» The University of Michigan baseball team opens the 2020 campaign as part of the second annual MLB4 Collegiate Tournament at Salt River Fields at Talking Stick in Scottsdale, Ariz.

» The Wolverines start the season with a rematch of the 2019 College World Series Championship against Vanderbilt Friday (Feb. 14). The Commodores start the year ranked at or near the top of all six major college baseball polls, including No. 1 in the USA Today Coaches, Baseball America and National Collegiate Baseball Writer of America (NCBWA) polls.

» Michigan's visit to the Grand Canyon State also includes games against Cal Poly (Sat.), Arizona State (Sat.) and UConn (Sun.).

» During the Wolverines' non-conference schedule this season, U-M will take on five teams that played in the 2019 NCAA Postseason: Vanderbilt, Arizona State, Connecticut, Stanford and Cal.

» Michigan is 24-20-1 all-time against the #VandyBoys. 37 of the program's meetings with the Commodores came in the 26-year span from 1905-1931. The Wolverines are 3-5 against Vanderbilt since 2006.

» Junior starter Jeff Criswell will toe the rubber in the Wolverines' opener, looking to build off of a successful sophomore campaign. The right-hander went 7-1 in the 2019 season, and led all starters with a 2.72 ERA.

» Fellow Junior Jordan Nwogu made a case for the title of college baseball's most electric leadoff man in 2019, finishing the season with a slash line of .321/.435/.557. Nwogu hit 12 home runs, 14 doubles and 4 triples, drove in 46, scored 58 runs, and swiped 16 bags. After spending the previous two seasons as the team's designated hitter, Nwogu will start 2020 in the outfield.

» U-M is scheduled to face 10 teams that made the NCAA Tournament in 2019. Additionally, the Maize and Blue will play 25 games at the Wilpon Complex in 2020.

BIG TEN PRESEASON HONORS

» Michigan has been selected as the top team in the 2020 Big Ten Conference preseason coaches' poll, it was announced Wednesday (Feb. 12).

» The Wolverines, who are the only Big Ten team to appear in every national preseason top-25 ranking, were picked to finish first in front of Ohio State, Minnesota, Nebraska, Indiana and Illinois in the poll, which lists the top six vote-getters.

» The Big Ten features three Players to Watch from each team. This year, the junior trio of Jeff Criswell, Jesse Franklin and Jordan Nwogu represent Michigan on the list. Nwogu was also a selection before the 2019 season.

» The 2020 debut of junior outfielder Jesse Franklin will have to wait, as an injury has knocked out the toolsy outfielder until mid-March.

» Returning to man shortstop for the Wolverines is junior Jack Blomgren. 2019 saw "Blommy" slash .314/.417/.401, and he will be counted upon as one of Michigan's primary offensive producers in 2020.

» NCAA Tournament breakout star Riley Bertram will get the start at second base this season, hoping to build off of last season's postseason momentum.

» Michigan's starting rotation will look to a few new faces for 2020. Redshirt freshman Steve Hajjar and redshirt sophomore Ben Dragani both sat out 2019 because of inury, but the lefty duo will be counted on for big innings for the Wolverines. Also vyying for spots in the weekend rotation are redshirt sophomore Isaiah Page and junior Blake Beers.

» Returning to his post behind the dish for his junior season is Joe Donovan. The catcher posted a slash of .234/.314/.421 in 2019, finishing with nine homers, 12 doubles, and 37 RBI.

» Donovan traded in his baseball cleats for dancing shoes, taking part in the Chad Tough Dancing with the Michigan Stars in early February. Taking after Head Coach Erik Bakich, who won the event in 2019, Joe D brought home the hardware with his fancy footwork dancing the Salsa.

» Senior Christan Bullock will once again be counted on as a regular member of the outfield to start 2020. Hoping to build off of last season's postseason, where he was named to the Corvallis Regional All-Tournament Team, Bullock should see time in center and right field.

» Sophomore reliever Willie Weiss earned tabs as a freshman All-American from Perfect Game last season after picking up nine saves and going 2-2 with a 2.97 ERA in his rookie campaign. The right-hander was recently named a preseason candidate for the NCBWA's Stopper of the Year award.

» Senior Dominic Clementi will return to the fold in full in 2020 after an injury-riddled junior season in which he was limited to just 38 games and a .195 batting average. Clementi was an All-Big Ten First Team selection in 2018 when, as a sophomore, he led the Wolverines with a .368 batting average and a .485 on-base percentage.

