ALL-SEC PROSPECTS

KYLE SHURMUR

Sr. • 6-4, 225 • Quarterback

Shurmur on the preseason watch list for the Walter Camp Award and Maxwell Award.

Shurmur enters his senior campaign after producing one of the finest seasons ever by a VU signal caller.

Shurmur's team-record 26 touchdown passes in 2017 was the second highest SEC total. His 2,823 passing yards ranked third in the conference.

Sr. • 6-6, 318 • Left Tackle

Skule started all 12 games at left tackle in 2017, extending his consecutive starts streak to 25 games.

In his first year protecting the quarterback's blind side from the left tackle post, Skule registered 19 domination blocks and allowed just two sacks in 2017.

Skule has been extremely durable. In 2017, he participated in 98 percent of Vanderbilt's 751 offensive snaps.

CHARLES WRIGHT

Sr. • 6-3, 240 • Outside Linebacker

Wright, a preseason Bednarik Award watch list member, produced nine quarterback sacks in 2017. It is tied for the second highest season total in team history.

A second-team All-SEC selection by the Associated Press, Wright's sack total ranked fourth among SEC defenders.

In 2017, Wright also topped the Commodores with eight quarterback hurries and ranked second with 10.5 tackles for loss.

LADARIUS WILEY

Sr. • 6-1, 209 • Safety

In 2017, Wiley topped the Commodores with 58 solo tackles and 88 total tackles.

Wiley ranked seventh in solo tackles and 11th in total tackles in the SEC last year.

In 2017, Wiley averaged 8.1 tackles vs. SEC teams. He posted double-digit tackle totals in three SEC games.

ALL-SEC PROSPECTS

JOEJUAN WILLIAMS

Jr. • 6-3, 210 • Cornerback

Blessed with length and athleticism, Williams became one of the SEC's elite cover cornerbacks as a sophomore in 2017.

In 2017, Williams had 10 passes defended, ranking fourth among returning SEC cornerbacks.

As a 12-game starter in 2017, Williams posted season career highs with 33 solo tackles and 42 total tackles.

DARE ODEYINGBO

Sr. • 6-2, 282 • Defensive End

Active, physical defensive end blossomed as an 11-game starter in 2017, posting season highs in virtually every stat category.

Odeyingbo's 11 tackles for loss last year, a team high, ranks 9th among returning SEC defensive linemen.

Odeyingbo ranked second among Commodore defenders with 4.5 quarterback sacks and third in quarterback hurries.

JARED PINKNEY

Jr. • 6-4, 255 • Tight End

Named to the 2018 Mackey Award watch list, Pinkney enters his third year ranked among the top of SEC returning tight ends with 44 career receptions and 553 receiving yards.

Pinkney hauled in 22 catches in 2017, the fourth highest total among returning SEC tight ends. His 279-yard receiving total ranks third.

A 16-game career starter, Pinkney has the speed to be a downfield receiving threat and the physicality to benefit the VU running game.

KALIJA LIPSCOMB

Jr. • 6-1, 201 • Wide Receiver

Lipscomb ranks as the Commodores' active career leader with 64 receptions, 929 receiving yards and 10 touchdown catches.

As a sophomore in 2017, Lipscomb posted season highs with 37 receptions and 610 receiving yards.

Lipscomb's eight touchdown receptions in 2017 tied for the team's sixth highest season total, and ranks second among all SEC returning receivers.

COMMODORES IN THE NFL

CASEY HAYWARD

Hayward has established himself as one of the NFL's premier cornerbacks. The Charger standout earned his second consecutive All-Pro recognition in 2017 after snaring four interceptions. With more and more frequency, opposing quarterbacks are looking to attack anyone in Charger blue besides Hayward. This May, the NFL Network moved Hayward up to No. 59 among the "NFL Top 100 Players of 2018." He enters his seventh year with 20 career interceptions.

ZACH CUNNINGHAM

It didn't take Cunningham long to impact the Houston defense. The linebacker earned 13 starting assignments and registered 90 tackles, the second highest total among all rookie defenders during the 2017 season.

JORDAN MATTHEWS

After an injury-plagued 2017 season in Buffalo, Matthews has joined the New England Patriots and quarterback Tom Brady. Matthews enters his fifth NFL season with 250 career receptions, 2,955 receiving yards and 20 touchdowns.

ANDRE
HAL

Hal has been on the minds of Commodore fans since early June when the Texans' starting safety announced a diagnosis of Hodgkin lymphoma, which he is aggressively treating. The diagnosis came after Hal's finest year in the NFL.

COMMODORES IN THE NFL

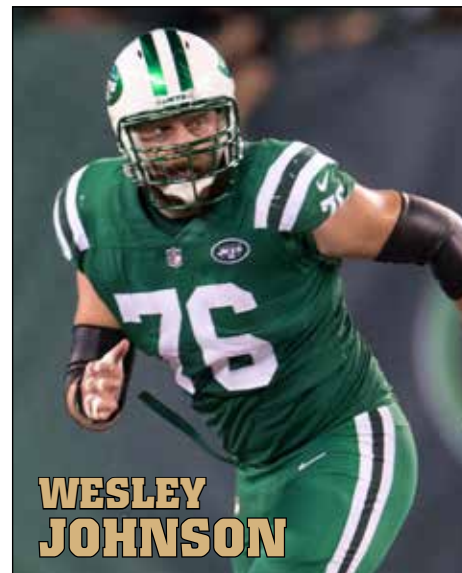

ADAM BUTLER

In a matter of months, Butler went from undrafted rookie free agent to starter in New England. He finished the year with 19 tackles and two sacks.

SPENCER PULLEY

Pulley started all 16 games at center for the Chargers in 2017, his second year in the league. He has the versatility to play center and guard.

WESLEY JOHNSON

Johnson started 15 games at center for the New York Jets in 2017, then signed a free agent contract with Detroit during the offseason.

EIGHTEEN COMMODORES ON PRESEASON ROSTERS

Eighteen former Vanderbilt standouts are signed with National Football League teams looking to continue or start pro careers.

The list includes 10 defensive players and eight offensive standouts.

Eight of the former Commodores – Adam Butler (Patriots), Zach Cunningham (Texans), Andre Hal (Texans), Casey Hayward (Chargers), Will Holden (Cardinals), Wesley Johnson (Jets), Jordan Matthews (Bills) and Spencer Pulley (Chargers), won starting roles during the 2017 campaign.

Four NFL franchises – the Houston Texans, Los Angeles Chargers, Minnesota Vikings and New England Patriots – have multiple Dores on their preseason rosters.

Linebacker Oren Burks was selected in the 2018 NFL Draft by Green Bay. Seven more 2017 seniors are rookie free agents entering preseason camps.

Emmanuel Smith	LB	Atlanta
Ralph Webb	RB	New England
Stephen Weatherly	DL	Minnesota
Jonathan Wynn	DL	Minnesota

WILL HOLDEN

Holden earned five starts as a rookie offensive tackle for the Arizona Cardinals, and enters 2018 preseason camp competing for a starting role.

STEPHEN WEATHERLY

In his second year in Minnesota, Weatherly made 15 appearances at defensive end as the Vikings made an impressive playoff run in 2017.

COMMODORES IN THE NFL

BURKS IMPRESSES AT NFL SCOUTING COMBINE

After strong performances at the postseason East-West Shrine Game and Reese's Senior Bowl, linebacker Oren Burks continued to impress pro personnel at the NFL Scouting Combine and Vanderbilt's Pro Day. Eventually, Burks was selected by Green Bay in the third round of the 2018 Draft.

SHERFIELD'S TALENT ON DISPLAY

Wide receiver Trent Sherfield blazed a 4.40 40, board-jumped 10'2" and impressed scouts during position drills. He later signed with Arizona.

NFL SCOUTS GATHER ON CAMPUS AT PRO DAY TO EVALUATE SENIORS

Ten Commodore seniors from a year ago earned rookie free-agent contracts or tryouts after putting together impressive workouts in front of NFL scouts at Vanderbilt's annual Pro Day activity on campus.

Seven Commodores – wide receivers C.J. Duncan, Caleb Scott and Trent Sherfield, cornerback Tre Herndon, linebacker Emmanuel Smith, running back Ralph Webb and defensive end Jonathan Wynn – used Pro Day to earn rookie free agent deals and remain with their clubs entering preseason camps in late July. They join linebacker Oren Burks, who was the lone Commodore senior selected in the 2018 Draft.

Two others – defensive lineman Nifae Lealao and kicker Tommy Openshaw – also received rookie minicamp invitations following Pro Day workouts.

SCOTT SHOWS QUICKNESS, AGILITY

Wide receiver Caleb Scott ran a 4.42 40 and showed excellent athleticism in agility testing en route to signing a free agent deal with Seattle.

HERNDON RISES

Cornerback Tre Herndon's athleticism caught the attention of Jacksonville Jaguar scouts.

WEBB FLASHES SPEED

Record-breaking running back Ralph Webb impressed New England with a 4.48 40-yard dash and 27 bench press repetitions of 225 pounds.

DORES ACHIEVE AT HIGH LEVELS IN COMPETITION AND CLASSROOM

Vanderbilt student-athletes enjoyed plenty of success, on and off fields of competition, in 2017-18.

The bowling team captured its second NCAA championship - and the department's third in the last four years. The women's tennis team played for an NCAA title. Five other Commodore teams reached NCAA postseason play. Derek Mason's football squad just missed back-to-back bowl appearances, but finished on a high note by defeating Tennessee.

Off the field, Mason's team was stellar, with 45 SEC Academic Honor Roll recipients and a high national ranking in graduation rates.

Across the board, Vanderbilt student-athletes performed at a high level. Ralph Webb rewrote VU rushing records. Senior golfer Theo Humphrey earned SEC Player of the Year. All-America tennis standout Astra Sharma led the Commodores to a conference title.

WEBB'S INCREDIBLE CAREER

Running back Ralph Webb concluded his Commodore career as one of the SEC most accomplished backs. He owns numerous career team records, including 4,173 rushing yards and 32 rushing touchdowns,

ELITE ACADEMICS IN SCENIC URBAN SETTING

Located in Nashville's popular Midtown district, Vanderbilt is regarded among the nation's leading universities. The private research university enrolled 6,885 undergraduate and 5,707 postgraduate students last year. Those students came from all 50 states and countries around the globe.

Vanderbilt students are pleased with their college choice. In fact, the university ranks No. 1 nationally for happiest students, according to Princeton Review's "2018 Best 379 Colleges" survey.

The university was founded 145 years ago when magnate Cornelius "Commodore" Vanderbilt provided an initial endowment.

Vanderbilt holds charter membership in the Southeastern Conference and remains its lone private institution.

The campus is just west of downtown Nashville on a scenic property that is designated as a national arboretum. Two areas of campus closed to vehicles – the Peabody campus and the collection of academic buildings surrounding Kirkland Hall that form the original campus – are frequently named among the South's most beautiful college environments.

MUSIC CITY'S APPEAL CONTINUES TO GROW

Vanderbilt's hometown of Nashville is one of America's most vibrant cities. It is also recognized among the nation's most appealing locations for young professionals seeking opportunity and tourists in search of a fun, exciting weekend.

It seems everybody's jumping on the Nashville bandwagon.

Vanderbilt students, faculty, staff and visitors cite Music City as one of the leading perks of the university, which is located in the popular Midtown district just two miles from a bustling downtown.

Nashville has become one of the nation's top urban attractions, offering all of the charm and hospitality one expects from a grand Southern capital city with the amenities expected in the largest destinations.

The secret is out on Nashville and its surrounding population of nearly 1.7 million. Popular magazines rave about the city's diversity in attractions, accommodations and niche districts. The city's downtown is exploding with retail and residential growth, and an array of entertainment alternatives for all ages.

The city enjoys a top job market for young adults, unique neighborhoods and parks for its residents, and an abundance of unique commercial districts virtually encircling downtown.

NASHVILLE: SPORTS, ENTERTAINMENT GALORE

In a city historically known for making great music, Nashville is fast becoming a haven for sports fans.

Nashville is starting to develop a national reputation as a superb locale for college and professional sports.

For lovers of college sports, Vanderbilt is enjoying athletic success while exposing Nashville residents to other SEC programs.

Residents also have two professional franchises to follow: the NFL's Tennessee Titans and NHL's Nashville Predators. The Titans are expected to contend this year in the AFC South Division. In 2017, the nation discovered Smashville, the nickname fondly created by the Predators, as Nashville's NHL franchise advanced to the Stanley Cup finals.

Nashville's musical roots remain strong. CMA Fest brings more than 100,000 fans to downtown each June. Bridgestone Arena, which hosts SEC and NCAA basketball tournaments, is one of the nation's busiest mid-size concert venues.

On campus, Vanderbilt Stadium is set to host Beyonce and Jay-Z in concert this summer. U2, Dave Matthews Band and Luke Bryan have played the stadium in recent years.

TEAM OUTLOOK

MASON LOOKS FOR MORE IMPROVEMENT IN SQUAD

Head coach Derek Mason will welcome an eager Vanderbilt squad with plenty to prove when he starts his fifth season on campus this August.

Forty-five letterwinners from the 2017 squad, including 16 position players who started multiple games, are expected to greet Mason when preseason camp opens Aug. 2. The returnees include seven position starters and 22 letterwinners on offense, four starters and 22 letterwinners on defense and two letterwinners back on special teams.

The 2018 Commodores will look to improve off a 2017 campaign which begins with impressive wins over Middle Tennessee, Alabama A&M and nationally-ranked Kansas State. After struggling following back-to-back losses to eventual national champion Alabama and national runner-up Georgia, the Dores capped the season with a 42-24 victory at Tennessee.

Mason believes Vanderbilt fans will find plenty to support from an energetic and focused roster which features 62 freshmen and sophomores.

"I'm excited to get back on the practice field and I know our players are ready to get back to work," Mason said. "Every player and coach is focused and committed to getting better. Our veterans have been leading and the buy-in from our younger players has been outstanding. Everybody's rowing in the same direction, with the goal of winning games and representing Vanderbilt University to our very best."

Off the field, Mason has strengthened his staff by adding four new coaches: Jason Tarver (defensive coordinator/outside linebackers), Shawn Mennenga (special teams coordinator); Aaron Moorehead (wide receivers) and Terrence Brown (cornerbacks).

The team enters its fourth year with head strength coach James Dobson, whose program has dramatically improved conditioning, strength and power throughout the Commodore roster.

KEYS TO COMMODORE SUCCESS

EFFICIENT, BALANCED ATTACK ON OFFENSE

With proven QB Kyle Shurmur leading an offense that features all five starters back on the offensive line, the Dores will look to create greater balance in order to maximize production. Limiting turnovers and improved red-zone efficiency will be critical.

CREATING MORE DEFENSIVE TURNOVERS

The message from new DC Jason Tarver has been clear: create turnovers with physical, opportunistic play. Tarver's motto – just get off the field, with a premium on third-down & red-zone efficiency.

The offense features standout quarterback and All-SEC candidate Kyle Shurmur, wide receiver Kalija Lipscomb, tight end Jared Pinkney and linemen Devin Cochran, Egidio DellaRipa, Bruno Reagan, Justin Skule and Saige Young.

Top defensive returnees include outside linebacker Charles Wright, cornerback Joejuan Williams, safety LaDarius Wiley, and brothers Dare and Dayo Odeyingbo.

Vanderbilt hosts Middle Tennessee in the opener at Vanderbilt Stadium on Sept. 1. The 2018 slate features six more games on campus: Nevada on Sept. 8, South Carolina on Sept. 22, Tennessee State on Sept. 29, Florida on Oct. 13, Ole Miss on Nov. 17 and Tennessee on Nov. 18.

OUTLOOK: BACKFIELD

OFFENSIVE BACKFIELD

STARTERS BACK: 2 LETTERWINNERS: 6

One of the most prolific quarterbacks in Commodore history returns for his final season to lead the Vanderbilt offense.

While quarterback Kyle Shurmur (Sr.) enters his final season within reach of virtually every Commodore career passing mark, his main objective is to efficiently direct the balanced offense managed by Andy Ludwig, who enters his fourth season as offensive coordinator.

Shurmur is coming off one of the finest seasons ever by a Vanderbilt quarterback. In 2017, he smashed a school record by throwing for 26 touchdowns. He also passed for 2,823 yards, the third-highest season total ever by a Commodore. Shurmur looks to build on his 2017 formula for success – creating more explosive plays while limiting turnovers.

KHARI BLASINGAME

Senior has rushed for nearly 600 yards and 10 touchdowns.

Quarterback coach Gerry Gdowski lacks experience behind Shurmur. Sophomore transfer Mo Hasan and freshman Allan Walters will back up Shurmur.

At running back, several talented prospects are ready to face the challenge of replacing all-time leading rusher Ralph Webb, who is currently competing for a roster position with the New England Patriots.

Fifth-year contributor Khari Blasingame is the most experienced Dore returnee at running back. A physical back, Blasingame rushed for 596 rushing yards and 10 touchdowns as Webb's top reserve the last two years.

Commodore fans are excited to see Ke'Shawn Vaughn (Jr.) in action this fall. The Nashville native transferred from Illinois, where he rushed for 1,024 yards and nine touchdowns in 2015-16.

Josh Crawford (Jr.) and Jamauri Wakefield (So.) also will get plenty of opportunities this August to earn a significant role in the rushing game.

Vanderbilt also added talented Ja'Veon Marlow in its 2018 signing class.

Jaire George (Jr.) and Josh Higgs (So.) are fullbacks on the roster.

In 2017, Lipscomb topped all VU receivers with eight touchdown catches.

JARED PINKNEY

Pinkney has 44 career receptions from the tight end position.

RECEIVING CORPS

STARTERS BACK: 2 LETTERWINNERS: 7

Two talented juniors with explosive abilities will highlight a new-look Commodore receiving corps this season.

The wide receiving unit, directed by first-year coach Aaron Moorehead, must replace three productive seniors from a year ago, including wideouts CJ Duncan, Caleb Scott and Trent Sherfield. The three graduates, who combined for 332 career catches, are competing for NFL roster spots.

Junior Kalija Lipscomb is the Commodores' top returning wide receiver. A potential All-Southeastern Conference performer, Lipscomb is on the path to becoming one of the top receivers in team history. He enters his third season with 64 receptions, good for 929 yards and 10 touchdowns.

In 2017, Lipscomb was one of VU's most productive aerial targets, catching 37 passes for 610 yards and a team-high eight touchdowns.

Trey Ellis (Grad.), Donaven Tennyson (Jr.), Chris Pierce (So.) and Alex Stump (Jr.) will look to fill the production void left by the departure of Duncan, Scott and Sherfield.

Tennyson looks to capitalize on his breakaway abilities in his third season. In 2017, he averaged 14.8

yards per reception and 21.0 yards on occasional rushes. Pierce saw limited action as a freshman in 2017 and developed significantly during the spring drills. Ellis provides excellent hands and knowledge of the offense as a quality third-down target. Stump becomes eligible this fall after transferring to West End from Ohio State.

Other returnees at wide receiver are Jackson Winrow (So.), James Bostic (R-Fr.) and Keithian Starling (So.).

Vanderbilt also added three talented wide receivers in the 2018 signing class: Amir Abdur-Rahman, CJ Bolar and Cam Johnson.

The Commodores will feature one of the SEC's top tight end targets in Jared Pinkney. After catching 22 passes for 279 yards and three touchdowns last year, the physical junior could be in for a breakout campaign this season.

Senior Sam Dobbs also is a viable receiving target at tight end. In 2017, he posted eight receptions.

Two sophomores, Cody Markel and Braden Kopp, look to bring physicality to the Commodore rushing attack from the tight end position. Another sophomore, Turner Cockrell, adds a receiving threat at the position.

The Commodores also added two tight ends in their 2018 signing class: Ben Bresnahan and Gavin Schoenwald.

DEVIN COCHRAN

Skule protects the quarterback's blind side as the Commodores' starting left tackle.

BRUNO REAGAN

Reagan has started 27 consecutive games, playing both center and guard.

OFFENSIVE LINE

STARTERS BACK: 5 LETTERWINNERS: 6

One year after lacking veteran experience and leadership on the offensive front, Vanderbilt enters this season with all five starters and a top reserve returning and several young prospects ready to break into the Commodore rotation.

Two seniors, Justin Skule and Bruno Reagan, anchor assistant coach Cameron Norcross's offensive line. Both Skule and Reagan are productive two-year starters who have played multiple positions during their Commodore careers.

Skule put together a solid campaign protecting Kyle Shurmur's blindside. A 27-game career starter, Skule should be formidable against oncoming pass rushers after playing his first full season at left tackle.

SAIGE YOUNG

The sophomore provided a physical presence as a first-year starter in 2017.

Reagan is one of the Commodores' most versatile linemen. After starting at guard as a sophomore and at center as a junior, the coaching staff shifted him back to guard during spring drills.

Devin Cochran (So.) could be the Commodores' most athletic lineman. Blessed with a huge frame, Cochran started 10 games at right tackle as a redshirt freshman.

Junior Saige Young filled a big uncertainty at guard last year, showing an excellent combination of physicality and agility as a first-year starter.

Senior Egidio DellaRipa, who started the last eight games at guard last year, spent the spring taking over for Reagan at center.

Jared Southers (Jr.) started four games last year, and provides more veteran experience at the guard position. Cole Clemens returns after seeing playing time as a true freshman.

The coaches believe Sean McMoore (So.) also can push for the starting center position this summer.

David Floyd (Jr.) is a potential swing player at tackle or guard.

Three talented redshirt freshmen - Bryce Bailey, Grant Miller and Jonathan Stewart - also will compete for playing time this August.

The Commodores also added three new offensive line prospects, two coming in the 2018 signing class and a third arriving as a transfer from California. They are Dan Dawkins Jr. (Fr.), Carlton Lorenz (So.) and Tyler Steen (Fr.).

DAYO ODEYINGBO

STARTERS BACK: 1 LETTERWINNERS: 7

A bevy of newcomers and talented young players are expected to move into more important roles this fall on the VU defensive line.

Third-year coach C.J. Ah You will welcome seven returning letterwinners, a highly regarded graduate transfer and several newcomers to the defensive line playing mix.

The unit, which lost Nifae Lealao, Jay Woods and Jonathan Wynn to graduation, is headlined by Dare Odeyingbo (Sr.) and Dayo Odeyingbo (So.).

Dare Odeyingbo, who brings superb effort to the field, is coming off his best season as a Dore. In 2017, he started 11 of 12 games at defensive end, registering 36 tackles, 4.5 quarterback sacks, four hurries and a team-high 11 tackles for loss.

