THE FIRST PITCH

» Two of college baseball's premier programs get together on Tuesday night as the fifth-ranked University of Louisville baseball team heads to Nashville to take on No. 14 Vanderbilt in the Battle of the Barrel. First pitch is set for 7 p.m. ET. and will be televised on SEC Network. Tuesday's game can be heard on 93.9 The Ville.

» Louisville enters Tuesday on a five-game winning streak after picking up a three-game sweep of Clemson over the weekend. The Cardinals plated 35 runs over the three games, including 18 on Sunday, which was a record for Louisville in ACC play.

» Louisville and Vanderbilt are the two winningest programs since 2007 when Dan McDonnell took over the reins of the UofL program. The two programs have combined for 1,364 wins, 10 College World Series appearances and 17 super regionals over that time.

» Tuesday night will be the 39th meeting all-time between Louisville and Vanderbilt. The Commodores lead the series 27-11 and 13-5 in Nashville, but the Cardinals will be making their first trip to the Music City since 2018. Louisville took the 2021 Battle of the Barrel with a 7-2 victory last May in Louisville. Carter Lohman allowed one run in four innings to earn the victory.

LOUISVILLE HEAD COACH: DAN McDONNELL

On June 27, 2006, Dan McDonnell, one of the top young minds in college baseball, was named the 18th head coach of the University of Louisville baseball team. And on June 15, 2007, McDonnell and the Cardinals took the field at hallowed Rosenblatt Stadium in Omaha for game one of the 2007 College World Series.

Not bad for 353 days on the job.

As the first rookie head coach to lead his team to Omaha in 27 years, McDonnell was named National Coach of the Year by Rivals.com after guiding the Cardinals to a then-school record 47 wins during that 2007 season. He followed that impressive debut season by leading Louisville to 11 more NCAA appearances during the next 12 years, including four more College World Series berths in 2013, 2014, 2017 and 2019, as well as nine conference regular season titles and two conference tournament championships. Louisville has hosted 14 different rounds of NCAA postseason baseball in the last 13 full years with NCAA Super Regionals in 2007, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017 and 2019 as well as eight NCAA Regionals in 2009, 2010, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017 and 2019. McDonnell added his second career National Coach of the Year honor following the 2017 season receiving the award from Baseball America.

In McDonnell's first 15 seasons as head coach, Louisville ranked No. 2 nationally in wins with 646, including a school-record 53 wins during the record-setting 2017 season. During the 15-year span, the Cardinals have produced a consensus National Player of the Year (Brendan McKay, 2017), 40 All-Americans, 102 all-conference selections, seven conference Pitcher of the Year winners, four conference Player of the Year winners and one conference Freshman of the Year. Additionally, the UofL baseball program has generated 94 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft selections in the last 15 years.

The 2021 season saw yet another milestone achieved for the Louisville program. Catcher Henry Davis was selected first overall by the Pittsburgh Pirates in the 2021 MLB Draft, giving the Louisville baseball program its first-ever No. 1 overall pick. Davis was one of seven Cardinals chosen in the 20-round draft — Alex Binelas (Milwaukee Brewers, third round), Cooper Bowman (New York Yankees, fourth round), Michael Kirian (Washington Nationals, sixth round), Lucas Dunn (San Diego Padres, eighth round), Luke Brown (Pittsburgh Pirates, ninth round) and Glenn Albanese (Los Angeles Angels, 15th round). Davis was a consensus All-American and one of four All-ACC selections for the Cardinals, joining Binelas, Bowman and Christian Knapczyk.

The Louisville program reached new heights in 2019, posting a 51-18 overall record and recording the deepest postseason run in program history. The Cardinals captured the ACC Atlantic Division crown for the fourth time in five seasons and earned a national seed for the fifth time in program history. After rallying out of the loser's bracket to capture the Louisville regional, the Cardinals swept East Carolina in the super regional round to punch their fifth ticket to the College World Series. In Omaha, Louisville lost its opening contest before defeating Auburn and Mississippi State to reach the bracket final for the first time. The Cardinals notched their highest final ranking in program history, sitting third in five of the six national polls.