» Newcomers Ted Burton and Jimmy Obertop will get major opportunities to provide pop to the lineup, as both right-handed hitters are expected to make immediate impacts. On the bump, meanwhile, Jack White and Cameron Weston figure to see their fair share innings.

» Michigan was 14-5 in neutral site games last year, The Wolverine offense hit .291 in neutral games in 2019, while the pitching staff boasted a 3.35 earned run average.

» Head coach Erik Bakich was named the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA) 2019 National Coach of the Year. Bakich is kicking off his eighth season as Michigan's head coach and his 11th year as a head coach overall in Division I.

» Also representing the Michigan coaching staff on the national awards scale was associate head coach Nick Schnabel, who was named National Assistant Coach of the Year by the American Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA).

» With two appearances at UCLA in the NCAA Super Regional, redshirt junior Ben Keizer broke Michigan's single season record for appearances (previously 31). Keizer appeared 34 times last season, and had a 4-1 record with two saves, including one in U-M's win at No. 1-seeded UCLA to advance to the College World Series.

» Michigan is the lone program in the Big Ten Conference to earn a ranking in all six national preseason polls. The Wolverines topped out at a No. 8 ranking in the Baseball America poll, and were ranked 13 or better by Perfect Game, D1Baseball, the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA), and USA Today prior to the start of the season.

2019 MLB DRAFT

» Moments after winning Monday's game to advance to the program's second-ever NCAA Super Regional, Michigan had two players selected in the Major League Baseball First Year Player Draft. Juniors Tommy Henry (74th pick, Arizona Diamondbacks) and Karl Kauffmann (77th pick, Colorado Rockies) were selected in the Competitive Balance "B" Round on June 3, just moments apart and immediately following the team's championship photo.

» Junior outfielder Jordan Brewer (106th pick, Houston Astros) was taken in the third round on June 4 prior to the team's departure from Corvallis down to Los Angeles for the Super Regional.

» On June 5, junior Jack Weisenburger (614th pick, Oakland A's) went in the 20th round while the team was training at UCLA.

» Also on June 5, following a weight lifting session at a local gym senior Jimmy Kerr (982nd pick, Detroit Tigers) was drafted in the 33rd round while on the team bus.

» Freshman right-hander Willie Weiss was named to the Collegiate Baseball Magazine Freshman All-America Team on June 5 as a relief pitcher.

SCOUTING THE OPPONENTS

» Michigan and Vanderbilt have played 45 times in the programs' storied histories, with the Wolverines leading the series 24-20-1 all-time.

» U-M has far less experience against Saturday's first opponent, having an 0-2 record against Cal Poly all-time. The Mustangs won the first meeting between the two 5-1 in 2016, and won by an 8-1 final in 2018. The two teams play more times this season than they've played in program history thanks to a three-game set in San Luis Obispo (Feb. 28-March1).

» The Wolverines are also set to take on perennial power Arizona State Saturday (Feb. 15) as the second game of a double-header. Michigan is 13-31 against the Sun Devils all-time, with this weekend's showdown being the first time that U-M and ASU have played one another since the 2008 season.

» Michigan's weekend wraps against Connecticut, which kicks off a run of four straight games against the Huskies. Though playing one another just three times in program history (U-M leads the series, 2-1), Michigan and UConn play a neutral-site series in Port St. Lucie at Tradition Field next weekend (Feb. 21-23).

A LOOK BACK

» Coming off a 50-22 season in 2019 that included an appearance in the College World Series final, Michigan returned 26 players to this year's squad. Despite losing key players to graduation and the 2019 Major League Baseball Draft, the future looks bright for Michigan's oldest athletic program, which celebrates its 154th season this year.

» The Wolverines (16-7 B1G) finished just one half game out of first place in the Big Ten Conference standings last season. Indiana (17-7 B1G), which defeated Michigan twice during a three game set in the second-to-last weekend of the regular season, took home the regular-season conference title, while Nebraska, which eliminated Michigan from the Big Ten Conference Tournament on Saturday (May 25), lost in the Big Ten Championship game.

» Michigan's offense led Big Ten opponents in 2019 in batting average, on-base percentage, slugging percentage, runs scored, hits, walks, doubles, stolen bases, and sacrifice flies.

PLAYER & TEAM NOTES

» Michigan's leadoff batter reached base and scored to start 20 games last season, with the Wolverines going on to win 18 of them. Michigan hit four leadoff home runs in 2019 (Nwogu 3, Thomas 1).

