Following the completion of the renovation, women's basketball played its final three home games of the 2010-11 season in Foster before its first complete season in the building during the 2011-12 campaign. All but four of its home games, which includes two season-opening doubleheaders with men's basketball and a pair of 5th Grade Fastbreak games, were played at Foster Auditorium from 2011-16.

HEAD OVER HEELS: WOMEN'S BASKETBALL LEADERSHIP AWARD

 first time since 1997-98, including a ranked triumph at No. 14 Mississippi State on Jan. 14 (86-78).

 the team to a triumph on 17 points and seven assists. She followed up that performance, logging 14 points and six assists against top-ranked Louisville on Feb. 11, 2021. McQueen helped lead the Yellow Jackets to the 2021 NCAA Sweet 16, where she recorded a combined

NEW COMPETITION ARENA, SAY WHAT?

- Alabama Athletics has formally proposed moving forward with phase II of The Crimson Standard Initiative, which includes a new competition arena for basketball and gymnastics as well as a practice facility for the golf programs, Feb. 3, 2022.
- The Crimson Standard, unveiled in 2018, is Alabama Athletics' 10-year, $600 million capital initiative created to comprehensively elevate the student-athlete experience, recruiting efforts and the overall game-day experience for all Crimson Tide fans. To date, over $470 million has been raised for The Crimson Standard Initiative.
- The new arena is projected to seat over 10,000 and designed to bring fans closer to the action on the court. Arena features would include student seating around the majority of the lower bowl in addition to new premium options in club, loge, courtside and lower-level preferred seating.
- Coleman Coliseum will continue to serve as the day-to-day practice and preparation site for the programs and will also continue to house the multiple departments currently located within the building.

ROAD WIN = ICE CREAM

 Alabama always gets ice cream after road wins (...and not the cheap stuff, we get fancy with the Marble Slab, Cold Stone and famous local shops).

NO GAME? NO PROBLEM!

- The Crimson Tide women's basketball team was scheduled to travel to Little Rock, Ark., to square off against Little Rock on Dec. 16. The trojans canceled the contest because of an influenza outbreak within their program, leaving the Tide with a couple extra days on its hands.
- Head coach Kristy Curry called Gabby Little, Alabama's Coordinator Administration Social Responsibility and Engagement, in search of a volunteer opportunity to fill the program's vacant time and the West Alabama Food Bank answered the ring.
- On the morning of Dec. 16, the Crimson Tide packed more than 100 boxes of non-perishables to be delivered to families in need in the greater Tuscaloosa area, stacked and transported boxes and broke down boxes. Kristy Curry explained she wanted the student-athletes to fill their extra time with something that would not only benefit others, but their own personal growth.

800 WINS

 Alabama achieved its 800th program win after defeating Sam Houston, 84-50, Dec. 13 inside Coleman Coliseum in front of 1,700 students and teachers for the annual Fifth Grade Fastbreak event.

MUSIC TO OUR EARS

The Crimson Tide broke some hearts in Nashville, as the University of Alabama women's basketball team defeated Vanderbilt, 77-71, on the road in overtime, Sunday, Feb. 6.

"HIT ME WITH YOUR BEST SHOT"

Alabama shot 55.1 percent from the field on 27-of-49 shooting at Vanderbilt. That is the Crimson Tide's best shooting percentage in both a road game and an SEC game in the nine-year Kristy Curry era, and its the third best shooting percentage in all games during that time frame.

