QUICK HITS

•Belmont finished 2020 with a 14-3 record, winning 13 of its final 14 games and completed the season on an eight-game winning streak.

•The Bruins recorded five walk-off wins in 2020, two from home runs and three from game-winning singles.

•Head coach Dave Jarvis is 11 wins away from passing Dave Whitten (1969-1997) for most wins in Belmont baseball history.

•Junior pitcher Kyle Brennan is currently tied for fifth for the most career saves in program history with 15. He needs just three more to move into a tie for fourth.

•Belmont Baseball completed its first season in program history in 1953.

•The Bruins officially played its first season as a member of the NCAA in 1998, the same year current head coach Dave Jarvis started his tenure.

•Belmont returns nine starters from the 2020 season and has 26 letterwinners coming back, adding 11 newcomers.

•The Bruins have had 42 players drafted in the MLB Draft.

•Current Los Angeles Dodgers infielder/outfielder Matt Beaty is a Belmont alum, competing for the Bruins from 2012-15.

Entering his 24th season at the helm of Belmont's baseball program and 39th year of coaching overall, head coach Dave Jarvis has cultivated a rich program that's seen success both on the field and in the classroom. Jarvis has led the Bruins since their inception as a NCAA Division I institution in 1998, leading Belmont to three conference championships and its two NCAA Tournament berths in 2011 and 2012.

As a coach, Jarvis has culminated an overall record of 974-747-2 in 32 years as a head coach and helped produce eight seasons in which the Bruins garnered 30 or more wins. The team constructed a program-best 39 wins during the 2012 season. Belmont's continued success on the diamond has seen itself ranked in the top 10 nationally in four of the NCAA's statistical categories at the conclusion of its 2016 and 2017 campaigns.

Not only has Jarvis lifted Belmont Baseball to new heights, but he is also in elite company in NCAA Division I baseball. Jarvis is one of 30 current coaches to accumulate 600 Division I wins, multiple conference championships and multiple NCAA Tournaments.

Jarvis developed 28 players from Belmont who have gone on to play professional baseball, including current Los Angeles Dodgers infielder/outfielder Matt Beaty. In addition to his on-field success, Jarvis has helped his players excel in the classroom. Following the 2019-20 academic year, 21 Belmont baseball players were named to the OVC Commissioner's Honor Roll.

The 2020 Belmont Bruins finished the season receiving votes in the final two weeks of the National Collegiate Baseball Writers

Association Top 30 poll, posting the 17th-highest win-loss percentage in NCAA Baseball with an .824 mark. The Bruins were also 18th in the country in total home runs with 20.

Belmont saw a rise in its offensive statistics during the 2020 season, ranking in the top five in the OVC in 14 categories. Jarvis helped the Bruins to a strong defensive performance in 2020, with Belmont leading the OVC in ERA with a 3.38 mark and putouts with 471.

Pitchers Casey Queener and Joshua South earned spots on All-OVC teams in 2019, marking the 14th consecutive year where Jarvis helped at least two players land spots on the All-Conference team. Queener and Grayson Taylor earned All-OVC Tournament honors in that same season.

Jarvis led Belmont to a win over nationally ranked Vanderbilt University at First Horizon Park in 2018, helping Dylan King and Matt Cogen get drafted in the 2018 MLB Draft.

In 2017, the Bruins registered a 31-29 mark while finishing third in the OVC. The Bruins made their first appearance in the OVC Championship Game since joining the conference. In 2017, outfielder Tyler Walsh was selected in the 33rd round by the Los Angeles Angels. In 2016, Belmont saw Aaron Quillen enter the draft as he was selected by the Cincinnati Reds.

The Bruins were recognized for their accomplishments during conference play in 2018, with three All-OVC selections and a Freshman All-American award winner in Kyle Brennan. In addition to conference recognition, Belmont has earned nine All-American honors since Jarvis took over, including three Freshman All-American nominations. Nick Egli earned All-American honors and was awarded the 2017 Gregg Olson Award.

In 2011, Belmont beat Oklahoma State and Troy in the Baton Rouge Regional, marking the first time in program history that the Bruins won an NCAA tournament game in any sport. Concluding the landmark season, Jarvis was named the TBCA College Coach of the Year. The previous year carved another program-best when Belmont started the season with a perfect 10-0 start.

