STARTING FIVE

- ★ The Commodores will get their first shot at a ranked opponent this season when they travel to Louisville, Ky., to take on the No. 4/5 Louisville Cardinals. The trip to Louisville is one of two road trips for the Commodores in the month of Dec. The only other road trip is a trip to Baton Rouge to open the SEC slate on Dec. 31. The month of December features five home games and a stretch of four consecutive starting on Dec.16 against Memphis.
- ★ Vanderbilt is coming off a 77-74 win over Iowa State in the Big 12/SEC Challenge on Dec. 2. The win was the second consecutive for the Commodores and was the first win in Memorial Gym this season. Rachel Bell led the offense with 19 points and was one of four players in double figures while Autumn Newby grabbed a career-best 14 rebounds for her third career game with double-figure rebounds and second consecutive.
- ★ Thursday's matchup with Louisville will be Vanderbilt's first opportunity against a ranked opponent but it won't be the last. Louisville is the first of seven Commodore opponents currently ranked in the AP's Top 25. They Cardinals are currently the highest ranked opponent for Vanderbilt and join Syracuse as the only non-conference foes who are currently ranked. The SEC slate will see the Dores take on six foes ranked in the AP Top 25.
- ★ Vanderbilt freshmen Chelsie Hall and Autumn Newby are making their mark early in their careers. Both are staples in the Vanderbilt starting lineup, with Hall starting all nine of Vanderbilt's contests and Newby starting eight games. Hall is the No 2 scorer among SEC freshmen with 13.0 points per game and five games in double figures while Newby ranks No. 3 among SEC freshmen on the glass with 7.9 rebounds per game and three games with double-figure rebounds.
- ★ Vanderbilt seniors Rachel Bell and Christa Reed are both moving closer to the 1,000-point milestone. Bell sits just 51 points from the milestone while Reed is 177 points away from 1,000. Bell, who is averaging 13.7 points, could hit the milestone as early as the Dec. 21 game against Belmont. Reed, who is currently averaging 10.1 points per game, is on pace to hit the milestone during SEC play.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT STEPHANIE WHITE:

"The opportunity to lead Vanderbilt's women's basketball program is an opportunity that I simply could not pass up," White said. "The combination of Vanderbilt's culture, where achievement -- both on and off the court - is so highly valued, together with the institution's fan support, and a legacy of winning basketball to build upon, is incredibly exciting to me. I appreciate the support and understanding that I have received from the Indiana Fever, from management to the players, regarding my passion to coach college basketball at an elite institution."

Stephanie White
Vanderbilt Head Coach

"Above all else, academics, research, scholarship, and service define the Vanderbilt experience, yet we also compete at the highest levels in athletics. Coach White's values align perfectly with those in our university community. I welcome Stephanie to Vanderbilt and look forward to working with her as she leads our women's basketball program to fulfill our goals and highest potential."

Nicholas S. Zeppos
Vanderbilt Chancellor

"Stephanie White has been a winner in every phase of her career. She was the nation's high school player of the year, she was the NCAA's Player of the Year on a national championship team and she led her WNBA team into the finals in her first year. She was an outstanding scholar. She wants to coach at Vanderbilt and we believe she is just the person to lead our program back into national prominence."

David Williams
Vanderbilt Athletics Director

"Even though this is Stephanie's first collegiate head coaching job, her experience in the professional ranks are enormously valuable. I expect great success from her as she establishes her culture and her system."

Lin Dunn
Former Indiana Fever Head Coach
Kentucky Assistant

Stephanie White enters her second season at the helm of the Vanderbilt women's basketball team in 2017-18. White was named the head coach of the Vanderbilt women's basketball team in May of 2016, becoming just the fifth all-time head coach in the history of the Vanderbilt program.

When she arrived in Nashville, White inherited a young Vanderbilt team that featured only two seniors and relied heavily on five freshmen. White guided the Commodores to a 14-16 overall record in her first season with the team, including a 4-12 mark in the SEC during the 2016-17 campaign.