"DON'T STOP BELIEVIN"

- Before the Crimson Tide and Commodores pairing, the Tide was 0-7 this season when trailing with five minutes left in the game. That changed when Alabama trailed Vanderbilt, 60-57, just before the five-minute mark, but pulled out the triumph, 77-71, in overtime. After the matchup, UA improved to 1-7 in games when trailing with five minutes left in the game.
- Alabama has found some trouble closing close games in 2021-22, holding a lead in the fourth quarter in five of its 10 losses this season. Like Curry has said all season, many of UA's losses have featured a very small margin of error (...it's the "little things").
- Some of those "little things" in the Crimson Tide, Commodores pairing included getting to the free-throw line and converting, hustle plays and snagging loose balls.
 - Sure, Alabama got to the free-throw line, making 64.0 percent of its shots on 16-of-25 shooting, but it also wanted Vanderbilt to get to the free-throw line, which they did 21 times, making just 52.4 percent of its shots on 11-of-21 shooting, knowing the team is ranked last in the SEC in free-throw percentage.

BACK-TO-BACK SEC WINS

- Alabama defeated then-No. 12/8 Tennessee Thursday, Feb. 17, 74-64, in Tuscaloosa, Ala., before knocking off Texas A&M Sunday, Feb. 20, 81-79, in double overtime in Bryan-College Station, Texas.
- Alabama's win against then-No. 12/8 Tennessee marked its sixth win over the national powerhouse in the last nine meetings, and its first win over a ranked opponent this season.
- The Crimson Tide's win against the Aggies marked just its second win in the all-time, 12-game series, and its second straight win in Reed Arena. It also marked the Tide's second straight SEC road win in extra minutes this season, both of which were led in scoring by Davis.

BRITTANY DAVIS: BACK & BETTER THAN EVER

WHAT TIME OFF?

- Alabama head coach Kristy Curry said it best in her preseason remarks, "Brittany Davis is shooting the cover off the ball right now."
- After sitting out the 2020-21 season to have her child, Davis has proven time off was no disadvantage for the senior, as she has led the team in scoring average (17.0) all season.
 - She has recorded double-digit scoring in 24-of-26 games this season.
 - She has recorded 18-or-more points in 10 of the last 12 games, which includes seven 20-plus point games.
 - Davis is currently second in the SEC in three-point field goals per game (2.7), recording at least two 3-pointers in 19-of-26 games this season and at least one 3-pointer in 22of-26 games this season.
- In addition to her point production, the senior has also led the team in rebound average (7.1) all season.
- You may have noticed, Davis has set a career high in almost all statistical categories this season, including points (32), rebounds (12), assists (4 2X), steals (4), minutes (48), three-point field goals (7) and free throws (8).

SEC PLAYER OF THE WEEK

- Davis was crowned the Southeastern Conference Player of the Week Tuesday, Feb. 22.
- Davis helped Alabama down then-No. 12/8 Tennessee Thursday, Feb. 17, 74-64, in Tuscaloosa, Ala., before knocking off Texas A&M Sunday, Feb. 20, 81-79, in double overtime in Bryan-College Station. Texas.
- She scored 23 points on 8-of-15 shooting from the field, including 4-of-8 shooting from long range, against the Lady Volunteers, while she also recorded six rebounds. She had an even more impressive game in her next outing, scoring 32 points on 12-of-26 shooting from the field, including 7-of-15 shooting from the arc, at the Aggies, also grabbing six boards and making one steal.
- Most notably, Davis contributed just three points on 1-of-10 shooting from the field, including 0-of-5 shooting from long range, in the first half at Texas A&M. Despite her slow start to the game, she came out of the locker room after halftime scoring 29 points on 11 of her 26 attempts from the field (68.8 percent), including seven of her 10 attempts from the arc (70.0 percent).
- Her second half and overtime performance included perfect shooting in the fourth quarter (5-of-5 FG, 3-of-3 3FG) to help the Crimson Tide tie the Aggies at the end of regulation to force overtime and an eventual triumph.
- Davis' 32 points and seven three-point field goals at Texas A&M are both a career high for the guard and the most points and three-point field goals of any player on the team this season. In fact, her seven 3-pointers mark the third time she has reset her career high in that category in 2021-22.

