring 11 points on 3-4 shooting and 2-2 from three-point range. She added four rebounds in the game. Batey followed-up that performance with nine points in the win over Tennessee Tech. Batey is averaging 2.0 points and 1.5 rebounds per game.

JENKINS IN THE FIELD

Freshman guard Jasmine Jenkins has been a solid contributor for the Commodores this season, but had a rather interesting start. Though she scored 13 points over the first seven games, it took until the Tennessee Tech game on December 1 to finally connect from the field. Jenkins missed her first nine attempts from the field, while going 13-18 from the line. She was 1-3 from the field against TTU, making a three while going 1-2 from the line, for four points. She also grabbed four rebounds in the game. For the season, Jenkins is posting 2.1 points, 2.9 rebounds and 1.3 assists per contest.

CLARKE'S GOT CLASS

Senior forward Tiffany Clarke is one of 30 players nationwide nominated for the Senior CLASS Award. An acronym for Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School, the Senior CLASS Award focuses on the total student-athlete and encourages students to use their platform in athletics to make a positive impact as leaders in their communities. The candidate classes will be narrowed to 10 men's and 10 women's finalists midway through the regular season, and those names will be placed on the official ballot. Ballots will be distributed through a nationwide voting system to media, coaches and fans, who will select one men's finalist and one women's finalist who best exemplifies excellence in the four Cs of community, classroom, character and competition. For more information, visit seniorCLASSaward.com.

MILESTONES APPROACHING

With its top-seven scorers returning next season, some personal milestones are in the very near future when the 2012-13 season begins. Two more players will have a shot at joining the 1,000 point club if they can replicate their scoring totals from the 2011-12 season. Tiffany Clarke already has and stands 30th all time with 1,048 points. Right behind her are Christina Foggie (937 points) and Jasmine Lister (929 points). The next player to reach 1,000 will be come the 35th player in Vanderbilt history to reach the mark. In addition, if Melanie Balcomb can lead her squad to 11 more wins (the Commodores have won at least 20 during all 10 seasons under Balcomb), she will be come the program's all-time winningest coach. Balcomb's current mark is 247-97, trailing Jim Foster (256-99) by just nine wins.

FEW AND FAR BETWEEN

After the Commodores snapped a three-game losing streak against Austin Peay, it is important to note such streaks under Melanie Balcomb have been few and far between. On just four occasions in her 10-plus seasons in Nashville have the Commodores lost three or more consecutive outings. The most recent instance came last year, when they lost at Tennessee, at Arkansas and to South Carolina in overtime. That team went on to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Prior to that, Vanderbilt had not lost three-in-a-row since 2005-06. They also dropped three straight in 2004-05, with that team going on to the Sweet 16. The longest losing streak came in 2003-04, when the Commodores dropped four-straight games in February before advancing to the Sweet 16.

A NEW WAY TO GIVE THANKS

For the first time since 1998-99, Vanderbilt did not host a Thanksgiving Tournament at Memorial Gym. Instead, the Commodores will head to the San Juan Shootout in San Juan, Puerto Rico, to take on Virginia and Florida State. It marks the first time since 1989-90 there will not be an in-season tournament at Memorial Gym.

HOLZER OUT FOR SEASON

While the Commodores did win their exhibition game against Alabama-Huntsville, 81-53, they did suffer a pretty big loss. Redshirt junior center Stephanie Holzer will miss the entire 2012-13 campaign after suffering a dislocated knee just 11 minutes into the contest. Holzer has led the Commodores in rebounds each of the last two seasons, was SEC Sixth Woman of the Year in 2010-11 and was Honorable Mention All-SEC last season. Holzer redshirted as a freshman in 2009-10 after breaking her ankle in a preseason work out.