White's inaugural season on West End featured plenty of highlights, and was capped by a late-season surge that saw the Commodores win three of their final five games of the regular season. Other highlights included:

* The Commodores were ranked among the nation's top-5 in 3-point percentage throughout the season, and finished the season ranked No. 6 after shooting 38.6 for the year. Vanderbilt also led the SEC in 3-pointers per game (7.1).

* White guided Vanderbilt to 10 wins in its first 11 games during the first six weeks of the season. The hot start included a nine-game winning streak that spanned from Nov. 16 to Dec. 18. The winning streak was highlighted by an impressive victory over Duke on Nov. 20, along with quality wins over Robert Morris, Drexel and Tulane.

* At season's end, a pair of Vanderbilt freshmen -- Kayla Overbeck and Erin Whalen -- were named to the SEC's All-Freshman Team, as voted upon by the conference's coaches.

Having enjoyed success at virtually every level of basketball as a player and coach, White arrived at Vanderbilt after spending two seasons as the head coach of the WNBA's Indiana Fever. She took the Fever to the playoffs in each of her two seasons, including a trip to the WNBA finals in 2015.

"The opportunity to lead Vanderbilt's women's basketball program is an opportunity that I simply could not pass up," White said at her introductory press conference. "The combination of Vanderbilt's culture, where achievement -- both on and off the court - is so highly valued, together with the institution's fan support, and a legacy of winning basketball to build upon, is incredibly exciting to me. I appreciate the support and understanding that I have received from the Indiana Fever, from management to the players, regarding my passion to coach college basketball at an elite institution."

White -- who played five seasons in the WNBA after a decorated playing career at Purdue -- was named head coach of the Fever in September 2014. In 2015, she guided the Fever to the WNBA finals, becoming the first rookie coach in league history to lead a team to the finals. As a collegiate player, White enjoyed a highly successful career at Purdue, where she earned national Player of the Year honors after helping lead the Boilermakers to the 1999 NCAA championship as a senior. That season, she also received the Wade Trophy (given to the nation's top female player) and was named Big Ten Conference Player of the Year.

"Stephanie White has been a winner in every phase of her career," Vanderbilt athletic director David Williams said. "She was the nation's high school player of the year, she was the NCAA's Player of the Year on a national championship team and she led her WNBA team into the finals in her first year. She was an outstanding scholar. She wants to coach at Vanderbilt and we believe she is just the person to lead our program back into national prominence."

White averaged double-figure scoring in all four seasons of her college career, including 20.2 points per game as a senior, and amassed 2,182 points for her career. White was inducted into the Purdue Athletics Hall of Fame on April 21, 2006.

She was also a star in the classroom at Purdue. She was a member of Phi Beta Kappa and was an Academic All-American.

40 is the Magic Number on the Glass

For the fourth time this season, the Commodores tallied 40+ rebounds against Iowa State with 42 rebounds. In games in which Vanderbilt grabs at least 40 rebounds they are 3-1. Conversely, when they fail to get to 40 rebounds Vanderbilt is 0-5.

Newby Doubles Up ... Back-to-Back

Vanderbilt freshman Autumn Newby is making her mark on the defensive end early in the season. The Georgia native is averaging a team-best 7.9 rebounds and tallied her first career double-double with 10 points and 10 rebounds against Tulane. She has also had back-to-back games with 10+ rebounds. The freshman had a then-career-best 13 at Saint Louis and topped that mark against Iowa State with 14. Her 7.9 rebounds per game ranks her third among her SEC freshmen counterparts.

Reed Makes Four Straight in Double-Digits

Christa Reed has been one of Vanderbilt's most consistent scorers this season. The senior from Bay Springs, Miss., is averaging 10.1 points per game and has reached double figures in each of the last four games and in six games this season. Reed's four consecutive games in double figures is a team-best. Reed has increased her scoring output by nearly 3.6 points per game entering the Louisville contest from the start of the season.