» Last season, then-freshman Willie Weiss clinched racked up nine saves, good for third all-time in a single season at Michigan. Set in 2014 by San Diego Padres prospect Jacob Cronenworth and tied in 2017 by Jackson Lamb, Michigan's all-time record for saves in a single season is 12.

» Michigan posted a 3-4 record during its annual spring break trip to California last season, which was highlighted by an upset win over No. 2-ranked UCLA as well as a series win at Cal State Northridge.

» The Wolverines faced seven 2019 NCAA Tournament teams in the regular season for a total of 16 contests against regional competitors. Michigan also played 26 games (22-4 record) at home inside the Wilpon Complex, home of Ray Fisher Stadium.

» Riley Bertram stepped-in at shortstop during the Corvallis Regional due to an injury and contributed seven hits in 15 at-bats after hitting 3-for-12 in the regular season. Against Cincinnati (June 2), and in his first career start, he was 4-for-4 with a double, HBP and a run scored. He followed up with two doubles and three RBI, then scored a career-high two runs on Monday in the regional title game.

» Jordan Nwogu hit his third leadoff home run of the year on June 1 vs. Cincinnati in the second game of the Corvallis Regional. The sophomore designated hitter had 12 homers in 2019 and led the Wolverines with a .435 on-base percentage.

» With Tommy Henry and Karl Kauffmann turning professional, Jeff Criswell remains the only weekend starter left on the Wolverines in 2020. Criswell led all Michigan starters last year with a 2.72 ERA. Criswell also appeared in five games in relief, picking up saves in three contests, all of which came in the postseason.

» Led by 13 upperclassmen, Michigan's oldest team on campus is celebrating its 154th season this year. Through 153 years of baseball, Michigan has captured two National Championships, making eight College World Series appearances and earning 24 selections to the NCAA Tournament. Additionally, Michigan has had 184 players selected in the Major League Baseball Draft.

2020 STAFF CHANGES
In addition to 8 newcomers on the field, Michigan's coaching and support staff underwent changes in the off-season. Oregon State alumnus and College World Series veteran Max Gordon joins the program as the volunteer assistant coach. Gordon was previously the hitting coordinator at Driveline and will continue to work with Driveline during his tenure at Michigan.

2019 RECAP
The University of Michigan baseball program ended the 2019 campaign with its sixth straight 30-win season and first 50-win campaign under head coach Erik Bakich, and its seventh consecutive postseason appearance in the Big Ten Conference Tournament. The season culminated in an appearance in the College World Series finals in Omaha, with the Wolverines falling to Vanderbilt in three games.

CHASING HISTORY
Michigan opened its 154th season with a 2,967-1,736-39 overall record, which ranks third-most for wins in college baseball history. The Wolverines are also looking to make their 25th NCAA Tournament appearance and are seeking the program's third national championship.

NEW BLUE
The Maize and Blue added 10 players to its roster in the off-season, including eight freshmen and two junior college transfers. Hailing from seven different states, the Wolverine recruiting class boasts three pitchers, one catchers, five infielders, and one outfielder.

THE RECRUITING TRAIL
Though Michigan's roster has a significant amount of Michigan-natives, the Wolverine roster boasts 36 players from 14 different states. The Maize and Blue hail predominantly from California (8), Michigan (7), and Illinois (5), with four players from Wisconsin and two from both Georgia and Indiana. The Wolverine squad also features student-athletes from Colorado, Massachusetts, Missouri, New Jersey, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania and Washington.

EARLY SEASON TRAVELS
The Wolverines are set to begin the 2020 season with contests against eight different teams in three different states, logging 11,749 miles before playing at home for the first time. Here is a complete breakdown of the team's scheduled travel during the first four weeks of the season:

COACHING STAFF

Erik Bakich Head Coach (8th Season at Michigan)

Erik Bakich was announced as the 19th head coach in the history of Michigan baseball on June 27, 2012 and completed his sixth season with the program in 2018.