Winning is nothing new to McDonnell. In McDonnell's 32 full seasons in NCAA baseball as a player and coach, teams he has been a part of have averaged 41 wins per season and have advanced to an NCAA Regional in 22 of those seasons, including 17 of the last 19.

As the top assistant and recruiting coordinator for Mike Bianco at the University of Mississippi for six seasons prior to taking over as head coach at Louisville, McDonnell and the Rebels had four top-20 recruiting classes and three groups that ranked in the top 10 nationally. The first full recruiting class for the Rebels under McDonnell's direction was ranked No. 6 in the nation by Collegiate Baseball. In each of his last two seasons with the Rebels, Ole Miss was one win away from advancing to Omaha.

Before his arrival in Oxford, Miss., McDonnell was an assistant and recruiting coordinator at his alma mater, The Citadel, for eight seasons. The Bulldogs advanced to four NCAA Regionals and won five Southern Conference titles during that span. He was the top assistant from 1995-2000.

During his playing days for the Bulldogs, McDonnell earned four letters, helping The Citadel to the 1990 College World Series, marking the first time a military school has made the trip to Omaha. He was a member of the All-Atlantic Regional team in Miami that same season.

McDonnell graduated from The Citadel in 1992 and later completed his master's degree in business administration in 1995. He is married to the former Julie Anne Underwood of Charlotte, N.C. The couple has two sons, Jake and Justin.

TEAM NOTES

- » Louisville has an .843 winning percentage (129-24) in regular season non-conference games since the start of 2016, including a 105-12 (.897) mark in regular season non-conference home games.
- » Louisville opened ACC play with a sweep of No. 1 Notre Dame. The Cardinals scored 31 runs on the weekend against a Notre Dame pitching staff that had allowed just 29 runs through its first 13 games.
- » UofL's offense has been explosive so far this season, plating four or more runs in an inning 40 times through 43 games, surpassing its total of 19 in 50 games in 2021.
- » Louisville has scored 10 runs or more 19 times this season and registered at least 10 hits in 28 games, including 17 of its last 22.
- » The Cardinals plated 51 runs in the weekend series against Akron, their most in a single series since scoring 61 runs in a sweep of Alabama A&M April 26-28, 2019. The 22 runs scored in the series finale were the most since scoring 32 in the opening game of the Alabama A&M series.
- » Louisville had a historic offensive day on March 5 against Akron, scoring 20 and 22 runs in a doubleheader sweep. The 42 runs were a school record for a doubleheader, breaking the previous mark of 41 in a pair of wins over Chicago State on March 30, 1977. It marked the third time the Cardinals have scored at least 20 runs in consecutive games and the first time since 1991.
- » The Cardinals blasted 10 home runs in the three-game sweep of Akron, the most home runs in a single series for UofL since at least 2000.
- » Louisville scored in all eight innings it went to the plate in the Friday game against Dartmouth, the first time the Cardinals have scored in every possible offensive inning during Dan McDonnell's tenure.
- » The Cardinals tallied six triples in the series against Dartmouth, their most in a single weekend since at least 2000. Louisville had four individual games with three triples since 2000 entering the weekend before recording three on Friday and again on Sunday. UofL is currently 10th in the nation with 19 triples on the season.
- » UofL is 25-2 this season when it tallies more hits than the opposition. During Dan McDonnell's 16 seasons at Louisville, the Cardinals are 542-62 (.897) when they record more hits.
- » Louisville is 113-2 when leading after eight innings over the past four seasons, including a 28-0 mark this season. The Cardinals are 604-17 (.973) when taking a lead into the ninth inning during Dan McDonnell's tenure.
- » Louisville had lost 26 consecutive games when trailing after eight innings before Ben Metzinger hit a three-run walk-off home run against Morehead State on March 1 that turned a 5-4 deficit into a 7-5 victory. It was the Cardinals' first victory when trailing after eight innings since walking off Mississippi State in the College World Series on June 20, 2019. The Cardinals then did it again on April 10 against North Carolina, trailing 5-1 entering the ninth before scoring four times and eventually winning 6-5 in 14 innings.
- » The Cardinals were one of the best in the country on the basepaths in 2021 with 113 stolen bases, 38 more than anyone in the ACC. Louisville ranked 1, 2 and 3 in stolen bases in the ACC, with Levi Usher leading the way with 26. The Cardinals have stolen at least 100 bases in seven of the past eight full seasons and were on pace for 119 during the 2020 regular season. The one year it didn't reach 100 since 2013, UofL finished with 98 in 2017. Louisville currently leads the ACC with 77 stolen bases this season.
- » Entering the 2022 season, Louisville leads all ACC teams in wins, batting average, runs, hits, doubles, triples, RBIs, total bases, stolen bases, ERA, shutouts, saves and opponents' batting average since it joined the ACC prior to the 2015 season.
- » UofL has stolen 785 bases since joining the ACC in 2015, more than any other conference team has attempted.
- » Louisville has used 21 different pitchers this season, 20 of which have thrown at least eight innings.
- » Fourteen players have made their Louisville debuts this season, including the collegiate debuts for 13.