Dare's younger brother Dayo played as a true freshman in 2017. An imposing presence at defensive end, Dayo Odeyingbo finished with 20 tackles, 4.5 tackles for loss, 2.5 quarterback sacks and an interception.

Depth at defensive end should be strengthened by attracting graduate transfer Louis Vecchio to campus. Recruited by Derek Mason out of high school, Vecchio was a first-team All-Ivy League contributor at Penn in 2016-17, finishing his career there with 8.5 quarterback sacks and 21.5 tackles for loss among 83 total tackles.

The Commodores will feature several young defensive tackles who gained valuable experience in 2018, including Drew Birchmeier (R-So.), Cameron Tidd (R-So.), Darion DeBrossard (Jr.) and Josiah Sa'o (R-So.). Birchmeier and Tidd earned starting assignments in 2017.

Two additional red-shirt freshmen, Jonah Buchanan and Stone Edwards, will contend for roles.

The unit also could be bolstered by local product Rutger Reitmaier (R-Fr.), a highly regarded prospect who entered Vanderbilt classes last January. Kade Mayle (Jr.) and Cameron Robinson (So.) also will compete for snaps in the fall.

The Commodores also added defensive line prospect Lorenza Surgers in the 2018 signing class.

Grad transfer was recruited by Mason at Stanford.

OUTLOOK: LINEBACKERS

CHARLES WRIGHT

Wright paced the Commodore defense with nine sacks last year.

JORDAN GRIFFIN

Griffin's 62 tackles and 8.5 tackles for loss ranked third among VU defenders.

LINEBACKERS

STARTERS BACK: 2 LETTERWINNERS: 7

The Commodore linebacking corps will feature a solid blend of veteran performers and exciting newcomers looking to start their Vanderbilt playing careers. The competition for playing time will be intense.

The unit, which must replace Green Bay third-round draft pick Oren Burks, is guided by first-year defensive coordinator Jason Tarver and Chris Marve. Tarver mentors outside linebackers while Marve enters his third year as inside linebackers coach.

Four seniors, including three with starting experience, bring a veteran presence to the corps.

Charles Wright (Sr.) is an All-Southeastern Conference-caliber

JOSH SMITH

Smith had his biggest impact in 2017 late in the season playing outside linebacker.

performer at outside linebacker. As a first-year starter in 2017, Wright ranked fourth in the SEC with nine quarterback sacks and among the league's top 20 in tackles for loss.

Two other seniors, Jordan Griffin and Josh Smith, will be counted on heavily. Griffin ranked third on the team last year with 62 tackles and 8.5 tackles for loss from his inside linebacker post. Smith comes off his best year as a Commodore and looks to be an impact defender in his final season.

Caleb Peart (Jr.) had a strong spring and will compete for a substantial role at outside linebacker. Another veteran, Andrew Rector (Sr.), also should contribute solid minutes.

If sophomores Andre Mintze and Kenny Hebert continue to blossom as they did last spring, they will bring depth and playmaking ability to Tarver's outside linebackers.

The Commodores' 2017 signing class included several talented linebacker prospects all looking to find their role on the defense. Feleti Afemui, Colin Anderson, Brayden DeVault-Smith, Dimitri Moore, Michael Owusu and Brett Starr are redshirt freshmen looking to build a case for playing time this August.

The Commodores also added two linebackers in the 2018 signing class: Elijah McAllister and Alston Orji.

DEFENSIVE BACKFIELD

STARTERS BACK: 2 LETTERWINNERS: 9

The Commodore secondary, led by two all-Southeastern Conference candidates, will blend experienced performers with an eager group of youngsters ready to place their stamp on the Vanderbilt defense.

The secondary, mentored by four-year assistant Marc Mattioli and first-year coach Terrence Brown, has two starters and nine returning letterwinners back to compete for starting roles.

In preseason camp, Mattioli and Brown will look to identify replacements for four key contributors from a year ago, co-captain and safety Ryan White, safety Arnold Tarpley, cornerback Tre Herndon and nickel back Taurean Ferguson.

A Nashville product, Joejuan Williams (Jr.) leads Vanderbilt's cornerback corps. A 12-game starter last year, Williams is regarded among the SEC's top cover corners in 2018. Blessed with superb length and athletic abilities, Williams registered 10 defensed passes as a sophomore, ranking second on the team and fifth among all SEC defenders.

Donovan Sheffield (Sr.) and Elijah Hamilton (R-So.) are expected to compete for the cornerback slot left open by Herndon's graduation. Coaches were pleased with the development both prospects showed during spring drills.

Defensive coaches also praised Allan George (R-Fr.) and Randall Haynie (R-Fr.) for their improvement during the spring.

The Commodores also added two freshman prospects at cornerback in the 2018 signing class: BJ Anderson and Tré Douglas.

All-SEC candidate LaDarius Wiley (Sr.) is the team's top returning safety and one of the defense's most productive players in recent seasons. A two-year starter, Wiley brings excellent size and abilities to the free safety role. In 2017, Wiley paced the Commodores and ranked sixth in the SEC with 58 solo tackles. His 88 total tackles also led the Vanderbilt defense.

A young Commodore is likely to depart August camp as the starter alongside Wiley at strong safety. Among the prospects who impressed coaches last spring were Zaire Jones (R-So.), Tae Daley (So.), Frank Coppet (R-So.), Austin Quillen (R-So.) and Gil Barksdale (Jr.).

Three talented freshmen also will get looks at safety this summer: Brendon Harris, Dashaun Jerkins and Max Worship.

Graduate transfer Alim Muhammad is among several candidates expected to compete for the secondary's nickel back role.

Derek Mason pulled Shawn Mennenga from the National Football League to guide Commodore special teams.

Mennenga joins Mason's staff from the Cleveland Browns where he was a long-time special teams assistant. He will have to retool Commodore units that lost its starting punter and kicker.

Mennenga and Mason went to work quickly, attracting graduate transfer Parker Thome from Columbia University as the team's punter.

In Thome, the Commodores gain one of the best punters in the NCAA-FCS division. In 2017, Thome led the Ivy League and ranked 11th nationally with a 42.9-yard punting average. A first-team All-Ivy Leaguer, Thome is the third punter from Columbia to transfer to the SEC in as many years.

Mennenga is excited about a competition this August for the team's kicking chores between Ryley Guay (Jr.) and Javan Rice (Fr.). Guay was the Commodores' top reserve last year and showed further improvement during spring drills. Rice is a highly regarded member

HEAD COACH MASON

Mason and his Vanderbilt squad celebrate an exciting early-season victory over nationally ranked Kansas State.

Entering his fifth season in charge of the Vanderbilt football program, head coach Derek Mason has the Commodores trending upward, on and off the field.

Vanderbilt capped Mason's fourth season in 2017 with a win over Tennessee in Knoxville, the program's fourth victory over the rival Volunteers in the past six seasons. The Commodores finished 4-0 in nonconference games last season, including a thrilling 14-7 win over No. 18 Kansas State on national television on Sept. 16.

In February, Mason inked Vanderbilt's highest-rated recruiting class in his tenure, a group that ranked among the top-40 signing classes in the country by most outlets. Mason likewise recruited four new coaches to the staff in Jan. 2018, including defensive coordinator Jason Tarver and special teams coordinator Shawn Mennenga.

Mason saw his third linebacker in the past three seasons selected in the NFL Draft when the Green Bay Packers picked captain Oren Burks with the 88th overall pick. Burks became the third Vanderbilt player in the past five years to be selected in the first three rounds of the draft, joining linebacker Zach Cunningham (Houston, 2nd round, 2017) and wide receiver Jordan Matthews (Philadelphia, 2nd round, 2014). Meanwhile, seven other Vanderbilt seniors signed rookie free agent contracts with NFL teams in 2018.

Vanderbilt football student-athletes continued to perform well off the field under Mason. A total of 45 Commodores landed on the All-SEC Academic Honor roll in the fall semester, with placekicker Tommy Openshaw

MASON: FACTS & NOTES

DEFEATING REGIONAL RIVALS

In the last two years, Mason's Commodores sport a 6-0 record against regional opponents Tennessee, Middle Tennessee and Western Kentucky.

OFF THE FIELD ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Mason's Commodores are national academic leaders. Annually, they contend for the Academic Achievement Trophy, having won the national graduation success honor in 2015. Mason has created an innovative summer internship program that aids players entering the workforce after graduation, has endorsed foreign study opportunities for VU players, and has expanded community service opportunities.

ATTRACTING TOP STAFFERS

Mason continues to enhance his coaching staff. This year, he has added Jason Tarver as defensive coordinator, Shawn Mennenga as special teams coordinator, Aaron Moorehead as wide receivers coach and Terrence Brown as cornerbacks coach.

earning a spot on the Allstate-AFCA national Good Works Team, the second Commodore in as many years to garner that honor. Vanderbilt football continued to rank among the national leaders in graduation rates, as every Commodore who has completed his eligibility under Mason has earned an undergraduate degree.

Vanderbilt football student-athletes teamed with Nashville-area businesses as part of the athletic department's comprehensive summer internship program. Meanwhile, several Commodore players participated in study abroad programs in the summer, with six players venturing to Australia in May, including likely starters LaDarius Wiley and Josh Smith.

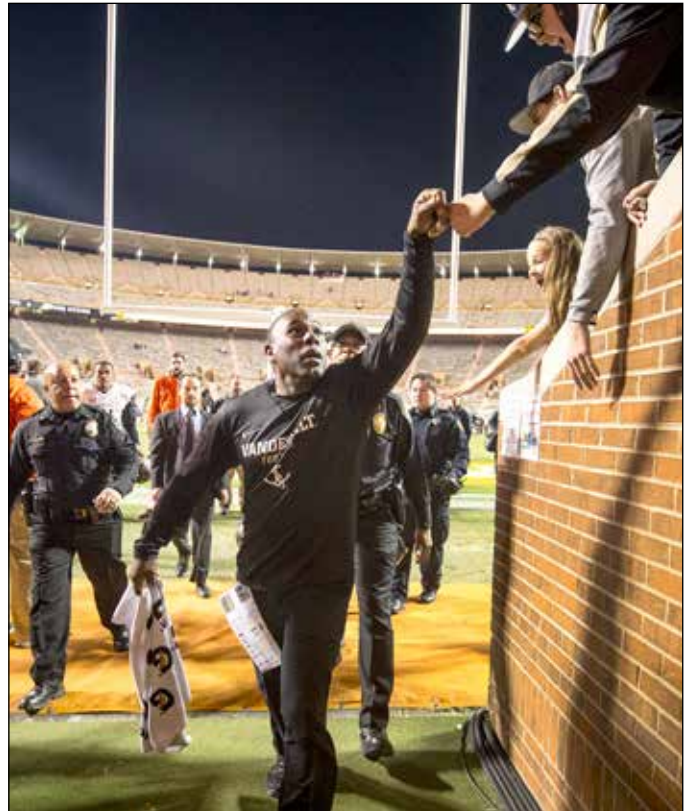

In 2016, Mason guided Vanderbilt to its eighth postseason appearance at the Camping World Independence Bowl. The Commodores finished the regular season 6-6, including four wins in their final six games. The season featured marquee SEC victories over Georgia, Ole Miss and Tennessee. The Commodores closed the regular season by scoring a combined 83 points in wins over the Rebels and Volunteers. Their 45 points against Tennessee marked the program's most in SEC play since 1971.

Under Mason, Commodore student-athletes are performing well on and off the football field.

In 2017, running back Ralph Webb concluded his career as the leading rusher in school history and the seventh-leading rusher in SEC history. Currently with the New England Patriots, Webb set a bushel of school single and career records, including 4,173 rushing yards, 931 rush attempts and 32 rushing touchdowns.

In 2016, inside linebacker Zach Cunningham became Vanderbilt's first consensus All-American in more than three decades. The redshirt junior swept first-team honors from every prominent outlet in the nation. Cunningham's final accolade came when the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) selected him to its First Team All-America Defense. Cunningham now starts at linebacker with Houston after the Texans selected him No. 57 overall in the 2017 NFL Draft.

Mason has made impressive coaching hires since his first year on campus. This winter, he attracted Tarver and Mennenga away from the NFL ranks to become defensive coordinator and special teams coordinator, respectively. He also brought former Texas A&M offensive coach Aaron Moorehead to Nashville as wide receivers coach and enlisted a former pupil at Stanford, Terrence Brown, as the team's cornerbacks coach. In 2015, Mason hired Andy Ludwig and head strength coach James Dobson from Big Ten programs to oversee the Commodore offensive attack and conditioning program, respectively. In the last two years, Mason has also added three bright young minds in offensive line coach

Cameron Norcross, defensive line coach C.J. Ah You and inside linebackers coach Chris Marve.

Those changes helped Mason guide back-to-back improvement in the Commodores in 2015-16, with keen observers of college football seeing more progress ahead.

Since arriving on campus, Mason has focused on developing men of character and integrity with the football team. Five former Commodore football players have been accepted into the Vanderbilt Medical School in the last two years. In the last three calendar years, the team has nearly 165 SEC Academic Honor Roll recipients and more than 75 Dean's List honorees.

Mason's Commodores continue to serve as the SEC leader in the classroom. Vanderbilt football finished third nationally with a 993 APR (Academic Progress Rate) score in 2017, the fourth straight year it has topped the SEC in the calculation. The Commodores continue to rank as a national contender for the AFCA-Memphis Touchdown Club Academic Achievement Award which they last shared in 2015.

Mason's administration of the Vanderbilt program also includes innovation. He has been instrumental in creating a summer internship program for Commodore student-athletes that is one of the most unique in the nation. Started in 2014 within the football team, the internship program has been expanded to other Vanderbilt squads, providing excellent work experience opportunities for student-athletes.

Mason became Vanderbilt's 28th head coach in January 2014, coming to Nashville after serving as associate head coach and Willie Shaw Director of Defense for the 2013 Pacific-12 champion Stanford Cardinal.

Mason became defensive coordinator at Stanford in 2011, after helping the Cardinal to a pair of Rose Bowl appearances and consecutive Pac-12 titles in 2012-13. Mason's defensive units at Stanford were considered among the nation's elite. Under Mason, the Cardinal ranked among the NCAA Top 15 in defensive efficiency for three consecutive years.

In 2013 while facing seven ranked opponents and one of the nation's toughest schedules, the Stanford defense ranked third in the NCAA in rushing defense (89.4 yards), 10th in scoring defense (19.0 points) and 16th in total offense (343.1 yards).

The Cardinal were also one of only five teams to allow less than 100 rushing yards per game in 2013. The team was also among the best nationally in producing stops for negative yardage, ranking fifth with 44 sacks and seventh with 109 tackles for loss.

In 2012, Mason was a finalist for the Broyles Award, given annually to the nation's top assistant coach, after directing a Stanford defense that ranked among the best in the nation and finest in team history. The 2012 unit broke Stanford's single season record for sacks, topped the Pac-12 in scoring defense and total defense, and helped the Cardinal to an 11-2 season capped off with a Rose Bowl title.

Mason's leadership paved the way to a historic defensive output in 2012, breaking Stanford's single-season record with 57 sacks and pacing the Pac-12 in scoring defense, total defense and rushing defense. In 11 of 14 games in 2012, Stanford held its opponent to 20 or fewer points, including a 14-point effort in overtime win at top-ranked Oregon, who led the FBS with a 54.8 scoring average.

GREETING VU FANS OF ALL AGES

The personable Mason greets fans young and old during the team's pre-game Dore Alley walk through the Vandyville tailgate.

The 2012 Stanford defense held eight of 13 opponents under 100 yards rushing, and in a string of three consecutive games, the Cardinal recorded three of its top-10, single-game rushing defense performances in team history.

In 2011, Mason's first year as co-defensive coordinator, he teamed with new Vanderbilt defensive coordinator Jason Tarver to mold Stanford into one of the Pac-12's top defensive units. That season, the unit ranked either first or second in the Pac-12 in six defensive categories, including rushing defense, third-down conversion defense, scoring defense, total defense, sacks and opponent first downs.

Mason also helped develop an array of Stanford defensive standouts, including All-Pro cornerback Richard Sherman, All-America defensive end Trent Murphy, All-America linebacker Shayne Skov and All-Pacific 12 safety Ed Reynolds.

Prior to his arrival in Palo Alto, Mason served as an assistant defensive back coach for the Minnesota Vikings from 2007 to 2009. He played a vital role in the team ranking sixth in total defense in 2008 and 2009 as the Vikings won NFC North titles each season. Mason was introduced to the NFL coaching circles through the Minority Fellowship program. He joined the Vikings staff in 2007, where he worked with defensive backs coach Joe Woods.

Before joining the Vikings, Mason tutored wide receivers at Ohio University under Frank Solich, helping the Bobcats improve from 4-7 in 2005 to a 9-5 campaign and GMAC Bowl appearance the following year. Mason spent the 2004 season as wide receivers coach at New Mexico State, where the Aggies led the conference in passing.

During the 2002 campaign, Mason mentored receivers and assisted with special teams at Utah. The Utes featured the NFL Draft's No. 1 overall pick in quarterback Alex Smith and wide receiver Paris Warren, an eventual 7th round pick.

Mason's move to Utah came after a three-year stint at Bucknell (1999-2001) in which he gained his first experience as a defensive assistant coach. At Bucknell, Mason served as defensive backs mentor for three straight winning Bison squads.

Mason's first three collegiate positions came as an offensive assistant at Mesa (Ariz.) Community College in 1994, Weber State in 1995-96 and Idaho State in 1997-98.

As a player, Mason was a two-year starter and four-year letterwinner at Northern Arizona University. During his NAU career, Mason was influenced by several outstanding coaches, including Kentera, Kansas City Chiefs head coach Andy Reid, former Minnesota Vikings head coach Brad Childress, and former NFL head coach-offensive coordinator Marty Mornhinweg.

Mason earned a bachelor's degree in criminal justice from Northern

WHAT OTHERS ARE SAYING ABOUT MASON...

"Derek Mason has stuck to his plan since taking the Vanderbilt job in 2014, but he also hasn't been hesitant to tweak, adjust and evolve. One of the sharper defensive minds in college football, Mason will turn the defensive play-calling duties over to Jason Tarver, allowing Mason to take a more holistic approach to the program in his fifth season. And with Kyle Shurmur returning at quarterback, Mason has the Commodores on track for their second bowl appearance in the last three seasons."

Chris Low, ESPN.com

"Derek Mason is building the Vanderbilt football program the right way. I expect the Commodores to keep growing and improving under Coach Mason for years to come."

Kirk Herbstreit, ESPN CollegeGameDay Host, Play-by-Play Announcer

"Coach Mason is the guy for the job. I fully endorse him. I know he's going to have an impact there for a long time."

Jordan Matthews, Vanderbilt WR (2010-13); current member of New England Patriots

"Coach (Mason) was essential to my development and my understanding of the game. He taught me how to play the game, how to study the game, how to really go in-depth with your film study and also understanding your weaknesses... He's really helped me, and he still helps me to this day."

Richard Sherman, All-Pro CB, current member of San Francisco 49ers

"Derek is a great teacher and motivator, but more importantly he is a man of high character."

David Shaw, Head Coach, Stanford University

"Derek is a tremendous person, outstanding teacher, strong communicator, hard worker and consummate winner."

Jim Harbaugh, Head Coach, Univ. of Michigan

"He's very conscientious, very down to earth. Derek really studies the game in an old-time, throwback fashion and he's always looking for a better way to do things. Old school means we weren't blackboard coaches. We were teaching. He is a great teacher."

Willie Shaw, Former Defensive Coordinator in NFL and Stanford

"Derek Mason isn't satisfied with just being good enough at Vanderbilt. He won't back down in Nashville. He embraces the challenges and tackles them as hard and as vigorously as anyone ever has with the program."

After 2014 season, took over Vanderbilt defensive coordinator responsibilities... Earned first road win at MTSU in October 2015... Earned first SEC victory Oct. 24, 2015 with 10-3 win over Missouri... Mason's 2016 team improved win total for second straight year, winning the final two games of the regular season against Ole Miss and Tennessee to get to six wins and earn an invitation to the Camping World Independence Bowl... Also earned first win over ranked foe on the road vs. Georgia... The 2016 defense, which topped the nation in red-zone efficiency, was led by consensus All-American Zach Cunningham, who became just the third Commodore to ever earn first-team All-American status from the Walter Camp Foundation... In 2017, Dores started 3-0 after beating ranked Kansas State, then concluded regular season with second straight win over Tennessee... Off the field, Mason's program ranks among SEC and national leaders in academic successes and graduation rates, and has increased community service efforts through the city.

2013 STANFORD (Willie Shaw Director of Defense)

Promoted to position of Willie Shaw Director of Defense, Mason guided one of the nation's top defenses as Cardinal goes 10-3 overall, wins Pac-12 crown and plays in second straight Rose Bowl... Stanford finished year ranked No. 10 on strength of four victories over ranked foes... The defense ranked third in NCAA in rushing defense and 10th in scoring defense... Unit again ranks among Pac-12's best in numerous defensive categories... For second straight year, Mason's defense limited powerful Oregon spread offense, holding Ducks scoreless for first three quarters in eventual Stanford win... Three Mason standouts – LB Trent Murphy, LB Shayne Shov and DB Ed Reynolds – earn All-America recognition.

2011-12 STANFORD (associate head coach/defensive coordinator)

Finalist for 2012 Broyles Award as nation's outstanding assistant coach... Stanford goes 23-4 overall in Mason's first two years as coordinator, wins 2012 Pac-12 title, captures 2012 Rose Bowl over Wisconsin, and plays in the 2011 BCS Fiesta Bowl... Mason's 3-4 attacking defense is ranked among the NCAA leaders in both seasons... In 2012, the Cardinal defense topped the nation with 57 quarterback sacks, ranked second in tackles for loss, fifth in rushing defense and 11th in scoring defense... Stanford also paced the Pac-12 in scoring defense, total defense and rushing defense... Promoted by Cardinal head coach David Shaw to co-defensive coordinator for 2011 season.

2010 STANFORD (defensive backs)

Hired by Head Coach Jim Harbaugh... Helped change Stanford into a tough-minded, attacking defense... Unit was key to arguably Stanford's best year of modern era – a 12-1 overall record capped by 40-12 victory over Virginia Tech in the Orange Bowl... The Cardinal secondary was one of the great turnaround stories in college football as Stanford ranked high nationally in interceptions and pass defense... That unit included three eventual NFL players, including cornerback Richard Sherman.

2007-09 MINNESOTA VIKINGS - NFL (assistant defensive backs coach)

Served as an assistant defensive backs coach for the Minnesota Vikings from 2007 to 2009, playing a vital role in the team ranking sixth in total defense in 2008 and 2009 as the Vikings won NFC North titles each season.