Vanderbilt Bench Brings the Heat

The Vanderbilt bench has been vital this season. In the last two contests, the Commodore reserves have outscored their counterparts, 47-19 including a 24-7 advantage against Iowa State. On the season, the Vanderbilt bench has outscored its opponents, 216-120, and have only been outscored on two occasions in losses to Syracuse and Middle Tennessee. On average, the Commodore bench is averaging 24.0 points per game.

Commodore Rookies Rank Among SEC's Best

Vanderbilt freshmen Chelsie Hall and Autumn Newby are playing quite well and rank among the best freshmen in the SEC. Hall's averaging 13.0 points per game and is the second-best scoring freshman trailing A&M's Chennedy Carter who is averaging 19.0 points per game. Hall's also one of seven freshman averaging double figures. Newby is ranked third among SEC freshman in rebounding with 7.9 rebounds per game.

Walker Goes Yard

Sophomore Cierra Walker was feeling the long ball against Iowa State and knocked down a career-best four three-pointers. It was Walker's second consecutive game with multiple three-pointers and her fifth game this season. Her 14 points also marked her fourth game in double figures this season.

And Gets on the Glass ...

Not only was Walker on fire from long range, but she also grabbed a career-best eight rebounds. Walker has stepped her glass game up since the Paradise Jam, averaging 4.0 rebounds per game compared to just 1.5 before the Paradise Jam.

Overbeck Rounding into Form

2017 SEC All-Freshman selection Kayla Overbeck has had a slow start to her sophomore campaign but she seems to be rounding into form as of late. After averaging 9.5 ppg in the first two contests of the season, she hadn't scored more than three points until picking up 10 points against Syracuse. She's reached double figures in three of the last four contests and is averaging 9.0 ppg in that span. Prior to the Paradise Jam, Overbeck was averaging just 4.8 ppg.

Hall Getting Comfortable

Freshman Chelsie Hall has been a staple in the Vanderbilt starting lineup this season. The Seffner, Fla, native is averaging 13.0 ppg as Vanderbilt's second leading scorer. She's reached double figures in five of the last six games, including each of the last three games, and posted a career-best 25 points against Ball State. Hall is averaging 15.0 ppg over the last three games. During the four games before the Paradise Jam, Hall was averaging 11.8 ppg but has settled in and since the Paradise Jam is averaging 14.0 ppg.

Bell Shows Out Against Syracuse In Paradise Jam

Senior Rachel Bell was on fire against Syracuse in the second game of the Paradise Jam. The Tennessee native tied her career best with 31 points against the Cuse and went 7-of-10 from long range to set a new career best and tie the Paradise Jam single-game three-point record. Bell's 31 points are the most points and individual scored in a single game over the three-day tournament. Bell averaged 18.0 points per game at the Paradise Jam.

Bell Shoots Her Way into Vanderbilt Record Books

Bell's seven triples against Syracuse will earn her a spot in the Vanderbilt record books as her seven long-range bombs tie her for the second-most triples in a single-game. She joins Christina Foggie, Caroline Williams, Jillian Danker and Julie Powell as Does to hit seven in a game. The senior was just one away from tying the program record and two away from holding the top spot by herself. For her career, Bell is shooting .369 percent from long range.

Does Were Road Strong in November

In the first month of the season, Vanderbilt has played six of its eight games on the road in a true or neutral site fashion. Vanderbilt sports a 2-4 road record to date. Through the first month of the season the Commodores traveled 2,115.3 miles for six road games. Vanderbilt is looking to right its road woes this season. Last season, the Commodores posted a 3-10 record away from Nashville and were 0-8 on the road in the SEC. Vanderbilt already has two road wins in the bag this season with wins at George Washington and at Saint Louis.

Counting up the November Miles ...