PLAYER NOTES

- » Jack Payton played sparingly as a freshman, appearing in 13 games with seven starts. Payton tallied just six hits and two RBIs in his first season. He is currently leading the team with 21 multi-hit games on the season, including nine with three hits. Payton has at least one hit in 28 of the last 30 games and ranks top five in the ACC in batting average (4th), doubles (4th) and hits (5th).
- » Logan Beard used the 2021 season as a redshirt year and has made the most of his opportunity to play in 2022. The Louisville native has started all but two games, hitting .343 with eight doubles, four homers and 44 RBIs. Beard has 17 multi-hit games on the season and has driven in 14 runs in the last nine games, including four in the finale against Clemson. He has also been Louisville's top weapon with runners in scoring position, hitting .439 (25-for-57) in those situations.
- » Isaac Humphrey has quietly put together an excellent season for the Cardinals after not seeing action during the 2021 season. Humphrey is currently the team leader and ranks sixth in the ACC with a .483 on-base percentage. The sophomore is 26-for-66 (.394) over his last 19 games, surging his average up to .333. Humphrey has been Louisville's second-best hitter this season with runners in scoring position, hitting .432 (19-for-44) and reaching base at a .582 clip in that situation.
- » Levi Usher has been a terror on the basepaths for opponents since arriving at Louisville for the 2020 season. The centerfielder led the ACC with 26 stolen bases in 2021 and is 27-for-28 this season. Usher has moved into seventh place on Louisville's career stolen base list with 64 in 68 attempts. Usher is hitting .378 (28-for-74) over his last 18 games and has his batting average above .300 for the first time this season.
- » Christian Knapczyk has hit in the leadoff spot every game this season after hitting ninth in 42 of his 43 starts in 2021. Knapczyk owns 20 multi-hit games and is third in the country with 63 runs scored. The Louisville shortstop has scored at least one run in 36 of 43 games this season, including two or more in 20. Knapczyk picked up his first career home run in the second game of the Akron series and hit a leadoff homer against Northern Kentucky. Knapczyk ranks top 10 in the ACC in runs (1st), triples (2nd), hit by pitch (3rd), stolen bases (6th) and on-base percentage (9th).
- » Ben Metzinger returned fully healthy in 2022 and has been one of the pillars of the Louisville lineup. Metzinger is top 10 in the ACC in walks (4th), home runs (7th) and total bases (9th). He earned ACC Player of the Week honors after tallying four straight multi-hit games against Lipscomb and Boston College. Metzinger owns walk-off home runs against Morehead State and North Carolina this season, the first walk-off blasts for the Cardinals since Nick Solak's home run beat Notre Dame on March 11, 2016.
- » Ben Bianco has already turned in a career season this spring setting career highs in runs (32), hits (41), triples (3), home runs (9) and RBIs (44). The fifth-year senior had five hits in the finale against Dartmouth, becoming the first Cardinal with five hits in a game since Alex Binelas did so against Alabama A&M on April 26, 2019. Bianco also homered in all three games of the weekend series against North Carolina, including a go-ahead grand slam in game two and a leadoff shot that helped sparked Louisville's ninth-inning rally in the finale. He is currently 16th in the ACC in RBIs.

