PRESEASON RECOGNITION

The fall season is upon us, which means the preseason All-American honors have been dished out. Four Buccaneers have captured seven All-American spots, led by Quay Holmes, Tyree Robinson and Tre'mond Shorts with two apiece. Holmes and Shorts were named to the Stats Perform and Phil Steele All-American squads, while Robinson earned spots on both the Stats Perform and HERO Sports All-American teams. Jared Folks rounds out the honorees with an appearance on the Phil Steele Preseason All-American team.

MORE THAN A "FOLKS" TALE

There has never been a more unique journey than that of Jared Folks. The graduate student began his career playing football at Temple University where he was a four-year member on the squad. Folks then decided to transfer to ETSU to play one final year of football. What he didn't know was that the one year would turn in to four more seasons due to medical and athletic redshirts granted by the NCAA. Folks has since been identified as the first student-athlete on record to have been granted an eighth year of eligibility by the NCAA.

HUZZIE & HUZZIE: ATTORNEYS AT LAW

Alijah Huzzie and Will Huzzie (no relation) have emerged as threats on both sides of the ball. Alijah Huzzie is a redshirt-freshman defensive back and led the team in interceptions with three during the spring campaign. In his first full season as a starter, Huzzie finished fourth on the team in total tackles (42), while finishing second on the team in solo tackles with 24. Will Huzzie paced the team in receptions with 27, while also leading the team in receiving yards with 334. Huzzie also added three touchdown receptions to his credit.

RUNNING WILD

Quay Holmes continues to catapult up the record books for the Buccaneers. During the 2021 spring campaign, Holmes racked up 640 rushing yards and eight touchdowns. The Georgia product turned in a season-high performance with 197 yards on the ground in the win against Western Carolina, the second-most rushing yards for Holmes, trailing only his program-record 255 yard performance against Mercer in 2019. Speaking of 2019, that year was a career-year for the redshirt-junior tailback. Holmes appeared in all 12 games with eight starts on the season, rushing for 1,143 yards on the year behind 206 carries. His 1,143 yards on the ground notched the fourth-most rushing yards in a single season by an ETSU back. Heading into the 2021 fall campaign, Holmes is third all-time in rushing yards (2,711), sixth in average yards per carry (5.1), fourth in scoring (186) and sixth in kickoff return yardage (1,300).

KEEPING THEM CLOSE

ETSU has become accustomed to the one-possession games. ETSU concluded the season with a one-possession loss at Mercer (21-13), marking the 11th consecutive FCS one-possession contest that the Bucs have competed in. The Bucs are prone to close contests since the return of football. ETSU has competed in 52 games since rejoining the Southern Conference in 2016. Of those 52 games, 30 have been decided by one possession or less. During that 52-game span, 38 of those outings have been Southern Conference battles. Of those 38 SoCon outings, 26 have come down to one possession separating the squads. The Bucs are 14-12 in one-possession games in the Southern Conference since rejoining the league in 2016. ETSU's last double-digit FCS victory was a 45-0 beat down against Gardner-Webb on Oct. 6, 2018.

2021 Buccaneer Football GAME NOTES

THE COMFORT OF GREENE

The Bucs boast a 66.7% winning percentage when playing games in the friendly confines of William B. Greene, Jr. Stadium. In its four seasons of existence, Greene Stadium has held 14 wins for the Blue & Gold, while yielding just seven losses. ETSU finished 4-2 inside Greene Stadium in its first season in 2017, following that season up with a 5-1 home mark in 2018. ETSU finished 3-3 at home in 2019 with wins over Shorter, Austin Peay and Mercer for the only three wins of the season for the Bucs. The Bucs competed in three games inside Greene Stadium during the 2021 spring season. During that three-game span, ETSU finished with a 2-1 record. In the 21 games played inside its home, ETSU is outscoring the opposition, 572-438, holding its foes to 20.9 points per contest. The Buccaneer defense is limiting opponents to 333.9 yards per game (6,733 total yards).

HOLMES IS WHERE THE HEART IS

Quay Holmes has officially solidified himself as one of the premiere backs in all of FCS football. The Georgia product continues to become a household name in the Southern Conference, known for making explosive plays and being involved in a hefty amount of scoring for the Buccaneers over the years. Holmes was officially named to the Walter Payton Award Watch List and the CFPA FCS National Performer of the Year Watch List. Holmes is more than a featured back, he is a game-changer in the return game as well. The redshirt-junior averaged 24.9 yards per kickoff return last season, collecting 399 yards on 16 returns. Holmes finished the shortened season with 1,094 all-purpose yards, collecting 182.3 all-purpose yards per game. His 182.3 all-purpose yard average ranked second in all of FCS football.

ROAD WOES

As strong as the Bucs have been on their home turf, the Blue & Gold have struggled on the road since the restart of the program ahead of the 2015 season. ETSU is 6-24 (.200) in the 30 road games since 2015. The Bucs earned a 3-3 record in 2018, the most road wins in a single season since the return of the program. ETSU has one winning road record since 2015, finishing 2-1 during the spring 2021 season. The Bucs have finished winless on the road in three of the six seasons since 2015.

