OPENING TIP

» Georgia returns to Athens or back-to-back home games against Vanderbilt and Florida this week. The Lady Bulldogs host the Commodores at 7 p.m. ET inside Stegeman Coliseum.

» The Lady Bulldogs have won four of the last five meetings against Vanderbilt. The lone loss during this current stretch came in 2020, with the Commodores winning that game 63-55.

» Georgia has won five of its last seven games this season and is coming off a 62-52 win at No. 24 Ole Miss. The Lady Bulldogs boast an 8-1 overall record — with three ranked wins — in road games this year.

» Head coach Joni Taylor's team moved up to No. 11 in this week's USAToday Coaches Poll and No. 14 in the Associated Press top-25. The No. 11 ranking in the Coaches Poll is Georgia's highest mark in that poll since February, 25, 2013.

» Graduate center Jenna Staiti led her team with a double-double of 22 points and 11 rebounds against Ole Miss. Staiti played well on both ends of the floor, holding All-SEC candidate Shakira Austin to just nine points, while herself hitting 71 percent from the field (10-of-14) en route to her 15th double-figure scoring game and sixth double-double of the season.

» Staiti has now scored in double figures in 47 of her last 55 games with 19 double-doubles during this stretch.

» Graduate guard Que Morrison has scored in double figures in every SEC game this season and in 16 of 20 games overall.

» Georgia leads the SEC with 17.15 assists per game, two more helpers per game on average than the next closest SEC team (Ole Miss/15.29).

» Following Thursday's game, Georgia will host Florida on Sunday for the Lady Bulldogs annual Play4Kay Pink Game. Tip time for that contest is scheduled for 1 p.m. on the SEC Network.

BETTER STARTS FOR BULLDOGS

» Georgia has stormed out to strong starts in each of the last four games, outscoring Missouri, Mississippi State, Tennessee and Ole Miss 83-38 in the first quarter. The Lady Bulldogs hit 64 percent from the field in the first period against Mizzou and knocked in 53 percent in the first 10 minutes against the Bulldogs from Starkville.

ROAD DAWGS

» The Lady Bulldogs own a 8-1 record in games played away from home this season, highlighted by wins against No. 19 Notre Dame and No. 2 NC State.

STAITI ADDS TO NATIONAL HONORS

» Jenna Staiti is being recognized as one of the top players in all of basketball. She has been tabbed to the Lisa Leslie Award Watch List, the Naismith National Player of the Year Watch List and recently landed on the Wooden Award Top-25 Watch List. She has already totaled five double-doubles this season and has reached double figures in scoring in all but three contests.

THE QUE (EN) DOES IT ALL

» Que Morrison -- the 2021 SEC Co-Defensive Player of the Year and two-time SEC All-Defensive Team selection -- is literally doing it all. If you look at an SEC stat sheet, you will find Morrison's name in nearly every statistical category.

Over the course of the season, Morrison has hit big shot after big shot to carry her team. She has scored in double figures 16 times, has totaled 20 or more points on four occasions, recorded three or more steals seven times and three or more assists in every single game.

DAWGS ARE SEC'S MOST UNSELFISH

» Georgia paces the SEC and ranks No. 16 nationally with 17.1 assists per game. The Lady Bulldogs have ranked in the top-3 of the SEC in assists in six of the first seven years under head coach Joni Taylor.

Georgia has totaled 343 assists on 568 made field goals this season -- an average of 60 percent.

COOMBS SWIPES THE IRISH

» Senior guard Mikayla Coombs nearly set the school record with eight steals in the win against Notre Dame -- a total that was just two shy of the school record. Coombs recorded six steals in the first quarter alone to lead her team in the early going.

ON A ROLL

» Georgia has won 24 of its last 31 games dating back to last season. During the stretch going back to Feb. 4, 2021, Georgia has defeated five ranked teams, including No. 2 ranked Texas A&M and second-ranked NC State.

BARKER'S BOMB SHOCKS NC STATE

» Sarah Ashlee Barker nailed a 25-foot heave at the buzzer to send the game against NC State into overtime. Barker finished with a career-best four 3-point field goals in the win, including back-to-back three's late in the game to stop a NC State rally.

NO. 3 HEATS UP FROM 3

» Barker has drastically improved her shooting from behind the arc throughout the course of the season. In the first four games, she hit just 2-of-14 (.143) from behind the arc, but has knocked in 39 percent (13-of-33) over the last 10 contests.

OVERTIME SUCCESS

» Georgia improved to an impressive 9-2 overall in overtime games under head coach Joni Taylor. In fact, Georgia has won four-straight and nine of its last 10 OT contests.

DOWN GOES NO. 2

» Georgia's win at then No. 2-ranked NC State marked the program's first true road win against a top-25 team in program history. The victory ended the Wolfpack's 10-game win streak.

MANY CONTRIBUTORS

» Georgia's bench has outscored its opponents by a 457-217 margin, an average of 22 points per game, this season. Every available player has touched the floor in six of the team's 20 games.

BULLDOG BLOCK PARTY

» The Lady Bulldogs set a new school record with 18 blocks in the win against Alabama State on Nov. 21. That total broke a 34-year old record from 1987, when Georgia had 16 against Mercer. The Lady Bulldogs' 18 swats are tied for the second-most in a game in SEC history.

OFFENSIVE IMPROVEMENT

» Head Coach Joni Taylor and her staff implemented a new offensive philosophy prior to the 2020-21 season with the goal of playing a more up-tempo style with defensive pressure.

That move has paid dividends. Since last season, Georgia has scored over 90 points four times. The Lady Bulldogs scored over 90 points just four times combined in the five seasons prior.

UGA SENIORS EARN DEGREES

» For the second-straight year, each of Georgia's seniors have already earned their college degrees. Malury Bates (sociology), Mikayla Coombs (sport management), Que Morrison (communication studies) and Jenna Staiti (human development and family science) have all graduated from the University of Georgia.

EXCEEDING EXPECTATIONS

» Coach Taylor's teams have lived by the mantra 'It's not where you start but where you finish.' In five of her first six seasons, the Lady Bulldogs finished well ahead of their preseason ranking. The largest jumps came in 2017-18 -- when Georgia was picked eighth and finished second -- and last season -- when the team was picked ninth and finished fourth.

GEORGIA'S SEC STANDINGS UNDER JONI TAYLOR

Season	SEC Preseason Rank	SEC Finish
2015-16	9th	6th
2016-17	12th	8th
2017-18	8th	2nd (tied)
2018-19	4th	7th
2019-20	10th	9th
2020-21	9th	4th

STAITI'S STREAK CONTINUES

» Jenna Staiti has become known as 'Steady Staiti' over the last two seasons -- and for good reason.

The Cumming, Ga., native has scored in double figures in 47 of her last 55 games with 19 double-doubles and 14 20-plus point efforts. It is a remarkable stat line for the All-SEC center, especially when you look back to her first two years of college basketball.

During her freshman and sophomore campaigns, Staiti averaged 4.4 ppg and 1.7 rpg in 65 total games played.
