

2018 NFL DRAFT PROSPECTS

SCOTT SYPNIEWSKI

51 ||| SN

6-1/230

Ottawa, Ill.

Marquette Academy/
Michigan

2017: As a first-year graduate student at Vanderbilt, Sypniewski handled the team's long snapping responsibilities for the first eight games until an injury ended his season.

2014-16 (at Michigan): Three-year starting long snapper for University of Michigan... As a senior, handled both punt and conversion snap responsibilities for Wolverine squad that played in Orange Bowl... Appeared in 36 games as a key specialist for the Wolverines.

High School: Two-year captain... Three-year snapper at Marquette (Ill.) Academy... Also started at OL and LB during junior and senior seasons... In 2013, helped team to complete reversal, winning conference title after going from 0-9 to 10-1.

Personal: Scott David Sypniewski... Born Jan. 26 1995... Son of Scott and Kathleen Sypniewski... Dad is a contractor... Has a brother, Michael, and two sisters, Katie and Anna... Dad played center at Western Michigan... Enjoys golf.