Belmont toppled its first ranked opponent in 2001 when Jarvis' squad beat then-No. 13 ranked Georgia, who would be an eventual College World Series participant. Since then the Bruins have beaten multiple ranked opponents.

Jarvis fine-tuned his coaching ability with a nine-year stint as head coach at Three Rivers Community College in Poplar Bluff, Mo. from 1985-93. With Jarvis at the helm, the Raiders were consistently ranked in the National Junior College Athletic Association top 20 poll, highlighted by a No. 4 ranking in 1992. He was a three-time selection as Coach of the Year for the Midwest Community College Athletic Conference, as well as garnering Coach of the Year honors for women's basketball.

Jarvis broke into NCAA Division I baseball as an assistant with Murray State in the fall of 1993. At Murray State, he was primarily responsible for the instruction of hitters and catchers as well as teaching base running skills. Jarvis also used his extensive junior college network to create a recruiting pipeline for the Racers.

He finished his playing career at Arkansas State as the starting catcher and team captain. The Missouri native earned a bachelor's degree in education and later received his master's in education, both at Arkansas State.

A dedicated family man, Jarvis has three sons, Jordan, Logan, and Jackson. Logan currently plays under his father at Belmont. The family resides in Franklin, Tenn.

NATIONAL CHALLENGE

Belmont will play its fourth game against a top five opponent in March, making the short trip to Hawkins' Field on March 16 to take on No. 2 Vanderbilt. This will be the 69th overall meeting between Belmont and Vanderbilt, with the Commodores winning 58 of those games. Belmont is looking for its first win over a nationally ranked opponent since March 21, 2018, when the Bruins defeated No. 8 Vanderbilt.

SERIES RUNDOWN

Vanderbilt currently leads the overall series with Belmont 58-10, with the Commodores winning three of the last four matchups. Belmont's last win against Vanderbilt came on March 21, 2018 at First Horizon Park, home of the Nashville Sounds. The Bruins hung on to an 8-5 victory to mark the last time they beat a top 10 nationally ranked team.

SCOUTING VANDERBILT

Coming off a series win against baseball powerhouse Oklahoma State in Stillwater, No. 2 Vanderbilt is off to a 12-2 start. The 2019 National Champions are hitting .323 as a team, with 12 players hitting .314 or better. The Commodores have already hit 22 home runs in just 14 games, driving in 123 runs in the process. Their pitching staff has an earned run average of 2.52 and has tallied 172 strikeouts.

Dominic Keegan leads the offensive charge for Vanderbilt, holding a .548 batting average to go with four home runs, seven doubles and 15 RBIs. Carter Young holds a .382 average in addition to four home runs and a pair of stolen bases. Jayson Gonzalez has added 12 RBIs in 13 games, hitting .375 in the process.

TRIP DOWN MEMORY LANE

June 3-5, 2011 will go down as one of the most historic weekends in Belmont Baseball history. Making its first NCAA Regional appearance in program history, the Bruins collected its first NCAA Tournament wins in any sport when Belmont defeated Oklahoma State and Troy in the Nashville Regional at Hawkins Field. The Bruins eventually fell short in the Regional Finals to Vanderbilt.

LEADER OF THE PACK

In just 11 games, junior Logan Jarvis has already established himself as one of the best hitters in the Ohio Valley Conference. The Franklin, Tenn. native currently leads the league in batting average (.424), slugging percentage (.818), and on-base percentage (.543). Jarvis finished in the top 10 in the OVC in six statistical categories in 2020, including doubles, slugging percentage and RBIs.

CATCHER'S EYE

Belmont University baseball catcher Jackson Campbell was named to the Buster Posey National Collegiate Catcher of the Year Watch List, the Greater Wichita Area Sports Commission announced last week. The award is given annually to the top catcher in NCAA Division I Baseball, with Campbell being one of 69 catchers to be named to the list. Campbell is the only catcher representing the Ohio Valley Conference, marking the second time in his career being named to the watch list.

