COMPETING AT HIGH LEVELS

Vanderbilt student-athletes enjoyed an abundance of success, on and off fields of competition, in 2016-17.

Derek Mason's team went 6-6 in the regular season, earning a berth in the Camping World Independence Bowl. Off the field, they continued to be SEC academic pacesetters, leading the league in graduation rates and placing 43 players also earned SEC Academic Honor Roll recognition.

Vanderbilt teams and student-athletes experienced plenty of competitive successes. Geoff Macdonald's women's tennis team, Scott Limbaugh's men's golf squad and John Williamson's bowling team won conference crowns and battled for NCAA titles. Tim Corbin's baseball squad won a NCAA regional on the road. Bryce Drew guided the men's basketball team to an improbable NCAA appearance in his first year.

Individually, 10 Commodore student-athletes earned first team All-America honors, including linebacker Zach Cunningham, who became the first Vanderbilt football player to sweep unanimous first team honors in more than three decades. Two baseball standouts, pitcher Kyle Wright and outfielder Jeren Kendall, were selected in the first round of the 2017 MLB Draft.

CUNNINGHAM HIGHLIGHTS

Linebacker Zach Cunningham dazzled college football fans with remarkable individual plays, none more impressive than his leap-of-the-line at Auburn to block a Tiger field goal attempt in the closing minutes.

Located in the popular Midtown district of Nashville, Vanderbilt is regarded among the nation's leading universities. The private research university enrolled 6,871 undergraduate and 5,716 postgraduate students last year. Those students came from virtually every state and around the globe.

The university was founded 144 years ago when magnate Cornelius "Commodore" Vanderbilt provided an initial endowment.

Vanderbilt holds charter membership in the Southeastern Conference and is its lone private institution.

Vanderbilt students are pleased with their college choice. In fact, the university ranks No. 2 nationally for happiest students, according to Princeton Review's "2017 Best 379 Colleges" survey.

The campus is just west of downtown Nashville on 330 pristine acres that are designated as a national arboretum. Two areas of campus closed to vehicles – the Peabody campus and the collection of academic buildings surrounding Kirkland Hall that form the original campus – are frequently named among the South's most beautiful college environments.

Most students live on the campus. Thirty-nine residential halls dot the campus, including two of the nation's most unique residential communities: The Martha Rivers Ingram Commons at Peabody and the Warren and Moore college halls of Kissam on the main campus.

Music City, Smashville, Athens of the South. The list of nicknames for Vanderbilt's dynamic hometown of Nashville is growing nearly as fast as the city itself.

Nashville, sparked by a steady stream of arriving millennials, is quickly becoming one of America's most appealing cities and an essential destination.

It seems everybody's jumping on the Nashville bandwagon.

Vanderbilt students, faculty, staff and visitors cite Music City as one of the leading perks of the university, which is located in the vibrant Midtown district about two miles from a bustling downtown.

Nashville has become one of the nation's top urban attractions, offering all of the charm and hospitality one expects from a grand Southern capital city with the amenities expected in the largest destinations.

The secret is out on Nashville and its surrounding population of nearly 1.8 million. Popular magazines rave about the city's diversity in attractions, accommodations and niche districts. The city's downtown is exploding with retail and residential growth, given by the convention-gathering Music City Center, an array of entertainment alternatives and attractions for all ages.

The city enjoys a top job market for young professionals, unique neighborhoods and parks for its residents and an abundance of retail and entertainment districts virtually encircling downtown.

NFL/TITANS

Third-year QB and former Heisman Trophy winner Marcus Mariota continues to progress, driving excitement in the hometown Tennessee Titans.

NASHVILLE BECOMING SUPERB SPORTS TOWN

Historically a city focused on making great music, Nashville is starting to develop a national reputation as a superb locale for college and professional sports.

For lovers of college sports, Vanderbilt is enjoying more athletic success than ever before while exposing Nashville residents to other SEC programs.

This spring, an international TV audience discovered Smashville, the nickname fondly created by the Predators, Nashville's NHL franchise. Observers watched in amazement as Smashville support surged as the Preds made their first appearance in the Stanley Cup finals.

Nashville is also home to the Tennessee Titans, a squad many expect to contend for the NFL playoffs.

The city also hosts SEC and NCAA basketball tournaments in Bridgestone Arena, stages the Franklin American Mortgage Music City Bowl at Nissan Stadium and could become home to a future MLS soccer franchise.

NHL/PREDATORS

Franchised in 1998, the Predators are legitimate Stanley Cup contenders. This year, the NHL squad captivated the city by reaching the Cup finals.

TEAM OUTLOOK

MASON'S SQUAD LOOKS FOR FURTHER PROGRESS

Coming off the program's eighth all-time postseason appearance, head coach Derek Mason will welcome his most experienced Vanderbilt squad when he starts his fourth season on campus.

Eighteen players who started at least five games in 2016 - and six more who started multiple games - are among 43 returning letterwinners expected to greet Mason when preseason camp opens July 31. The returnees include nine position starters and 21 letterwinners on offense, seven starters and 19 letterwinners on defense and two starting specialists.

Vanderbilt looks to improve off a 2016 campaign where they concluded the regular season with a 4-2 run, highlighted by victories over Southeastern Conference rivals Georgia, Ole Miss and Tennessee. Mason, who has produced more wins in each of his three years at Vanderbilt, believes his program is on the right path.

"This is our most experienced team and I believe experience is important to winning in this conference," Mason said. "Our guys have given tremendous effort and energy this offseason working to get better. All of them tasted success last year but they want more. We all want more."

Commodore fans have reason for optimism. Continuity has become the norm in Mason's program. The team enters its third year with head strength coach James Dobson, whose impact has dramatically improved fitness and conditioning throughout the roster. It also marks the third year that Andy Ludwig will guide the Commodore offense, which improved vastly in 2016. It's the third year that Mason - one of the nation's top defensive minds - will coordinate an increasingly efficient Vanderbilt defense.

The offense features 11 multi-game starters last year, including quarterback Kyle Shurmur, running back Ralph Webb, wide receivers Trent Sherfield, C.J. Duncan, Caleb Scott and Kalija Lipscomb, tight ends Nathan Marcus and Jared Pinkney and linemen Ean Pfeifer, Bruno Reagan and Justin Skule.

The defense returns six of its top tacklers and 11 players who earned multiple starts last year. Key returnees include linemen Nifae Lealao and Jonathan Wynn, linebacker Oren Burks, cornerback Tre Herndon and safeties Ryan White, LaDarius Wiley and Arnold Tarpley III.

Vanderbilt kicks off the season at Middle Tennessee on Sept. 2.

The 2017 slate features seven games on campus: Alabama A&M on Sept. 9, Kansas State on Sept. 16, Alabama on Sept. 23, Georgia on Oct. 7, Western Kentucky on Nov. 4, Kentucky on Nov. 11 and Missouri on Nov. 18.

COMMODORE KEYS

PLAYMAKERS RETURN ON OFFENSE

The offense returns virtually all of its production from a year ago, including RB Ralph Webb, QB Kyle Shurmur and eight top receivers.

RED ZONE, 3RD DOWNS & TURNOVERS

In 2016, the Commodores ranked Top 10 nationally in offensive and defensive red-zone efficiency, improved on third-down efficiency and concluded with a positive turnover margin. More success is needed in these areas for team success.

KEY SPECIALISTS BACK

Three quality starters - PK Tommy Openshaw, punter Sam Loy and PR Kalija Lipscomb - are back after starting last year.

OUTLOOK: BACKFIELD

KYLE SHURMUR

Shurmur set a sophomore mark for passing yards last year.

RALPH WEBB

The senior is coming off arguably the finest season ever by a Commodore back.

OFFENSIVE BACKFIELD

STARTERS BACK: 2 LETTERWINNERS: 6

Paced by a record-breaking running back, quality depth and quarterback who seems to improve with each start, the assembly of backfield talent matches any in recent Commodore history.

The backfield, directed by third-year coordinator Andy Ludwig, quarterbacks mentor and running backs coach Jeff Genyk looks to build on its 2016 production, creating more explosive plays while continuing to limit turnovers.

Gdowski expects more improvement from Kyle Shurmur (Jr.), who comes off one of the finest seasons ever by a Commodore sophomore quarterback. Shurmur threw for 2,409 yards and finished the regular season in outstanding fashion, averaging 290.5 passing yards during the team's last four SEC games.

Shawn Stankavage (R-Jr.) and Deuce Wallace (R-Fr.) will compete for the top reserve role. Signee

Jacob Free also joins the quarterback corps.

The strength of the backfield could be in the running back corps where all-time rushing leader Ralph Webb (Sr.) tops a strong contingent.

Webb is likely to go down as the greatest back in team history. Through three years, Webb's been a record-smashing, durable force for the Commodores. The three-year starter enters his last season with 3,342 yards, ranking No. 20 in SEC history and 22 rushing touchdowns.

The corps behind Webb is solid. Punishing Khari Blasingame (R-Jr.) was a huge factor in Vanderbilt's red-zone success, rushing for 10 touchdowns and 449 yards. Dallas Rivers (Sr.) enters his final season just shy of 500 career rushing yards and Josh Crawford (Jr.) brings two years of experience to the position. Jamauri Wakefield (R-Fr.) was one of the team's most impressive players in Spring Ball.

Bailey McElwain (So.) returns as the team's top fullback after a strong freshman year. Rivers and Jaire George (R-Fr.) also play the position.

Ke'Shawn Vaughn (Jr.) is another talented tailback. He will sit out the 2017 season after transferring from Illinois.

Topped Dores in receptions and yards last year.

TRENT SHERFIELD

Closed 2016 regular season with 184 yards vs UT.

CALEB SCOTT

Averaged 19.4 yards per catch as a junior.

RECEIVING CORPS

STARTERS BACK: 6 LETTERWINNERS: 10

Six starters and 10 letterwinners return in a receiving corps that looks to be a potential strength of the Commodore offense.

The top seven receiving targets from a year ago - four wideouts and three tight ends - will showcase their talents in preseason camp to wide receivers coach Cortez Hankton and coordinator Andy Ludwig.

JARED PINKNEY

Tight end posted 22 catches as redshirt freshman.

The wide receiver corps is a veteran unit, led by seniors Trent Sherfield, C.J. Duncan and Caleb Scott. They are supported by Kalija Lipscomb, who put together a solid freshman campaign last year. Together, the four wideouts combined for 129 catches and 1,751 receiving yards in 2016.