» Michael Prosecky has taken over as the Louisville closer for the 2022 season after pitching in a variety of roles during his first two years. The southpaw recorded the final six outs in each of Louisville's first two victories, earning his first two career saves. Prosecky has continued his strong work out of the bullpen and put together 15 consecutive scoreless innings before allowing two unearned runs against North Carolina. The junior is second in the ACC with eight saves.

NO GAME IS OVER FOR THE CARDS

Louisville has had a knack for rallying back after falling behind in games this season, including two more times last week in wins over Western Kentucky and Clemson.

The Cardinals have now won 17 games during which they trailed, including eight of their 14 ACC victories. UofL has won six games in which it trailed in the seventh inning or later, four of which were in ACC play.

Louisville has excelled at the plate in the late innings, scoring 152 runs in the seventh inning or later and outscoring opponents 96-42 from the eighth inning on.

BIANCO DOING DAMAGE WITH THE BASES LOADED

Ben Bianco has found himself at the plate with an opportunity to drive in runs on a consistent basis this season. Despite hitting ninth in the Louisville order, he currently ranks 16th in the ACC and third on the team with 44 RBIs.

Nearly half of his RBI total this season has come thanks to his work with the bases loaded. With the bases juiced, Bianco is 6-for-12 with a triple, three grand slams and 19 RBIs.

The three grand slams have all come at important times for the Cardinals. Bianco's first extended Louisville's 2-1 lead to 6-1 in the eighth inning against then No. 1 Notre Dame on March 19. The second turned a 2-1 deficit into a 5-2 lead against No. 20 North Carolina in a game the Cardinals would go on to win in 10 innings on April 9. Bianco then left the yard again on April 22 against No. 23 NC State, erasing a 4-1 deficit in the seventh inning.

LOUISVILLE LINEUP SHOWING DEPTH TOP TO BOTTOM

Louisville's offensive attack has drawn headlines for its performance this season and the Cardinals are doing it by committee with strong production up and down their lineup.

All nine of Louisville's regulars are hitting better than .285 this season, the only lineup in the ACC with nine qualified hitters above that mark. Louisville's starting nine all have at least 40 hits and 30 runs scored, the most of any team in the ACC in either category.

KNAPCZYK, METZINGER PROVIDING LETHAL 1-2 COMBINATION

The Louisville offense has beat opponents in a variety of ways in 2022, but the combination of Christian Knapczyk and Ben Metzinger at the top of the Cardinals' lineup has been at the center of it all. Both players were named to the Golden Spikes Award Midseason Watch List for their performances through the first half of the season.

Knapczyk is hitting .339 and has been an on-base machine in the leadoff spot, ranking ninth in the ACC with a .475 on-base percentage. The shortstop has scored 63 runs through 43 games, the third most in the country.

Metzinger has taken advantage of having his fellow infielder on base in front of him, hitting .326 with 52 RBIs. The senior has 14 home runs on the season, 10 of which have come with Knapczyk on base.

The duo has scored 115 runs, the most of any ACC teammates, and been active on the basepaths as well, combining for 24 stolen bases on the season in just 28 attempts.

LOUISVILLE SHOWING OFF RARE COMBO OF SPEED AND POWER

Louisville's offense has showed off its versatility this season, beating teams with power at the plate and speed on the basepaths.

The Cardinals have tallied 75 stolen bases and 67 home runs through 43 games, making them one of only two teams in the country (Campbell) with at least 65 of each.

All nine of Louisville's regular starters have at least two home runs and a stolen base.