2005-06 OHIO UNIVERSITY (wide receivers)

Hired by former Nebraska Head Coach Frank Solich, Mason coached Ohio U. receivers for two years, helping the Bobcats improve from 4-7 in 2005 to a 9-5 campaign in 2006 that ended with a GMAC Bowl appearance.

2004 NEW MEXICO STATE (wide receivers)

In lone season at New Mexico State, the Aggie offense with Mason mentoring wide receivers corps topped the Sun Belt Conference in numerous passing categories.

2003 SAINT MARY'S (co-defensive coordinator/assistant head coach)

First coordinator responsibilities came in only season at St. Mary's, member of NCAA I-AA Independent League.

2002 UTAH (wide receivers/special teams assistant coach)

Hired by Ron McBride, Mason tutored WR Paris Warren, an eventual 7th round draft pick, in his only year at Utah. The 2002 Utes offense featured young QB Alex Smith, the eventual 2005 No. 1 NFL draft pick.

1999-2001 BUCKNELL (defensive backs)

Secondary coach for three straight winning Bison squads... Coached two Bucknell defensive backs to All-Patriot League recognition... Bison defensive staff was directed by current Vanderbilt coordinator David Kotulski.

1997-98 IDAHO STATE (running backs)

Mason coached Idaho State running backs for two years under Head Coach Tom Walsh.

1995-96 WEBER STATE (wide receivers)

Mason worked with Weber State receivers, including Pokey Eckford, who earned All-America honors in 1995 after catching 77 passes for 1,074 yards and six TDs.

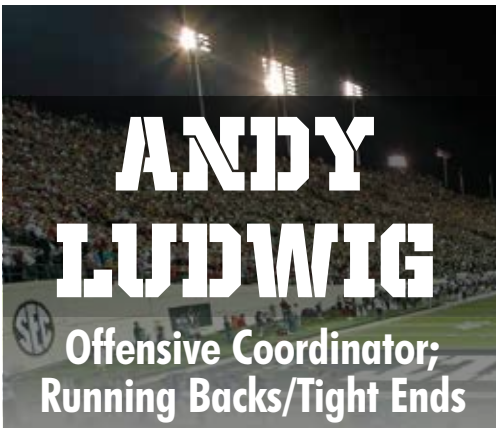

1994 MESA (ARIZONA) COMMUNITY COLLEGE (wide receivers)

NFL MINORITY COACHING FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

Mason spent time with the St. Louis Rams in 1996, New York Giants and Oakland Raiders through the Minority Coaching Fellowship Program. Philadelphia in 1999 and Minnesota in 2008.

COACHING STAFF

Andy Ludwig, regarded among the leading college offensive coordinators in America, enters his fourth year on the staff.

In addition to his coordinator role, Ludwig will serve as running backs and tight ends coach.

In 2017, Ludwig's Commodore offense was a balanced attack, averaging 24.6 points and 350.8 total yards. The unit was paced by junior quarterback Kyle Shurmur and senior running back Ralph Webb. In his second season as a starter, Shurmur set a team single-season record with 26 touchdown passes and threw for 2,823 yards, the third highest season total in school history. Webb rushed for 831 yards and 10 touchdowns and ended his career with 4,173 rushing yards and 32 rushing touchdowns, both school records. Ludwig's top tight end was sophomore Jared Pinkney, who caught 22 passes and three touchdowns.

Ludwig's Vanderbilt tenure features Webb's rushing accomplishments and the development of Shurmur. Webb departed the program as the SEC's No. 6 all-time rusher, while Shurmur is poised to shatter numerous VU career passing records.

Ludwig joined Vanderbilt after two seasons as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Wisconsin, where the Badgers set numerous offensive records. A coaching veteran with 30 years of experience, Ludwig's coaching career also includes establishing the second highest single-season rushing total in NCAA FBS history. Gordon also paced all NCAA FBS backs with 29 rushing touchdowns and briefly held the NCAA single-game rushing record after a 408-yard effort in a win over Nebraska. Behind Gordon, the 2014 Badgers amassed a school-record 4,482 rushing yards. In 2013, Wisconsin was one of only four FBS teams to amass 3,500 rushing yards and 2,500 passing yards.

Prior to joining Wisconsin, Ludwig spent the 2011-12 seasons at San Diego State. In 2012, the Aztecs enjoyed success, going 9-4. In 2011, the SDSU offense averaged 427.4 yards.

Ludwig has been an offensive coordinator at the NCAA level for 22 years. His teams have been to 16 bowl games. Prior to his years at Vanderbilt and San Diego, Ludwig served as offensive coordinator at California (2009-10), Utah (2005-08), Oregon (2002-04), Fresno State (1998-01), Cal Poly (1997) and Augustana (1993-94). Ludwig helped Utah go to four bowls, including a 2009 Sugar Bowl win over Alabama, as the Utes finished 13-0 and No. 2 in the nation.

Ludwig's mentoring of quarterbacks includes two other signal callers that eventually played in the NFL, Kellen Clemens of Oregon and 2002 NFL Draft No. 1 pick David Carr of Fresno State.

Ludwig played two seasons as a wide receiver at Snow College in Utah (1982-83) before earning two more letters at Portland State (1985-86).

Ludwig and his wife Jill are the parents of a son, Joe, and daughter, Delaney. Their son is a member of the University of Iowa football team.

JASON TARVER

Defensive Coordinator; Outside Linebackers

Jason Tarver, one of the brightest defensive coaches in the nation with experience in both collegiate and professional football, enters his first year with the Commodores as defensive coordinator and outside linebackers coach.

Tarver, who worked with Vanderbilt head coach Derek Mason at Stanford University in 2011, brings 16 years of NFL experience to Nashville after working with the San Francisco 49ers and Oakland Raiders.

"Jason is as smart a football coach as I've had the chance to be around. We had a chance to work together at Stanford and had the chance to partner up and put together some pretty good defenses. He makes complex football seem real easy. At this level you have to get it to the [student-athletes] fast, quick and have them believe it. His presence from the NFL will translate to where we're at here at Vanderbilt. He's extremely bright. He's charismatic. His energy is going to be infectious for this group," Mason said.

During his career, Tarver has worked with many outstanding coaches, including Mason and David Shaw at Stanford, Bill Walsh, Steve Mariucci, John McVay, Mike Singletary, Chip Kelly and Kyle Shanahan at San Francisco, Dennis Allen of Oakland, and Bob Toledo at UCLA.

Tarver comes from the 49ers where he served as a senior defensive assistant (OLBs) in 2017. He also worked with outside linebackers in 2016 and linebackers in 2015 during his three-year San Francisco stint.

From 2012-14,

Tarver served as defensive coordinator for the Oakland Raiders under head coach Dennis Allen. Tarver's innovations helped the Raider defense to overall improvement in his first two years with the team.

In 2011, Tarver joined the Stanford staff, working as a co-coordinator with Mason under Shaw. That year, he and Mason molded the Cardinal defense into one of the Pac-12's top units, ranking either first or second in the conference in total defense, scoring defense, rushing defense and quarterback sacks among other categories.

From 2001-10, Tarver worked on the San Francisco staff. He joined the 49ers as an offensive quality control from 2001-03, moved to an assistant running backs position in 2004, then became an outside linebacker coach from 2005-10.

Tarver served as a graduate assistant at UCLA from 1998-2000.

Tarver started his career as a defensive and special teams coach at West Valley (Calif.) College from 1996-97.

Tarver, a native of Northern California, entered Santa Clara (Calif.) University in 1993 on scholarship but the football program was cut by university officials just months later. He later played the 1994-95 seasons as a defensive back at West Valley (Calif.) College before returning to Santa Clara to complete his undergraduate degree.

Tarver earned a bachelor's degree in biochemistry at Santa Clara in 1997, and a master's degree from UCLA in 2000.

Tarver and his wife, Katie, are the parents of two boys, Merrick and Keegan.

SHAWN MENNENGA
Special Teams Coordinator

Shawn Mennenga returns to college football this season, serving as special teams coordinator. This is his first year on Derek Mason's Vanderbilt staff.

"Shawn brings NFL experience, including seven years with the Cleveland Browns. He's bright, he's organized and he's a great teacher and can make football really simple and let guys play fast. He's going to be a great addition to this staff. He's truly a special teams [coach], he can work with all facets -- kickers, punters and snappers. He's going to be vital to this team as we look to play better on special teams," Mason said.

Mennenga joins the Commodores from the National Football League where he served the last seven years as a special teams assistant with the Cleveland Browns.

During his NFL tenure, Mennenga and special teams coordinator Chris Tabor helped the Browns' players set NFL and franchise records. In 2016, punter Britton Colquitt set a team net punting average record with 40.3. In 2015, kicker Travis Coons set an NFL record with 18 consecutive field goals to start his career and punt returner Travis Benjamin finished third in the league in punt return average (11.6).

Prior to joining the Browns, Mennenga spent the 2009-10 seasons as the linebackers coach at South Dakota State University. In 2009, the Jackrabbits' defense ranked in the top 20 nationally in four categories, including pass efficiency (4th – 99.55), rushing defense (14th – 104.3 ypg), points per game allowed (16th – 17.4) and total defense (17th – 289.5 ypg).

Before joining South Dakota State's staff, Mennenga spent four seasons (2005-08) as the defensive coordinator at Fort Hays (Kansas) State University. He spent the previous four years at Culver-Stockton (Mo.) College, where he served one season as the Wildcats' defensive coordinator (2001) and the final three as the team's head coach (2002-04).

During his collegiate coaching career, he has also held assistant positions at Hutchinson Community College (defensive coordinator – 1998-2000), Western Kentucky University (outside linebackers – 1997) and Southwest Baptist University (1995-96 – secondary; 1994 – graduate assistant).

Mennenga lettered one season as a defensive back at the University of Missouri in 1992.

A native of Iowa, he and his wife, Christie, have a son, Garrett, and a daughter, Ashley.

Benjamin finished third in the league in punt return average (11.6).

In 2014, Mennenga assisted a special teams unit that finished second in the NFL in opposing field position on kickoffs, including 16 stops inside the 20.

In 2013, kicker Billy Cundiff set a franchise record with 62 touchbacks on kickoffs.

In 2012, kicker Phil Dawson and returner Joshua Cribbs were both selected to the Pro Bowl. Dawson's 93.5 (29 of 31) field goal percentage clip also led the AFC.

C.J. AH YOU

Defensive Line

C.J. Ah You, a former University of Oklahoma defensive standout and assistant, enters his third year as Vanderbilt's defensive line coach.

In his second year at Vanderbilt, Ah You pupils Jonathan Wynn, Dare Odeyingbo and Dayo Odeyingbo combined for 8.5 quarterback sacks and 19 tackles for loss. After the season, Wynn signed an NFL rookie free agent deal with the Minnesota Vikings.

Senior defensive tackle Nifae Lealao also enjoyed his best year in 2017, registering 23 total tackles.

In 2016, senior lineman Adam Butler contributed a team-high four quarterback sacks among 31 tackles under Ah You's tutelage. Last year, Butler eventually started on the defensive line for the New England Patriots as a rookie free agent.

Ah You came to Derek Mason's defense after serving two years at Oklahoma under former head coach Bob Stoops. In 2015, Ah You worked as a special teams quality control and helped with the defensive line for a Sooner squad that finished 11-2, captured the Big 12 Conference championship and played in the College Football Playoff national semifinals. The 2015 Oklahoma defense played an important role in the Sooners' team success. The Sooner pass rush ranked sixth nationally with 40 quarterback sacks and helped produce 20 interceptions, eighth most in the NCAA. The unit was dominant against Big 12 competition, ranking among the conference leaders in scoring defense, total defense, defensive pass efficiency, sacks, interceptions and first downs allowed.

Anchoring the 2015 Sooner defense was senior defensive lineman Charles Tapper, who was named first team All-Big 12 after registering seven quarterback sacks and four forced fumbles.

A native of Orange County in Southern California, Ah You was a two-year standout on the defensive front for the University of Oklahoma from 2005-06, helping the Sooners to a 19-7 overall record, the 2006 Big 12 title, and an appearance in the 2006 Fiesta Bowl. He also served as the Sooners' defensive captain in 2006.

Ah You started 25 games for the Sooners at defensive end. As a senior in 2006, he earned first team All-Big 12 honors after registering eight tackles for loss, four quarterback sacks and three forced fumbles. Ah You was named Big 12 Defensive Newcomer of the Year as a junior when he contributed 45 tackles, 10 tackles for loss and 6.5 sacks. He was also named Defensive MVP of the Holiday Bowl.

Selected by Buffalo in the seventh round of the 2007 NFL Draft, Ah You eventually played for the St. Louis Rams from 2007-12, contributing six quarterback sacks and 41 total tackles during his career.

Ah You worked closely with several charities as an NFL player, including United Way, Red Cross and the National Breast Cancer Foundation among others.

Ah You completed a bachelor's degree in sociology from the University of Oklahoma in 2006.

Ah You and his wife Chynea are the parents of four daughters: Makiah, Atiana, Alei'a and Milani.

COACHING STAFF

Terrence Brown enters his first year on Derek Mason's defensive staff. He will serve as cornerbacks coach.

"Terrence is someone who played at a high level for me at Stanford, he was on the teams that played in the 2010 Orange Bowl, 2011 Fiesta Bowl and 2012 Rose Bowl. His football IQ then was noticeable. He's been at the University of Washington as a young coach getting their corners to play well. Washington has been in the top 20 in defense [nationally] the last two years. He understands the making and the dynamic of teaching corners and that's important to me. He's one of mine but he's taken it to the next level. I expect to see tremendous growth from our corners in 2018 and he's the right guy," Mason said of Brown.

Brown comes to Nashville from Seattle after spending the last three seasons as a defensive graduate assistant for the Washington Huskies under head coach Chris Peterson.

In 2017, Brown's efforts helped Washington to a 10-3 campaign and appearance in the Playstation Fiesta Bowl against Penn State. The Huskie defense limited opponents to just 16.1 points and 298 total yards per game.

The Washington defense also produced 15 interceptions and recovered nine fumbles during the season.

In 2016, Brown helped transform the Washington defense into one of the Pac-12's College Football Playoff semifinals.

In Brown's first year assisting on the Washington staff, the Huskie defense played a key role in the team's 7-6 season and a postseason bowl victory. The unit ranked 13th nationally in scoring defense in 2015.

Brown played for Mason at Stanford, where he was a two-year starter at cornerback.

As a senior at Stanford, he started all 14 games at cornerback, finishing fifth on the team with 65 total tackles as the Cardinal (12-2) won the Pac-12 championship and defeated Wisconsin in the Rose Bowl.

As a junior in 2011, he started nine games and appeared in all 13 games as the Cardinal went 11-2 and earned a berth in the Fiesta Bowl.

Brown also played in six games as a sophomore in 2010 for a Stanford squad that went 12-1 and beat Virginia Tech in the Orange Bowl.

Brown is a native of Compton, Calif., having graduated from Orange Lutheran High School where he earned first-team All-Trinity League and second-team All-CIF Southern Section honors. He also ran track as a prep standout.

Brown is engaged to Courtney Flores.

GERRY GDOWSKI
Quarterbacks

Gerry Gdowski enters his fifth season on Derek Mason's staff. He begins his third year as quarterbacks coach after mentoring VU tight ends in 2014-15.

In 2017, Gdowski helped junior Kyle Shurmur produce one of the best seasons ever by a Vanderbilt quarterback. Shurmur threw for 26 touchdowns, a school record and the second-highest total in the SEC. He also threw for 2,823 yards, the team's third highest season total. Shurmur's improved efficiency rating of 137.6 ranked high among SEC quarterbacks. He threw for more than 250 yards in six games and tossed four touchdowns in three separate games.

In 2016, Shurmur setting a new Vanderbilt sophomore team record with 2,409 passing yards. He also concluded the regular season on a high note, leading the Commodores to impressive SEC wins over Ole Miss and Tennessee. Shurmur threw for 416 yards against the Vols, the fifth highest single-game ever by a Commodore.

Gdowski came to Vanderbilt after spending nine years at Ohio where he mentored quarterbacks. Gdowski also had titles of assistant head coach and co-offensive coordinator.

At Ohio, Gdowski helped mold Tyler Tettleton into one of the greatest quarterbacks in Bobcats' history. Under Gdowski's tutelage, Tettleton set Ohio career records in passing yards and touchdowns, and became the only quarterback in school history to surpass 2,500 passing yards in three consecutive seasons.

In 2011, Gdowski's offense was the most productive unit in modern Ohio University history, totaling 427 points and 6,241 total yards.

Gdowski went to Ohio after eight seasons at New Mexico State. He was the Aggies' recruiting coordinator and quarterbacks coach until 2003 when he took over as offensive coordinator. The Aggies ranked second in the Sun Belt Conference in 2004 in scoring offense and passing offense.

Gdowski began his coaching career at Nebraska, working with the quarterbacks, tight ends and receivers as a graduate assistant from 1991 to 1993. He then moved to South Dakota State, where he coached for three seasons. After two years as quarterbacks and wide receivers coach, Gdowski was promoted to offensive coordinator.

As a player, he earned three letters at Nebraska under legendary coach Tom Osborne. Gdowski was the starting quarterback and 1989 team captain for the Cornhuskers and was named to the first team All-Big Eight. He was an eighth round choice of the New Orleans Saints in the 1990 NFL Draft.

Gdowski excelled off the field at Nebraska as well. He earned CoSIDA Academic All-America honors in 1989 and was awarded the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Postgraduate Scholarship as well as the NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship. A 1990 graduate of Nebraska with a bachelor's degree in business administration, Gdowski also went on to earn his Masters of Education Administration from Nebraska in 1996.

A native of Fremont, Neb., Gdowski and his wife, Sam, are the parents of three sons: Isaac, Luke, and Tommy.

CHRIS MARVE
Inside Linebackers

Chris Marve, a former two-time Commodore defensive captain who ranks among the program's all-time leading tacklers, enters his third year as the team's inside linebackers coach.

In 2017, Marve's top pupil Oren Burks ranked second on the team with 45 solo tackles and 82 total tackles. After the season, Burks was selected by Green Bay in the third round of the 2018 NFL Draft.

Zach Cunningham, Marve's top understudy in 2016, enjoyed one of the greatest seasons and careers ever by a Commodore. He earned consensus first team All-America recognition en route to arguably becoming the most decorated defender in program history.

Cunningham, who topped the SEC with 125 total tackles as a senior, is now starting in the Houston Texans' linebacker corps after being taken No. 57 overall by Houston in the 2017 NFL Draft.

Marve was named to 247Sports' 30 Under 30 Coaches list in 2017.

Marve joined the Commodore defensive staff in 2014, working as a quality control assistant. After focusing on linebackers as a graduate assistant in 2015, Marve was promoted to the inside linebacker position prior to the 2016 campaign.

Marve's value has been evident since joining the Vanderbilt staff. In his first two years on staff, the unit enjoyed vast improvement in several key statistical categories, including scoring defense, total defense, first downs allowed, third-down efficiency and red-zone defense. Marve also helped Cunningham and fellow linebacker Nigel Bowden to banner campaigns in 2014-15. Cunningham earned first team All-SEC by posting 16.5 tackles for loss among 103 total stops. Bowden was a Freshman All-SEC selection in 2014 after registering 78 tackles.

Marve also mentored VU linebacker Stephen Weatherly, who was selected in the 7th round of the 2016 NFL Draft. He enters his third year with the Minnesota Vikings in 2018.

Marve became one of the most decorated players in Vanderbilt modern history by garnering All-SEC accolades in each of his four years. He topped the defense for tackles three different seasons and was an instrumental leader in the Commodores' push toward the 2008 Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl and the 2011 AutoZone Liberty Bowl.

The Memphis product quickly established himself as a Vanderbilt student-athlete, earning Freshman All-America honors in 2008 after registering 105 tackles and four forced fumbles. He capped his 2008 season with a 10-tackle performance in the Commodores' Music City Bowl victory over Boston College.

In 2009, Marve also earned second team All-SEC recognition after posting 121 tackles.

In 2010, Marve again earned coaches' All-SEC honors as a junior co-captain. That year, he finished with 80 tackles.

As a senior, Marve contributed 91 tackles, earned All-SEC recognition, and was instrumental in leading the Dores back to postseason play.

Marve ranks eighth on VU's career charts with 397 total tackles.

Marve completed undergraduate degrees in sociology and human & organizational development in 2011. He earned a Masters of Education in higher education administration from Vanderbilt in 2015.

Marve is married to the former Lauren Dillard, a fellow Vanderbilt graduate.

COACHING STAFF

MARC MATTIOLI

Defensive Secondary

Marc Mattioli enters his fourth year on the Commodore defensive staff. A former Stanford defensive assistant, Mattioli will serve as Vanderbilt's defensive secondary coach.

Mattioli developed Ryan White, Arnold Tarpley III and LaDarius Wiley into productive starting safeties in 2016-17. All three safeties ranked among the team's leading tacklers both seasons.

Wiley enters the 2018 season considered among the SEC's top safeties.

Another pupil, cornerback Tre Herndon, was a two-year starter in 2016-17, and signed a rookie free agent deal with the Jacksonville Jaguars.

Mattioli started with the Commodores in 2014 as the team's safeties coach.

Mattioli joined Vanderbilt after serving three years at Stanford, including two seasons with Mason as a defensive graduate assistant.

Mattioli was a defensive quality control assistant for the Cardinal in 2014, focusing his efforts on the Stanford secondary. In 2012-13, he served as a defensive graduate assistant, helping Mason as a defensive backs and safeties mentor.

In 2014, Stanford finished second nationally in scoring defense, third in total defense, and eighth in passing defense. The Cardinal secondary was led by strong another Rose Bowl appearance and conference title.

Mattioli has strong ties to the South. Prior to joining the Stanford staff, Mattioli served two seasons as the defensive line coach for LaGrange (Ga.) College.

Mattioli played tight end as a freshman at Rhodes College in Memphis before transitioning to the defensive line for his final three campaigns. He served as team captain as a senior in 2008, and was part of the 2006 Rhodes defense that ranked fifth nationally.

He earned Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference All-Academic honors four times. Mattioli was the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame Outstanding Student-Athlete Award recipient for Rhodes and was an all-SCAC choice in 2006 and 2008.

Mattioli was a standout athlete at Roswell (Ga.) H.S.

Mattioli graduated from Rhodes with a bachelor's degree in political science. He earned a master's from LaGrange College and worked toward a postgraduate degree in liberal arts from Stanford.

safety Jordan Richards with three interceptions and three forced fumbles. A first team All-Pac 12 selection as a senior, Richards also was awarded the 2014 National Scholar-Athlete Award.