Sherfield is a two-year starter and has 86 career receptions. After catching 51 passes in 2015, Sherfield had 34 receptions and 472 yards last year finishing the regular season with a 184-yard effort vs. Tennessee.

| Cody Markel     | R-Fr. | RS |

Duncan came back from injury in 2016 to top the corps with 44 catches and 494 yards.

Scott was one of the SEC's top deep threats, averaging 19.4 yards on 24 catches. Lipscomb was a pleasant surprise as a true freshman, ranking third on the team with 27 receptions, good for 319 yards and two scores.

The roster of wide receivers includes Trey Ellis (Sr.), Donaven Tennyson (So.) and Jackson Winrow (R-Fr.).

The Commodores also added physical receivers James Bostic and Chris Pierce in their most recent signing class. Ohio State transfer Alex Stump will sit out the '17 season.

The Commodores welcome back their top three tight ends from a year ago in Nathan Marcus (Sr.), Jared Pinkney (R-So.) and Sam Dobbs (Jr.). While Marcus is the team's most versatile tight end blending solid blocking and receiving talents, Pinkney became one of the team's top aerial targets in his first year, registering 22 catches for 274 yards. Dobbs is another passing target from the position.

The tight end corps also includes a pair of redshirt freshmen in Turner Cockrell and Cody Markel.

OUTLOOK: OFFENSIVE LINE

BRUNO REAGAN

Reagan has 15 career starts at right guard entering junior season.

JUSTIN SKULE

OFFENSIVE LINE

STARTERS BACK: 3 LETTERWINNERS: 6

The offensive line corps returns three starters, six letterwinners and several talented newcomers looking to break into the Commodores' rotation.

While several key performers are back for second-year coach Cameron Norcross, the unit lacks senior leadership. Additionally, Norcross will look to replace the production lost from the graduation of center Barrett Gouger and tackle Will Holden, who became a fifth-round draft pick of the Arizona Cardinals.

After focusing on fundamentals and chemistry in spring drills, Norcross expects more development from a unit that features three returning starters.

EAN PFEIFER

The rising sophomore provided a physical presence as a first-year starter in 2016.

Justin Skule (Jr.) is the team's top returning tackle. After seeing limited action as a true freshman, Skule developed into a dependable performer in 2016. He brings the ability to play either right or left tackle.

Bailey Granier (R-Jr.) is the team's most experienced tackle besides Skule. He was a four-game starter in 2015 and enjoyed numerous snaps last year.

Devin Cochran (R-Fr.) will enter camp after impressing during spring drills. The lengthy Cochran could compete for a starting role at tackle.

At guard, the Commodores enter 2017 with both starters back: Bruno Reagan (R-Jr.) at right guard and Ean Pfeifer (R-So.) at left guard. Both bring a nasty streak to the Commodores' improved rushing attack.

Egidio DellaRipa (R-Sr.), Darion DeBrossard (R-So.), Jared Southers (R-So.), David Floyd (R-Fr.) and Braden Kopp (R-Fr.) are potential swing players with the ability to contribute at tackle or guard.

Transfer guard Saige Young (So.) could be an interesting player to watch during preseason camp.

At center, Cole Hardin (R-Jr.) and Sean Auwae-McMoore (R-Fr.) are expected to compete as Gouger's replacement. While Hardin enters camp at full health, Auwae-McMoore took the majority of snaps during spring drills.

Other new arrivals on the offensive line include signees Bryce Bailey, Cole Clemens, Grant Miller and Jonathan Stewart.

OUTLOOK: DEFENSIVE LINE

NIFAE LEALAO

Nose tackle contributed 2.5 sacks, four tackles for loss among 22 tackles in 2016.

JONATHAN WYNN

Senior tops defensive line corps with 12 career starts entering this season.

DEFENSIVE LINE

STARTERS BACK: 3 LETTERWINNERS: 4

The Commodore defensive line corps features four proven veterans returning and a bevy of promising newcomers ready to move into contributing roles.

Second-year defensive line coach C.J. Ah You will welcome a unit highlighted by Nifae Lealao (Sr.), Jay Woods (Sr.), Jonathan Wynn (Sr.) and Dare Odeyingbo (Jr.). All four upperclassmen have started in the trenches over the last two years.

Lealao is developing into one of the Southeastern Conference's top defensive tackles. He brings a combination of size, strength and agility that has eluded Vanderbilt's previous interior line personnel.

Lealao is also coming off his best year. While clogging the middle of Vanderbilt's defense, he registered 22 tackles, including 2.5 quarterback sacks, and frequently applied pressure in the opponent backfield.

Ah You expects a healthy Woods to have a strong campaign, and offset the graduation loss of Adam Butler, a current member of the New England Patriots. Woods was limited last year but has renewed confidence and drive entering his fifth year in the program. As a sophomore in 2015, Woods was one of the team's most productive linemen, registering 24 tackles while earning five starting assignments.

The staff will look for greater production and more pressure on quarterbacks from the end position where Wynn and Odeyingbo are the top returnees. Both are coming off their best seasons in Black and Gold: Wynn contributing a pair of quarterback sacks among 28 tackles and Odeyingbo registering four tackles for loss among 21 stops.

Redshirt freshmen Josiah Sa'o, Cameron Tidd and Drew Birchmeier all showed development during spring drills and should push for playing time during camp.

The Commodores also added four defensive line prospects in the 2017 signing class: Jonah Buchanan, Stone Edwards, Dayo Odeyingbo and Jalen Pinkney.

DARE ODEYINGBO

Junior plays with tremendous effort from line role.

OUTLOOK: LINEBACKERS

OREN BURKS

Burks ranked second among Commodores last year with 3.5 quarterback sacks.

CHARLES WRIGHT

A standout in spring drills, Wright posted 3.5 tackles for loss last year.

LINEBACKERS

STARTERS BACK: 2 LETTERWINNERS: 6

The linebacking corps will feature several rising prospects ready to make their mark on the defense following the loss of three players who made multiple starts a year ago, including a consensus All-American.

Outside linebackers coach Warren Belin returns to Vanderbilt with second-year inside linebacker mentor Chris Marve to guide a unit that features two starters and six contributors from a year ago.

The corps is missing plenty of production from 2016, namely inside linebacker Zach Cunningham, who became a second-round NFL draft selection of the Houston Texans after earning consensus All-American honors.

Oren Burks (Sr.) will likely fill the vacancy left by Cunningham's departure. The versatile Burks has evolved from a physical safety in 2015 and hybrid linebacker last year to the inside linebacker slot this year. In 2016, Burks registered 3.5 sacks among 59 tackles.

Emmanuel Smith (Sr.) and Jordan Griffin (Jr.), who combined for 30 tackles in 2016, are expected to compete with Burks for the starting inside linebacker roles. Smith, another former safety, has added bulk during the offseason in anticipation of moving inside.

Jay Hockaday (R-So.) is a fourth returnee at inside linebacker. He is back at full health after missing the 2016 season.

Outside linebacker prospects Charles Wright (R-Jr.) and Josh Smith (Jr.) were two of the most improved Commodores during the spring, both bringing the ability to bring pressure off the edges. As a sophomore Wright responded with 3.5 tackles for loss when inserted into the lineup.

Caleb Peart (R-So.) will get plenty of preseason reps at outside linebacker after playing in 10 games last year.

Promising redshirt freshmen Kenny Hebert and Andre Mintze also return at outside linebacker.

The Commodores also added five linebacker prospects in its 2017 signing class: early-enrollee Dimitri Moore, Feleti Afemui, Colin Anderson, Brayden DeVault-Smith and Michael Owusu.

JOSH SMITH

A year ago, junior played his best football late in the season at outside linebacker.

OUTLOOK: SECONDARY

RYAN WHITE

Ranked third on team in tackles last year.

TRE HERNDON

Topped secondary in interceptions as junior.

ARNOLD TARPLEY III

Contributed 29 solo stops, 40 total tackles in 2016.

DEFENSIVE BACKFIELD

STARTERS BACK: 5 LETTERWINNERS: 9

Sporting five returning starters, the secondary should be a strength for the Commodore defense.

The secondary includes three proven performers at safety, a two-year starter at cornerback and the team's top nickel back from a year ago, along with several young prospects ready to show they can continue in bigger roles this season.

The unit, directed by head coach Derek Mason and Marc Mattioli, will look to create more turnovers this year after registering five interceptions and eight fumble recoveries a year ago.

All-SEC candidate Tre Herndon (Sr.) is the team's most experienced cover cornerback. A two-year starter, Herndon came into his own in 2016, contributing two interceptions, eight defended passes and 30 solo tackles.

Joejuan Williams (So.), Bryce Lewis (R-Jr.) and Elijah Hamilton (R-Fr.) appear to be the top candidates to fill the open cornerback role across from Herndon. In 2016, Williams showed impressive skills late as a true freshman and Lewis earned multiple starts and was a top reserve. After impressing last spring, Hamilton looks ready to compete for playing time.

Taurean Ferguson (R-Sr.) has been the team's leading nickel back for two years, entering his final season with 15 career starts. He contributed 52 total tackles as a junior.

Donovan Sheffield (Jr.) is likely to push for a greater role in camp.

The team also has several young cornerback prospects, including Gil Barksdale (So.) and 2017 signees Allan George and Randall Haynie.

At safety, the Commodores return three veterans who combined for 26 starts a year ago. Ryan White (Grad.) brings a physical presence and leadership to the strong safety position. He's also coming off his best year - 49 solo stops, 75 total tackles and two forced fumbles.

Arnold Tarpley III (Sr.) and LaDarius Wiley (R-Jr.), both productive starters at free safety, are back. They combined for 79 solo tackles, four forced fumbles and four fumble recoveries last year.

Andrew Rector (Jr.), Zaire Jones (R-Fr.), Frank Coppet (R-Fr.), Austin Quillen (R-Fr.) and early-enrollee Tae Daley (Fr.) will get plenty of opportunities in preseason camp to break into the rotation.

LADARIUS WILEY

Safety was team's second leading tackler in 2016.

OUTLOOK: SPECIALISTS

TOMMY OPENSHAW

Openshaw returns after making 15 of 19 field goal attempts last year.

SAM LOY

As a true freshman in 2016, Loy averaged 41.6 yards.

SPECIAL TEAMS

STARTERS BACK: 3 LETTERWINNERS: 6

Derek Mason will look for continued progress on Commodore special teams after first-year special teams coordinator Jeff Genyk ushered in substantial upgrades in 2016.

With Genyk's guidance, the Commodores showed nearly across-the-board improvement and fewer special teams miscues last year.