Nashville – Mt. Pleasant, Mich. (Central Michigan)
607.2 miles
Nashville – New Orleans (Tulane)
533.2 miles
Nashville – Washington, D.C. (Paradise Jam)
665.8 miles
Nashville – St. Louis (St. Louis)
309.1 miles

Home Sweet Memorial Gym

The Commodores are starting off December the right way ... at home in Memorial Gym. In the fourth week of the season, the Commodores have only played two home games entering the Iowa State game. Vanderbilt joins SEC counterparts LSU and Missouri as teams who will have only played two home games through the first month of the season. The schedule will flip in December as the Commodores will be home five times in December including a stretch of four straight games. The only time the Dores will hit the road will be to travel to No. 4 Louisville on Dec. 7 and to open the SEC slate at LSU on Dec. 31.

Road Wins for the Road Warriors

The Commodores picked up their second road win of the season at Saint Louis on Nov. 29. Two of Vanderbilt's three wins have come on the road this season and put the Commodores one road win away from tying last year's road win total just a month into the season.

Volunteer State Bragging Rights on the Line

This season, Vanderbilt will face five teams from the state of Tennessee in Middle Tennessee, Memphis, Belmont, Lipscomb and Tennessee. Additionally, the Commodores are playing three teams from the greater Nashville area in Middle Tennessee, Lipscomb and Belmont. This will be the most teams from the state of Tennessee that Vanderbilt has played in the last six seasons. In each of the last three seasons, including this season, Vanderbilt has played at least two non-conference opponents from the Tennessee.

Speaking of Tennessee ...

Vanderbilt has several players that call Tennessee home. Currently, Vanderbilt has four players from Tennessee. Rachel Bell (Cumberland Furnace), LeaLea Carter (Dickinson), Kaleigh Clemons-Green (Chattanooga) and Myka Dancy (Antioch). The Dores will add two more from the state of Tennessee when they welcome Nashville area natives Brinae Alexander (Murfreesboro) and Jordyn Cambridge (Nashville).

#AsOne

This season the Commodores have taken on the team slogan, "As One". It signifies that the team is working to become better individually so that the team can function as one group united by a love of each other and a love of the game.

Shooting Shirts For Justice

The Commodores are taking a stand against social injustice and this season will don shooting shirts that personally tie them to the cause with a word or symbol that showcases their personal "why's" Vanderbilt debuted their shirts against Syracuse in the Paradise Jam and will wear them throughout the season.

Youth Movement

The Commodores are young with just four upperclassmen on the roster this season in Rachel Bell, Myka Dancy, Christa Reed and graduate transfer Bree Horrocks. Of Vanderbilt's 14 players just seniors Bell, Dancy and Reed have donned the Black and Gold for more than a year.

Hitting the Glass

The Commodores will have the tall task of replacing Marqu'es Webb's 9.1 rebounds per game but they won't be short on help. Vanderbilt returns the SEC's top freshman rebounder from last year in sophomore Kayla Overbeck who averaged 7.2 rebounds per game as a rookie. Additionally, the rebounding will be helped by Purdue graduate transfer Bree Horrocks who checks in at 6-5 as well as freshman Paige Warren who is 6-4.

Whalen Looks to Build On Strong Close to Freshman Season

SEC All-Freshman selection, Erin Whalen, is looking to keep the momentum from the end of the season going into the 2017-18 season. Whalen averaged 18.6 ppg over the last three game of the regular season and earned Freshman of the Week after the final week of the regular season. For comparison, Whalen averaged 13.0 ppg and 3.8 rpg over the last 11 SEC contests compared to just 1.4 ppg and 0.8 rpg in the first five SEC games.

KO Looks to Grow in Sophomore Season

Kayla Overbeck, known as KO to her teammates, looks to capitalize on a productive freshman season. The Newbury Park, California native averaged 7.2 rebounds per game and 9.4 points per game as Vanderbilt's second-leading scorer and rebounding. Her number's ranked her first and third among SEC freshman, respectively. Overbeck also gained extensive basketball over the summer playing on the USA U19 squad which earned a silver medal at the FIBA World Cup.