Mattioli also worked with highly ranked Stanford defenses as a graduate assistant in 2012 and 2013. The Cardinal ranked 10th nationally in scoring defense during a run to the Rose Bowl in 2013, and led the Pac-12 in scoring defense and total defense in the 2012 campaign that included

Aaron Moorehead enters his first year on Derek Mason's Vanderbilt staff as wide receivers coach.

"Aaron is real interesting when you look at his career. He was a walk-on at Illinois, earned a scholarship, undrafted free agent, winds up playing five years in the NFL with the Colts and wins a Super Bowl. He's a hard worker that understands the game. He was raised in the game, his dad played in the NFL. Once [Aaron] was done playing in the NFL, he came to Stanford to be a graduate assistant and I had a chance to work with him and see his work ethic. He's a true teacher and gets guys to play at a high level," Mason said of his new offensive assistant coach.

Moorehead comes to the Commodores after serving as wide receivers coach at Texas A&M for the last three seasons under former head coach Kevin Sumlin.

At Texas A&M, Moorehead helped develop one of the SEC's most exciting players of recent years in Christian Kirk. In his three years on the College Station campus, Kirk amassed 234 receptions, good for 2,856 yards and 26 touchdowns.

In addition to Kirk, Moorehead developed Josh Reynolds into a standout receiver at Texas A&M. As a junior and senior in 2015-16, Reynolds posted 112 catches, 1,946 receiving yards and 17 touchdowns.

Both Kirk and Reynolds are now playing in the NFL: Kirk as a second-round pick of the Arizona Cardinals; and Reynolds as a fourth-round selection of the Los Angeles Rams.

Two more Texas A&M receivers mentored by Moorehead, Ricky Seals-Jones and Damion Ratley, also are playing the NFL: Seals-Jones with Arizona and Ratley with the Cleveland Browns.

At Virginia Tech, Moorehead had three wide receivers post 40-plus catches in the same season for the first time in program history. In 2013, Willie Byrn, Demetri Knowles and Joshua Stanford combined for 146 receptions and 1,941 receiving yards for the Hokies. The next year, Byrn, Isaiah Ford and Cam Phillips amassed 143 catches and 1,595 receiving yards. Ford is in his second NFL season, as a wide receiver with the Miami Dolphins.

From 2010-12, Moorehead worked on the Stanford University staff with Mason. He served as offensive graduate assistant for Cardinal teams that played in the Rose Bowl, Orange Bowl and Fiesta Bowl.

Moorehead started his collegiate coaching career as an offensive graduate assistant at the University of New Mexico in 2009.

Moorehead spent five years in the NFL as a wide receiver with the Indianapolis Colts. He played on the Colts' squad that captured Super Bowl XLI by defeating the Chicago Bears.

The world championship allowed Moorehead and his father, Emery, to become the first father-son combo to both win a Super Bowl.

Moorehead concluded his NFL career with 31 catches, 330 receiving yards and a touchdown.

Moorehead played collegiately at the University of Illinois, earning four letters from 1999-2002. He finished his career at Illinois with 85 receptions, good for 1,293 yards and nine touchdowns.

A native of Deerfield, Ill., Moorehead earned a bachelor's degree in sports management from Illinois in 2003.

He and his wife, Rosalyn, have three children: Avari, Mason and Aliah.

CAMERON NORCROSS

Offensive Line

Cameron Norcross enters his third year as offensive line coach for the Commodores.

Norcross, who joined Vanderbilt after a stint at Fresno State, molded an inexperienced offensive line in 2016 and 2017 into a unit that opened holes for multiple-year starter Ralph Webb. The running back went on to set three season and numerous career rushing marks, including 4,173 rushing yards and 33 rushing touchdowns.

Last year, Norcross moved veteran Bruno Reagan from guard to center and Justin Skule from right tackle to the left side to help develop guards Saige Young and Egidio DellaRipa and young tackle Devin Cochran.

This year, all five return, along with several other solid contributors and starting candidates.

Norcross helped 2016 Vanderbilt graduate Will Holden move on to the next level. Holden was a fifth round pick in the 2017 NFL Draft, and started at Arizona as a rookie.

Norcross came to Nashville after serving four years at Fresno State and an 11-year stint at his alma mater, the University of Nevada.

As a Fresno State staffer, Norcross helped the Bulldogs to three bowl appearances. In 2013, the Bulldogs went 11-2 overall, and capped the year with a Las Vegas Bowl appearance.

18 games. In 2013, the Fresno State line was considered one of the best in program history as the Bulldogs tied the school record for wins and captured the Mountain West Conference championship.

Norcross mentored second team All-Mountain West recipient Alex Fifita and Academic All-America honoree Justin Northern at Fresno State.

Norcross served at Nevada before joining the Fresno State staff, helping his alma mater to seven consecutive bowl appearances from 2005-11. A three-year letterman on the Wolf Pack offensive line (1997-99), Norcross was an All-Big West selection in 1998.

Norcross started at Nevada as a graduate assistant under coach Chris Tormey in 2001-02. In 2003, he was hired on full time as the tight ends and co-offensive line coach. Wolf Pack Hall of Famer Chris Ault returned to the program as head coach in 2004, keeping Norcross on his staff in the same role all the way up until 2010 when he was promoted to the run-game coordinator and offensive line coach. Norcross played an important role in the development of Ault's innovative "Pistol" offense since its inception in 2005.

Nevada led the nation in rushing in 2009, a year in which the Wolf Pack became the first team in NCAA history to have three 1,000-yard rushers in the same season. In nine seasons coaching offensive linemen at Nevada, Norcross mentored eight players to first team all-conference honors and another eight to second-team accolades.

Prior to joining Tim DeRuyter's staff at Fresno State in 2012, the two had previously worked together at Nevada in 2005 and 2006 when DeRuyter was the co-defensive coordinator for the Wolf Pack. Over those two seasons, DeRuyter and Norcross helped lead Nevada to a 17-8 record, a share of the 2005 WAC Championship and two bowl appearances.

A native of Ely, Nev., Norcross earned a bachelor's degree from the University of Nevada in management.

He and his wife, Jennifer, are the parents of a son, Jacob, and two daughters, Kylie and Madison.

COACHING STAFF

James Dobson enters his fourth year as Vanderbilt's head strength coach.

Dobson oversees all aspects of the Vanderbilt strength program for football, which includes winter conditioning, summer workouts and in-season training.

Dobson has placed his stamp on the Commodore program, molding an enthusiastic roster that strides to play every snap with relentlessness, toughness and intelligence. The Commodores' overall fitness has been on display in the fourth quarter when they outscored opponents 196-177 over the last three years. The Commodores have also enjoyed impressive regular-season finale victories over Tennessee in each of the last two seasons.

In the last three years, Dobson has trained four Commodores selected in the NFL draft, including linebackers Zach Cunningham and Oren Burks, and 12 others who have earned rookie free agent deals.

Prior to joining Vanderbilt, Dobson, a native of Mt. Horeb, Wisc., spent seven years guiding Nebraska's conditioning programs under former Cornhusker football head coach Bo Pelini. In Dobson's tenure, Nebraska was one of three teams nationally, joining Alabama and Oregon, to post at least nine wins every year.

The 2014 Nebraska squad conditioned by Dobson played in the Holiday Bowl. The Huskers made a post-season bowl appearance every year in Dobson's tenure. Utilizing Dobson's strength program, the Huskers were regarded among the nation's most outstanding fourth-quarter teams. In 2014, the Huskers outscored opponents by a remarkable 119-62 margin. Nebraska also scored more fourth-quarter points than its foes in 2008 (155-52), 2009 (96-32), 2010 (64-53) and 2012 (101-82).

In 2014, Dobson's conditioning program helped the Nebraska offense average 37.4 points, 248 rushing yards and 446.2 total yards. Dobson's efforts also produced a tenacious Nebraska squad. The Huskers were known for producing remarkable comeback victories in recent years, including four such wins during the 2012 season.

Prior to Nebraska, Dobson spent nine years with the Iowa Hawkeye football program. He was in Iowa City during one of the most successful periods in school history. Iowa appeared in bowl games in six seasons and won 38 games from 2002 to 2005.

Dobson has had a history of working with some of the top college football players in the country over the past decade. Dobson's top pupils at Vanderbilt include All-America linebacker Zach Cunningham and offensive lineman Will Holden, both selected in the 2017 NFL Draft, and Commodore all-time leading rusher Ralph Webb. At Nebraska, he worked with defensive tackle Ndamukong Suh, cornerback Prince Amukamara and linebacker Lavonte David along others. His top Iowa pupils included safety Bob Sanders, tight end Dallas Clark, offensive tackle Robert Gallery and linebacker Chad Greenway.

In addition to his experience at Iowa, Dobson worked for two years as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Southern Methodist.

Dobson attended the University of Wisconsin, where he earned a bachelor's in kinesiology in 1996. He earned a master's of science and administration degree from Central Michigan in 2004.

In 2012, Dobson was one of 15 strength and conditioning coaches certified as a Master Strength and Conditioning Coach by the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association.

Aaron Hill enters his fourth year as an assistant under head strength coach James Dobson.

A native of St. Charles, Mo., Hill assists Dobson and his staff with all aspects of the Vanderbilt football program, including in-season and off-season training.

Hill joined Vanderbilt after serving a strength and conditioning internship with the Carolina Panthers of the National Football League. Previously, he worked in a similar internship for the University of Minnesota football program during the 2014 regular season.

Hill was a linebacker and captain at Minnesota, contributing 192 career tackles, five forced fumbles and four interceptions during a 47-game career. He was a two-time recipient of Minnesota's Butch Nash Award for competitiveness on and off the field.

Hill completed a bachelor's degree in kinesiology-sports science from Minnesota in 2013. He earned a Masters of Education in applied kinesiology-sport and exercise science from Minnesota the following year.

Professionally, Hill is certified through the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association.

Hill and the former Lexi Williams were married in May 2018.

Matt MANNINGER

Role: Assistant Coach, Strength Staff

Year on Staff: 4th

Alma Mater: Nebraska, 2013

Matt Manninger enters his fourth season as a member of the Vanderbilt coaching staff, serving as an assistant to head strength coach James Dobson.

A graduate of the University of Nebraska, Manninger has worked at Vanderbilt with Dobson's staff since June 2015.

Before joining the Commodore program, Manninger worked as a strength intern at the University of Maryland during the 2014 football season. He also served as a strength intern with University of Idaho student-athletes during the summer of 2014.

As an undergraduate student in Lincoln, Manninger earned a letter in 2012 as a linebacker with the Cornhusker football team.

He earned a bachelor's degree in dietetics and nutrition/exercise and health sciences from Nebraska. He later completed a Masters in Human Nutrition from Eastern Michigan University.

Professionally, Manninger is certified through the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association.

Fahd

Strength Staff

Year on Staff: 2nd

Alma Mater: Christopher Newport, 2014

Fahd Jindani enters his second year with the Vanderbilt football team as an assistant under head strength coach James Dobson.

He assists Dobson and his staff with all aspects of the Vanderbilt football program, including in-season and off-season training.

Before joining Vanderbilt, Jindani worked as a graduate assistant in strength and conditioning at Springfield (Mass.) College. While at Springfield, Jindani designed and implemented in-season and off-season training programs for football, women's lacrosse, track and field, baseball and women's soccer.

Jindani also interned at the College of the Holy Cross in Massachusetts during the 2015-16 school year under head strength coach Jeff Oliver and with the University of Iowa football program under head strength coach Chris Doyle during the summer of 2016.

A native of Richmond, Va., Jindani played linebacker at Christopher Newport (Va.) University for two years before a knee injury ended his playing career. After the injury, Jindani served as a defensive student assistant coach and interned with the strength staff as a senior at Christopher Newport.

Jindani earned a bachelor's degree in psychology from Christopher Newport and a Master's in Exercise Science with a concentration in strength and conditioning from Springfield College.

Professionally, Jindani is certified through the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association.

COACHING STAFF

BRET INGALLS
Senior Offensive Analyst

Bret Ingalls, a 34-year coaching veteran who has extensive collegiate and professional experience, enters his first year with the Vanderbilt football team. He will assist offensive coordinator Andy Ludwig as a senior analyst.

Ingalls joins the Commodores after serving the 2016-17 seasons at the University of Florida as an offensive analyst under head coach Jim McElwain.

For a seven-year period before joining Florida, Ingalls was a valuable member of the New Orleans Saints' NFL coaching staff. He was hired by the Saints in 2009 as running backs coach, helping direct the standout trio of Reggie Bush, Pierre Thomas and Mike Bell. That season, the Saints went 13-3 in the regular season and eventually claimed their only championship title in Super Bowl XLIV.

The 2009 Saints offense was the NFL's most productive unit. Its rushing attack ranked sixth in the NFL.

In 2013, Ingalls was named New Orleans' offensive line coach, continuing in that role through 2015. His final Saints' offensive front was regarded among the best in the NFL.

Prior to joining the Saints, Ingalls served as offensive line coach at Northwestern University from 2006-08. Ingalls' offensive line at Northwestern showed improvement through his tenure in Evansville. By 2008, the Wildcats went 9-4 overall, advancing to the Alamo Bowl.

The Wildcat offense during Ingalls' tenure featured an offensive line blocking for running back Tyrell Sutton, who finished his Northwestern career with 3,886 rushing yards and 5,138 all-purpose yards.

Ingalls served as offensive line and tight ends coach at Indiana State in 2004 and Miami (Ohio) in 2005.

From 1995-2003, Ingalls served as offensive coordinator at three universities: Louisville, Northern Iowa and Idaho.

He started his collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant at Idaho, then became an offensive coach at San Diego State (1989-93) and Eastern Michigan (1994) before joining Louisville in 1995 as offensive coordinator.

Ingalls has worked with several stellar head coaches, including Sean Payton at New Orleans, Pat Fitzgerald at Northwestern, and Tom Cable, Keith Gilbertson and Dennis Erickson at Idaho.

A native of San Jose, Calif., Ingalls attended the University of Colorado, then transferred to Wichita State University where he played running back.

He earned a bachelor's degree in business management from the University of Idaho in 1984.

Ingalls and his wife, Diana, are the parents of three children: Samuel, Jack and Breana.

OSIA LEWIS
Senior Defensive Analyst

Veteran collegiate coach Osia Lewis serves as senior analyst for the Commodore defense.

A 28-year veteran of collegiate coaching, Lewis stepped away from full-time coaching last year due to illness. He served in the dual role of senior defensive assistant and special consultant to Coach Mason in 2017.

In 2016, Lewis joined Mason's staff as senior defensive assistant and outside linebackers coach.

Lewis brought extensive experience to Vanderbilt, having served as a defensive coordinator at the collegiate and professional levels. He has coached in 10 bowl games with teams from the Pac-12, Big Ten, Conference USA and Mountain West.

Prior to joining Mason at Vanderbilt, Lewis worked five years as defensive line coach at San Diego State under head coach Rocky Long.

In 2015, San Diego State enjoyed a banner year on the strength of a top-ranked defense. The Aztecs finished 11-3 overall, captured the MWC championship and earned a 42-7 win over Cincinnati in the Hawaii Bowl.

The Aztecs were sparked by an outstanding defense that ranked among the NCAA Top 10 in several defensive categories. The team finished the year fifth nationally in total defense (287.3 ypg), seventh in scoring defense (16.4 ppg), seventh in rush defense (108.7 ypg), and 10th in pass efficiency.

The defense also helped SDSU lead the nation in turnover margin. The Aztecs' interior pressure forced opponents into 34 turnovers, en route to a remarkable plus-19 turnover margin by season's end.

One of Lewis' top pupils in 2015 was junior Alex Barrett, who produced 13 tackles for loss and 5.5 sacks while earning first team All-Mountain West honors. Barrett also was the fourth Aztec lineman to receive all-league recognition during Lewis' tenure.

In 2014, the SDSU defense finished among the NCAA Top 20 in scoring defense and total defense.

Before San Diego State, Lewis worked as a coordinator in the United Football League in 2010, and as defensive coordinator at UTEP in 2008-09.

From 2003-07, Lewis served as defensive coordinator at the University of New Mexico. He also had stints coaching the Lobos' defensive line and linebackers.

In his tenure at New Mexico, the Lobos went to four bowl games and its defensive unit ranked fifth nationally in rushing defense in 2003.

In 2008-09, Lewis served as defensive coordinator at Texas-El Paso, then spent 2010 coaching in the United Football League.

From 1997-2002, Lewis guided linebackers and the defensive line at the University of Illinois. In his final year, the Illini played in the 2002 Nokia Sugar Bowl.

Lewis' first full-time coaching position at the NCAA FBS level came at his alma mater, Oregon State. He served as a linebackers coach and special teams coach with the Beavers from 1991-96.

A native of Tucson, Ariz., Lewis was a team captain and honorable mention All-America at Oregon State. Lewis was All-Pac 10 and named the Beavers' most inspirational player. He continued his playing career professionally in the Canadian Football League and Arena Football League.

Lewis earned a bachelor's in social science education from Oregon State in 1986. He also completed a master's in education from Oregon State in 1989.

Lewis and his wife, Darlene, are the parents of a son, Marvin, and a daughter, Kiana.

Role: Quality Control - Defense

Alma Mater: Mississippi State, 2014

Benton enters his fourth year with the Vanderbilt program. Benton enters his second year as defensive quality control role this year after serving two years as a graduate assistant.

As a Vanderbilt graduate assistant, Benton has worked with both sides of the ball: contributing to the offense in 2015 and aiding the defense in 2016.

Benton joined the Commodores after serving two seasons as an undergraduate assistant at Mississippi State.

Benton played wide receiver at Harding Academy before moving to Jackson, Tenn., where he graduated from Jackson Christian School. He attended Union (Tenn.) University for two years before transferring to Mississippi State.

Benton earned a bachelor's in history from Mississippi State in 2014 and a master's in liberal arts and sciences from Vanderbilt in 2016.

Ryan BLAKNEY

Role: Quality Control - Offense

Alma Mater: San Diego State, 2013

Blakney enters his fourth season on staff, assisting offensive coordinator Andy Ludwig as a quality control assistant.

Blakney has been a key behind-the-scenes contributor for Ludwig's offense that has averaged nearly 25 points and more than 350 yards the last two years. The unit has been paced by all-time Commodore rusher Ralph Webb and rising senior quarterback Kyle Shurmur.

The native of San Diego came to Vanderbilt from Wisconsin where he also worked with Ludwig. At Wisconsin, Blakney contributed to one of the NCAA's top offenses. In 2014, the Badgers, paced by All-America running back Melvin Gordon, averaged 34.6 points and 320.1 rushing yards.

In 2013, Blakney worked in offensive quality control at San Diego State. He also served as a student assistant at the school from 2011-12.

Blakney graduated from SDSU in 2013 with a bachelor's in kinesiology. Blakney is married to the former Jennifer Weil.

Darrius DARDEN-BOX

Role: Quality Control - Offense

Year on Staff: 1st

Alma Mater: Southeast Missouri State, 2016

Darrius Darden-Box enters his first year with Derek Mason's program. He will aid VU offensive coaches as a quality control assistant.

Darden-Box, a native of Nashville, was a three-year letterwinner at wide receiver at Southeast Missouri State University. He caught 29 passes for 242 yards and two touchdowns for the Redhawks.

Darden-Box was a two-way starter at Nashville's Pearl-Cohn H.S. as a prep player.

He earned a bachelor's degree in recreation from SEMO in 2016.

Jovan HAYE

Role: Quality Control - Defense

Alma Mater: Vanderbilt, 2007

Jovan Haye, a former Vanderbilt defensive standout and NFL veteran, enters his first season as a defensive quality control. He will assist first-year Vanderbilt defensive coordinator Jason Tarver and defensive line position coach C.J. Ah You.

Haye was a two-time captain and 2003 All-SEC performer for the Commodores while starting 34 games on the defensive line from 2002-04. He finished his VU career with 11 sacks among 149 total tackles.

Haye was selected in the sixth round of the 2005 NFL Draft by Carolina. He played for Carolina, Cleveland, Tampa Bay, Tennessee and Detroit.

A native of Jamaica who moved to the United States as a first grader, Haye earned a bachelor's degree in Human and Organizational Development from Vanderbilt in 2007.

Haye and his wife, Jennifer, are the parents of three girls: Jorielle, Jaiana and Janiyah.

Rayna STEWART

Role: Quality Control - Special Teams

Year on Staff: 4th (1st in this role)

Alma Mater: Northern Arizona, 1996

Rayna Stewart, the former Vanderbilt Director of Player Development, enters his first year as a special teams quality control.

This marks Stewart's fourth year with Coach Mason. Previously, he served as a liaison between student-athletes, the Commodore coaching staff and other departments in Vanderbilt Athletics overseeing the team's player development office.

Stewart enjoyed a five-year career in the National Football League. He was a defensive back and appeared on special teams for Houston-Tennessee (1996-97), Miami (1998) and Jacksonville (1999-2000).

Stewart has coached previously in the collegiate and professional ranks. He served as a graduate assistant at Northwestern under Pat Fitzgerald from 2007-09, and as a defensive quality control coach with the Tennessee Titans under Jeff Fisher from 2009-11.

Stewart was a two-time All-America cornerback at Northern Arizona. He was selected by Houston in the fifth round of the 1996 NFL draft. He will enter the Northern Arizona Athletic Hall of Fame this year.

Stewart earned a bachelor's in advertising from Northern Arizona, and master's in education administration from Tennessee State.

FOOTBALL STAFF

Jason GROOMS

Role: Assistant Athletics Director/Football

Alma Mater: Ohio, 2001

Jason Grooms enters his fifth season as a Vanderbilt football administrator. Grooms is serving his third season as Assistant Athletics Director for Football after being hired by Head Coach Derek Mason in 2014 as director of football operations.

Grooms continues a working relationship with Mason that dates back a decade. When Grooms became Ohio University's first director of football operations in 2005, Mason was the Bobcats' receivers coach.

Grooms oversees all facets of the football operations program, from the day-to-day operations to responsibilities including budget control, team travel, player development, office organization including staff and personnel coordination and the Gridiron Club.

Grooms has managed Vanderbilt's future scheduling under Mason. During the last three years, the Commodores have announced games or series with Notre Dame, Stanford, Kansas State, Purdue, Wake Forest, N.C. State, Hawaii and Colorado State. Agreements with several Football Championship Series (FCS) teams also have been finalized.

