

Geoff Macdonald, Vanderbilt's longest-tenured coach, enters his 26th season as the head coach of the women's tennis team. Macdonald is VU's active leader in career wins as a head coach.

2019 was a strong season for the Commodores as they earned 19 victories, only dropping eight matches. The Commodores conquered eleven victories at home, only dropping two and earned 10 victories over SEC foes. In tournament play, the Dores advanced to the second round of the SEC tournament shutting out Kentucky, 4-0. The Commodores fell short to eventual champions, South Carolina to conclude their time in the tournament. In NCAA play, Macdonald coached the Commodores to a Regional sweep with victories over Miami (Ohio) and Georgia Tech followed by shutting out Texas A&M in the Super Regional for a spot in the NCAA Elite Eight. The Dores fell short to SEC opponent, Georgia 4-3 in the NCAA Championships to wrap up their stellar season. The Dores concluded the season as the No. 8 team in the nation.

In the 2017-18 season, Macdonald guided the No. 2 ranked Dores to a successful 27-4 overall season and went 12-1 in conference play. The Dores achieved becoming back to back SEC regular season champions as well as earning the title of SEC tournament champions. Macdonald led the team to yet another NCAA tournament last season where the Commodores made it to the Final Four for the fourth season in a row and competed in the championship round of the tournament. Macdonald is eager to continue this success in the upcoming 2018-19 season.

During the previous 24 seasons, the five-time SEC Coach of the Year and 2015 Wilson/ITA Coach of the Year has placed the Commodores among the nation's elite programs on a consistent basis.

Since Macdonald joined the Vanderbilt staff in 1994, the Commodore tennis program has developed a reputation for rapid player improvement, strong commitments to coaching, and unmatched excellence on the court and in the classroom.

Before Macdonald's arrival, the Vanderbilt women's tennis program had never been ranked higher than No. 28 in the nation. Under his leadership, the Commodores have finished no lower than No. 19 in 17 of the past 20 years, including a school record No. 1 ranking following the 'Dores National Championship title at the end of the 2015 season.

For the third consecutive year, the Commodores capped the 2017 season with a deep run in the NCAA Tournament, falling to Florida in the Final Four. Just one week after clinching the SEC regular-season title, the Dores hosted the SEC tournament in Nashville, and walked away with the tournament crown.

2015 was a year to remember for the Commodores as the program won its first SEC and NCAA National titles. On April 19th the Commodores upset the second-seeded UGA Bulldogs in a 4-3 thriller for the SEC Tournament Title. Exactly one month later, the 'Dores were making waves in tournament play once again, defeating the defending champions UCLA Bruins 4-2 to clinch the Commodores' third NCAA Championship and first tennis title. For his outstanding leadership on and off the court, Macdonald was voted the 2015 SEC Coach of the Year for the third time in his career and earned the 2015 Wilson/ITA National Coach of the Year Award.

Other notable wins include the 'Dores three victories over the Florida Gators, an achievement which has only been done by the 2015 VU squad. At the end of the 2015 campaign three Commodores earned ITA All-American Status; Sydney Campbell (S), Ashleigh Antal (D) and Astra Sharma (D). Five student-Athletes appeared in the final ITA singles rankings, with VU sitting atop the team rankings at No. 1 in the country.

2014 was one of the most prolific seasons for the Commodores; generating an 11-0 home record and finishing out the year ranked No. 11. Under Macdonald's leadership Vandy earned the program's 12th 20-plus win season in 2014, finishing the year with a 20-7 mark and its 13th appearance in the NCAA Sweet-16. On March 7, 2014 Macdonald earned his 500th win with the Commodores as the team sailed past SEC rival Missouri in a 7-0 victory.

In 2013, the Commodores finished 16-12 overall and 7-6 in Southeastern Conference play. Macdonald's team advanced to the second-round of the NCAA Tournament before falling to No. 13 Clemson. Vanderbilt has made it to the NCAA Tournament in each of Macdonald's nineteen seasons.

During the 2012 season, Macdonald guided the tennis squad to the NCAA Tournament. The team advanced to the Second Round of the NCAA Championships before falling to one of the top teams in the country, Southern Cal.

In 2011, Macdonald led his team back to the NCAA tournament with an appearance in the Sweet 16 round.

In 2008, Macdonald and his team started out hot as they won eight of their first 10 matches, including wins over No. 2 Georgia Tech and No. 9 Notre Dame. The 2008 squad won eight straight matches in March, including six straight SEC matches.

His 2008 squad defeated eight top-25 teams in route to its 11th straight Sweet 16 appearance. During the first round of the 2008 NCAA Tournament, Vanderbilt's 4-0 win over Indiana State gave Macdonald his 300th career win, putting himself among the nation's best. The Commodores finished the year with a 20-6 (.769) record and were ranked 10th nationally by the ITA.

While Macdonald's leadership continues to improve the Commodore program every season, Macdonald's impact was felt immediately in his very first year at Vanderbilt in 1995. The team finished the year 16-8, including an 8-3 mark in the SEC and advanced to the NCAA Championships for the first time in school history.