CARDINALS FEATURE ONE OF NATION'S TOP OFFENSES

The 2022 Louisville offense has been arguably the most potent in Dan McDonnell's 16-year tenure. The Cardinals have more runs (417), total bases (821), walks (249) and a higher on-base percentage (.429) through 43 games than any other Louisville team to this point in the season under McDonnell.

Louisville currently ranks second the country in scoring at 9.7 runs per game. The Cardinals rank third nationally in on-base percentage, sixth in batting average, seventh in runs, eighth in slugging percentage, eighth in walks, ninth in hits, 10th in triples, 21st in doubles, 23rd in home runs and 26th in stolen bases.

CARDINALS OPEN 2022 SEASON UNRANKED

For the first time since Dan McDonnell's first season in 2007, the Cardinals will not open the season with a top-25 ranking. Louisville was not in the top 25 in any of the six major polls, with its highest ranking coming at No. 26 from Collegiate Baseball Newspaper.

The Cardinals had been ranked in at least one poll every week since 2012 until falling out during the final week of the 2021 regular season. The last time Louisville was unranked to begin a season, 2007, the Cardinals finished the year with the program's first trip to the College World Series.

McDONNELL WINNINGEST ACTIVE COACH IN DIVISION I BASEBALL

Louisville head coach Dan McDonnell entered the 2022 season as the winningest active coach in Division I baseball. Over his first 15 seasons, McDonnell had a .708 winning percentage in 912 career games, the highest percentage among all coaches with at least five years as a Division I coach. Prior to McDonnell's arrival in 2007, the Louisville program had a .511 all-time winning percentage.

During McDonnell's tenure, the Cardinals have made five College World Series appearances, captured 11 conference titles, reached the postseason 12 times and rank second nationally with 648 wins over that span.

CARDS PICKED FOURTH IN ACC ATLANTIC

The Louisville baseball team was voted fourth in the Atlantic Division in the ACC Baseball Coaches Preseason Poll. Florida State, NC State and Notre Dame held the top three spots in the division ahead of the Cardinals. Louisville did receive a pair of first-place votes.

The Cardinals had been voted first or second in the ACC Atlantic Division in every preseason poll since joining the league in 2015. Louisville won the Atlantic Division in each of its first three seasons in the conference (2015-17) and then again in 2019.

FEELING AT HOME INSIDE JIM PATTERSON STADIUM

Since opening the gates at Jim Patterson Stadium in 2005, the Cardinals have won nearly 78 percent of their games in the ballpark posting a 455-130 record (.778 winning percentage), including an impressive 33-4 mark during the 2017 season at the corner of Third and Central.

The Cardinals are 84-23 on their home field over the last four seasons, winning the 2019 NCAA Regional and Super Regional rounds at home to secure their fifth NCAA College World Series berth. Louisville set a school record for home wins with 36 in 2016 and the Cardinals have registered 30 or more wins at home in five of the last seven full seasons.

THREE CARDINALS NAMED CAPTAINS FOR 2022 SEASON

Seniors Ben Bianco, Carter Lohman and Ben Metzinger were selected by UofL players and coaches as the captains for the 2022 season.

Bianco is in his fifth year in the program having played 45 games across the last four seasons. The Oxford, Miss., native has a .267 career batting average with four home runs and 19 RBIs in 75 career at-bats.

Lohman is in his fourth season with the Cardinals with 23 career appearances on the mound under his belt. The southpaw was 2-2 last season and closed the 2021 season out with three strong appearances in the month of May. Lohman picked up the victory with one run allowed over four innings against No. 2 Vanderbilt, then tossed four innings of shutout ball against Miami and struck out eight over four innings in the ACC Tournament against Clemson.

Metzinger is also in his fourth season with the Cardinals. The local product has a career .291 batting average with five home runs and 22 RBIs. Metzinger hit .349 in the shortened 2020 season before missing the majority of the 2021 campaign due to injury. He did start both of Louisville's ACC Tournament contests in 2021, going 5-for-11 with three home runs and six RBIs to earn All-ACC Tournament Team honors.