Grooms has been active with several football projects at Vanderbilt. He oversaw a complete remodel of the football facilities with the additions of all new graphics in every area of the football complex, helped with the redesign of the John Rich Practice Complex synthetic turf and weight room, developed the players' lounge and recruiting display room, and helped produce a stadium facelift consisting of graphics and bowl recognitions. He has also helped create a player development department, aided with a summer internship program that now includes student-athletes from other Vanderbilt sports, and introduced several new technologies such as iPad playbooks, Catapult testing and the Teamworks communication network.

Grooms has been an active member of the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) since 2001. He serves on the College Football Playoff National Championship Advisory Group and is the former President and current trustee of the AFCA National Committee for Directors of Football Operations. In 2013, Grooms was named FootballScoop.com's Director of Football Operations of the Year for his contributions at Ohio.

Grooms was promoted to Ohio's assistant athletic director for football operations prior to the 2011 season after serving six years as director of operations. During his time at Ohio University, Grooms oversaw six major facility renovations, established a fundraising plan and designed the extensive locker room renovation.

During Grooms' tenure, Ohio played in six bowl games and three Mid-American Conference championship games under Frank Solich.

Prior to joining Ohio, Grooms spent the 2004 season at Elon, serving as linebacker coach/recruiting coordinator. Grooms spent the 2003 season as outside linebackers coach and video coordinator at East Tennessee State.

Grooms began his career at Ohio as a student assistant from 1997-2001. After earning his degree, Grooms joined Ohio coach Jim Grobe at Wake Forest as a graduate assistant, working with WFU safeties in 2001 and linebackers in 2002.

Grooms graduated from Ohio in 2001 with a bachelor degree in sports sciences. He earned his Masters in Recreation and Sports Sciences from Ohio in 2011.

A native of Frankfort, Ohio, Grooms and his wife, Emily, are the parents of two sons, Jackson and Hayden, and a daughter, Scarlett Josephine.

Grooms and his wife, Emily, with sons Jackson and Hayden, and daughter Scarlett Josephine.

Jake KIRKENDALL

Football Operations

Alma Mater: Ohio, 2007

Jake Kirkendall begins his first year on the Vanderbilt staff, serving Derek Mason's program in the key role of Director of Football Operations.

Kirkendall will help oversee and direct the daily management of the Vanderbilt football effort, working to build cohesiveness and unity among all aspects of the program: student-athletes, coaches, strength and conditioning, sports medicine, personnel and recruiting, video, equipment, player development, academics, compliance, facilities and athletics administration.

The relationship between Mason and Kirkendall dates back more than a decade when Mason served as an offensive assistant at Ohio University.

Kirkendall, who has spent a decade in collegiate football operations, also is responsible for the Commodores' team travel and logistics, and coordination of game-day operations.

Kirkendall comes to Vanderbilt from the University of Tennessee where he served as Director of Football Operations during the 2017 season. His duties in Knoxville ranged from organizing all areas of team travel to serving as a liaison between the football program and various areas within the Tennessee Athletic Department and campus. He was promoted to the Tennessee Director of Football Operations post one year after joining the Volunteer program in an associate director of operations role.

A native of Lucas, Ohio, Kirkendall earned invaluable experience during an eight-year stint as Director of Football Operations at Eastern Michigan University. He was the point of contact between the EMU football program and athletic administrators, compliance, academic services, financial aid, student housing and dining, admissions, equipment, sports information, athletic training, conditioning, ticket office, facilities, purchasing, EMU President's Office, Mid-American Conference officials and NFL scouts.

He started his collegiate career in 2007, serving one year as Director of Football Operations/Video Coordinator at Dartmouth College.

Kirkendall is a graduate of Ohio University. He earned an undergraduate degree in Sports Management in 2007.

Kirkendall and his wife, the former Marissa Beltowski, were married in October 2017.

Austen EVERSON

Role: Director of Player Personnel

Alma Mater: Ohio, 2007

Austen Everson enters his third year on Derek Mason's Vanderbilt staff. Everson serves as Director of Player Personnel, directing a staff that includes Director of Recruiting Eric Lammers, Director of Recruiting Relations Andrea Cain, Assistant Recruiting Coordinator Corey Phillips and Assistant Recruiting Coordinator Haley Schaafsma.

Everson brings collegiate and NFL experience to the Commodore position.

Everson and the player personnel office oversee evaluation of current and future prospects, organize unofficial and official recruiting visits, plan recruiting-related travel for position coaches, direct gameday recruiting events, coordinate summer prospect camps, and act as staff liaison between other Vanderbilt University departments, high school coaching staffs and NFL personnel.

A native of Brentwood, Tenn., Everson spent one year as team operations coordinator for the NFL's Tennessee Titans.

From 2009-2015, Everson served at Nebraska under Head Coach Bo Pelini. He started with the Cornhuskers serving four years as director of high school relations before being promoted to assistant director of football operations.

Everson was a two-time team captain at Ohio University for Frank Solich. He earned four letters playing quarterback, starting 27 career games for the Bobcats. As a senior in 2006, Everson guided Ohio to a 9-5 regular and postseason appearance in the GMAC Bowl. That year, working under current Vanderbilt quarterback coach Gerry Gadowski, Everson threw for 1,356 yards and seven touchdowns.

During his undergraduate career at Ohio, Everson was a two-time academic All-Mid-America Conference (MAC) selection, a National Football Foundation National Honor Society inductee and a Draddy Trophy semifinalist while also earning accolades in the weight room as the All-American Strength and Conditioning Athlete of the Year.

Everson completed multiple degrees from Ohio University. He earned a bachelor degree in 2007 in management, and later completed Master's of Business Administration in 2008 and Master's of Sports Administration in 2009.

Everson was a prep standout at Brentwood H.S. just south of Nashville. As a senior, he was named All-Midstate Player of the Year by the Tennessean and was a finalist for Tennessee's Mr. Football Award.

Everson is married to the former Leah Luther.

Eric LAMMERS

Role: Director of Recruiting

Year on Staff: 6th

Alma Mater: Bowling Green State, 2009

Eric Lammers enters his third year as Vanderbilt's Director of Recruiting.

This marks Lammers' sixth year with the program. From 2012-14, he assisted in the team's player personnel office, then took off a year before returning to Mason's staff in his current role.

Lammers' responsibilities include organizing unofficial and official recruiting visits, directing gameday recruiting events, coordinating summer camps for high school prospects, and acting as a liaison with NFL personnel.

Prior to joining the Vanderbilt program in 2012, Lammers coached varsity football and taught in the Urbana (Ohio) School District.

A native of Ottawa, Ohio, Lammers earned a bachelor degree in business education from Bowling Green (Ohio) State in 2009.

Lammers and his wife, the former Stacy Young, are the parents of a 1-year-old daughter, Ella.

Dr. Christiana RUSSELL

Player Development

Year on Staff: 1st

Alma Mater: Ohio State, 1995

Dr. Christiana (Christy) Russell enters her first year with the Vanderbilt football program, serving as Director of Player Development.

Russell, who completed a doctorate in Human Development and Family Science from Ohio State University joins the Commodore football staff after serving three years as the Director of Vanderbilt University's Office of Transition Programs.

As Director of Player Development, Russell will serve as a mentor to Commodore student-athletes, developing curriculum to achieve personal growth in their academic endeavors, community outreach, compliance and career development.

Russell's player development position has four goals – to create a student-athlete valued experience, increase student-athlete community involvement, prepare student-athletes for life after college encourage and continued involvement from alumni.

Russell comes to the position after a successful tenure in the Vanderbilt Office of Transition Programs. The on-campus initiative, under the Dean of Students' umbrella, focused on creating opportunities to make the university more inclusive for transfer students and more equitable for first-generation students, which included several student-athletes.

Russell started her employment at Vanderbilt University in the summer of 2013 when she was named Director of Student Health & Wellness, which was renamed the Office of Student Care & Community Support. In that role for two years, Russell coordinated wellness programming and various levels of support to reduce health and behavior risks within the student population.

Russell came to West End after serving three years as Outreach Coordinator for K-12 Initiatives & Community Engagement in the Office of University Outreach & Community Engagement at Auburn University. As outreach coordinator, Russell helped develop the university's Outreach College Prep Initiative (CPI) which was aimed at immersing students into the college campus and increasing resources for students entering Auburn from rural, low-income school systems.

She also served as a post-doctoral research fellow and grant writer at Auburn in 2008-09, and as a lecturer at Ohio State University Department of Human Development & Family Science from 2004-08.

Russell earned a B.A. in psychology from Ohio State in 1995. She also finished a B.S. in criminal justice from Georgia State University in 1998 before returning to Columbus to complete a Master of Social Work at Ohio State in 2002. She was awarded a doctorate from Ohio State in 2006.

Russell and her husband, Eric, are the parents of two daughters, Heaven, a sophomore at Vanderbilt, and Faith, a rising sixth grader.

2017 GAME RECAPS

VANDERBILT OPENS WITH 28-6 WIN AT MIDDLE TENNESSEE

MURFREESBORO, Tenn. – Kyle Shurmur threw for 296 yards and tied his career-high with three touchdowns as the Vanderbilt Commodores beat Middle Tennessee 28-6 Saturday night in the season opener for both teams.

The Commodores snapped a five-year skid in season openers to give coach Derek Mason his first victory to kick off his fourth season in charge. They also won their third straight against the Conference USA school 37 miles away from Nashville.

GAME 1 SEPT. 2, 2017 MURFREESBORO

"It was really important because for us it's something we hadn't done here in my tenure, so we got it done tonight," Mason said. "So now we move on."

Vanderbilt came out throwing with Shurmur, and the junior quarterback didn't disappoint. He completed 13 of his first 14 passes, including a 37-yard

TD pass to Kalija Lipscomb to cap the opening drive. He added a 4-yard TD pass to Lipscomb for a 21-0 lead minutes into the second quarter.

Ralph Webb, the Commodores' all-time leading rusher, also added a 1-yard TD run. Shurmur hit Webb on a swing pass that the senior took 73 yards for a 28-0 lead in the third.

The Commodores smothered what was a high-powered offense in 2016 with Middle Tennessee running up 495 yards against Vanderbilt last season. The Blue Raiders averaged 517.7 yards and ranked 12th nationally scoring 39.7 points per game.

COMMODORES EASILY DEFEAT ALABAMA A&M, 42-0

NASHVILLE – Vanderbilt quarterback Kyle Shurmur threw four touchdown passes and ran for another as the Commodores smashed Alabama A&M 42-0 on Saturday, improving to 2-0 for the first time under fourth-year coach Derek Mason.

"I'm excited even if my face probably doesn't show it," Mason said. "You're excited to get the wins, but you know preparation is right around the corner. It's not about being comfortable, not about getting comfortable. It's just making sure we stay (focused)."

GAME 2 SEPT. 9, 2017 NASHVILLE

The Commodores dominated all facets of the game as they readied for next week's home challenge against 19th-ranked Kansas State. Shurmur completed 12-of-12 passes for 175 yards and three scores in the first half alone, finishing 15-for-18 for 202 yards. Vanderbilt outgained the Bulldogs 291-38 in the opening two quarters, holding Alabama A&M (0-2) to three first downs. The Commodores blocked one Bulldogs punt -- converting it into a touchdown -- and deflected another. Vanderbilt scored touchdowns on five-of-six possessions in the opening half.

Playing in front of a crowd of 25,802, Vanderbilt recorded its first shutout since the Commodores blanked Kentucky 40-0 in 2012.

LATE DEFENSIVE STAND SEALS VICTORY OVER RANKED KANSAS STATE

NASHVILLE – Kyle Shurmur scored on a 2-yard run with 8:23 left, and Vanderbilt upset No. 18 Kansas State 14-7 on Saturday night for the Commodores' first victory over a ranked, nonconference opponent since 1946.

Vanderbilt improved to 3-0 for the first time since 2011 with the Commodores' first win over a ranked, nonconference opponent since beating North Carolina State. The Commodores also have won five straight at home dating to last season.

GAME 3 SEPT. 16, 2017 NASHVILLE

Kansas State (2-1) last beat a Southeastern Conference team on the road in the regular season in 1982 at Kentucky.

Jesse Ertz tried to drive the Wildcats to the tying score. But he was tackled short on fourth-and-8 deep in Vanderbilt territory by Oren Burks and

Shurmur drove the Commodores 84 yards using up half of the first quarter to put Vanderbilt up 7-0 with a 2-yard pass to C.J. Duncan.

Ertz answered for Kansas State with a 75-yard drive, and on fourth-and-1, Ertz took the ball wide left and ran 15 untouched for a TD.

Ryan White picked off Ertz's pass soon after at the Wildcats 33, and Vanderbilt needed only four plays before Shurmur scored the clinching TD after having to pick up the ball off the ground after the snap.

VANDERBILT OVERPOWERED BY TOP-RANKED ALABAMA

NASHVILLE -- Alabama coach Nick Saban challenged the top-ranked Crimson Tide to prove they knew how to not only win, but dominate an opponent for a full 60 minutes.

Damien Harris ran for a career-high 151 yards and three touchdowns, Bo Scarbrough added two TDs and top-ranked Alabama routed Vanderbilt 59-0 Saturday in the Southeastern Conference opener for both teams.

Alabama (4-0) now has won 19 straight over the SEC East. Better yet, the Crimson Tide hasn't lost to Vanderbilt since 1984 or in Nashville since 1969. Both streaks were assured at the end of the first quarter with Alabama up 21-0 after the second of Harris' TDs. And the Crimson Tide didn't let up.

Alabama outgained Vanderbilt in total offense 677-78 before running out the clock late for the largest margin in the program's vaunted history. The Crimson Tide also set a school record with 38 first downs, topping the 36 earned Nov. 22, 2014, against Western Carolina.

Vanderbilt (3-1) came in as one of the five remaining undefeated teams in the SEC with the nation's stingiest defense in points, total yards and against the pass. The Commodores had allowed just 13 points combined through three games, yet they proved no match against Alabama's dominating ground game.

SHURMUR'S THREE TOUCHDOWN PASSES NOT ENOUGH IN ROAD LOSS

GAINESVILLE -- Lamical Perine scored three touchdowns, Malik Davis added two and No. 21 Florida beat Vanderbilt 38-24 on Saturday despite losing quarterback Luke Del Rio to a left shoulder injury.

Perine bookended two one-yard plunges around a 13-yard scamper as the Gators remained unbeaten in Southeastern Conference play and defeated the Commodores for the 26th time in the last 27 meetings.

Perine, a cousin of former Oklahoma and current Washington Redskins running back Samaje Perine, finished with 58 yards on 15 carries.

GAINESVILLE

Davis, a freshman, ran 17 times for 124 yards. His final run was huge. On a fourth-down play, Davis broke through the line, stumbled and then regained his footing for a 39-yard score that sealed the victory.

Redshirt freshman Feleipe Franks replaced Del Rio in the second quarter and turned in his most effective performance of the season. Franks completed 10 of 14 passes for 185 yards, including a 49-yarder to Tyrie Cleveland that was nearly as perfect as his last pass in The Swamp.

The Gators (3-1, 3-0 SEC) and Vanderbilt played a tight game for the third consecutive year. That was an improvement for the Commodores (3-2, 0-2) after a 59-0 home loss to top-ranked Alabama a week ago.

HIGH-POWERED GEORGIA ATTACK TOO MUCH FOR COMMODORES

NASHVILLE -- Nick Chubb ran for two touchdowns and 138 yards, and fifth-ranked Georgia routed Vanderbilt 45-14 Saturday despite missing three players from the Bulldogs' stingy defense.

Georgia (6-0, 3-0 Southeastern Conference) continued its best start since 2012 when the Bulldogs reached the SEC championship. The Bulldogs also avenged a 17-16 loss to Vanderbilt last year by beating the Commodores for the 20th time in the past 23 games in this series.

GAME 6
OCT. 7, 2017
NASHVILLE

Georgia ran through and over Vanderbilt, piling up 423 yards. Sony Michel added 150 yards and a TD, while Elijah Holyfield scored his first career TD on a 15-yard run. Georgia set the tone on its opening drive, running all seven plays for 83 yards.

Vanderbilt (3-3, 0-3) lost its third straight to wrap up the toughest four-game stretch in school history against the Commodores' fourth consecutive ranked opponent.

Coach Derek Mason, who oversees the defense, said the Commodores have to fix what ails them: defenders were in the right spots but didn't tackle well.

COMMODORE OFFENSE AWAKENS, BUT VANDERBILT LOSES IN OXFORD

OXFORD, Miss. -- Shea Patterson threw for 351 yards and four touchdowns and Mississippi beat Vanderbilt 57-35 on Saturday.

Ole Miss (3-3, 1-2 Southeastern Conference) snapped its three-game losing streak while Vanderbilt (3-4, 0-4) has now lost four straight.

Vanderbilt led 14-7 in the second quarter after Ralph Webb ran for two touchdowns, but Ole Miss responded with 28 straight points in less than seven minutes. The offensive avalanche was helped by two Vanderbilt turnovers that gave the Rebels excellent field position.

GAME 7

OCT. 14, 2017
OXFORD, Miss.

Ole Miss kept the momentum early in the third quarter, earning a safety after forcing Vanderbilt quarterback Kyle Shurmur to fumble into the end zone. Less than a minute later, Patterson hit Brown for a 29-yard touchdown pass and a 44-21 lead and the game was no longer in doubt.

Brown caught eight passes for 174 yards and two touchdowns. DaMarkus Lodge also caught two touchdown passes.

Shurmur threw for 174 yards, two touchdowns and one interception for the Commodores. Webb ran for 163 yards and two touchdowns.

LATE RALLY COMES UP JUST SHORT AGAINST GAMECOCKS

COLUMBIA, S.C. -- Jake Bentley ran for two touchdowns and threw for another to lead South Carolina to a 34-27 win over Vanderbilt on Saturday that assured the Southeastern Conference's East Division race would go on at least one more week.

Bentley was 19-of-29 for 174 yards and ran six times for 47 yards, including his first scores rushing in his college career for the Gamecocks (6-2, 4-2).

Vanderbilt (3-5, 0-5) had two players ejected for targeting, including linebacker Charles Wright -- the team's sack leader -- on a hit on Bentley just after he released the ball.

GAME 8

OCT. 28, 2017
COLUMBIA, S.C.

"I saw a young man tackle a quarterback," Vanderbilt coach Derek Mason said. "We've got to get that right."

Bentley, who took advantage of open field in front of him for several big runs, said he is used to taking shots. "Anytime a quarterback runs it's like a little minnow with a pool of sharks," the sophomore said.

The Commodores finished with 10 penalties for 100 yards. The final one might have been the most costly. A holding penalty by tight end Sam Dobbs stalled a potential game-tying drive and Kyle Shurmur overthrew Caleb Scott on fourth-and-2 with just over a minute to go.

Shurmur threw for a season-best 333 yards and four touchdowns.

COMMODORES DEFEAT WESTERN KENTUCKY, 31-17

NASHVILLE -- Kyle Shurmur hit Trent Sherfield on a 4-yard scoring pass on Vanderbilt's opening drive and the Commodores never trailed in a 31-17 win over Western Kentucky on Saturday.

Shurmur passed for two touchdowns and the Commodores rushed for two more, including Sherfield's 45-yard run late in the third quarter.

It was the final non-conference game of the season for both teams.

"We wanted to move forward this week," Vanderbilt coach Derek Mason said. "We played extremely hard. It wasn't the prettiest thing early, but we started to move the needle a little bit."

Vanderbilt (4-5) scored 14 points in the first quarter for the third time this season. Their 14-7 lead marked the first time since the Kansas State win Sept. 16 that the Commodores held a lead after the first quarter. Vanderbilt led 21-14 at halftime, their third halftime lead of the season.

Ralph Webb rushed for 104 yards and one touchdown on 23 carries for Vanderbilt. He moved into 11th place all-time in the Southeastern Conference in career rushing with 3,885 yards.

The Vanderbilt defense sacked Western Kentucky quarterback Mike White five times, two on third-down plays. The Commodores finished with a season-high six sacks. The Commodores recorded four sacks in the season-opener with Middle Tennessee State.

WILDCATS USE EXPLOSIVE THIRD QUARTER TO DOWN VANDERBILT

NASHVILLE -- Benny Snell rushed for 116 yards and three touchdowns and Sihiem King added two rushing TDs, leading Kentucky to a 44-21 win at Vanderbilt on Saturday.

Kentucky (7-3, 4-3 SEC) improved its bowl stock while keeping Vanderbilt (4-6, 0-6) winless in the conference standings.

Snell, who entered the game as the SEC's leading rusher, became the ninth player in school history to reach 2,000 career yards. The 5-foot-11, 223-pound sophomore also became the first Kentucky player to rush for consecutive 1,000-yard seasons. Snell also set the school record for career rushing touchdowns (28).

Kentucky's Austin MacGinnis kicked three field goals and the Wildcats rambled for 428 yards in total offense.

Kyle Shurmur threw four interceptions and one

TD, and was sacked five times. He is tied for second with Jay Cutler (21) for most single-season TD passes in Vanderbilt history.

Ralph Webb rushed for 70 yards and one TD for the Commodores. The senior passed Florida's Emmitt Smith in career yards and moved into the top 10 in SEC rushing history.

Kentucky spotted Vanderbilt a 7-0 lead in the first quarter before rallying for 34 consecutive points to take control.

COMMODORES FALL TO MISSOURI IN HOME FINALE

NASHVILLE -- Missouri didn't look like a bowl team back in mid-October, but none of it matters now.

Drew Lock threw three touchdown passes and Missouri won its fifth straight game to become bowl eligible with its sixth victory, a 45-17 rout of Vanderbilt on Saturday night.

The Tigers (6-5, 3-4 SEC) are the second team from the Southeastern Conference to become bowl eligible after a 1-5 start.

GAME 11
Nov. 18, 2017
NASHVILLE

Mississippi was the first, finishing 6-6 after an Independence Bowl loss in 1983.

Missouri is the 13th FBS team and sixth from the Power 5 conference to earn bowl eligibility after losing five of its first six games.

Vanderbilt's Ralph Webb rushed for 55 yards and one TD, making him the ninth player in SEC history to pass the 4,000-career yard milestone.

The Commodores (4-7, 0-7) finally showed some life in the second half, outscoring the Tigers 17-3 in the third quarter.

"Missouri was opportunistic," Commodores coach Derek Mason said. "It came down to that six- or seven-minute stretch in the second quarter. They scored 28 points in the second quarter and they did it in all three phases."

Vanderbilt's Kyle Shurmur threw three interceptions, giving him seven in the last two games, including four in last week's loss to Kentucky.

DORES HAND VOLUNTEERS WORST SERIES LOSS IN KNOXVILLE SINCE 1920

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- Vanderbilt's Ralph Webb ended his career as the sixth-leading rusher in Southeastern Conference history.

He may prefer to be known as the guy who helped change the direction of the Vanderbilt-Tennessee rivalry.