CHALLENGING THE COMMODORES

The Commodores are coming off a winless 0-9 season which led to the dismissal of Derek Mason and the hiring of Clark Lea. The new era in Nashville, Tenn. has officially begun with Lea at the helm of the program. During the 2020 season, Vanderbilt's closest chance at a win was a 38-35 loss at Kentucky on Nov. 14. On the year, Vanderbilt averaged 14.8 points per game, while allowing 37.3 points to opponents per outing. The Commodores were led on the ground by Keyon Henry-Brooks with 494 yards and two touchdowns behind 120 carries. Rocko Griffin, Jr. returns as the leading rusher with 92 yards on the ground during the 2020 campaign. Ken Seals appears to be the man behind center for Vanderbilt. Seals finished the 2020 season with 1,928 passing yards and 12 touchdowns, capping the year off with a 186-of-288 mark and 10 interceptions thrown.

The Bucs are 0-1 all-time against Vanderbilt. ETSU made the trip to Nashville to conclude the 2019 season, dropping a 38-0 decision on Nov. 23 at Vanderbilt Stadium.

TAKEAWAYS

The Bucs have registered 21 games with at least two turnovers since restarting the program in 2015 – ETSU is 15-6 in those contests. The Bucs forced a pair of turnovers in the season-opening win against Samford in the spring, coming away with a pair of interceptions. Alijah Huzzie secured his first collegiate interception in his first game starting. Later in the game, the Bulldogs tried one final heave to force overtime, but the ball was deflected at the line and Donovan Manuel secured the win with his second career interception. ETSU hauled in a third interception of the season, this time against the Paladins as Manuel pulled down his second interception of the campaign. Manuel returned the ball 22 yards before being tackled to conclude the opening half. The Bucs forced three more in Charleston, with Huzzie hauling in an interception and fellow defensive backs, Tyree Robinson and Karon Delince scooping up one fumble each. The Bucs added two more turnovers in the win against VMI, recording one interception and one fumble recovery. The fumble recovery by Delince sealed the victory for the Bucs.

ON THIS DATE IN HISTORY

Starting with our first "On This Date in History": beginning in 1813 the first U.S. Religious newspaper was founded, the Christian Observer. Sticking with the historic mindset, in 1862 General Lee decides to invade the north with 50,000 troops. Twenty years later in 1882, Thomas Edison's lightbulb is put to the test as it was used to light up New York's Pearl Street Station. Switching gears to the sports world, in 1945 grandmaster Reuben Fine wins four simultaneous rapid chess games while blindfolded. The entertainment industry witnessed the Carol Burnett Show premiere on CBS in 1961 and the Price is Right debut in 1972. The final note of importance comes in 1998 when Google is formally incorporated by Larry Page and Sergey Brin.

BUCS FLOCK TO WILLIAM B. GREENE, JR. STADIUM

In 2018, over 50,000 fans walked through the gates inside William B. Greene, Jr. Stadium (8,436 average). In 2019, the Bucs topped that mark as ETSU saw a grand total of 51,152 (8,525) people walk through the gates to cheer on the squad. The 51,152 attendees marked a Greene Stadium record for attendees in a single season. In its first three seasons, ETSU totaled 149,821 fans in its 18 home games inside the new stadium (8,323 average). Overall, ETSU has posted 13 sellout crowds in the 18 home games. ETSU led all FCS in stadium percentage

GREENE STADIUM CROWDS

OPPONENT	ATTENDANCE
LIMESTONE (9/2/17)	9,530
AUSTIN PEAY (9/21/19)	9,350
CHATTANOOGA (9/29/18)	9,277
VMI (9/14/19)	9,150
SAMFORD (11/17/18)	8,749

capacity in 2018 at 109.65. ETSU sold out five of its six home games in 2019. Two of the three sellouts rank among the top five in single-game attendance in Greene Stadium history, with the crowd of 9,350 against Austin Peay on Sept. 21 ranking as the second-largest crowd in stadium history. In 2019, the Bucs ranked second in FCS in stadium percentage capacity at 110.80, a new Greene Stadium record. The Bucs are officially operating at full capacity after allowing only 30% in the spring season.

MAKE WAY FOR THE MAYOR

Tyler "The Mayor" Riddell has earned the starting spot behind the center for the opening game at Vanderbilt. During his career, Riddell has appeared in seven games with three starts. The Florida product holds a career mark of 67-of-115 for 768 yards and four touchdowns. Riddell is 2-1 as a starter, a record that he compiled in the shortened 2021 spring season. Riddell has seen Vanderbilt before, finishing 1-of-5 for 18 yards last time the two squads met in Nashville in 2019.

VOTES RECEIVED

The Bucs cracked the Top 25 in the spring, marking the first time since Nov. 19, 2018 that ETSU was featured inside the Top 25 rankings. The ranking put an end to an 868-day drought of not being ranked. The Bucs return the majority of the team and are the third team out of the rankings in the preseason, receiving 99 votes in the Stats Perform FCS Top 25 poll. The Blue & Gold are also receiving votes in the FCS Coaches Poll.

THROW IT OUR WAY

The ETSU secondary was a strong point for the Bucs all season long in 2019. The Bucs ranked 12th in the NCAA at the FCS level for fewest passing yards allowed per game at 170.3. The Bucs also ranked second in passing defense in the Southern Conference. During the 2021 spring season, the Bucs finished 32nd in team passing efficiency defense (119.18), 34th in the NCAA in interceptions (5) and 22nd in pass defense, allowing 173.3 yards per game through the air. The Bucs held pass-heavy Samford to just 231 passing yards. VMI, consistently one of the premier passing threats in the league, tossed the pigskin for 315 yards against the Buccaneer defense.