BINGO FOR MINGO: JAMYA MINGO-YOUNG STUFFS THE STATS

- JaMya Mingo-Young has been an immediate benefit to the Crimson Tide women's basketball team since joining the program at the start of last summer.
- The junior transfer from Mississippi State is averaging a 11.2 points game and 6.6 rebounds per game, while leading the team with 2.5 steals per game (64 total).
 - Mingo-Young is the most consistent shooter in the starting lineup right now (... and that's exactly what head coach Kristy Curry needs from her) with a 47.0 field-goal percentage on the season (102-of-217) and a 45.6 field-goal percentage in conference action (57-of-125).
 - Mingo-Young is also fifth in the SEC in steals per game (2.46) and in steals (64).
- Mingo-Young has scored in double figures in six of the last 10 games.
- The junior has also recorded double-digit rebounds in four of the last six games, a streak that includes two double-doubles.

HANNAH FROM HOMEWOOD

100%, 100% OF THE TIME

- Hannah Barber of Homewood, Ala., has shown tremendous improvement each season, making her biggest leap from her junior year to her senior year, particularly at the leadership level.
- Her basketball IQ has always shined and her determination to outwork her teammates in the weight room and on the practice court has been evident since she arrived at the Capstone, but for the first time in her career, she adds "leader" to her name, both by example and vocally.
 - Which, makes sense since the senior aspires to make a career out of coaching.
- As head coach Kristy Curry likes to say, "Dynamite comes in small packages," and "Hannah is the epitome of what you want in your point quard."

HIT-IT HANNAH: CAREER RECORD WATCH

- Beyond her "floor general" mentality, she doesn't hesitate to shoot the ball when needed (...and we've needed it).
- Barber has hit a 3-pointer in every game this season, while she has knocked down a 3-pointer in 36 straight games, the best active streak in the SEC, which began at Georgia on Feb. 4, 2021.
- She is currently ranked third in the SEC and 41st in the nation in threepoint field-goal percentage (40.6).
 - ICYMI: In her game against Mississippi State on Jan. 6, Barber led the team in scoring for the first time this season, recording 19 points, including sinking a career-high five 3-pointers. She followed up that game by scoring 12 points on 4-of-5 from the arc against then-No. 15/14 Georgia on Jan. 9.
- Barber has made 116 of her 316 attempts from the arc in her near-fourseason career, making 36.7 percent of her shots from long range. Her three-point field goal percentage is currently ranked sixth among the program's all-time career leaders in that category.

GOOD ON PAPER... BETTER IN PERSON

MEGAN ABRAMS DOES IT ALL

- Megan Abrams had a busy year, between helping the Crimson Tide reach the 2021 SEC Tournament Quarterfinals and the 2021 NCAA Tournament Second Round, to spending the summer as a Procurement Analyst intern with Nike, then being selected to the 2021-22 SEC Women's Basketball Leadership Council, to earning her undergraduate degree in finance and economics in December.
- Turning the page to 2022, her motor hasn't stopped. Abrams co-founded a University of Alabama registered club, exclusive to Crimson Tide student-athletes, named Project I.D., which launched this February. The mission of Project I.D. is to create a safe space for student-athletes who identify with, or are allies for, minority groups, giving them the opportunity to voice their thoughts and ideas to create an inclusive student-athlete experience. Abrams and teammate, Jada Rice, have built the club from the ground up, including playing a key role in drafting the mission statement, creating a logo, marketing the organization and forming content for meetings.
- ICYMI: Abrams was named to the 2021-22 SEC Community Service Team Feb. 23.

SHE JUST KEEPS GETTING BETTER

- After Alabama lost more than 66.0 percent of its point production from a season ago, all eyes turned to returning veteran Abrams. Despite a brutal January for the senior, which included missing three quarters of the conference opener at Tennessee on Dec. 30 due to an elbow to the mouth, followed by oral surgery (and a whole lot of pain and lifestyle adjustments), followed by missing the Arkansas game on Jan. 27 because of a spell with COVID-19, with grit and gratitude, Abrams has stepped up to the plate.
- Abrams has scored 20-plus points in three of the last four games, including three straight games against Kentucky (Feb. 13), against then-No. 12/8 Tennessee (Feb. 17) and at Texas A&M (Feb. 20).