The returning specialists are paced by All-SEC kicking prospect Tommy Openshaw (Sr.). Coming off his best year, Openshaw enters the 2017 season within range of virtually every team career mark for kickers.

Openshaw enjoyed a superb 2016 campaign. He made 15 of 19 field goals, the fourth most conversions ever by a Commodore kicker in a season. Openshaw showed accuracy by making 11 of 12 attempts inside 40 yards, and length with a pair of 52 yarders.

Openshaw needs to make 13 field goals to break the team's existing record.

Ryley Guay (So.) is the team's top reserve kicker after seeing limited duty as a kickoff specialist last year.

Sam Loy (So.) is back to handle the team's punt chores. Loy's 41.6-yard average last year ranked sixth nationally among true freshmen. Nearly a third of Loy's punts also landed inside the opponent's 20-yard line. Loy is backed up by Openshaw and Reid Nelson (Sr.).

The Commodores will feature a new snap specialist. Scott Sypniewski, a graduate transfer from Michigan, and Tommy Schiager (R-Fr.) should compete for the snap duties. Sypniewski is a proven performer, having been the primary snapper at Michigan for three years.

Kalija Lipscomb (So.) returns as the likely punt returner after averaging 14.9 yards last year. Other potential punt returners are C.J. Duncan (Sr.) and Ryan White (Grad.).

The Commodores must fill a void left by the graduation of kick returner Darrius Sims, who departs campus ranked among the best in program history. Likely candidates to replace Sims are Lipscomb, Tennyson, Duncan, Dallas Rivers (Sr.) and Josh Crawford (Jr.).

KALIJA LIPSCOMB

Averaged 14.9 yards as punt returner in '16.

HEAD COACH MASON

Mason and his squad celebrate bowl eligibility last November after registering an impressive home victory over Tennessee in the regular season finale.

Entering his fourth season in charge of the Vanderbilt football program, head coach Derek Mason has the Commodores trending upward, on and off the field.

In 2016, Mason's Vanderbilt program improved its overall record and Southeastern Conference record for the third consecutive season. The Commodores finished the regular season 6-6 and 3-5 in SEC play, earning a trip to the Camping World Independence Bowl and the program's first postseason appearance under Mason.

Vanderbilt's 6-6 record in the 2016 regular season featured four wins in its final six games, including marquee SEC victories over Georgia, Ole Miss and Tennessee. The Commodores topped Georgia, 17-16, on Oct. 15 for Vanderbilt's first road win over an SEC opponent in Mason's tenure. The Commodores closed the regular season by scoring a combined 83 points in wins over the Rebels and Volunteers. Their 45 points against Tennessee marked the program's most in SEC play since 1971.

Under Mason, Commodore student-athletes are performing well on and off the football field.

In 2016, inside linebacker Zach Cunningham became Vanderbilt's first consensus All-American in more than three decades. The redshirt junior swept first-team honors from every prominent outlet in the nation. Cunningham's final accolade came when the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) selected him to its First Team All-America Defense. In April, the Houston Texans selected Cunningham with the No. 57 overall pick in the NFL Draft.

MASON: FACTS & NOTES

YEARLY IMPROVEMENT ON THE GRIDIRON

Each of Mason's three Commodore squads have registered more victories than the year before, becoming the first Vanderbilt head coach to accomplish the feat since George MacIntyre (1979-81).

OFF THE FIELD ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Student-athletes in Mason's Vanderbilt program have performed superbly in the classroom. After capturing the 2015 AFCA Academic Achievement Award for graduation success, the team came back last year to top the SEC and rank among national leaders in NCAA APR scores. Mason also created an innovative summer internship program that benefits players into the workforce after graduation.

STAFF STABILITY HAVING POSITIVE IMPACT

Mason's coaching staff this fall will virtually mirror the 2016 version. The stability includes two key staffers - head strength coach James Dobson and offensive coordinator Andy Ludwig - each returning for a third year on West End.

Running back Ralph Webb continued his surge to the top of the Commodore record books during Mason's third season. As a redshirt junior, Webb earned second team All-SEC honors after rushing for 1,283 yards and 13 touchdowns on 250 carries, passing Zac Stacy to set a new program single-season rushing record. He enters the 2017 season as Vanderbilt's all-time leader with 3,342 yards and 739 rush attempts.

In 2016, Mason's Commodores showed continued improvement in several key statistics. Vanderbilt was vastly improved inside the 20-yard line, leading the nation in red-zone defense (65.3 percent) and ranking sixth nationally in red-zone offense (93.5 percent). After struggling with turnovers two years ago, the 2016 squad was much approved, finishing the year forcing four more miscues than they committed.

Mason's steady improvement at Vanderbilt became evident after the 2014 season when he decided to add the role of defensive coordinator to his head coaching duties. The decision paid off immediately: Vanderbilt's 2015 defense ranked among the nation's most improved, finishing among the NCAA Top 30 in scoring defense, total defense, first downs allowed, red-zone defense and third-down efficiency.

In 2016, Mason's defense continued to impress, ranking high in the SEC in scoring defense, total defense, rushing defense and red-zone defense.

Mason enters the 2017 preseason with an excellent coaching staff that returns nearly intact from a year ago. The only change, former staffer Warren Belin replacing Osia Lewis at outside linebackers coach - was made after Lewis sought reduced duties to battle a medical diagnosis.

Mason has made impressive coaching hires since his first year on campus. Prior to the 2015 season, he lured highly regarded offensive coordinator Andy Ludwig and head strength coach James Dobson from the Big Ten, along with a pair of impressive young staffers in secondary coach Marc Mattioli and wide receivers coach Cortez Hankton. Mason continued to enhance the staff before the 2016 campaign, hiring Lewis, Jeff Genyk as special teams coordinator/running backs coach and Cameron Norcross as offensive line coach. He capped off the staff changes by adding two rising stars in the profession in C.J. Ah You and Chris Marve, to mentor the defensive line and inside linebackers, respectively.

Those changes helped Mason guide back-to-back improvement in the Commodores in 2015-16, with keen observers of college football seeing more progress ahead.

Mason's recruiting at Vanderbilt also continues to rise. Mason's 2017 signing class of 21 prospects ranks as the highest in his Vanderbilt tenure and effectively targets positions of need for future Commodore squads.

Since arriving on campus, Mason has focused on developing men of character and integrity with the football team. Five former football players, including former starters in Patton Robinette and Jacob Schultz, have been accepted into the Vanderbilt Medical School in the last two years. In the last three calendar years, the team has nearly 120 SEC Academic Honor Roll recipients and more than 60 Dean's List honorees.

Mason's Commodores continued to serve as the SEC leader in the classroom. After guiding the Commodores to a share of the AFCA-Memphis Touchdown Club Academic Achievement Trophy in 2015, Vanderbilt topped the conference in four-year Academic Progress Rate (APR) last year, marking the third straight season the Commodores have led the SEC in that category. Vanderbilt football finished fourth nationally with a 992 APR score, far ahead of the national average (962).

Mason's administration of the Vanderbilt program also includes innovation. He has also been instrumental in creating a summer internship program for Commodore student-athletes that is one of the most unique in the nation. Started in 2014 within the football team, the internship program has been expanded to other Vanderbilt squads, providing excellent work experience opportunities for student-athletes.

Mason has also supported foreign study by members of the team. Since 2014, eight Commodore players have studied abroad, including linebacker Oren Burks and offensive guard Ean Pfeifer this year.

The personable Mason has become actively involved in the Middle Tennessee community, contributing to several local and university causes, while making appearances at various social and sporting events.

Mason became Vanderbilt's 28th head coach in January 2014, coming to Nashville after serving as associate head coach and Willie Shaw Director of Defense for the 2013 Pacific-12 champion Stanford Cardinal.

Mason became defensive coordinator at Stanford in 2011, and helped the Cardinal to Rose Bowl appearances and consecutive Pac-12 titles in 2013 with one of the nation's top defensive units. Under Mason, the Cardinal ranked among the NCAA Top 15 in defensive efficiency for three consecutive years.

Mason's plan in Nashville is to build the Commodore defense into a top-tier unit, much as he did at Stanford where he served as coordinator from 2011-13. Mason's defense was a critical ingredient in helping the Cardinal to Rose Bowl appearances in 2013 and 2014, and consecutive Pac-12 titles with one of the nation's top defensive units. Under Mason, the Cardinal ranked among the NCAA national Top 15 in defensive efficiency for three consecutive years.

In 2013 while facing seven ranked opponents and one of the nation's toughest schedules, the Stanford defense ranked third in the NCAA in rushing defense (89.4 yards), 10th in scoring defense (19.0 points) and 16th in total offense (343.1 yards).

The Cardinal were also one of only five teams to allow less than 100 rushing yards per game in 2013. The team was also among the best nationally in producing stops for negative yardage, ranking fifth with 44 sacks and seventh with 109 tackles for loss.

In 2012, Mason was a finalist for the Broyles Award, given annually to the nation's top assistant coach, after directing a Stanford defense that ranked among the best in the nation and finest in team history. The 2012 unit broke Stanford's single season record for sacks, topped the Pac-12 in scoring defense and total defense, and helped the Cardinal to a 11-2 season capped off with a Rose Bowl title.

Mason's leadership paved the way to a historic defensive output in 2012, breaking Stanford's single-season record with 57 sacks and pacing the Pac-12 in scoring defense, total defense and rushing defense. In 11 of 14 games in 2012, Stanford held its opponent to 20 or fewer points, including a 14-point effort in the overtime win at top-ranked Oregon, who led the FBS with a 54.8 scoring average.

The 2012 Stanford defense held eight of 13 opponents under 100 yards rushing, and in a string of three consecutive games, the Cardinal recorded three of its top-10, single-game rushing defense performances in school history.

In 2011, Mason's first year as co-defensive coordinator, he teamed with Jason Tarver to mold Stanford into one of the Pac-12's top defensive units. That season, the unit ranked either first or second in the Pac-12 in six defensive categories, including rushing defense, third-down conversion defense, scoring defense, total defense, sacks and opponent first downs.

Mason also helped develop an array of Stanford defensive standouts, including All-Pro cornerback Richard Sherman, All-America defensive end Trent Murphy, All-America linebacker Shayne Skov and All-Pacific 12 safety Ed Reynolds.

Prior to his arrival in Palo Alto, Mason served as an assistant defensive back coach for the Minnesota Vikings from 2007 to 2009. He played a vital role in the team ranking sixth in total defense in 2008 and 2009 as the Vikings won NFC North titles each season. Mason was introduced to the NFL coaching circles through the Minority Fellowship program. He joined the Vikings staff in 2007, where he worked with defensive backs coach Joe Woods.