BITTER END

The Bucs were on the verge of a playoff birth in the FCS playoffs until the final game of the season when the Blue & Gold were tripped up on the road at Mercer. The Bears played spoiler to the Buccaneer playoff hopes with a 21-13 win, leaving a bitter taste in many of the Buccaneer mouths. Needless to say, the Buccaneer fans are hungry for more and will have Nov. 20, 2021 circled on their calendars when Mercer comes to town to conclude the regular season.

TALL TASK

ETSU is 1-13 all-time against Power-5 opponents. The Bucs' last Power-5 win won on Nov. 7, 1987 when the Blue & Gold toppled North Carolina State in the first-ever meeting, besting the Wolfpack by the final score of 29-14 in Raleigh, N.C. Vanderbilt will mark only the third Power-5 opponent that the Bucs will have faced multiple times. During the 14 matchups, the Bucs have allowed 559 points (39.9 avg.) and have scored 92 (6.6 avg), having been shutout six times. The most points that ETSU has scored against a Power-5 is 29 (N.C. State), while the most surrendered is 66 (Miami).

TO 30 AND BEYOND...

ETSU is 8-1 when scoring at least 30 points since restarting the program in 2015 ... ETSU had won its last 14 games when scoring at least 30 points prior to the setback at Furman on Sept. 30, 2017. The Bucs have won their last four games when scoring 30 or more points, including two in 2018 and 2019. ETSU posted a 48-10 win over Shorter on Sept. 7, 2020 and scored 38 points in the win over Mercer on Nov. 16, 2020 in the final home game of the season (the last 30-point outing for the Bucs).

RED ZONE SUCCESS

Since the start of the 2016 season, ETSU is 139-of-164 (84.8%) in red zone scoring ... The Bucs have scored 782 points during these 164 trips (91 TDs/48 FGs).

2021 Buccaneer Football GAME NOTES

LAST TIME OUT..

April 10, 2021 • Macon, Ga.

ETSU .....	13
Mercer .....	21

Five Star Stadium (3,273)

MACON, Ga. (April 10, 2021) — In a game where offense was hard to come by and every possession counted, it was the Mercer Bears who stole the one-possession battle as they handed ETSU a devastating 21-13 loss in Macon, Ga. With the loss, the 20th-ranked Buccaneers fall to 4-2 in the spring season as their playoff hopes take a hit.

The Bucs owned every facet of the game except for the one that mattered most, the final score. ETSU outgained Mercer (382-219) as the offense showed up late in the second half and the Bucs' defense continued to flex its muscles.

ETSU failed to overcome the turnovers in Saturday's loss as the Bucs coughed the ball up three times, directly resulting in 14 points for the Bears. One of the turnovers was a scoop and score for the Bears' defense that put Mercer ahead 21-6 at the time.

Neither team wanted to put points on the board until Mercer broke through with a touchdown pass 32 seconds into the second quarter. The two squads combined for 20 points in the second quarter and then did not score again until the fourth quarter where each unit posted one touchdown apiece.

Brock Landis (Hoschton, Ga.) orchestrated a late fourth-quarter drive that provided the Bucs with some new life as he found Will Huzzie (Duluth, Ga.) for a four-yard touchdown strike. As they always do, the defense held strong and forced a Mercer punt. However, ETSU's offense was unable to march down the field for the game-tying touchdown.

INSIDE THE NUMBERS

- Landis threw for a career-high 26-of-44 with 228 yards and one touchdown in the loss to the Bears — the 228 passing yards marked a new season high for the Buccaneer offense.
- Huzzie finished the contest with a career-high eight receptions for 74 yards and one touchdown, his third of the season.
- Quay Holmes (Powder Springs, Ga.) led both teams in rushing with 89 yards on 14 carries.
- The Bucs outgained the Bears 338-104 in the final three quarters of play... ETSU's defense held Mercer to just 60 yards of offense in the second half.
- The Buccaneer defense held Mercer to just 219 total yards, the lowest output by an opponent against the Bucs this season.
- Both Mike Price (Stockbridge, Ga.) and Donovan Manuel (Ellenwood, Ga.) finished the game with career highs in tackles — Price led the Bucs with 14, while Manuel chipped in 11.
- Tyler Keltner (Tallahassee, Fla.) finished the game 2-for-2 in field goal attempts, connecting from 49 and 39 yards.
- The one-possession game marked the 11th consecutive FCS one-possession contest... The Bucs are 5-6 in those contests (4-2 this spring).
- ETSU drops to 3-3 all-time against Mercer, snapping the three-game winning streak in the series.

2021 Buccaneer Football GAME NOTES

RANDY SANDERS • HEAD COACH • FOURTH SEASON

RECORD AT ETSU: 15-15
HOME RECORD AT ETSU: 10-5
ROAD RECORD AT ETSU: 5-10
OVERALL RECORD: 15-15

Randy Sanders was named ETSU football head coach on Dec. 17, 2017, becoming the 18th head coach in program history.