The Wolverines enjoyed one of their most successful campaigns in program history during the 2019 season, which featured a trip to the College World Series Finals for just the third time in Michigan history and the eighth trip to the CWS overall. The unseeded Maize and Blue team sneaked into the NCAA Tournament field of 64 as one of the last four teams in but emerged victorious at the Corvallis Regional and upset No. 1-ranked UCLA in the Super Regional to advance to the College World Series, where Michigan finished as the National Runner-Up behind Vanderbilt University. Bakich was named the National Coach of the Year by D1Baseball.com as well as the National Collegiate Baseball Writer's Association (NCBWA), while five Wolverines earned nine All-America nods and eight were selected to All-Big Ten Conference teams, including the program's first Big Ten Player of the Year award (outfielder Jordan Brewer) since 2008. In the midst of an exciting postseason, Michigan also had five players selected in the Major League Baseball Draft, including starting pitchers Tommy Henry (2nd round, Diamondbacks) and Karl Kauffmann (2nd round, Rockies), Brewer (3rd round, Astros), reliever Jack Weisenburger (20th round, Athletics), and senior infielder and team co-captain Jimmy Kerr (33rd round, Tigers). The Wolverines finished the 2019 season with a 50-22 overall record, which marked the program's first 50-win season since 1987 and the first of Bakich's career.

In 2018, Bakich posted a 33-21 overall record and a third-place finish in the Big Ten Conference. The season was highlighted by a 20-game win streak that stretched from March to April and marked the program's third-longest win streak in history. The 2018 campaign also featured an 18-3 record at the Wilpon Complex, which marked the program's best win percentage (.857) since the complex was dedicated in 2008. Following a strong regular season, the Wolverines advanced to the Big Ten Tournament for the sixth-straight season under Bakich.

After losing 15 players at the close of the 2017 season, Bakich and the coaching staff brought in a highly touted incoming class of 14, including 12 freshmen and two junior college transfers. The recruiting class was ranked No. 10 in the nation by Baseball America and Collegiate Baseball Newspaper, marking the highest ranking ever for a Big Ten recruiting class. The incoming class played an important role in the team's success in 2018, as Michigan newcomers went on to capture seven freshman all-America awards in addition to six Big Ten Conference postseason accolades.

In his fifth year with the Maize and Blue, Bakich guided the Wolverines to a 42-17 record and a second place finish in the Big Ten Conference, leading Michigan to its 23rd NCAA Tournament appearance in program history and its first at-large berth since 2007. With 40 wins for the first time since 2008, the season was also highlighted by a program record eight All-Big Ten selections, including five first team selections (Oliver Jaskie, Jackson Lamb, Ako Thomas, Michael Brdar, and Drew Lugbauer), two third team selections (Mac Lozer and Johnny Slater), and one All-Freshman Team selection (Tommy Henry). The impressive season culminated with the most Major League Baseball draft picks in the country and in Michigan history, as eleven players (Jaskie, Lugbauer, Brdar, Slater, Lozer, Ryan Nutof, Harrison Wenson, Bryan Pall, Jake Bivens, Michael Hendrickson, and Grant Reuss) were selected by and signed with their respective professional teams. In addition to on-field success, the campaign also featured six Academic All-Big Ten selections, one Big Ten Distinguished Scholar, and one CoSIDA Academic All-Region selection.

The 2016 campaign featured a 36-21 overall record for the Wolverines, who were left out of the NCAA Tournament despite defeating two top-25 teams and executing series sweeps of seven different opponents. At the close of the 2016 season, Michigan had garnered five All-Big Ten selections and five Major League Draft picks (Brett Adcock, Carmen Benedetti, Evan Hill, Jackson Lamb, and Harrison Wenson), which marked the program's most the 2012 season. Academically, the season was highlighted by its first CoSIDA Academic All-America selection since 2005 in Cody Bruder, six Academic All-Big Ten selections, and one Big Ten Distinguished Scholar award.

The 2015 season was an exciting one for Michigan, as the Wolverines won the Big Ten Tournament and advanced to a regional for the first time since 2008. Michigan won 39 games in 2015, highlighted by a four-game sweep of the Big Ten Tournament and a runner-up finish in the NCAA Louisville Regional. Bakich coached a first team All-American in Carmen Benedetti (NCBWA) and five All-Big Ten honorees, including first team selections in Benedetti and Jackson Glines. Michigan had four players named to the Big Ten All-Freshman team, including Freshman of the Year Jake Bivens. Three Wolverines (Jacob Cronenworth, Glines and Travis Maezes) were selected in the MLB First-Year Player Draft while Michigan now has eight Louisville Slugger Freshman All-Americans, the most in the nation in that three-year span.

The 2014 edition of the Michigan baseball team won 30 games and finished in a tie for fourth place in the Big Ten Conference. U-M also advanced to the semifinals of the Big Ten Tournament, winning a pair of games in that tournament for the first time since 2008. Bakich coached a pair of All-Big Ten honorees (Jackson Glines - 2nd, Travis Maezes - 3rd) and four Academic All-Big Ten selections. Juniors James Bourque and Trent Szkutnik were both picked in the 2014 MLB First-Year Player Draft and freshman Brett Adcock and Carmen Benedetti were named to both the Big Ten All-Freshman and the Louisville Slugger Freshman All-America teams.