Webb ran for 163 yards and two touchdowns in his final college game Saturday as Vanderbilt whipped Tennessee 42-24 to beat the Volunteers for the fourth time in the last six years. Vanderbilt had gone 1-28 against Tennessee from 1983-2011.

GAME 12
Nov. 25, 2017
NASHVILLE

"It means everything for our seniors," Webb said. "We'd worked so hard. The season didn't go as planned, but we knew we had one more to get and we wanted to get this one, especially here in Knoxville. It's so special."

Kyle Shurmur added four touchdown passes as Vanderbilt (5-7, 1-7 SEC) continued its most successful run in this series since winning six straight over Tennessee from 1920-26.

"Keep them quiet," Vanderbilt linebacker Oren Burks said of Tennessee. "We own the state for another 364 days."

After opening the year in the Top 25, Tennessee (4-8, 0-8) posted its first eight-loss season in school history and fired coach Butch Jones along the way. The Vols also went winless in SEC competition for the first time since the league's formation in 1933.

Nov. 27, 1890
On Thanksgiving, Vanderbilt plays its first game, topping nearby Peabody Normal School. Elliott Jones was coach and captain.

Dec. 7, 1897
After ending the season 6-0 and unscored upon, Vanderbilt agrees to host Virginia for the Southern Championship. The teams play to a classic 0-0 tie in front of 2,500 fans.

Scholars in Uniform
Two top players on the 1903 squad, John J. Tigert and Bob Blake, became Rhodes scholars after their playing days.

The "Point-A-Minute" Commodores
McGugin's first squad in 1904, left, went 9-0, outscoring its opponents by a remarkable 452-4 margin.

Nov. 7, 1891
Vanderbilt and Sewanee, charter members of the Southern Intercollegiate Conference, play their first game. The rivalry, typically reserved for Thanksgiving Day, continues into WWII. Vanderbilt owned a 40-8-4 advantage.

The "Commodores"
In 1897, former QB William Beard first applied the "Commodore" nickname as a staffer at the Nashville Banner.

Sept. 17, 1904
One-time Michigan star and law school grad Dan McGugin arrives as Vanderbilt's coach. By the time he retires, McGugin will become a legend of the sport.

Nov. 7, 1908
Vanderbilt wins its 20th straight versus Southern Conference foes, 16-9 over Tennessee.

Nov. 24, 1906
The famed Carisle Indians fall 4-0 to the Commodores.

The Golden Years

Dan McGugin's Commodores took on all comers, and rarely failed to deliver a victory. Traveling by rail across much of the nation, the program compiled a 124-30 record from 1904-22.

Overpowering Commodores

From 1910 to 1912, McGugin's teams went 24-2-1, and outscored their opponents by a combined 816-35 margin. Above, fans line Curry Field with Model Ts to watch 1910 game.

Playing the Texas State Fair

Before Oklahoma and Texas started the Red River Shootout, it was Vanderbilt vs. Texas at the Texas State Fair in Dallas. Vanderbilt won five of seven games with the Longhorns between 1921 and 1928.

Aug. 10, 1918

One of the greatest and most beloved Dores of all-time, Irby "Rabbit" Curry, gave his life defending America in the skies over France.

Curry was a standout quarterback from 1914-16, a scholar and student leader. As a senior, classmates elected him "Bachelor of Ugliness" — the highest award given to a male Vanderbilt undergrad.

Oct. 14, 1922

McGugin invites powerful Michigan as the Commodores' initial opponent in Dudley Field. The teams play to a 0-0 tie before a huge crowd. The tie was preserved when captain Jess Neely recovered a fumble near in Commodore goal.

McGugin's Assistants

Dan McGugin, middle, is shown in 1922 with new assistant Wallace Wade, far left, an eventual Hall of Famer. The 1922 team captain, Jess Neely, later became a legend.

Nov. 29, 1934

After three decades at the helm of Commodore football, Dan McGugin steps aside to become athletics director. He retired with a remarkable 197-55-19 record. He ranks No. 20 all-time for most wins by a NCAA FBS head coach.

Oct. 23, 1937

Early in the game against No. 6 LSU, tackle Greer Ricketson took the ball cleverly hidden on the ground by the Vanderbilt quarterback and rambled 50 yards for a score. The Dores would win 7-6.

Looking Within to Replace a Legend

McGugin picked one of his best Commodore players, Ray Morrison, as a replacement. Morrison came after a stellar tenure as SMU's coach.

Nov. 22, 1941

In his second year, Sanders returned the Dores to prominence. Their 7-0 win over Alabama on this date gave the team an 8-1 mark.

Sanders' 1941 Staff

Vanderbilt Head Coach Red Sanders, far left, hired excellent assistants. In 1941, his staff included a future legend in Paul "Bear" Bryant, who mentored Commodore linemen in the 1941-42 seasons.

Defense After WWII

Sanders' 1946 squad posted five shutouts, including four against conference foes.

Oct. 16, 1948

After a 20-7 loss at No. 14 Ole Miss, Vanderbilt defeats Kentucky 26-7, starting an eight-game win streak. The Commodores outscored the eight opponents 307-26. By season's end, AP pollsters ranked Red Sanders' squad No. 12 in the nation.

Returning Nalley

Nobody could return a punt like Lee Nalley. From 1947-49, Nalley set numerous NCAA records, including running back five punts for touchdowns.

Oct. 7, 1950

Behind Nashville native and All-SEC quarterback Bill Wade, the Commodores beat No. 12 Alabama 27-22 in Mobile. The team reaches a No. 13 ranking.

Scoreless Ties

Competing on the road in 1958, the Commodores played to 0-0 ties at Alabama and Kentucky, and to a 6-6 draw at Florida.

Oct. 14, 1955

A 12-0 shutout of Chattanooga sparks Vanderbilt run that leads to the team's first bowl appearance. Gator Bowl officials paired the Commodores against No. 8 Auburn after Vanderbilt's 7-3 regular season.

Dec. 31, 1955

Bouyed by five fumble recoveries, the Commodores defeat Auburn 25-13 in the 11th annual Gator Bowl. The offensive attack was led by All-America halfback Charley Horton, at left, and quarterback Don Orr, who scored two touchdowns despite playing with a dislocated elbow.

Nov. 28, 1964

A two-yard rushing touchdown by senior running back Bob Sullins — the first of his career — gives Vanderbilt its margin in a 7-0 victory over Tennessee.

Oct. 26, 1968

Trailing by a touchdown late vs. No. 15 Florida, John Miller hits Jim Cunningham on a 33-yard scoring strike to pull Vanderbilt even in an eventual 14-14 tie.

Sept. 15, 1973

Steve Sloan directs his first game as Vanderbilt's head coach, guiding the Commodores to a victory over Chattanooga.

In 1973

In an early-season practice, assistant Bill Parcells wonders aloud if there's a punter among the team ranks. Tight end Barry Burton raises his hand, wins the job, and becomes an All-American in 1975.

Picture Day, 1974

Mammoth defensive end Dennis Harrison shares a moment with a young Commodore fan.

Oct. 12, 1974

Steve Sloan's Commodores show signs of progress, taking a 24-3 lead en route to 24-10 victory over No. 8 Florida.

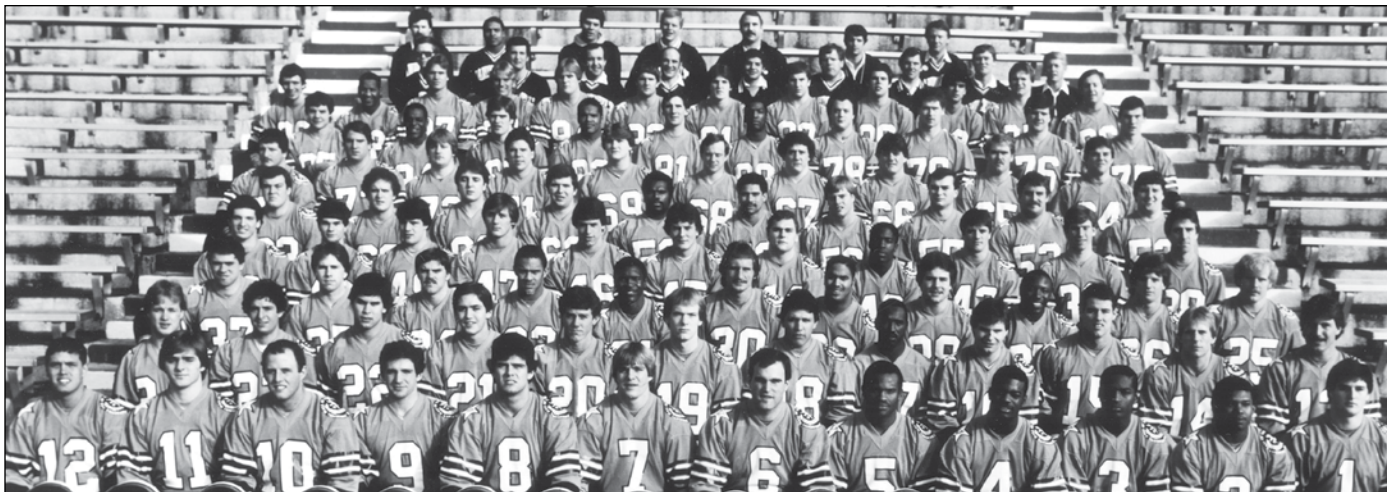

Dec. 28, 1974

Played on a muddy day in Atlanta, the Peach Bowl (above) between Vanderbilt and Texas Tech was ruled by defense, as the Commodores and Red Raiders slugged to a 6-6 tie.

Oct. 11, 1969

Playing with a hurt shoulder, Watson Brown hits Jim Cunningham with a game-winning 10-yard touchdown in Commodores' 14-10 victory over No. 13 Alabama.

ALL-AMERICANS

ZACH CUNNINGHAM

LINEBACKER, 2015-16

Cunningham became one of the most decorated players in Vanderbilt history in 2016, earning unanimous first-team All-America honors after a remarkable season.

Among the outlets that named Cunningham as a first-team All-America linebacker were the Walter Camp Football Foundation, FWAA, Associated Press, AFCA, USA Today, ESPN and SI.com.

The honors came after Cunningham topped the SEC with 125 total tackles, and ranked among league and NCAA leaders in solo tackles, tackles for loss and fumble recoveries.

As a junior in 2015, Cunningham was named as a third-team All-America linebacker by Phil Steele Publications.

After the 2016 season, Cunningham was drafted in the second round 57th overall by the Houston Texans.

JORDAN MATTHEWS

WIDE RECEIVER, 2012-13

Jordan Matthews put together arguably the greatest receiving season ever by a SEC player.

In 2013, Matthews earned first-team All-America honors from USA Today and Athlon. He was also recognized on All-America teams by Associated Press, SI.com and CBS Sports.

In 2013, Matthews set new SEC records with 112 receptions, 262 career catches, and 3,759 receiving yards. Matthews' 1,477 receiving yards in 2013 also broke a team record, as did his career touchdown reception total of 24.

As a junior in 2012, Matthews had 94 catches for 1,323 receiving yards and eight touchdown catches. He earned third-team All-America from CBS Sports and Phil Steele that season.

Upon graduating, Matthews was selected in the second round of the 2014 NFL Draft by Philadelphia where he starts at wide receiver.

CASEY HAYWARD

DEFENSIVE BACK, 2011

Defensive back Casey Hayward capped a remarkable career in 2011 by earning second-team All-America honors from the Walter Camp Football Foundation.

He was also recognized on All-America teams by Rivals.com and Yahoo! Sports.

Hayward, of Perry, Ga., finished his career with 15 interceptions, and shares the team mark with former All-America Leonard Coleman.

As a senior, Hayward contributed seven picks and matched his team record with 17 passes defended, helping the Commodores to an appearance in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl.

A three-year starter, Hayward also holds the Vanderbilt career mark with 46 passes defended.

He was selected by Green Bay in the second round of the 2012 NFL Draft. In 2016, he was a Pro Bowl cornerback for the San Diego Chargers.

D.J. MOORE

DEFENSIVE BACK, 2008

In 2008, Moore became the first cornerback to earn All-America honors in 25 years.

He was named second-team All-America by Associated Press, Sporting News, SI.com and Rivals.com after a sensational junior season.

Moore posted six interceptions and 58 tackles, contributing to the Dores' 7-6 campaign that ended with a win over Boston College at the Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl.

He ended his career tied for second among Commodores with 13 career interceptions.

Moore was the SEC's most versatile player in 2008, also seeing action as a running back, wide receiver and return specialist. In a late-season win at Kentucky, he achieved a truly rare feat with a two-interception, two-touchdown catch effort.

Moore was selected in the fourth round by the Chicago Bears. He enjoyed a four-year NFL career, playing with Chicago, Carolina and Tampa Bay.

EARL BENNETT

WIDE RECEIVER, 2006

Bennett concluded his career as the SEC's all-time leading receiver.

As a sophomore in 2006, the Birmingham product was named third-team All-America by Rivals.com in 2006 after catching 82 passes.

After three years, Bennett left Vandy with 236 career catches, nearly 30 more than any other SEC receiver up to that time. Today, he ranks second all-time in the SEC and at Vanderbilt in career receptions.

In 2007, Bennett caught 75 passes, becoming the only receiver in SEC history to post three straight seasons with at least 75 catches.

Bennett was a three-time All-SEC recipient.

Many fans remember Bennett and Jay Cutler connecting on numerous memorable plays in the 2005 season, including the game-winning touchdown to defeat Tennessee in Knoxville.

Bennett was selected by Chicago in the third round of the 2008 draft. He played five years with the Bears.

JAMIE WINBORN

LINEBACKER, 1999

Winborn was named All-America by Football News following the 1999 season after leading the Dores and the SEC with 141 tackles. It was the second straight year that Winborn led the league in tackles.

A two-time Coaches' All-SEC selection, Winborn was the complete linebacker package in 1999. He was a run-stopper who delivered punishing blows, making plays sideline-to-sideline.

He led the squad with a team-record 23 tackles for loss. Winborn's season included a 20-tackle, two-sack performance versus South Carolina.

Winborn finished his Commodore career with 377 total tackles, 45 tackles for loss, 16.5 quarterback sacks and six forced fumbles. Winborn topped the squad in solo tackles for three consecutive years.

Winborn was selected by the 49ers in the 2001 NFL Draft. He has played with the 49ers, Bucs, Broncos and Titans.

ALL-AMERICANS

JAMIE DUNCAN LINEBACKER, 1997

Duncan was a dominating linebacker and a player who always rose to the occasion.

In 1997, Duncan was named first-team All-America by the Football Writers Association of America. He was also named second-team All-America by the Associated Press and Football News.

In 1997, he became the only Commodore player to earn Associated Press SEC Defensive Player of the Year honors. He also received similar recognition from the Mobile Press Register.

As a junior, Duncan amassed 152 tackles, six sacks, 14 tackles for loss and five forced fumbles. He finished his career with 425 tackles. His effort against No. 1 Florida remains one of the best ever by a Commodore.

Duncan's NFL career included stops at Tampa Bay, St. Louis and Atlanta.

Duncan was named to the Vanderbilt Athletics Hall of Fame in 2013.

BILL MARINANGEL PUNTER, 1996

Marinangel was named first-team All-America by the Sporting News in 1996 after topping the NCAA in punting.

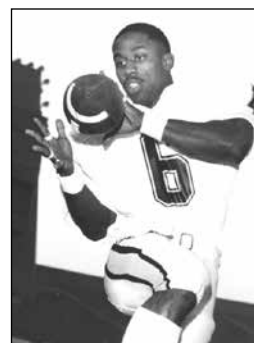

Marinangel is perhaps best remembered for one heroic play in his senior year. In the second game against Alabama, Marinangel surprised the Tide special teams and 72,000 onlookers, as he took the snap from center, and then scampered 81 yards for an unbelievable and unlikely touchdown. The run was the longest in the SEC that season.

Marinangel's 46.6-yard average is the second highest single-season in team history.

BOO MITCHELL WIDE RECEIVER, 1988

Teaming with quarterback Eric Jones, Mitchell hauled in 78 catches for 1,213 yards and five touchdowns. The receiving yardage total remains a Vanderbilt team record and the SEC's seventh highest total ever. He surpassed 100 yards receiving in six games that season.

Mitchell ranks among team leaders in virtually every career receiving category. He ranks second among Commodores - and fifth all-time in the SEC, with 2,964 receiving yards.

CHRIS GAINES LINEBACKER, 1987

A Nashville native, Gaines was selected first-team All-America by the nation's football coaches. In 1987, he established an SEC single-season record for total tackles with 214.

Tennessean columnist Larry Woody once described Gaines as "sort of a Rambo on a leash." An avid weightlifter, Gaines was one of the strongest Commodores of his era.

Gaines also posted one of the greatest efforts ever by a 'Dore as a senior by recording a school-record 37 tackles versus Tulane.

After the season, he was named MVP of the Blue-Gray Game after racking up 18 tackles and was named Tennessee Amateur Athlete of the Year by the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame.

Gaines played two years in the NFL, then returned to Vanderbilt as an assistant football coach from 1995-97.

RICKY ANDERSON PUNTER, 1984

Anderson arrived on campus as a walk-on. Four years later, he departed as the nation's top punter-kicker in the nation and a consensus All-American.

Anderson's senior season was remarkable. As a punter, he topped the nation with a 48.2-yard average. It remains as the highest yearly punting average ever in the SEC by more than a yard. Anderson's 1984 campaign also is tied for seventh all-time in NCAA history. Following the 1984 season, he was named a consensus first-team All-American.

Anderson holds several team kicking marks. Besides the single-season average record, his 82-yard punt against Georgia in 1984 remains the longest in team history.

Anderson's career average of 45.6 yards also ranks first, as does his single-season scoring total of 73 points in 1982. He also ranks third on the team's all-time scoring list with 192 points.

LEONARD COLEMAN DEFENSIVE BACK, 1983

Coleman was named first-team All-America in 1983 by the Gannett News Service and was a third-team All-America selection by the Associated Press.

A consensus All-SEC selection, Coleman left Vanderbilt rated as the nation's No. 1 cornerback by NFL scouts.

Coleman was a four-year starter. As a freshman, he contributed four interceptions, including a team-record tying three picks in a victory over Chattanooga.

Coleman's efforts as a junior was a key for Vanderbilt's Hall of Fame Bowl season in 1982, including a pair of interceptions in the season-opening win over Memphis. He finished the year by setting a team mark with eight INTs.

He remains tied for team record with 15 career interceptions.

Coleman played professionally in the USFL and several seasons in the NFL with the Colts.

CHUCK SCOTT

TIGHT END, 1983

Early in his career, Scott struggled to make an impact at flanker. He just needed to switch positions.

In 1983, Scott blossomed after moving to tight end. Scott hauled in 70 receptions and nine touchdowns to tie the existing NCAA record for catches by a tight end. He was named first-team All-America by The Sporting News.

Scott followed up that season by posting 54 receptions and eight TD catches in 1984.

Scott also contributed 21 receptions in the Commodores' 1982 Hall of Fame Bowl season.

A two-time Academic All-SEC selection, Scott ranks among the team leaders in several career receiving records. His 20 career touchdown receptions remains the second most in school history. Scott also ranks sixth all-time with 145 catches and fifth with 2,219 receiving yards,

JIM ARNOLD

PUNTER, 1982

Arnold became the first Vanderbilt kicking specialist to receive All-America honors, paving the way for several kicking standouts to follow in his footsteps.

A native of Dalton, Ga., Arnold quickly impacted the squad, breaking the freshman mark with a 41.9-yard avg. By the time he graduated, coach George McIntyre said, "Jim's the best kicker in the country, pro or college."

As a senior in 1982, he was named to six All-America teams after averaging a then-record 45.8-yard average.

Arnold ended his career with a 43.9-yard average. Arnold's senior average remains third all-time by a Dore and fifth all-time by a SEC punter. He owns two of the longest punts in team history, including a 79-yarder at Ole Miss.

After Vanderbilt, Arnold took his game to the NFL, enjoying an 11-year pro career.

He was inducted into the Vanderbilt Athletics Hall of Fame in 2009.

ALLAMA MATTHEWS

TIGHT END, 1982

Early in his Vanderbilt career, coaches tried Matthews at safety and receiver. Once all parties settled on tight end, Matthews put together one of the finest receiving campaigns ever, helping spark the team's run to the Hall of Fame Bowl.

In 1982, Matthews was named first-team All-America by Football News after posting 61 receptions for 797 yards and 14 TDs, most ever by a Commodore. Later that season, Matthews was also named SEC Offensive Lineman of the Year by the Atlanta Touchdown Club.

Matthews also earned first-team All-SEC honors by the Associated Press and United Press International in 1982.

He concluded his career with 18 touchdowns.

Matthews was drafted and played three seasons with the Atlanta Falcons.

PRESTON BROWN

BACK, 1979

Brown was named third-team All-America as a senior after posting career receiving marks in 1979. He topped all SEC receivers with 52 catches, good for 786 yards and three TDs.

Brown's season was topped by three 100-yard receiving games, including a 175-yard output versus Ole Miss.

Brown also was a dynamic returner for the Commodores. He remains sixth on team's all-time leaders for kickoff returns and fifth in punt returns. Brown also returned three kickoffs for scores. His 100-yard kickoff return against Ole Miss in 1977 remains the longest in team history.

After finishing his senior season, Brown played in the Blue-Gray Classic and Senior Bowl.

He played three seasons for the New England Patriots and one year each for the New York Jets and Cleveland Browns.

BARRY BURTON

TIGHT END, 1974

As a junior in 1974, the Nashville native helped the Dore to a 7-4 regular season record and berth in the 1974 Peach Bowl.

He was named first-team All-America by Football News. He was also a first-team All-SEC pick.

Burton was a genuine triple-threat. In addition to receiving, he also ran the end-around, and handled punting duties. In 1974, Burton caught 22 passes for 378 yards and three touchdowns; ran 31 times for 307 yards and a score; and punted 54 times for a 40.2-yard average.

As a senior, Burton came back to catch a career-high 31 passes and two touchdowns.

Burton has two of the longest punts in team history: a 79-yarder versus Georgia in 1973 and a 78-yarder versus Kentucky in 1975.

BOB ASHER

OFFENSIVE TACKLE, 1969

Virginia native Asher started every game of his three-year varsity Vanderbilt career, concluding with the Associated Press and NEA naming him to the first-team All-American squad at tackle. Asher was known as an impenetrable pass blocker, regarded by observers as one of the top blocking tackles in school history. He also earned first-team All-SEC and All-South honors as a junior.

Asher later played in the College All-Star Game, the Senior Bowl, the North-South Shrine Game and the Canadian American Bowl.

