Head Coach C.B. McGrath

Colin Bryan (C.B.) McGrath, an assistant coach on The University of North Carolina's 2005, 2009 and 2017 national championship teams, was named the 11th men's basketball history in UNCW history on April 3, 2017.

In his first season on the coast, McGrath piloted the Seahawks to an 11-21 record and sixth place finish in the Colonial Athletic Association, fashioning an 8-5 home mark and reaching the semifinals of the CAA Tournament. McGrath's second year on the Seahawk bench in 2018-19 closed with an overall mark of 10-23.

McGrath, 44, spent 14 seasons with Hall of Fame Coach Roy Williams at North Carolina. He lettered four years as a point guard under Williams at Kansas and served on his staff in Lawrence for four years before moving with his mentor to the Tar Heel state.

McGrath is recognized as one of the nation's foremost recruiters and bench coaches. In addition, McGrath oversaw UNC's clinics and coached the junior varsity team in Chapel Hill.

McGrath's association with Williams goes back to his days as a walk-on player at Kansas. McGrath earned a scholarship before the start of his freshman season and was a top reserve behind First-Team All-American Jacque Vaughn in 1994-95 and Ryan Robertson as a senior.

The Jayhawks did not lose a home game during McGrath's time in Lawrence, going a perfect 58-0 during his career.

A tri-captain for KU in 1997-98 and a two-time Academic All-Big 12 selection, McGrath appeared in 112 games for the Jayhawks, scoring 82 points, with 35 steals and 113 assists, including a better than 2:1 assist-turnover ratio. McGrath's first collegiate bucket was a three-pointer at N.C. State's Reynolds Coliseum.

McGrath is one of 20 members of his family who attended Kansas.

Overall, McGrath served on Williams' staff in seven Final Four appearances, including his final two seasons with the Tar Heels. McGrath was an assistant coach on UNC's 2005, 2009 and 2017 NCAA Championship teams.

McGrath was a multi-sport standout at Topeka West High School and earned a total of 13 varsity letters in basketball, cross country, track and field and golf from 1991-94. He was named the Kansas Basketball Player-of-the-Year as a senior, placed in the top-10 in the state in cross country and golf and was inducted into the Topeka West High School Hall of Fame in 2001.

McGrath earned his Bachelor of Arts Degree in Human Biology from the University of Kansas in 1998 and completed his Master's Degree in Education at KU in 2000.

McGrath's wife, Kris, played tennis at KU, where she was the Big-12 Player-of-the-Year in 1999. The couple has twin daughters, Kate and Addison, and a son, Hunter.

► BUMP IN THE ROAD

The Seahawks have been held under 63 points and averaged 58.2 ppg over the last four games, scoring 57 (vs. Charlotte), 54 (at Stanford), 59 points (at Boise State) and 63 (vs. Mercer).

► THE TWILIGHT ZONE(S)

When UNCW faces Vanderbilt tonight, the Seahawks will have played in all four time zones in the U.S. If you throw in the trip to Italy in late summer, that would make five different time zones since August 1.

► YOUTH IS SERVED

The Seahawks are one of the youngest teams in the land, with three freshmen, five sophomors and two juniors on the roster. UNCW is one of just seven teams in DI with no true seniors (UNCW, CSU Bakersfield, Mount St. Mary's, Richmond, Santa Clara, Stony Brook, USC Upstate).

► GADSDEN UPDATE

Junior guard Ty Gadsden, who averaged 11.5 points last season, returned to the lineup vs. Charlotte and scored 11 points in 21 minutes of action. He suffered an injury in practice, however, and is doubtful until the conference season begins later this month. Gadsden sat out the first 10 games of the year following hip and hernia surgery last summer.

► THE STARTERS

Head Coach C.B. McGrath has used five different starting lineups in 12 games. Junior guard Mike Okauru and sophomore forward Marten Linssen are the only players to open every contest.

► BALANCED ATTACK

Three Seahawks are averaging in double figures and eight are collecting at least six points per game this season. Sophomore guard Jaylen Sims (14.4), junior guard Ty Gadsden (11.0) and sophomore forward Marten Linssen (10.4) are each collecting double figures each time on the court.

► WINS VS. LOSSES

In their five victories this season, the Seahawks have shot 55.5 percent and averaged 97.0 ppg. In their seven losses, the Seahawks made just 37.2 percent and collected 55.7 ppg.

► FIRST HALF VS. SECOND HALF

Game #1: UNCW 103, Johnson & Wales 83

Nov. 5, 2019 | Trask Coliseum | Wilmington, N.C.

Sophomore guard Jaylen Sims scored the first bucket of the season on his way to a career-best 19 points as UNCW opened the 2019-20 campaign with a 103-83 victory against undermanned Johnson & Wales. The Seahawks, who won their eighth straight season opener at home, surpassed the century mark for the first time since dropping 113 points against Allen on Nov. 18, 2018 – a span of 29 games. All eight newcomers appeared early and often on their way to scoring a combined 63 points in their Seahawk debuts. Overall, 10 different Seahawks played 15 or more minutes against the Wildcats.

Game #2: #9 North Carolina 79, UNCW 62

Nov. 8, 2019 | Trask Coliseum | Wilmington, N.C.

Three players posted double-doubles as No. 9 North Carolina powered past UNCW, 78-62, before a sellout crowd in the Tar Heels' first appearance at Trask Coliseum. Junior forward Garrison Brooks registered the first double-double of his career with 18 points and 12 rebounds to anchor the Tar Heel offense. Sophomore guard Jaylen Sims and freshman guard Shykeim Phillips paced UNCW with 12 points. Simms grabbed 10 rebounds for his first career double-double. The Seahawks stayed close over the first 11 minutes before the Tar Heels caught up and used an 18-7 run over the final minutes to build a 40-29 cushion at the break. UNC pieced together a 12-2 spurt midway through the final period to pull away down the stretch.

Game #3: UNCW 81, Campbell 76, OT

Nov. 12, 2019 | Trask Coliseum | Wilmington, N.C.

UNCW scored nine of the first 11 points in overtime and held on to edge Campbell, 81-76, in the 105th meeting between the two longtime basketball rivals at Trask Coliseum. The Seahawks won for the first time in six tries in overtime against the Camels and moved to 25-2 at home in the series. Sophomore guard Jaylen Sims led the Seahawks for the third straight contest with 15 points, including nine in the crucial overtime period.