BRING 'EM BACK

With 10 of 11 players returning from last year's 23-win squad, Vanderbilt brings back 97.6% of its scoring. The percent of returning scoring is tops in the Southeastern Conference, with only Alabama returning at least 90%:

Alabama	90.2%	Miss. St.	35.2%
Arkansas	53.1%	Missouri	46.9%
Auburn	78.1%	Ole Miss	89.7%
Florida	65.9%	So. Car.	67.4%
Georgia	86.6%	Tenn.	43.2%
Kentucky	80.4%	TX A&M	43.6%
LSU	42.1%	Vandy	97.6%

BALCOMB BALL

Head Coach Melanie Balcomb has averaged 23 wins per season during her decade on West End. If she can maintain that pace this season, she'll become the all-time winningest coach in Vanderbilt history. With a record of 247-97, Balcomb is just 10 wins from passing 2013 Women's Basketball Hall of Fame Inductee Jim Foster. Already the fastest in program history to 200 wins, if Balcomb can accomplish the feat on or before game number 22 this season (Ole Miss, Feb. 3), she'll reach the mark in fewer games than Foster.

THE STANDARD MAINTAINED

Vanderbilt women's basketball, one of the top-20 winningest programs of all time, maintained that winning standard during the 2011-12 season. Under 10th-year Head Coach Melanie Balcomb, the Commodores won 20-plus games for the 26th time and received their 25th NCAA Tournament bid, going 23-10 and earning an at-large bid and a seven seed in the Fresno Region. During Balcomb's 10 seasons at the helm on West End, Vanderbilt has won 20 games and advanced to the NCAA Tournament each year. With their first round NCAA win over 10th-seeded Middle Tennessee, the Commodores have also won at least one NCAA Tournament game in nine of the 10 seasons under Balcomb.

THE TOURNAMENT STANDARD

The 2011-12 season saw Vanderbilt make the NCAA Tournament for the 25th time and 13th-in-a-row. The Commodores have posted a 38-25 (.603) mark in the tournament and won at least one game in each tournament during 12 of the last 13 appearances. Vanderbilt has made 14 appearances in the Sweet 16, including six in the last 12 seasons. The Commodores have one Final Four appearance (1993).

THAT WOULD MAKE A BAKER'S DOZEN

Vanderbilt is one of eight programs to have made the last 13 NCAA Tournaments. The Commodores are joined by Connecticut, Duke, Georgia, Notre Dame, Oklahoma, Stanford and Tennessee as the only programs to have earned bids each of the last 13 seasons.

FOGGIE WINS SEC SCORING TITLE

For the first time since 1991, Vanderbilt boasted the top scorer in the Southeastern Conference. Sophomore guard Christina Foggie led the league with 17.9 points per game at the conclusion of the regular season, as well as a conference-best 18.0 points per contest during SEC games. Foggie received WBCA All-Region honors and was a First Team All-SEC selection by the league's coaches and the Associated Press. She had 12 20-point performances on the season and led Vanderbilt in scoring during 16 contests on the season. The highlights included a career-high 34 points in a 68-48 upset of No. 17/15 Georgia and 22 points in a 93-79 win over No. 11/11 Tennessee. Foggie became just the second Vanderbilt player to win the SEC scoring title, joining Wendy Scholtens, who won three league scoring titles (1989, '90 and '91).

VANDERBILT IN THE NCAA TOURNAMENT

Vanderbilt made its 25th appearance in the NCAA Tournament and 13th-consecutive. All-time, Vanderbilt is 38-25 in NCAA play, following a first round win over Middle Tennessee and a second round loss to Duke. It marked the 11th time in 12 seasons the Commodores won at least one game in the Tournament. Vanderbilt has made 14 Sweet 16 appearances, including six over the last 11 seasons (last in 2009). The last Elite Eight trip came in 2002, while Vanderbilt's lone Final Four appearance was in 1993. In first and second round contests, Vanderbilt is 32-11, while it is 16-2 in opening round games since the NCAA expanded the field to 64 teams in 1994.

VANDERBILT ATHLETICS UNMATCHED PAST TWO YEARS

With Vanderbilt's invitation to the Franklin American Mortgage Music City Bowl, the school concluded its second straight calendar year in which its baseball and men's and women's basketball teams played in the NCAA Tournament and its football team was invited to a bowl. In 2011, there were eight schools that accomplished this feat, and in 2012 there were just six. Vanderbilt is the only school to do it two years in a row. During the 2011-12 academic year, Vanderbilt was also one of just six schools nationally to finish with NCAA Tournament appearances in baseball and men's and women's basketball and in a bowl game.

