NOTES

Commodores Claim First Tourney of Fall 2019 Campaign

Vanderbilt captured their first tournament of the 2019-20 season, edging defending national runner-up Wake Forest and Florida at the Cougar Classic on Sept. 10. The Commodores produced a 54-hole team score of 27-under-par 837 to defeat 16 other teams and claim their first Cougar Classic championship trophy.

Auston Kim Impressive in Season Opener

Sophomore Auston Kim, the reigning NCAA Auburn, Alabama Regional individual champion, opened the 2019-20 campaign in impressive fashion, walking away from a 93-field field at the Cougar Classic to win by seven strokes. Kim's 54-hole total of 16-under-par 200, which included a 65, 66 and 69, was the lowest 54-hole total in team history. In October, she was named among 20 players to the ANNIKA Award watch list.

Louise Yu Establishes New Record for Low Round

Junior Louise Yu became the first Commodore to shoot a 64 in competition when she produced the eight-birdie, bogey-free performance in the final round of the Cougar Classic. Yu's performance was a key factor in Vanderbilt claiming the Cougar Classic team trophy. The 64 helped Yu finish in sole position of second place in the Cougar Classic individual competition.

Commodores Coming off Six-Win Season in 2018-19

Vanderbilt enters the fall after breaking the single-season record with six tournament titles during the 2018-19 season. Last year, the Commodores captured the Mason Rudolph Championships, UCF Challenge, Reynolds Lake Oconee Invitational, Lamkin Invitational, Clemson Invitational and NCAA Auburn (Ala.) Regional.

Commodores Made 20th NCAA Regional Appearance Last May

Vanderbilt made its 20th all-time appearance in the NCAA Regionals. The Commodores have advanced to the NCAA Regional in 19 of the last 20 years. Like the Commodore squad, Vanderbilt head coach Greg Allen is used to reaching the NAAs, having accomplished the feat in all but one of his 19 years as a collegiate head coach.

COACHING STAFF

Greg Allen, considered one of the outstanding collegiate golf coaches in the NCAA, enters his 13th season at the helm of the Vanderbilt women's golf program.

Allen has made a big impact at Vanderbilt, leading the Commodores to 12 postseason appearances, including last year in 2018-19. Allen's Commodores have been to 12 NCAA Regionals and advanced to five consecutive NCAA Championships from 2010-2014 for the first time in program history.

Following the 2018-19 campaign, Allen recognized as Southeastern Conference Coach of the Year, the first such recognition in his career, after guiding the Commodores to a program-record six victories.

The most recent tournament win came at the 2019 NCAA Auburn Regional in early May, propelling Allen's nationally-ranked Vanderbilt squad into the NCAA Championships. One of his top pupils, freshman standout Auston Kim, also sweep the 2019 NCAA Auburn Regional individual title.

Allen has now guided the Commodores to 14 tournament titles in his tenure on West End, including a pair of NCAA regional crowns.

Allen's seventh Vanderbilt team in 2013-14 ranks with the 2018-19 among his most successful to date, winning four tournaments, including the 2014 SEC Championship and the NCAA East Regional, the Commodores' first victories at the events since 2004. Simin Feng also won medalist honors at the SEC Championship and the Central District Invitational, while Jennifer Hahn won the NCAA East Regional individual title. Additionally, three different Vanderbilt golfers finished in the top five in 2013-14.

During his tenure at Vanderbilt, Allen's teams advanced to five consecutive NCAA Championships (2010-14). He has coached two-time SEC Player of the Year recipient Marina Alex, SEC Freshman of the Year Simin Feng, two first-team All-Americans in Alex and Lauren Stratton and NCAA regional champions in Kim and Hahn.

Annually, Allen's Commodores are among the SEC's leaders in academic achievement. In 2017, he mentored the program's SEC Scholar Athlete of the Year in Kate Sborov.

Allen has guided three teams to conference championships - the 2001 and 2002 Pac-10 titles at Arizona and the 2014 SEC crown at Vanderbilt.

In 2010, his first NCAA Championship team at Vanderbilt broke through to finish seventh in Wilmington, N.C. Also in 2010, he coached the SEC Player of the Year in Marina Alex and had two freshmen make the All-SEC Freshmen Team in Anna Leigh Keith and Lauren Stratton.

In 2011, his Commodore team qualified for the NCAA Championship after winning a one-hole playoff against Florida State in the NCAA East Regional. It was Allen's second consecutive trip to the national championship as Vanderbilt's coach and eighth overall. He also guided Vanderbilt to their first back-to-back top 10 finishes at the NCAA Championship after his 2011 squad ended the event in a tie for 10th place. Two of his players, Alex and senior Megan Grehan, were named to the All-SEC second team at the end of the regular season.

In 2012, Vanderbilt advanced to the NCAA Championships for the third consecutive season and a date on their home course when the Commodores finished in second place at the NCAA Central Regional in Columbus, Ohio. The Commodores' second-place finish was the second-best at a regional in program history - only the 2004 team's win at the Central Regional was better. VU finished in 11th place at the national championship, and Alex and Stratton were each named NGCA First-Team All-Americans. It was the first time in the history of the program that the Commodores have had two first-team All-Americans in the same season.