LISTEN TO THE CARDS ALL SPRING LONG

For the seventh consecutive season, all regular season contests along with all postseason games will be broadcast on local radio. 93.9 The Ville will serve as the flagship station for the seventh consecutive season with selected games during the regular season to be broadcast on 970 WGTK.

ESPN Louisville, the group behind local stations ESPN 680 and 105.7 FM, launched 93.9 The Ville, powered by ESPN, on Jan. 29, 2015. The station provides coverage of the Cardinals through an official partnership with Louisville Sports Properties, which represents UofL athletics.

Sean Moth will serve as the Voice of Louisville Baseball for his 21st season and will be on the call for the majority of Louisville baseball games this spring.

LOUISVILLE TURNS IN RECORD FALL IN CLASSROOM

Continuing to pair on-field success with academic achievement, the University of Louisville baseball program has yet another successful run in the classroom during the fall semester.

The Louisville baseball team wrapped up the fall semester with a 3.418 cumulative team grade point average, the highest fall semester GPA in program history. The Cardinals have now finished with a 3.0 or higher in 21 consecutive semesters. Thirty-eight student-athletes turned in a 3.25 GPA or better during the fall with Tyeler Hawkins, Ryan Hawks and Michael Prosecky recording 4.0 semesters.

The span of 21 straight semesters with a team GPA of 3.0 or better coincides with unparalleled success on the field for Louisville, which has four College World Series appearances, six NCAA Super Regional berths, eight NCAA Regional bids and seven conference championships during that time.

DAVIS TAKEN FIRST, SEVEN CARDS SELECTED IN 2021 MLB DRAFT

Under Dan McDonnell, the Louisville program has been a mainstay in the Major League Baseball Draft. It was no different in 2021, as the Cardinals had seven players selected, including six in the first nine rounds.

Henry Davis notched a program first for the Cardinals, becoming the first Louisville player to be selected with the first overall pick when the Pittsburgh Pirates selected him No. 1 in July. Davis was the fourth UofL student-athlete taken No. 1 overall, joining Pervis Ellison (NBA, 1989), Angel McCoughtry (WNBA, 2009) and Andrew Farrell (MLS, 2013).

Alex Binelas (Milwaukee Brewers, third round), Cooper Bowman (New York Yankees, fourth round), Michael

ELEVEN FORMER CARDINALS SEE MLB TIME IN 2021

During Dan McDonnell's tenure, the Louisville baseball program has become a pipeline into professional baseball. The Cardinals have had 82 student-athletes sign professional contracts after being selected in the MLB Draft over the last 15 years and had 43 former Cardinals in professional baseball at the end of the 2021 season.

Louisville's reach is stretching across the highest level of baseball, as 11 former Cardinals played in the Major Leagues during the 2021 season. Zack Burdi (White Sox/Orioles), Reid Detmers (Angels), Adam Duvall (Marlins/Braves), Drew Ellis (Diamondbacks), Adam Engel (White Sox), Kyle Funkhouser (Tigers), Chad Green (Yankees), Corey Ray (Brewers), Josh Rogers (Nationals), Will Smith (Dodgers) and Nick Solak (Rangers) each appeared in a MLB game last year.

Duvall was a member of the 2021 World Series Champion Atlanta Braves, marking the second straight season a former Cardinal has won a World Series, joining Will Smith of the Dodgers in 2020.

CARDS LEAD ALL PROGRAMS IN MLB DEBUTS SINCE 2014

Former Louisville Cardinals Corey Ray (2014-16), Drew Ellis (2015-17) and Reid Detmers (2018-20) all made the Major League Baseball debuts in 2021.

Louisville has now had 20 former players that have reached The Show since 2014. The Cardinals lead all college programs with the most former players reaching the majors during that time.

The list of Cardinals to debut since the start of the 2014 season features Chris Dominguez, Adam Duvall, Justin Marks, Tony Zych, Cody Ege, Chad Green, Dean Kiekhefer, Matt Koch, Adam Engel, Kyle McGrath, Josh Rogers, Nick Burdi, Brendan McKay, Will Smith, Nick Solak, Zack Burdi, Kyle Funkhouser, Ray, Ellis and Detmers.