VANDERBILT BASKETBALL IS EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

The Vanderbilt women's and men's basketball teams made their respective NCAA Tournament fields each of the last three seasons, something only accomplished by 10 NCAA Division I institutions. 2012 was the 10th time both teams made the NCAA Tournament, with both teams previously making the tournament in 1989, 1991, 1993, 1997, 2004, 2007, 2008, 2010 and 2011. The other nine schools to have both programs reach the NCAA Tournament over the last three seasons are Duke, Georgetown, Gonzaga, Kentucky, Michigan State, Notre Dame, Ohio State, Texas and West Virginia. In addition, with Christina Foggie capturing the women's SEC scoring title and Vanderbilt's John Jenkins doing the same on the men's side, it marked just the fourth time in SEC history the same school won both titles and first since 2006.

HOME COOKING

In addition to a 6-0 start this year, Vanderbilt went 18-2 at Memorial Gym last season, including a 10-0 mark during the non-conference portion of the schedule. It marked the second consecutive season Vanderbilt went undefeated at home during non-conference play, while they extended that streak to 12 straight to open the season. The lone regular season loss was a 65-60 overtime defeat by South Carolina, with the second coming to No. 6/6 Duke in the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Along the way, Vanderbilt defeated three top-20 teams (No. 12/14 Oklahoma, No. 17/15 Georgia and No. 11/11 Tennessee) and won a first round NCAA Tournament game over Middle Tennessee.

TOPS FROM FIELD & THREE

As is usually the case under Melanie Balcomb, Vanderbilt was one of the top teams in the nation from the field and from three-point range last season. The Commodores finished sixth in the nation after shooting 46.4% from the field (national champion Baylor led the nation at 48.8%). They matched the sixth-place ranking from three, posting a 37.2% mark from beyond the arc (Richmond led the country at 38.8%). All 10 teams Balcomb has coached at Vanderbilt have finished in the top-20 of the NCAA in field goal percentage. As a program, only Vanderbilt and Connecticut have finished that high every season since 2000.

NEW KIDS ON THE BLOCK

Vanderbilt Head Coach Melanie Balcomb and her coaching staff have put together one of the best recruiting classes in program history, with the three-player class earning top-15 national rankings from multiple recruiting services. All Star Girls Report ranks the class at No. 12 in the country, while Collegiate Girls Basketball Report ranks the class 13th nationally and third in the Southeastern Conference. BlueStar Report has the new crop of Commodores as the No. 15 class in the country. A quick look at the newest Commodores:

MELANIE BALCOMB

HEAD COACH
11TH SEASON

The numbers say it all – 10 seasons, 10 NCAA Tournaments, 10 seasons of at least 20 wins. Vanderbilt women’s basketball has been a model of consistency under Head Coach Melanie Balcomb. That’s not to mention three SEC Tournament Championships, four Sweet 16 trips and eight top-25 finishes over a decade in Nashville.

Since arriving in 2002, Balcomb has posted a 238-94 (.717) record at Vanderbilt, averaging 23.8 wins per season. Should she match that pace in season 11, Balcomb will become the winningest coach in program history (Jim Foster, 256-99 in 11 season). Balcomb was the fastest in program history to reach 200 wins, reaching that mark in five fewer games than Foster.

Balcomb is one of just eight coaches in the nation to have led a program to each of the last 10 NCAA Tournaments. In 2012, she becomes the second longest-tenured coach in the Southeastern Conference, trailing only Georgia’s Andy Landers (33 seasons). Over her 10 seasons at Vanderbilt, Balcomb has coached eight WNBA draft picks, a WBCA National Defensive Player of the Year (Jennifer Risper), a WBCA National Scholar-Athlete of the Year (Christina Wirth) and an SEC scoring champion (Christina Foggie), while graduating 100% of her players.

With nearly 20 years of collegiate head coaching experience, Balcomb is a renowned offensive strategist. Her 10 seasons at Vanderbilt have only enhanced that reputation. Every Commodore squad has finished in the top-20 nationally in field goal percentage, averaging a finish of 7.8 nationally (including four teams that have finished top-four nationally). Balcomb’s inaugural Commodore team in 2002-03 led the nation in field goal percentage, shooting 51.3%.