In 1970, he was drafted by Dallas. One of his Cowboys' teammates was a former Vanderbilt teammate, defensive lineman Pat Toomay. Together, they played key roles in the Cowboy's 1971 squad that eventually won the Super Bowl.

ALL-AMERICANS

CHIP HEALY

LINEBACKER, 1968

A product of Chattanooga, Healy's All-America recognition as a defensive standout set the stage for numerous Commodore linebackers to follow in his footsteps.

In 1968,

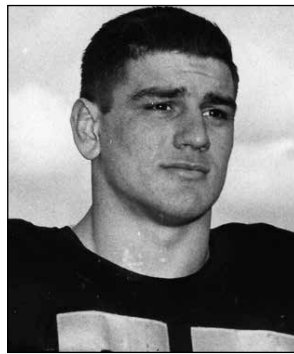

Healy was named first-team All-American by the Central Press and second-team All-American by The Sporting News.

Healy played superb defense as a junior after injuring his knee the previous spring. As a senior, Healy topped the Commodores in total tackles. He registered six interceptions in his career.

Healy played in the East-West Shrine Bowl and Senior Bowl, and was selected by the St. Louis Cardinals in the 1968 draft. He played two seasons in the NFL.

GEORGE DIEDERICH

GUARD, 1958

Known to his teammates as "LuLu", Diederich was a two-way line standout for the Commodores, culminating a Vanderbilt career by earning first-team All-America honors by Associated Press, the nation's coaches, Look Magazine, and the FWAA.

He was also named first-team All-SEC in 1957 and 1958. Diederich played both offensive and defensive guard.

Diederich was also an outstanding track athlete, setting a school record in the high hurdles.

CHARLEY HORTON

RUNNING BACK, 1955

Horton was named third-team All-America by INS after a superb 1955 season in which he established a then-school mark of 12 TDs.

Horton's outstanding play propelled the Dore to an 8-3 season and their first ever bowl game – a 25-13 win over Auburn in the Gator Bowl.

Horton had a knack for getting the Dore on the scoreboard, as he scored the first touchdown in seven of the 10 regular season contests in the 1955 season. Horton was an outstanding returner, and still ranks second all-time with a 14.4-yard punt return average.

Though selected 11th overall by the Rams in the 1956 draft, Horton joined the military.

Horton is a member of the 2015 Vanderbilt Athletics Hall of Fame class.

BILL WADE

QUARTERBACK, 1951

A Nashville legend, Wade was the 1951 SEC Player of the Year and a second-team All-America by the Associated Press.

A Look Magazine coverboy, Wade set virtually every Commodore passing record. As a junior in 1950, Wade threw for 16 TDs, a total not eclipsed by a Vanderbilt quarterback until Whit Taylor threw for 22 TDs in 1982.

Wade is one of the team's most celebrated players. He remains the only Vanderbilt player selected No. 1 overall in the NFL Draft – taken by Los Angeles in 1952. He had a 14-year career with the Rams and Chicago, and led the Bears to the 1963 NFL title, rushing for two TDs in the championship game over the N.Y. Giants.

Wade is a member of the first Vanderbilt Athletics Hall of Fame class inducted in 2008. He died in early 2016 after a long illness.

BOB WERCKLE

TACKLE, 1951

A New Jersey native, Werckle overcame injuries to become one of the team's finest linemen. In 1951, he was named as a second-team All-America by INS and the AP.

By 1949, he was given little chance to succeed after twice breaking a leg in practice. By 1950, the injury jinx was beaten, with Werckle playing more minutes than any teammate. Across the South, Werckle was known for his blocking and tackling abilities.

In 1951, Werckle earned first-team All-SEC recognition after serving as a captain.

Werckle was selected in the NFL Draft by Detroit. Later, he earned with distinction as a Marine Corps officer in Korea.

BUCKY CURTIS

RECEIVER, 1950

One of the team's first downfield receiving threats, Curtis was selected first-team All-American by the Football Writers, INS and Look Magazine in 1950.

He ranked among the nation's best receiving yardage in 1950. As a senior, Curtis led the team to a 7-4 record, and set a SEC mark with 791 receiving yards. He still ranks fifth all-time on the team with 17 TDs.

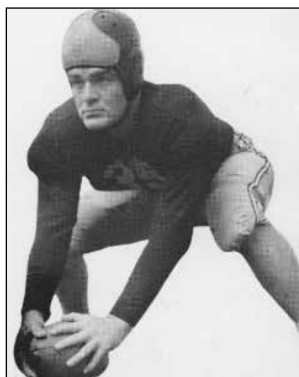

After his senior season, Curtis was named MVP of the Senior Bowl, and played in the College All-Star Game. He was selected in the second round of the NFL Draft by Cleveland.

He went on to serve in the Navy. In 1975, he received the NCAA Silver Anniversary Award.

Curtis was inducted into the 2010 Vanderbilt Athletics Hall of Fame class.

ALL-AMERICANS

BOB GUDE CENTER, 1941

Gude played three years of tremendous football before entering the military service during World War II.

Gude was named to the Fox-Movietone

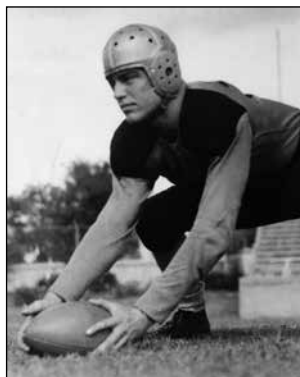

All-America team in 1941.

As a center, Gude was frequently compared to former Commodore greats Carl Hinkle and Pete Gracey.

After his senior season, Gude was selected by Chicago Bears in the 1942 NFL Draft.

Gude played two seasons of pro football, starting with the Bears in 1942, then returning with Philadelphia in 1946.

CARL HINKLE CENTER, 1937

Hinkle continued the Dore tradition of quality centers. The 1937 captain was named first-team All-America by the Associated Press, Grantland Rice and Liberty.

He was an ironman, playing every minute in seven games in 1937. Named the SEC's Most Valuable Player, Hinkle guided the squad within inches of the Rose Bowl.

Though selected by Philadelphia in the 11th round of the 1938 NFL Draft, Hinkle decided on another career path. After graduating, he entered West Point and earned the highest cadet honor. He then served with distinction in WWII.

Hinkle was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1959.

He was inducted into the 2010 Vanderbilt Athletics Hall of Fame class.

PETE GRACEY CENTER, 1932

A native of nearby Franklin, Clarence "Pete" Gracey was an anchor on both the offensive and and defensive fronts.

In 1932, he became the last of 13 All-American players mentored by coach Dan McGugin.

While the last of McGugin's prize pupils, Gracey also ushered in a decade of superb Vandy centers, including Carl Hinkle and Bob Gude.

In Gracey's final season, he opened holes for such backs as Dixie Roberts and Larry Burton as a center. A possible undefeated season ended in the finale when the Dorens fell to Alabama.

A versatile athlete, he also lettered in baseball and basketball.

JOHN BROWN GUARD, 1929

A senior captain, John Neil Brown was named first-team All-America by the nation's coaches. He also was a three-time All-Conference recipient.

Known as "Bull," Brown helped anchor both sides of the line of scrimmage.

Brown was a key contributor on the line for the 1926 Commodores. He missed 1927, only to return as a standout in 1928-29. One of his best defensive games came against University of Minnesota legendary running back Bronko Nagurski.

Brown also was a standout rightfielder on the Vanderbilt baseball team.

DICK ABERNATHY END, 1928

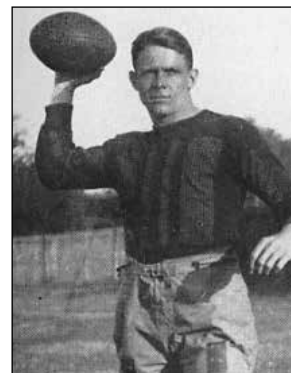

Abernathy earned All-America honors as an end in 1928, helping the Dorens to an 8-2 record.

Abernathy had a key 38-yard touchdown catch that enabled the Commodores to defeat visiting Colgate, 12-7.

A week later in Dallas, Abernathy blocked a punt that was recovered in the end zone which would stand up to be the winning score in the Commodores' 13-12 win over Texas.

BILL SPEARS QUARTERBACK, 1927

One of Vandy's top offensive players ever, Spears was an acclaimed quarterback for some of McGugin's best Vanderbilt teams. In 1927, he was selected first-team All-America by NEA and Associated Press.

In 1927, he guided the squad to an 8-1-2 record, including a win over Tulane when noted writer Blinkey Horn described Spears as "All-World" after a two-touchdown effort.

Spears concluded his career by outgaining the entire Alabama squad in a 14-7 Vanderbilt win.

Spears went on to chair his own law firm. He was a significant contributor to Vanderbilt, serving on the Board of Trust from 1954 until his death in 1992.

ALL-AMERICANS

HENRY WAKEFIELD
END, 1924

Known as "Hek," Wakefield was a two-way standout for McGugin's Commodores.

In 1924, he was named first-team All-America by INS, Lawrence Perry, Outing and Billy Evans publications.

In 1922, Wakefield helped the Dores to a 8-0-1 campaign. He was a starter in the inaugural 0-0 game in Dudley Field against Michigan.

Wakefield starred on teams that went 26-5-4.

As injuries mounted in 1924, Wakefield was named captain. He quickly proved worthy of the honor, scoring twice in a win over Auburn, then defeating Georgia Tech with a 37-yard drop-kick field goal.

LYNN BOMAR
END, 1923

A superb blocker and outstanding runner, Bomar was the first great end of the Dan McGugin Era.

Bomar was named All-America by Walter Camp.

Known to fans as the "Blonde Bear," Bomar helped Vanderbilt to "the Championship of the South."

His athletic career ended in 1924 when he suffered a brain hemorrhage following a blow to the chin. Though temporarily in danger, he fully recovered and enjoyed a distinguished law enforcement career.

He was elected to the College Football Hall of Fame in 1956.

JOSH CODY
TACKLE, 1915-16, 1919

Cody is arguably the most decorated player in Vanderbilt team history.

Known as a punishing blocker, Cody is the only Commodore ever to earn All-America honors in three different seasons. The Football Writers Association honored Cody after the 1915, 1916 and 1919 seasons.

Cody was the main ingredient of a powerful offensive line that propelled Vanderbilt to 23 wins in 25 games. He sparked the McGugin's famous "Point-A-Minute" offense of 1915.

Cody became a successful head coach, serving in that role at Clemson and Temple. Cody was inducted into the Football Hall of Fame in 1970.

"RABBIT" CURRY
BACK, 1916

A legend in team history, Curry was superb on and off the field. Small in stature, Curry's display of talent, heart and leadership was cherished by fans.

Selected as a third-team All-America in 1916, Curry was a field general at QB who displayed a knack for brilliant runs. The Texan guided the team to a 7-1-1 record in 1916 and directed the famous "Point-A-Minute" squad of 1915. He was also elected junior class president and as the school's prestigious Bachelor of Ugliness by the student body.

Curry's life was cut short. Just two years after graduating, Curry died when his plane was shot down over France in WWI.

LEWIS HARDAGE
BACK, 1912

After transferring from Auburn to enter Dental School, Hardage was part of what observers called the Commodores' fastest backfield.

Hardage starred on tremendous squads. As captain in 1911-12, he helped Vanderbilt go 16-2-1 overall, and outscore their opponents 578-27.

Hardage earned third-team All-America and All-Southern Conference recognition as a senior.

Hardage dominated several games in 1912, scoring 95 points for the squad that topped the nation in points.

He also was a chief factor in a pair of early season blowouts, 105-0 over Bethel and 100-0 against Maryville.

RAY MORRISON
QUARTERBACK, 1911

When Morrison ended his career in 1911, McGugin called him "the best I ever saw."

More than two decades later, a panel of writers tabbed Morrison as VU's top QB through its first 50 years.

An All-America in 1911, Morrison was a talented player and leader. In his two years, the team went 16-1-1.

He later became a great coach, serving 34 seasons at the collegiate level. While McGugin served in the military during 1918, he was the team's interim coach. When McGugin retired in 1934, Morrison was his handpicked successor.

He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1954.

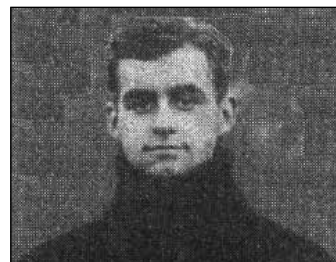

W.E. METZGER
GUARD, 1910

Metzger was Dan McGugin's first great lineman, earning third-team All-America recognition in 1910.

In 1909, Metzger was a sensation in the backfield, rushing for fourscores to singlehandedly beat Mercer 28-0, before suffering a leg fracture.

In 1910, he moved to the line, anchoring a unit that helped produce an 8-0-1 record. On defense, he assisted a unit that allowed only eight points.

Metzger shared the spotlight with QB Ray Morrison in 1911. He played brilliantly, helping the Commodores to an 8-1 record.

OWSLEY MANIER
BACK, 1906

Joining the team in Dan McGugin's first year on campus, Manier was a three-year starter and a big reason why Vanderbilt became an instant Southern power under McGugin.

As the team's fullback, Manier was named All-America in 1906, becoming the first Commodore so honored.

He was an offensive machine for McGugin's squad, scoring three times against Kentucky and on five occasions in 78-0 victory over Alabama.

Manier was a key factor in the Commodores' 24-1 overall record.

Eventually, Manier returned to academia, and became professor emeritus of clinical medicine at the Vanderbilt School of Medicine.

12/31/1955 • Gator Bowl, Jacksonville, Fla.

VANDERBILT 25 AUBURN 13

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. – Still hurting from a dislocated elbow suffered in the Tennessee game, quarterback Don Orr scored two touchdowns and set up another as the Commodores defeated No. 8-ranked Auburn in the 11th Gator Bowl 25-13.

The Vanderbilt defense provided a huge lift for the Commodores, recovering five fumbles in the victory.

Vanderbilt's first score was set up when Orr recovered an Auburn fumble. Eight plays later, Joe Stephenson ran seven yards for the VU touchdown.

Auburn answered on a 38-yard TD pass from Howell Tubbs to Rob James in the second quarter, but the rest of the game belonged to the Black and Gold. On Vanderbilt's following possession, Orr carried the ball 44 yards to the Tigers' 28. He then passed to Joe Scales, who advanced to the Auburn 4-yard line. On the next play, Orr carried the ball over the line after a fake to fullback Phil King to give Vanderbilt a 13-7 lead at the half.

At the opening of the third quarter, Vanderbilt guard Sonny Tatum recovered an Auburn fumble, and the Commodores marched quickly into scoring position as Orr crossed the goal line for his second touchdown of the day to make the score 19-7. Both teams scored once more in the fourth quarter. Vanderbilt's score came on a one-yard run off right tackle by Charley Horton.

Vanderbilt coach Art Guepe cleared his bench in the final minutes, using 38 of the 39 men dressed for the game. Capitalizing on Auburn's five fumbles and using an ailing quarterback, the Commodores captured its first bowl appearance.

1974 PEACH BOWL

12/28/1974 • Fulton Co. Stadium, Atlanta, Ga.

TEXAS TECH 6 VANDERBILT 6

ATLANTA, Ga. – The 1974 Peach Bowl was a game with no champion but two winners, the Commodores and Texas Tech Red Raiders.

Despite the effective rushing of Red Raider tailback Larry Isaac and fullback Cliff Hoskins, the Commodore defense held Texas Tech without points in the first half and entered halftime with a 3-0 lead after Mark Adams kicked a 31-yard field goal with 10 minutes remaining.

Neither team was able to muster much offense in the third quarter, though Texas Tech did tie the score at 3-3 after a drive stalled at the Vanderbilt 16-yard line.

Early in the fourth quarter, the Commodores' freshman lineman Dennis Harrison stopped a deep Texas Tech threat by blocking a Red Raider field goal attempt. The Tech drive started following one of two Vanderbilt turnovers during the game.

After the blocked field goal, the Commodores responded with a possession that ended with Adams' second field goal of the day, a 26-yarder that resulted in a 6-3 Vanderbilt margin. However, Texas Tech tied the game at the 2:00 mark on a 35-yard field goal by Brian Hall. On its final drive, Vanderbilt could not move into scoring range.

The Commodore offense struggled much of the day, with quarterback David Lee hitting just five of 14 attempts. Running back Jamie O'Rourke had 76 rushing yards.

The limited offensive production from both teams resulted in numerous defensive and scoring records being set in the game.

Within hours of the conclusion, Vanderbilt Head Coach Steve Sloan announced he was leaving his position to accept the head coaching job at Texas Tech.

1982 HALL OF FAME BOWL

12/31/1982 • Legion Field, Birmingham, Ala.

VANDERBILT 28 AIR FORCE 36

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. – Without question, the Hall of Fame Bowl was one of college football's most exciting 1982 postseason games.

The game matched one of the nation's most potent aerial attacks featuring Vanderbilt All-SEC quarterback Whit Taylor and one of America's most devastating rushing attacks in the Falcons' vaunted option attack.

Offensively, this game lived up to the hype as 33 Hall of Fame records were broken and another eight were tied in Legion Field. Unfortunately for Vanderbilt, Air Force walked away the winner 36-28 after a remarkable comeback.

For three quarters, Whit Taylor was unstoppable. Connecting with a variety of wide receivers and running backs, Taylor's fourth touchdown pass of the game, a four-yarder to Norman Jordan, gave the Commodores a 28-17 margin entering the fourth quarter. Down by double digits, the Air Force Academy scored rushing touchdowns on three consecutive possessions to take the victory.

Taylor was named the Most Valuable Player, after completing a team-record 38 passes of 51 attempts for 452 yards, which remains as the second highest single-game passing yardage total in Vanderbilt history. Jordan's performance arguably was more remarkable. Though rushing for just four yards, Jordan hauled in 20 receptions for 173 yards and three TDs, breaking five Hall of Fame Bowl records.

2008 MUSIC CITY BOWL

12/31/2008 • LP Field, Nashville, Tenn.

BOSTON COLLEGE 14 VANDERBILT 16

NASHVILLE – Vanderbilt won a bowl game for the first time in 53 years, with Bryant Hahnfeldt kicking a 45-yard field goal with 3:26 left for a 16-14 win over #24 Boston College in the Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl held on New Year's Eve in LP Field.

The Commodores hadn't played in a bowl since 1982 – the SEC's longest drought. The victory gave Vanderbilt (7-6) its first winning season since that season. This is just the fourth time in the past 50 years that Vanderbilt has won seven games in a season.

The Eagles got the ball twice after Hahnfeldt's third field goal. They had to punt the first time, then Vanderbilt DB Myron Lewis picked off a pass with 1:36 left.

Vanderbilt scored its lone touchdown when freshman safety Sean Richardson fell on a Commodore punt that bounced off the knee of BC's Paul Anderson with 10:35 left in the third quarter.

The Commodores played musical chairs at quarterback, giving redshirt freshman Larry Smith his first career start.

Hahnfeldt, a Nashville product playing his final game as a Commodore, matched a single-game career high with the three field goals. The Commodores also forced two interceptions while allowing none.

MEMPHIS – Isaiah Pead ran for 149 yards and a touchdown, and Ralph David Abernathy IV's 90-yard kickoff return put Cincinnati ahead to stay as the Bearcats edged Vanderbilt 31-24 in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl.

But the 10-3 co-Big East champion Bearcats (10-3) had to work to put away Vanderbilt (6-7), a team that tied for fourth in the SEC's East Division. The Commodores led 21-17 early in the fourth quarter until Abernathy became the first Cincinnati player to return a kickoff for a TD in the program's 13 bowl appearances.

The Commodores, making their fifth bowl appearance and first since 2008, finished the season with a 6-7 record.

Senior quarterback Larry Smith replaced Vanderbilt starter Jordan Rodgers in the third quarter, and he threw for a season-high 142 yards. Smith's biggest completion was a 68-yard scoring toss to Chris Boyd that gave the Commodores for a 21-17 lead early in the fourth quarter. Vanderbilt lost the lead on the ensuing kickoff.

NC STATE 24 VANDERBILT 38

NASHVILLE – Vanderbilt is winning like the Commodores haven't in nearly a century. After capturing the Franklin American Mortgage Music City Bowl, Head Coach James Franklin says everyone better get used to it.

Jordan Rodgers threw two touchdown passes and ran for another score as the Commodores capped their best season since 1915 by defeating NC State 38-24 in Nashville's LP Field.

"We're not going anywhere," Franklin said. The Commodores finished 9-4 for their best record since going 9-1 in 1915. It marks only the third time the smallest and only private university in the SEC has won as many as nine games in a season.

Vandy closed the season with seven straight wins for its longest streak since an eight-game run in 1948.

Senior Zac Stacy earned the bowl's MVP honors with 108 rushing yards and one touchdowns.

VANDERBILT 41

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. – Patton Robinette threw two 50-yard touchdown passes to MVP Jordan Matthews, leading Vanderbilt to a 41-24 victory over Houston in the BBVA Compass Bowl.

Robinette, starting after senior Austyn Carta-Samuels had season-ending surgery to repair a torn ACL in his left knee, also had an 8-yard scoring run as Vanderbilt built a 24-0 lead in the first half.

After Houston pulled even by scoring 24 points in the third quarter, Vanderbilt reclaimed the lead on Brian Kimbrow's 21-yard touchdown run. It was the start of 17 fourth-quarter points for the Commodores.

"The thing that's probably the most exciting to me is there is a culture of winning at Vanderbilt," Coach James Franklin said. "These guys know how to win."

Vanderbilt (9-4) closed the season with five straight wins. The 'Dores played in three straight bowl games under Franklin -- a first for the program -- and completed their first back-to-back nine-win seasons.

2016 INDEPENDENCE BOWL

12/26/2016 • Shreveport, La., Independence Stadium

NC STATE 41
VANDERBILT 17

SHREVEPORT, La. – Jaylen Samuels caught three touchdown passes from Ryan Finley, Nyheim Hines returned a kickoff for a 100-yard touchdown and NC State beat Vanderbilt 41-17 in the Camping World Independence Bowl.

NC State (7-6) won three of its final four games to finish with a winning record. The Wolfpack built a 28-3 lead by midway through the third quarter -- largely thanks to Samuels' touchdown catches of 9, 55 and 17 yards -- and then held off a brief Vanderbilt rally.

Samuels' three touchdowns were an Independence Bowl record. Finley, who completed 19 of 30 passes for 235 yards, hit Samuels six times for 104 yards.

Vanderbilt (6-7) had a lot of momentum going into the game thanks to surprising wins over Mississippi and Tennessee to end the regular season. But the Commodores' offense -- which scored a combined 83 points against the Rebels and Volunteers -- struggled for most of the night.