Following the 2021 spring season, Sanders is now 15-15 at the helm of the Bucs following a shortened 4-2 season featuring a young ETSU squad. The Bucs competed in just six games due to the COVID-19 pandemic, narrowly missing the FCS playoffs as ETSU was the first team out of the seedings. The Blue & Gold earned a critical win over then-ranked No. 10 VMI, defeating the Keydets by the final score of 24-20 in Lexington, Va. Coach Sanders helped guide his squad to earning 22 postseason SoCon accolades, including the Defensive Player of the Year in Jared Folks and the Jacobs Blocking Award winner in Tre'mond Shorts.

The spring 2021 season came off the heels of the 2019 campaign in which ETSU finished 3-9 on the year. The Bucs picked up a marquee win over Austin Peay (20-14), defeating a team that would go on to make a deep run in the FCS playoffs. Coach Sanders coached 12 All-SoCon honorees in his second season with the program. Despite the record, the Bucs posted the 10th-best offense in a single season in program history (4,030), while also averaging the sixth most yards per play (5.43).

In his first season with the Blue & Gold, Sanders guided the Bucs to a share of the 2018 Southern Conference Championship in just his first season at the helm of the program. Under the direction of Sanders, the Bucs finished 8-4 in 2018, earning the program's second-ever trip to the FCS playoffs. The eight wins were the most by a first-year head coach in Buccaneer history and the third-most in a single season in school history. Coach Sanders was labeled the SoCon Coach of the Year and was named a finalist for the STATS FCS Eddie Robinson Award, while also coaching 13 players to All-SoCon teams and 19 All-American accolades in 2018.

Prior to his arrival in Johnson City, Sanders enjoyed one of the most successful five-year stretches in Florida State history. From 2013-17, Florida State totaled 53 wins, two ACC titles, won the 2013 National Championship and he coached a Heisman Trophy-winning quarterback. In his first year at Florida State, Sanders led Jameis Winston to become the youngest players to win a Heisman Trophy in 2013, the same season he also led the Seminoles to a 14-0 record and a national championship. In 2013, Florida State set the national record for points in a season with 723, led the nation with a passing efficiency mark of 174.69, and set both school and ACC marks with 7,267 yards of total offense, 51.6 points per game, 94 touchdowns, and 7.67 yards per play. Winston set the national record for touchdown passes by a freshman with 40, had seven 300-yard games and 11 consecutive games scoring 40-plus points.

After the 2014 season, where Florida State started the year 13-0 and earned a spot in the inaugural College Football Playoff, Winston became the first Seminole player to be taken No. 1 overall in the NFL Draft. Despite losing nearly all of their offensive production to the NFL draft in 2015, Sanders' offense remained atop the ACC in offense the next year as Dalvin Cook set school records in rushing (1,691) and all-purpose yards (1,935) on his way to earning All-American honors. In 2017, Cook was drafted by the Minnesota Vikings.

Sanders coached in the SEC prior to his stint in the ACC as he served as the Quarterbacks Coach at Kentucky before taking over as offensive coordinator from 2009-12. In Lexington, Sanders developed Andre' Woodson into one of the top quarterbacks in the nation. Woodson led the SEC in passing yards, total offense and touchdown passes, including a SEC record 40 in 2007. Woodson went on to be drafted by the New York Giants. During Sanders' tenure, Kentucky won three straight bowl games for the first time in school history.

Sanders, who played collegiately at Tennessee from 1984-88, began his coaching career at Tennessee in 1989, and during the 17 years at his alma mater, the Vols compiled a record of 162-46-2 (.776). Over his run in Knoxville, Tennessee won four SEC championships and six Eastern Division crowns in addition to its national title. The Vols played in bowl games his first 16 seasons, including four Citrus Bowls, three Fiesta Bowls, three Cotton Bowls, two Peach Bowls, and one each in the Sugar, Orange, Hall of Fame and Gator bowls.

Sanders started his coaching career as the Vols' quarterbacks coach in 1989 and 1990 under head coach Johnny Majors. The Morristown, Tenn. native became a full-time assistant coach in 1991, where he worked with the wide receivers, while Phillip Fulmer named Sanders the recruiting coordinator and running backs coach in 1993. Sanders remained in that role until 1998 when he took over as Tennessee's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

Sanders, a Morristown, Tenn. was the offensive coordinator when Tennessee won the 1998 BCS National Title. Sanders played a part in either coaching or recruiting a pair of No. 1 overall picks in the NFL Draft – Peyton Manning (1998) and Jameis Winston (2015). In his 29 years of coaching, Sanders has coached in 26 bowl games and his teams hold a combined record of 258-105-2.

Sanders and his wife, Cathy, have two daughters, Kelly and Kari.

2021 Buccaneer Football GAME NOTES

GAME #1 • Feb. 20, 2021 • Johnson City, Tenn.

Samford ..... 17
ETSU ..... 24

Greene Stadium

JOHNSON CITY, Tenn. (Feb. 20, 2021) – The ETSU Football team delivered quite the defensive performance in the much-anticipated season opener as ETSU toppled Samford on Saturday by the final score of 24-17. The Southern Conference battle was played at William B. Greene, Jr. Stadium in Johnson City, Tenn.