The Commodores have shot just as well from three-point range, averaging a top-15 finish in three-point percentage among Division I teams with top-40 finishes every season. Balcomb’s 2006-07 squad led the nation in three-point shooting at 43.7%, while her most recent edition finished sixth nationally at 37.2%.

The Commodores have finished in the top-10 nationally in field-goal percentage seven times and in the top-10 in three-point field-goal percentage six times under Balcomb. Her teams have also finished in the top five in assists per game, free-throw percentage and scoring offense.

Balcomb’s teams have been especially successful at home, where Vanderbilt has posted a 131-25 (.840) record at Memorial Gym. The Commodores have been almost as successful during the stretch-run, as over the last 10 years, Vanderbilt’s record over the final nine regular season games is 62-23, good for a .730 winning percentage.

Balcomb’s success as a head coach is not limited to Vanderbilt. Before arriving at Vanderbilt, Balcomb had successful coaching tenures at Ashland (Ohio) and Xavier. She picked-up her 400th career win in the opening round of the 2011 SEC Tournament and has a career mark of 401-198 (.669). The 2012-13 season-opener will be Balcomb’s 600th game as a head coach.

The 2011-12 season saw one of Balcomb’s youngest teams, as the squad of 11 featured just one senior, yet she still successfully steered the Commodores to a 23-10 mark and a 13th-straight NCAA Tournament. Leading the way was break-out star Christina Foggie, who became the first Balcomb player to lead the SEC in scoring (17.7 ppg).

Foggie was a First Team All-SEC selection and was joined by four other Commodores earning All-SEC honors – Jasmine Lister (second team), Tiffany Clarke (second team), Stephanie Holzer (honorable mention) and Kady Schran (All-Freshman).

Vanderbilt defeated three ranked opponents on the season (No. 12 Oklahoma, No. 17 Georgia and No. 11 Tennessee), earning a seven seed in the NCAA Tournament. The Commodores hosted at Memorial Gym, defeating 10th-seeded Middle Tennessee in the first round before falling to second-seeded Duke.

Balcomb started at Vanderbilt in 2002 and wasted no time in implementing her own style of winning. Working to transition veteran players into a new system while building new team chemistry, Balcomb’s first year saw the Commodores win six of their last seven regular season games, earn an NCAA Tournament berth, and lead the nation in field goal percentage (51.3) against the fourth toughest schedule in the country. She was named a finalist for the Naismith Coach of the Year award.

In 2003-04, Balcomb led the Commodores to their fourth Southeastern Conference Tournament title. She masterfully balanced strong upper-class leadership with exciting freshmen talent, winning 10 consecutive games and advancing to the program's 11th Sweet 16 appearance. One year later, her team made its second consecutive trip to the NCAA Sweet 16. The Commodores posted the most wins (10) in the program's history in Southeastern Conference play finishing with a 10-4 record.

The Commodores were ranked seventh in the final AP poll of the 2006-07 season, and earned a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament after winning another SEC Tournament title. That Vanderbilt squad was the nation's best three-point shooting team, and ranked among the top 10 in points scored. The team's 28-6 mark was the best record for a VU squad in 14 years.

The 2008 season was also one of Balcomb's most impressive coaching jobs. Despite graduating three All-SEC seniors, she led the Commodores to a 25-9 record and the school's 13th appearance in the NCAA sweet 16, all with two freshmen and no seniors in the starting lineup.

In 2009, Vanderbilt won its sixth SEC Tournament title, the third for Balcomb in the last six years. The team also advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 for the 14th time in school history -- Balcomb's fourth trip with the Commodores. Vanderbilt finished the year ranked No. 8 in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll after narrowly missing an upset of No. 1 seed Maryland in the Raleigh Regional Semifinal.

National accolades came flooding in for Vanderbilt, including senior Jennifer Risper being named the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) National Defensive Player of the Year. Risper and classmate Christina Wirth, who herself was named an All-American and the SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year, were both selected in the 2009 WNBA Draft.

In 2010 Balcomb was faced with one of her most challenging tasks. Faced with replacing National Defensive Player of the Year Jennifer Risper and All-American Christina Wirth, Balcomb guided an undersized team back to the NCAA Tournament, where they narrowly missed advancing to their third consecutive sweet 16.