Before joining the Vikings, Mason tutored wide receivers at Ohio University under Frank Solich, helping the Bobcats improve from 4-7 in 2005 to a 9-5 campaign and GMAC Bowl appearance the following year. Mason spent the 2004 season as wide receivers coach at New Mexico State, where the Aggies lead the conference in passing.

During the 2002 campaign, Mason mentored receivers and assisted with special teams at Utah. The Utes featured the NFL Draft's No. 1 overall pick in quarterback Alex Smith and wide receiver Paris Warren, an eventual 7th round pick.

Mason's move to Utah came after a three-year stint at Bucknell (1999-2001) in which he gained his first experience as a defensive assistant coach. At Bucknell, Mason served as defensive backs mentor for three straight winning Bison squads.

Mason's first three collegiate positions came as an offensive assistant at Mesa (Ariz.) Community College in 1994, Weber State in 1995-96 and Idaho State in 1997-98.

As a player, Mason was a two-year starter and four-year letter-winner at Northern Arizona University. He was recruited to the university by Head Coach Larry Kentera, the grandfather of recent Vanderbilt football alum Kris Kentera.

During his NAU career, Mason was influenced by several outstanding coaches, including Kentera, Kansas City head coach Andy Reid, former Minnesota head coach Brad Childress, former NFL head coach and offensive coordinator Marty Mornhinweg.

Mason earned a bachelor's degree in criminal justice from Northern Arizona in 1993.

WHAT OTHERS ARE SAYING ABOUT MASON...

"Derek Mason is building the Vanderbilt football program the right way. After what we witnessed last year with his squad, I expect the Commodores to keep growing and improving under Coach Mason for years to come."

Kirk Herbstreit, ESPN CollegeGameDay Host, Play-by-Play Announcer

"What's most impressive about the job Derek Mason has done at Vanderbilt is the way he's stuck to his plan, adjusted when he's needed to and turned Vanderbilt into a bowl team in his third season. The Commodores are very much a reflection of their head coach -- disciplined, resilient, smart, and most of all, hungry for more."

Chris Low, ESPN.com national college writer

"Coach Mason is the guy for the job. I fully endorse him. I know he's going to have an impact there for a long time."

Jordan Matthews, Vanderbilt WR (2010-13); Philadelphia Eagles (2014-17)

"Coach (Mason) was essential to my development and my understanding of the game. He taught me how to play the game, how to study the game, how to really go in-depth with your film study and also understanding your weaknesses... He's really helped me, and he still helps me to this day."

Richard Sherman, All-Pro CB, Seattle Seahawks

"Derek is a great teacher and motivator, but more importantly he is a man of high character."

David Shaw, Head Coach, Stanford University

"Derek is a tremendous person, outstanding teacher, strong communicator, hard worker and consummate winner."

Jim Harbaugh, Head Coach, University of Michigan

"He's very conscientious, very down to earth. Derek really studies the game in an old-time, throwback fashion and he's always looking for a better way to do things. Old school means we weren't blackboard coaches. We were teaching. He is a great teacher."

Willie Shaw, Former Defensive Coordinator in NFL and at Stanford

"Derek Mason isn't satisfied with just being good enough at Vanderbilt. He won't back down in Nashville. He embraces the challenges and tackles them as hard and as vigorously as anyone ever has with the program."

Edward Aschoff, ESPN.com SEC writer

CAMERON NORCROSS

Offensive Line

Cameron Norcross enters his second year as offensive line coach for the Commodores.

Norcross, who joined Vanderbilt after a stint at Fresno State, molded an offensive front lacking experience in 2016 into an improved unit that opened holes for Ralph Webb. The running back went on to set season and career rushing marks and help the offense rank sixth nationally in red-zone scoring success.

Norcross came to Nashville after serving four years at Fresno State and a 11-year stint at his alma mater, the University of Nevada.

As a Fresno State staffer, Norcross helped the Bulldogs to three bowl appearances. In 2013, the Bulldogs went 11-2 overall, and capped the year with a Las Vegas Bowl appearance.

Norcross' lines were the backbone of a potent offensive attack at

Fresno State. From 2012-14, the unit helped Fresno to put up 500 or more yards of offense 18 times. The offense also tallied at least 40 points in 18 games. In 2013, the Fresno State line was considered one of the best in program history as the Bulldogs and co-offensive line coach. Wolf Pack Hall of Fame head coach Ault returned to the program as head coach in 2004, keeping Norcross on his staff in the same role all the way up until 2010 when he was promoted to the run-game coordinator and offensive line coach. Norcross played an important role in the development of Ault's innovative "Pistol" offense since its inception in 2005.

Nevada led the nation in rushing in 2009, a year in which the Wolf Pack became the first team in NCAA history to have three 1,000-yard rushers in the same season. In nine seasons coaching offensive linemen at Nevada, Norcross mentored eight players to first team all-conference honors and another eight to second-team accolades.

Prior to joining Tim DeRuyter's staff at Fresno State in 2012, the two had previously worked together at Nevada in 2005 and 2006 when DeRuyter was the co-defensive coordinator for the Wolf Pack. Over those two seasons, DeRuyter and Norcross helped lead Nevada to a 17-8 record, a share of the 2005 WAC Championship and two bowl appearances.

A native of Ely, Nev., Norcross earned a bachelor's degree from the University of Nevada in management.

He and his wife, Jennifer, are the parents of a son, Jacob, and two daughters, Kylie and Madison.

tied the school record for wins and captured the Mountain West Conference championship.

Norcross mentored second team All-Mountain West recipient Alex Fifita and Academic All-America honoree Justin Northern at Fresno State.

Before joining the Fresno State staff, Norcross served at Nevada, helping his alma mater to seven consecutive bowl appearances from 2005-11. A three-year letterman on the Wolf Pack offensive line (1997-99), Norcross was an All-Big West selection in 1998.

Norcross started at Nevada as a graduate assistant under coach Chris Tormey in 2001-02. In 2003, he was hired on full time as the tight ends

COMMODORES LET 10-0 HALFTIME LEAD ESCAPE IN HOME LOSS TO CAROLINA

NASHVILLE – Will Muschamp had no worries about sending Elliott Fry out for the longest field goal of his career. Even though this was the coach's first game, he had seen the kicker connect repeatedly in clutch situations.

Fry kicked a career-long 55-yard field goal with 35 seconds left, and the South Carolina Gamecocks rallied from a 10-point halftime deficit to beat Vanderbilt 13-10 Thursday night in Muschamp's debut as head coach.

Muschamp started Orth at quarterback and also played freshman Brandon

McIlwain. But it was Orth who went back into the game in the third quarter and threw for 152 yards rallying the Gamecocks to their eighth straight win over Vanderbilt in the SEC opener for both teams.

Vanderbilt now is 0-3 in season openers under coach Derek Mason, though his Commodores did manage to score an offensive touchdown in the first half. But Tommy Openshaw missed a 45-yard field goal wide left with 3:44 left, and Vandy turned it over on downs with 14 seconds left.

"Every decision we made will be questioned," Mason said. "The bottom line is we didn't win this game."

Fry also kicked a 48-yard field goal in the third quarter, and Deebo Samuel atoned for a fumbled punt in the first quarter by scoring an 8-yard TD on an end-around with 7:30 left. Fry had total confidence he could connect from 55 after barely coming up short from 62 in warmups.

2016 GAME RECAPS

COMMODORES USE BIG SECOND QUARTER TO TOP MIDDLE TENNESSEE

NASHVILLE – Derek Mason turned the lights out in the locker room for 10 minutes during a weather delay that lasted for an hour, 44 minutes. He wanted his Commodores to picture themselves playing good football.

Aside from a blocked punt on the first play once the game resumed, Ralph Webb and the Commodores did just that.

Webb ran for a career-high 211 yards and two touchdowns as Vanderbilt easily handled the weather delay and beat Middle Tennessee 47-24.

GAME 2 SEPT. 10, 2016 NASHVILLE

"We did what this team hasn't done since I've been here," Mason said. "I mean just responded all the way around."

Vanderbilt (1-1) took control with a 28-point second quarter after trailing 10-5 at the end of the first, the final two TDs coming after the storm. Middle Tennessee blocked a field goal on the first play after resuming the game, setting up Brent Stockstill's 5-yard TD pass to Ty Lee to pull within 19-17.

The Commodores answered by scoring two TDs in a span of 87 seconds, the last a 3-yard TD by Webb giving him 102 yards before halftime. Vanderbilt also forced two turnovers to win its second straight in this series against an in-state rival.

Stockstill finished with 399 yards passing and three TDs for Middle Tennessee (1-1), which was trying to start 2-0 for the first time since 2001.

DORES EARN OVERTIME VICTORY; RALLY TO WIN AT WESTERN KENTUCKY

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. -- Vanderbilt's defense turned away a 2-point conversion play at the end of the first overtime as the Commodores escaped with a 31-30 victory over Western Kentucky.

Kyle Shurmur's 5-yard pass to Nathan Marcus on the first possession of overtime gave Vanderbilt (2-2) its first lead of the game, and Tommy Openshaw added the point after for the Commodores.

Western Kentucky (2-2) answered quickly, needing just two plays to find the end zone on Mike White's 8-yard pass to Shaquille Johnson in overtime.

GAME 4

SEPT. 24, 2016

BOWLING GREEN, KY

Hilltoppers coach Jeff Brohm elected to go for two points. White rolled to his right, but his pass was deflected into the air off Anthony Wales' helmet and ruled incomplete, as Vanderbilt players rushed the field to celebrate the comeback victory.

The Commodores went 75 yards in the final 1:02 of regulation in seven plays to tie the game at 24-24 and force overtime. A pass interference call in the end zone on Western Kentucky's De'Andre Simmons against Vanderbilt's Trent Sherfield gave the Commodores the ball at the Hilltopper 2 with three seconds to play in regulation. Vanderbilt running back Ralph Webb, who had three rushing touchdowns in the game, leaped from just inside the 5 and landed just beyond the front edge of the end zone for the tying score.

VANDERBILT DROPS CLOSE DECISION TO NATIONALLY RANKED GATORS

NASHVILLE -- The Florida Gators aren't in the mood to pick apart a road win in the Southeastern Conference, especially after last week's ugly loss.

No matter what they might need to fix.

Jordan Scarlett ran for a 4-yard touchdown with Eddy Pineiro adding a pair of field goals as No. 23 Florida held off Vanderbilt 13-6.