The Bucs overcame a 14-0 deficit in the first quarter, outscoring the Bulldogs 24-3 in the final 45 minutes of play. The victory over Samford halted ETSU's three-game skid against the Bulldogs as the Blue & Gold improved to 1-0 to start the season for the fourth time in six years.

Samford scored on its first two drives of the game, quickly building a 14-0 advantage over the home squad. The Bucs were able to crack the scoreboard with five seconds left in the opening half as Quay Holmes (Powder Springs, Ga.) punched in a 1-yard touchdown run to trim the deficit in half.

Holmes was back at it again in the third quarter, finishing off another drive with a 1-yard punishing run to tie the game at 14-14. Holmes' touchdown was set up by a 59-yard punt return from Aljah Huzzie (Franklin, Ga.) and 30 yards rushing on the ground from Jacob Saylor (Jasper, Tenn.).

The two squads traded field goals as neither team could gain any separation. Tyler Keltner (Tallahassee, Fla.) connected on a 28-yard field goal for his first attempt of the season, knotting things up at 17-17 with 14:55 left in the game.

The ETSU defense halted Samford's offense on back-to-back drives, putting the ball back in the hands of the Bucs with 6:21 left to play. Three plays later, the Blue & Gold claimed their first lead of the contest after Tyler Riddell (Tampa, Fla.) found Julian Lane-Price (Mosheim, Tenn.) for a 59-yard strike. The touchdown reception was the first for Lane-Price as he put the Bucs on top, 24-17.

The final drive was filled with drama as the Bulldogs began the series on their own 27-yard line with 2:31 remaining. Chris Oladokun pushed the Samford offense down to the ETSU 26-yard line with 16 ticks left on the clock. On 2nd-and-10, the Bucs flushed Oladokun out of the pocket as Jalen Porter (Gallatin, Tenn.) tipped the pass and Donovan Manuel (Ellenwood, Ga.) came down with the game-sealing interception. Manuel's interception allowed the Bucs to line up in victory formation, securing the win in front of the home faithful.

INSIDE THE NUMBERS:

With the victory, ETSU begins the season 1-0 for the fourth time in six seasons ... The Bucs' triumph over the Bulldogs snapped a three-game skid, giving ETSU its second win over Samford in the brief history ... Quay Holmes rushed for 125 yards and two scores, pushing his career total to 2,196 yards, passing both Jerry Butler and Derrick Hollins for 7th all-time in ETSU history ... Holmes' two touchdowns against the Bulldogs marked his sixth career multi-rushing touchdown performance ... After allowing 14 points and 159 yards in the first quarter, the Buccaneer defense yielded just 161 yards and three points over the final three frames ... The Bulldogs began the day 5-for-5 on third-down conversions, but finished with just three conversions in the final 14 attempts ... Tyler Riddell's 59-yard pass was both the longest touchdown pass in his career and longest completion of his career ... The ETSU defense sacked Samford eight times, marking the most since pulling down Reece Udinski eight times against VMI on Sept. 14, 2018 ... The Bucs allowed just 37 yards of offense in 19 plays, shifting the momentum back to the Bucs heading into the locker room ... Aljah Huzzie set up ETSU's second touchdown of the game with a 59-yard punt return, the longest ETSU punt return since a 69-yard touchdown against VMI on Sept. 14, 2018 ... The Buccaneer defense hauled in two interceptions, one from Huzzie and one from Manuel. This is the ninth time since the restart of the program that the Bucs have pulled down multiple interceptions in a single game.

GAME #2 • March 13, 2021 • Johnson City, Tenn.

Furman ..... 17
ETSU ..... 13

Greene Stadium

JOHNSON CITY, Tenn. (March 13, 2021) – It truly was a tale of two halves in Saturday's 17-13 loss to No. 15 Furman on Saturday at William B. Greene, Jr. Stadium. The Bucs (1-1) carried a 10-0 advantage into the locker room, only to get outscored 17-3 by the Paladins (3-1) in the second half. To compliment the four-point loss, the Bucs were plagued with penalties as ETSU amassed 13 penalties on the day for 103 yards, including 12 in the second half that went for 93 yards.

ETSU jumped out to the early 7-0 lead in its second drive of the game as Quay Holmes (Powder Springs, Ga.) capped off an 8-play, 82-yard drive with his third touchdown of the season. The Georgia product received a big block and was off to the races with a 20-yard scamper for the ETSU touchdown.

The Bucs extended their advantage in the second quarter with 38 seconds remaining in the half as Tyler Keltner (Tallahassee, Fla.) split the uprights with a 38-yard field goal to give ETSU the 10-0 lead at the break.

Furman raced out of the locker room and scored 17 unanswered points to take the 17-13 lead into the final quarter of play. The Paladins put together 111 yards of offense in the third quarter, compared to just 74 yards by the Bucs. The big difference, the penalty yards for the Bucs, racking up 70 yards of penalties in the third quarter.

The Bucs cut the deficit to just four early in the fourth quarter as Keltner connected on his second field goal of the game, this time a 30-yard chip shot for the 17-13 score in favor of the Paladins.

ETSU's defense came up big again, making a goal-line stand with less than three minutes to play, putting the ball back in the hands of the offense and trailing by four.