Allen came to Vanderbilt after a seven-year tenure as the head coach at the University of Arizona, where he twice won the Pac-10 Conference, finished as NCAA runner-up in 2002 and coached Lorena Ochoa – the number one ranked player on the LPGA Tour before her retirement in 2010 – among nine other All-Americans.

Allen had a lengthy record of achievement at Arizona during his seven years there. In addition to his Pac-10 titles and 10 All-Americans, he coached eight NCAA All-Scholars, 13 Academic All-Pac-10 student-athletes, three NCAA Players of the Year, two National Freshmen of the Year, three Pac-10 Players of the Year, two Curtis Cup selections and 21 All-Pac-10 performers. Two of his players won three Golfstat Cup Award for the nation's lowest stroke average. His Wildcat teams also won nine tournament championships and registered 28 individual victories.

Allen arrived at Arizona after serving as assistant men's golf coach at Texas from 1998-2000. He helped lead the 1999-2000 Longhorns to a banner year that included the NCAA Central Region championship and a fifth-place finish at the NCAA Championship, its highest finish in five years. The squad ended the season ranked No. 8 in the final MasterCard Collegiate Rankings. The 1998-99 team had its best showing in six years, as it earned three tournament victories and finished in the top three in seven of its 13 competitions. Well known for his rapport with collegiate players, Allen handled many of the day-to-day operations for the Longhorns and assisted head coach John Fields with scheduling, recruiting and coaching at practices and tournaments.

Prior to that he was Director of Tournament Operations for the American Junior Golf Association in Roswell, Georgia, where he spent five years as both director of tournament operations and tournament director. While in Roswell, Allen was responsible for planning and executing 47 national junior golf tournaments and other AJGA events. He oversaw all AJGA tournaments and was responsible for the supervision of eight tournament directors, as well as the hiring of 24 summer interns.

He is a native of Beechmont, Kentucky and graduated from Murray State in 1993 with a degree in journalism. As a student, he worked in the sports information office, where he was a liaison for numerous sports, including golf. Prior to graduation, Allen worked two summers as a communications intern for the AJGA, where he was responsible for all on-site media relations at 10 national junior golf tournaments.

Allen and the former Sarah Moore were married in August 2019. They are the parents of six children: Maggie, Mollie, Mason, Kylie, Mabry and Blake.

COACHING STAFF

Emilie Meason, Associate Head Coach

Emilie Meason, a former University of Georgia All-American, enters her third year with the Vanderbilt women's golf team. Meason was promoted to associate head coach after helping the Commodores advance to the 2019 NCAA Championships.

Meason, who joined the Commodores' women's golf program as an assistant coach in July of 2017 after spending the spring of 2016 as a volunteer assistant coach at her alma mater, has helped the Commodores return to postseason competition, advancing to the 2018 and 2019 NCAA tournaments.

In the 2018-19 season, Meason's assistance with the Commodores paid huge dividends. The team established a single-season program record with six tournament victories, including the NCAA Regional in Auburn, Alabama and Mason Rudolph Championships in Franklin, Tennessee.

Meason's importance to the 2018-19 Vanderbilt success was acknowledged by her peers when she was named Assistant Coach of the Year by the Women's Golf Coaches Association.

Meason's contribution also helped Vanderbilt head coach Greg Allen earn SEC Coach of the Year honors for the first time in his long tenure on West End.

Meason was instrumental in three Commodores earning All-SEC recognition in 2019, including Auston Kim, who became one of the nation's top freshmen, medalist at the NCAA Auburn Regional, and a qualifier for the United States Women's Open.

In her first year on campus, Meason helped Allen mentor a young Commodore squad into 2018 NCAA postseason play after the team missed the tournament one year earlier.

Meason, also a four-time All-SEC performer, was a mainstay of the Bulldogs' lineup from 2009-13, posting 14 top-10 and 28 top-20 finishes in 43 events played. She was a three-time medalist, securing wins at the 2010 Auburn Invitational, the Commodores' own Mason Rudolph Championship in 2012 and the 2013 Bryan National.

Meason's career-low round of six-under 66 is second all-time at Georgia. She posted that score both in the first round of the 2012 Lady Puerto Rico Classic and in the third round of the 2010 Tiger/Wave Invitational. Meason also owns two of the top-15 season stroke averages in Georgia history. As a junior, she recorded the ninth-best average of 73.28, and as a senior, she posted a stroke average of 73.47, which is 14th on the Bulldogs' all-time list.

Following a brief career competing professionally, Meason regained her amateur status in 2015. She qualified for the U.S. Women's Amateur that summer and also helped Georgia win the USGA's Women's State Team Championship later in the year.

A native of Hoschton, Ga., Meason was a standout junior who advanced to match play at both the 2008 U.S. Girls' Junior and the 2009 U.S. Women's Amateur and participated in the Canon (now Wyndham) Cup.

Emilie is married to William Meason, who played collegiate golf at Arkansas.