Florida (4-1, 2-1 SEC) came up with two interceptions and two sacks on a day where the Gators defense otherwise struggled against one of the nation's worst offenses with three starting linemen missing most of the game.

GAME 5

OCT. 1, 2016

NASHVILLE

Ralph Webb ran for 110 yards as Vanderbilt outgained Florida 265-236 in total offense. The Commodores (2-3, 0-2) had a final chance to force overtime until Nick Washington intercepted a Wade Freebeck pass with 54 seconds left sealing the Gators' win.

The Gators never trailed and led 10-3 after Scarlett scored on a 4-yard touchdown run, and Pineiro kicked a 42-yard field goal as the half expired. Pineiro added a 26-yarder with 8:17 left.

Florida had a chance to pad its lead after Vanderbilt punter Sam Loy fumbled the snap and lost the ball with 5:07 left with the Commodores trailing 13-6. But Austin Appleby fumbled the snap on second-and-goal at the Vanderbilt 1 with 2:56 left giving the Commodores one last chance.

VANDERBILT FALLS BEHIND EARLY, LATE RALLY NOT ENOUGH AT KENTUCKY

LEXINGTON, Ky. -- Stephen Johnson rushed for a touchdown and converted a big fourth-and-1 play late in the game leading to Austin MacGinnis' 28-yard field goal, while the Wildcats' defense stifled Vanderbilt late to win 20-13.

Needing a spark to slow Vanderbilt's momentum after scoring 10 straight points, the Wildcats turned to their ground game led by Benny Snell Jr. (20 carries, 94 yards) and Jojo Kemp with just under 8 minutes remaining. The duo positioned Kentucky to cash in a third and final time on fourth down as Johnson stretched for 1 yard to the Commodores' 19.

GAME 6 OCT. 8, 2016 LEXINGTON, KY.

Kentucky didn't take a chance on a final fourth-and-1 at the 10, and MacGinnis' kick with 1:38 left provided a cushion that proved huge as Vanderbilt, with no timeouts, quickly drove 59 yards to the 8 seeking at least a tie. But several passes by Vandy's Kyle Shurmur were incomplete, including a fourth-down attempt that went off Kalija Lipscomb's hands with 2 seconds left.

Kentucky (3-3, 2-2 SEC) is now halfway toward its goal of a postseason berth. Vanderbilt (2-4, 0-3 SEC) fell short in its quest to give coach Derek Mason his first conference road win.

Kemp added a 4-yard TD run for the Wildcats. Kemp, Johnson and Stanley "Boom" Williams each ran for at least 54 yards as Kentucky gained 258 on 52 attempts.

VANDERBILT EARNS BIG ROAD WIN; LATE TOUCHDOWN BEATS GEORGIA

ATHENS, Ga. -- Derek Mason finally picked up the sort of victory that should ease some of the heat on the Vanderbilt coach.

Just the opposite for Georgia's Kirby Smart, who is facing plenty of scrutiny after a stunning loss to the Commodores.

Vanderbilt claimed its first SEC road win in Mason's three seasons as coach, upsetting Georgia 17-16 on Khari Blasingame's 2-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter and a huge fourth-down stop late in the game Saturday.

GAME 7 OCT. 15, 2016 ATHENS, GA.

The victory set off a wild celebration as the Vanderbilt players raced over to Sanford Stadium's famous hedges to celebrate with a small group of black-and-gold-clad fans.

"I told our young men this morning that if we wanted to do something epic, we needed to make sure we took the fight to them," Mason said.

For Vanderbilt (3-4, 1-3), it was only the third win over Georgia in the last 22 meetings between the SEC East rivals.

"You saw a football team committed to doing one thing, and that's going on the road and getting a win," Mason said. "We also talked about a new season, the second half of the season."

After Georgia went ahead late, Vanderbilt responded with a 75-yard, eight-play to reclaim the lead when Blasingame powered over with 9:43 to go.

2016 GAME RECAPS

COMMODORES EARN HOMECOMING VICTORY OVER TENNESSEE STATE

NASHVILLE -- Vanderbilt went to its running game to make an impressive comeback against Tennessee State.

After falling behind by three points late in the first half, the Commodores rattled off three unanswered touchdowns en route to a 35-17 win over Tennessee State.

"The biggest thing was being ahead of the chains, being good on first and second downs so you don't have to be in those bad situations," Commodores quarterback Kyle Shurmur said. "So if like we're in third and short it's so much better than third-and-8 or third-and-9."

GAME 8 OCT. 22, 2016 NASHVILLE

Vanderbilt's Ralph Webb rushed for 125 yards and Khari Blasingame ran for 100 and three touchdowns.

Shurmur completed 15 of 23 passes for 143 yards and one touchdown, giving Vanderbilt (4-4) its fifth homecoming win in the past six years. Vanderbilt fell behind 17-14 late in the first half before the rattling off three straight touchdowns.

Ronald Butler completed 19 of 30 passes for 285 yards, two touchdowns and one interception for Tennessee State (5-2) in the second all-time meeting between the Nashville schools that are only three miles apart.

Vanderbilt took its first lead at 21-17 with 1:46 left in the half after Darrius Sims had a 33-yard run to the 3 and Blasingame punched it in to cap a five-play, 78-yard drive.

RANKED AUBURN HOLDS OFF VANDERBILT ON THE PLAINS

AUBURN, Ala. -- An injured Sean White came off the bench to throw a touchdown pass and Josh Holsey intercepted a last-minute throw to lift No. 9 Auburn to a come-from-behind, 23-16 win over Vanderbilt.

The Tigers (7-2, 5-1 Southeastern Conference, No. 11 AP) sputtered after starting John Franklin III in place of White, who had an unspecified injury. White returned to open the second half with Auburn down 13-10, then threw a 21-yard touchdown pass to Darius Slayton and led two field goal drives.

Auburn coach Gus Malzahn said White was "banged up" and didn't take a snap in practice leading up to the game.

Vandy (4-5, 1-4) stayed alive into the final minute against the 26-point favorites thanks to Caleb Scott's 29-yard catch of a tipped ball on fourth and 18. The Commodores moved to Auburn's 30 before Holsey's interception put it away.

The drive was set up when Daniel Carlson's attempt at his fourth field goal was blocked. Alabama native Zach Cunningham leapt over the line at the snap and knocked it down.

White completed 10 of 13 passes for 106 yards and Kamryn Pettway ran 25 times for 173 yards.

Shurmur completed 24 of 36 passes for 221 yards and a touchdown. He also had a 21-yarder on the final drive before the pick.

VANDERBILT DROPS CLOSE DECISION ON THE ROAD AT MISSOURI

COLUMBIA, Mo. -- Drew Lock completed 22 of 37 passes for 294 yards and two touchdowns as Missouri defeated Vanderbilt 26-17.

It marks Missouri's first SEC victory since Lock's starting debut, a 24-10 victory over South Carolina on Oct. 3, 2015.

Each team opened with a three-and-out before Damarea Crockett's 6-yard touchdown run gave Missouri (3-7, 1-5) a lead it would never relinquish. Crockett had 20 carries for 154 yards and the touchdown.

J'Mon Moore caught eight passes for 138 yards and two touchdowns, including an 82-yard score with 9:50 remaining in the second quarter, and Johnathon Johnson added four catches for 73 yards.

C.J. Duncan caught five passes for 89 yards and Caleb Scott had three catches for 63 yards.

Missouri gained 481 yards despite a 13-minute differential in time of possession. It's the Tigers' highest yardage total in SEC play since Nov. 15, 2014 when they gained 587 yards en route to a 34-27 victory over Texas A&M.

VANDERBILT GOES ON 31-0 RUN DURING HOME VICTORY OVER OLE MISS

NASHVILLE -- Derek Mason had Vanderbilt baseball coach Tim Corbin talk to his football team about not being afraid of success and how to handle the roller-coaster of emotions during a game.

The Commodores showed Saturday night they listened very well.

Ralph Webb ran for 123 yards and three touchdowns, and Vanderbilt scored 31 straight points in beating Mississippi 38-17.

With the win, Vanderbilt (5-6, 2-5) assured Mason his best record yet in his third season. The Commodores now need a win in their regular season finale to become bowl eligible for the first time since 2013. Their APR is so good that five wins could be enough, winning a sixth game would be even better.

GAME 11
Nov. 19, 2016
NASHVILLE

"Listen that's exactly what we're going to do," Mason said. "We're going to line ourselves up and try to get ourselves ready to go play one more game because that's what we're guaranteed. And you know what? We're looking forward to this one."

Kyle Shurmur threw for 273 yards and two touchdowns, and the Commodores also had three sacks.

Vanderbilt was the first SEC opponent that Mississippi played this season that hadn't been ranked, and the Commodores snapped the Rebels' two-game win streak. Now the Rebels (5-6, 2-5) need a win in the Egg Bowl to extend its bowl streak.

DORES EARN THIRD WIN IN FIVE YEARS OVER VOLS IN CONVINCING FASHION

NASHVILLE -- The Vanderbilt Commodores have a black bowling ball with a star "V" to celebrate earning a bowl berth on the field.

The bragging rights that go with a very big win over their in-state rival only makes the victory that much sweeter.

Kyle Shurmur threw for a career-high 416 yards, and Vanderbilt scored the final 21 points in an upset of No. 24 Tennessee 45-34 that erased any doubts the Commodores belong in a bowl.

The Commodores (6-6, 3-5) earned a bowl berth for the first time since 2013 thanks to their Academic Progress Rate (APR) score before kickoff. Then they went out and turned in the best offensive performance yet in picking up their sixth win this year and improving coach Derek Mason's best record in his third season.

"That's the way we wanted it," Mason said. "We wanted a victory. At the end of the day, we didn't want to sneak in the back door. We wanted to kick in the door and walk through the front door."

Vanderbilt scored its most points against an SEC opponent since scoring 49 against Mississippi State on Sept. 25, 1971. The Commodores outgained Tennessee 608-516 in beating the Vols for the third time in five seasons.

Tennessee led 31-24 at halftime, but the Commodores outscored the Vols controlled the second half, outscoring the 21-3 after intermission.

COMMODORES FALL TO WOLFPACK IN INDEPENDENCE BOWL

SHREVEPORT, La. -- Jaylen Samuels caught three touchdown passes from Ryan Finley, Nyheim Hines returned a kickoff for a 100-yard touchdown and NC State beat Vanderbilt 41-17 in the Camping World Independence Bowl.