Brielle by Brittany Davis

I knew things would change forever the very first time I held my daughter, Brielle, in my arms. You never quite know what you're going to feel until it's YOUR child.

You feel her tiny heartbeat.

You see her take those tiny breaths.

You look into those tiny eyes, and instantly—you melt.

That's when I knew I had to do everything I could to be the best mother I could be—to be the best athlete, the best in school, and the best all-around person in general.

There was suddenly this little girl looking up to me, and I knew I had to make sure that she's always taken care of.

It became less about me and all about her.

So no, I'm not the same basketball player I was when I first walked through these doors here at Alabama. I'm not even the same person.

My daughter made me better in every way possible.

Breaking the news

The pregnancy didn't come without its challenges. I mean, how could it? I knew I was going to have to step away from the team and adjust a lot of things in life.

And don't think for one second I didn't hear all of the negativity from outsiders, too.

"She's never going to be the same player she used to be. Her basketball career is finished. She'll never be able to bounce back from this."

This, that, and whatever-I heard all of it.

And yet, the hardest part was telling Coach Curry I was pregnant and had to step away from the game I've loved since I was a kid.

I honestly didn't know how to feel at first when breaking the news. I wasn't sure how Coach was going to react, you know?

This was bigger than basketball and truly a lifechanging moment for me.

"We're going to get through this, and we're going to support you," she said. "Brittany, we're behind you."

Hard to describe the relief I felt right after that conversation. It was a pivotal moment for me. It's when I started to think that everything was going to be okay after all.

Seeing my coach, teammates, and, most of all, my family not giving up on me helped me not to give up on myself.

From that point on, I knew I could do this. Both on and off the court.

It takes a family

After my daughter was born, I wanted to get back to where I left the game of basketball.

Actually, no, I wanted to be better.

In my only season with Alabama so far, I earned myself an SEC Player of the Week and even a College Sports Madness Player of the Week award—I wanted that again. And more.

It wasn't about proving people wrong, either. I really wanted to do this for my daughter. It became less about everyone else and more about securing her future by finishing college, getting a good education, and taking this game as far as I could take it.

I also started thinking about the journey and all of the hard work it took for me to just even be in this position, you know?

Things didn't go as planned for me coming out of high school, and instead of going straight to a Division I school, I ended up going to a junior college. I had a wonderful time there and loved the people I met, but nonetheless, I had to scratch and claw my way to this opportunity here at Alabama.

Nothing was ever handed to me back then, and nothing is going to be handed to me now.

I'm just thankful to have the support of my family as I chase these goals.

My parents have been my biggest supporters from the very beginning.

Mom, Dad-you guys are the real MVPs.

They're taking amazing care of my daughter at home so that I can continue my education and basketball career. I can't even put into words how much I appreciate them for sacrificing their time to take care of my child.

It's hard just seeing her on weekends, but it's what's best for her at this moment.

I also owe a big thank you to my grandmothers, Susy Farley and Ruby Davis, my sister, my brother, my aunties and uncles, and Brielle's father.

The way this family has pulled together is just amazing.

My daughter is one lucky girl.

The greatest motivator

Honestly, though, I'd say I'm pretty lucky as well.

Just having my daughter in my life and being a mother made me a better person because it forced me to look at things differently. Life is now about me being the provider and ensuring we don't have to struggle.

There's no greater motivating factor.

I'm going to continue having a positive attitude each and every time I walk through these doors. I'm determined to put in the work with my teammates and have a great season.

Things are clearly different now that I'm back.

I'm more focused than ever before and no longer just going through the motions. There's too much riding on this opportunity for me not to give everything I have.

Today, I wear three hats proudly—mother, student, and basketball player.

And I'm excited for what my future holds in store for me.