Tyler Riddell (Tampa, Fla.) connected with Julian Lane-Price (Mosheim, Tenn.) for the 16-yard pass on the first play of the drive, but that was all the Bucs could muster as ETSU was hit with a costly penalty on third down that put the Bucs at 4th and 15. ETSU was unable to complete the pass to extend the game, turning the ball over to the Paladins as Furman escaped with another narrow victory.

INSIDE THE NUMBERS:

With the loss, the Bucs fall to 8-27 all-time against Furman ... ETSU held the Furman offense in check, shutting out the Paladins in the opening 30 minutes of play ... The Bucs' first-half shutout was the first time that ETSU shut out an opponent since Gardner-Webb on Oct. 6, 2018 ... Holmes rushed for 67 yards and one score, passing George Searcy for 6th all-time in rushing yards in ETSU history ... After only collecting one penalty for 10 yards in the first half, the Bucs were hit with 12 penalties for 93 yards in the second half ... The 13 penalties for the Bucs are the most since picking up 13 penalties for 142 yards against VMI on Sept. 14, 2018 ... The ETSU defense held the Paladins to just 96 yards of offense in the first half, while the Buccaneer offense picked up 178 yards ... ETSU's offense stalled in the second half, totaling 119 yards, including just 45 in the final 15 minutes ... ETSU's defense collected 66 tackles on the afternoon, led by Mike Price (Stockbridge, Ga.) with a career-high 10 tackles ... For the second consecutive game, Donovan Manuel (Ellenwood, Ga.) picked off the opposing quarterback, returning this one for 22 yards ... Riddell finished the game 22-of-35 with 207 yards in the air and one interception – the redshirt freshman was 11-of-12 at the half for 120 yards ... Lane-Price put together another good game in the receiving core, hauling in four catches for a team-best 78 yards.

2021 Buccaneer Football GAME NOTES

GAME #3 • March 20, 2021 • Charleston, S.C.

ETSU ..... 28
The Citadel ..... 21

Johnson Hagood Stadium

CHARLESTON, S.C. (March 20, 2021) – It was another one-possession contest between ETSU and The Citadel, this time with the Bucs claiming revenge with a 28-21 victory over the Bulldogs in Charleston, S.C. on Saturday afternoon. The Bucs avenged the 2019 homecoming loss, winning their second consecutive game in Charleston. ETSU improved to 2-1 on the season, all in Southern Conference action, while The Citadel falls to 0-8, 0-4 on the year.

ETSU was able to capitalize on The Citadel blunders, scoring 21 points on three Bulldog turnovers, enabling the Bucs to leave Johnson Hagood Stadium with the seven-point victory.

It was tough sledding for the Buccaneer offense as ETSU totaled just 223 yards of offense. However, the offense was enough as redshirt-freshman quarterback Tyler Riddell (Tampa, Fla.) threw a pair of touchdown passes to Jacob Saylor (Jasper, Tenn.) and Will Huzzie (Duluth, Ga.), finishing the game with 182 yards passing and two scores.

ETSU scored the first touchdown of the game, a 27-yard fumble recovery for the 7-0 lead. However, The Citadel answered with 14 consecutive points before the Bucs retaliated with Saylor's touchdown before the half.

The Blue & Gold then delivered a quick punch, scoring two touchdowns in the first five minutes of the second half to take the 14-point advantage over the host squad.

The back-and-forth affair lived up to its reputation as the Bulldogs closed the gap to 28-21 with less than three minutes on the clock in the fourth quarter.

After forcing a three-and-out, The Citadel offense took over in ETSU territory. However, the Buccaneers' defense did what they do best and slammed the door shut on the opposing offense. Facing a 4th-and-2 at the ETSU 37-yard line, the Bulldogs tried to race to the edge to pick up the first down. Tyree Robinson (Gainesville, Ga.) and fellow defensive back Alijah Huzzie (Franklin, Ga.) seemed to be shot out of a cannon, delivering the game-winning hit on Sam Llewellyn, stopping the Bulldog running back short with one yard to go.

INSIDE THE NUMBERS:

For the second consecutive game in Charleston, S.C., Tyree Robinson scored a defensive touchdown... This time returning a 27-yard fumble recovery for the touchdown – Robinson recorded a 42-yard interception return for a touchdown on Oct. 13, 2018 against the Bulldogs ... Robinson's fumble recovery for a touchdown was the first since Robinson did so against Wofford on Oct. 20, 2018, recovering the ball in the endzone for a touchdown ... ETSU forced three turnovers in Saturday's victory, the first time since forcing three in a 45-0 homecoming win over Gardner-Webb on Oct. 6, 2018 ... Alijah Huzzie hauled in his second career interception with a toe-tap catch on the sideline in the third quarter to set up the Bucs' fourth touchdown of the game ... The ETSU defense was led by Colton Lakes (Loveland, Ohio) with a career-high 12 tackles, while Jared Folks (Harrisburg, Pa.) tied his career high with 11 tackles. ETSU yielded only 236 yards of offense to the triple option attack, including just 138 on the ground ... Defensive backs: Karon Delince (Phenix City, Ala.), Alijah Huzzie and Tyree Robinson all came away with a turnover in the seven-point triumph ... Redshirt-freshman linebacker DiAndre Davis (Charlotte, N.C.) forced two fumbles in the win, including the one that led to the game's first score ... Will Huzzie finished the game with six receptions for 94 yards and one score, while Jacob Saylor ended the game with 77 all-purpose yards (52 receiving) and one touchdown ... The Bucs finished with just seven yards of offense on nine plays in the opening quarter, the lowest total since recording -11 yards in the third quarter at Vanderbilt on Nov. 23, 2019 ... ETSU finished the game with 223 yards of offense ... ETSU improves to 17-12 all-time against The Citadel, including 8-7 when playing in Charleston, S.C. ... The seven-point win marked the fourth consecutive one-possession battle between the two squads, with each team winning in enemy territory.