NC State (7-6) won three of its final four games to finish with a winning record. The Wolfpack built a 28-3 lead by midway through the third quarter -- largely thanks to Samuels' touchdown catches of 9, 55 and 17 yards -- and then held off a brief Vanderbilt rally.

Samuels' three touchdown catches were an Independence Bowl record. Finley, who completed 19 of 30 passes for 235 yards, hit Samuels six times for 104 yards.

NC State coach Dave Doeren said Samuels' big night wasn't necessarily planned, but when Vanderbilt loaded the defense to stop the run, he was the man who was open.

Vanderbilt (6-7) had a lot of momentum going into the game thanks to surprising wins over Mississippi and Tennessee to end the regular season. But the Commodores' offense -- which scored a combined 83 points against the Rebels and Volunteers -- struggled for most of the night.

"We looked a little rusty," Vanderbilt coach Derek Mason said. "All the way around -- special teams, offense and defense. We just didn't look like the Vanderbilt team that came out of the regular season."

The Golden Years

Dan McGugin's Commodores took on all comers, and rarely failed to deliver a victory. Traveling by rail across much of the nation, the program compiled a 124-30 record from 1904-22.

Overpowering Commodores

From 1910 to 1912, McGugin's teams went 24-2-1, and outscored their opponents by a combined 816-35 margin. Above, fans line Curry Field with Model Ts to watch 1910 game.

Playing the Texas State Fair

Before Oklahoma and Texas started the Red River Shootout, it was Vanderbilt vs. Texas at the Texas State Fair in Dallas. Vanderbilt won five of seven games with the Longhorns between 1921 and 1928.

Aug. 10, 1918

One of the greatest and most beloved Dores of all-time, Irby "Rabbit" Curry, gave his life defending America in the skies over France.

Curry was a standout quarterback from 1914-16, a scholar and student leader. As a senior, classmates elected him "Bachelor of Ugliness" — the highest award given to a male Vanderbilt undergrad.

Oct. 14, 1922

McGugin invites powerful Michigan as the Commodores' initial opponent in Dudley Field. The teams play to a 0-0 tie before a huge crowd. The tie was preserved when captain Jess Neely recovered a fumble near in Commodore goal.

McGugin's Assistants

Dan McGugin, middle, is shown in 1922 with new assistant Wallace Wade, far left, an eventual Hall of Famer. The 1922 team captain, Jess Neely, later became a legend.

Nov. 29, 1934

After three decades at the helm of Commodore football, Dan McGugin steps aside to become athletics director. He retired with a remarkable 197-55-19 record. He ranks No. 20 all-time for most wins by a NCAA FBS head coach.

Oct. 23, 1937

Early in the game against No. 6 LSU, tackle Greer Ricketson took the ball cleverly hidden on the ground by the Vanderbilt quarterback and rambled 50 yards for a score. The Dores would win 7-6.

Nov. 22, 1941

In his second year, Sanders returned the Dores to prominence. Their 7-0 win over Alabama on this date gave the team an 8-1 mark.

Sanders' 1941 Staff

Vanderbilt Head Coach Red Sanders, far left, hired excellent assistants. In 1941, his staff included a future legend in Paul "Bear" Bryant, who mentored Commodore linemen in the 1941-42 seasons.

Defense After WWII

Sanders' 1946 squad posted five shutouts, including four against conference foes.

Looking Within to Replace a Legend

McGugin picked one of his best Commodore players, Ray Morrison, as a replacement. Morrison came after a stellar tenure as SMU's coach.

He also was a chief factor in a pair of early season blowouts, 105-0 over Bethel and 100-0 against Maryville.

RAY MORRISON
QUARTERBACK, 1911

When Morrison ended his career in 1911, McGugin called him "the best I ever saw."

More than two decades later, a panel of writers tabbed Morrison as VU's top QB through its first 50 years.

An All-America in 1911, Morrison was a talented player and leader. In his two years, the team went 16-1-1.

He later became a great coach, serving 34 seasons at the collegiate level. While McGugin served in the military during 1918, he was the team's interim coach. When McGugin retired in 1934, Morrison was his handpicked successor.

He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1954.

W.E. METZGER
GUARD, 1910

Metzger was Dan McGugin's first great lineman, earning third-team All-America recognition in 1910.

In 1909, Metzger was a sensation in the backfield, rushing for fourscores to singlehandedly beat Mercer 28-0, before suffering a leg fracture.

In 1910, he moved to the line, anchoring a unit that helped produce an 8-0-1 record. On defense, he assisted a unit that allowed only eight points.

Metzger shared the spotlight with QB Ray Morrison in 1911. He played brilliantly, helping the Commodores to an 8-1 record.

OWSLEY MANIER
BACK, 1906

Joining the team in Dan McGugin's first year on campus, Manier was a three-year starter and a big reason why Vanderbilt became an instant Southern power under McGugin.

As the team's fullback, Manier was named All-America in 1906, becoming the first Commodore so honored.

He was an offensive machine for McGugin's squad, scoring three times against Kentucky and on five occasions in 78-0 victory over Alabama.

Manier was a key factor in the Commodores' 24-1 overall record.

Eventually, Manier returned to academia, and became professor emeritus of clinical medicine at the Vanderbilt School of Medicine.

1955 GATOR BOWL

12/31/1955 • Gator Bowl, Jacksonville, Fla.

VANDERBILT 25 AUBURN 13

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. – Still hurting from a dislocated elbow suffered in the Tennessee game, quarterback Don Orr scored two touchdowns and set up another as the Commodores defeated No. 8-ranked Auburn in the 11th Gator Bowl 25-13.

The Vanderbilt defense provided a huge lift for the Commodores, recovering five fumbles in the victory.

Vanderbilt's first score was set up when Orr recovered an Auburn fumble. Eight plays later, Joe Stephenson ran seven yards for the VU touchdown.

Auburn answered on a 38-yard TD pass from Howell Tubbs to Rob James in the second quarter, but the rest of the game belonged to the Black and Gold. On Vanderbilt's following possession, Orr carried the ball 44 yards to the Tigers' 28. He then passed to Joe Scales, who advanced to the Auburn 4-yard line. On the next play, Orr carried the ball over the line after a fake to fullback Phil King to give Vanderbilt a 13-7 lead at the half.

At the opening of the third quarter, Vanderbilt guard Sonny Tatum recovered an Auburn fumble, and the Commodores marched quickly into scoring position as Orr crossed the goal line for his second touchdown of the day to make the score 19-7. Both teams scored once more in the fourth quarter. Vanderbilt's score came on a one-yard run off right tackle by Charley Horton.

Vanderbilt coach Art Guepe cleared his bench in the final minutes, using 38 of the 39 men dressed for the game. Capitalizing on Auburn's five fumbles and using an ailing quarterback, the Commodores captured its first bowl appearance.

1974 PEACH BOWL

12/28/1974 • Fulton Co. Stadium, Atlanta, Ga.

TEXAS TECH 6 VANDERBILT 6

ATLANTA, Ga. – The 1974 Peach Bowl was a game with no champion but two winners, the Commodores and Texas Tech Red Raiders.

Despite the effective rushing of Red Raider tailback Larry Isaac and fullback Cliff Hoskins, the Commodore defense held Texas Tech without points in the first half and entered halftime with a 3-0 lead after Mark Adams kicked a 31-yard field goal with 10 minutes remaining.

Neither team was able to muster much offense in the third quarter, though Texas Tech did tie the score at 3-3 after a drive stalled at the Vanderbilt 16-yard line.

Early in the fourth quarter, the Commodores' freshman lineman Dennis Harrison stopped a deep Texas Tech threat by blocking a Red Raider field goal attempt. The Tech drive started following one of two Vanderbilt turnovers during the game.

After the blocked field goal, the Commodores responded with a possession that ended with Adams' second field goal of the day, a 26-yarder that resulted in a 6-3 Vanderbilt margin. However, Texas Tech tied the game at the 2:00 mark on a 35-yard field goal by Brian Hall. On its final drive, Vanderbilt could not move into scoring range.

The Commodore offense struggled much of the day, with quarterback David Lee hitting just five of 14 attempts. Running back Jamie O'Rourke had 76 rushing yards.

The limited offensive production from both teams resulted in numerous defensive and scoring records being set in the game.

Within hours of the conclusion, Vanderbilt Head Coach Steve Sloan announced he was leaving his position to accept the head coaching job at Texas Tech.

1982 HALL OF FAME BOWL

12/31/1982 • Legion Field, Birmingham, Ala.

VANDERBILT 28 AIR FORCE 36

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. – Without question, the Hall of Fame Bowl was one of college football's most exciting 1982 postseason games.

The game matched one of the nation's most potent aerial attacks featuring Vanderbilt All-SEC quarterback Whit Taylor and one of America's most devastating rushing attacks in the Falcons' vaunted option attack.

Offensively, this game lived up to the hype as 33 Hall of Fame records were broken and another eight were tied in Legion Field. Unfortunately for Vanderbilt, Air Force walked away the winner 36-28 after a remarkable comeback.

For three quarters, Whit Taylor was unstoppable. Connecting with a variety of wide receivers and running backs, Taylor's fourth touchdown pass of the game, a four-yarder to Norman Jordan, gave the Commodores a 28-17 margin entering the fourth quarter. Down by double digits, the Air Force Academy scored rushing touchdowns on three consecutive possessions to take the victory.

Taylor was named the Most Valuable Player, after completing a team-record 38 passes of 51 attempts for 452 yards, which remains as the second highest single-game passing yardage total in Vanderbilt history. Jordan's performance arguably was more remarkable. Though rushing for just four yards, Jordan hauled in 20 receptions for 173 yards and three TDs, breaking five Hall of Fame Bowl records.

2008 MUSIC CITY BOWL

12/31/2008 • LP Field, Nashville, Tenn.

BOSTON COLLEGE 14 VANDERBILT 16

NASHVILLE – Vanderbilt won a bowl game for the first time in 53 years, with Bryant Hahnfeldt kicking a 45-yard field goal with 3:26 left for a 16-14 win over #24 Boston College in the Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl held on New Year's Eve in LP Field.

The Commodores hadn't played in a bowl since 1982 – the SEC's longest drought. The victory gave Vanderbilt (7-6) its first winning season since that season. This is just the fourth time in the past 50 years that Vanderbilt has won seven games in a season.

The Eagles got the ball twice after Hahnfeldt's third field goal. They had to punt the first time, then Vanderbilt DB Myron Lewis picked off a pass with 1:36 left.

Vanderbilt scored its lone touchdown when freshman safety Sean Richardson fell on a Commodore punt that bounced off the knee of BC's Paul Anderson with 10:35 left in the third quarter.

