Tim Corbin 2003 - present 740-354-1 Overall Record

In 17 seasons at Vanderbilt, Tim Corbin has transformed the Commodores into one of the national powers of college baseball and taken the program to unprecedented success winning national titles in 2014 and 2019.

Corbin's overall record of 740-354-1 (.676) is first in terms of wins at Vanderbilt, and first in terms of win percentage for coaches with 100 games or more.

Under Corbin, Vanderbilt boasts the SEC's longest streak of consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances at 14. The Dores have advanced to a Super Regional in five of the last six seasons.

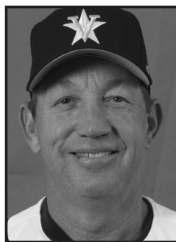

In 2019, Vanderbilt reached unprecedented success, setting an SEC record with 59 victories while capturing the SEC regular season and tournament titles en route to the national championship.

In 2015, Vanderbilt returned to the College World Series with team's fourth 50-win season in the last four making it back to the CWS finals before losing in three games to Virginia. The Dores captured the SEC East with a 20-10 mark.

The 2014 Commodores topped Virginia in the College World Series finals in three games to claim the title in just the Dores' second trip to Omaha. For the third time in four years Vandy hosted NCAA Regionals and Super Regionals, topping Oregon in the Regional final and Stanford in the Super Regionals.

Vanderbilt's 2013 team was one for the ages as the Commodores matched the school record with a 54-12 record and smashed the SEC record with a 26-3 mark to win the league title.

Roy Mewbourne 1979-2002 655-608-9 Overall Record

A fixture around Vanderbilt baseball for nearly a quarter century, Roy Mewbourne retired following the 2002 campaign, ending his career as the Commodores' all-time winningest skipper and one of most successful coaches in collegiate baseball history.

The native of Birmingham, Alabama, compiled a 655-608-9 mark in 24 seasons at Vanderbilt, and finished his 30-year coaching tenure with a 922-683-9 overall record.

In his final season as Vanderbilt's head coach, Mewbourne achieved several personal milestones, most notably becoming the 35th coach in college baseball history to reach the 900-win plateau. He registered his 900th career win against West Virginia and his 650th victory at Vanderbilt against Mississippi State. The win over the Bulldogs also came in Mewbourne's 1,600th game as a collegiate head coach.

At the start of the season, the then-56-year-old skipper also saw his dream of a new stadium become a reality with the unveiling of Hawkins Field. A catalyst in the stadium's construction, Mewbourne played a vital role in fund-raising, planning and oversight for the $5.8 million facility.

Mewbourne fielded some outstanding teams in his Vanderbilt tenure, highlighted by his 1980 squad that captured the SEC championship, which earned him SEC Coach of the Year honors.

He coached 19 All-Americans, 19 All-SEC honorees and 59 players who signed professional baseball contracts and 111 Commodores earned SEC Academic honors, including a school record 16 in 2002.

Larry Schmittou 1968-78 306-252-1 Overall Record

Larry Schmittou arrived at Vanderbilt in 1968 and immediately changed the mindset of Commodore baseball in the Music City. After combining for 13 total wins the previous three seasons, he guided Vanderbilt to eight wins his first year, 12 in 1969 and 24 in 1970.

In 1971, Vanderbilt broke through with a 34-19 record and won the SEC Eastern Division with an 11-5 record. That would be the first of four consecutive division crowns for the Commodores. In 1973 and '74, the Commodores swept Alabama, 2-0, in a pair of best-of-three series for the overall SEC championship earning him SEC Coach of the Year honors. He coached 20 All-SEC, eight All-SEC East, eight All-South Region and seven Academic All-SEC. He had 21 players in Major League Baseball with 14 of those players taken in the draft.

Schmittou retired following the 1978 campaign after 11 years as the Vanderbilt head coach. He amassed a 306-252-1 overall record and a 98-98 mark in Southeastern Conference play.

During the time Schmittou roamed the dugout at McGugin Field, Vanderbilt won more games than any other SEC school and was one of only two schools to win four divisional titles.

Upon his retirement as Vanderbilt's head coach, Schmittou acquired the rights to a Southern League expansion franchise team, the Nashville Sounds.

He was inducted into the Vanderbilt Hall of Fame in 2016.
