Derek Greene, Head Coach

A dynamic recruiter, excellent tactician and passionate leader, Derek Greene officially was named the head coach of the Vanderbilt women's soccer program after the 2011 season, which he spent as the interim head coach for five months.

A 16-year veteran of collegiate women's soccer, Greene's coaching career has been highlighted by success at a number of schools in the southeast. Greene's most notable stop was at Ole Miss. Hired as an assistant coach before being promoted to associate head coach, Greene helped lead the Rebels to their first three NCAA Tournament appearances, including a second-round appearance in 2003 following a victory over Texas. Greene helped guide Ole Miss to seven consecutive Southeastern Conference Tournament berths—including an SEC Western Division title and second-place overall finish in 2005—and recruited four Freshman All-America selections to Oxford.

In 2013, Greene guided a Commodores bunch that scored 35 goals — the most in a season since 2005. They also averaged 2.06 goals a game for their highest average in 13 seasons.

Since joining Vanderbilt's staff prior to the 2010 season, Greene's tireless work ethic and devotion to the program have not gone unnoticed, especially by Vice Chancellor for University Affairs and Athletics David Williams II.

"We were impressed by the energy and enthusiasm we've seen from Derek and we believe he and his staff will move our program forward," Williams said. "Coach Greene was well received by the Vanderbilt soccer family while he was our interim head coach, and we are on the same page in that we both want our program to become a competitive force in the Southeastern Conference."

A graduate of the University of Tennessee with seven years of coaching experience at Ole Miss, Greene is quite familiar with the SEC. He has been in Nashville for the past three years, coming to Vanderbilt in 2010 after a one-year stop at Belmont that saw the Bruins win an Atlantic Sun regular season co-championship and advance to the tournament finals. Greene served one season as a Commodore assistant coach under Ronnie Woodard before taking over the team when Woodard announced her retirement.

"I would like to thank David Williams and his management team for this tremendous opportunity," Greene said. "My family and I are grateful for the confidence they have shown in me and my staff, and I feel blessed to have the chance to lead this program in the nation's premier athletic conference. Vanderbilt is an elite academic institution and we are going to work diligently to make sure we reflect that same standard on the soccer field."

Greene got his start in coaching nearly 20 years ago with the Knoxville Stars Soccer Club. He developed a team that went from third to second to first in the Tennessee youth soccer ranks over a period of three years, and guided that program to a Region III semifinal appearance. Five years of club experience led Greene to a position with the University of Tennessee's new varsity women's soccer program in 1996.

After serving on staff at his alma mater for a year, Greene was named the head coach at Division II Carson-Newman College. In 2000, he led the Eagles to their first South Atlantic Conference semifinal appearance with a victory over nationally ranked Wingate. Greene made his way back to the SEC in 2002 and immediately made his mark on the recruiting trail. Among the recruits he helped bring to Ole Miss was 2005 Freshman of the Year Jennifer Hance, a four-time All-SEC honoree who went on to play professionally. Team success once again followed Greene. The Rebels would advance to the NCAA Tournament in 2002, 2003 and 2005 while posting the fourth-highest conference winning percentage from 2002 to 2008. Ole Miss also boasted a 15-game unbeaten streak in conference play spanning the 2005 and 2006 seasons. After helping Belmont to its best finish in the A-Sun in 2009, Greene was brought to Vanderbilt as Coach Woodard's top assistant.

Greene and wife Gail reside in Nashville with their two sons, Max and Miller.

FIFTH SEASON AT VANDERBILT (4TH AS HEAD COACH)

College
Tennessee, 1996

Assistant Coaches

SEBASTIAN VECCHIO
Assistant Coach

Fifth Season
Memphis, 2005

Former Rice and Memphis goalkeeping coach Sebastian Vecchio joined the Vanderbilt soccer program in the summer of 2010, taking over similar responsibilities for the Commodores while adding the organization of Vanderbilt's recruiting efforts.

In his first four seasons with the Commodores, Vecchio's goalkeepers have posted 16 shutouts. At the same time, the school's recruiting profile has quickly risen thanks in part to Vecchio's tireless work ethic.

"Sebastian is passionate about the game of soccer and deeply cares about our team," VU Head Coach Derek Greene said.

"He's one of the rising stars in college soccer, and I'm excited to continue working with him. We are both committed to doing everything we can to make this one of the top programs in the country. Sebastian's coaching—from recruiting to mentoring our goalkeepers—will be a huge part of our success."

