Release dates and the number of weekly rankings vary from year-to-year. A blank space denotes a 17-week ranking instead of 18 weeks. The AP Women's Basketball Poll began during the 1976-77 season with the Top 20 rankings. The poll expanded to the Top 25 in 1989-90. During the 1994-95 season, the voting board switched from coaches to the news media.

MEMORIAL GYM

HOME SWEET HOME

Memorial Gymnasium, the Southeastern Conference's most historic venue for college basketball, serves as the home court for the Vanderbilt Commodores. Dedicated in 1952 as a memorial to all Vanderbilt men and women who served in World War II, the arena was built as a combination gymnasium and concert hall by the late master architect Edwin Keeble.

Decades later, the unique style of Memorial Gym — with its benches on the baselines, a playing court that sits above portions of the crowd and deafening acoustics — continues to make the Commodores home a dreaded stop for opponents. “Memorial Magic,” with its capacity crowds, overflowing student section and lively pep band, have assisted in numerous Commodore victories. In the stands, fans across Middle Tennessee have helped Memorial Gymnasium rank among the NCAA's Top 30 attendance leaders on numerous occasions.

Connected to the facility sits a practice gym that includes three cross-court playing floors, coaches offices, a donor room, private suites and a Hall of Champions.

In all, Memorial Gym has been expanded three times. Constructed with a seating capacity of 6,583, the University saw its first need to increase seating in 1965 with the addition of two north-side balconies. Two years later, a pair of balancing balconies were erected on the south side of the gym and dubbed “The Balconies That Clyde Lee Built.”

Capacity has fluctuated throughout the history of the building. It reached its highest number of 15,646 in 1969 when 4,000 seats were added in the east and west ends. When chairback seats in the end zones and suites on the north side were installed in the late 1990s capacity lowered to 14,168. Shortly thereafter, university officials removed portions of media press row on the south side in an effort to expand the student section by nearly 150 seats. Official capacity is now 14,326.