The Commodores played musical chairs at quarterback, giving redshirt freshman Larry Smith his first career start.

Hahnfeldt, a Nashville product playing his final game as a Commodore, matched a single-game career high with the three field goals. The Commodores also forced two interceptions while allowing none.

CINCINNATI 31 VANDERBILT 24

MEMPHIS – Isaiah Pead ran for 149 yards and a touchdown, and Ralph David Abernathy IV's 90-yard kickoff return put Cincinnati ahead to stay as the Bearcats edged Vanderbilt 31-24 in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl.

But the 10-3 co-Big East champion Bearcats (10-3) had to work to put away Vanderbilt (6-7), a team that tied for fourth in the SEC's East Division. The Commodores led 21-17 early in the fourth quarter until Abernathy became the first Cincinnati player to return a kickoff for a TD in the program's 13 bowl appearances.

The Commodores, making their fifth bowl appearance and first since 2008, finished the season with a 6-7 record.

Senior quarterback Larry Smith replaced Vanderbilt starter Jordan Rodgers in the third quarter, and he threw for a season-high 142 yards. Smith's biggest completion was a 68-yard scoring toss to Chris Boyd that gave the Commodores for a 21-17 lead early in the fourth quarter. Vanderbilt lost the lead on the ensuing kickoff.

NC STATE 24 VANDERBILT 38

NASHVILLE – Vanderbilt is winning like the Commodores haven't in nearly a century. After capturing the Franklin American Mortgage Music City Bowl, Head Coach James Franklin says everyone better get used to it.

Jordan Rodgers threw two touchdown passes and ran for another score as the Commodores capped their best season since 1915 by defeating NC State 38-24 in Nashville's LP Field.

"We're not going anywhere," Franklin said. The Commodores finished 9-4 for their best record since going 9-1 in 1915. It marks only the third time the smallest and only private university in the SEC has won as many as nine games in a season.

Vandy closed the season with seven straight wins for its longest streak since an eight-game run in 1948.

Senior Zac Stacy earned the bowl's MVP honors with 108 rushing yards and one touchdowns.

BOWL RECAPS

2014 BBVA COMPASS BOWL

1/4/2014 • Birmingham, Ala., Legion Field

HOUSTON 24
VANDERBILT 41

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. – Patton Robinette threw two 50-yard touchdown passes to MVP Jordan Matthews, leading Vanderbilt to a 41-24 victory over Houston in the BBVA Compass Bowl.

Robinette, starting after senior Austyn Carta-Samuels had season-ending surgery to repair a torn ACL in his left knee, also had an 8-yard scoring run as Vanderbilt built a 24-0 lead in the first half.

After Houston pulled even by scoring 24 points in the third quarter, Vanderbilt reclaimed the lead on Brian Kimbrow's 21-yard touchdown run. It was the start of 17 fourth-quarter points for the Commodores.

"The thing that's probably the most exciting to me is there is a culture of winning at Vanderbilt," Coach James Franklin said. "These guys know how to win."

Vanderbilt (9-4) closed the season with five straight wins. The 'Dores played in three straight bowl games under Franklin -- a first for the program -- and completed their first back-to-back nine-win seasons.

2016 INDEPENDENCE BOWL

12/26/2016 • Shreveport, La., Independence Stadium

NC STATE 41
VANDERBILT 17

SHREVEPORT, La. – Jaylen Samuels caught three touchdown passes from Ryan Finley, Nyheim Hines returned a kickoff for a 100-yard touchdown and NC State beat Vanderbilt 41-17 in the Camping World Independence Bowl.

NC State (7-6) won three of its final four games to finish with a winning record. The Wolfpack built a 28-3 lead by midway through the third quarter -- largely thanks to Samuels' touchdown catches of 9, 55 and 17 yards -- and then held off a brief Vanderbilt rally.

Samuels' three touchdowns were an Independence Bowl record. Finley, who completed 19 of 30 passes for 235 yards, hit Samuels six times for 104 yards.

Vanderbilt (6-7) had a lot of momentum going into the game thanks to surprising wins over Mississippi and Tennessee to end the regular season. But the Commodores' offense -- which scored a combined 83 points against the Rebels and Volunteers -- struggled for most of the night.

"We looked a little rusty," Vanderbilt coach Derek Mason said. "All the way around -- special teams, offense and defense. We just didn't look like the Vanderbilt team that came out of the regular season."

Vanderbilt, founded 144 years ago by a $1 million gift by Commodore Cornelius Vanderbilt, is one of the nation's leading institutions of higher learning, a mid-size, private comprehensive research university that emphasizes undergraduate learning and living experiences.

Members of the 2017-18 undergraduate student body, including the student-athlete population, are outstanding academic achievers and active participants in the campuses' many organizations and activities. They also compose the most diverse enrollment ever as Vanderbilt continues to attract students from many ethnic, cultural, socio-economic, geographic and religious backgrounds.

Since its inception, the university has taken great pride in the quality of education – and quality of life – its students enjoy. Each of the four undergraduate colleges – College of Arts and Science, School of Engineering, Blair School of Music and Peabody College – attracts students with varying goals and dreams.

At Vanderbilt, professors know their students' names and take an interest in students' ideas. Recognized globally for their research and scholarship prowess, faculty members believe in the importance of balancing professional pursuits with classroom instruction, and they value their relationships with students. Some of the world's leading scholars teach at Vanderbilt, helping students develop an academic program that meets individual objectives, and they encourage students to enhance primary areas of study by choosing among hundreds of elective courses, course-related internships, off-campus study and accelerated degree programs.

Through the Honor Code, student-directed service opportunities and campus programs, undergrads also consider moral and ethical issues and put the many facets of their lives into a personal framework of values.

At Vanderbilt, the big material resources are in place: beautiful grounds and buildings, well-equipped classrooms and labs, modern options for housing, and ample athletic and recreational facilities. Off campus, undergrads have all the urban conveniences offered by one of America's most vibrant cities, the Tennessee capital city of Nashville.

Though located within walking distance of downtown activities, the quality of Vanderbilt life is reflected in much smaller, less public ways – attending a Commodore sporting event, researching papers, running into friends while walking on campus, or grabbing a late-night snack.

NEW BRONSON INGRAM COLLEGE WILL ADD TO REMARKABLE ON-CAMPUS LIVING EXPERIENCES

Two years after opening the beautiful Warren and Moore residential college halls, the University's national reputation of providing students with a remarkable on-campus living experience will be enhanced when the E. Bronson Ingram College complex opens next year.

The E. Bronson Ingram College, now construction on the central campus, will be the third major living-learning initiative by Vanderbilt in recent years, following the Ingram Commons and the Warren and Moore College Halls. The Ingram Commons, located on Vanderbilt's Peabody campus, serves as home to all first-year students. The Warren and Moore college hall, located on the main campus across from historic Kirkland Hall, accommodates 700 upper-class students.

The E. Bronson Ingram College, to be located just off West End Avenue, will house 350 students, faculty advisors and graduate students. It will feature a dining room, study lounges, social spaces and outdoor green spaces.

The residential communities have hosted Vanderbilt athletic activities. The Ingram Commons was showcased in October 2008 when ESPN selected the site as its location for the popular College Football GameDay broadcast prior to airing Vanderbilt's victory over Auburn on campus.

Warren and Moore college halls opened in 2015 on the main campus, adding to Vanderbilt's reputation for unique, on-campus living experiences for its students.

When the 'Dores succeed in competition, Willie Geist shows his pride as a co-host of NBC's popular Today show.

CHANCELLOR ZEPPOS

Chancellor Zeppos addresses a distinguished audience on campus.

Vanderbilt Chancellor Nicholas S. Zeppos continues to demonstrate his appreciation for and commitment to the University's athletic program in a variety of ways.

For the ninth time since becoming Chancellor in 2008, Zeppos will put on his running shoes to lead the freshman class through the Vanderbilt Stadium tunnel and across Dudley Field in the Anchor Dash, moments before the Commodores kick off their home opener on September 8, 2017.

His active role in Southeastern Conference leadership and regulatory issues and his vocal support of college athletics becoming more diverse and inclusive are just two examples of how Zeppos' influence has been felt far beyond the Nashville campus.

Zeppos has taken a keen interest in athletics at Vanderbilt throughout his tenure at the University which spans more than two decades. "I don't call the plays or throw the passes," Zeppos said. "I'm here simply trying to do whatever I can to support all of the talented people who do these things."

In the spring of 2016 Zeppos displayed that support yet again during the hiring of two of the nation's most dynamic and sought after basketball coaches, Bryce Drew and Stephanie White, to lead the Commodores' men's and women's respective basketball programs.

Prior to that, he worked hand-in-hand with Vice Chancellor and Athletics Director David Williams II to lure Derek Mason away from Stanford University to lead the Vanderbilt football program. That effort is yielding big dividends on West End, as Mason enters his fourth straight season seeking even more victories.

Zeppos previously endorsed an athletics capital improvement plan that has surpassed $60 million, orchestrating efforts to improve the student experience for athletes and assist with recruiting.

"One thing I consider the ultimate compliment is when a coach calls me and says, 'I've got a couple of recruits here. Could you meet them?'" Zeppos has said.

Zeppos previously served as president of the Southeastern Conference and continues to be an important voice within the SEC where his legal expertise and commitment to fairness, student-athlete welfare, and diversity have been on display for nearly a decade. He played a key role in the extensive SEC commissioner search while serving as chair of the SEC Executive Committee of presidents and chancellors and in March 2015, he introduced Greg Sankey as the choice to replace Mike Slive as league commissioner.

A distinguished legal scholar, teacher and executive, Zeppos served from 2002 to February 2008 as Vanderbilt's chief academic officer, overseeing the University's undergraduate, graduate, and professional education programs as well as research efforts in liberal arts and sciences, engineering, music, education, business, law and divinity. As provost and vice chancellor, he chaired Vanderbilt's budgeting and capital planning council and led all fundraising and alumni relations efforts across the institution, in addition to overseeing the dean of students and dean of admissions.

Zeppos has led a number of important initiatives at Vanderbilt, including the planning process for The Ingram Commons, a landmark transformation of the first-year experience; Warren and Moore colleges for upperclassmen; and Vanderbilt Barnard College, the next phase of the university's unique living-learning residential college system currently under construction on the original campus. Other key advancements include restructuring of the institution to split out clinical health care operations into a new corporate entity; the Academic Strategic Planning Group; innovative efforts in undergraduate admissions and financial aid; and the development of new programs in Jewish studies, law and economics and genetics. In February of 2016, Zeppos was honored by Insight Into Diversity magazine for his commitment to diversity and inclusion with its national Giving Back Award.