Plenty of TV Time on Deck for Commodores

There will be plenty of opportunities to see the Commodores on television this season. Vanderbilt's Big 12/SEC Challenge matchup with Iowa State on Dec. 2 will be televised on SEC Network and is the first of eight games set to air on the SEC's flagship. The Commodores will have four home games televised on the SEC Network: Iowa State (Dec. 2), Kentucky (Jan. 15), Texas A&M (Jan. 28) and Mississippi State (Feb. 15). Road games televised on the SEC Network include: at LSU (Dec. 31), at Tennessee (Jan. 7), at Auburn (Feb. 12), at Florida (Feb. 18). The home game with Tennessee on Feb. 4 will air on ESPNU.

Summer International Experience

This summer Kayla Overbeck spent some time with USA Basketball's Women's U19 team that competed for World Cup in July, winning a silver medal while Mariella Fasoula played on the Greek national team that advanced to the semifinals of the FIBA European Championships and played on Greece's U20 FIBAS team at the FIBA Under 20 European Championships.

25th Anniversary of 1993 Final Four Team

This season marks the 25th Anniversary of the 1993 Vanderbilt team that went to the NCAA Final Four. Vanderbilt, under the direction of Jim Foster, reached the Final Four for the first and only time in program history and were a No. 1 seed out of the SEC. Vanderbilt defeated Cal, Stephen F. Austin and Louisiana Tech en route to the Final Four in Atlanta They were defeated by eventual national champion, Texas Tech. The Commodores will commemorate this team throughout the season. The Commodores will celebrate that team the weekend of Feb. 3-4 when they take on Tennessee in Memorial Gym.

Pure Vida

The Commodores had a chance to bond this summer in sunny Costa Rica as they played two international games in August. The team defeated Ottawa and University of Costa Rica and while also there did a service project with Sole4Soles providing shoes to children in need and took in all that Costa Rica had to offer.

MEMORIAL GYM

HOME SWEET HOME

Memorial Gymnasium, the Southeastern Conference's most historic venue for college basketball, serves as the home court for the Vanderbilt Commodores. Dedicated in 1952 as a memorial to all Vanderbilt men and women who served in World War II, the arena was built as a combination gymnasium and concert hall by the late master architect Edwin Keeble.

Six decades later, the unique style of Memorial Gym — with its benches on the baselines, a playing court that sits above portions of the crowd and deafening acoustics — continues to make the Commodores' home a dreaded stop for opponents. "Memorial Magic," with its capacity crowds, overflowing student section and lively pep band, have assisted in numerous Commodore victories. In the stands, fans across Middle Tennessee have helped Memorial Gymnasium rank among the NCAA's Top 30 attendance leaders on numerous occasions.

On the floor, Vanderbilt has compiled a 467-118 record at home, and has only had one losing season at Memorial Gym (1982-83).

When the 2012-13 season tipped off, Memorial Gym featured a new video board, installed during the summer of 2012. The display, manufactured by Utah's Young Electric Sign Company, features four screens that measure 16 feet by nine feet and includes a two-foot tall LED display that wraps around the bottom of the board.

Before the 2008-09 season, Vanderbilt's locker rooms, the video room, the training room and media room were renovated and are now state-of-the-art. The floor was also replaced before the 08-09 season. During the 2009-10 season, the building received new championship banners.

In 2002, a $25 million renovation of Memorial Gymnasium was completed. Connected to the facility sits a practice gym that includes three cross-court playing floors, coaching offices, a donor room and a Hall of Champions. Other aspects of the renovation included upgrades of the seating areas, private suites, a new lighting and sound system and a new court design.

In all, Memorial Gym has been expanded three times. Constructed with a seating capacity of 6,583, the University saw its first need to increase seating in 1965 with the addition of two north-side balconies. Two years later, a pair of balancing balconies were erected on the south side of the gym and dubbed "The Balconies That Clyde Lee Built."

Capacity has fluctuated throughout the history of the building. It reached its highest number of 15,646 in 1969 when 4,000 seats were added in the east and west ends. When chairback seats in the end zones and suites on the north side were installed in the late 1990s capacity lowered to 14,168. Shortly thereafter, university officials removed portions of media press row on the south side in an effort to expand the student section by nearly 150 seats. Official capacity is now 14,326.