In Bakich's first season in Ann Arbor, he guided the Maize and Blue to 29 wins and 14-10 record in the Big Ten, good for a tie for fifth place. That was a seven-game overall and a six-game conference improvement from 2012. Also, the Wolverines returned to the Big Ten Tournament for the first time since 2010. Bakich coached three All-Big Ten honorees (Michael O'Neill - 1st, Jacob Cronenworth - 2nd, Cole Martin - 3rd) and four Academic All-Big Ten selections. O'Neill also was an ABCA All-Mideast Region first team selection and a third round pick by the New York Yankees in the MLB First-Year Player Draft. A trio of freshmen (Cronenworth, Travis Maezes and Evan Hill) earned Big Ten All-Freshman team honors and were Louisville Slugger Freshman All-Americans.

Bakich came to Ann Arbor after spending three years as the head coach at the University of Maryland. He led the Terrapins to a 32-24 record in 2012, a 15-win improvement from his first season in College Park. Maryland started the season by taking 2-of-3 at UCLA, which went on to earn a No. 2 national seed and a berth in the College World Series. The Terps also enjoyed wins over Purdue, East Carolina and St. John's in the non-conference slate and North Carolina, Virginia, Miami, N.C. State and Florida State in Atlantic Coast Conference action. Maryland had a 3.21 team earned-run average, which was third in the ACC. Bakich also had four players drafted from the 2012 team in this year's MLB First-Year Player Draft, including Alfredo Rodriguez, who was picked in the 17th round by the Milwaukee Brewers.

COACH + SUPPORT STAFF

Nick Schnabel Associate Head Coach/Recruiting Coordinator

8th Season at Michigan

- Recruited Michigan's 15-man incoming class in 2018 - perhaps the most highly-touted class in program history - which was ranked No. 10 by both Baseball America and Collegiate Baseball Newspaper and marked the highest ranking a Big Ten class has ever earned.
- Came to Michigan with Erik Bakich after serving as the hitting instructor, infield coach and recruiting coordinator at East Carolina for three seasons.
- Mentored six All-Conference USA selections during his three seasons with the Pirates.
- Also spent two seasons at Liberty as the hitting instructor and recruiting coordinator and a pair of seasons at the U.S. Military Academy, serving as Army's hitting instructor and working with the infielders.

Chris Fetter Associate Head Coach/Pitching

3rd Season at Michigan

- Guided Michigan pitchers to a 3.46 earned run average during the 2018 campaign, which ranked 23rd-best in the nation and third-lowest in the Big Ten. The Wolverines also finished atop the conference with just 7.64 hits allowed per game, which ranked 12th in the country.
- Came to Michigan in the summer of 2017 after serving as the minor league pitching coordinator for the Los Angeles Dodgers.
- Four-year letterwinner at Michigan and All-American; ranks first in the U-M Baseball record book for innings pitched (332.1)
- Previously coached at Ball State University (2016), where he guided the Cardinals to a 4.31 team earned run average, which ranked second in the Mid-American Conference.

Max Gordon Volunteer Coach

1st Season at Michigan

- Came to Michigan in January of 2020 after serving as Driveline's hitting coordinator since its inception.
- Graduated from Oregon State in 2013 after walking on to the baseball team, started in center field and hit .257 as a senior when Oregon State finished 3rd in the College World Series.
- Played independent league baseball after graduation until turning to a career as a coach.

Wayne Welton Director of Operations

9th Season at Michigan

- Was the Wolverines' volunteer coach in 2012 and transitioned to the role of Director of Operations in 2013.
- Was the head baseball coach at Chelsea High School in Chelsea, Mich., for 32 years, where he had a record of 767-357-11 and a 1991 Class B state title.
- Was the Director of Athletics at Chelsea for 22 years, guiding 24 varsity programs with 90-plus coaches. He was named the Regional Athletic Director of the Year by the MIAAA in 2010.

Jeremy Kelch Video Coordinator/Player Development

5th Season at Michigan

- Joined the Michigan staff in 2014 and is responsible for providing player development plans for student-athletes as well as training student managers in video operations and scouting strategy.
- Helps to provide the coaching staff with statistical analysis of in-game situations and opportunities for player growth.
- Spent 14 seasons with the Detroit Tigers as a video coordinator and advance scout.
