BATTLE OUT FOR THE SEASON

> Khalif Battle fractured the fifth metatarsal of his left foot in the Owls' win over La Salle on Dec. 1 and will miss the remainder of season. He will have surgery next week and is expected to make a full recovery.
> "I feel really bad for KB as he worked so hard in the offseason and was playing like one of the top guards in the country," said Temple coach Aaron McKie. "He is a fighter and will be back to full strength next season. Now it is next man up mentality for our program and I know our players will be ready."
> Battle, who was named the AAC Player of the Week on Nov. 29, currently leads the AAC in scoring (21.4 ppg) and has scored 20 or more points in five of the team's first seven games. He also leads the team in FG% (.538/2nd AAC), 3PT% (.488/1st AAC), threes (3.0/2nd AAC) and minutes per game (31.9 mpg/9th AAC). HEAD COACH
AARON MCKIE

One of the greatest players in Temple Basketball history, Aaron McKie is in his third season as the head coach at his alma mater.

McKie officially took over the program where he starred under Hall of Fame coach John Chaney and served as an assistant coach for five seasons under Fran Dunphy, in April of 2019. He is the 18th head coach in Temple men's basketball history, but just the fifth since Hall of Fame coach Harry Litwack took over the reins of the program in 1952. He is also the first alum to serve as the Owls' head coach since Litwack, who won 373 games and made two Final Four appearances in his 21-year tenure.

His first season at the helm was a year of transition for the new Temple mentor. After starting the season with four straight wins, which is the best start by a first-year Temple coach since Josh Cody ('42-43), the Owls fell in a close contest, 76-69, to #5 Maryland. The team ended the calendar year with a 9-3 mark, but the 2020 took its toll.

Temple posted just one win in January, but that victory, a 65-53 defeat of #16 Wichita State, extended the program streak of 13 straight seasons with a win over a ranked foe. McKie also became the first first-year Temple coach to defeat a nationally-ranked team since 1952-53 (Harry Litwack).

After regrouping, the Owls finished the 2019-20 campaign with a 14-17 record with the season coming to abrupt end to the Covid-19 pandemic.

His second season was full of stop and starts due to the pandemic. Temple, which had a limited preseason due to health restrictions in the city of Philadelphia, was unable to open its season until Dec. 19, a home victory of NJIT, due to Covid protocol issues within the program.

These protocol issues would result in five stoppages during the season and the cancellation of all but 15 regular season games. Without able to gain a rhythm, the Owls struggled during the 2020-21 campaign, finishing with a 5-11 record, 4-10 in conference play.

Prior to taking over as head coach, McKie served five seasons on Dunphy's staff at Temple, the last as associate head coach. In 2018-29, the Owls went 23-10, earned an NCAA Tournament berth and tied for third in the American Athletic Conference after being picked to finish sixth. The 20-win season was the third for Temple in McKie's five years on the staff, during which the Owls went to the NCAA Tournament twice and to the NIT Semifinals in 2015.

The Philadelphia basketball roots are deep for McKie and started in high school where he played at nearby Simon Gratz ('90). There, under the tutelage of legendary coach Bill Ellerbee, he helped lead the Bulldogs to the 1990 Philadelphia Public League Championship, their first title since 1939.

McKie then took his talents to North Broad Street to play under another legend in Chaney. Arguably one of the best players in Temple history, he had an incredible three-year playing career for the Owls (1991-92 through 1993-94) and is tied for sixth on the school's all-time scoring list with 1,650 points. A starter for all 92 games, he averaged 17.9 points per game while leading the Owls to three NCAA Tournaments and a trip to the 1993 Elite Eight. He earned many accolades during his heralded collegiate career, including Atlantic 10 Conference and Philadelphia Big 5 Player of the Year for his performance in the 1992-93 season, when he averaged a team-best 20.6 points per game.

Selected in the first round (17th overall) of the 1994 NBA Draft by the Portland Trail Blazers, McKie played 13 seasons, including eight with the Philadelphia 76ers where he was coached by another basketball giant in Larry Brown. As a member of the Sixers in 2000-01, McKie enjoyed his best season, taking home Sixth Man of the Year honors while helping his hometown team reach the NBA Finals.

McKie has more than a decade of coaching experience. Besides serving as an assistant coach under Dunphy for the past five seasons, he was also a five-year assistant (2007-13) on the 76ers staff and helped lead the franchise to four NBA playoff appearances.

McKie resides in the Philadelphia area with his wife, Lisa, and their four children, Erin, Jaron, and twin sons Justin and Julian.