GAME #4 • March 27, 2021 • Johnson City, Tenn.

Western Carolina ..... 17

Greene Stadium

JOHNSON CITY, Tenn. (March 27, 2021) – Neither the delayed start, the dreary weather nor the Catamount defense could slow down the Buccaneer running game as ETSU powered its way to a 24-17 victory over Western Carolina on Saturday afternoon. With the win, the Bucs (3-1, 3-1) reclaim the Blue Ridge Border Battle Trophy from the claws of the Catamounts (1-8, 1-5).

The Bucs had to wait through a 90-minute delay as severe weather rolled into William B. Greene, Jr. Stadium, blanketing the turf with large chunks of hail.

Following the delay, both offenses came out firing as each squad scored on its first offensive drive. The two offenses combined for 34 points and 509 yards of total offense in the first half. The first half ended on a historical note as sophomore kicker Tyler Keltner (Tallahassee, Fla.) buried a program-record 54-yard field goal to even things up at 17 apiece.

The second half proved to be a different story as the two units collected a combined 174 yards of offense and just one touchdown. The game-winning touchdown belonged to the host squad as Quay Holmes (Powder Springs, Ga.) punched in a five-yard rush and the defense took care of the rest following another 30-minute weather delay with 12:40 remaining in the contest.

The Bucs received a huge boost in the run game as the star duo of Holmes and Jacob Saylor (Jasper, Tenn.) each eclipsed the 100-yard mark, combining for 333 yards on the ground. Holmes tallied two rushing touchdowns and finished with 197 yards on 30 carries. Meanwhile, Saylor posted a career-high 136 yards on just 15 carries. The dominant duo proved to be too much for the Western Carolina defense as the Bucs ran free to bringing the trophy back home to Johnson City, Tenn.

INSIDE THE NUMBERS:

The Bucs scored on their first possession for the first time this season, doing so on a season-long 13-play drive ... The 70-yard touchdown drive was the first longest of the season... The opening scoring drive is just the second opening-drive touchdown that the Bucs have scored in two seasons – first since The Citadel on Nov. 2, 2019... ETSU delivered a 5-play, 90-yard touchdown drive in the second quarter, marking the longest drive of the season ... The drive was capped by a career-high 40-yard touchdown rush from Holmes... The Bucs received a big momentum boost to end the opening half as Keltner buried a program-record 54-yard field goal to even the contest at 17-17 ... The previous long was 52 yards by George Gimadevilla against James Madison in 1986... Jacob Saylor and Quay Holmes both rushed for over 100 yards, the first time that a pair of ETSU backs did so since Holmes and Saylor achieved the feat on Oct. 6, 2018 in a 45-0 blowout win over Gardner-Webb... The Bucs rushed for 350 yards as a unit, the most since collecting 410 yards against Mercer in the home finale in 2019... Brock Landis (Hoschton, Ga.) started his first FCS game, picking up the win after finishing 8-of-16 for 55 yards, while rushing eight times for 34 yards and one touchdown... Jared Folks (Harrisburg, Pa.) led the defense in tackles, finishing the game with a team-best six tackles... The Buccaneer defense found the formula for stopping Western Carolina's Ryan Glover, allowing just 17 passing yards from the Penn transfer in the second half ... Glover finished the game 14-of-23 for 168 yards and one touchdown pass... With the win, ETSU improves to 24-25-1 all-time against the Catamounts, winning the 50th head-to-head battle ... More importantly, the Bucs improve to 2-1 in Blue Ridge Border Battle contests and 13-12-1 when facing the Catamounts in Johnson City... Following the win, the Bucs match their win total from a season ago, improving to 3-1 on the campaign.

2021 Buccaneer Football

GAME NOTES

GAME #5 • April 3, 2021 • Lexington, Va.

ETSU .....	24
VMI .....	20
Foster Stadium

LEXINGTON, Va. (April 3, 2021) – It was another dramatic finish for the Buccaneers as ETSU pulled off yet another one-possession victory. ETSU went on the road to defeat previously undefeated VMI, capturing the 24-20 upset over the Keydets at Foster Stadium. With the win, ETSU improves to 4-1, while the 10th-ranked Keydets fall to 5-1.

ETSU's defense continues to prove the notion of "defense wins championships" as the Bucs held a very-potent VMI offense to just 20 points, nearly 12 points below the season average. Despite spotting the Keydets the 10-0 lead, ETSU was able to overcome the deficit by limiting the passing threat and shutting down the run game.

The Bucs' offense woke up following the 10-point deficit, outscoring the Keydets 10-3 down the stretch to end the opening half with a three-point deficit.