Once Vanderbilt began its rise to the top, the achievements kept coming. In 1996, the Commodores posted a 24-7 record, finished second in the SEC, advanced to the SEC Tournament Championship match for the first time and, once again, earned a berth in the NCAA Championships, advancing to the Round of 16. The team's 24 wins marked the third most wins by a single team in the nation that year.

The team continued to improve with each successful season and in 2001 the 'Dores finally found themselves in the national spotlight as they competed in the NCAA finals. The event marked the first time that any Vanderbilt sports team had played for a national championship. Despite falling to the Stanford Cardinals, Macdonald's squad ended the season with a 26-5 record and a No. 4 national ranking, while three singles players and two doubles teams earned individual bids to the NCAA championships.

The following season, Macdonald not only matched the success of the previous year, but led the 'Dores to a record-setting 27 wins. The team also advanced to the finals of the National Team Indoors tournament, which features sixteen of the top ranked teams in the country. Following the season, Sarah Riske and Aleke Tsoubanos were both named ITA All-Americans.

In 2003, Macdonald oversaw the final year of Sarah Riske's career, who became the school's only four-time All-American (two in singles, two in doubles). Riske left VU as the school's all-time winningest doubles player, but Tsoubanos surpassed that mark a year later. The 'Dores finished the 2003 season with a 21-6 record en route to advancing to the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament.

In 2004, the Commodores returned to the Final Four in the NCAA Tournament where they lost to undefeated Stanford, the eventual national champions. The 2004 Commodore team included All American, All-Academic and ITA Scholar Tsoubanos, who is entering her ninth year as Macdonald's assistant. Other honors achieved by Commodores included Annie Menees' All Academic and ITA Scholar awards, while Audra Falk and Kelly Schmandt landed All-American honors.

In 2006, the Commodores posted a 23-5 record en route to the team's ninth consecutive NCAA Sweet 16 appearance, despite the young team's lack of senior representatives. Following the season, junior Amanda Fish became the seventh Commodore under Macdonald to receive ITA All-American honors.

Macdonald has earned three Coach of the Year honors, including SEC recognition for his 2001 team, which included four ITA ranked singles players. He previously earned the title at Duke and Louisiana State University, where he began his coaching career in 1988.

Before coming to Nashville, Macdonald was the head coach at Duke University. Macdonald was honored with ACC Coach of the Year honors in 1992. While in Durham, he guided the Blue Devils to three conference championships and three appearances in the NCAA tournament, where Duke made two appearances in the quarterfinals and one semifinal appearance.

During his three years with the Tigers, Macdonald took LSU from last in the SEC to the NCAA Championship as the No. 13 seed in just three years. Following the Tigers' 1991 season, Macdonald was named the SEC Coach of the Year. Macdonald amassed a 50-24 record while at the helm of the LSU women's tennis program.

As a player at the University of Virginia, Macdonald capped off a successful collegiate career by winning the ACC singles title in 1981. He advanced to the NCAA Championship, where he defeated David Pate in the first round.

Macdonald was named the ACC's Most Valuable Player and also won the league's Sportsmanship Award. He finished second to basketball great Ralph Sampson in the Athlete of the Year voting at Virginia in 1981.

After his collegiate career, Macdonald played professionally for three years. Macdonald scored wins over David Pate, Wally Masur, Jacob Hlasek and Juan Aguilera. He also gained Grand Slam experience, playing in the U.S. Open. Among his victories was the Florida State Closed Men's Singles Championship.

Following his pro playing career, Macdonald became a private instructor until being named head coach at LSU. And now, as a Commodore, Macdonald believes the climate at Vanderbilt is right to produce national championship caliber teams. And, toward that end, he adheres to a simple coaching philosophy: Hard work and hours of individual attention for each player every week.

Former Vanderbilt standout Aleke Tsoubanos enters her 13th season coaching under Macdonald. Tsoubanos has played an essential role in bringing in some of the nation's top recruiting classes since her arrival and has been a key to the team's successes in the SEC and NCAA, including the squad's recent back to back 2017 and 2018 SEC regular-season and tournament crowns.

2019 was a strong season for the Commodores as they earned 19 victories, only dropping eight matches. The Commodores conquered eleven victories at home, only dropping two and earned 10 victories over SEC foes. In tournament play, the Dores advanced to the second round of the SEC tournament shutting out Kentucky, 4-0. The Commodores fell short to eventual champions, South Carolina to conclude their time in the tournament. In NCAA play, Macdonald coached the Commodores to a Regional sweep with victories over Miami (Ohio) and Georgia Tech followed by shutting out Texas A&M in the Super Regional for a spot in the NCAA Elite Eight. The Dores fell short to SEC opponent, Georgia 4-3 in the NCAA Championships to wrap up their stellar season. The Dores concluded the season as the No. 8 team in the nation.

Tsoubanos helped coach the Commodores to a very successful 2017-18 season. Under her coaching, the Dores accomplished a 27-4 overall record and a 12-1 conference record. Following the regular season success, Tsoubanos helped guide the team to become back to back SEC regular season champions also securing the SEC tournament championship title. Tsoubanos helped guide the Commodores to the 2018 NCAA tournament where the Dores made their fourth Final Four debut in a row and competed in the championship round of the tournament.