Despite having to overcome numerous injuries throughout out the season and a size disadvantage in almost every game, Vanderbilt finished the season 23-11 overall. Individually, Balcomb helped junior point guard Jence Rhoads earn first team All-SEC honors, while senior shooting guard Merideth Marsh earned second team All-SEC accolades. Elan Brown and Tiffany Clarke were also named to the SEC All-Freshman Team.

The 2010-11 season featured many obstacles that Balcomb successfully maneuvered through to reach another NCAA Tournament and finish third in the SEC. Injuries took an unfortunate toll on the team throughout the year with at least one of Vanderbilt's five leading scorers unavailable for 14 out of the team's 32 games. Injuries coupled with matching Georgia for the fewest upperclassmen in the SEC challenged Balcomb to use different personnel groupings regularly.

Despite the challenges, Balcomb again reached 20 wins, finishing 20-12 and 10-6 in the SEC. Individually, Balcomb helped Jence Rhoads earn honorable mention All-America honors from the Associated Press in addition to first team All-SEC recognition. Rhoads was also a WBCA Region 3 All-American. Freshman center Stephanie Holzer was named honorable mention All-SEC, SEC Sixth Woman of the Year and to the SEC All-Freshmen team. Freshman point guard Jasmine Lister was also named to the SEC All-Freshman Team.

In 10 seasons at Vanderbilt, Balcomb has won 13 games in the NCAA Tournament, including a 9-1 mark in the opening round. She holds a winning percentage of 65.7 against SEC opponents. In all, Balcomb owns series advantages over 10 of the 11 other schools in the SEC before 2012.

NORMAN, Okla. -- The Vanderbilt women's basketball team used a complete, team performance to take a 76-63 victory at No. 12/13 Oklahoma on Sunday, December 16. The Commodores improve to 8-3 and have won five-straight games. The Sooners fall to 8-2. Four Commodores were in double-figures, led by 17 from Christina Foggie. Jasmine Lister and Tiffany Clarke contributed 16 each, while Kady Schrans added 11 points. Clarke grabbed a team-best eight rebounds, while Lister grabbed six of her own and dished out nine assists. Oklahoma was led by 21 points from Aaryn Ellenberg. Nicole Griffin scored 11 points and grabbed five rebounds, while Morgan Hook scored 10 and had four rebounds. Joanna McFarland just missed a double-double with nine points and a game-high 11 rebounds. "I'm really proud of our effort defensively," said Vanderbilt Head Coach Melanie Balcomb. "I thought Elan Brown played really hard, diving on balls and getting loose balls and we started to follow that. It was a really good team effort." Brown scored just four points, but grabbed five rebounds and four steals. As a team, Vanderbilt forced 20 Oklahoma turnovers and scored 23 points off those miscues, while the Commodores picked up a season-best 12 steals. The opening minutes were filled with back-and-forth action. Oklahoma jumped out to an 8-4 lead before a pair of steals by Brown and Foggie helped the Commodores tie it back up at eight. With the game still tied at 13, Schrans went on an 8-0 run by herself to put Vanderbilt up, 21-13. Hook responded with a 3-pointer before the media timeout to make it 21-16. The run would end up being 18-15, with Vanderbilt opening a 31-18 lead with just over six minutes left in the half. The Commodore lead would be maintained into the break, with the score at the half being 37-27. In the first half alone, Vanderbilt matched its season best with 10 steals. The Sooners turned it over 15 times in the opening period, leading to 16 Commodore points. Oklahoma came out strong in the second half, cutting the Vanderbilt lead to 41-35 before the Commodores responded with an 11-2 run. The stretch was capped by a three from Lister that made it 52-37. The Sooners continued to respond. After Vanderbilt built an 18-point lead, Oklahoma quickly cut it to 12, 60-48, with just over seven minutes to play. Twice Sooner runs were halted by three-pointers from Gabby Smith. Oklahoma again closed it to nine, 65-56, with 3:50 to play as Ellenberg was starting to heat up. Then Clarke grabbed a big offensive rebound and got the put-back to make it 67-56. After Ellenberg hit another jumper, Foggie hit a pull-up jumper, followed by a 3-pointer to push the lead back to 14, 72-58.