In a bold move to strengthen Vanderbilt's commitment to admitting undergraduates on the basis of accomplishment and achievement, rather than their ability to pay, Zeppos significantly expanded the financial aid program in 2009. By replacing undergraduate, need-based loans with grant and scholarship assistance, the University opened its doors wider to highly talented and qualified students of all economic, cultural and geographical backgrounds. The expanded aid program is funded by a combination of strategic budget allocations and gifts from thousands of generous donors to the current Opportunity Vanderbilt campaign.

Zeppos was recognized with five teaching awards at the law school before serving as an associate dean, associate provost, and provost and vice chancellor for academic affairs. He served as interim chancellor for eight months prior to being formally appointed as Vanderbilt's eighth chancellor on March 1, 2008.

The Chancellor is a member of the Knight Commission on Intercollegiate Athletics and serves on a number of institutions' Board of Directors: Association of American Universities, Foundation for Educational Exchange Between Canada and the United States of America (Fulbright Canada), Mary Parrish Center, Conexión Américas, and Vanderbilt University Medical Center. He also recently served as co-chair of the United States Senate-appointed Task Force on Government Regulation of Higher Education.

From 1982 to 1987, Zeppos practiced law in Washington, DC, at the United States Department of Justice and at Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering, specializing in appellate litigation involving complex regulatory, statutory and constitutional matters.

A Milwaukee native, Zeppos is a 1979 magna cum laude graduate of the University of Wisconsin Law School, where he served as editor-in-chief of the Wisconsin Law Review and was selected as the outstanding graduate of his class. He studied history during his undergraduate years at the university and was a 1976 Phi Beta Kappa graduate.

He is married to Lydia A. Howarth, an accomplished editor. They have two sons, Benjamin and Nicholas.

The chancellor prepares to lead Vanderbilt freshmen on their annual Anchor Dash. The class makes its entrance for the opener by running the stadium playing surface.

A.D. DAVID WILLIAMS II

Vanderbilt Director of Athletics David Williams II ranks among the university's most prominent leaders.

Aside from his role in McGugin Center, Williams is Vice-Chancellor for University Affairs and Athletics as well as a tenured professor at the University's nationally ranked law school. He continues to teach at the Law School where he conducts courses on Taxation and Education as well as Sports Law. He is also an active participant in the SEC and NCAA in matters of negotiations, reforms, enforcements and planning. Williams is a frequently speaker on collegiate athletics, including recent appearances at Harvard and Arizona State law schools and as keynote speaker at the Black Male Student Athlete Summit.

Since adding athletics to his multiple titles and responsibilities in 2002, Vanderbilt has seen its athletic department and individual programs recognized as being among the nation's most innovative and successful. The 2016-17 academic year may have been one of the best yet under Williams' leadership.

Eight Vanderbilt teams reached NCAA postseason competition, including an SEC regular season and tournament title and a third straight Final Four appearance by the 2015 NCAA national champion women's tennis. Men's golf won its first SEC Championship and claimed a spot in the Final Four for the first time in program history. Vanderbilt baseball reached the NCAA tournament for the 12th straight season – the longest active streak in the SEC – and reached an NCAA Super Regional for the fourth time in five years. Meanwhile, women's bowling finished third at the NCAA Championships and second consecutive Southland Conference crown.

In the most recent Academic Progress Rate scores released by the NCAA, Vanderbilt football, men's golf, women's golf, men's tennis and women's tennis led the SEC in APR. Bowling and lacrosse also finished atop the Southland and BIG EAST Conferences, respectively. All Vanderbilt teams scored between 976 and 1000 (which is a perfect score), with an overall average of 993.6. That average surpassed the NCAA four-year rate of 981. Moreover, seven programs received the prestigious Public Recognition Award, which honors programs ranking in the top 10 percent nationally in multiyear APR scores in each sport.

In 2016, Williams again demonstrated his hiring prowess. Williams orchestrated two successful searches resulting in the hiring of two of the nation's top basketball coaches, Bryce Drew and Stephanie White, to led the respective Vanderbilt men's and women's programs. In addition, the return of Commodore legend and favorite Carolyn Peck as a member of the women's staff was very well received by the Vanderbilt faithful.

Drew and White join a growing list of highly regarded head coaches hired by Williams, including head football coach Derek Mason in 2013. The next year, Williams attracted Darren Ambrose from the University of Pennsylvania to direct the women's soccer program. In 2012, Williams directed the search for men's golf coach Scott Limbaugh, who has since led the team in three straight NCAA Final Eight appearances and just earned men's golf National Coach of the Year recognition. In addition, Williams has hired Greg Allen (women's golf coach), Ian Duvenhage (men's tennis coach) and Steven Keith (cross country/track coach), all who have taken their teams to NCAA postseason. Allen and Keith also have guided their teams to SEC team titles. Williams has also retained top coaches and staffs by orchestrating extensions for Mason, baseball coach Tim Corbin, women's tennis coach Geoff MacDonald, women's bowling coach John Williamson and women's lacrosse coach Cathy Swezey.

Williams has addressed numerous facility upgrades, including a state-of-the-art training center which opened February 2016 in McGugin Center. The new training center provides top-notch medical care for Vanderbilt student-athletes. Crews recently finished replacing the football practice field, on the John Rich Practice Facility, with highly sought after Shaw Sports synthetic turf. Ground was broken immediately after this past baseball season for a new expansion of our wonderful baseball complex, Hawkins Field. Other improvements in recent years include refurbishing of Vanderbilt Stadium and its football locker rooms, an addition of new tennis courts and amenities at Brownlee O. Currey Tennis Center, renovations in Memorial Gym and McGugin Center, a new multipurpose facility for athletic and general university use, a new four-lane bowling center and a clubhouse with hitting bays for our men's and women's golf programs.

An initiative to allow more overseas travel and study abroad for Vanderbilt student-athletes also has become reality during Williams' tenure. In 2013, 15 athletes ventured to Tanzania during the summer for a service trip to bring shoes to underprivileged communities in Africa in conjunction with Soles4Souls. The partnership continued in 2014 with another community service effort to Costa Rica. In 2015, Williams led the summer service trip to Cuba, and this past summer a group of Commodores ventured to Jamaica on a service trip in partnership with Soles4Souls.

More students within Vanderbilt's athletic community were able to study abroad, including football players Oren Burks, Ean Pfeifer, Emmanuel Smith, Ralph Webb and Jonathan Wynn. In 2016, the Athletic Department began a newly created Internship Program for student-athletes matching them with employers who provide real life training for life after college. The program continued in 2017 and has received rave reviews from the student athletes, the employers, the NCAA as well as other colleges and universities.

In association with Vanderbilt Athletics, Williams has served as a member of the SEC team that negotiated past ESPN and CBS television partner contracts. Williams also serves as Chair of the NCAA Infraction Appeals Committee and was a member of the NCAA Enforcement Working Group.

Williams came to Vanderbilt in 2000 to serve as Vice Chancellor, General Counsel and University Secretary, after a 14-year tenure at The Ohio State University, where he served in numerous administrative roles including Vice Provost for Minority Affairs, Vice President of Student and Urban/Community Affairs and Professor of Law.

A native of Detroit, Williams received a Bachelor of Science in Social Sciences and Master of Arts in Education from Northern Michigan University, where he was a member of the university track team. He also earned a Master of Business Administration (MBA) and a Doctor of Jurisprudence (JD) from the University of Detroit, where Williams presently serves on the University's Board of Trust. Williams also earned an LL.M. in Taxation from New York University. Before entering law school, Williams spent 10 years as a teacher and coach in the Detroit public school system.

Williams has taught at the law schools of the University of Detroit, Capital University, Ohio State and Vanderbilt. He also twice directed The Ohio State University's Law program in Oxford England. Williams was elected outstanding law professor at both the University of Detroit and at The Ohio State University.

Williams is active in the greater Nashville area community, serving as a board member with several organizations. He serves on the boards of the Middle Tennessee Community Foundation, the Nashville Sports Council, the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame and the Nashville Public Education Foundation. Williams served two terms on former Nashville Mayor Karl Dean's Procurement Standards Board and two terms as a Nashville branch member on the Atlanta Federal Reserve Board. He also served as chair of the Nashville United Way Board and treasurer and board member for the Nashville Symphony.

Williams and his wife, Gail met in law school and have four children: Erika, a grade school teacher in Detroit and graduate of Eastern Michigan University; David III, a two-time graduate of Bowling Green State University who is an academic counselor at Michigan State University, where he was awarded his Doctorate degree; Samantha (Sam), a graduate of Brown University, where she was a member of the swimming team who recently graduated from Vanderbilt Law School; and Nicholas (Nick), a recent graduate of High Point (N.C.) University where he was a four-time scholar athlete on the track team. Sam and Nick both attended high school in Nashville where Sam was an All-State swimmer at Harpeth Hall and Nick was an All-State athlete in soccer and track and a four-year basketball member at the University School of Nashville.

Gail is a graduate of the University of Michigan and the University of Detroit Law School. She serves as Associate Director of Community Relations for Vanderbilt and is past president and former board member of the University School of Nashville Board of Trustees. In addition, she is Board Chair of the Metro Transit Authority. Gail also serves on the boards of many non-profit organizations including the Frist Center, the Women's Fund Advisory Board, the Tennessee Performance Arts Center and the Baptist Healing Trust. She was also recently elected President of the Nashville Chapter of The Links, Inc.

VANDERBILT STADIUM: COMMODORE HOME SINCE 1981

Several improvements have been made to 40,350-capacity Vanderbilt Stadium, which has served as home to the Commodores since 1981.

The gameday experience in Vanderbilt's on-campus venue were substantially improved in 2013 with the construction of a 450-capacity hillside berm next to the north end zone. Behind the berm, university officials installed a new video board that more than doubled the size of the stadium's former visual board.

Vanderbilt Stadium's Dudley Field playing surface, where the 'Dores have played dating back to 1922, also has received recent updates. In 2012, it returned to a synthetic surface for the first time in more than a decade when the university decided to add cushioned Shaw Sportexe turf. The surface has drawn rave reviews from players, who also benefited with the addition of new stadium lights the same year.

The 2012 work adds to other major recent improvements. A thorough exterior renovation was completed in 2008-10, including new plazas and entrances at Gates 2 & 3 and an exterior effort to unify Vanderbilt Stadium, Hawkins Field and Memorial Gym.