EARNING THE ACCOLADES

Sophomore pitcher Joshua South earned Ohio Valley Conference Pitcher of the Week for the second time this season, the conference announced Monday. Earning the award on March 1 earlier in 2021, South becomes the first Belmont Baseball pitcher to receive OVC Pitcher of the Week honors multiple times in the same season. Collecting 10 strikeouts in eight innings pitched while contributing to Belmont's first shutout victory of the season on Friday at UT Martin, South's double-digit strikeout performance is the first time a Belmont pitcher has thrown at least 10 strikeouts in a game since March 2, 2019.

ALL TO WELL

Freshman Jack Rando is all too familiar with Vanderbilt. His father, Joe, is the Director of Managerial Studies program at Vanderbilt and an Associate Professor of the Practice of Managerial Studies program.

WALK-OFF MAGIC

Belmont recorded five walk-off wins during the shortened 2020 season. Hagan Severance hit an 11th inning home run to defeat Missouri State 1-0. Drew Lowry had a sacrifice fly in the bottom of the 11th inning to defeat Evansville 4-3 and hit an RBI single to give Belmont the 8-7 win over Bradley the following day. Carson Shacklett hit a walk-off home run against UNC Asheville and Tommy Crider came up with a single to defeat Toledo in Belmont's final game in 2020.

CATCHING A LEGEND

Head coach Dave Jarvis is eyeing the all-time wins record at Belmont, where he currently has compiled 653 wins in his 24 years as the Bruins' head coach. Jarvis needs just 11 more wins to pass Dave Whitten (1969-1997) to become the winningest head coach in program history. Jarvis and Whitten had a close relationship until Whitten's death in 2012, where Whitten served as an honorary assistant and pitching coach under Jarvis from 1998-2000.

ELITE COMPANY

Not only has head coach Dave Jarvis lifted Belmont Baseball to new heights, he is put in elite company in NCAA Division I Baseball. Jarvis is one of 30 current coaches to have compiled at least 600 Division I Wins, multiple Division I conference championships and multiple NCAA Tournament appearances. He will face three coaches in that same category in 2021: Mike Bianco (Ole Miss), Tim Corbin (Vanderbilt), and Steve Smith (Tennessee Tech).

FOLLOWING HIS FATHER

Head coach Dave Jarvis is accompanied by his middle son, Logan, once again for the 2021 season. Logan Jarvis, voted one of three team captains for this season by his teammates, led the Bruins in 2020 with eight doubles and had a .371 batting average. Dave and Logan Jarvis are the first father-son duo to go through Belmont Athletics.

THANKS FOR SAVING US

Junior Kyle Brennan collected three saves to go with five wins, leading all NCAA Division I pitchers in victories in 2020. Brennan also finished in the top 10 in 12 OVC statistical categories, including ERA, opposing batting average and runs allowed. Brennan currently holds the fifth-most career saves in program history with 15, needing just three more to tie Will Tucker (2001-04) for fourth.

THE NATION IS WATCHING

Jackson Campbell was named a Preseason All-American by Collegiate Baseball Newspaper in addition to being ranked 28th in D1Baseball's Top 30 Preseason Catcher Rankings. Campbell and Logan Jarvis were also named to the Bobby Bragan Collegiate Sluggers Award Watch List. Kyle Brennan was named a NCBWA Preseason All-American and ranked 27th in D1Baseball's Preseason Top 50 Relief Pitchers list. Joshua South was ranked 123rd in D1Baseball's Preseason Top 150 Starting Pitchers list in addition to being named a top 20 prospect in the OVC for the MLB Draft with Logan Bowen.

REUNITED AGAIN

The 2021 Belmont Baseball team will feature two pairs of former high school teammates. Freshman Jack Rando rejoins Brentwood High School teammate, Carson Shacklett, where the pair helped Brentwood to a state championship in 2017 and a state runner-up finish in 2018. Freshmen Andy Bean and Carter Park are also together again after their time at St. George's High School. Both helped St. George's to a regional championship in their senior years, with Bean earning 2019 Regional Tournament MVP honors.

BELMONT'S MLB CHAMPION

Former Belmont Baseball All-American Matt Beaty ('15) became the first Bruin alum to win a World Series title when he was a member of the Los Angeles Dodgers in 2020. The Dresden, Tenn. native is the second Belmont alum to win a World Championship in professional sports, with former Belmont Basketball player Ian Clark winning an NBA Championship in 2017 as a member of the Golden State Warriors. Beaty became the first Belmont player to play in a Major League Baseball game since Dwight Bernard in 1978, making his Major League debut on April 30, 2019.