JIM PATTERSON STADIUM

Since its opening in 2005, Jim Patterson Stadium has provided the University of Louisville baseball program with one of the great home field advantages in all of college baseball. With an initial seating capacity of 2,500 upon opening, the ballpark underwent an expansion project prior to the 2013 season increasing capacity to more than 4,000 and maintaining Jim Patterson Stadium as one of the elite facilities in the nation.

Spearheaded by the leadership gift of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Patterson, the privately funded expansion of Jim Patterson Stadium was a $4 million facility development plan which featured the addition of 1,500 chair back seats, a 6,400 sq. ft. terrace directly accessible above the chair back seats and a two-tiered ground level terrace extending from the first and third base dugouts. The project also included an expanded press box, which doubled the previous space used to facilitate media and hospitality, and a visiting team locker room behind the third base dugout.

The expansion doubled the number of chair back seats taking the total to 3,000 while the overall capacity of more than 4,000 places Jim Patterson Stadium among the Top 30 of university controlled collegiate ballparks in the nation. The increased seating enables Louisville to host NCAA Regional and Super Regional games without the additional expense of temporary bleacher rentals. Since opening, Jim Patterson Stadium has hosted eight NCAA Regionals (2009, 2010, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2019) and six NCAA Super Regionals (2007, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2019).

After starting construction in August of 2004, the University of Louisville unveiled Jim Patterson Stadium, located at the corner of Central Avenue and Third Street, on Friday, April 15, 2005, when the Cardinals battled East Carolina in front of a then-school record crowd of 3,213.

Along with the 3,000 chairback seats, Jim Patterson Stadium has a tiered, turf berm in left field. The press box features an expanded television suite, two radio booths, game operations booth, an expanded seating area for non-broadcast media, an AD suite and a development suite. The ballpark measures 330 feet down the lines, 375 to the power alleys and 402 to straightaway center. Prior to the 2015 season, the University of Louisville partnered with ANC Sports for the installation of a new LED video board in right-centerfield at Jim Patterson Stadium. The all-digital surface more than quadrupled the size of the previous video space and measures 36-feet wide and 23-feet tall.

The playing surface is FieldTurf, same as the Tampa Bay Rays' Tropicana Field, as well as Louisville's Papa John's Cardinal Stadium. The playing field was completely resurfaced in the summer of 2013 providing the Cardinals with one of the nation's best surfaces. The exterior of the ballpark has elements that mirror UofL's nearby football facility.

The adjacent building along the first base side of the ballpark houses the baseball offices, while the basement of the building features three pitching/batting cages, full club house facilities with a players' lounge, theatre style team-meeting room, weight room, equipment room, computer lab, training room and laundry facilities.

The first eight feet of the roof supports are constructed with green brick from the left field wall at historic Parkway Field, and infield dirt was taken from Parkway and placed in the batters box as a tribute to a facility that has seen the likes of Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig, Honus Wagner, Grover Cleveland Alexander, Satchel Paige, Pee Wee Reese and Jackie Robinson among others.

In January of 2007, crews converted the home plate area from dirt into a field turf surface complete with permanent batters boxes. The only dirt on the field is on the pitcher's mound. The 2008 off-season included a complete reconstruction of the left field berm, with terracing giving the fans a place for a lawn chair or blanket. Children of all ages can enjoy the playground beyond the fence in centerfield.

The Cardinals have won nearly 78 percent of their games at Jim Patterson Stadium since opening the gates during the 2005 season. Of the 14 NCAA postseason rounds contested at Jim Patterson Stadium, the Louisville baseball program has advanced through 11 of those, including sweeping the 2019 NCAA Regional and NCAA Super Regional to clinch the program's fifth College World Series appearance. In NCAA Championship games at Jim Patterson Stadium, the Cardinals have produced a 33-9 record overall.