Known as one of the most respected college coaching duos in the country, Tsoubanos and Macdonald earned several awards in 2015 for their passionate leadership on and off the court. This past season Tsoubanos earned her third Ohio Valley Assistant Coach of the year award, and was voted Vanderbilt's first ever ITA National Assistant Coach of the Year.

"Aleke has had a real impact on our program," Vanderbilt head coach Geoff Macdonald said. "She has a great tennis eye and strong work ethic and relationship with our players. She is great working with people and knows all phases to the game which makes her an exceptional, bright young coach."

The addition of Tsoubanos led to instant success for the Commodores in 2008. Tsoubanos' coaching style led the Dores to its 12th straight sweet-16 finish and top-10 national ranking.

The St. Louis, Mo., native enjoyed a very successful college career. She was named an ITA All-American from 2002-04, a first-team all-NCAA selection, a first-team All-SEC selection in both singles and doubles and is the only player to win the ITA All-American Riviera doubles championship two consecutive years with two different partners. Tsoubanos also excelled off the court, being named to the All-SEC academic team.

"By excelling in tennis at the highest level and at Vanderbilt, she brings a lot of tennis experience and enthusiasm to our program and campus," Macdonald said.

Tsoubanos still holds four school records. She partnered with Kelly Schmandt in 2004 to win 15 consecutive doubles matches. She holds the record for best doubles winning percentage in a career, winning 82% of her doubles matches between 2000 and 2004. She has the most career doubles victories with 119 and registered 32 doubles victories in a season with both Sarah Riské ('03) and Kelly Schmandt ('04).

The Commodores enjoyed some of their most successful years while Tsoubanos was a member of the team. Vanderbilt made the NCAA title match in Tsoubanos' freshman season, falling to Stanford in the finals. VU also made the NCAA elite eight (2003) and final four (2004) during Tsoubanos' junior and senior seasons, respectively.

"I feel privileged to be working with Coach Macdonald and a group of highly talented student-athletes, Tsoubanos said.

Tsoubanos enjoyed success in the professional ranks during her career. Her doubles ranking rose as high as 126, winning four doubles titles while on tour. She made the doubles semifinals or better 23 times while on the International Tennis Federation circuit.

In 2005-2006, the Vanderbilt assistant played two seasons of World Team Tennis for her hometown team, the St. Louis Aces. While playing for the Aces, she scored doubles wins over such players as Anna Kournikova and Meghann Shaughnessy.

Brownlee O. Currey Jr. Tennis Center

The Brownlee O. Currey Jr., Tennis Center was completed in November 1993. With the opening of its doors, the Vanderbilt tennis program provides one of the finest tennis facilities in the nation for varsity collegiate tennis.

Plans for the new tennis center were unveiled in April 1993 when former Director of Athletics Paul Hoolahan announced that a $2.2 million project was being made possible by the generous benefactors of Vanderbilt tennis. Nashville businessman Brownlee O. Currey Jr. spear-headed the fund-raising for the project. Additional gifts were made by the Joe. C. Davis Foundation, the Fleming Foundation and Mrs. Joanne Fleming Hayes.

The previous tennis center, which had provided three indoor courts, underwent several changes throughout the renovation. A two-story, 16,000-square-foot addition was made to the existing indoor structure, providing enough space for five indoor courts. The lower level of the facility houses spacious locker rooms for both varsity teams as well as a training room and locker room space for visitors.

A special feature of the center is a state-of-the-art audio/visual room, also located on the second floor. Small video cameras are mounted at the north end of each indoor playing court, allowing the coaches to monitor and record matches in progress on all five courts. The room also serves as a classroom for the coaches and their teams.

In addition to the changes of the interior of the tennis center, the building was given an exterior face lift as well. Its new red-brick exterior now matches the architecture of many buildings on the Vanderbilt campus.

The fundraising for the renovations of the outdoor tennis courts began in 2001, and five years later fans and athletes are enjoying the fruits of their patience and labor.

The $5 million project was completed just in time for the beginning of the 2005 tennis season, where the team advanced to the NCAA Sweet Sixteen for the seventh consecutive year.

The new outdoor complex at the Brownlee O. Currey Jr. Tennis Center includes nine lighted courts and seating for more than 1,000 spectators. The new facility also features vending areas and restrooms.

One of the most dazzling features of the new facility is its state-of-the-art lighting system. The courts are lighted with the most powerful lights on the market so matches can be easily televised at night. The inaugural season of the outdoor facilities drew more fans out to support the Commodores due to the added comfort and accessibility. During the 2008-09 season, Vanderbilt added an electronic scoreboard to the outdoor courts, allowing fans to follow the action more closely. Electronic scoring was also added to the indoor courts at the same time. In the summer of 2009, Vanderbilt unveiled a new All-American display inside the Currey Tennis Center. The display recognized every tennis All-American who has donned the Black and Gold.