SINGING STARS

Not only has Belmont alumni made its name in the professional baseball ranks, but they have shined as stars off the field. Florida Georgia Line's Brian Kelley pitched for the Bruins from 2008-09, compiling 109 strikeouts. Judah Akers, the lead singer of Judah and the Lion, earned All-Atlantic Sun honors and was named the 2012 Atlantic Sun Tournament MVP to help Belmont to its second straight NCAA Tournament.

EXCELLING IN THE CLASSROOM

Belmont had a program record of 21 student-athletes named to the OVC Commissioner's Honor Roll in 2020. The honor marked the eighth straight season where the Bruins had at least 10 student-athletes named to the honor roll. Belmont Baseball leads the OVC in OVC Commissioner's Honor Roll awards since 2018 with 41. 94 percent of Belmont's graduates have secured employment or moved on to grad school within six months.

FROM HERE TO ANYWHERE

Several of Belmont Baseball's alumni have gone onto success in coaching. Vanderbilt Football's head coach Clark Lea was a member of the Bruins in 2002, hitting .400 in his lone season. Packy Elkins now serves as the run production coach for the St. Louis Cardinals, where he played at Belmont from 2007-10 and hit .327 in his senior season. Grace Christian Academy's Brad Myers was inducted into the Tennessee Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame in January. He played for Belmont from 1989-92.

SUMMER STANDOUTS

9 players from the 2021 team played summer baseball, with Joshua South leading the charge with the Savannah Bananas of the Coastal Plain League. South earned All-CPL First Team honors, finishing third in the league in strikeouts with 38. Aaron Hubbell and Chandler Schultz competed for the Kalamazoo Grizzlies of the Northwoods League, where Schultz held a 2.05 ERA in 22 innings pitched and Hubbell had a 2.05 ERA with 13 strikeouts. Brodey Heaton was named an all-star in the College Summer League at Grand Park and Logan Bowen, Jackson Campbell, Justin Fowlkes, Logan Jarvis, and Carson Shacklett competed in the Middle Tennessee Adult Baseball League.

Home Game Coverage

Due to COVID-19 protocols, no outside media members will be allowed inside the press box at Rose Park. However, Belmont will provide accommodations and Wi-Fi for individuals who plan on covering a game if space allows. If you plan on covering a game in person, please inform Grant Cohen at least 24 hours prior to first pitch. Masks are MANDATORY at Rose Park and must cover the nose and mouth.

Photographers/Videographers

Photographers/Videographers are permitted to shoot in designated areas. Please reach out to Grant Cohen for information on permissible areas for shooting. Access to the locker rooms, dugouts, bullpens, and the field are prohibited. All photographs and video are to be used in the coverage of Belmont Baseball and cannot for any reason be sold for commercial benefit.

Interviews

Interviews with Belmont players and coaches can be arranged by emailing Baseball SID, Grant Cohen, at grant.cohen@belmont.edu. Please do not contact players personally. Due to OVC rules for the 2021 season, all interviews will be VIRTUAL and no in-person interviews will be permitted. Please reach out to Grant Cohen if you need a Zoom link for an interview and/or if attending the postgame press conference.

Stats/Game Notes/Roster Cards

There will be no printing of stats, game notes and roster cards for the 2021 season. All game items will be available online at BelmontBruins.com. Live stats will always be available on StatBroadcast and a link will be available on Belmont's website. Other printed materials for each game will be available on Belmont's website.

Practice Coverage

Media members are permitted and encouraged to cover practice, but advanced notice is required. Please reach out to Grant Cohen at least 24 hours in advance to the day you plan on coming. Media members are required to be in the stands and are prohibited from being on the field. Masks are MANDATORY at Rose Park and must cover the nose and mouth.

Multimedia Usage

Photos and videos of Belmont Baseball will be allowed to use upon request. Please reach out to Grant Cohen if needing multimedia for your coverage. Credit must be given to "Belmont University Athletics" and @Belmont-Baseball must be tagged when using for social media.