Vecchio joined the Commodores after a one-year stop at Rice. Vecchio trained goalkeepers for the Owls while assisting in the coordination of the program's recruiting efforts. He also was responsible for scheduling and budget management. Then-junior goalkeeper Meghan Erkel flourished under Vecchio, leading Conference USA in save percentage (.845) and saves per game (5.17).

Prior to coaching at Rice, Vecchio was the assistant and goalkeeper coach at his alma mater, the University of Memphis, from 2005 to 2009. In four seasons with the Tigers, Vecchio's goalkeepers combined to post 33 shutouts and 54 victories.

In the summer of 2009, Vecchio served as the interim assistant director of coaching for the Alabama Youth Soccer Association in Birmingham while assisting in the Olympic Development Program.

As a player, Vecchio was a two-year starter for the Tigers after transferring to Memphis from Mid-Continent College in Kentucky. He allowed just 12 goals in over 1,500 minutes of play during the 2004 season—for a school record 0.69 goals-against average—en route to being named the CUSA Defensive Player of the Year and a first team All-Conference USA selection. The native of Buenos Aires, Argentina, ended his Tiger career with a school-low 1.02 goals-against average and 21 wins in two seasons.

After completing his playing career with the Memphis men's soccer team in 2004, Vecchio stepped over into the coaching ranks with the women's program as an assistant coach in charge of goalkeepers. He also assisted with recruiting.

Vecchio earned a bachelor's degree in marketing from Memphis in 2005 and a bachelor's in sports and leisure management in 2008. He is currently working on attaining his master's degree in sport and leisure commerce from Memphis. Out of the classroom, he has a USSF National C. License and NSCAA National Goalkeeping diploma. Prior to his collegiate playing days, Vecchio played with the Argentinean U-16 National Team.

CHRISTINE HUSNI
Assistant Coach

Fourth Season
Ole Miss, 2009

Former Ole Miss standout Christine (Breaux) Husni joined the Vanderbilt women's soccer program as an assistant coach prior to the 2011 season.

A 2005 freshman All-American and 2008 All-Southeastern Conference honoree, Husni started all 81 matches in her career at Ole Miss when current VU Head Coach Derek Greene was the Rebels' associate head coach.

"We are thrilled to have Christine as part of our staff and soccer family at Vanderbilt," Greene said. "The moment I found out I was going to be named head coach, I immediately thought of Christine because I know what a great person and competitor she is. She embodies everything you want a person to stand for in life. Coaching her at Ole Miss was so easy because whatever you asked her to do, she did it 100% every time."

A native of Gonzales, La., Husni prepped at Dutchtown High School, where she earned All-State honors three times and was named the 2004-05 Louisiana Gatorade Player of the Year. She was a member of the three-time state champion Baton Rouge Soccer Club and was selected to the ODP U-19 South Region team in 2006.

Husni made an immediate impact upon her arrival in Oxford, starting every game while leading Ole Miss in minutes played. She was named a third-team Freshman All-American by Soccer Buzz after helping the Rebel defense set a school record with 12 shutouts.

Later in her Ole Miss career, Husni moved from the back line into the midfield, where she would earn second-team All-SEC honors and be voted the team's most valuable player.

After graduating from Ole Miss in 2009 with a liberal arts degree, Husni joined the Mississippi Teacher Corps. She started the boys soccer program at Byhalia High School in 2010. Husni earned a master's degree in curriculum and instruction from Ole Miss in May 2011.

The former Christine Breaux married Dr. Afeef Husni in the summer of 2012. The couple resides in Nashville.

KYLE ROELKE

Volunteer Assistant

Third Season
Belmont, 2007

Former Belmont goalkeeper and assistant coach Kyle Roelke has joined head coach Derek Greene's Vanderbilt women's soccer staff as a volunteer assistant coach.

A native of South Bend, Ind., Roelke was a three-year starter for the Bruins and still holds numerous school records. He earned a business degree in 2007 and completed his master's in 2009, both from Belmont.

After graduating from Belmont, Roelke played professional soccer overseas for several years. His career began in the Scottish Premier League, where he played for Ross County and Inverness. Roelke would later play in Iceland, Guatemala and Puerto Rico. He also has competed for the Indiana Invaders of the Professional Development League and the Nashville Metros.