For the second consecutive week, offense was harder to come by in the second half. VMI corralled just 149 yards offense in the second half, while ETSU mustered 117 yards of offense in the final 30 minutes. However, the important factor in the second half was the score, with the Bucs outscoring VMI 14-7 to march out of Lexington with the four-point win. ETSU's offense was highlighted by Quay Holmes (Powder Springs, Ga.) who put together another 100-yard rushing performance, finishing the game with 135 yards on 29 carries and two touchdowns.

Before the clock struck zero, drama ensued on the final VMI drive with the Keydets taking over on their own 33-yard line. After picking up two first downs and getting into ETSU territory, the Buccaneer defense buckled down and rattled the VMI offense. The Keydets faced a 4th-and-5 and completed a five-yard slant pass from Seth Morgan to Jakob Herres. However, Tyree Robinson (Gainesville, Ga.) delivered a punishing hit to Herres, jarring the ball loose as Karon Delince (Phenix City, Ala.) recovered the ball and was off to the races. A block in the back penalty negated an ETSU touchdown, but it was a moot point with the Bucs taking four plays to run the clock down.

INSIDE THE NUMBERS:

In his second collegiate start, Brock Landis (Hoschton, Ga.) improved to 2-0 after completing 11-of-27 passes for 148 yards and one touchdown...Landis' touchdown pass to Will Huzzie (Duluth, Ga.) was his first FCS touchdown throw in his career...Huzzie finished the game with five receptions for 83 yards...The Bucs finished 2-for-3 in fourth-down conversions in Lexington after starting the season 0-for-4...Garrett Taylor (Murfreesboro, Tenn.) connected for a career-high 61-yard punt in the second quarter, downing the Keydets at their own two-yard line...VMI scored on its first three drives of the game, collecting just 13 points as the Bucs held the Keydets to two field goals...The Keydets scored on just one of the final six drives...Alijah Huzzie (Franklin, Ga.) led the defense with a career-high 13 tackles (10 solo) – he also hauled in his third interception of the season...Donovan Manuel (Ellenwood, Ga.) also notched a career high in tackles with 10...ETSU won the turnover battle in Lexington, 2-1, coming away with one interception and one fumble recovery...VMI's quarterback Seth Morgan started the game 11-for-11 in the air, finishing the game 36-of-46 with 315 yards and one interception...The Bucs held VMI to just 67 yards rushing, the third time that ETSU has held opponent for less than 100 yards on the ground this season...The one-possession game marked the 10th consecutive FCS one-possession contest...The Bucs are 5-5 in those contests (4-1 this spring)...ETSU improves to 3-11 against Top 25 opponents since the return of football...With the win, the Bucs improved to 16-10 overall against VMI, winning 13 of the last 16 meetings – ETSU improves to 7-7 in Lexington, Va.

GAME #6 • April 10, 2021 • Macon, Ga.

ETSU .....	13
Mercer .....	21
Five Star Stadium

MACON, Ga. (April 10, 2021) – In a game where offense was hard to come by and every possession counted, it was the Mercer Bears who stole the one-possession battle as they handed ETSU a devastating 21-13 loss in Macon, Ga. With the loss, the 20th-ranked Buccaneers fall to 4-2 in the spring season as their playoff hopes take a hit.

The Bucs owned every facet of the game except for the one that mattered most, the final score. ETSU outgained Mercer (382-219) as the offense showed up late in the second half and the Bucs' defense continued to flex its muscles.

ETSU failed to overcome the turnovers in Saturday's loss as the Bucs coughed the ball up three times, directly resulting in 14 points for the Bears. One of the turnovers was a scoop and score for the Bears' defense that put Mercer ahead 21-6 at the time.

Neither team wanted to put points on the board until Mercer broke through with a touchdown pass 32 seconds into the second quarter. The two squads combined for 20 points in the second quarter and then did not score again until the fourth quarter where each unit posted one touchdown apiece.

Brock Landis (Hoschton, Ga.) orchestrated a late fourth-quarter drive that provided the Bucs with some new life as he found Will Huzzie (Duluth, Ga.) for a four-yard touchdown strike. As they always do, the defense held strong and forced a Mercer punt. However, ETSU's offense was unable to march down the field for the game-tying touchdown.

INSIDE THE NUMBERS

Landis threw for a career-high 26-of-44 with 228 yards and one touchdown in the loss to the Bears – the 228 passing yards marked a new season high for the Buccaneer offense...Huzzie finished the contest with a career-high eight receptions for 74 yards and one touchdown, his third of the season...Quay Holmes (Powder Springs, Ga.) led both teams in rushing with 89 yards on 14 carries...

The Bucs outgained the Bears 338-104 in the final three quarters of play...ETSU's defense held Mercer to just 60 yards of offense in the second half...The Buccaneer defense held Mercer to just 219 total yards, the lowest output by an opponent against the Bucs this season...Both Mike Price (Stockbridge, Ga.) and Donovan Manuel (Ellenwood, Ga.) finished the game with career highs in tackles – Price led the Bucs with 14, while Manuel chipped in 11...Tyler Keltner (Tallahassee, Fla.) finished the game 2-for-2 in field goal attempts, connecting from 49 and 39 yards...The one-possession game marked the 11th consecutive FCS one-possession contest...The Bucs are 5-6 in those contests (4-2 this spring)...ETSU drops to 3-3 all-time against Mercer, snapping the three-game winning streak in the series.