"We looked a little rusty," Vanderbilt coach Derek Mason said. "All the way around -- special teams, offense and defense. We just didn't look like the Vanderbilt team that came out of the regular season."

HONORS, RECOGNITION

SEC ACADEMIC HONOR ROLL

In 1984, the SEC developed the Academic Honor Roll. It was adopted to recognize those athletes who had a 3.0 GPA (cumulative or during the past year) and earned a letter during the current season.

Vanderbilt, founded in 1873 by a $1 million gift from Commodore Cornelius Vanderbilt, is one of the nation's leading institutions of higher learning, a mid-size, private comprehensive research university that emphasizes undergraduate learning and living experiences.

Members of the 2018-19 undergraduate student body, including the student-athlete population, are outstanding academic achievers and active participants in the campus' many organizations and activities. They also compose the most diverse enrollment ever as Vanderbilt continues to attract students from many ethnic, cultural, socio-economic, geographic and religious backgrounds.

Since its inception, the university has taken great pride in the quality of education – and quality of life – its students enjoy. Each of the four undergraduate colleges – College of Arts and Science, School of Engineering, Blair School of Music and Peabody College – attracts students with varying goals and dreams.

At Vanderbilt, professors know their students' names and take an interest in students' ideas. Recognized globally for their research and scholarship prowess, faculty members believe in the importance of balancing professional pursuits with classroom instruction, and they value their relationships with students. Some of the world's leading scholars teach at Vanderbilt, helping students develop an academic program that meets individual objectives, and they encourage students to enhance primary areas of study by choosing among hundreds of

CAMPUS FACTS

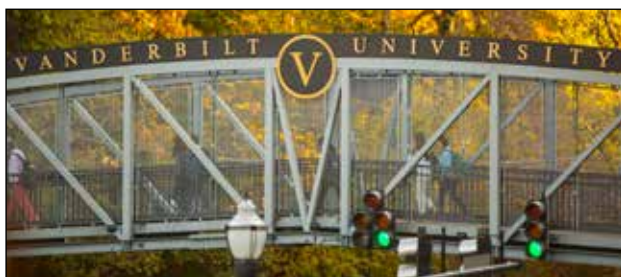

- Undergraduate enrollment - 6,885
- Graduate enrollment - 5,707
- Full-time faculty - 4,261
- University employees - 9,162
- 330-acre scenic campus located just west of downtown Nashville
- Campus includes 38 resident halls
- More than 139,000 living alumni elective courses, course-related internships, off-campus study and accelerated degree programs.

Through the Honor Code, student-directed service opportunities and campus programs, undergrads also consider moral and ethical issues and put the many facets of their lives into a personal framework of values.

At Vanderbilt, the big material resources are in place: beautiful grounds and buildings, well-equipped classrooms and labs, modern options for housing, and ample athletic and recreational facilities. Off campus, undergrads have all the urban conveniences offered by one of America's most vibrant cities, the Tennessee capital city of Nashville.

Though located within walking distance of downtown activities, the quality of Vanderbilt life is reflected in much smaller, less public ways – attending a Commodore sporting event, researching papers, running into friends while walking on campus, or grabbing a late-night snack.

VANDERBILT UNIVERSITY

Crews are nearing the completion of the E. Bronson Ingram College, Vanderbilt's newest residential hall for on-campus student housing.

BRONSON INGRAM COLLEGE ADDS TO LIVING EXPERIENCES

Three years after opening the beautiful Warren and Moore residential college halls, the University's national reputation of providing students with a remarkable on-campus living experience will be enhanced when the E. Bronson Ingram College complex opens later this year.

The E. Bronson Ingram College, now under construction on the central campus, is the third major living-learning initiative by Vanderbilt in recent years, following the Ingram Commons and the Warren and Moore College Halls. The Ingram Commons, located on Vanderbilt's Peabody campus, serves as home to all first-year students. The Warren and Moore college hall, located on the main campus across from historic Kirkland Hall, accommodates 700 upper-class students. The E. Bronson Ingram College will house 350 students, faculty advisors and graduate students.

Construction also has begun on a series of state-of-the-art residential halls on West End to replace Carmichael Towers.

Warren and Moore college halls opened in 2015 to rave reviews. It is located just across from Kirkland Hall on the main campus.

CHANCELLOR ZEPPOS

Vanderbilt Chancellor Nicholas S. Zeppos is a proud supporter of the Commodores and is deeply committed to the continued success of Vanderbilt University student athletes and its athletic program.

Zeppos has taken a keen interest in athletics at Vanderbilt throughout his tenure at the university, which spans more than three decades. "I don't call the plays or throw the passes," Zeppos said. "I'm here simply trying to do whatever I can to support all of the talented people who do these things."

In the spring of 2016, Zeppos displayed that support yet again during the hiring of two of the nation's most dynamic and sought after basketball coaches, Bryce Drew and Stephanie White, to lead the Commodores' men's and women's respective basketball programs.

Prior to that, he worked hand-in-hand with Vice Chancellor for University Affairs and Athletics Director David Williams II to lure Derek Mason away from Stanford University to lead the Vanderbilt football program. That effort is yielding big dividends on West End, as Mason enters his fourth straight season seeking even more victories.

Zeppos also helped lead an athletics capital improvement plan that has surpassed $60 million, orchestrating efforts to improve the student experience for athletes and assist with recruiting.

Zeppos previously served as president of the Southeastern Conference from 2014-2015, where he led the establishment of the SEC Academic Conference and played a key role in the extensive SEC commissioner search, which resulted in the appointment of Greg Sankey as league commissioner. He continues to be an important voice within the SEC where his legal expertise and commitment to fairness, student-athlete welfare, and diversity have been on display for more than a decade.

Zeppos was named Vanderbilt University's eighth chancellor on March 1, 2008. A distinguished legal scholar, teacher and executive, he served from 2002 to 2008 as Vanderbilt's chief academic officer, overseeing the university's undergraduate, graduate and professional education programs as well as research efforts in liberal arts and sciences, engineering, music, education, business, law and divinity. As provost and vice chancellor, he chaired Vanderbilt's budgeting and capital planning council and led all fundraising and alumni relations efforts across the institution, in addition to overseeing the dean of students and dean of admissions.

Zeppos has led a number of important initiatives at Vanderbilt, including the planning processes for The Martha Rivers Ingram Commons, a landmark transformation of the first-year experience; Warren and Moore colleges for upperclassmen; and E. Bronson Ingram College, the next phase of the university's unique living-learning residential college system. In early 2016, Zeppos was honored by Insight Into Diversity magazine for his commitment to diversity and inclusion with its national Giving Back award.

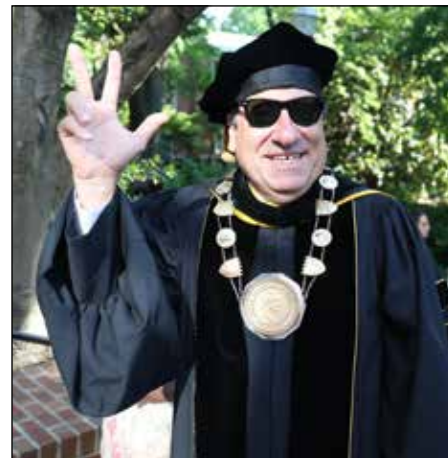

In a bold move to strengthen Vanderbilt's commitment to admitting undergraduates on the basis of accomplishment and achievement, rather than their ability to pay, Zeppos created an expanded financial aid program in 2009. By replacing undergraduate need-based loans with grant and scholarship assistance, this transformative initiative allowed Vanderbilt to open its doors to highly talented and qualified students of all economic, cultural and geographical backgrounds.

The expanded aid program is a top university priority and is funded by a combination of strategic budget allocations and gifts from thousands of generous donors to Opportunity Vanderbilt, a campaign to increase undergraduate scholarship endowment.

Zeppos joined the Vanderbilt community in 1987 as an assistant professor in the Law School, where he has been recognized with five teaching awards. He subsequently served as an associate dean, then as associate provost before being named provost and vice chancellor for academic affairs in 2002. He served as interim chancellor of the university from August 1, 2007, until March 1, 2008, when he was appointed chancellor.

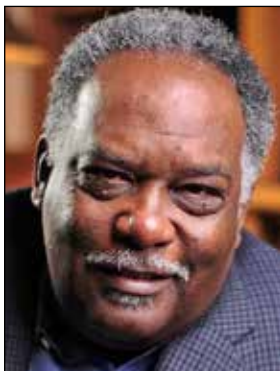

The Chancellor is a member of the Knight Commission on Intercollegiate Athletics and serves on a number of institutions' Board of Directors: Association of American Universities, Foundation for Educational Exchange Between Canada and the United States of America (Fulbright Canada), Mary Parrish Center, Conexión Américas, and Vanderbilt University Medical Center. He also recently served as president of the Southeastern Conference and co-chair of the United States Senate-appointed Task Force on Government Regulation of Higher Education.

He is married to Lydia A. Howarth, an accomplished editor. They have two sons, Benjamin and Nicholas.

The chancellor addresses Vanderbilt student-athletes and their families in May at Alternative Graduation, a ceremony for athletes missing commencement due to competition.

A.D. DAVID WILLIAMS II

Vanderbilt Director of Athletics David Williams II ranks among the university's most prominent leaders.

Aside from his role in McGugin Center, Williams is Vice-Chancellor for University Affairs and Athletics as well as a tenured professor at the University's nationally ranked law school. He continues to teach at the Law School where he conducts courses on Taxation and Education as well as Sports Law. He is also an active participant in the SEC and NCAA in matters of negotiations, reforms, enforcements and planning. Williams is a frequent speaker on collegiate athletics, including recent appearances at Harvard and Pennsylvania law schools and as keynote speaker at the Black Male Student Athlete Summit.

Since adding athletics to his multiple titles and responsibilities in 2002, Vanderbilt has seen its athletic department and individual programs recognized as being among the nation's most innovative and successful. Once again, the 2017-18 academic year marked another remarkable campaign under Williams' leadership.

Seven Vanderbilt teams reached NCAA postseason competition, including an NCAA Championship by the Commodores' bowling team, the fourth national title in Vanderbilt athletics history. Vanderbilt women's tennis, winners of the 2015 NCAA Championship, also took home the SEC regular season and tournament championships for the second straight season and finished the year as NCAA runner-up. Vanderbilt baseball reached the NCAA tournament for the 13th straight season – the longest active streak in the SEC – and reached an NCAA Super Regional for the seventh time in nine years. The Commodore soccer, men's golf and women's golf teams also advanced to NCAA postseason play. Vanderbilt women's tennis coach Geoff Macdonald earned SEC Coach of the Year honors for the fifth time in his career, while Commodores' men's golf senior Theo Humphrey was named SEC Player of the Year.

In the most recent Academic Progress Rate scores released by the NCAA, 11 Vanderbilt teams received perfect 1000 APR scores: baseball, men's basketball, men's golf, men's tennis, women's basketball, women's cross country, bowling, women's golf, lacrosse, soccer and women's track & field. Moreover, seven Commodore squads earned the prestigious Public Recognition Award, which honors programs ranking in the top 10 percent nationally in multiyear APR scores in each sport.

In 2016, Williams again demonstrated his hiring prowess. Williams orchestrated two successful searches resulting in the hiring of two of the nation's top basketball coaches, Bryce Drew and Stephanie White, to led the respective Vanderbilt men's and women's programs.

Drew and White join a growing list of highly regarded head coaches hired by Williams, including head football coach Derek Mason in 2013. The next year, Williams attracted Darren Ambrose from the University of Pennsylvania to direct the women's soccer program. In 2012, Williams directed the search for men's golf coach Scott Limbaugh, who has since led the team in three straight NCAA Final Eight appearances and just earned men's golf National Coach of the Year recognition. In addition, Williams has hired Greg Allen (women's golf coach), Ian Duvenhage (men's tennis coach) and Steven Keith (cross country/track coach), all who have taken their teams to NCAA postseason. Allen and Keith also have guided their teams to SEC team titles. Williams has also retained top coaches and staffs by orchestrating extensions for Mason, baseball coach Tim Corbin, women's tennis coach Geoff MacDonald and women's bowling coach John Williamson.

Williams has addressed numerous facility upgrades, including a state-of-the-art training center which opened February 2016 in McGugin Center. The new training center provides top-notch medical care for Vanderbilt student-athletes. Crews recently finished replacing the football practice field, on the John Rich Practice Facility, with highly sought after Shaw Sports synthetic turf. Ground was broken immediately after this past baseball season for a new expansion of our wonderful baseball complex, Hawkins Field. Other improvements in recent years include refurbishing of Vanderbilt Stadium and its football locker rooms, an addition of new tennis courts and amenities at Brownlee O. Currey Tennis Center, renovations in Memorial Gym and McGugin Center, a new multipurpose facility for athletic and general university use, a new four-lane bowling center and a clubhouse with hitting bays for our men's and women's golf programs.

An initiative to allow more overseas travel and study abroad for Vanderbilt student-athletes also has become reality during Williams' tenure. In 2013, 15 athletes ventured to Tanzania during the summer for a service trip to bring shoes to underprivileged communities in Africa in conjunction with Soles4Souls. The partnership continued in 2014 with another community service effort to Costa Rica. In 2015, Williams led the summer service trip to Cuba, and this past summer a group of Commodores ventured to Jamaica on a service trip in partnership with Soles4Souls.

More students within Vanderbilt's athletic community were able to study abroad, including current football players Josh Smith, LaDarius Wiley, Jared Southers, Andre Mintze and Jaire George. In 2016, the Athletic Department began a newly created Internship Program for student-athletes matching them with employers who provide real life training for life after college. The program continued in 2017 and has received rave reviews from the student athletes, the employers, the NCAA as well as other colleges and universities.

In association with Vanderbilt Athletics, Williams has served as a member of the SEC team that negotiated past ESPN and CBS television partner contracts. Williams also served as Chair of the NCAA Infraction Appeals Committee and was a member of the NCAA Enforcement Working Group.

Williams came to Vanderbilt in 2000 to serve as Vice Chancellor, General Counsel and University Secretary, after a 14-year tenure at The Ohio State University, where he served in numerous administrative roles including Vice Provost for Minority Affairs, Vice President of Student and Urban/Community Affairs and Professor of Law.

A native of Detroit, Williams received a Bachelor of Science in Social Sciences and Master of Arts in Education from Northern Michigan University, where he was a member of the university track team and has been selected as a distinguished alumni. He also earned a Master of Business Administration (MBA) and a Doctor of Jurisprudence (JD) from the University of Detroit, where Williams presently serves on the University's Board of Trust. Williams also earned an LL.M., in Taxation from New York University. Before entering law school, Williams spent 10 years as a teacher and coach in the Detroit public school system.

Williams has taught at the law schools of the University of Detroit, Capital University, Ohio State and Vanderbilt. He also twice directed The Ohio State University's Law program in Oxford, England. Williams was elected outstanding law professor at both the University of Detroit and at The Ohio State University.

Williams is active in the greater Nashville area community, serving as a board member with several organizations. He serves on the boards of the Middle Tennessee Community Foundation, the Nashville Sports Council, the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame and the Nashville Public Education Foundation. Williams served two terms on former Nashville Mayor Karl Dean's Procurement Standards Board and two terms as a Nashville branch member on the Atlanta Federal Reserve Board. He also served as chair of the Nashville United Way Board and treasurer and board member for the Nashville Symphony.

In December 2017, Williams was selected by the Tennessee Tribune as Tennessean of the Year.

Williams and his wife, Gail met in law school and have four children: Erika, a grade school teacher in Detroit and graduate of Eastern Michigan; David III, a high school counselor in Detroit, two-time graduate of Bowling Green (Ohio) State and doctorate recipient from Michigan State; Samantha (Sam), a graduate of Brown University and Vanderbilt Law School who has practiced corporate law in Houston; and Nicholas (Nick), a graduate of and former student-athlete at High Point (N.C.) University who recently earned his master's degree from Vanderbilt's Peabody College of Education. Sam and Nick both attended high school in Nashville where Sam was an All-State swimmer at Harpeth Hall and Nick was an All-State athlete in soccer and track and a four-year basketball member at the University School of Nashville.

Gail is a graduate of the University of Michigan and the University of Detroit Law School. She serves as Associate Director of Community Relations for Vanderbilt and is past president and former board member of the University School of Nashville Board of Trustees. In addition, she is Board Chair of the Metro Transit Authority. Gail also serves on the boards of many non-profit organizations including the Frist Center, the Women's Fund Advisory Board, the Tennessee Performance Arts Center and the Baptist Healing Trust. She was also recently re-elected President of the Nashville Chapter of The Links, Inc.

KEY PRESEASON DATES

TEAM REPORTS Aug. 2
FIRST PRACTICE Aug. 3
DORE JAM (Fan Day) Aug. 4 (4-6 pm CT)
FIRST DAY IN FULL GEAR Aug. 7

REGULAR SEASON SCHEDULE

The Commodores will have no availability on Sundays and Mondays.

Each Tuesday, starting at 12:15 pm CT, VU hosts an on-campus press conference with Coach Mason and select players.

After Wednesday practices, select players and coaches will be available starting at about 8:45 am CT. Coach Mason's segment of SEC Head Coaches Teleconference starts Wednesday, Aug. 29, at 10:30 am.

PRESEASON COVERAGE

The first week of preseason camp will be open to local media outlets. The Does will conduct morning practices. Practices typically conclude about 9 a.m.

ONLINE CREDENTIALING

Use the following online resource to request credentials to Vanderbilt home games:

<https://clients.sportssystem.com/clients/seccredentials/>

All applications will be notified of their status at least one week before gameday. Approvals will not be granted without acceptance of SEC credential and media policies.

When possible, credentials will be mailed one week in advance. However, credentials can be picked up on Fridays before games at the Vanderbilt Communications office in McGugin Center (2601 Jess Neely Dr.). On gamedays, Media Will Call is located at Gate 1 (stadium gate closest to Marriott & Wendy's).

GAMEDAY MEDIA PARKING

If authorized, media parking is located in Kensington Garage next to Memorial Gym. Please access the garage entrance off 25th Avenue South. All media representatives must have a proper credential to access parking garage.

PRESS BOX, FIELD ACCESS

Media must wear "MEDIA" or "PHOTO" credentials to gain access to the press box. The field elevator is located near Gate 1. Seating charts will be posted.

Field access is restricted to working photojournalists from kickoff until 5:00 is left. All photographers must wear a "PHOTO" armband.

PRESS BOX WIRELESS ACCESS

The press box is equipped with wireless internet access for the working press. Visiting photographers should plan to transmit from the press box.

TV production crews should order phone lines in advance. To order, call (615) 343-2012.

MASON'S POSTGAME REMARKS

Coach Mason's post-game press conference is held after he addresses the team.

Only properly credentialed media will be allowed into the conference.

Writers can access the field level for the final 5:00 of the fourth quarter. The best option for Dudley Field access is the Press Box northside elevator.

The location in Vanderbilt Stadium for postgame press conferences is next to the Commodore locker room. Access to the conference room is available in the south end zone field tunnel. The visiting conference room is just across from VU's post-game facility.

VANDERBILT PLAYER POSTGAME AVAILABILITY

The Vanderbilt Locker Room is closed. Select student-athletes will be made available for post-game interviews. These interviews will be conducted in the same room as Coach Mason's remarks. The players will enter when Mason concludes.

The visiting team interview room can also be accessed from the south end zone tunnel. It is directly across from Vanderbilt's interview room.

V RADIO NETWORK, POLICIES

FISHER ANCHORS RADIO NETWORK

Joe Fisher, Norman Jordan and Mitch Light provide concise and insightful Commodore coverage on the Vanderbilt Radio Network.

A Nashville native, Fisher enters his 21st season as the team's play-by-play announcer. He handles similar duties for Vanderbilt men's basketball and baseball. Fisher also serves as Vanderbilt Athletics' Director of Broadcasting.

Prior to joining Vanderbilt, Fisher was a television sports anchor in the Nashville market from 1987-96, with stints at WSMV-4 and WKRN-2. He also worked in public relations.

Jordan, a former Vanderbilt standout running back who helped the Commodores to a 1982 Hall of Fame Bowl appearance, returns for his fourth year at analyst. He works as a stock broker in Nashville.

Light enters his sixth season providing sideline commentary. Light is a Vanderbilt graduate and editor of Athlon sports publications.

The Vanderbilt Radio Network features the widely heard evening signal of NewsRadio 1510 WLAC.

This year, the network also includes radio stations in two of the state's largest cities, Memphis and Chattanooga.

It marks the sixth year that NewsRadio 1510 WLAC serves as flagship for the VU radio network.

NewsRadio 1510 WLAC features a nightly signal can be heard across more than 30 states on the AM dial.

Mason's weekly call-in show hosted by Joe Fisher is heard Wednesdays at 7 p.m. CT on 1510 WLAC.

MASON'S MEDIA OPPORTUNITIES

• WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCE ON TUESDAYS

Coach Mason meets with local media each Tuesday of game week, starting at 12:15 p.m. CT. It will be held in the team's Press Conference Room in Vanderbilt Stadium. Select student-athletes are available following Mason.

• SEC HEAD COACHES TELECONFERENCE

Each Wednesday of the season, Mason is available to out-of-town media via the SEC Coaches' Teleconference at 10:30 a.m., CT. Call 205-458-3010 for info.

GAME WEEK INTERVIEW POLICIES

All interview requests for Coach Mason, assistant coaches and players must go through the VU Communications staff.

For the third straight year, the Commodores will stage morning practices. Starting in preseason camp and through the season, offensive coordinator Andy Ludwig will be available at the conclusion of each Wednesday practice. Upon request, select Vanderbilt student-athletes and position coaches will also be available.

Media outlets are permitted to shoot the closing period of Wednesday's practice; otherwise, sessions are closed.

VANDERBILT STADIUM: COMMODORE HOME SINCE 1981

Several improvements have been made to 40,350-capacity Vanderbilt Stadium, which has served as home to the Commodores since 1981.

Vanderbilt Stadium's Dudley Field playing surface, where the Commodores have played since the early 1920s, also has received updates in recent years. In 2012, it returned to a synthetic surface for the first time in more than a decade when the university decided to add cushioned Shaw Sportexe turf. The surface has drawn rave reviews from players, who also benefited with the addition of new stadium lights the same year.

The 2012 work adds to other major improvements. A thorough exterior renovation was completed in 2010, including new plazas and entrances at Gates 2 & 3 and an exterior effort to unify Vanderbilt Stadium, Hawkins Field and Memorial Gymnasium.
